DERAILED TRAIN CLEARED AWAY... Railroad workmen, using heavy equipment, continued cleanup operations late in the week following the derailment of 18 railroad cars near Amherst Wednesday morning. Although tank cars split, releasing thousands of gallons of ethyl alcohol, no one was injured in the crash, which caused traffic to be rerouted the rest of the week. Here, one of the damaged tank cars is being moved as the cleanup work continues.

Muleshoe Schools Plan Open House' This Week

★★ Local Ministers Receive Honors

What is expected of a minister? This question was partially answered by David Hamblin who introduced several local and area ministers during a breakfast Thursday morning. A minister is expected to have education well beyond what the community itself has; to perform marriages; conduct funerals and always use the proper words of sympathy for the family; to be on call in the middle of the night and on Sunday; to be ready and willing to work seven days a week; to be a marriage counselor; to be a psychiatrist; a teacher; a philosopher; his personal and moral conduct has to be super-human and finally to be the conscience of a community.

And what is a minister's reward? Hamblin also answered that question. He said a minister's award is that they are not expected to be paid enough; nor are they expected to want more; they are given constant criticism; they have churches which are divided by conflict and turmoil and are not given enough recognition in the community.

Volleyball Tourney Set At Lazbuddie

Lazbuddie High School has scheduled a volleyball tournament for March 21-26 in the Lazbuddie School gym. The double elimination tournament has an entry fee of $10 per team, with entry deadline set for Friday, March 11.

Teams are limited to 25 student players and 50 adult players. Both men and women's teams will be playing during the tournament.

Science, History Fair Set For Junior High

Muleshoe Schools will join 1,100 school districts in the State of Texas this week to help celebrate Texas Public School Week, according to an announcement by Neal B. Dillman, Muleshoe School superintendent.

Public School Week has been designated as March 7-11, and the four Muleshoe Public Schools will hold open house to help celebrate the 137th Anniversary of Public Schools in Texas.

"On Monday, March 7, Richland Hills Primary School will host open house from 6:30-8:30 p.m.," Milton Oyler, principal commented. Bill Taylor Jr., principal of Mary DeShazo Elementary School, welcomes all parents to attend open house on Monday, March 7 from 7-9 p.m.

Tuesday, March 8 from 8-9 p.m., the Muleshoe High School and Muleshoe Junior High will host open house on both campuses.

Fred Mardis, principal of Muleshoe Junior High, announces that the History Fair will be in the Muleshoe Cafeteria and the Science Fair will be in the science classrooms. Wayland Ethridge, High School principal, invites parents to visit with teachers during these hours.

"All interested citizens are invited to attend schools during this special week," added Superintendent Dillman.

The Texas State Teachers Association is joining with the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, and other organizations in urging teachers, students, and the general public to participate in the 27th annual observance of Texas Public Schools Week, and help celebrate the Texas Public School system, which reached its 137th birthday on January 31 of this year.

TSTA President Grace Grimes of Marshall has called on local associations and members to participate as fully as possible in the statewide observance in the special week.

The Texas Legislature recently passed a resolution urging citizens to participate in all local observances of the special week, as did the State Board of Education.

In most of the 1,100 public school districts in the state, the first full calendar week in March is set aside each year to give Texas citizens a special invitation to visit their schools.

Blood Drive Here Monday For Mona Lewis

A "Mona Lewis" blood drive is scheduled here Monday, March 7, in Muleshoe from 5 to 7 p.m. Charles Bratcher, who is coordinating the blood drive in conjunction with Blood Services of Lubbock, said the Bloodmobile will be at the Trinity Baptist Church fellowship hall to accept donations.

The special blood drive is to assure a steady supply of blood for Mrs. Ronald (Mona) Lewis, who is presently a patient at Morton Cancer Research Center in Dallas.

Mrs. Lewis is the former Mona Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell, and sister of Mrs. Gordon Wilson and Mrs. Norman Head. She is the daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lewis.

Mrs. Lewis, who has been a patient at the Cancer Research Center for the past two weeks, is expected to be in the hospital for approximately six weeks. She used 30 pints of blood last week, and has also received transfusions of white blood cells. Mrs. Lewis is a victim of leukemia and is in intensive treatment at this time.

Her address in Dallas is Morton Cancer Research Center, 9000 Harry Hines Blvd., Dallas, Texas. She is in room 306.

Blood given by donation is not given without charge to recipients, explained Bratcher. A charge is made to the patient for processing and handling the blood. Blood given by donation to the Bloodmobile will not be given Mrs. Lewis without charge but will assure a steady supply for her as she is hospitalized and receiving treatment.

The Lewis' live at Gurthrie, where Lewis is employed by the 6666 ranch and Mrs. Lewis has been employed with the Guthrie School system.

Girl Scouts Slate 65th Anniversary

Members of the Muleshoe Girl Scouts and Brownies are joining with some 6,000 girls and their adult leaders in the Caprock Girl Scout Council to observe their 65th Anniversary this week. Girl Scout week has been proclaimed as March 6-12 and Muleshoe Mayor Ken Henry signed a proclamation designating the special week.

