If I had to choose one word to describe what folks in the Friona community mean to me, I would choose the word "generous." But then, the word "visionary" also fits, and how about "compassionate" or maybe "unselfish." So

I can't choose just one word. Have a look at the list of ways donations from generous, visionary, compassionate, unselfish Friona folks have made Friona one of the best places in the world to live. I surely do not want to leave anything out, so I wouldn't be the least bit offended if you can think of something else to add to this amazing list. My family and I truly appreciate all of you generous, visionary, compassionate, and unselfish folks—you mean a lot to us!

The Senior Steak Dinner is coming up on Sunday, April 15. Menu includes steak, baked potato, green beans, hot bread roll, dessert, and iced tea or water. Tickets are $15 in advance and $16 at the door, so hopefully you have found someone to purchase from. Looking forward to celebrating our 2018 Seniors!

Doctor's Day at Parmer Medical Center was a great success this year. Over 100 guests attended the reception in appreciation of Friona's wonderful team of physicians. We are thankful for our dedicated doctors and the entire PMC staff.

Kaye Funk is the Employee of the Month at Prairie Acres/Heritage Estates, and Randy Baize is Resident of the Month. Kaye Funk, who works for the housekeeping department, has been with them since September of 1980—a truly special gift to the Friona community. Thank you, Kaye, for all of your hard work and dedication in such an important role. In addition, thank you to Randy Baize for being a great resident, neighbor and friend to all. Congratulations to you both!

Spring Brunch will be held this year at First Baptist Church at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, April 21. Put on your best 'big hat' and join along in the fellowship hall. Kindly bring a brunch dish.

The 40th Lubbock Arts Festival will take place April 14-15, 2018 at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center (1501 Mac Davis Lane). This two-day celebration is the largest fine art, fine craft event in West Texas and Eastern New Mexico, and is fun for the whole family! Arts include anything from paintings, pottery, jewelry, sculptures, wood, photography—you name it. Music and dance occur on various stages while there are even "Kid Stops" for the young ones to visit and make art projects. I have never been to this particular festival, but I have attended something similar in Denton called Arts & Jazz Fest, which always proved to be a great time. Events are Saturday from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Sunday from 12 p.m. to 5 p.m. Hope you can make it!

As summer approaches, we are getting closer to a very exciting time—pool weather! The Friona city pool will be hiring for a few positions for the upcoming season, so be sure to check the newspaper for job listings and other pool info.

The Friona Community Blood Drive will be Thursday, April 12 at Calvary Baptist Church in the Fellowship Hall from 12:00-7:00 p.m. Subway is generously donating sandwiches for this event, so be sure to come out and support with your own donation. Blood is needed every day, and if you're like me and have benefited from a transfusion, you know the importance of blood donations. Thank you to those who have donated in the past and who plan to donate next week!

Scholarship applications for The Founder's Memorial Scholarship presented by the Friends of the Friona Public Library are currently available in the counselor's office at Friona High School and at the Friona Public Library. The deadline for turning in the completed application is Friday, May 5, 2018.

I finally got my taxes done for the year, with much help from Marla Hart over at H&R Block, who just so happened to be awarded Friona's Chamber Member of the Month for April. This is the second year that I've been to Marla for my taxes, and I honestly enjoy the experience. Granted, my taxes are still fairly simple, but Marla is very thorough and charges a fair amount for her preparation services. Not to mention, the pleasant conversation and environment while in the office makes for a visit that is nothing short of delightful. Thank you, Marla and H&R Block, for serving our community!

If you tend to buy a Friona Star newspaper at one of the local gas stations, perhaps you should consider purchasing a yearly subscription! It is $30 for Parmer County residents and $40 for out-of-county, which gets you the Friona Star every week for an entire year. You may also choose an emailed version called e-Star for $24 per year.

