HOME TOWN Talk

By R. C. THOMAS

School's out . . . and so are the kids! Especially in these first few days following the closing of the school for the summer vacation, the kids will be testing their new freedom of action, and will be all over the place—in the regular playgrounds, on vacant lots, in the streets and alleys—all over. They'll not be paying much attention to where they are going, in all their eagerness to run, wrestle and ride. So it will be up to those of us who will be driving cars and trucks to pay more attention.

It should be a constant habit, this watching for kids in the streets, but it is even more important during times when they are out of school and looking for something to do. A good habit to accommodate is that of telling ourselves that there is a kid behind every parked car we see on the street; that there will be a kid run across the street at every corner and in between, while we are driving. If we acquire that habit, and drive as carefully as possible, perhaps all the kids who were let out of school this week will get to go back next September!

It would also be a good idea that all of us as parents spend just a bit more time in explaining to the kids that they must be very careful on the streets, walking or riding bicycles. They are seen many times riding bicycles up the streets in groups which is a very dangerous way to have fun. A driver can never tell which kid is going in which direction, when he meets such a group. So parents have a double responsibility.

"They" have done it again! While most of us were sitting on the sidelines watching (or perhaps even ignoring), something which needed to be done was being done . . . by "They!"

It has been long known that something should be done about providing better hospital facilities for the residents of North Runnels County; there has been a lot of talk, but very little action. Most of us agreed that there was a great need, but we made little effort to do anything about it. We were either too busy, or too lazy, or we just didn't want to get involved. The problem would be taken care of somehow . . . hadn't other problems been resolved in the past?

Then "They," who had probably been busy on other projects, finally had the time to accept even another responsibility, and things started getting done—as usual. But this is the way it is done—a small minority of people work to get something done, while most of the rest of us just sit and watch. . . but are always eager to sit in the lap of luxury provided by the minority.

The work isn't completed, yet. There is a lot more to be done before a hospital district becomes a reality—but the first agonizing steps have been taken. Most of all of us want it, but mostly we give lip service; others have been doing the leg work. So it is proper that those who have been doing the work receive at least a little recognition.

First, a three-man committee was appointed to get the ball rolling—theirs was the toughest job of all. They had to chase down a lot of information, compile it, and prepare it for presentation to the State legislature. They spent some long hours on these preliminaries, and made some trips out of town—all on their own time and at their own expense. They tied up everything in a neat bundle and handed it to our representatives. Members of this committee were Nolan Bahlman, T. A. Smith and Ted Meyer. They were assisted by several unknown persons.

Came time for the hearings in Austin, others stepped in to give evidence of the need for the district in this area. A large group drove to Austin to meet with the legislators to present

School Board Contracts Ag Annex Construction

The board of trustees of the Winters Independent School District Friday approved letting of a contract for construction of a new building to be used by the Vocational Agriculture Department.

Paul Bownine Construction Co. of Abilene submitted the bid accepted by the school board, and will construct a Mes-Tex steel building of the Kirby Building System, on the site of the old frame building which has housed the ag department for many years.

The new building will be 70X-70—4900 square feet—, with 2400 square feet for shop space, two classrooms, office, storerooms, and two rest rooms. Outside walls and roof will be of steel, with 10-foot partitions of Hadite block. Floor and foundation will be concrete, with asphalt tile in the office, classrooms, and rest rooms.

Cost of the building will be $27,522.53, which will be paid out of reserve funds which have been budgeted, and will involve no bond action, Carroll Tatom, superintendent of schools, said.

The old building has been purchased by David Carroll, who will move part of it intact and dismantle the rest, by June 1. The site then will be leveled and prepared for the new building. Contract calls for construction to begin June 16, with 10 weeks to completion. August 25 is the completion date.

City Budget Hearing Set For June 2nd

Gas Loss Threat Averted By Quick Work, Cooperation

Winters' natural gas supply was threatened recently, but quick work by Lone Star Gas Company personnel and full cooperation by local gas customers prevented a gas outage.

