

THE PLAINS PRIDE

PLAINS, YOAKUM COUNTY, TEXAS

VOLUME 9, NUMBER 36 WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1993 30¢

LIGHT UP A LIFE FOR HOSPICE - Burve Overton, Hospice support volunteer, and Kim Martin, volunteer co-ordinator, place the first dove on the Hospice tree in Plains State Bank. Donations of $10 will place a dove on the tree in honor or memory of a loved one. Donations will be used to purchase medications, equipment and supplies for Hospice patients.

SANTA AT THE TREE LIGHTING - Katie and Clayton Oswald, children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oswald, talk with Santa at the annual Tree Lighting Ceremony held in Pioneer Plaza last Wednesday. Approximately 90 cans of food were brought by children to exchange for having a snapshot with Santa.

Hospice Auxiliary lights-up special Christmas tree

Yoakum County Hospice Auxiliary held their first annual "Light up a Life for Hospice" tree lighting ceremony recently at Plains State Bank.

A contribution of $10 will place a dove on the Hospice Tree. Doves are placed in honor or memory of someone whose name is enscribed on the dove. Donations are tax deductible and will be used to serve persons in Yoakum, Gaines and Lea Counties.

Hospice serves patients without any cost to the patient. These services are funded by the donations of the communities served.

Residents are invited to view the tree at Plains State Bank and make contributions to loved ones. Donations may be left at the bank or given to Dean Richardson.

Post Office to observe Open House

Residents of Plains are invited to attend Open House at Plains Post Office Wednesday, Dec. 15 from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. The occasion has been designated as Customer Appreciation Day.

Postmaster Norris Jones says, "We appreciate the people of Plains and we're inviting everyone to come to Open House."

RICHARD CLARK

Clark announces his candidacy for CDA post

Richard Clark, attorney at law in Denver City, has officially announced his plans to seek election to the position of Yoakum County Criminal District Attorney.

Clark has practiced law in Yoakum County 18 years, including 13 years in his own office in Denver City. He also served as County Attorney from 1977 to 1980.

"Yoakum County has been good to my family and myself and I feel I can give something back by serving as Criminal District Attorney," he says.

MRS. O.W. "RED" HARBOUR

Kitchen Korner

"I am a home body but I love my church, my family and my friends," says Jo (Mrs. O.W. "Red") Harbour.

Jo also finds lots of pleasure in sewing and working with crafts. She likes to decorate and re-arrange the furniture in her home and says cooking is a satisfying part of homemaking.

Born in Dora, Okla., she grew up on a farm and learned "farm things" although she never helped with plowing and planting. She attended high school near Maud, Okla. and played basketball from the eighth grade through high school.

Jo's first husband, Ellis Ashby, was killed in France during World War II, only two short years after their marriage. During those two years, Jo followed Ellis to his different assignments and worked as a waitress, in a laundry/dry cleaning establishment and for Wilson Packing Plant during their stay in Abilene. She also recalls their stay in Indio, CA and Trenton, NJ.

After Ellis' death, Jo moved to San Angelo and enrolled in business college. She attended classes half days and worked at a bank in San Angelo. She married Marshall Wendell Smith in 1946 in Coleman.

Jo and Marshall became parents of four children. Marsha Jo Langford lives in Abilene and is secretary for Belmont Baptist Church. Gail Irene Jennings is a bank teller in Wimberley. Brenda Elaine Thompson teaches in Denver City High School. Michael Wendell Smith is a designer for Zion Commercial Mercantile, Inc. in Salt Lake City, UT.

For a year, Jo operated a licensed day care in her home and then, "at age 46," went to beauty school. She worked as a beauty operator for more than seven years until they moved to Denver City. Marshall died of a massive heart attack in 1973.

Jo and Red met in July of 1977 and were married in December of that year. Her family increased with the addition of two dear step-children, Linda Kay Chapmond of Amarillo and David Michael Harbour of Lubbock.

Jo boasts eight grandsons, one granddaughter and five great-grandsons and in humor she says, "I've earned every wrinkle that I wear." Sharing three of her favorite recipes, they include baked fish, a one-of-a-kind chicken casserole and a gelatin salad.

