Wingate Meeting Dec. 9 To Talk Flood Control

The Wasey Creek Watershed project will be further discussed at a meeting to be held in Wingate on December 9. This announcement was made this week by County Agent C. T. Parker who stated that a number of Soil Conservation Service officials and representatives from Runnels, Nolan and Taylor Counties were expected at the meeting.

Some time back a survey was made on the watershed project by the Soil Conservation Association of Texas and after its completion, was given approval Plans call for the construction of 16 dams on the watershed to serve in the detention plan for flood waters.

The watershed of Valley Creek lies in the three counties and should the work be started most of the dams will be in Taylor and Nolan Counties, however, Runnels County will benefit most because of the run off along Valley Creek following heavy rains.

The State Soil Conservation Association has called the project feasible and at the Wingate meeting it is expected that steps for future action will be discussed.

Mr. Parker stated that following the December 9 meeting, the next step would be a land owners meeting to get their views on the flood control project. The district must assume the responsibility of financing watershed planning, maintenance of the structures and, if completed, serve as the contracting party.

A number of meetings have been held in Ballinger to explain the plan, the purpose and the good that is expected from such a project. The holding back of flood waters following heavy rains in the detention dams would eliminate much flood damage and would help the Ballinger supply by the winter that would be released from these lakes for downstream flow afterwards.

School Students Have Activities Planned For Dec.

Ballinger teachers and students will be kept busy from now until the start of the Christmas holidays with extra activities.

Tonight the district FFA banquet and program will be held at the high school cafeteria with a large number of schools sending representatives. It will also be the time to select a district sweetheart from among the chapter sweethearts.

Saturday the Bearcat Band will go to Winters to take part in the area marching contests. There will be over 40 bands in all classes with more than 3,000 musicians attending the contests this year. Twirlers will also be entered in a contest at Winters Saturday.

Monday the Wall girls' basketball team will be here to meet the Ballinger girls in the gym.

On December 9 the boys' basketball teams will go to Brownwood for a pair of games.

December 11, 12 and 13 the boys' quintet will be playing in the tournament at McMurry College in Abilene.

On December 18, 19 and 20 the boys will be entered in the basketball tournament at Howard Payne College in Brownwood.

This week school favorites are being elected and their identity will become known at the annual coronation to be held on the night of December 19. Plans for the coronation and dance are being completed by members of the high school classes and the faculty.

The Latin class will have the assembly program on December 10 and a special program is being arranged.

The Bearcat basketball team lost to Lake View last Friday in their opener by a score of 69 to 40. The Ballinger B team took their game by a score of 40 to 37.

The essays of the following will be published in the annual anthology, Young America Speaks: Wesley Allen, Pat Bell, Betty Dixon, Dolores Clark, E. F. Manuscripts are submitted only once each year, in the fall. The above were written under the direction of the teachers in the English department, who are Mrs. Josephine Stallings, Mrs. Herman Rountree and Mrs. R. E. Rubie.

Mrs. Will Ezell of San Marcos sent the week-end here visiting with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Avey.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Jarrett of Ballinger were accompanied by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Howard of Sweetwater, when they spent the Thanksgiving holidays in La Marque and Galveston.

Francis and Richard Perry Buy Ballinger Printing Co.

A contract of sale was entered into here Saturday by the stockholders of the Ballinger Printing Co., Inc., publishers of the Ballinger Ledger, and Francis E. Perry and Richard H. Perry of Slaton. The sale will be made as of January 2, 1959 at which time one of Ballinger's oldest firms will be under new management.

The New Owners

Francis E. Perry

Richard H. Perry

The Perrys are pioneer and successful operators of weekly newspapers in Texas and are coming to Ballinger because they like the town, they want to be a part of it and give Ballinger and this area a good newspaper and printing plant.

Troy Simpson, president of the Ballinger Printing Co. and editor of the Ballinger Ledger, will remain with the firm as editor. All other employees will keep their jobs with the new firm.

