CHRISTIAN REVIVAL BEGINS SUNDAY

The annual revival will start at the First Christian church next Sunday morning, with the pastor doing the preaching for the first few days until the arrival of the evangelist, Lloyd Thompson, from Ft. Worth. Extensive plans are being made to insure a successful revival. The night services will be held in the open air on the west side of the church. Comfortable seats and good lighting will be arranged.

This revival will be held in connection with the revivals at the Methodist and Baptist churches, and will continue for two weeks. Committees are at work in connection with the different phases of the revival interests, and a full attendance is expected from the first. Let us all be present at the first service next Sunday morning and get started right so there will be a good interest worked up by the time Bro. Thompson arrives. The Bible School begins at 9:45. Please be on time.

For the two services Sunday the following subjects will be discussed: Morning, "Jesus, the Christ, the Son of the Living God." Evening, "When is a Man Converted?" The general public is cordially invited to attend these services. All members of the church should be present.

CLAY COUNTY HAS 57 WPA WOMEN WORKING HERE

San Antonio, Aug. 12.—More than twenty-eight thousand Texas children under the age of 14 years are dependent upon the wages of 12,723 mothers employed on WPA projects it was estimated today by Val M. Keating, associate state director of employment for the Federal Agency. Mrs. Keating's estimate was based upon the results of a 25-county survey of women wage-earners on WPA projects. Of the 7,685 women employed in the 25 counties, 3,989 were found to be providing for 8,979 dependent children. Cases studied included only women certified as in need of relief and who were classified as primary bread-winners for their family groups.

Counties in each of the twelve WPA districts were used for the survey. Following is a list of the counties studied with the number of dependent children supported by WPA women workers in each: Harrison, 195; Cass, 183; Dallas, 787; Van Zandt 73; Harris 1,495; Matagorda 108; Trinity 79; Tarrant 1,490; CLAY, 57; McLennan 602; Hill 133; Travis 420; Bastrop 67; Bexar 1,101; Karnes 56; Webb and La Salle (combined) 241; Potter, 353; Donley 10; Floyd 17; Lubbock 113; Tom Green and Schlicher (combined) 389; El Paso 953; Brewster, 57.

FIRST BALE HERE FRIDAY

—The Clay County Leader
In spite of the drouth and recent hail storms, Clay county is going to have one of the biggest cotton crops it has had in the past few years. Already the gins have been tuned up and have each ginned a bale of cotton.

The first bale of cotton raised and ginned in Clay county was raised by Mr. Clyde Fant of Bluegrove and ginned by Oscar Graves last Friday night. The cotton was raised on the W. E. Luther estate. Mr. Fant had 1870 pounds of bolls which produced 510 pounds of strict middling grade lint. Mr. Carl Scheer bought this bale of cotton for 12 cents a pound, making the bale worth $61.20 plus a $15 premium for the first bale.

The second bale of cotton was raised by Claude Overstreet on the Stanfield ranch and this bale was also ginned by Oscar Graves. Mr. Overstreet received a bale weighing 610 pounds from 2170 pounds of bolls. Mr. Nolen T. Gaines bought the cotton at 10½ cents per pound, making it worth $64.05 plus a $10 premium. With a little more rain at the present time Clay county should keep her gins pretty busy this fall.

Worsham Well No. 4 Shows 30 Barrels Thru 2 Inch Choke

The Worsham No. 4 well, drilled two hundred feet north and nine hundred feet west of the No. 3, which came in recently showing 2640 barrels of high gravity oil per hour, was brought in this week, and through a two-inch choke showed thirty barrels of fine oil.

The No. 3 well has given some trouble lately, but new tubing is being put in and it is thought this will end the trouble and oil will again be flowing from this fine discovery well.

It is said that the well being drilled just northwest of Bowie has shown to be a duster, and that parties holding that lease now expect to move northward towards the Worsham locations and again drill another test well, with the expectation of hitting the pay sand, since the Worsham wells have proven good. We are informed that as soon as it can be done, another location will be made and a third well will be drilled on the Worsham lease.

Mimmick and associates, we are informed, expect to set up drilling rig and make preparations to drill a test well, having made their location on land which is just south of town.