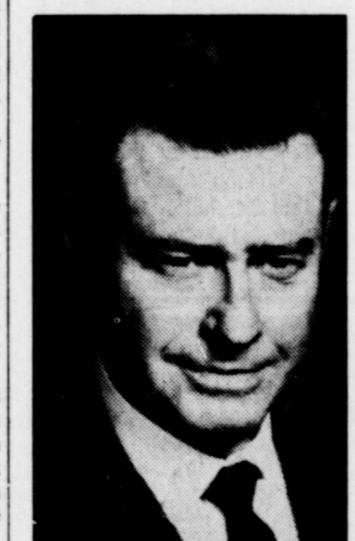

Gas pressure in the city's distribution system began dropping at 7 a. m. and fell from a normal 12 pounds to less than 2 pounds when flood waters damaged a four-inch high pressure gas transmission line at a point two miles south of the city's measuring station located at the eastern limits of the city.

J. M. Wharton, Lone Star's distribution manager at Winters, said the damaged line continued to supply gas but that it was necessary to ask major gas users to temporarily halt their gas use to protect the supply to residential customers. Wharton also went on radio to ask residential customers to reduce gas use during the emergency.

"As soon as local gas consumption was curtailed, the pressure in the system began to rise," Wharton said. "At this point we were confident that an outage could be averted."

Lone Star diverted transmission pipeline crews from Abilene, Ballinger and Stamford to assist local personnel in handling the situation. Emergency propane-air equipment was called to the scene to supplement gas from the damaged line, but was not needed.

Repairs to the line were completed and full customer services restored by 8 p. m.

C-C Members Hear Committee Report During Luncheon

Members of the Winters Chamber of Commerce attending the regular Third Monday Luncheon Monday at Huffman House heard a report from the Government affairs committee of the Chamber, in the first of a series of such reports planned by President Woodrow Watts.

Watts said heads of the several committees will be asked to report on their work in subsequent meetings, and called on all members to work with assigned committees to promote the work of the Chamber of Commerce.

J. W. Bahlman, chairman of the Government Affairs committee, reported that his committee had been in contact with the Congressman from this area and also with the two U. S. Senators, regarding possible sites for the proposed Anti-Ballistic Missile stations. The Abilene and Big Country area has been selected as a possible location for an ABM complex, he said, and his committee invited the representatives to study the advantages of locating in the Winters area.

Bahlman said that Senators John Tower and Ralph Yarborough, and Congressman Omar Burleson were reminded that the people of this section of the nation, contrasting the reported reaction to ABM in many other sections, were interested in our national defense, and would offer every cooperation necessary for the establishment of such ABM bases.

The Government affairs committee chairman also said his committee had extended thanks to Gov. Preston Smith, Lt. Governor Ben Barnes, State Senator David Ratliff and Representative Lynn Nabers for their efforts in the recent passage of HB 145, which authorizes the citizens of North Runnels County to form a hospital district.

He also reported on the recent luncheon hosted by his committee at which all elected officials of Runnels County were guests.

Other members of the Government Affairs committee of the Chamber of Commerce are W. G. Bedford, Preston Barker, John W. Norman, Ray Hollingshead and C. R. Kendrick.

STATE Capital NEWS

By VERN SANFORD

Austin, Texas — Senate filibusters against new college bills take up much of the remaining days of the legislative session due to close June 2.

A proposal to create a medical school at Texas Technological College in Lubbock brought prolonged oratory from Sen. Joe Christie of El Paso who wanted the school in his home town.

Sen. Don Kennard of Fort Worth warmed up on the Tech bill for an extended effort to delay approval of a University of Texas at Dallas on property of the Southwest Center for Advanced Studies.

Senate State Affairs Committee voted out other bills to set up upper level (junior-senior-graduate studies) colleges at Midland-Odessa, Corpus Christi and Texarkana and an additional University of Texas dental branch.

State Affairs Chairman Sen. Williams T. Moore of Bryan emphasized he is opposed to all of the bills and intends to make his views known on the floor. Moore postponed action on any of the group over the weekend by leaving town with the bills locked in a vault—and unreported to the senate floor.

Meanwhile, a House-Senate conference committee coached by Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes and House Speaker Gus Mutscher plowed slowly through the job of writing a one-year budget bill that will necessitate no new taxes.