Francis Perry stated this week: "We are coming to Ballinger to be a part of the town, to work with the local people and be one of them in everything that is good for Ballinger and Runnels County." Some eight years ago Mr. Perry started trying to buy the Ballinger Printing Co. and has visited here many times since to see if a sale was possible.

May this year negotiations were started which led to the final sale Saturday. The two families are moving here the first of next week and will be at home at 606 Broadway and at 507 Third Street. Both families are active in Methodist Church work and with service clubs and all other phases of community life. For the past several years they have published the Slatonite at Slaton and sold that plant about one month ago. Prior to that they published the newspaper at Dublin.

The Ballinger Ledger dates back to a beginning at Runnels City in 1884. Numerous changes in ownership occurred during the years, however most of the present owners have been associated with the paper for fifty years or more.

In the early days of Ballinger the Ballinger Daily Ledger was published by P. E. Truly and the weekly Banner Leader was published by the late C. A. W. Sledge. In 1911 the two papers were consolidated and since that time have been owned by a corporation, the Ballinger Printing Co. In 1913 Troy Simpson became a member of the firm, consolidating a commercial plant with the Ballinger Printing Co. He had worked with the firm prior to that, beginning as an office boy back in 1906.

After the corporation was formed, the Ballinger Daily Ledger and the weekly Banner Leader were published until in 1931 when the daily was suspended. Since that time the weekly Ballinger Ledger has been published for this trade area.

James Skinner was actively associated with the paper for many years until he suffered a stroke on Christmas Day 1955 and since that time has been in a veterans hospital.

The present stockholders are Mrs. C. P. Shepherd, Troy Simpson, James Skinner, Mrs. Deibert Vancil, Mrs. R. E. Truly, and Dr. and Mrs. George Mc-

Culley of Kingsville.

All the stockholders feel deeply grateful to the people of this section for the fine support that has made the business successful during all the years. All feel deep emotions at parting with a business in which they had engaged so long.

The present owners will continue regular operations for December and will publish their final issue on December 31. They also announced that the annual Christmas edition, carrying personals and Christmas greetings, will be published on Tuesday, December 23.

The Lubbock Avianche, in a recent editorial, has the following to say in regard to the Perrys:

"Francis Perry, who took over the Slatonite five years ago and later was joined in active operation by Richard Perry, has written an unusually fine record. An 'old pro' in every sense of the word, he has produced an excellent weekly newspaper and, at the same time, has been one of the most valuable citizens of Slaton and Lubbock County. We are not informed of the future plans of the firm of Perry & Son, but wherever they go and whatever they do, they'll make a high place for themselves in every sphere of good citizenship."

CITY POLICE REPORT

Rev. Keys Resigns Ballinger Church Effective Jan. 1

Rev. Felix W. Keys, Jr., who has served the First Presbyterian Church, J. S., since September 1, 1954, announced to the membership of the local church at the morning worship service Sunday that he was resigning his work here. He also told the membership that he had accepted a call to the Pilgrim Presbyterian Church in San Antonio and would go there to begin his duties on January 1, 1959.

Before coming to Ballinger, Rev. Keys was associated with the Alpine Presbyterian Church in Longview. He is a native of Freestone County and attended public school at Fairfield and Houston, graduating in Houston in 1943. He was a student at Rice when his education was interrupted for 21 months of service with the Naval Reserve.

He received a B. A. degree from Austin College in 1949 and Bachelor of Divinity from Austin Theological Seminary in 1952. On May 27, 1950, he was married to Betty Ann Binion of Dallas. The couple has two children, Roger Nelson 5 and Martha 2.

Aside from doing a very fine job with his church, Rev. Keys has truly been a community man and has served in many places with clubs and civic organizations. He has served as president of the Runnels County Tuberculosis Association and this year is chairman of the annual seal sale for the county. He served as a member of the Ballinger Jaycees for some time and was religious chairman and member of the board of directors. He has been an active member in the Lions Club for several years, has served as a vice-president, and at present is chairman of the committee for Civic Improvement and Community Betterment. One job which the Rev. Keys appreciated and served with happiness was chaplain for the Ballinger Firemen. He has been active in the Ballinger Ministerial Alliance and has served as president of that group. He has been active in boy scout fund campaigns and numerous other campaigns of that kind. He has also served the churches at Talpa and Point Rock.

