GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JANUARY 14, 1927.

NUMBER NINETEEN.

MEETING INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee of the Interscholastic League for Mills County met Saturday, January 8, at 2:30 o'clock.

Since this was a business meeting, the following items were transacted: the order was passed unanimously by the committee that Basket Ball should be played in tournament this year, February 4th and 5th, at Goldthwaite. There will be a junior and senior division in this contest for both boys and girls.

The question as to where we shall have the meet this year was then voted on by the committee. The result was as follows: John M. Scott, Mrs. John M. Scott, Mrs. Katherine Kemp, Miss Sibyl Guthrie all of Mullin voted for Mullin; Eric D. Roberson of Big Valley, Roy Simpson of Midway, Miss Janie Ruth Whatley of Goldthwaite voted for Goldthwaite. The meet therefore will be held in Mullin, March 25th and 26th.

The following committees were appointed: the committee for new cups, Mr. Simpson of Midway, Supt. Gerold of Star, Miss Lillian Patterson; the committee to collect old cups, John M. Scott, Mrs. Eric D. Roberson, Mrs. Queen; the finance committee, Willie Wasserman, Mr. Fuller, Miss Vera Berry; committee on medals Mrs. Sparks Bigham, Frazier Henry, Mary Cockrell.

The Meet this year should be the best we have ever had if we are able to profit by past years. There has been an unprecedented growth in the League for this County during the last three years, and much valuable work has been done through it. Many faithful teachers have put in over time to enable the children to appear to the best advantage. These efforts will never be paid in dollars and cents, but the satisfaction that one has done some good which will enable some boy or girl to be more intelligent and to live more happily is the greatest pay that one can receive. So, let us all work as best we can to have a good year. Yours truly,

D. A. NEWTON

BIG VALLEY

To The Eagle:

Big Valley is getting down to business now. Christmas is over and the new year 1927 is with us so if we live up to our new resolutions we must keep on the job doing all the good we can to all the people, in all the ways we can.

Everyone around seemed to have a good Christmas. We are hoping for nice weather so we can get our highway finished by Monday January 3rd. Bible and Denard are still on the job and that is equivalent to saying the road work will go right on. They are now South of the Prescott bridge grading.

We had a quite wedding last Wednesday evening. Mr. Glen Johnson and Miss Mabel Goode stole a march on their friends of Big Valley by driving over to San Saba and having Brother Seals say the words that made them one. Mr. Johnson is well known in the Valley, having once lived here. He now lives in San Saba. Mrs. Johnson is loved and respected by all who know her. She is quite an accomplished young woman and Mr. Johnson can count himself as being fortunate indeed in winning the heart of this fair maid. We wish for them both happiness and a long useful life.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left Sunday for Eastland where Mrs. Johnson will continue her school. Griff McConnell left Monday morning for Thorp Springs where he will continue his school work. Clell Reed and Dee Hartman are helping with the road work this week.

Suggestions for Community Club Meetings

To make meetings interesting and to maintain a good attendance the following suggestions should be considered:

1. Open on time. Don't wait for anyone.

2. Expediate the business of the meeting. Don't allow things to drag. Don't allow anyone to talk too much, not even the chairman. Leaders should report progress at meetings after discussion on the outside.

3. Close on time, or in other words, don't hold long enough to tire the audience. Better call a special meeting to finish up a program than to hold too long.

4. Give the school 15 minutes at the opening for songs or readings and have the audience join in the singing.

5. Adopt an order of business for regular meetings something like this:

(a) Program by the school

(b) Reading unapproved minutes.

(c) Unfinished business including reports of progress by leaders.

(d) News by interest.

(e) Announcements.

(f) Adjournment.

6. For special meetings to hear lectures:

RALPH BROTHERS RESUME DRILLING OPERATIONS

Today the drill in the Robertson No. 1 well—about five miles west of Goldthwaite, in the Rock Springs community—begins heading again for China. Operations on this test well being drilled by the Smith Interests of Fort Worth had been halted for several weeks on account of casing. However, during the last week the casing has been placed on the ground and Ralph Brothers, who are drilling the well under contract, state that the casing has been placed in the hole and that drilling will start again today.