WILL PREACH SUNDAY

Sunday morning at eleven o'clock at the Byers Methodist church, Rev. Dan Robinson of the First Methodist church, will preach in the absence of the pastor Rev. Stewart O'Dell.

Rev. C. A. Spragins, of the Floral Height Methodist church will preach. You are invited to these services.

To Mr. and Mrs. S. Vanpelp, Byers, August 3, 1937 boy.

TWENTY SCHOOLS STANDARDIZED

According to the report from the County Superintendent, Mr. J. W. Callaway, 20 schools in Clay county have been standardized and three more are expected to be standardized. This makes a total of 24 standardized schools in Clay County. Last school term there were only 19 standardized schools in this county and it has been due to the efforts of Mr. Callaway that the number has been increased.

There are also three new contract schools in the county: Beaver Creek, No. 28, and Victoria, No. 67, have contracted and are going to school in Bellevue; Featherston, No. 55 and Prairie Flower, No. 54 have contracted and are going to Prairie Flower; Lynfield, No. 72, and Charlie have contracted and are going to Charlie.

At the County Board meeting last Monday Mr. Joe Howard and Mr. Ronald White were voted to drive the bus for Lynfield and Charlie into Byers and Charlie. Mr. Luther Medinghall, Mr. J. S. Threadwell, and E. V. Hargrove were elected to drive buses for Joy, and Mr. A. C. Wetzel was elected to drive the Victoria bus.

Little Joe Cafe To Open This Saturday

MRS. E. L. IKARD HEADS COMMITTEE

The campaign of education being conducted by the State Committee for the adoption of the two welfare amendments—aid to the needy adult blind and to dependent and destitute children—will be climaxed during "Human Security Week," August 9th to 16th.

The "Week" is being set aside by proclamation of the Governor. Through the State-wide County organizations which have been set up, it is expected that an intensive speaking campaign will be conducted in every box of the individual counties, to the end that the people may know the provisions of the two amendments to be voted upon August 23rd and the necessity for their adoption.

The week was opened Monday evening in Dallas, with Honorable Frank Bane, Executive Director of the Social Security Board, Washington, and Judge Sarah T. Hughes of the 14th District Court of Dallas as two of the speakers. There were others, also, appearing on the program.

Tuesday evening, the educational campaign was concentrated in San Antonio; Wednesday evening in Houston; Thursday evening in El Paso; Friday evening in Austin; Saturday evening in Fort Worth, and Sunday evening, the churches throughout the State will be asked to give some recognition to the program for ratification of the two amendments aimed to relieve human needs.

Mrs. E. L. Ikard has been appointed chairman of the Committee for Human Security for Clay county for the week which began August 9th and will end August 16th. She has appointed to serve on this committee with her the following: Mrs. Hiram Vaughter of Byers; Mrs. Burton Karstetter of Bellevue; Mrs. Edgar Lumpkin of Joy; Mrs. Jim Tinsley of Petrolia and Rev. E. L. Moody of Henrietta.

Station opened last week. This cafe will be known as Little Joe Cafe.

The building is new, new equipment will fill the place and prompt service will always remind you that you are in a new cafe in Henrietta. Air-conditioning and direct lighting are two of the greater improvements of this cafe. An electrical machine to provide music while you enjoy the home-cooked meals served to you makes the time pass swiftly and pleasantly.

Mr. Gerdes has had seven years experience in the cafe business, many of you will remember him in his cafe in Wichita Falls where he served the best food obtainable. We wish to welcome this couple to Henrietta and wish them luck in their new enterprise. Drop around and see them Saturday, the day for their formal opening, and enjoy the free coffee and ice tea they are so cordially offering as a token of their good will and promise of the best to come.

Mr. Randal Goodman and Troy Douthitt, Jr., have returned from a week-end visit in Austin.

Mrs. P. A. Carpenter is visiting her brother in Duncan, Okla.