Rev. Keys is going to a fairly new church in San Antonio with a building program set for the future. Rev. Walter Guin, a former Ballinger citizen, was the first pastor of the church and he has now resigned to go to Del Rio.

Mrs. Keys has been active with the women of the church and has held a number of offices in the XXXVI Club.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE

AT COLEMAN TUESDAY
J. W. Whitefield, district superintendent of the Brownwood Methodist district, presided when the district conference of the Methodist Church was held Tuesday at Coleman. Rev. Carroll Thompson, pastor of the Ballinger Church, brought the sermon for the morning worship hour.

Those attending from Ballinger were: Dixon Toney, church lay leader; Mrs. Bill Witt, chairman WSCS; W. E. Middleton; Mrs. G. R. Witter; Mrs. Louella Rippy; Mrs. Carroll Thompson; Mr. and Mrs. Paschal Dietz.

Reports for the first six months of the conference year were made.

Saturday will open the Christmas season in Ballinger and the kiddies of this area will put on the first big show for adults and others of this section.

At 2 p. m. Saturday a huge parade of kiddies, from 1 year of age through the fifth grade, will march through the downtown streets and to the courthouse. The children will be dressed in Christmas costumes, will have decorated toys and pets and the parade will be led by Santa Claus himself.

Ed Davis has visited the kiddies in the first five grades of the local schools and explained the features to them. Since that time the chamber of commerce office has received many inquiries in regard to the parade and a large number of entries has been indicated.

The committee has announced that small children who need assistance in the parade with their toys or pets may have an adult with them. Those entered will assemble on Tenth Street, near the Underwood Buick Co., at 1:30 p. m., and the parade will move down Hutchings Avenue from there. No band will be available for the marchers, as the Ballinger band will be in Winters at the area marching contest. Music will be provided all along the line of march by loud speakers playing Christmas music. This is being arranged with a number of firms who have such equipment.

Cash prizes will be awarded for the best three entries and out of town judges will be here to make the awards.

Most Ballinger firms will have their Christmas show windows on display Saturday to add to the spirit of the holidays. Colored lights in the downtown section were turned on Monday night and will burn all during the remainder of the holidays and until after January 1.

Another Christmas feature has been planned for December 13 and a complete announcement of this will be made next week. Included in the program will be an all-day visit from Santa Claus, a street program of Christmas music by the high school choir and the giving away of a number of valuable gifts.

All people in this trade area are invited to Ballinger for these two programs.

Santa Claus will ride the fire truck to head the parade.

Christmas Council Party December 11 At Guard Armory

Members of the Runnels County home demonstration clubs will meet here next Thursday for their annual Council Christmas party. This year the meeting will be held at the National Guard Armory and will include all incoming officers, outgoing officers and all members of clubs who have made reservations along with a few invited guests.

The Christmas banquet and program is an annual affair and is well attended each year. At the meeting the incoming officers are presented and this is followed by a Christmas program and the exchange of gifts from a decorated tree.

New council officers who will serve during the ensuing year are: Mrs. Marion Hays, chairman; Mrs. Erwin Halfmann, vice-chairman; Mrs. Neuman Smith, secretary; Mrs. Archie Wallace, treasurer and Miss Pauline Shiller, reporter.

For the program a guest speaker will bring a Christmas story before the exchange of gifts.

The council is composed of officers and representatives from each club in the county. They meet once each month for a business session and council reports are taken back to all clubs by delegates. For a number of years the clubs have shipped food items and other articles to the State Hospital at Abilene as a part of their work.

OPTOMETRY: The Art and Science of Visual Care

500 killed — 3000 wounded!

