How To Fight Incendiary Bombs Described Below

State Fire Defense Coordinator Tells Ways To Handle

AUSTIN, March 19.—Described as essential information which every person should know, Marvin Hall, State Fire Insurance Commissioner and Fire Defense Coordinator of the National Defense Committee for Texas, today outlined the ways in which incendiary bombs may be most effectively controlled.

"As long as there is a possibility of attack on the United States," Hall stated, "it is imperative that each of us know what to do in the event of a bombing raid."

The Fire Insurance Commissioner said training classes in Civilian Defense are giving careful study to the control of fire bombs, but added that only a small percentage of citizens are enrolled in the classes, and that thousands of Texans in the rural areas have had no opportunity to attend the wartime emergency training classes.

Discussing the effect of incendiary bombing raids, Hall said the chief threat is that they set a large number of simultaneous fires over a wide area. Because American fire departments have been organized and equipped to deal with one fire at a time, a series of wide-spread fires would present a very serious problem.

The incendiary bomb must be recognized as one among the enemy's most destructive weapons under limited raiding conditions. Fires spreading over wide areas, unless controlled, could destroy more production and resources with greater damage than a few high explosive bombs dropped from hit-and-run raiding planes.

Incendiary Bombs Different
The incendiary bomb is vastly different from the high explosive bomb. While the explosive bombs vary in weight from several hundred to a few thousand pounds, they are designed to demolish whatever they strike. The more commonly used incendiary bombs weigh approximately 2 pounds each and a large plane can carry hundreds of them, and in a few seconds they can be scattered over a wide area.

The aerial incendiary bomb most frequently used consists of a magnesium tube filled with a mixture of powdered aluminum and iron oxide known as "thermit." When this bomb strikes, the thermit is ignited and burns fiercely at high degrees of temperature, melting and setting fire to the magnesium casing.

When dropped from 5,000 feet or more this small bomb will penetrate any ordinary roof of wood, tile, slate or metal and an underlying plaster ceiling, but probably not a wooden floor below.

Burning Incendiaries cannot be extinguished, except by special methods not ordinarily available in the home, but they can be controlled by prompt action and the use of simple tools, with a minimum amount of damage resulting from the fires started.

Although the incendiary bomb should be put under control as soon as possible, do not approach within 50 feet for approximately two minutes after it strikes. Some few bombs have a small explosive charge timed to go off about two minutes after impact. Furthermore, the violent phase of its burning action lasts for about 60 seconds after igniting.

If left alone the ordinary bomb will burn out in 15 to 20 minutes, but the heat generated will set fire to anything combustible within several feet.

LONNIE SLAUGHTER STILL IN PHILIPPINES

LONNIE T. SLAUGHTER

Lonnie T. Slaughter, son of Mrs. L. J. Slaughter, was inducted into the army last April. He was stationed in El Paso, in Fort Bliss, for about four months, leaving there last August for the Philippines. His mother received a letter from him last November 19 and hasn't heard from him since, until she received the following letter from the War Department:

Adjutant General's Office, War Department, Washington, Mar. 20, 1942. Mrs. Serena Slaughter, Route 1, Goldthwaite, Texas. Dear Madam:

Reference is made to your letter of recent date, requesting information concerning your son, Lonnie T. Slaughter.

The records of this office show that Private Lonnie T. Slaughter, Army serial number 38,031,345, is still serving in the Philippine Department. I regret to advise that mail service to and from the Philippine Islands has been temporarily suspended.

Due to the present situation existing in the Philippines it is impossible to give the present status of enlisted men serving there. However, I am glad to advise you that the name of your son has not been shown on any casualty list received in the War Department.

Reports of the injury or death of soldiers serving overseas are received by the War Department, and the emergency addressee is immediately notified.

Sugar Rationing Supplies Here; Date To Be Set

Registration Is To Be Held By School Teachers In County

Supplies for registration for the sugar rationing have arrived in Mills County but, so far, no date for the registration has been set. It is thought that the registration will take place about the last of this month.

The registration will be held by the school teachers where there are schools operating. Notice will be given to all the schools as soon as the date is set so that all people may know when and where to go to register and receive the ration books.