Friona Flashbacks

News from the archives of the Friona Star in the year 2005:

FEBRUARY 17—The Friona Squaws brought home the gold bi-district trophy Tuesday night. Fans enjoying the victory at the Hutcherson Center gym at Wayland Baptist University in Plainview shared a common opinion—it was a good game. And indeed it was especially since Friona came out on the winning end by a very slim two-point margin. (Squaws- 48, Slaton- 46)

MARCH 24—The Fast Stop at Highway 60 and Euclid will close as of Tuesday, March 29. The little store has been a popular stop for over 30 years for fountain drinks, candy, fuel, and lottery tickets. The former Town & Country location in Friona has been purchased by Kendrick Oil Co. and will be operated as a Fast Stop location.

APRIL 14—Friona attorney Kathryn Gurley was named Attorney of the Year by Legal Aid of North West Texas at a meeting in Plainview. Gurley was honored for her participation in the group's Equal Justice Volunteer Program, which donates time and expertise to assist low-income individuals in legal matters.

JUNE 30—A piece of Parmer County history went up in flames Monday, June 27. Friona volunteer firemen received a call shortly after noon. The initial report was a grass fire on County Road 1. When firemen arrived, a farm building on Euler place was fully engulfed in flames. According to Euler, the building was originally used as the Summerfield schoolhouse from 1900 to 1920. It was thought to be the oldest building still standing in Parmer County, dating back 105 years.

JULY 28—Vandals did damage inside the gazebo at the city park. Bricks inside the gazebo were ripped apart, and several of the memorial bricks bought by local families were smashed and broken. City ordinance prohibits anyone from being in the city park after dusk.

AUGUST 11—Friona ISD staff received a double dose of good news in the past week. The district has been designated by the Texas Education Agency as a "Recognized" School District. Recent evaluation completed by the agency placed Friona ISD in the upper rankings for school districts. With ever increasing accountability standards, the list of schools receiving recognition across the state is smaller this year. Friona Primary and Elementary were also honored with the "Recognized" designation based on accountability and testing results for the 2004-2005 school term. Friona ISD also received the top rating "Superior Achievement" from the Texas Education Agency 2005 Financial Integrity Rating System of Texas (FIRST).

DECEMBER 8—Julie Chavez, granddaughter of noted Hispanic labor organizer Cesar Chavez, visited Friona last week on Wednesday to spend the day with Friona students at the Pioneer Museum. She was the guest of the local FCCLA classes who are studying a project on ethnic diversity. She spoke to a Friona elementary fourth grade class at the museum.

Friona graduate recognized as Teacher of the Month

LaFawnda Kubacak received the teacher of the month award for the month of February 2018 at Frenship High School. This is her fifth year teaching in the Life Skills class where she works with Special Needs students. She is in charge of the vocational program in that department, which includes getting the seniors prepared for life after high school.

During class time, the students learn skills such as filling out job applications, how to participate in a job interview, social skills, hygiene, and various other skills. But what they learn outside the classroom is what gained LaFawnda the award and is what teaches the kids more than can ever be taught in the classroom.

Every day, she and her paraprofessionals take the students out in the community to give hands-on skills in a real life job setting. They attend various locations to do on-the-job training.

While there, they learn skills such as customer service, cash register skills, stocking shelves, office skills, folding clothes, and other skills related to the job force. These are skills that will make these students employable and successful upon graduation.

LaFawnda is a 2001 Friona High School graduate and is the daughter of Becky Stanberry & Sonny Mays and the granddaughter of Elizabeth McLellan and Eddie Mays.

Founders Memorial Scholarship applications available

The Friona Public Library was established in 1963 as a project of The Modern Study Club. Members appointed to the library project were Lilah Gaye Gee, Irene McFarland, Ilene Osborn, Willard Stewart, and Mary Kate Zeman. In 2014, the Executive Committee of the Friends of the Friona

Public Library approved and identified funding to establish The Founders Memorial Scholarship to be awarded to a graduating senior(s) at Friona High School. The scholarship designation honors the vision of those members of the Modern Study Club who identified a need for and the value of a public library in Friona.