CONGRESSMAN W. D. McFARLANE

FARM BILL

Last week Farm Legislation was brought to a head through pressure of Farm organizations and others who are insisting that major farm legislation be enacted at this session. Previously the House and Senate Agricultural Committees had voted to postpone further consideration of farm legislation until next session. Because of falling prices of farm commodities, including cotton, corn, wheat, etc., Representatives of the Agricultural sections have become alarmed at the existing situation and several meetings have been held to determine what course of action will be taken. Congressman Marvin Jones suggests that the Agricultural Committees meet December 1st, and work out and have farm legislation ready when Congress convenes January 3rd. He says the different farm organizations are badly divided—that one group proposes a rigid control of production with severe penalties attached to excess production; that another group seeks a Constitutional Amendment; that another group urges price fixing based upon cost of production; and that another group advocates a two-price system, one for domestic consumption and the other for surpluses that go into the world markets. Thus it is easily seen why the Agricultural Committees have been unable to work out any satisfactory permanent program, with the different Farm organizations pulling against each other.

I am a member of a farm bloc organized last week to insist upon farm legislation before adjournment. We are virtually interested in pegging the price of cotton and other products to stop ruinous prices to the farmer, until farm legislation can be enacted. The President insists that before such commodity loans will be made he must have adequate assurance from Congress that controlled agricultural legislation will be enacted soon, in order to protect the Government and to relieve the serious decline in farm products.

HOUSING BILL

Last Friday the Senate by a vote of 64 to 16 passed the Wagner Housing Act. This legislation will be considered in the House this Tuesday. The Members representing City Districts are strongly opposing the bill. Members representing Farm districts to go along with them in the legislation, which is designed to eliminate some of the slum districts in the larger cities and give more wholesome surroundings to the workers earning less than $1,000 annually. The rent on these houses will be very low in view of the low costs of construction and tax exemption by the different Governmental agencies.

WAGE AND HOUR BILL

The Senate last Saturday by a vote of 56 to 28 passed the Wage and Hour legislation bill and this legislation will be considered in the House this Thursday. The bill as amended in the Senate was much weaker than the House Bill and the House Labor Committee substituted the Senate Bill for the House Bill, with some 55 amendments already made to the House Bill. It is estimated that this legislation, as originally introduced, would affect from One and a Half Million to Eleven Million employees. The many amendments offered greatly limit, restrict and eliminate large groups of employees from coming within the provisions of this bill. Organized Labor generally is supporting this legislation, because they realize it will improve living conditions of all workers generally. Many farmers oppose the legislation believing that it will mean higher prices for what they buy without any protection for what they sell. Small industries in the South are opposed to the legislation because of their disadvantage in freight rates. The Board administering this legislation is given wide power and of course much will depend upon the equitable manner in which the law is administered. The bill as presented to the House provides that WPA wage scale will prevail in the South, and with other restrictions and exemptions, many believe it will not affect anything or any body very much. The thing worrying many Members representing farm districts is will the city Members go along with us should we go along with them and pass their Housing and Wage and Hour legislation this session? Farm legislation giving the farmer parity prices for his crops should be enacted at the same session Housing and Wage and House legislation, then buying power of all parties concerned will be maintained.

TAX LOOPHOLES

The Tax Avoidance (?) Committee reported last week their general recommendation, which indicates that they expect to recommend and report a bill to Congress this week, to eliminate some of the unimportant and minor loopholes in the Tax Laws, completely ignoring many of the more important loopholes exempting wealth of Millions of Dollars of income taxes. When it is realized that not more than one-fourth of the income taxes assessed is collected, that it takes from five to ten years to finally settle and collect the taxes from a great number of the wealthy of the Nation, and that because of the Supreme Court Decisions, tax exempt securities, stock dividends, the salaries of all state, county and municipal employees and constitutional judges of all courts have been exempted, thereby losing to the Federal Government through these decisions many Millions of Dollars annually, it is thus better understood why the wealthy of the Nation do not want any change in the Supreme Court.

Wealth has lost the last three elections (1932, 1934 and 1936) and yet they keep their ill-gotten gains through their last line of defense, their lifetime appointed Judges on the Supreme Court.

Youth Assistance For Clay County

J. C. Kellam, Texas Director of the National Youth Administration, announced today that an NYA project has been approved for youth assistance to the County Agent of Clay County. The project will provide part-time employment for 15 youths during the next six months. H. A. Ziegler, Assistant District Supervisor, said.