Every individual must be registered, but the head of a household can and should register for all the members of his household.

Rationing books should be carefully kept and not lost as they have the value of currency in trade.

Food is a whole arsenal of weapons in this struggle for human freedom.—Secretary of Agriculture Wickard.

BONDS—WHICH?

From Buffalo Courier-Express

By JOHN WRIGHT Mills County Agent

LET'S KILL THE RATS

March 19 was the beginning of a rat killing campaign in Goldthwaite and Mills County.

The poison being used is Red Squill, mixed with meat to induce the rats and mice to eat it. The merchants in town have cooperated with the county agent to the fullest extent, and expressed hope that every home in Mills County would put out poison.

Red Squill is on sale at both of the drug stores in Goldthwaite. It will not kill anything but rats and mice, and this is the main reason for using it. In preparing the poison, mix one ounce of Red Squill to a pound of meat.

When we see signs of a few rats and mice, I wonder if we remember that government statistics show that it takes 265,000 farmers' income to pay for the damage done by them.

It doesn't do much good for a few of us to put out poison, and we know we will not kill them all if everyone does, but we can certainly thin them out. Let's kill the rats.

USE GOOD SEED

The Land Use Planning Committee, which is composed of farm men and women from each section of the county, sponsored a "Use Good Seed Campaign" with very good results this year. Reports show that 3,465 pounds of Registered and Certified Seed have been ordered to date. The seed they expect the most results from is the highly-advertised Texas Hybrid No. 8, which is supposed to increase corn yield about 25 per cent.

JOHN PATTERSON IS CANDIDATE FOR MILLS COUNTY JUDGE

JOHN PATTERSON

As was announced briefly in the Eagle several weeks ago, John Patterson has authorized this paper to announce he is a candidate for the office of Mills County Judge and Ex-officio County School Superintendent, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary next July 25.

John Patterson was born and reared in Mills County. He served as county judge and ex-officio county school superintendent of this county for four or five months in 1934 after the death of his father, the late Judge Lon E. Patterson. He did not offer for the office at that time. He has taught in rural schools of Mills and other counties for 15 years, and feels familiar with school matters. He is a member of a pioneer Mills County family that is known and highly respected throughout this section.

Mr. Patterson promises, if elected, to perform the duties of the office honestly and to the best of his ability. He has never before been a candidate for public office. Mr. Patterson intends to make an active campaign for the position he seeks, and asks for your earnest consideration of his candidacy.

Local Lions Club Wants Congress To Stop Strikes

Resolution Sent To Our Congressmen In Washington

Goldthwaite Lions Club met Tuesday at 8 p. m. at the Methodist Church Recreation Hall. We had an excellent program furnished by Lions Graves and Barnett. The guest speaker was Mrs. Cantrell from Lometa. She spoke on current events. Mr. Cantrell was also a guest and made a good talk.

The next program committee is composed of Lions Stephen and Summy.

The following resolution was sent by the Goldthwaite Lions Club to our senators and representatives in the National Congress:

Goldthwaite, Texas, March 17, 1942.

To Senator Tom Connally, Senator W. Lee O'Daniel, Congressman Chas. L. South, Our Representatives:

Whereas, our nation is now engaged in a war, the magnitude of which exceeds any other in our history; and

Whereas, the earnest, unselfish effort of every citizen is necessary in order to bring victory with the minimum of loss in lives and property; and

Whereas, countless numbers of us have sons, brothers, husbands and fathers, in the battle line, whose safety and efficiency is hampered by lack of arms and equipment; and

Whereas, certain labor elements, in our nation, for their own interest and aggrandizement, are hindering delaying production and

Whereas, such disturbance in labor is caused by ambitious, selfish, and in many cases, corrupt leadership, which is condemned by a great majority of their union members; and

Whereas, such action of labor and union leaders is un-democratic, un-American, and unpatriotic, in the highest degree; and

Whereas, the dilatory and appeasing policy of Congress and the Administration, in dealing with labor leaders and strikes, has resulted in the loss of multiplied thousands of man-hours of labor, and much needed production; and