Quite a slaughter, isn't it? That's a reliable estimate, however, of those who will be killed or injured by accident this hunting season. There's only one tragic explanation for it—MISTAKEN IDENTITY. Experienced hunters seldom cause these accidents. If you hunt only once in awhile, be doubly sure:
1. That your vision is good enough.
2. That you hold your eye until you are sure.
Don't kill or injure your hunting friends. Have your vision examined by a professional optometrist EVERY year.

TWIST OF FATE — Twisted rail was plowed up by this diesel locomotive when it struck an F1D-1 jet which crashed on the tracks moments after take-off near Santa Ana, Calif. By a twist of fate, no one on the train was injured seriously, and the pilot was rescued by a trainman. A second twist: had the crash occurred seconds later, the jet would have hit the crowded passenger train broadside.

OPTOMETRY: The Art and Science of Visual Care

500 killed—3000 wounded!

Quite a slaughter, isn't it? That's a reliable estimate, however, of those who will be killed or injured by accident this hunting season. There's only one tragic explanation for it—MISTAKEN IDENTITY. Experienced hunters seldom cause these accidents. If you hunt only once in awhile, be doubly sure:
1. That your vision is good enough.
2. That you hold your fire until you are sure.
Don't kill or injure your hunting friends. Have your vision examined by a professional optometrist EVERY year.

TWIST OF FATE—Twisted rail was bowed up by this diesel locomotive when it struck an F4D-1 jet which crashed on the tracks moments after take-off near Santa Ana, Calif. By a twist of fate, no one on the train was injured seriously, and the pilot was rescued by a trainman. A second twist had the crash occurred seconds later, the jet would have hit the crowded passenger train broadside.

WALKING RADAR—New, lightweight version of radar can be back-packed by a soldier, as demonstrated at Fort Huachuca, Ariz., by the Signal Corps.

Bride-Elect Complimented At Afternoon Tea

Honoring Miss Pat Tisdale, bride-elect of Jerry Bell, Mrs. Charles F. Bailey entertained at a tea in her home Saturday afternoon.

Home decor was in white and red, the bride-elect's bridal colors. Christmas colors gave festive accent to the chosen color theme.

A cluster of white wedding bells tied with a red ribbon bow and garlands of red Christmas balls ornamented the front door.

In the entrance hall, where Mrs. Bailey greeted guests and presented the honoree and her mother, Mrs. Ted Tisdale, Mrs. R. L. Bell, mother of the bridegroom-to-be, and Miss Delle Tisdale, sister of the bride-elect, arrangements of white roses gave added beauty.

In the living room, Mrs. Albert Purifoy of Fort Worth presided at the registry where a mass arrangement of red Christmas balls was accented with red birds. A bride and groom figurine was also included on the registry.

Other unusual appointments in the living room included frosted white grapes on the mantel and on the table placed before the round bay windows. Mrs. W. C. Norwood of Coleman, grandmother of the honoree, and Mrs. E. Y. Bailey presided at the dining table. Laid with a white applique organdy cloth, the table was centered with branched candelabra holding slender white candles highlighting an all white centerpiece of white roses combined with tall needle-like spikes resembling a fountain.

Others in the houseparty were Mrs. Herman Price, M. S. Earl Zetsche of Midland, Misses Martha Kay Northington, Midge Adair, Sarah Chandler, Pamela Price and Gena Cox of Brownfield.

For the party Miss Tisdale wore a brown and black floral satin dress with high neckline and full skirt with black satin pumps. Gift from Mrs. Bailey to the honoree was silver. Mrs. Mary Leathers of Novice and Mrs. E. W. Stasney spoke the goodbyes. Other included tea guests were: Mmes. Bill Goetz, Bill Bell, Sam Conner, K. V. Northington, Cal Adair, H. B. Edmondson, Ray Fuqua, W. B. Woody, R. T. Williams, Bailey Mack, M. B. Wardlaw, Troy Simpson, Tom Agnew, J. W. Purifoy, L. R. Tigner, Alex McGregor, Hamp Byler, N. B. Creasy, R. E. Rubie, C. L. Baker, C. R. Stone, M. E. Sweeney, Jack Williams, R. T. Hall, Felix Keys, F. M. Pearce, R. G. Erwin, Eates Lynn, Harry Lynn.