Youths between 18 and 25 years of age who have been certified as in need of public assistance are eligible for employment on this project. They will receive work experience in making surveys for land terracing, and in methods of checking soil erosion, in the construction of ditch retards and diversion channels and in other better farming practices.

This project is sponsored by M. S. Duncan, County Agricultural Agent for Clay County and the work will be under his direction. While the youths are employed they will be given instruction by the project foreman in the various types of work involved.

This NYA project is part of the Texas Work Program devised to give part-time employment to about 7,000 Texas youths who are in need of assistance, work experience, and training opportunity.

Q. How early were efforts made to colonize Germans in Texas and with what result? G. F.

A. About 1818, a Prussian military officer named Hecke, who had visited Texas, urged through the German press the purchase of Texas from Spain and the establishment of a Texas German colony. While nothing came directly from this suggestion, a ship bearing German immigrants reached Texas in 1834, and one-tenth of those engaged in the war for independence were Germans. By 1840 there were some 10,000 Germans in Texas and the number had doubled in 1845.

Q. When did Prince Ferdinand von Solms Braunfels come to Texas? G. F.

A. In 1844, bringing about 100 families, who landed at Indianola and later founded the settlement of New Braunfels, which was named for him. Von Solms was succeeded by von Musebach, who located several thousand of his countrymen north of San Antonio and west of Austin in 1845 and 1846 and founded the town of Fredricksburg in 1846.

Q. What is the Oil-World Exposition? P. O. S.

A. Executives of the larger oil companies of Texas have organized the "Oil-World Exposition, Inc." and are planning a world exposition of all phases of the oil industry at Houston beginning about Oct. 1, 1937. A huge coliseum, costing $1,377,000, is being erected and will house the exposition, of which Ed G. Lenzner, of Houston, is general manager.

Q. Who was the first white child born in Brown County? T. J.

A. Josephine Hanna, daughter of Dave Hanna, born March 26, 1857, in Hanna Valley, which is now in Mills county. Tabitha Chandler daughter of Welcome W. Chandler and who married W. D. Stafford, was the second child born in the county, Nov. 10, 1857. Mrs. Stafford died in Dallas, Jan. 10, 1837.

Many Applications For Social Security Numbers Returned

Dallas, August 9—More than 21 per cent of the 42,045 applications for account numbers that have been filed at the Dallas Social Security Board Office in the Allen Building have had to be returned to applicants for completion and/or correction, says Earnest L. Tutt, Manager.

The Social Security Board took over from the Post Office on July 1 the issuing of Social Security account numbers, and since then a total of 42,045 applications have been received, or an average of 1,716 applications per day, Tutt said.

Applications must be returned when they are incomplete, inaccurate or inconsistent, or when answers given are inconsistent with the questions asked. Those applications are fundamental records of identification that will be very important in determining that an applicant for a retirement income or a lump-sum benefit is actually entitled to receive it, and every item of information called for on the Form SS-5 must be completely and accurately entered. If this is not done, Tutt explained, the examiners detect the mistakes before the account numbers are issued and the application is returned for correction and/or completion.

Shannon Pioneer Died At Home Of His Son, August 5

Hardy Watson died at the home of his son, Tom Watson, Thursday, August 5 at 10 A. M. Mr. Watson was born in Madison county, Alabama 86 years ago and moved to this section of Texas at an early age. He was married to Sarah Adalaid Carruth 63 years ago and to this union was born 8 children 3 of whom, Mrs. R. E. Coady of Shannon, Tom Watson of Shannon, and Mrs. Rose Simmons of Iowa Park survive him. Two sons, James Watson of Oklahoma and Edd Watson of Shannon preceded him in death only a few years ago, the other 3 children died several years earlier. Mr. Watson also grieved the death of his wife about 10 years ago in addition to friends and acquaintances in all this section of the country and Clay county especially. He is also survived by 18 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. Mr. Watson was one of the pioneers who are becoming few in the development of this county. He came here when the county was young, the accommodations of life were few and the going was hard, but like the others, he stayed and helped make our county a good place to live. Mr. Watson was awarded for his efforts, hardships and other trials as he was successful in becoming a Rancher and Stockman on a large scale, and his progressiveness was shown through his life to the end. He was also prominent in financial transactions.

