Mills County C. of C. To Entertain Farmers

Next Friday, August 29, the Mills County Chamber of Commerce will be hosts to their farmer friends in an open air meeting on the court house lawn. This meeting will be on the same general lines as the one of last year, which was a decided success, both in point of attendance and in the pleasure of the participants.

All farmers and stockmen in Mills County or adjoining counties are invited and urged by the Chamber of Commerce to come in that night and be the guests of the Chamber.

There will be some speaking by well-known farmers and others, but the most of the time will be used in getting-together.

Ice cream will be served. Everybody should make arrangements to be here next Friday night.

REVIVAL MEETING AT THE CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE

Beginning Sept. 2nd, there will be a revival meeting at the Church of the Nazarene. Rev. C. K. Spell of Bethany, Okla., has been secured as Evangelist. Rev. Spell is a mighty preacher of the word of God. He has had years of experience in the evangelistic fields, and knows the needs of the people. We feel like the people of Goldthwaite will enjoy hearing him.

We hope that every Christian will make this their meeting, and come together as one to work for the lost of our town. If you can sing God can use you in helping out in the singing; we need you; and would be glad to have you help out in the singing.

Let everybody come and make themselves at home.

CLASS POEM.

We, the Seniors of Goldthwaite High

Have had our happiness and fun,
And as we leave the old High School

Our life's career is just begun.

With throbbing heart, uncertain mind,
We look out o'er life's stormy brink, And feel so thankful that we have Been taught by teachers, how to think.

For now we cannot help but feel That we will need all we've been taught;

Unless we use all we have learned Our lives will not amount to aught.

And we the classmates feel a tie, A bond of friendship 'dear and sweet, We'll be glad to see each other,
Every time our lives may meet.

Four years of High School spent in joy,
Working together to achieve, A reputation and a record

Worthy of the praise we receive.

We have enjoyed our High School life,
And know our teachers have been kind,
And patient with us in our work,
And helping develop our mind.

In the future we hope to be Men and women worthy of fame, Living up to a standard rule And building ourselves a good name.

Sadly we part, again to meet, Further down on life's rugged road;

And may we be reminded when We thought our High School work a load.

THE THRILL OF MY LIFE.

By Roy Simpson.

Time—Aug. 3, 1924.

Place—Bat Cave or Carlsbad Cavern, New Mexico—a hole nobody knows how deep, how long, how wide, for nature alone carved it out of the internal region of the Guadalupe mountains of New Mexico.

With gas lanterns, and a determination to see the cave, we were ready. The engine started. The guide got in an iron bucket which looks more like a sawed off barrel. He motions for one of us to get in with him. "Ready," he shouted, and the bucket ascended a few feet in the air, then two doors open automatically. They had hidden the entrance to one of the greatest wonders of the world.
And then down, down, down, you go holding with all your might to the cable that held the bucket and wondering where it would stop.

Finally after descending 180 feet the bucket settled down on the soft ground of the floor of the cave. We got out and the guide jerked a wire which rang a bell at the top for a signal that we were ready for the bucket to go back after two more. This continued until all were in the cave, six in all. The guide, Mr. and Mrs. G.
L. Simpson, Moller Simpson, John Barrows and myself.

You have reached the starting point of your climb through America's greatest wonderland—the Carlsbad Cavern of New Mexico, located 25 miles southwest of Carlsbad, N. M. Since 1901 a few people knew there was an unusual cave in the foothills of the Guadalupe mountains. Very little attention was given to the cave. Millions of bats made their homes in the cave. A fertilizing company undertook to market the rich fertilizer that is in the cave. The undertaking was a failure, financially.

With your guide in the lead and your lamps trimmed and burning bright, you start on two or three mile climb, sometimes up but most of the time down, down, down. No one can picture that trip because first of all you don't know where you are and you cannot see. Without your torchlight you would be lost in utter blackness. You may think you have seen dark nights, but wait until you get in the Carlsbad Cavern to fully appreciate total blackness.
You may look up, and to the right and then to the left—nothing but blackness will meet your eyes.
Yes, and you may look down in places into bottomless pits. How the cold creeps through your veins.

You have come to a large room; your lantern will not give enough light so you can see the ceiling and the walls of the room. On you go. About the time you think you have reached the end of the cave you come to a living pool of water, the best you ever drank, right in the floor of the cave. But you are only started. Up and over and down the devil's bend and sometimes clinging to a rope or swinging to a wire. The trail looks more like a winding stairway. The steps are made of gunny sacks filled with dirt and sewed up, and of rocks. You have come to the fat man's misery. It is the only place you are forced to stoop and crawl through a narrow place.
Therefore it is hard for a large person to get through, hence it is called fat man's misery.