Whereas, strikes, bickering and useless arbitration efforts have resulted in no benefit to our people, and have only rendered aid and comfort to our enemies; and

Whereas, the man on the farm, at the forge, at the mills, in the saddle and at the office; the Sailor, every moment in peril upon the sea; the Soldier, treading his lonely beat, with a union leader's pocket change for a monthly salary the Heroes of the Philippines, working 24 hours a day and seven days a week, with lessening hope each hour for reinforcements from the Homeland; the Parents brushing aside a tear for a Son forever lost; beneath the ocean wave—Ninety per cent of Americans are getting sick and tired of yielding to selfishness and greed;

THEREFORE, the undersigned, the Lions Club of Goldthwaite, Texas, unanimously resolve:

That Congress be asked to pass IMMEDIATELY, such emergency measures, with pains and penalties for violation, as will put working America on the job 24 hours a day and six days a week; as will enable every man to get work anywhere on his own individual qualifications, without paying heavy tribute to selfish, greedy and unpatriotic leaders; as will effect minimum delay and maximum production.

If such measures cannot be effective, then that our Government draft labor, as it has

$25 Check Given To Goldthwaite Fire Department

Volunteers Meet Twice Each Month To Hold Fire Drills

The Goldthwaite Volunteer Fire Department has received a check for $25 from John A. Hunter, manager of the Stephens Warehouse here, for excellent work done by the volunteer boys in putting out the recent fire at the warehouse.

The Goldthwaite fire boys meet on the first and third Monday nights of each month at the City Utility Building for drills and instruction. A bell to be used as a fire alarm has this week been installed in front of the building.

An unknown sponsor is going to throw a fish-fry for the fire department personnel at the Lake next Thursday night.

MUCH INTEREST IN FIRST-AID INSTRUCTION SHOWN OVER COUNTY

Walter Summy this week will finish teaching his second Red Cross First-Aid Class in Goldthwaite. The two classes were held at the City Utilities Building, with 20 hours of class instruction for each class. Over 20 men finished these courses.

Mr. Summy will begin teaching a First-Aid Class in Mullin Monday of next week, and it is expected that around 20 will be enrolled.

Carlos Patterson began teaching another class at Priddy Tuesday of this week, and Dr. J. J. Stephen started a Red Cross First-Aid Class for Mills County women at the Meiba Theatre here Tuesday afternoon. On Monday, Mrs. Pearl Hale Long began instructing a class of Mills County Women in Red Cross Home Nursing.

drafted an army, and has drafted capital—until the great National Emergency is over.

The above resolution was unanimously passed by the Lion's Club at Goldthwaite, Texas, on March 17. We pass the same to you for your attention, and hope to hear from you regarding the same.

F. C. FOLEY, Secretary of Goldthwaite Lions Club

OUTLAWING STRIKES ADVOCATED BY FISHER

Strong legislative action to curb strikes during the emergency was urged by District Attorney O. C. Fisher of San Angelo, candidate for Congress, in a speech last Thursday before the Kerrville Kiwanis Club. His subject was "America at War."

Without mincing words, Fisher declared: "The United States today faces the greatest crisis in its history. Civilization itself stands at the bar of judgment, and Congress should immediately make it a form of treason for any man—laborer or manager—to obstruct or for even one minute to slow down production of war materials." He condemned labor racketeers and said their stand in many instances have been "downright unpatriotic" and must no longer be tolerated.

Fisher recalled that Donald Nelson, OPM chief, recently said that production could be doubled if all plants operated on a 24-hour day, seven days a week, basis.

"Production must be on that full scale to assure victory," the district attorney added, presenting a three-point program for victory-production. This he explained as follows:

1. Deal effectively and unsparingly with strike racketeers.
2. Remove limitations on hours of work in government and elsewhere during the duration.
3. Eliminate all excess war profits, so we won't have profiteer millionaires at the expense of our soldier boys.

Mr. Fisher pointed out that President Roosevelt several weeks ago said the failure to produce one destroyer might conceivably turn the tide of battle in favor of the enemy. "Yet," Fisher said, "costly strikes continue to impede our war production program."