Among Mr. Watson's early acquaintances were such prominent and well known characters as L. T. (Lewis) Richardson of Jacksboro, J. W. Hilburn, R. S. Hilburn, and the Castle family of Shannon, Dr. Edwards of Henrietta, and the late "Tex" Rickard, and Dick and son, Carl Worsham of Henrietta.

Mr. Watson retired from active life 30 years ago and spent his remaining years mostly at Henrietta and Shannon. He was with his sons, the late Edd Watson and Tom Watson, the last few years where he was living at the time of his death, which followed a period of failing health of 2 years duration.

His death was mourned by the relatives and many friends from several sections of the county. The funeral services were held at the Baptist church and conducted by the Rev. Tom Mayfield. The large crowd paying their last respects were unable to be seated and many waited in the church yard to follow

Rev. Appleman Is Delivering Some Strong Messages

Rev. Appleman, Jewish evangelist who is assisting Pastor E. L. Moody in the revival services now going on at the First Baptist church, is being heard by large crowds at both the morning and evening services. He is a very forceful speaker, uses simple, plain language and expresses his thoughts so clearly that even a child can understand his meaning.

If you haven't heard this Jewish preacher, you are sure to enjoy his message at every service you attend, and you have a cordial invitation to attend all services.

The special music preceding each service, led by W. D. Kidd, chorister at the Baptist church, is proving another enjoyable part of the series of meetings, many of the singers from the other churches taking part in the song services.

Horn Not Used On Trip Of 17,000 Miles

Only a few days ago, the newspapers carried a story about a man who has made a 17,000-mile motor trip without once blowing his horn. This driver emphasized the point that he handled his car in such a way as to obviate the need of warning signals at any time. And in spite of the fact that all cars have horns as standard equipment today, his example is one which the average motorist could profitably study and heed.

Driving, under the traffic conditions which prevail in most places today, is a job which requires the undivided attention of the man or woman at the wheel. The modern car is built to respond quickly to the various controls; but the controls themselves still have to be operated by human agency, and it is just as vital as it ever was that the driver concentrate on driving. He can do this best if he maintains a calm state of mind. And it is hard to remain calm and cool when horns are screeching on all sides.

There can be no denial that the over-use of horns runs counter to the interests of safety. For one thing, it is a far-from-soothing influence. It tends to confuse and hurry traffic. It reflects the impatience of the horn-tooter, and communicates that impatience to others. Startled by the sound of a horn at close quarters, a motorist will frequently pull over too suddenly, endangering his own car and others. Or if he reacts in the other of the two most common ways and gets angry, he will probably refuse to get over at all, and you have one of those private feuds which often lead to "cutting around" and frequently end in mishaps.

I have seen a driver, rushed by the remains to the local cemetery where they were placed in their final resting place.

an insistent horn behind him, pull out into heavy traffic without a proper wait, and damage his own car and another, while the horn-blowed took advantage of the confusion and went his merry way. And almost everybody has seen a driver, startled by a blast from the rear, swerve so suddenly as to endanger himself and others as well.

Proper use of the horn would probably be more general, if every driver would remember that others on the streets naturally judge him largely by the way he drives, and especially by his horn technique, since that comes forcibly to their attention via the car. The use of a warning signal when about to pass is legal and proper; but there is no reason why it should be an insistent, ear-splitting blast that says: "Out of my way! Here I come!" Neither is there justification for that other practice, prevalent in some sections, of leaning hard on the horn button when the lights change from red to green, to hasten the starting of the cars up in front.

The horn is a useful accessory, and one that should be kept in order. Whether or not it makes its full contribution to the safety and pleasure of driving depends upon the restraint and judgment with which it is used.

Around About Town

—The Clay County Leader.
Saturday evening about seven-thirty, Preston Baumgardner of Wichita Falls ran into a culvert just this side of the Katy underpass. This accident was caused by driving too fast and failing to make the curve there. No one was hurt.

Everyone was wondering Monday just what all the noise was down town. About nine-thirty, several persons stated Tuesday morning, that it sounded like a group of maniacs were loose and all taking vocal exercises. Well, it was really nothing to get excited about, because it was just the local group of newly organized Boy Scouts playing Run Sheepie Run on the court house lawn. Are you surprised? Most people were because they really didn't think so much noise could come from such a small person. Still, I think we're all glad to know that that organization is up and coming in our community.