Applications for the Founders Memorial Scholarship are available in the counselor's office at Friona High School and at the Friona Public Library. The deadline for turning in the completed applications to the office at Friona High School is Friday, May 5. Graduating seniors are encouraged to apply.

2018 Cinco de Mayo Parade—celebrating history and culture

Lubbock, TX - Plans for the 6th Annual Cinco de Mayo parade are set for Saturday, May 5, 2018 at 10:00 a.m., again down historic Broadway in Lubbock.

The theme for this year's Cinco de Mayo parade will be, "Our History is Important - Celebrate Your History!" Organizations, schools, youth and families are especially urged to be a part of this year's parade and celebrate the cultural history and contributions of the Mexican American community.

"Our objective is strengthening families and building community," said Christy Martinez-Garcia, Parade Chair. "This year we are urging schools and organizations and families to share their history. By especially showcasing the contributions of our Mexican American and Hispanic community, we promote their identity and that we are valued."

She said that last year, the parade drew thousands of spectators, and also provided a chance for groups including schools, nonprofits, athletic teams, businesses, car and bike clubs, bands, media, and others wanting to showcase who they are, to engage to a predominantly Hispanic audience.

"We invite all sectors of the public to join us as participants, as spectators, as businesses wanting to foster a relationship with this ever-growing demographic, or as supporters committed to the diversity and cultural awareness in our community."

Martinez-Garcia commented that the parade was restored in Lubbock after a 30-year absence, adding that the Hispanic population continues to be the fastest, youngest, growing population, thus the parade reflects the growth, and fosters community.

The local parade will kick off celebrations scheduled all over Lubbock and West Texas. The holiday, which has evolved in the U.S., has become a celebration of Mexican heritage that has grown in popularity over the years with many events across the country to mark the occasion. Contrary to what many believe, Cinco de Mayo (May 5th) is not a celebration of Mexican independence. In fact, it's a commemoration of the Battle of the Puebla, where Mexican forces soundly defeated a much larger French battalion in 1861, fighting to retain their independence from the French government.

An online application for parade entries and floats, can be found at www.loshermanosfamilia.org on the "Get Involved" page, or picked up at 2207 University in Lubbock, Texas. Be a participant or a spectator on Saturday, May 5, 2018. Set up time is as early as 8 a.m., and the parade will commence at 10:00 a.m.

The parade route begins at First Baptist Church at Broadway, and East down historic Broadway to the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center. For more information, please call (806) 792-1212.

Bathroom Mirror 2.0

By Jeff Procter, Minister, 6th Street Church of Christ

If mirrors could talk, a bathroom mirror would have the most to say. It could tell...well, too much. Marriage proposals have been practiced in front of them, concerts using hair brushes have been performed with them as the only audience. Bathroom mirrors are the keepers of many secrets, thankfully. There is little that escapes the bathroom mirror.

A mirror does one thing—reflects exactly what is in front of it. We need a mirror we can trust, and that one is usually found in the bathroom above the sink, not far from the other necessities of that particular room. It sees us at our worst every morning and, like a good friend, lets us see us so we know there needs to be a change before we step out into our daily world. Sometimes that change is transforming, other times just a touch up here or there.

God likes mirrors too! Jesus was a reflection of what was in front of Him, which was God. I realize Jesus was more than just a reflection, but just follow this thought a moment—Jesus walked around reflecting the Father. He showed God's love. He showed God's compassion for the sick, the blind, the lame, even the healthy sinner—Jesus offered grace. He did not consider becoming the identity of God, just merely the reflection of it. (cf. Phil 2:5ff) If I am a mirror, spiritually speaking, what am I reflecting? The answer is simple—whatever is in front of me. The Hebrew writer said, "fix your eyes on Jesus..." What happens if you reflect Jesus?