On and on you go. "Now we are about to enter the King's Palace," shouted the guide. We entered the King's Palace. You should have been with us. We stood in speechless wonder at the beauty and grandeur of the rocks. We could not have been more thrilled had the king appeared in all his glory and beauty. No palace or cathedral could be more beautiful; and remember this is the works of nature, the supreme architect. Now we crossed the palace, the main room. (This is where the two governors ate their dinner July 18, 1924). Now we see the man's feet descending out of the ceiling, and here is the elephant's ear, all composed of beautiful rock. Great slabs of rock descend from the ceiling. You can tap these rocks. They will make a beautiful tone from the lowest bass to the highest tenor.

Into Paradise you go. You see a great column standing out majestically extending 40 feet toward the ceiling only two or three feet in diameter at the base and gradually tapering to a point at the top. This is the flag pole. If old glory would have been floating from the summit of it, paradise would have been complete.

Now we come to the beautiful lilies composed of rocks. They were firm because we didn't hesitate to walk over them.

Next we entered the cemetery, where there are so many lovely monuments composed of white and black marble. And then the twin domes come in view; they are very large and seem to be solid marble. There is one very large column; it looks more like a Chinese temple. The guide said "I don't take a large crowd into this room, but I will take you all.
I think it is the most beautiful room in the cave." Some people are so careless. They will break the delicate rocks. So we entered the room. Some one shouted "Oh how lovely!" Indeed it was lovely.

We soon came to the jumping off place. This is as far as they take the public. There is a ladder 125 feet long extending down to another part of the cave. Remember we already were about 850 feet under the surface of the earth.

Now for the return trip. We had been two and one-half hours in the cave. We had to rest often on the return trip, but you dared not rest too long; you would find yourself getting cold and stiff.

The air in the cave is fresh and cool. It is so much pleasanter than it is out on the desert of New Mexico. After an hour or two we came to the bucket. The guide gave the signal. It wasn't long till we saw a dim light at the top and a voice shouted "All ready!" The answer was given, "Let her go!" The bucket began to ascend slowly with two of us.

It looked so much like as if they were ascending into heaven that we cried out good-bye. We were soon all safe and sound out of the cave.

MISSIONARY ACTIVITIES

We are in a good meeting at Chappel Hill this week. The meeting was begun there last Friday night by Bro. Clark and I went to them on Saturday night. We have had up to date 6 additions to the Trigger Mt. Church, two by baptism and four by letter. The prospects are good for more to follow. We will have baptizing some time Sunday afternoon. This meeting is the fifth one for the missionary this summer, and all have been good.

The missionary has had more calls for meetings this summer than he could reach within the three months. The mission posts are usually the hardest places to have a meeting as no one seems to feel the responsibility of the meeting where there is no church organization. We have had good support by the surrounding churches and this has added to the success of our work this summer.

We are glad to report a good meeting in progress at Center City. Bro. A. L. Heath the former missionary of Hamilton county, is assisting Pastor Fuller this week. They report six conversions to date and this is Thursday. Bro. Fuller goes from where he is now to Big Valley, and we hope that he has a good meeting there also.

Clark is having trouble with his baby. The little fellow of but a few weeks in this world is having fever, but we hope that it gets along better.

I do not have time to give a full report of my work for the summer at this sitting but will do so as soon as our summer's campaign is over. There is being a new interest taken in missions on the part of the good people of Mills county.

The Methodist people have been good to help us in our meetings and they have been reaping some rewards from our meetings.

The report from the various churches over the association reveals the fact that we Baptists of Mills County have had a decrease in membership during the last associational year, and we hope to be able to report a nice increase next time we meet in the association at the Old Soldiers Reunion Grounds next August. We hope that our pastors and churches may be able to arrange their meeting next year so as to not conflict with the meeting of the association, and a resolution was offered to that affect at the meeting of the association. The association is the center of our denominational work for Mills County and it is the duty of every preacher and especially those who are doing pastoral work in the association to lend their support to the work of the association. We had a good meeting of the association but if we had not had some good live laymen to take a part we would have failed in a large way.

We organized a Workers Conference which is to meet once each month and at such places where it may be invited. W. P. Weaver was elected president and D. D. Kemper was elected secretary and with the help of all of us it can be made a success. We hope that all of the pastors will attend and give it their influence.

Opening prayer by Mrs. E. B. Anderson, after which our class sang "For He's So Precious to Me."

Scripture Lesson, the 9th Chapter of Luke, was read by Mrs. W. P. McCullough and discussed by several. We were favored with a duet — "The Land of Sunset Dreams"—by Miss Ila Simms and Mrs. F. P. Bowman.