Tuesday morning the honking of a horn aroused most of the business men from their inactivity, due of course to the heat, and most of them stood about trying, feebly to find out who had the energy to crack down on a horn like that. We regret to tell you that it was all due to the sudden illness of the small son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Werley of the Hurnville community. This small boy, nearly 4, was suddenly stricken with convulsions. We are glad to report that under the supervision of Dr. S. G. Norris he rapidly recovered and is now well.

Have you noticed the new paint job on Bill McAdams Cafe? The clean white is a relief to the eyes after all the dirt that has been soaked-up here in the past several weeks. We congratulate Mr. McAdams and advise others to do the same.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kerbow were in Olney Wednesday and Thursday visiting their son, Jack Kerbow who is ill.

Little Jimmy Younger is spending the next two weeks at Camp Hulen in Palacios with his cousin, Capt. Harold Younger from Arlington.

Miss Dorthey Jennings of Wichita Falls visited her father over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Park from Olney visited Dr. and Mrs. S. G. Norris last week.

FINDINGS OF BISHOP QUIN

Col. Geo. Robinson—Houston Post
It does credit to the head and heart of Bishop Clinton Quin to ascertain and report the number of destitute families in the city of his residence.

Having the facts before us, our first duty is to play the role of the Good Samaritan.

But while dealing with effects, why not go on to a search for the causes?

Is alien ownership of the land one of these?

Is the high tariff wall another cause?

Is a denial to the local banks of their credit rights yet another cause?

Did the destruction of crops and the laying out of the land drive the farm tenants into the centers of population?

Always, there's a reason.

Something abnormal is going on to bring about the ugly conditions which the good bishop reports.

Look at the situation.

This Texas of ours is capable easily of caring for sixty million of inhabitants, and yet there are only some six millions of us.

And yet—and yet the good man finds in his beloved city nearly 2,000 families in need of succor.

Other cities in Texas have a like showing.

Why not seek out the causes?

If you don't try to be something you are not likely to be much.

One's size is measured by the stature of his soul.

GOOD NEWS FROM CAREY O'BRYAN AT WEST POINT

(From Earlsboro Okla., Journal.)
A good letter from our son, Corporal Carey Law O'Bryan, Junior, of the U. S. Military Academy, West Point, New York, states that he is well and happy, and having the best time in his life. He said: "I have received a nice letter from Uncle Sid O'Bryan, of Henrietta, Texas, with a bank check enclosed, which I appreciate very much. All along life to here, I have appreciated the letters and kindnesses and gifts of uncles Tom and Sid O'Bryan, of the Lone Star State."

AN EFFICIENT ORGANIZATION

Five death sentences, 38 life sentences, 2517 years of other sentences, 5 suicides of accused, 6 suspects killed by officers, six killed by fellow-gangsters.

This is the summary of five year's kidnaping investigation under the federal law by the bureau of investigation, a report by Director J. Edgar Hoover reveals.

During the past year, 2635 stolen automobiles were recovered in cases investigated by the bureau under the interstate motor theft act. These cars were valued at $1,157,947.

Mr. Hoover's report showed that during the year, ended June 30 there were 4624 convictions secured in cases investigated by his bureau, as compared with 3905 convictions the previous year. Sentences aggregated 2 death penalties, 13 life terms, and 13,322 years of imprisonment in other cases.

"The total value of recoveries effected, fines imposed, and savings to the government in cases investigated by the bureau during the year amounted to $41,438,370.22," his report showed.

Work of the bureau was detailed under the headings of fugitives located, kidnapings, extortion, bank robbery, white slave, identification, stolen property, under the various federal statutes.

Stuttering Sam Is Finally Successful

Fort Worth, August 13—Here's a story that O. Henry would have enjoyed writing—the chronicle of lovely Mary Dowell, better known as "Stuttering Sam." She is a Fort Worth girl. Her father is chief of police.

Miss Dowell stutters, as her nickname indicates. Last fall she was in New York city trying to get a job on the stage or in radio. She spent hours in waiting rooms and then, when at last she faced an executive, she became so excited that she stuttered until the busy man broke in:

"Smart girl eh! I've got no time for practical jokers."