While no data concerning the well is being given out by the operators, it is thought the well is now around 750 feet deep and it should many weeks to reach the level, the depth in which black lime and oil bearing were struck in the other town.

Tomorrow, January 15, expiration date of the lease on the tract of land just west of town secured by Mr. Ch.

(a) Program by school
(b) Visiting speaker,
(c) Adjournment.

L. E. Stockard speaking half of the "4 Square School" will deliver address the following places:

Lake Merritt, Monday,

Priddy, Tuesday, January 17.

Mt. Olive, Wednesday, January 19.

Star, Thursday, January 20.

Prairie, Friday, January 21.

All meetings at 7:30 p. m. Mr. Stockard will visit as many schools as possible during the day.

Teachers, trustees and patrons of neighboring schools should attend these meetings and give thorough thought to this proposed change in the grading of the Rural Schools.

Two More Community Clubs

Last Friday night about twenty farmers and several young people met at Star for the purpose of organizing a Community Club.

Prof. Gerald called the meeting to order and called on County Agent Weaver to state the purposes of such a club. Mr. Weaver explained in detail advantages of community organization. Judge Patterson then made an interesting talk along school and community improvement, after which it was voted to form a Club. Ira Nabors was named president and Henry Peck, secretary. It was then voted that dairy and poultry improvement should head the list of community activities.

Community leaders were named to direct the work on dairying, poultry, hogs, beef cattle, sheep, and goats, home canning and community fair.

Monday night, Center Point formed a club by choosing W. H. Linkenhoger, president, Jim Fallon, vice-president and Mrs. John Edlin, secretary.

They also believe that dairy and poultry interests are the outstanding community activities. Leaders were appointed for dairying, poultry, hogs, home canning, and boys and girls club.

County Agent Weaver and Judge Patterson spoke on the importance of community work. Talks were made by a number of citizens.

These communities will try to solve their own problems.

SPORT BRIEFS

The Eagles lost last Friday's cage game by a close margin, considering the big score on each side. The local team had many more shots than the visitors, and if they had been in good shape, the score might have been different.

The junior boys won the interclass championship in basketball when they swamped the senior team 12 to 2. The senior girls, however, won by a big margin as the junior boys, so the scales are pretty well balanced on the basketball proposition.

In tennis, however, the seniors are far in the lead. Weatherly and Barnett won the junior championship from Yarborough and Morris in 2 out of 3 sets—(6-1) (6-3).

Page and Hester won the senior championship from Summy and Stephens in two out of three sets—(6-1) (6-1).

The senior champs defeated the junior champs in 2 out of 3 sets—(6-2) (6-3).

In the girls' singles, Steen (senior) defeated Nickols (junior) in three games (3-0).

Mr. Newton submits the following material, taken from the "American Educational Digest," for the paper this week:

A School Responsibility

A member of the editorial staff of Hygeia, Mildred Whitecomb, in a communication to the "American Educational Digest," says that a superintendent of public schools told her that the most successful speaker of the last year in his schools was a police sergeant. Although the sergeant's English was Irish, there was no withstanding the fascinating twinkle of his eye, the keenness of his humor, the glitter of his buttons, and the soundness of his advice, the superintendent pointed out, and went on to say that his message in regard to "Safety First—and Last" was so fruitful of good results that before the year was over he had addressed nearly every school in the city. Continuing her statement, Miss Whitecomb says: Of all street accidents the greatest number are traceable to jay-walking, or crossing in the middle of the block. The next greatest toll comes from crossing streets at crossings. Many schools have found it helpful to organize a traffic police force among the children. Certain older children with a developed sense of responsibility act as traffic officers for the smaller children. By the introduction of suitable safety education into school weekly let up in accidents can be placed on a year around basis. Some cities are reducing accidents through definite safety instruction in the curriculum. It can be taught in connection with almost every subject, if teachers are alive to its needs.