You reflect God. So when you go into your bathroom, shutting the door, turn on the light and look into the old friend on the wall, the one who knows you best, and answer this question: What do you see? Look closely, is God staring back at you from the bathroom mirror? After all, we are made in His image.

The humbling reality is we often don't see God there because our focus is somewhere else. James would say it is crazy (my paraphrase) to look in the mirror and then forget what you look like. James 1, if you want to read it. The mirror will show me I am changing on the outside, but will I become a doer of God's Word so that change can be seen on the inside?

I Hate Satan

By Teena Hughs

I don't use the word 'hate' very often, but I hate Satan. I hate what he does to people; I hate that in many instances he doesn't even have to work very hard to get people to do or say evil things; I hate how people don't realize what a powerful influence he is in the world.

In February, we had a planning meeting at our church, and we talked about how Ash Wednesday fell on Valentine's Day this year, and Easter was on April Fool's Day. I admit, I was one of the ones who didn't like the thought of Easter being on April Fool's Day.

However, my minister Skip Hodges and Cole St. Clair made me see that April Fool's Day is a perfect day for Easter, because guess who got fooled the most on Easter Sunday? Satan. He thought Jesus was dead forever, and guess what? He was resurrected and alive and well, sitting at the right hand of His Father in Heaven, making Satan the greatest April Fool's joke ever!

I was thinking about all of this this morning, and I got pretty excited! I had a feeling of victory come over me, as well as a renewed energy in Jesus! We don't have to give in to Satan, we don't have to let him have control of our lives, we don't have to build his ego by giving him credit for the bad choices and mistakes we make.

What we can do is know God, know His Word, have faith in Him, put our trust in Him, depend on Him, all the while rebuking Satan every time he tries to affect our lives in any way. Satan will never get to experience the joy of living in Heaven with Jesus. He may enjoy all the havoc he wreaks on earth, he may enjoy messing up people's lives and making them miserable, but all the fun and pleasure he will ever have is the present time. Jesus will come back some day, and Satan will be fooled again, this time for good!

A True Story of a Changed Heart

Brett Hoyle, Pastor, First Baptist Church

I hope this true testimony from a fellow Frionian blesses you:

"Having Jesus in my life has changed me in so many ways. I came to know Jesus as my Savior when I was 13 years old. The Pastor at the church my family was visiting came and talked with me and he shared the gospel. I saw that I was lost without Jesus, I knew that I needed Jesus in my life and asked Him to come into my life and be my Savior. That was the best decision I have ever made! Christ has gotten me through some tough times in my life, and I would not be where I am today if it wasn't for Him.

Christ has worked through my life in so many ways and one of those ways is Him calling me into the ministry when I was a sophomore in college at Wayland Baptist University. God has used me in many ways teaching youth and leading music, and I could not do any of it without His leadership in my life. My favorite verse is from Philippians 4:13- 'I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength.'"

Llamados a Conocerle Friona Para Cristo

By Pastor Aurelio & Cynthia Silva

Mat 7: 7-8 Pedir, Buscar, y Llamar

Esta semana vamos a estudiar tocante al llama que la puerta se habra. Recordandoles de que Jesucristo es la puerta. En Juan 10:7 dise " De cierto, de cierto os digo: Yo soy la puerta de las ovejas." Sabemos que el llamar tiene que ver con contacto. Esto fue lo que paso con la mujer del flujo de sangre en Lucas 8:43-48. Ella dijo para si, si tan solo tocara el borde de su manto sere sana. Jesucristo es la puerta de nuestra salvacion en toda area. (Juan 10:9). Spiritu, Alma, Y Cuerpo. Recordandoles tenemos que tocar con fe . Porque Jesucristo sintio cuando poder salio de el cuando la mujer de flujo de sangre lo toco. Sabemos que esto fue un toque de fe. Poque Jesucristo pregunto quien me toco? Y sus discipulos le dijeron Senor todos te tocan. Pero vemos que El Senor le dise a la mujer tu fe te a salvado. Tal vez tu te preguntas como puedo yo tocarlo. Es cuando llamas con fe. Entonces pedir y sigue pidiendo, buscar y sigue buscando, llamar y sigue llamando, hasta que recibes, hasta que lo encuentras, y hasta que la puerta se habre. Oro que a ti suceda lo que sucedio en Mat. 14:36 y todos que le tocaron quedaron sanos.