Gov. Preston Smith spelled out his opposition to such a short-term approach to state governmental budgeting as more costly in the long run as evidenced by recent experience with the one-year plan and emphasized he interprets the Texas constitution to require a biennial appropriations pattern.

By trimming proposed spending and switching some unused surplus in several state funds, a conference committee headed by Sen. A. M. Aikin, Jr., of Paris and Rep. W. S. Heatly of Paducah believes it can provide the teacher pay raise requested by the Texas State Teachers' Association without new taxes.

Smith feels that the state's dollars simply cannot be stretched that far. Barnes thinks they can cover the basic needs of higher education, state hospitals and special schools and state agencies, and still leave $61.9 million for the first year of the teacher pay raise.

Smith said there was a movement afoot to kill the $15,000,000-a-year general fund allocation to farm-to-market roads.

Legislature Nears WINDUP

With adjournment deadline closing in, legislators are getting day and night workouts on literally hundreds of bills.

House finally completed action on a watered-down $1.25-an-hour minimum wage bill. Amendments sent it back to the Senate. House earlier approved creation of a dental school for San Antonio, new regulation of coin-operated amusement machines, law banning possession of LSD and other hallucinogenic drugs, higher service charges on large real estate loans, a new upper-level college at Laredo, strengthened rules for transporting migrant workers, elimination of the requirement that jurors be free-holders or house-holders and county civil service systems for major counties.

Senate, not so productive due to filibusters, passed three bills to remove legal obstacles to heart and other organ transplants, agreed to creation of a new medical school in Houston and another in an unnamed city, approved a broadened tuition-aid plan for needy students, and proposed submission of a constitutional amendment to abolish the welfare spending ceiling in 1970 (in event the August 5 vote fails).

Both houses completed action on bills to expand the program of special education for exceptional children between the ages of 3 and 21, make universities of Stephen F. Austin (Nacogdoches), Southwest Texas (San Marcos), Angelo State (San Angelo), and Sul Ross (Alpine) State Colleges, permit use of Spanish in teaching in the first six grades of public schools by repealing the prohibition against use of a foreign language in public classrooms, create a board to license private detectives, set legislative salaries at $6,800 a year (if the voters approve a constitutional amendment at the special election Aug. 5 to permit the increase from the present $4,800 a year), allow courts to issue driver licenses to persons who drive for a living but have lost their licenses for traffic law infractions (to be used on-the-job only and not for private driving), create the University of Texas Clinical Nursing School at San Antonio,

Barnes said the Senate conferees would not propose taking that program away.

Governor declined to say he will veto the one-year bill. "Several alternatives will be open to the governor," said Smith. "It would not be proper or possible for me to choose one at this time, because I do not know what the circumstances will be."

Mary Martha Circle United Methodist Church Met Tuesday

Mrs. Clarence Ledbetter was hostess Tuesday morning in her home at Bradshaw for the regular meeting of the Mary Martha Circle of the United Methodist Church WSCS.

Mrs. H. O. Abbott, circle chairman, presided for the meeting.

The opening prayer was given by Mrs. W. W. Parramore and the devotional on "What Do We Do When Things Go Wrong?" by Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, was presented by Mrs. W. T. Stanley.

"Who is a Missionary and What is a Missionary" was the topic of the program led by Mrs. August McWilliams. Others on the program were Mesdames H. O. Abbott, Gattis Neely, Thad Traylor, J. P. Dry and Vada Babston.

The closing prayer was the Lord's Prayer in unison.

Others attending the meeting were Mrs. D. A. Dobbins, Mrs. Glenn Bowman, and the hostess.

Charity Circle Met In Church Parlor Recently

Charity Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First United Methodist Church met in the church recently with Mrs. A. M. Nelson as hostess.

Mrs. Frank Mitchell, circle chairman, presided and gave the 23rd Psalm as the opening prayer.

Miss Frances Stricklin gave the meditation, and Mrs. Eva Kelly introduced the program, "Days of Discovery." Others taking part on the program were Mesdames Frank Mitchell, John Schaffrina, Pearl Whitham, W. T. Nichols, Elmo Mayhew, and Kelly.