Fire Prevention Week, Miss Whitecomb says, is almost universally celebrated in the schools. There are many teachers in public schools who actually do not know how to turn in a fire alarm. Every citizen, old or young, should be familiar with this simple device. The same holds true in regard to fire extinguishers. Teachers and the older pupils should be informed of the correct use of the extinguishers without having to stop to read the directions in case of fire. In regard to first aid instruction Miss Whitecomb points out:

First aid instruction is an important part of safety education. The youngest kindergarten child is old enough to know that the scratches, cuts and minor wounds should receive immediate first aid treatment, through the application of an antiseptic. The community High School, Carlinville, Ill., has made first aid instruction a laboratory exercise in its physiology classes. Pupils learn how to stop the flow of blood, bind broken limbs, revive drowning persons, treat electrical burns and administer artificial respiration. As text books they use the American Red Cross Manual and the Manual of the Bureau of Mines and Minerals. Although in later years these pupils may forget the fine technique of bandaging, they will not forget the underlying principles. They developed self-reliance and assurance.

The writer characterizes the foregoing steps toward safety as being a part of the school's responsibility as well as that of the home. Individual school systems, she says, must adopt safety instruction to their individual needs.

A great wave of industry is sweeping over Goldthwaite High this week.

The pupils have become students. They have a harassed and worried look, as if they were expecting some dreadful disaster, and indeed they are, for this week is mid-term examination week.

The examinations will be taken on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. When they are over everyone will breathe a sigh of relief and declare that, "they weren't so bad after all."

Several new pupils have enrolled in school since the holidays. They are: Ruth Hill, Margaret Todd, R. V. Leverett, Beulah Cook, Palmer Hill, and Burt Leverett.

Margaret Saylor visited school Monday afternoon.

Fred Armstrong spent Sunday in Mullin.

Doris Oden went to Hamilton, Sunday.

CHAPEL

Wednesday morning Mr. Newton gave an interesting and profitable talk on "Consideration for Others".

"Politeness is to do and say the kindest things in the kindest way."

With this verse Mr. Newton began his talk. He said that all well-mannered persons show consideration for others. Consideration means careful thought. That is, you must have the will to do for others, as you would like to have others do for you. Mr. Newton urged us to forget ourselves, to think of others, at home, at school and in public. He pointed out that we should not block door ways, hallways, stairways or side walks. This is rudeness that arises from thoughtlessness. He asked us to avoid loud, boisterous conversation. Only a rude person speaks in a voice louder than necessary.

All these things have been told us many times. However, we sometimes grow careless and fail to observe them, so it is well that Mr. Newton brought this instruction to us.

Friday morning Rev. Dance told the students of the school how to memorize. The talk was interesting as well as beneficial.

Rev. Dance said that in late years the subject of supervised study has come to be an important one. The freshmen of the University are taught how to study. There is no reason why supervised study should not be brought to the high school.

The subject Rev. Dance chose in the field of supervised study was "Memory". He said never try to memorize a lesson word by word; but learn it in a logical way, then you will have it. Every person has a good memory if he has common sense. A good memory is a habit. A man who has a good education has a good memory.

EAGLES LOSE CONTEST TO MULLIN CAGERS

The Eagles lost an exciting basketball game to Mullin last Friday by a score of 23 to 23. The Mullin quintette took the lead in the first quarter and held it throughout the game. The home cagers, however, were always within a few points of the leaders and several times lacked only one point of knotting the count.

The lineup:
 Linkenhoger—forward.
 Gray—forward.
 Locklear—forward.
 Graves—forward.
 Richie—center.
 Hale—guard.
 Cooke—guard.
 Carl Keese—referee.