THE CHILDREN CAME OUT—Thousands of children, aged and infirm persons and refugees were flown out of Berlin by the airlift.

Woodrow Wilson, Joe Forman, W. B. Halley, Gene Heidenheimer, K. R. Newton and Miss Marryatt Smith.

Out-of-town tea guests were Mrs. J. E. Evans of Lubbock, Miss Veima Weatherby of Brownwood, Mrs. Douglas Cox of Brownfield, Mrs. Bill Sykes of Fort Sumner, New Mexico, and Mrs. R. E. Porter of Sweetwater, Tennessee.

Miss Tisdale Feted At Tea In Cal Adair Home

A cascade arrangement of sprays of gardenias and gold cattails and leaves in a crystal bowl and placed before a lamp decorated with red and white Christmas symbols formed the centerpiece Friday afternoon for a tea honoring Miss Pat

Tisdale, bride-elect of Jerry Bell. White tapers in matching holders were at each side of the centerpiece for the table which was laid with a red net cloth applique with Christmas motifs in colored sequins. Crystal and silver appointments completed the setting in the home of Mrs. Cal Adair.

Other hostesses were Mrs. Adair's daughters, Miss Midge Adair and Mrs. Douglas Cox, and granddaughter, Gena Cox, both of Brownfield.

Gena Cox registered guests, and Miss Marryatt Smith and Mrs. K. V. Northington presided at the tea table.

Assisting in serving were Misses Midge Adair, Lynn Herring, Sarah Chandler and Mar-go Brunson.

Hostesses presented the honoree a gift of silver.

Others present were: Mmes. Bobby Gray, John Duke, Charles Miller, C. F. Bailey, Lanham Flynt, John McDonald, Woodrow Wilson, Howard Bramley, Loyd Herring, Leonard Stallings, Carroll Thompson, W. N. Selby, T. L. Epting, W. E. Moss, Herman Rountree, Ernest Caskey, H. G. Agnew, Doyle St. John, Albert Kitchens, O. L. Parish Jr., O. H. Chandler, Joe Forester, W. O. Irby, W. E. Bride-Elect Complimented At Afternoon Tea
Honoring Miss Pat Tisdale, bride-elect of Jerry Bell, Mrs. Charles F. Bailey entertained at a tea in her home Saturday afternoon. Home decor was in white and red, the bride-elect's bridal colors. Christmas colors gave festive accent to the chosen color theme.

A cluster of white wedding bells tied with a red ribbon bow and garlands of red Christmas balls ornamented the front door.

In the entrance hall, where Mrs. Bailey greeted guests and presented the honoree and her mother, Mrs. Ted Tisdale, Mrs. R. L. Bell, mother of the bridegroom-to-be, and Miss Delle Tisdale, sister of the bride-elect, arrangements of white roses gave added beauty.

In the living room, Mrs. Albert Purifoy of Fort Worth presided at the registry where a mass arrangement of red Christmas balls was accented with red birds. A bride and groom figurine was also included on the registry.

Other unusual appointments in the living room included frosted white grapes on the mantel and on the table placed before the round bay window.

Mrs. W. C. Norwood of Coleman, grandmother of the honoree, and Mrs. E. Y. Bailey presided at the dining table. Laid with a white appliqued organza cloth, the table was centered with branched candelabra holding slender white candles highlighting an all white centerpiece of white roses combined with tall reed-like spikes resembling a fountain.

Others in the houseparty were Mrs. Herman Price, Mrs. Earl Zetsche of Midland, Misses Martha Kay Northington, Midge Adair, Sarah Chandler, Pamela Price and Gena Cox of Brownfield.

For the party Miss Tisdale wore a brown and black floral satin dress with high neckline and full skirt, with black satin pumps.