"Whereas, since its founding with only 18 girls in 1912, more than 38 million girls and women have had the experience of being Girl Scouts at some time in their lives; and

"Whereas these girls and women have gone on to become responsible citizens and leaders in their homes and communities; and

"Whereas we in Muleshoe have, throughout the years, benefited from the contributions present and former Girl Scouts have made to the lives of our community..."

Mayor Henry called for continued support from all local Girl Scouts with interest, enthusiasm and cooperation to that increasing numbers of girls may benefit from the Girl Scout program that benefits everybody.

Unique as a voluntary girls' organization, Girl Scouting links girls worldwide within the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts in 94 countries. There are 2,723,000 girls in the U.S.A. who are members, or one out of every eight girls.

'Tub' Angeley Announces Candidacy For School Board

R.D. 'Tub' Angeley, has authorized The Journal to announce his candidacy for the position of school board member for the Muleshoe Independent School District Board of Trustees.

He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. E.K. Angeley, and a lifetime resident of the Muleshoe area. He graduated from Muleshoe High School after attending Muleshoe Schools during all his school years, and attended West Texas State University at Canyon.

He and his wife, Pat, are the parents of Krystal, six, a kindergarten student in Muleshoe; Tiffany, three and Gage, age one. For the past five years, they have also had a foster son, Curtis Reynolds, 17, who is a senior at Muleshoe High School.

The Angeleys reside northeast of Muleshoe where he is engaged in farming. He was presented the 1976 Outstanding Young Farmer Award recently by the Muleshoe Jaycees and is a director of the Pleasant Valley Community center and an officer of the Tri-County Gas Association.

Angeley said he would like to tell voters, "As an elected member of the school board, I would base any and all decisions on honesty, equality and fairness to each student and student."

7 Candidates Seek School Board Position

Three additional candidates filed Wednesday, as candidates for the two positions open on the Muleshoe Independent School District School Board. Late filings were by Ronnie Holt and Donald W. Patterson, both farmers, on Wednesday morning and Dr. Gary Albertson filed Wednesday afternoon.

With the additional three candidates, the number of candidates seeking position as school board member is now seven. Also filing were R.D. 'Tub' Angeley; David Stovall, incumbent; Jerry Harrison and Jim Young.

Carl Bamert said he was not refiled because he had spent nine years as a school board member and he felt it was time to turn it over to someone new.

Only the two incumbents, Bob Finney and A.V. Wood, filed for their positions on the Muleshoe City Council. No race shaped up for the vacated seat of Clarence Christian and Terry Field will be running unopposed for that one year term to finish Christian's unexpired term.

The election will be Saturday, April 2, for both city and school.

Pickup Wreck Hurts Littlefield Man Here

A 31-year old Littlefield man who lost control of his pickup at the west end of American Blvd. in Muleshoe Wednesday, may have gotten out of the resulting accident very lucky. The accident occurred at 6:20 p.m.

driver and sole occupant of the pickup when it veered out of control and slammed head on into a metal light pole at the corner of 19th and West American Boulevard.

The light pole was uprooted and the three foot deep concrete base lodged under the pickup as the pole draped across the top of the pickup and partially into the back of the pickup.

Herrell was taken to West Plains Medical Center by Singleton-Ellis ambulance, where he received treatment. Herrell lost at least one tooth as his mouth slammed into the steering wheel and several stitches were required to close lacerations on his lower lip and chin.

He received two citations from investigating officer City Patrolman Fabian Flores.

WRECK INJURES ONE... J.R. Herrell of Littlefield was driver of this pickup which went out of control Wednesday afternoon, hitting the light pole which is draped across the front and underneath the vehicle. Herrell was treated at West Plains Medical Center in Muleshoe for facial lacerations. No one else was injured in the late afternoon accident.

Cleanup Underway For Derailed Train

Continuing late in the week was the cleanup forced by a massive train derailment near Amherst Wednesday morning. High winds and sand hampered the railroad crews attempting to clear the tracks of 18 derailed cars and spilled contents.

A broken axle reportedly caused the accident just east of the Amherst turnout, forcing traffic to be rerouted around the scene through at least Friday.

Department of Public Safety officers who directed traffic around the railroad cars which were 'piled like matchsticks' were unaware for some time that a portion of the crash involved two split railroad tank cars of a highly inflammable alcohol. The alcohol which spilled out of the cars, was blown away from Amherst and fumes dissipated in the wind without threatening the small town. In case the 50 mile winds blowing Wednesday should shift, arrangements were made to evacuate at least a portion, if not all, of the small city.

Also blowing in the high winds during the week were several tons of a plastic ingredient which were loosed in the crash. White sheets of the powdery solution whipped cross fields northeast and away from Amherst as railroad workers began laying a temporary track to reroute trains.