BAKED FISH

Spray a baking dish with Pam cooking spray. Place haddock or blue hake fillets in dish and sprinkle with Molly McButter and Creole seasoning. Pour three or four tablespoons red wine vinegar over all and bake 15-20 minutes at 400 degrees. Serve alone or with wild or brown rice cooked in chicken broth.

JO'S CHICKEN CASSEROLE

Bake three or four chicken breasts. Take off skin and debone. Set aside. In large bowl, mix one can of cream of chicken soup, one can cream of celery soup, one cup milk, one tablespoon parsley, one-half teaspoon red pepper (or one tablespoon green chilies, but not both), 1 tablespoon garlic salt, 1 tablespoon onion flakes, one tablespoon chopped pimentos and black pepper to taste. Spray bottom of a deep casserole dish with Pam cooking spray - put in one flour tortilla, alternate with one layer of chicken, cover with the soup mixture, another flour tortilla, chicken and soup, until dish is filled, leaving room at top for bubbling. Cover and cook in 350-degree oven for 30 minutes. It will resemble the taste of chicken and dumplings.

PINEAPPLE BUTTERMILK SALAD

1 - 16 oz can of crushed pineapple, undrained
2 T sugar
1 - 6 oz pkg of orange sweetened gelatin
2 c buttermilk
1 - 8 oz whipped topping, thawed
1 c pecans

Combine sugar and pineapple in a sauce pan and bring to a boil, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat, stir in gelatin until dissolved. Cool. Add buttermilk and stir until combined. Fold in whipped topping, then pecans. Sprinkle top with pecan bits and chill.

New Arrivals

Kyle and Marka Stephens of Amarillo announce the arrival of a daughter born at 10:53 p.m. Nov. 23. The little miss weighed seven pounds four and a half ounces and measured 19 and three quarters inches long. She has been named Sierra Brook. Grandparents are Tina Vaughn and Lloyd Barlett, both of Amarillo, and Bo and Sheila Stephens. Great-grandparents are Louise Smith of Tahoka and Mark and Mary Lamkin and Irma Bartlett, all of Amarillo.

The Latin motto on our coins, E Pluribus Unum, means "out of many, one." It refers to the creation of the United States from the original 13 colonies.

Dirt Gardeners taking donations

Operation Christmas Card is underway again. Residents are invited to contribute funds to Plains Cemetery in lieu of mailing Christmas greetings to local friends and family.

Sponsored each year by Plains Dirt Gardeners, the project benefits go to the beautification and improvements of Plains Cemetery. Any member of the club will accept donations. Ita Young is project chairman.

"We are proud to have one of the best kept cemeteries anywhere and we want to keep that honor," says a club member, speaking on behalf of the gardeners. "Your donations will help make this possible."

Names of donors will be listed in a special Christmas greeting in the Christmas week edition of The Plains Pride.

KEEP WINTER OUTSIDE WHERE IT BELONGS.

Your home is your castle, as the saying goes. So you don't need uninvited guests, such as cold drafts and chilly breezes.

What can you do to keep your castle cozy?

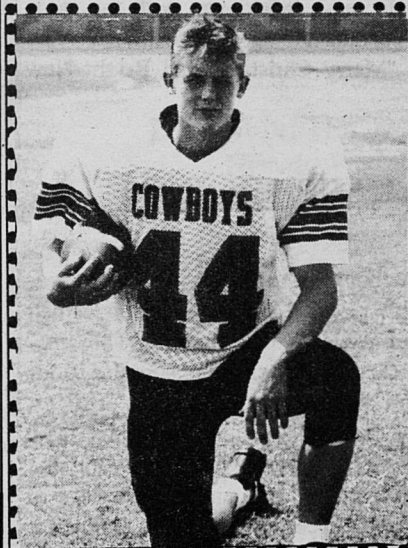

- Check windows and doors for air tightness. They may need caulking or weatherstripping.
- Look for air leaks through walls or ceilings. Seal cracks and holes; fill gaps in insulation; close damper when fireplace is not in use.
- Install storm windows. Combination screen and storm windows are the most energy efficient and convenient because they can be opened easily if there's no need to operate heating or cooling equipment.

Call us for more tips on protecting your home from drafts and cold. We'll help you keep the outside where it belongs.