Gift from Mrs. Bailey to the honoree was silver. Mrs. Mary Leathers of Novice and Mrs. E. W. Stamey spoke the goodbyes.

Other included tea guests were: Meses. Bill Goetz, Bill Bell, Sam Conner, K. V. Northington, Cal Adair, H. B. Edmondson, Ray Fuqua, W. B. Woody, R. T. Williams, Bailey Mack, M. B. Wardlaw, Troy Simpson, Tom Agnew, J. W. Purifoy, L. R. Tigner, Alex McGregor, Hamp Byler, N. B. Creasy, R. E. Rubie, C. L. Baker, C. R. Stone, M. E. Sweeney, Jack Williams, R. T. Hall, Felix Keys, F. M. Pearce, R. G. Erwin, Estes Lynn, Harry Lynn,

THE CHILDREN CAME OUT—Thousands of children, aged and infirm persons and refugees were flown out of Berlin by the airlift.

Woodrow Wilson, Joe Forman, W. B. Halley, Gene Heidenheimer, K. R. Newton and Miss Marryatt Smith.

Out-of-town tea guests were Mrs. J. E. Evans of Lubbock, Miss Velma Weatherby of Brownwood, Mrs. Douglas Cox of Fort Sumner, New Mexico, and Mrs. R. E. Porter of Sweetwater, Tennessee.

Miss Tisdale Feted At Tea In Cal Adair Home

A cascade arrangement of sprays of gardenias and gold cattails and leaves in a crystal bowl and placed before a lamp decorated with red and white Christmas symbols formed the centerpiece Friday afternoon for a tea honoring Miss Pat

Tisdale, bride-elect of Jerry Bell.

White tapers in matching holders were at each side of the centerpiece for the table which was laid with a red net cloth applied with Christmas motifs in colored sequins. Crystal and silver appointments completed the setting in the home of Mrs. Cal Adair.

Other hostesses were Mrs. Adair's daughters, Miss Midge Adair and Mrs. Douglas Cox, and granddaughter, Gena Cox, both of Brownfield.

Mrs. Cox greeted guests and presented the honoree; her mother, Mrs. Ted Tisdale, and Mrs. R. L. Bell, mother of the prospective bridegroom, and Miss Delle Tisdale, sister of the honoree.

Gena Cox registered guests, and Miss Marryatt Smith and Mrs. K. V. Northington presided at the tea table.

Assisting in serving were Misses Midge Adair, Lynn Herring, Sarah Chandler and Mar-go Brunson.

Hostesses presented the honoree a gift of silver.

Others present were: Meses. Bobby Gray, John Duke, Charles Miller, C. F. Bailey, Lanham Flynt, John McDonald, Woodrow Wilson, Howard Bramley, Loyd Herring, Leonard Stallings, Carroll Thompson, W. N. Selby, T. L. Epling, W. E. Moss, Herman Rountree, Ernest Caskey, H. G. Agnew, Doyle St. John, Albert Kitchens, O. L. Parish Jr., O. H. Chandler, Joe Forester, W. O. Irby, W. E. The couple will be married on December 22 in the First Methodist Church. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ted Tisdale and Mrs. R. L. Bell and the late Mr. Bell.

Home decorations combined the bridal and Yule theme in red and white, the bride-elect's chosen color. Christmas colors gave festive accent to the chosen color theme.

Miss Delle Tisdale presided at the silver service. The polished dining table was before the fireplace where guests were served. Silver candelabra holding slender white candles highlighted a red and white pyramid centerpiece of oversize red Christmas balls and trailing sprays of white plumosa and pinecones sparkling with silver glitter in a large silver tray. Decorations also included red Christmas balls on the registry.

The hostesses presented the honoree with a silver compote.

Special guests were the honoree's mother, Mrs. Ted Tisdale, and the mother of her fiancé, Mrs. R. L. Bell. Other guests were: Mmes. J. C. Wilson, Price Middleton, Billy Dykes, E. Y.