The "shoo fly", a temporary track, was expected to be in use for several days while the massive cleanup operation was conducted. By 4 p.m. Wednesday most of the split tanker cars had leaked their highly inflammable ethyl alcohol and ceased to be a threat to cleanup given enough recognition. Ministers made up the most of the group who attended the breakfast at 6:30 a.m. Thursday at the Corral Restaurant.

 Winning door prizes were Herman Schelter, Carson Clayton and Mrs. Bob Phillips.
 Howard Watson, vice president of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture Board of Directors, spoke in behalf of President John Clark, who was out of town.
 Watson explained the revised S.O.S system and spoke briefly on the burglary and vandalism problem in Muleshoe. He encouraged local businessmen to help officers by not leaving money on the premises, emptying and leaving machines open and more lights on in buildings at night.
 Certificates were presented three persons chosen as "Employee of the Month" in Muleshoe for the first three months of 1977. For January, was Mike Carpenter, employee of Mohawk Auto Parts; R.A. Bradley, parts manager for Fry and Cox was chosen for February and Mary Williams, city employee for the City of Muleshoe, was named for March.
 Concluding the breakfast was a brief demonstration by Kevin and Val Sasser, coordinators of the upcoming Dale Carnegie course. They gave a memory technique and how to remember better by 'stacking' items to remember. The course is expected to start in the near future, and they said a few seats in the class are still available. Call Tommy Black at the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce, 272-4248, for further information.

Police Report

Burglaries continue to top the police news, with an additional two burglaries being reported during this week.
 W & W Trailer Sales on West American Blvd., reported Thursday, the loss of a completely enclosed two-horse trailer. They said it is white with a red pin stripe and white sidewall mudgrip tires.
 Dorothy Green also reported the loss of two screen doors and two storm doors at her tenant's house in Stegall.
 At the same time, the burglary at Muleshoe Junior High School was apparently cleared with the arrest of five local youths for that incident.

 At least 12 of the railroad cars were considered to be a total loss as they lay strewn about the countryside, although none ended up on highway 84 which runs adjacent to the track.
 According to DPS officers at the scene, the first six hours after the derailment were the most dangerous, as local officials supervising traffic operations were unaware of what substances were in the tank cars.
 When the 44th car on the train of 90 cars snapped the axle, included in the undamaged cars were rosin and lube oil. None was reported to be in the massive 'spill' near Amherst, however.
 Railroad officials indicated they were thankful that the axle broke in open country instead of a populated area and said the lack of injuries was probably because the derailment was in the middle of the train. Also helping immediately after the crash was the high wind which was blowing in a direction to keep lethal fumes from the residents of Amherst just one half mile from the crash site.

Schools...

 "We want to give parents and other interested citizens the opportunity to see the excellent job that Texas educators are doing to help our children learn," concluded Dillman.
 "We also would like for them to get a close look at some of the problems that Texas educators are dealing with every day in the best public school system in the nation."

Kiwanis Install New Members

Robert Montgomery of Muleshoe State Bank and Weldon Stevenson of Pioneer Natural Gas were installed by President Howard Watson as members of the Kiwanis Club during their regular meeting in Muleshoe Friday.
 The program for the meeting was by Kevin and Valerie Sasser, a brother and sister team, who are with the Pat Sasser Associates of Amarillo. They demonstrated techniques which will be used in the upcoming Dale Carnegie course in Muleshoe.
 Described were four points in what the Dale Carnegie course will teach including how to build up your own self-confidence; improve talents and what talents to use. Sasser said it is not necessary to speak to be understood, but speak to not be misunderstood.
 Six guests joined the 20 members of Kiwanis present at the meeting. Guests included the Sassers, Allen Smyer, Jack Dunham, Bob Graves and Meryl Watson, club sweetheart. R.A. Bradley gave the friendship coin to Gail Bizzell, who was the first to pour him a cup of coffee.

Trees, Vines Shrubs Save More Energy

The biggest energy saver for your home is growing in your backyard.
 A landscape horticulturist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service points out that trees, shrubs and vines can cut the cost of cooling and heating your home.
 "With the correct plants and the proper placing, trees and other greenery can become protectors from wind, heat and cold," says Everett Janne.
 Plants can also collect the dust that might otherwise end up on your coffee table and can reduce the noise level. In addition to doing all these things, the plants provide their natural beauty.

Texas State Tax Official Will Be Here

State Comptroller Bob Bullock announced he is sending a representative from his Lubbock office to Muleshoe on Tuesday, March 8, 1977, to assist local taxpayers and answer questions about state taxes.
 Bullock said Enforcement Officer Lillie Cross will meet with local taxpayers at the Muleshoe Court House from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.
 "If Muleshoe-area merchants, or anyone else for that matter, have any questions about state taxes or need help in preparing tax forms, Mrs. Cross will be there to assist them," Bullock said.