Mat. 7:7-8 Ask, Seek, and Knock

This week we will be studying on knocking so the door will be opened for you. We must remember the Jesus Christ is the door. In John 10:7 it says, "I assure you that I am the door for the sheep." We know that when we knock it has to do with contact. This is what happened to the woman with the issue of blood in Luke 8: 43-48. She said to herself, "if I can only touch (contact) the hem of his garment, I will be healed." Now Jesus Christ is the door to our salvation in every area of our life (John10:9) Spirit, body, and soul. Remember we must knock with faith. Why? Because Jesus "felt" when power or virtue came from him when the woman with the issue of blood touched (Contact). We know it was a touch filled with faith. Because Jesus asked "who touched me?" and his disciples answered him saying, "Lord everyone is touching you," but we see that the Lord says to the woman, "your faith has saved you". Maybe you might be asking yourself, "how can I touch him?" It's when you call or knock with faith. So therefore, ask, and keep asking, seek and keep seeking, knock and keep knocking, until you receive, until you find, and until the door is opened for you. I pray that it will happen for you like in Mat 14:36 that "all who touched him were healed."

Time for Financial "Spring Cleaning"

The days are longer and the temperatures are warmer - so it must be spring. For many of us, that means it's time for some spring cleaning. But why stop with sprucing up your living space? This year, consider extending the "spring cleaning" concept to your financial environment, too. How can you tidy your finances? Here are some suggestions:

- "De-clutter" your portfolio. As you go through your home during your spring cleaning rounds, you may notice that you've acquired a lot of duplicate objects - do you really need five mops? - or at least some things you can no longer use, like a computer that hasn't worked since 2010. You can create some valuable space by getting rid of these items. And the same principle can apply to your investment portfolio, because over the years you may well have acquired duplicate investments that aren't really helping you move toward your goals. You may also own some investments, which, while initially fitting in to your overall strategy, no longer do so. You could be better off by selling your "redundant" investments and using the proceeds to purchase new ones that will provide more value.
- Get organized. During your spring cleaning, one of your key goals may be to get organized. So you might want to rearrange the tools in your garage or establish a new filing system in your home office. Proper organization is also important to investors - and it goes beyond having your brokerage and 401(k) statements in nice neat piles. For example, you may have established

IRAs with different financial services companies. By moving them to one provider, you may save some fees and reduce your paperwork, but, more important, you may find that such a move actually helps you better manage your investments. You'll know exactly where your money is going, and it could be easier to follow a single investment strategy. Also, with all your IRAs in one place, it will be much easier for you to manage the required minimum distributions you must start taking when you turn 70½. (These distributions are not required for Roth IRAs.)

- Protect your family's financial future. When cleaning up this spring, you may notice areas of concern around protecting your home - perhaps there's a crack in your window, or your fence is damaged or part of your chimney is crumbling. Your financial independence - and that of your family - also needs protection. Is your life insurance sufficient to pay for your mortgage, college for your kids and perhaps some retirement funds for your spouse? Do you have disability insurance that can provide you with some income if you become ill or injured and can't work for a while? Have you considered the high costs of long-term care, such as an extended nursing home stay? A financial professional can help you determine if your insurance coverage is adequate for all these needs.

Consider putting these spring cleaning suggestions to work. They may help you keep your financial house in good shape for all the seasons yet to arrive.