The group gave the benediction in unison, and refreshments were served to Mesdames Eva Kelly, Susie Baker, John Schaffrina, Lillie Marks, Edith Drake, Elmo Mayhew, Pearl Whitham, Willie Lois Nichols, Miss Frances Stricklin and the hostess, Mrs. A. M. Nelson.

make public agencies liable to persons injured by mistakes of public employees while driving motor vehicles or operating motor-driven equipment, and regulate practice of optometry.

OMNIBUS COURTS BILL

Rep. Renal Rosson, chairman of the House Judicial Districts Committee, says Sen. Murray Watson's bill which combines all requests for new courts and court reorganization will get to the floor of the House before adjournment. Says Rosson, "a subcommittee needs to work on the bill, but it will probably be out of committee next week."

Senator Watson's bill will reorganize the 71st, 124th, 33rd, 35th, 38th, Second 38th, 63rd, 119th, 49th and the 79th Judicial Districts and create the 229th, 236th, 232nd, 159th, 158th, 240th, 244th, 243rd, 242nd, 241st, 239th, 237th, 238th 149th 168th 230th 228th, 227th, 226th, 225th, 194th, 181st and the 192nd Judicial Districts. It also creates or reorganizes the 168th District Court and the 237th District Court and the Court of Domestic Relations for Midland County.

COURTS SPEAK

Finding no reversible error in the Court of Civil Appeals, State Supreme Court upheld the annexation by Pasadena of 576 acres on the Houston ship channel. Annexed farm land of Houston Endowment Inc. is surrounded by unannexed oil company holdings and the foundation contended unequal taxation would result.

High court stuck with its decision upholding forfeiture of 5,000 acres of sulphur leases by Cobra Oil and Gas Corporation in Culberson, Pecos and Reeves counties.

A Lubbock prosecutor argued for Supreme Court reversal of the decision that juveniles charged with offenses have the same right as adults to be proven guilty "beyond a reasonable doubt."

OIL ALLOWABLE JUMPED

June oil allowable was boosted by Texas Railroad Commission to 63.5 per cent of potential, highest since 1948 when an all-out effort was made to replenish war-depleted stocks.

Allotment tops periods when foreign imports were shut off due to international crises.

Estimated top allowable is 4,187,252, slightly more than the record 4,186,004 of August, 1967, when the Arab-Israeli war flared. But actual production next month probably will be less than that of August, 1967, when a 54 percent factor was in effect. Production figure for June is estimated at 3,258,184, compared with 3,314,000 during the Arab-Israeli crisis.

Maximum allowable for May, under 53.8 percent formula, is 3,710,926. Actual production will be about 3,089,660.

Commission Chairman Ben Ramsey said crude stocks are 6.3 million barrels less than a year ago.

LEASES BRING $3.5 MILLION

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler reports bids of more than $3.5 million were received from mineral leases on far West Texas lands of University of Texas. Total brought the University fund to $528,049,139.

Lease sale covered 78,000 acres. Actual acreage leased during the auction totaled 66,123, with an average bonus of $53 per acre. Total of 251 tracts were offered and all but 44 were leased. Tracts were in 11 counties—Gaines, Andrews, Ward, Winkler, Loving, Pecos, Terrell, Regan, Upton, Crockett and Hudspeth.

Following University lands lease sale, an additional tract of 30,972 acres in Cotton Estate land in Hudspeth and Culberson counties was offered at auction but no bids were received on it.

Earl Palmer gave a talk on the Heart Association.

Junior-Senior Banquet-Prom Saturday Night

The annual Junior-Senior Banquet was held in the school cafeteria Saturday night. This year's affair was a banquet-prom, with The Blue Max, an instrumental combo from Cooper High School, Abilene, providing music.

Theme of the banquet-prom was "Alice in Wonderland."

Bill Baldwin, a junior student, was master of ceremonies, and Randall Sneed gave the welcome. Response for the Junior Class was by Charles Mathis, class president. Senior Bubs Tatum read the Class Will, and Becky Mathis read the class prophecy.