"We're trying to cut the red tape in this office and we believe these face-to-face sessions with taxpayers help do just that," Bullock added.
 Bullock reminded those taxpayers who are unable to meet with his representative on March 8, that they can still get their questions answered quickly by calling his TOLL-FREE tax information number in Austin. That number is 1-800-252-5555. The Lubbock office, headed by Donald F. Paxton, serves Lubbock and surrounding counties.

Bentson Seeks Smog Control

Senator Lloyd Bentson Thursday introduced legislation in an effort to determine how effective stringent controls on automobile travel, refineries and petrochemical plants would be in reducing smog in U.S. cities.
 Bentson noted that in 1973, in an effort to reduce smog, the Environmental Protection Agency proposed sweeping cutbacks in the number of vehicle miles travelled in several Texas cities. For example, travel in Houston would be reduced by 75 percent, in Dallas by 66 percent under the proposal, which has not yet been enforced.
 "These proposals were based on the belief that hydrocarbon emissions from automobiles, refineries and petrochemical plants when combined with nitrogen oxide and exposed to sunlight produce photochemical oxidants, better known as smog," the Senator said.
 "But the smog problem is a complex one and we are a long way from the days in 1971 when EPA suggested that controlling hydrocarbon emissions would allow us to control oxidant levels."
 Senator Bentson pointed out that the State of Texas has already adopted stringent controls that have reduced hydrocarbon emissions from refineries and petrochemical plants by 85 percent in Houston over the past three years but there has been no appreciable reduction in the smog level.
 The Senator also said that there is too little information available on how much the smog problem may be caused by sources that are beyond the control of man,

"A row of evergreen trees or shrubs placed a short distance from a wall creates a dead air space," explains Janne. "This space provides for warmer air in the winter months since the air is not moving. Less heat escapes through the walls of your home and reduces heating costs."
 These plants also serve as a storm wind barrier, and if placed correctly, can direct cooling winds of summer months around your home. If planted on the northwest side of your yard, trees and dense shrubs can protect a home from chilling winter winds and direct the cool summer breezes, emphasizes Janne.
 "For the host summertime, trees, vines and other trailing plants can become a pleasing source of shade," says the horticulturist.
 "Since the hottest part of the summer day comes with the afternoon sun, tall trees planted on the west side of your home can afford some relief from the heat."
 Large trees should be placed 15 to 20 feet from your home so that the cooling canopy can cover the roof. Deciduous trees provide the shade for summer and become bare in the winter to permit the sun to warm your home.
 "Vines or trellis plants can provide your home with extra cooling insulation during the hot summer days. Deciduous vines allow the sun to warm the home in the winter," adds Janne.

Political Women Are Not Ordinary

Women in politics are "out of the ordinary," said Lubbock City Councilwoman Carolyn Jordan Wednesday (March 2), "and we spend a great deal of time just reassuring people we are there to help all people, not to do them in."

Jordan's discussion before a sparse, first-day audience of women and one man opened "Women's Fair -- Discovery Through Sharing" in the Texas Tech University Center Wednesday morning. The fair, sponsored by Women's Service Organization, features booths, workshops and discussions from and by women in social and professional groups and public life. The fair runs through Thursday.

"People, we, are comfortable when they know what the rules are, and anything out of the ordinary can be seen as a threat," Jordan said and added that women in politics and other minority members are often seen as threats.

However, the councilwoman of five years and mother of two daughters, said the mere presence of minorities can make many differences in politics. Jordan cited as an example the Lubbock City Council. Her presence, Jordan said, seems to lead to women automatically being considered for civic posts to which they ordinarily would not have been appointed.

Jordan, who also is a third-year law student at Texas Tech, said she embraces the "chipping away" theory of another Texas woman politician named Jordan.

U.S. Rep. Barbara Jordan of Houston. The theory sees political and social change as a slow one of "chipping away" at prevailing attitudes.

The Lubbock Jordan said the necessity for women to "prove their worth" by manipulating men in politics or society "erodes, not perpetuates" preconceptions and prejudice men hold against women. Pretended ignorance is one of the more useful ways of manipulating men and gaining equal standing, she and other women in the audience conceded. All those entering the discussion indicated they hope someday there will be no need for this kind of manipulation.

"We women do have our advantages, and why shouldn't we use them?" Jordan listed these advantages as "more sensitive to feelings," "more patient" and the ability to manipulate.

Commenting further on preconceived ideas about women, Jordan related a story about the occasional confusion of her name with U.S. Rep. Jordan's name.

"I'm introduced as Barbara Jordan from time to time. After her (Barbara Jordan's) speech at the Democratic National Convention, I heard a story of an incident in a Muleshoe coffee shop the following morning.

"Someone in the shop commented, 'That was a pretty remarkable speech last night.' Another person said, 'Yes, that was pretty good for a black ... and a woman, too.' And one said, 'Yeah, I didn't know Carolyn Jordan had it in her.'"

The population of Austin grew from 629 in 1850 to 251,808 in 1970, according to the Bureau of the Census.