A booking agent heard of the Texas showgirl. He was looking for someone to fill a spot on the Rudy Vallee program and sent for Stuttering Sam. She was handed a piece of paper containing a few lines she

"Pshaw!" said the booking agent. "I knew that stuttering business was a gag."

And so, because he really had wanted a performer who stuttered, Miss Dowell lost the opportunity to take part in one of the great national radio hours.

But here's the happy ending: In Billy Rose's Casa Manana revue at the Fort Worth Frontier Fiesta, she wears the gorgeous golden peacock costume in the "Lost Horizon" scene with its Oriental splendor, and in the finale, "It Can't Happen Here," she is clad in the largest gown ever made, 1,200 yards of spangled satin, with 28 attendants carrying the train. And so success has come to Stuttering Sam. O. Henry really could have made a good story out of this.

MOCKING BIRD

What have you to make you sing
Wild troubadour of the thickets?
What to make your matins ring
Above the rails and pickets?

"I have a nest in the wild plum tree,
I sing for the mate who is nesting;
I sing for the heirs we soon shall see,
And beauty, high, arresting.

There is food by the garden ways,
And strength for all our labors,
Bright hope for many passing days,
And love for proven neighbors.

Plow the meadows; melt the shares,
Every field and every hillside
Stake with barbs for human snares.

Use the firebrands caught from woodlands,
Raze our homesteads, light the piers,
From the throbbing hearts of mothers
Blend a toast of blood and tears.

Line the highways, start the preview
Prance the Colonels up and down,
Nail our Youth on cross-beamed timbers,
MARS the God has come to town!

And suddenly, my lips are sealed—
Grief ALWAYS strikes me dumb!

"Green Light" Proves Even Greater As A Film Than Book

"Green Light," that stirring story of heroism, sacrifice and love, which had many hundreds of thousands of readers in its book form a couple of years ago, comes as a photoplay to the Dorothy Theatre Saturday night Preview, Sunday and Monday—a faithfully made, splendidly-cast Cosmopolitan production, released by First National.

Errol Flynn, the young Irishman who made sensational hits in "Captain Blood," and "Charge of the Light Brigade" is the masculine star of Loyd C. Douglas' gripping tale. He plays Dr. Paige, the scientist who almost gives his life in researches destined to alleviate human suffering.

The girl he wins, after much misunderstanding and unhappiness, is the lovely little blonde Anita Louise, who had a recent triumph of her own as the mother of "Anthony Adverse," in the film version of that book, and shares stellar honors with Flynn.

The saintly philosopher, Dean Harcourt, friend and advisor of all the characters in the story, is played by the distinguished British character star, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, who was brought 6,000 miles from the London stage to the Hollywood cameras for just this one job.

Margaret Lindsay portrays a devoted hospital nurse who loves Flynn, but has to surrender him. Henry O'Neill as a surgeon who unwittingly forces Flynn into a long martyrdom.

Walter Abel, whose most recent success was as the district attorney in "Fury," was especially engaged to enact the role of Flynn's friend and fellow scientist.

Enthusiastic reports about "Green Light" have come from preview audiences. It was directed by Frank Borzage.

FOOTBALL BOYS BEGIN PRACTICE MONDAY, 23RD

Football practice starts August 23. Suits will be issued to the boys who are going out for football Saturday afternoon, August 21 at 4 o'clock. At this meeting, all boys who do not live in town and who are interested in this sport are asked to be present. Coach Pegran said that he would like to have them present in order to make some arrangements for them to be present at practice in case they have some difficulty in doing so.

Coach Pegran also said that he expected to have about 30 boys out for practice. Out of this 30, there will be six letter men, and seven or eight squadmen from last year's team. Pegran stated that he had sufficient material to make one.

At any rate, the whole town is rooting for the team, and it will be up to the boys to put forth all efforts to make this year better than last, and even the year before that. Coach Pegran needs the cooperation of each and every one interested to build up an A-1 team, and we think he will receive it. Well, when the first game is played, we'll be there and yell enough for ten persons because we believe they will have what it takes.