Virginia Stockton Makes Honor Roll

SAN MARCOS, March 18.—One hundred eighty-nine students of Southwest Texas State Teachers College made the honor roll for the fall semester. To achieve this distinction a student must make an average of at least "B" and must have no failures on his record.

Included in the honor roll from Goldthwaite was Miss Virginia Stockton.

SGT. HESS WANTS ORDNANCE RECRUITS

Sgt. William J. Hess, local recruiting sergeant located in the Memorial Hall in Brownwood, announced this week that the Ordnance Department is in need of hundreds of young men who have the proper experience and background to qualify them for this branch of the service. Young men between the ages of 18 and 35, who are qualified as mechanics, automotive men, electricians, welders, and college men with engineering training are needed by the Ordnance Department. Candidates who desire to enlist for an ordnance assignment are requested to call upon the nearest Corps Area ordnance officer, Post Ordnance officer, or Arsenal of Depot commander for an interview. If found qualified for an Ordnance assignment, the candidate will be given a letter addressed "To Whom It May Concern" stating that he has been interviewed by an Ordnance representative and found to be qualified for assignment to the Ordnance Department. Young men who call upon an ordnance representative for an interview and receive a letter recommending his assignment to the ordnance department will in all probability be assigned to this branch of the service.

Any one desiring information regarding enlistment, including Aviation Cadets, should contact Sgt. William J. Hess at the Memorial Hall.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

HANNA VALLEY By JEWEL JONES

Some corn planting here this week. No rain though, lately.

Ben Egger has been a very sick man again, but is up at present. We hope he will soon be well again.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Egger ate fish with Alton Jones and wife last week-end.

Our bus driver, Tilman Smith, reports his family improving after a siege of scarlet fever.

Mrs. G. H. Whitley visited in Alton Jones' home Monday.

Loyt Roberts reports a good hatch of baby turkeys.

Well, the talk in this part of the country is where will we move? It's bad enough on the young people to have to leave their homes, but think of the old pioneers that are left having to leave their old homes. For instance, J. M. Jones, who has lived here for over 80 years on the same tract of land. But if it takes it to win this war, let's all take it like any good American should. Our boys need our help. We must do our part.

Henry C. Chappel, who is stationed at the air base at Portland, Oregon, writes his mother, Mrs. Viola Chappell, that he is well and finds the training interesting.

INDIAN DANCERS HELP SELL DEFENSE BONDS

CHICAGO, March 19. (Special)—With Tom Toms ringing out cadences of America's oldest war dance, Indian dancers from the Jemez Pueblo near Santa Fe, N. M., today sounded a new tocsin in the nation's defense bond and stamp drive before Mayor Edward J. Kelly and members of Chicago's city council.

Sponsored by the Santa Fe Railway and the United States Treasury Department, the Indian team-champion dancers at the Gallup Inter-tribal ceremonials are making a tour of the country's principal cities, including those in Texas, to stimulate America's interest in war efforts and bond buying.

In a colorful ceremony at Chicago's city hall, Tony White Cloud presented Mayor Kelly with greetings from Frank Rand, New Mexico's defense savings staff administrator, and draped the mayor in a blanket woven at the Jemez Pueblo. During the exchange of greetings, Mayor Kelly appointed White Cloud a member of the city council and presented the entire group with keys to the city.

team consists of two women, five men and an 8-year-old boy, Sammy, who performs the difficult acrobatic hoop dance.

Descendants of the Southwest's fierce Indian warriors, the Jemez team represents the ardent patriotism of the modern Indian and fervent desire for American victory. The dancers will appear on a series of programs sponsored by the defense savings staff of the Treasury Department and the Santa Fe Railway.

Hardly added a quart "since Hector was a pup"

How this oil that defies "curdling" far out-mileaged five other great quality brands... beat their average more than twice over, in Certified Desert Test

Curd thickening up milk don't half give you a picture of the blobs of muck that can foul your oil—and your engine. For muck and "stickum" from oil that fails under present-day strain can't improve lubrication, nor add to safe mileage per quart. But now that you must change oil for Spring—really a law in every Car Instruction Book—you can easily switch to Conoco Nth motor oil. And in patented Conoco Nth oil you get Thialhene inhibitor... man-made... the modern synthetic invented to restrain stickiness—sluggishness—"simmering down thick."