Hostesses with Mrs. Northington were her daughter, Miss Martha Kay Northington, and Miss Maryatt Smith. Miss Northington will be a bridesmaid in the Tisdale-Bell wedding on December 22.

A replica of the bride-elect's desk in her school room centered the linen laid table where the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Ted Tisdale, Mrs. R. L. Bell, mother of the bridegroom-to-be, Mrs. W. C. Norwood of Coleman, grandmother of the bride-elect, and Miss Delle Tisdale were served. The miniature desk was topped with a large red apple placed before a diagonal arrangement of white carnations accented with red and white wedding bells. The couples names on a black school slate along with the heart and arrow inscribed

"Today's Lesson" featured in the arrangement.

The coffee table was centered with an oblong container, holding large white mums, pompon mums and silver foliage. Oversize Christmas balls and white pinecones formed the base. Clusters of pyrantha berries centered four-some tables. Miniature wedding bell nosegays marked places for guests.

Grass Seed Could Be New Cash Crop For Area Farmers

Technicians of the Runnels County Soil Conservation Service are suggesting the idea of producing grass seed as a new cash crop for this area.

In the Runnels Soil Conservation District, very little grass seed is produced and none for the market, reports Cecil L. Drake of the local Soil Conservation Service. In this district there are 332,586 acres of range and pastureland. During the drought, many of the good grasses disappeared from this land. There are probably 200,000 acres where re-seeding with an adapted grass or mixture of grasses is needed. This might save from 5 to 10 years of the time needed for these pastures to recover.

A field of sidecoats grama grass managed for seed production would compete favorably with an oil well. It is a perennial and once established needs very little care. A sweep row through the middles once or twice a year and you are ready to harvest the seed. In favorable years, it will produce seed in early summer and again in the fall. Any good combine will harvest the seed satisfactorily.

Yields of from one hundred to two hundred pounds per acre are common under dryland conditions. A recent report showed that 17,000 pounds of grass seed were harvested from 130 acres of cropland in Sutton County. Combine-run seed usually results from $1.25 to $2.50 per pound.

Some other native grasses which could be expected to produce seed under similar conditions are: plains bristlegrass, green sprangletop, Texas wintergrass and Canada wildrye.

Walter Adami, Rt. 2, Winters, and John Mitchell, Rt. 4, Winters, have made application during November for assistance under the Great Plains Conservation Program. Mitchell's applications were on three farms totaling 564 acres. Adami's application was for one farm on 754 acres. Adami and Mitchell will both develop conservation plans. These plans may include needed conservation measures and land use adjustments.

James Glyn, of the local Soil Conservation Service, reports that these plans can incorporate all of the going programs such as the Conservation Reserve and the Agricultural Conservation Program.

Federal cost-share under the Great Plains Conservation Program ranges from 50 to 80 percent of the average cost for installing needed conservation measures. For further information concerning the program, contact the local Soil Conservation Service, County Agent, FFA or the ACP.

THIRD AVENUE CHURCH SETS SPECIAL SERVICE
Special services have been announced for Sunday, December 7, at the Third Avenue Baptist Church. Regular services will be held Sunday morning, which will include

Sunday school and morning worship. A noon meal will be served at the church after the morning programs.

Rev. E. V. Brooks, pastor of the Hillcrest Baptist Church at San Angelo, will be the speaker for the afternoon service at 2:30. Rev. Brooks was pastor of the Seventh Street Baptist Church in Ballinger when it established a mission. The mission was organized into the Third Avenue Baptist Church in July 1956.

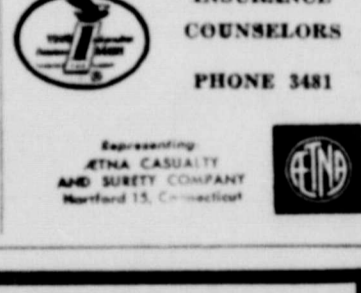

The occasion for the special service is the opening of the new church building to the public. Everyone is invited to attend the services Sunday.