Tommy Jones pronounced the invocation.

This was the second of a series of three immunization doses; the first was given several weeks ago, the last of the series will be given in March, 1970.

The vaccine was administered at the school Friday and Monday, with 213 students getting the immunization. On Sunday, 75 adults and pre-school children received the vaccine.

Lutherans Are Collecting Clothes For Needy

Church World Service has issued an appeal for clothing and blankets for needy persons in 30 countries overseas. Lightweight clothing of all types and blankets are especially needed for refugees and disaster victims.

Clothing should be clean and have at least six months wear use remaining. It is also requested that persons bringing clothing or blankets also contribute 10 cents per pound to cover costs of export packing, insurance, port charges, and other essential expenses.

Clothes should be taken to St. John Lutheran Church, the pick-up depot, on or before June 5. They will be boxed, tied and weighed.

Clothing is distributed overseas by Church World Service through church related agencies. Much of it is sent to refugees and other displaced persons in Africa, the Near East, India, and Vietnam. Each year, Church World Service provides emergency aid to victims of hurricanes, floods, cyclones, earthquakes, and similar natural disasters. On the average, persons in some 20 disaster areas are given aid by CWS each year.

The large Church World Service trailer-truck is scheduled to arrive in Winters on June 9 to take collected items to the Church World Service in Houston, where they will be sorted, processed, and baled for overseas shipment.

For further information regarding the local collection of clothing, telephone 734-5175 or 734-5174.

Sammy Graham, Former Resident, To Annapolis

Sammy Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Graham of Andrews and formerly of Winters, has received confirmation that he has been appointed by George Mahon to attend U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis. He will report to Annapolis on June 30.

Graham moved to Andrews from Winters with his parents and sister in January 1968. He is a member of the National Honor Society, senior representative on the student council and served as one of four varsity track captains this season.

Sammy lived in Winters 16 and one half years, attending school here through the first semester of his junior year. He began working toward his appointment to the Naval Academy in 1965. He gave much credit to Mrs. Lee Harrison, student counselor at Winters High School, and to Cong. Omar Burleson, who continued working on his appointment after Sammy moved from Burleson's district.

Sammy also was given the nomination to West Point, U. S. Military Academy, received the "Honors Program Scholarship" from East Texas State University, and the ACT scholarship. He will be majoring in aeronautical engineering at the Academy.

He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Smith of Tuscola, and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Nix of Clyde.

Grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baker Navy School Award

Joe Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker of Wharton, and a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baker of Winters, has won a scholarship recently to the U. S. Naval Academy Prep School and is expected to leave around June 15 for boot camp.

For the past three weeks Baker has been taking tests in Houston and making plans to leave for school. He made the highest grade they have ever recorded on one series of tests.

At the Eighth Annual ElCampe Regional Science Fair, Baker won the Air Force Award for Physics.

He was one of the six members of the Wharton Chapter Future Farmers of America who were passed by the Area III F.F.A. Convention for the Lone Star Farmer degrees on May 10 and 11.

The six boys will go to the State checking committee this summer and if passed will be awarded their Lone Star Farmer degrees at the State Convention in July.

This is the highest degree that the Texas Association of Future Farmers of America can award a boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker plan to attend the commencement exercises in Wharton this week end.

If I were a medical man, I would prescribe a holiday to any patient who considers his work important.

Mrs. Juanita O'Connor's Weekly Home Demonstration Agent's Column

Beet Varieties:

How old is the beet? Beets grown for their leaves, such as Swiss Chard, have been known in Europe since any record of food plants have existed, says Mrs. O'Connor. However, the type that produces the large, fleshy edible roots were unknown before the Christian era. Beets are believed to have originated in the Mediterranean area and spread eastward. Apparently the root of the wild beet was used only for medicinal purposes during ancient times.

First recipes for cooking the edible roots appeared in the writings of Roman Epicures in the second and third centuries. No further mention was made of beet roots until some English recipes turned up in the 14th century.

The red beet, with a turnip-like root, was first described as a food plant in Germany in 1558. It was still a rarity at that time in northern Europe.