The Myth of Multi-Tasking:

April is National Distracted Driving Awareness Month

Multi-tasking is thought of as a useful skill, but it gets a lot of people in trouble behind the wheel. Most of us incorrectly assure ourselves that we can multi-task and use our cell phone while we drive. After all, we can walk and chew gum at the same time, right? When we stop and think about those activities — chewing gum and walking — we must admit that walking is one of those things we do that requires very little brain power. In fact, it's subconscious and nearly automatic. Unlike walking and chewing gum, both driving and using a cell phone requires higher cognitive thinking. Your brain simply cannot perform two higher cognitive tasks at the same time. Instead, it must switch between tasks. With technology at our fingertips, drivers are constantly faced with distractions, such as talking or texting, which places their safety and that of others at serious risk.

In Texas, it is estimated that 1 in 5 traffic crashes are caused by distracted driving, and the problem is getting worse. As part of National Distracted Driving Awareness Month in April, the Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT) is launching its “Talk, Text, Crash” campaign to remind drivers to stay focused on the road.

Last year, there were 108,962 distracted driving crashes in Texas — up 3 percent since 2015. Those crashes killed 452 people and seriously injured another 3,068. These crashes are highest among younger drivers ages 16 to 34.

According to TxDOT, 38 percent of Texas drivers say they regularly or sometimes use a cell phone while driving. A driver texting at 55 mph will lose sight of the road for nearly five seconds, which is comparable to driving the length of a football field while blindfolded. During this time, the car can drift in and out of lanes as well as cross the center line.

Although cell phone use is not the only distraction in the car, it is one of the most common and is a leading cause of distracted driving traffic crashes and fatalities. Text messaging is particularly dangerous. Research conducted by the Texas A&M Transportation Institute (TTI) found that reaction times double when drivers are distracted by text messaging. Driving requires the use of our visual, manual, and cognitive abilities — texting takes away all three of these at one time.

April is National Distracted Driving Awareness Month, a time to raise awareness of the dangers associated with distracted driving and to encourage Texans to put down their cell phones while driving. With more than 100,000 traffic crashes in Texas each year involving distracted driving, drivers are reminded that using a mobile phone when behind the wheel is a risky habit that they should break.

Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Passenger Safety and Family and Community Health Educator Wendy Case, from Parmer County, reminds drivers to put away their cell phones and wait until they arrive at their destination to use their phone. The goal of the campaign is to reduce distracted driving — not only for National Distracted Driving Awareness Month, but throughout the year. Although cell phone use is the most easily recognized distraction, all in-vehicle distractions are unsafe and can cause crashes or fatalities. Keep your eyes on the road and arrive alive!

Save Water and Money with These Mowing Tips

Now that Spring is here, the arrival of warmer weather and longer days means many Texans are spending more time outdoors enjoying and caring for their lawns. Mowing seems like the most basic and simple of all outdoor chores. But cutting your grass correctly will help keep it healthy, conserve water, save money, and reduce the need for fertilizers and pesticides. Mow like a pro with these seven tips.

- 1.) How often you mow is the most important aspect of lawn care. Mow frequently enough so that you remove no more than one-third of the grass blade. A slightly taller blade shades the soil, holding in moisture. It also prevents weed growth.
- 2.) When grass is growing slowly, such as during drought, raise the mowing height and mow less often. If your grass is growing quickly, mow more often but never remove more than 30 percent of the blade.
- 3.) Keep your mower's blades clean and sharp for clean cuts and better performance. Lawns cut with dull blades lose moisture faster and are more prone to disease.
- 4.) Mow when the grass is dry.
- 5.) Leave grass clippings on the lawn after mowing. Besides personal preference, there is no reason to remove them. They recycle nutrients and water back to your lawn, improve the topsoil, and significantly reduce the need for fertilizer. If you decide to remove the clippings, put them in the compost bin.
- 6.) Mow over leaves so that

Engagement

With great pleasure, Mr. and Mrs. John Gervais of Bellville, Texas, together with Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Ross of Wray, Georgia, announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their children, Dr. Sarah L. Gervais and Mr. Andrew L. Ross.