Letters To The Editor

To Editor Muleshoe Journal:
I would like to take this means to express my gratitude to the Staff and all the employees of West Plains Medical Clinic for helping making my stay in hospital easier.

I have been in several hospitals but I have never received as good service as I did while I was a patient in the West Plains Medical Center.

Although, the service was wonderful, it was made more gratifying because everyone seemed to be eager and anxious to be of service and to please.

I am sure many residents in Muleshoe, that have not been patients in the Clinic, do not realize this. I feel that these people are a real asset to Muleshoe and Bailey County.

Sincerely,
Tom Hudson

Consumers Warned To 'Pick' Potatoes

Consumers find that they must pick and choose carefully from potatoes in the supermarket.

One reason is improper handling that damages potatoes somewhere between harvesting and packaging.

In terms of dollars, one estimate is that $100 million worth of damaged potatoes are wasted every year.

Where, when, why and how potatoes are harmed is the subject of a study at Texas Tech University.

For the last three years food technologist Max Miller has chased potatoes from farms in West Texas and elsewhere to places in Philadelphia and Chicago and even to supermarkets in Binghamton, N.Y., and Wilkes Barre, Pa., through har-vestors, packaging plants, wholesalers, retailers and super-markets.

Dr. Miller's work indicates that the maximum damage is caused somewhere between bulk bin packing and sacking.

Miller said that sometimes harvestors market immature potatoes because with sufficient demand they can fetch a good price.

"Immature potatoes are more easily bruised than the ripe ones," he added.

The Texas Tech food technol-ogist took 25 potatoes from each stage of the distribution pro-cess. He studied the mechanical harvesting equipment, the truck-loading conveyor belts, the bulk loading for potato-pro-ducer manufacturers and the sacking methods for sale in the supermarkets.

Miller said that if potatoes are stored at 75 degrees fahrenheit with 81 percent relative humid-ity for two weeks and then kept at 61 degrees for a week or so, all results in an increase in the shelf life of the produce.

These environments could be maintained during transporta-tion and in the supermarket storage containers, "but we found that some truck tempera-tures varied between 42 and 78 degrees and supermarket tem-perature varied between 63 and 73 degrees."

Because his preliminary re-sults indicated that the maxi-mum damage occurred between the bulk packing and sacking points, Miller closely looked at each operation between these two stages.

In the sacking sheds potatoes are dropped from a lift on to a series of belts that carry them to a trading table. If the potatoes are not graded rapidly, they begin to accumulate at some point. Re-run belts are provided so that the potatoes are moved around and brought back to the grading section to prevent over-crowding.

"If the distance between the lift and the belts is more than six inches," Miller said, "there is a very good chance that the potatoes will be bruised. Be-sides, all the excess movement increases the likelihood of bruising."

"Once a potato is bruised, micro-organisms can easily enter it and give the vegetable a black heart. The bruise also shows on the outside and the potato does not sell."

After the potato is graded, it is sacked for sale in supermarkets. If perforated plastic sacks are used, the ventilation is not enough and the potatoes start sweating. That can also facili-tate growth of micro-organisms.

"Burlap bags make better sacks for wholesale potatoes. For retail sales the mesh sacks are also useful. In the burlap or mesh sacks the potatoes don't sweat and stay dry," Miller said.

Miller's state-supported work started in 1974, and will continue through this year.

Barry Goldwater, Senator (R-Ariz):

"Carter is doing things that should have been done long ago, such as stripping some of the pomp from the presi-dency."

It's surprising what a compliment will do.

Bacon drippings can be used to brown meats or flavor vegetables. Keep drippings in the refrigerator until used.

Thespians Plan Play For Youth

Wednesday, March 23, the Thespians will be performing a play for pre-school, elementary, and Junior High students, the play, "A Servant of Two Masters", is by Goldoni. It is an Italian comedy of a servant unaware of his servant's two jobs.

It is a play depicting a conflict between fathers and children, and conflict between lovers. In the end, love prevails and so does the servant.

The play will be performed in the High School Auditorium at 9:00 a.m. for the pre-school through fourth grades, and again at 10:15 a.m. for the fifth through eighth grades. There will be an admission charge of thirty-five cents per person.

"A Servant of Two Masters" is co-sponsored by Muleshoe High Drama Department and the American Association of University Women.

There are eleven boys out for the golf team. These boys are Ricky Hayes, Kevin Smith, Billy James, Edwin Watson, Wade Wilson, Dickey Sudduth, Doug Cowan, Randy Watkins, Dan McVickers, Todd Ellis, and Kent Rempe.

Our first meet will be a dual meet at Olton. The following week, we will be in the Hereford meet March 17-18.

We have the prospect of having a good team. Most of our players are young with only two seniors trying out for the team.

President Says Mining 'In Cold Storage'

The harsh winter of 1977 will seem like a summer breeze if misguided proposals on surface mining succeed in putting America's vast coal reserves into cold storage, according to American Mining Congress president, J. Allen Overton, Jr. Underlining this danger in the February edition of his association's Mining Congress Journal, he warns that "the threat is immediate and the signs are ominous, as hearings on surface mining legislation continue in committees of Congress.