Although only one variety of beet was listed in the United States in 1806, their popularity has spread ever since. Production has increased, too. In fact, USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service reports a plentiful supply of canned beets, now.

Rise in Food Costs:

You're right when you say you pay more for groceries today than you did eight or nine years ago. Costs at the grocery store for U. S. farm foods have risen 14 per cent during the 1960's with the largest share of the upswing since 1964, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The Consumer Price Index has increased 20.4 per cent during the same period. This U. S.

Department of Agriculture report summarizes recent trends in farm and retail costs, marketing costs and the relationship between what people earn and what they pay for food.

The standard used to measure changing costs, called the Market Basket, is a fixed amount of food produced on U. S. farms that is bought by an average household in a year. This gauge shows food costs rose at an annual average of 0.6 percent between 1957-59 and 1964. The increase averaged 2.1-2.2 per cent every year between 1964 and 1968.

On the other hand, food costs did not increase as fast as the wages of food buyers. Percentage of income spent by average Americans for food declined from 20.7 per cent in 1957 to 17.4 per cent in 1967.

Farmers received 39 cents out of the food dollar in 1968—an increase of 1 cent over 1967. The farmer's share, arranged by food groups, varied from 19 cents out of a dollar for bakery and cereal products to 55 cents for poultry and eggs.

Single copies of "Food Cost: Retail, Farm, Marketing," MP-1133, are available on postcard request from the Office of Information, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. 20250. Please include your zip code.

Wise shoppers can reduce food costs by following the monthly plentiful foods list issued by USDA's Consumer & Marketing Service. This list reports foods which are in especially big supply, and which the trade expects problems in marketing.

These foods usually are attractively priced and offer a wide selection for quality. The May plentiful foods list includes Maine sardines, turkeys, canned beets, onions, canned and frozen green beans, canned and frozen sweet corn, and canned tomatoes and tomato products.

★ MOVIES ★

"The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter"

Carson McCullers' celebrated novel "The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter" is now a major motion picture. The Technicolor film, which stars Alan Arkin and introduces 21-year-old Sondra Locke, shows Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the State Theatre.

"The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter" tells the poignant tale of a deaf-mute who brings warmth into the lives of lonely people in a small town. As the deaf-mute, Alan Arkin adds another role to his distinguished motion picture career. He won an Academy Award nomination for his first picture, "The Russians Are Coming," and added to his laurels with his multiple role performance in the film version of "Wait Until Dark."

Playing opposite Arkin in "The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter" is a new-comer to the screen, Sondra Locke, who makes her debut as a professional actress in this film. Sondra, a native of Shelbyville, Tennessee, was the winner of a six-state search for a girl to play the key role of Mick Kelly.

HORSES RUN LOWLY

Rep. Glenn Kothmann of San Antonio did not even come close in his effort to submit to the voters a proposal for local-option horse race betting.

And the funeral oration of the Kothmann resolution was delivered and preached by Rep. David Allred of Wichita Falls. Thirty-three years ago his father, Gov. James V. Allred, kept calling the Legislature into special sessions until horse-race betting was repealed. So this week's fight by Representative Allred was a rerun of history.

Literary, Service Club Closes 50th Year With Dinner

Fiftieth anniversary year of the Literary and Service Club was concluded with a dinner at the Huffman House Thursday evening May 15. Mrs. J. S. Tierce presided for brief business session previous to the meal.

Mrs. Audra L. Mitchell was voted into membership of the club. Mrs. Tierce thanked the members for their support in making this one of the best of the club history. Mrs. M. G. Middlebrook presented a silver vegetable dish to Mrs. Tierce, the retiring president.

A beautiful floral arrangement, made by Mrs. Floyd Sims, centered the table. The course of study for the year has been "A World In Action" and the floral arrangement uniquely suggested the Apollo 10 flight, typical of the theme for the year. Place cards and programs also were in keeping with the theme.

Mrs. T. H. Worthington was leader for this last program. She introduced Mrs. Loyd Roberson who installed the new officers. Her theme was the GFWC Insignia. She used a poster showing the parts of the Insignia and applied each part to the elected officers.