The bride-elect's maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Hal Ratcliff of Canyon, Texas. Extended family includes Mr. and Mrs. Zach Poole and Willow Mae of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Darby Norman, and cousins Faith and Drew Norman, all of Canyon, and Aunt Judy Green of Amarillo. Paternal grandparents are Betty Gervais of Houston, Texas and Sid Gervais of Round Rock, Texas.

Dr. Gervais grew up in south Texas, but she and her family consider the Texas Panhandle their second home. She frequently visited her grandparents, aunts, uncle and cousins in Friona and Canyon. She graduated from Texas A & M University in 2012 with a Bachelor's degree in Leadership Studies. In 2017, she graduated from The University of Texas at Austin with a Doctorate in Pharmacy and is now employed as a pharmacist in College Station, Texas.

Maternal grandparents of the future groom are Mrs. Mary L. Jowers and the late Pleasant L. Jowers of Wray, Georgia. Mr. Ross's paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Ross of Ocilla, Georgia and George Courson and the late Ruby Nell Courson of Alapaha, Georgia.

Mr. Ross graduated from ABAC with an Associate of Science degree in 2008. In 2010, he received his Bachelor of Science in Agriscience and Environmental Systems from The University of Georgia. He continued his education at UGA and later received his Master's in Agricultural Leadership in 2012. Mr. Ross is currently employed by U. S. Representative Austin Scott (Georgia District 8) as a Field Representative and Office Manager in Warner Robins, Georgia.

The bride-elect and future groom first met in 2011 at the Association of Leadership Educators (ALE) in Denver, Colorado where they each were presenting their research. Their professors, who are friends, introduced the couple. In 2013, the couple reconnected at a reunion of mutual friends in New Smyrna Beach, Florida. Their friendship grew from there, and in March of 2017, Mr. Ross planned and executed a unique proposal on the top balcony of the United States Capitol in Washington D.C. with both of their families.

The sunset wedding will take place on April 13, 2018 at the Sirta Beach Resort in St. Pete, Florida with Pastor Gregory Pope of Covenant Church, Douglas, Georgia, officiating. Invitations are being mailed.

A final resting place...the story of our cemetery

By Darla Bracken

“What is a cemetery?” My young grandson asked me on his first visit there after his great-grandfather's passing. As I struggled to explain in terms he would understand, he suddenly replied, “It's like a city where dead people live...” Yes, and when you attend a service or visit, the names and memories of friends and family-loved ones will flood your heart. Elm Street, Cedar Street, Oak Street, Pecan Drive form a map, a microcosm or our community.

In an article shared in a genealogy workshop, it explained the difference between a cemetery and a graveyard. The term cemetery is from a Greek word meaning sleeping place while graveyard comes from two Anglo Saxon words ‘yairden’ garden or open place and ‘graf’ meaning pit. Cemeteries are generally owned and cared for by cities and graveyards are usually attached to churches and reserved for members. Due to religious or cultural beliefs, cremated remains are not generally allowed to be buried in graveyards.

Necessity dictated the establishment of our cemetery in 1906 when early deaths exposed an oversight in planning for a cemetery in the original townsite in the new city of Friona, Texas. City officials then designated Block 1 in the original township as the cemetery. By 1908 the Seth W. Roush family offered to trade 2 1/2 acres of their farmland northeast of Friona for Block 1. City Officials including A. W. Henchel, bank president, located families, received permission and relocated the few graves except for one well marked grave whose family could not be contacted. The new cemetery became part of the east 1/2 of Section 32 League 470 Range 4 east. The other grave remained there for 25 years until they relocated it also. In the early 1930s concerned citizens established the cemetery association to assist city officials to plat, map, record and maintain the final resting place for city residents and their families and elected three directors. Later, Carl Maurer, now owner of the Roush land, donated 7 1/2 more acres to complete the 10 acre cemetery.