"Proposed legislation is so restrictive in its certainties and intimidating in its ambiguities that its net effect would be to cripple this nation's chance of significantly expanding coal production," he declares. "If this legislation becomes law, in some snowbound future people may well rue that way the freeze was put on capital investments and industry incentives that could have helped energize our nation.

"The awesome inadvisability of the proposed new surface mining legislation was cogently explained last month to the House Interior Committee by senior mining industry spokesmen," says Overton, who adds that the "American Mining Congress has documented 14 major deficiencies in the House bill as it is now written.

"The supreme irony is that this federal legislation is not needed. No less than 38 states now have effective laws governing surface mining, and 29 of them have updated their regulations since 1973. Federal regulations in place and in operation now govern the surface mining of coal on federal lands. As a result, virtually all coal that is now surface mined is subject to regulations and reclamation requirements that are tailored to meet particular local conditions.

"We welcome these developments. We have long opposed any mining of surface coal where the land cannot be beneficially restored for further use after mining.

"But a gigantic federal scheme that arbitrarily places lands off limits for the most frivolous reasons, that imposes uniform controls on diverse circumstances, that sets up huge new enforcement powers in Washington, and that leaves open so many wide questions of interpretation that a few lawyers and zealots must surely salivate -- this is another matter.

"The root problem with the pending legislation," says Overton, "is the unbridgeable gap between the agreeable rhetoric on reclamation policy and the practical prohibitory impact of the legislative language.

"What the measures as introduced amount to is de facto prohibition of surface coal mining in the camouflage of regulation. A result our nation cannot abide, a price our nation cannot pay.

"The added tragedy is that this runs directly counter to the determined national commitment to stop centralizing power in Washington . . . to dismantle some of the federal bureaucracy

... to cut red tape and end senseless regulation ... to beat the energy problem with vigorous action ... to unleash the creative drive of American industry ... and all the rest.

"I worry that the voice of reason is being lost in the land if more defenders do not rally to its cause," says Overton.

"The mining industry is determined to continue pressing the case for America's energy needs. It is determined to try for sensible accommodation. But we are fed up with reasonableness being labeled self-pleading, with our industry being made the whipping boy for political advantage, and with the American people being left the losers.

"The fight here is America's fight."

Conservation Group Meet

Kenneth Kuykendall, president of the Association of Texas Soil and Water Conservation Districts, and Frank Gray, member of the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board, were the principal speakers at the South Plains Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts' meeting held recently in Littlefield.

Kuykendall urged SWCD district directors to be spokesmen and to promote the activities of their district. He also reviewed actions taken on resolutions passed at the state meeting of SWCD directors held in McAllen last October.

Current state and federal legislation which may have a bearing on the farming and ranching industry was also discussed.

Gray discussed district financing under the matching fund program administered by the State Board. He also discussed the State Board's current activities relative to Section "208" of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act Amendments of 1972. The State Board is responsible for "208" planning with respect to agricultural and silvicultural practices.

John Wimberly, a wildlife major at Texas Tech University received the A.W. Dalrymple Award for academic excellence. Wimberly, an honor student, is active in many agricultural activities at the university.

New officers of the South Plains Association were elected. They are Jerry D. Sims, president, Brownfield; Terry County SWCD and Henry S. May, vice-president, Denver City; Yoakum County SWCD.

After the meeting SWCD directors and guests toured the American Cotton Growers Demin Plant located in Littlefield.

The South Plains Association of SWCD's consists of twenty-one districts. The organization's purpose is to promote the work of districts and to serve as a vehicle whereby district directors can discuss conservation problems similar to the area.

Approximately 100 persons attended the meeting.

SCRAP IRON OF THE CHRISTIAN: Luke 9:23 "... and He said unto them all, if any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me." I'm sure that you have noticed many times on the busy highway that men are very busy hauling junk and worthless pieces of scrap iron. At least it would seem to be worthless to us as we observe it. But there must be a market for it - else so many people would not be so interested in it. I know a man and his wife in California who have become independently rich gathering and selling garbage, scraps of food and vegetables from grocery stores, cafes and restaurants. Ernest Thomas says in his book America Whither Bound? that the American Way-of-Life was established upon a New Continent. It flourished and grew in this Virgin Land whose Natural Resources of Water, Minerals, Oil, and Forests were the greatest the world had ever known. But he says a shadow of doubt has been cast upon this land and many of our leading authorities today are questioning whether our Prodigal Waste is not causing a foreseeable end to our Productive Abilities. We are witnessing today a paradox similar to the story Jesus told in Luke 16 about the Rich man and Lazarus. We are living in a land of plenty, yet all about us there are people by the hundreds and thousands who do not have enough to eat. They don't have clothing to wear - and they don't have enough money to provide the bare necessities of life. We must admit that we waste almost as much as we put to a good and usable use. It has been estimated that we throw away or waste enough food every year to almost feed a foreign nation of comparable size. And we are so "style" conscious that clothing, shoes and other usable materials are either thrown away, discarded or destroyed. We are the recipients of a great wealth - but we have utilized only a small part of it. Much of it - we have wasted, lost or just simply thrown away.