Following the installation ceremony, Mrs. Carroll Tatom, the newly elected president made her acceptance speech and introduced the new officers. Mrs. Glenn Bowman, vice president, presented the theme for the course of study "Accent-Awareness" which was accepted.

Other officers are Mrs. H. M. Nichols, recording secretary; Mrs. Charles Kruse, corresponding secretary; Mrs. T. H. Worthington, treasurer. Mrs. Tatom read the names of appointed officers and standing committee chairman. She concluded by reading an appropriate poem "Awareness."

Those present were Mrs. Walter Spill, Miss Estella Bredemeyer, a guest, Mrs. Audra L. Mitchell, the new member, Mesdames Earl Dorsett, Doyle Newcomb, Marshall Wharton, Jake Smith, Elo Michaels, E. E. Prewitt, Glenn Bowman, T. H. Worthington, Charles Kruse, Max Lewis, M. G. Middlebrook, Floyd Sims, J. S. Tierce, Loyd Roberson, Carroll Tatom and Sallie Gray.

$172,000 Monthly To Beneficiaries In Runnels County

A record $172,000 in monthly social security benefits was being paid to residents of Runnels County at the end of December, 1968, according to Ted F. Moellering, district manager for social security.

"Throughout the country monthly benefits payable at the end of 1968 amounted to nearly $2.1 billion, some $350 million higher than at the end of 1967," Moellering said. "Approximately three-quarters of the increased monthly amount resulted from higher benefit rates authorized by the 1967 Amendments to the Social Security Act. The remainder of the increase was simply due to a greater number of beneficiaries."

By the end of May, 1969, social security will be paying monthly benefits to more than 25 million people—one out of every eight Americans. Although retired workers comprise the largest group of beneficiaries, almost one-fourth of all people receiving benefits are under 60. There are currently more than 3.8 million children and 5 million young widowed mothers receiving payments. Yet the public continues to think of social security as a program for old people.

In Runnels County, 371 people under 60 are receiving benefits. That figure breaks down into 194 under 18, 47 from 18 to 21 and 130 from 22 to 59.

Many students would have been unable to continue their educations, were it not for the 1965 Amendments to the Social Security Act which extended survivors and dependents insurance benefits to students until their 22nd birthday, Moellering said. In 1968, that provision resulted in continuing benefits for 470,000 students.

Monthly payments to the family of a worker who dies leaving a widow and two or more children range from $82.50 to $434.40 a month, depending on the worker's average earnings under social security, Moellering said. Payments to the young family of a worker who dies at an early age could total as much as $85,000 to $100,000.

Moellering also pointed out that by the end of 1968, approximately 90 percent of American 65 and over were either receiving cash benefits or would have been eligible for such benefits if they or their spouses had not been working.

In terms of Medicare, almost all people in the country 65 or over are eligible for hospital insurance benefits. Likewise, 95 percent of all older persons in the country have elected coverage under the voluntary supplementary medical insurance plan which pays physician fees, Moellering concluded.

Freedom is a precious thing today. Those who have it cherish it; those who fear it, want to destroy it; and those who don't have it will still fight for it.

Horse Show Will Benefit Rehab Center, Abilene

The dates of June 7 and 8 have been set for the annual Abilene Horse Show for Crippled Children sponsored by the West Texas Rehabilitation Center.

More than 500 horses from Texas and several surrounding states will compete for the 55 sterling silver pitchers, 12 silver trays and a host of ribbons which will go to the top winners in the Appaloosa, Quarterhorse and Paint Horse shows, and in the Youth Activity.

And, to top it all off, the high point Quarter Horse will take home the $500, silver-laced Luskey Roper saddle donated by Gary Luskey of Luskey's Western Wear in Abilene.

Superintendent for the second straight year will be Harry Holt, veteran area farm and ranch newsman, while the show secretary will again be Clarence Tucker. Both men live in Abilene.

A trophy will be given to the winner of each halter class, with six ribbons given in each halter class, Holt said. Trophies will also go to all grand champions with rosettes to reserve champs.

The Quarter Horse Show is approved by the American Quarter Horse Association. Only AQHA rules shall prevail in the Quarter Horse classes.