After a period of neglect, the city of Friona, assumed full responsibility for the operation and maintenance (lot sales, records storage, opening/closing and grounds care) of the cemetery in 1953. The city dug a well in the west side and since 1961, the records and the map have been kept at City Hall.

The Cemetery Association since then has assisted the City of Friona with special improvement projects. One of the first projects included paving the road to the cemetery. After the 1995 tornado struck the cemetery directly and tossed a railroad box car used for storage across the cemetery, the association focused on the cleaning and resetting of stones, landscaping, tree planting and general cleanup which became priorities for both the city and the association and cost $60,000. The gazebo and the chapel as well as the brick marquee designed by Gary Shirley and sprinkler system are other improvements that have been made.

We are fortunate in Friona for the vision, dedication and support of our citizens to come together to benefit our community support most recently demonstrated by fund drive for the new ambulance project. Please consider becoming a member or making donations to support this group. Together, we can do so much more...many worthy causes deserve our support through their auxiliary organizations: volunteer fire department, hospital auxiliary, Friends of the Library, cemetery association, museum, scouting, women's clubs, Lions Clubs, United Way, Cancer Coalition, Prairie Acres auxiliary, Snack pack for kids, and Bigs to name a few. Dedicated people who care enough to help make our community a better place for all to live and, “There is work to be done.”

Friona Cemetery Association, Inc. will hold their annual meeting Thursday, April 12, 2018 at 3:00 P.M. in the Friona City Hall Council Chambers. Dues are $35 annually. Friona Cemetery is located 1 mile north on CR 19 and 1/2 mile east CR G. Oldest grave 1905; deaths/burials in 1980 30, in 2017 68. John Fred White is President and their address is Post Office Box 823 Friona, TX 79035.

they will decompose along with the grass clippings. Consider using mulching blades/kits to shred clippings and leaves as you mow.

7.) Change your mowing pattern regularly to evenly distribute grass clippings and prevent ruts or irregular growth patterns.

New Medicare cards will be sent to recipients between April 2018 to April 2019, says AMAC

'It won't be a foolproof precaution, but it will go a long way toward protecting your identities'

WASHINGTON, DC, Mar 30 – Medicare has long been a lucrative target for fraudsters. In fact, Medicare fraud costs taxpayers tens of billions of dollars each year. The schemes range from fraudulent claims for healthcare reimbursements to fake prescriptions for medications and costly medical devices.

"But identity theft is one of the most prolific and personally dangerous types of fraud for individuals. While bogus claims target the system, ID crimes target you, the individual. When criminals steal your Medicare card numbers, they are also gaining illicit access to your Social Security number. Not only can they then use the information to submit phony healthcare claims, but they can also use it to commit bank and credit card fraud, for example," says Dan Weber, president of the Association of Mature American Citizens [AMAC].

That's why the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services [CMS] will begin issuing new Medicare cards starting in April. The new cards will use random numbers instead of your Social Security numbers as your identifiers.

"It won't be a foolproof precaution, but it will go a long way toward protecting your identities. It will be up to you to keep your new card safe. The bad guys can still use it to submit fake claims for reimbursement," according to Weber.

Beware new scams, says the Federal Trade Commission, which has offered these guidelines to Medicare cardholders:

- Don't pay for your new card. It's yours for free. If anyone calls and says you need to pay for it, that's a scam.
- Don't give personal information to get your card. If someone calls claiming to be from Medicare, asking for your Social Security number or bank information, that's a scam. Hang up. Medicare will never ask you to give personal information to get your new number and card.

- Guard your card. When you get your new card, safeguard it like you would any other health insurance or credit card. While removing the Social Security number cuts down on many types of identity theft, you'll still want to protect your new card because identity thieves could use it to get medical services.

"Medicare recipients will not all receive their new cards at the same time," says Weber. "We will be getting our cards according to a state-by-state schedule that will last from April 2018 to April 2019. To see when you will receive your card, click this link."