WE HAVE A PECULIAR "SCRAP IRON" CALLED LEISURE TIME: All of us have it - and it is TIME that is either wasted or squandered away. But when it is gone - it cannot be retrieved. I read in the "Ladies Home Journal" that an average man of fifty has spent 6,500 days at work, 6,000 days sleeping, 4,000 days amusing himself, 1,500 days eating - and 500 days being sick. That leaves about 10 years or 3,650 days which he spent doing absolutely nothing at all. In the average income bracket - it means that he has lost approximately $54,750.00 in cash money, or about $15.00 every day. It has also been estimated that the average person has only twenty years of life productively. If this is true - and I have no reason to doubt it - what a tremendous responsibility we have to the present - this hour that I am now living. And the Bible says that we are responsible: Ephesians 5:16 "...redeeming the TIME because these days are evil!"

WE ALSO HAVE THE "SCRAP IRON" OF SMALL OPPORTUNITY: Many will not give their money, time or effort or influence today because it is considered to be small and unimportant. Since I'm not one of the leaders, I do not have a share in the project - and I will not assume any of the responsibility. The plain truth of the matter is: These people do not do this in order to seek vengeance on anyone or any particular effort. They do it because what they have to offer seems so little it would reveal more that I want known - and it would be embarrassing. And after all, perhaps it isn't needed anyway. But it is needed - it is important - in fact, it was this type of loyalty and dedicated effort that made Christianity succeed in the First Century. I had two courses in Baylor University under Dr. Joseph Armstrong, head of the English Department for many years. One day he said to the class: "One of the greatest tragedies of our day and generation is to see a 'ten-talent man' doing a 'one-talent' job." I read the story of a young man who graduated from a great university. He had prepared himself as a teacher. When his opportunity came - he was offered a little one-room school in the backwoods of Virginia. But he wouldn't take it. He said: "I have learned much - and I refuse to waste it on a bunch of ignoramuses in the backwoods." It seems to me that he lost his perspective. The poem says: "It's not what you get, but what you give, not what you say, but how you live. Giving the world the love it needs, living a life of noble deeds. Not whence you came but whither bound, not what you have, or whither found. Strong for the right, the good, the true - these are the things worth while for you."

I was reading one day and came across this little story. A young man inherited a small piece of land. When he went out to look at it he found it was worthless. He tried to sell it, but couldn't find a buyer. In disgust - he kicked his toe into the ground and as he did, he dug out a small worm. And then it hit him like a ton of bricks. He built a "Worm-Farm" and a "Processing Plant". He not only was able to make this worthless piece of land pay - he made a fortune.

MANY OF US ARE CUMBERED TODAY WITH THE "SCRAP IRON" OF SOME HANDICAP: Whether this is real or imagined - it can be very costly to us. Either we can't speak - or we won't. We are not as qualified as others - so we won't try at all. I have a handicap - and I mean to capitalize on it and resign myself to doing nothing just because I can. Furthermore - I'm going to feel sorry for myself and learn to hate those who do not sympathize with me. Suppose Switzerland had so thought concerning her rivers and mountains and severe cold winters. Instead - she turned herself into one of the greatest tourist resorts in the world today. Holland is called "The Low Country" because of so much water everywhere. There are swamps and ponds of water in every direction you choose to look. But she turned this water into a source of life through irrigation. It turns the wheels of industry - and she has one of the greatest sea ports in the world.

Chester Swor, professor of English in a Mississippi college has to walk with a cane because one leg is shorter than the other. When he speaks, and he speaks to more young people than almost any other man, he has to hold on to the pulpit to keep from falling. When Dr. Swor was in high school the doctors said of him that he would not live to graduate. But through sheer tenacity - today he speaks and lectures and teaches to more people than most preachers. Oliver Cromwell was a "Street-waif". He was educated under an assumed name. But he had influenced literally hundreds and thousands of lives through a little book he wrote called: Acres of Diamonds. John Bunyan was a preacher during the days just prior to the Reformation. He spent much time in prison for preaching the Gospel. He was maltreated and narrowly escaped death many times. But while a prisoner in Bedford Jail - he wrote Pilgrim's Progress that in sales is next to the Bible.

PARROTS DO TALK... But!

SO DOES A RECORD PLAYER

Our Nation faces a serious threat of communism just off our shores. At the same time within our nation, they are seeking to undermine our faith in God. There are many sayings and expressions going around in our country that are communist inspired. In order to prevent "parrotting" these sayings, that weaken our nation... attend church regularly, and study God's word so that the truth is more easily recognized.

"Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

You can BANK on It!

Bill Loyd, President
Muleshoe State Bank

Just over a year ago, a law went into effect which affects nearly everyone. Known commonly as ERISA, it is properly entitled the Employee Retirement Income Security Act.

Designed to provide protection for employees enrolled in private pension plans, it sets forth a maze of rules and strict regulations that effectively eliminated most of the private pension and retirement plans operated by independent businesses.

On the positive side of the legislation, was a new supplemental plan called the Individual Retirement Account. By now, nearly everyone has heard of IRA. Probably you already know that with an IRA account you can set aside 15 percent of your income or $1,500 (whichever is less) each year for your retirement. You may deduct the amount from your income for tax purposes (defraying payment until the amount is withdrawn from the account).

The most common problem is timing. We tend to think of the IRA advantages in December ... one of the hardest times to come up with cash for an IRA deposit. Now's an ideal time to start planning for next year ... and for retirement.

THE HEAT PUMPS KEEP ROLLING ALONG FIGHTING LOST HEAT...

MANUFACTURERS SHIP 170,000 HEAT PUMPS IN FIRST 7 MONTHS OF 1976 (as compared with 169,000 for all of 1975)

If you don't have a heat pump you, at least, should find out more about it. It's the most efficient, here NOW, piece of heating equipment available at reasonable cost. The electric heat pump saves energy, so it saves money. By using otherwise wasted Lost Heat present in outside air, the electric heat pump delivers as much as two units of heat for every heat unit of electricity it uses. Nationwide, heat pumps are going into nearly half the new homes with electric heating. In our area alone 287 heat pumps have been installed in the past year. Updating your old home's heating system? Better find out about the heat pump... ask us.

Top Reporter Will Speak At TSTA Meet

Bill Moyers, anchorman and chief reporter for "CBS Reports" of the Columbia Broadcasting System, will be a featured speaker for the state convention of the Texas State Teachers Association March 17-19 at the San Antonio Convention Center. Moyers will speak at the first general session at 9:30 a.m. Friday, March 18. The convention will be dedicated to State Senator A.M. Aikin Jr. of Paris, who has been invited to be the honor guest at the March 18 session. A native of Aikin Grove, Texas, Senator Aikin is in his 44th year of service in the Texas Legislature. He was in the House of Representatives for two terms (1933-36) inclusive) before moving to the Senate in 1937. Now chairman of the Senate finance committee, Aikin was for many years head of the Senate education committee. He has authored many important public education laws including the Gilmer-Aikin bills of 1949. Grace Grimes of Marshall, TSTA state president, said the convention is being dedicated to Senator Aikin "to allow Texas educators a chance to honor this man who has done so much for public education."

Moyers, a native of Oklahoma, grew up in Texas and attended the Marshall public schools. He will be introduced at the convention by Selma Brotze, one of his former teachers at Marshall High School who is now retired. First general session, at 7:30 p.m. March 17, will feature a musical review staged by students from Houston's High School for the Performing and Visual Arts.

Theme of the 98th annual convention, set by President Grimes, is "TSTA ... Education's Strength for the Future." Mrs. Grimes will preside over the convention, an executive committee meeting on March 17, and four sessions of the 1,500-member state house of delegates, official governing body.

Registration will begin at 1:30 p.m. March 17 at the Convention Center. Official delegates representing 500 TSTA local associations throughout the state will vote on proposed resolutions, constitutional amendments, and other business.

TSTA department and section affiliates will hold separate meetings. Representatives of Texas newspapers, radio stations, and television stations judged as winners of TSTA's annual "School Bell Awards" for excellence in school news coverage will be honored at a banquet at 5:30 p.m. March 17 in the Convention Center.

Organization Announced For 'Mature'

One and a half million Mature Texans, ages 50 to 80, will soon be given the opportunity of joining together in an association aimed at strengthening their buying power in the face of today's inflationary spiral.

Bob Herz, Director of Information for The Mature Texans Association, said a $200,000.00 enrollment program will begin in March. Charter membership in the organization, at $7 annually, will provide Texans in this age group with access to wholesale prices on such items as pharmaceuticals, luggage, vitamins, film processing, travel, optical goods, jewelry, new automobiles, new trucks, tires, home furnishings group insurance and other merchandise and services.

marketing executive, said The Mature Texans Association will offer one of the most extensive programs of its type available in the United States.

"Our members will deal individually with the manufacturers," Herz said, "and since The Mature Texans Association will not act as a middleman, members will be assured of the lowest possible price on all the quality items we make available."

Herz pointed out that any member not fully satisfied with the program can have their membership refunded in full at any time after six months of their application date.

"We are not affiliated with any other association of retired persons, and will work closely with our members to insure them savings on a wide variety of merchandise right down to the local retail level," he said. The Mature Texans Association, headquartered in Dallas at 5744 LBJ Freeway, will appoint an Advisory Board from its membership and this board will be asked to recommend services and benefits for the entire membership.