Mrs. Norma Frizzell Walker in her usual charming manner entertained us with a reading: "The Proof of the Pudding."

We then had the usual drawing of our earnings for the coming month, after which came the interesting game of conversation which afforded much amusement for all.

Mrs. A. E. Evans was elected to take charge of Lois Department for class and Mrs. F. P. Bowman was elected recording secretary.

A delicious refreshment plate of sandwiches and punch was passed by our hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. V. Coekrum to the members of our class and following guests:

GORDON BRINSON DEAD.

Gordon Brinson, a brother of W. L. Brinson of this city, died early Monday morning, Aug. 4, of heart failure.

Mr. Brinson's home was in Lowell, Arizona. He was on the train returning from a visit to his cousin, Lucie Robertson, at Lowell, New Mexico, when the end came. He had been seemingly in good health and a few minutes before his death was laughing and talking to the conductor of the train. When the conductor passed through the car in a few minutes he noticed him sitting up, but dead.

Funeral services were delayed until the following Sunday in order that his wife, who was visiting in New York and Washington, and other relatives could arrive. Services were held in the Methodist Church at Bisbee, and interment was in Lowell, Arizona.

Mr. Brinson was 47 years old. He was raised to manhood in this county, and was known by all the old time citizens. He visited this city a few years ago. He is survived by his wife and two children, 13 and 17 years of age, and three brothers: W. L. Brinson, Goldthwaite; M. N. Brinson, Lowell, Ariz.; W. H. Brinson, Douglas, Ariz.

The Eagle joins with the friends of the relatives in offering deepest sympathy.

NOTICE.

"Do you write your articles on an empty stomach?"
"Certainly not. I'm not a tattoo artist."

"With all due deference, my boy, I really think our English custom at the telephone is better than saying 'Hello' as you do."
"What do you say in England?"
"We say 'Are you there?' Then of course if you are not there, there is no use in going on with the conversation."

At a golf club one Sunday morning a member turned up late. Asked why, he said it was really a toss-up whether he should come there that morning or go to church. "And I had to toss up 15 times," he added.

Weak Nervous
 "I was weak and nervous and run-down," writes Mrs. Edith Sellers, of 466 N. 21st St., East St. Louis, Ill. "I couldn't sleep nights, I was so restless. I felt tired and not in condition to do my work. I would have such pains in my stomach that I was afraid I would get down in bed. . . My mother came to see me and suggested that I use CARDUI The Woman's Tonic. I felt better after my first bottle. I had a better appetite. It seemed to strengthen and build me up. I am so glad to recommend Cardui for what it did for me. I haven't needed any medicine since I took Cardui, and I am feeling fine."
 Nervousness, restlessness, sleeplessness—these symptoms so often are the result of a weak, run-down condition, and may develop more seriously if not treated in time.
 If you are nervous and run-down, or suffering from some womanly weakness, take Cardui.

BROUGHT HOME FROM MEXICO ON STRETCHER

BUT MRS. HERMAN IS NOW IN GOOD HEALTH, THANKS TO TANLAC.

A few years ago Mrs. M. E. Herman, 215 Hitchings St., San Antonio, Texas, "returned to the states from Monterey, Mexico," she says, "in such a low state of health that she had to be carried to her home on a stretcher."

As time went on and she still lingered in the throes of "Nerve exhaustion, stomach disorders and bodily weakness," she determined, "on the advice of her druggist," to try Tanlac, which she declares "brought back my health and strength after I had almost despaired of ever getting well."

The results of Tanlac in the case of Mrs. Herman, while indeed remarkable, are by no means unusual for Tanlac, as many hundreds of people everywhere have testified to having taken the famous medicine with no less wonderful results.

"I returned from Mexico," said Mrs. Herman, "so thin and weak that I feared my life was going to be cut short. I could neither eat nor sleep in a natural way and it seemed at times that heart palpitation and nerve exhaustion would take me away."

"The makers of Tanlac will always have my heartfelt thanks, for it is to Tanlac that I attribute my recovery and present good health. Tanlac is like a blessing from heaven to me, that is the way I think about it."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 Million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills, for constipation made and recommended by the manufacturers of TANLAC.

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Ervin of Ranger spent the first of this week in Temple visiting her father, S. S. Decker, who has been in a sanitarium there for the past six weeks. Mr. Ervin states that Mr. Decker will probably be able to return home in ten days.

Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Williamson and family have returned from a vacation trip to south Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Miller and family of Cleburne have been visiting homefolks in this county this week. They will return to their home today.

W. L. Brinson happened to the misfortune of getting a cinder in his eye on a train while returning from New Mexico the latter part of last week. He is now back on the job at his barber shop.