Registration papers or photographs must be presented on all horses before they will be allowed to show, it was announced.

YOUR REPRESENTATIVE IN AUSTIN

By REPRESENTATIVE LYNN NABERS

On August 5th the people of Texas will be asked to vote on 9 Constitutional Amendments. One of the proposed changes will be Annual Legislative Sessions.

With the ratification of the Constitution of 1876, Texas took leave of annual sessions of the Legislature, an institution which had first been observed under the Republic and subsequently under the Constitution of 1869. Perhaps in those days biennial sessions were a wise choice, but the Texas of 1876 bears little resemblance to the Texas of 1969.

In 1876 the population of the entire State was less than that of Harris County today. State government was small, operation at a level of one million dollars per year. The entrance of State government into the field of water development, pollution control, recreation, welfare, industrial development, tourism promotion and such programs were still beyond the conception of our policy makers. Federal grant-in-aid programs had just been conceived.

Today, Texas' population is well beyond the 10 million mark. Transportation and communication ties with our sister states are numerous, sophisticated and fast. Texas State government is not only large today but complicated, spending well in excess of Two Billion Dollars each year. And, Texas participates in more than 100 Federal grant-in-aid programs that benefit from yearly supervision.

If State government is to preserve its position as the keystone of real Democracy it must prepare itself to act, and to react at a pace comparable to the pace at which our society is changing. The business of the people in the State of Texas in the 20th Century cannot be carried on economically or efficiently during only part of one year out of every two.

Another Constitutional Amendment to be considered will be the proposed Pay Raise for Legislators, the Lieutenant Governor and House Speaker.

I feel that the publicity this Amendment has received lately has only tended to confuse the facts and issues behind the proposal.

Some of the facts to be considered are the following: Texas lawmakers have not had a pay raise in over ten years. They are among the lowest paid public officials in the State, yet their actions affect the lives of people within the State as much or more than any other elected official.

The Constitution states that the Per Diem Allowance paid to legislators shall be for 120 days of the Regular Session. However, since 1941 the Texas Legislature has never failed to stay in session less than the allotted 140 days. This means that the legislators must stay in Austin at their own expense for almost the entire final month of the Regular Sessions.

It is almost generally agreed throughout the State that Texas, like most other states, needs annual sessions to keep up with the changing pace of today's world. However, if the Annual Sessions Amendment passes and the Legislative Pay Raise fails many well qualified legislators will be faced with forced retirement because they will be unable to meet the financial strain that would be placed on them.

Presently the Legislature has passed a bill that will take effect ONLY if the Constitutional Amendment concerning the pay raise passes. Under this bill legislators will receive $8,800 yearly. This pay hike will still leave the lawmakers salaries in the lower percentage of State salaries but it will compensate somewhat if their work, time and responsibilities are doubled by annual sessions.

Two Winters Boys Wounded By Blast From 410 Shotgun

Two Winters boys were wounded Wednesday night of last week in a shooting accident, one of them serious enough to be hospitalized.

Lance Bradford, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Bradford Jr., was admitted to Hendrick Memorial Hospital, Abilene, suffering from multiple wounds to the back of the head and neck.

Buddy Weems, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Weems, was treated for injuries to the arm and leg at Winters Municipal Hospital and released.

According to Chief of Police Joe Stevens, the youths, fifth and sixth grade students at Winters Elementary School, were in front of the Weems home at 506 North Melwood when a shotgun was discharged and wounded them.

The gun, a 410 shotgun, was being handled by Micky Balkum, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Balkum, who was preparing to leave with two friends on an overnight camping and fishing trip, according to reports.

The accident occurred about 8 p. m. Wednesday. Bradford was taken to Hendrick Hospital by Spill Funeral Home ambulance. He was released from the hospital and returned home the first of this week.

Moderation is the key of lasting enjoyment.

W. Bahlman, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hays, Tab Hatler, Gayland Robinson, Ladell Davis, Johnny Dry, Kirby Robinson. . . there may have been others.

The rest of us owe them a little something for doing our jobs for us. The next time they come around, let's give them a little boost, huh?