Politics Already Beginning to Warm For Next Campaign

Although it is about a year until the voters will settle all the cases in next year's campaign where there is a contest, already politics are beginning to warm up, and one hears much political talk on the streets.

The office of county clerk will have several candidates seeking to fill it. Ernest L. Hodge already having expressed his intention to seek that important office, and friends of Wm. D. Kidd, with the Moore Funeral Home, are discussing him as a probable candidate, and it is certain that there will be others.

Hollis B. Moore, of Bellevue, has also definitely stated he will again be a candidate for Tax Assessor-collector, having made the race for this office two years ago.

The race for sheriff of the county will also likely draw several candidates, and ere long the old county will begin to hum with candidates making the rounds seeking the suffrage of the voters.

A lively preliminary will be the one between Tex Hager, the Wyoming Speedster vs. Cyclone MacKey.

Promotor, Mr. Jim Wakefield, is making every effort to give the fans more than just their money's worth of amusement. If you like good, wholesome amusement attend the wrestling bouts tonight at Wichita Falls.

E. L. Hodge Resigns As President of Board To Run for Co. Clerk

Senator Isbell's Reign As Governor

The Senatorial District of Rockwall, Rains, Collins and Hunt counties had its first Governor Saturday as Claude Isbell of Rockwall became chief executive in the absence from the State of the Governor and Lieutenant-Governor.

Only a few official acts were on the program of the president pro tem ad interim of the Senate as he marked time until Lieut-Gov. Walter F. Woodul returned to Texas Saturday from a visit to Oklahoma. Gov. James V. Allred is in Mexico City.

Isbell's shortage of official work for which he will be paid at the rate of $12,000 a year or $32.77 for the day, was made up by festivities arranged by his friends. A delegation from his senatorial district visited him in the Governor's office with several of his senatorial colleagues.

Saturday evening his colleagues gave him an inaugural banquet attended by numerous State officials and presided over by George C. Purl of Dallas, former State Senator.

Isbell had planned to make his first official act the issuance of a proclamation designating a law observance day, in which every citizen would be urged to obey the laws, but another one designating National Aviation Day at the Frontier Fiesta August 14 had been prepared and his signature to it became his first official act.

Isbell was undecided about commissioning some of his friends as Lieutenant Colonels on the Governor's staff, a well-established custom among Acting Governors.

His docket of State business included two extradition hearings, in which return of prisoners to Oklahoma and Louisiana was ordered.

in the next campaign for County Clerk, and will make his formal announcement for this important county office through The Leader at a later date.

Mr. Hodge is one of Clay County's best known citizens and has many friends throughout the entire county who will be glad to lend him their support in his ambition to serve his county in this capacity.

Mr. Hodge is succeeded by Mr. Jim Alcorn as president of the school board.

Famous Composers Appear in Fiesta Free Attraction

Fort Worth, Aug. 13—Melody Lane, starring the composers of the greatest song-hits of yesteryear, is now offered as a free attraction at the Fort Worth Frontier Fiesta.

Think of hearing "Sweet Adeline" sung by a quartet consisting of Harry Armstrong, who wrote the immortal song; Joe Howard, composer of "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now"; Phil Baxter, "Piccolo Pete," and J. Russel Robinson, "Margie." This is just one of the highlights in Billy Rose's sentimental show with its circle of eight grand pianos and a white piano in the center where the composers, one by one, play their great songs. Some of the composers sing and the other melodies are sung by Bess Coughlin, "songbird of the Southwest," and Charles King, star of the great motion picture, "Broadway Melody."

Melody Lane has been one of the most popular shows on the grounds and, now that admission is free, even larger crowds are expected to enter the huge circular red building, with a seating capacity of 3,500. There will be three performances nightly. Melody Lane succeeds Flirting with Death as a free attraction.

Composers — besides Armstrong, Howard, Baxter and Robinson—are Vincent Rose, who wrote "Avalon"; Ernie Burnett, "Melancholy Baby"; David Guion, "Home on the Range," and Euday Bowman, "Twelfth Street Rag."

Miss Ruth Worthington left this week for Mt. Sesquioia, Aarkansas, where she will attend Leadership training at the Assembly Grounds of the Methodist Church there.