Bro. Dance gave us four or five principles to aid us in memorizing. The first thing is to choose what you want to memorize. If you want to memorize a poem in a book of poems, decide once and for all which poem you want to memorize. Why? Because you learn eighteen times more with your eyes than with your ears. Paint a picture in your brain of the poem you want to learn. One must visualize in a logical manner. A poem or a great piece of literature is useless, if you don't visualize it in its entirety and in a logical way. Third, repeat the poem thirty times. Say the poem five times in its entirety when you first begin. Rest one hour; repeat five more times; then repeat five times every forty-eight hours until you have mastered it. The last principle of memorizing is retention. We must memorize with the intention of making the material our own permanently. The work does us little good if we forget the poem or passage as soon as we have memorized it.

Nervous hot flashes

"SOME time ago when in a very nervous, run-down condition," says Mrs. Martha F. Marlow, of Broken Bow, Okla., "I tried numerous remedies to try at least to keep going, but I could not. I was weak and tired—just no good at all. My back ached and I had hot flashes until I was so very nervous I smothered."

"I couldn't sleep and I was never hungry, and I kept getting weaker. I couldn't stand on my feet. This was an unusual condition for me as I had been pretty strong all along. I knew that I would have to do something, and that pretty soon."

"Some friend suggested that I take Gardui, and it certainly was a good suggestion, for after taking one bottle I could tell I was stronger and better. I didn't quit. I kept it up all through the change and did fine. I felt like a different person after I began taking Gardui."

Gardui has helped thousands of suffering women. Sold by all druggists.

Car Shortage Overcome by Co-operation

The Santa Fe gives this a practical demonstration in 1926. You are invited to read this account of an achievement which saved Santa Fe patrons millions of dollars.

Five years ago one of the most serious transportation problems was the handling of very heavy freight traffic resulting from unusually large production and requiring prompt movement to secure favorable markets.

Even though the railroads did their best, car shortage and congestion were the natural results of such peak movements. And because of this slowing up everybody suffered. Such losses involved not only large sums of money, but partial paralysis of business. These transportation enemies now have been overcome.

To illustrate, the Santa Fe in June and July, 1926, had an enormous wheat crop to handle from Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas to the big markets. To provide for prompt handling 12,500 box cars in first-class condition had been distributed on sidetracks in the territory where they would be needed.

The demand for cars, however, resulting mainly from the use of "combines,"—which converted wheat standing in the field in the morning into wheat ready for loading in the afternoon,—was largely in excess of what had been anticipated.

For fifty days the average wheat loading was 1,050 cars per day, exceeding all previous records by 84 per cent, with one single day's maximum loading of 1,569 cars.

This huge crop, notwithstanding the new and rapid method of harvesting, was moved with a negligible car shortage, without congestion, and with little or no delay, something never before accomplished under similar car-loading demands.

What made such a result possible? Co-operation of everyone interested and the loyal and efficient work of Santa Fe employees.

To meet the crisis the Car Service Division of the American Railway Association, with the consent of other railroads, diverted to the Santa Fe every available box car at Chicago regardless of ownership.

The Santa Fe also had the most hearty and helpful co-operation of Regional Advisory Boards, Terminal and Port Committees, State Grain Inspection Departments, State Railway Commissions, and the United States Shipping Board. Shippers and receivers of wheat also helped. And there was the whole-hearted support of its own employees.

This is a practical and convincing proof that co-operation can meet every transportation demand, eliminate car shortage and congestion, and save producers and shippers hundreds of millions of dollars annually.

The Santa Fe wishes to express its sincere appreciation of this co-operation and of the efficient and loyal service of its employees.

HIS FIRST QUESTION IS

"How About the Telephone Service"

The first question a newcomer to any city asks is whether there is good public utility service. He wants to know what sort of electric power and light, telephone, transportation, and fuel service is to be had.

It is necessary to have good telephone service if a business or industry is to prosper or if a community is to be a good place to live in.

That is why the newcomer asks first about the public utility service. The service of West Texas Telephone Company is a public service so necessary that its quality is a matter of public concern.

This company fully appreciates its obligation and the obligation of this community as identical—to keep the service as good as possible and to have it in increasing volume to meet increasing demands.