Conoco Nth gets every chance to stay smoothly fluid; full of life. And still another great Conoco synthetic—same as ever—makes Conoco Nth give you an OIL-PLATED engine, with lubricant "plated" you'd say—or seemingly "magnetized"—direct to inner engine parts. Then OIL-PLATING isn't all draining down fast during parking—or even overnight. Instead, OIL-PLATING can stay up high, to help out your engine at every start, before any oil-pump raises up its full stream.

That's how to foil a lot of wear, and not have your engine soon over-eating oil. Talk about a strict economy diet! ...Down in Death Valley's record high heat, battling five other big-name oils—impartially—this same Conoco Nth oil was still up above half when all others tested had burned up their engines and their full 5-quart fills!

That's a certified sample. It makes you realize why you can change to Conoco Nth and keep away from adding quart after quart. Get rid of hazardous Winter oil now, at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Get economy to the Nth degree. Continental Oil Company

SENIOR REPORT

The Seniors, as well as the other classes of high school, are working hard and earnestly for county meet. We all know that this is our last time for a chance in the contest activities for county meet, and we intend to do our best in order for our Senior year in high school to be one well worth remembering.

"Try-outs" are being taking place this week, and we are all aware that we can't all be winners, but we haven't lost entirely just because we don't win first place. We all win in one sense, because every ounce of work we put forth gains us valuable experience and gives us knowledge unsurpassable. So our policy is—"May the best man win in the name of old Goldthwaite High," for all we do we do it in honor and remembrance of the school that we love so well—and cherish as the sanctuary of knowledge, and may it always be to the hearts of those that follow as it is to the hearts of those that know, love, and cherish it now.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL NEWS

We are glad to welcome a number of new students to grammar school. They are Maxine Jackson, grade eight, Hazel Faye MacCalla, grade seven, and Shirley Joan MacCalla, grade five.

Students who have recently withdrawn are Dean Henderson, Orville Braswell, and Connie Mack Young.

The eighth grade has taken up banking in arithmetic. We hope everyone will get a good start and make an X next month.

VOLLEY BALL CLUB

The Volley Ball club met last Tuesday to elect officers for 1942. The following officers were elected:

President—Ruth Whitt.
 Vice-President—Amber Graves.
 Secretary-Treasurer—Eunice Wrinkle.

Reporter—Wilda Geeslin.
 Mrs. Barnett was selected as our sponsor and we feel that we are really very fortunate to have her as our sponsor and coach.

We are still practicing hard and are looking forward to the volley ball tournament.

PRESENTING:

A brown-eyed, pug-nosed Senior girl who has attended dear old "G. H." only this year. She has been here such a short time that we don't know much about her. We do know that she has a pleasing personality, a friendly attitude toward everyone, a cheerful outlook toward life, and has a smile for everyone. This certain Senior girl is Florine Kemp. Florine is an average student and has plenty of "oomph"—that is, she is lively, gay, and popular with both the boys and girls of G.H.S. We don't know anything bad about her so all we can say is that we hope that she will continue to be just Florine and no one else.

Likes best—Football jackets.
 Dislikes—Competition.
 Favorite song—"I don't want to walk without you."
 In-a-word description—That's her.

First you see her long black curly locks, and as she slowly turns around, you get a glimpse of breath-takingly long eyelashes that cover up big, soft brown eyes, clear white skin and rosy cheeks, and a wide free smile that reveals pearly white teeth and almost brings out dimples. This is Crystal Louise Skipper, and a sweeter girl there never was. I'm beginning to change my opinion that she is a quiet, reserved little girl, for she can be as gay and lively as the rest of us. She is rather small in size, and it seems almost impossible that she can undertake so many outside activities and still maintain her straight E average. She accompanies the glee club on the piano, sings in the trio, carries on her music lessons outside of school, and is one of our best debaters. She was our choice in the D.A.R. contest and was also valedictorian in the seventh grade. She hopes to attend the University of Texas and major in music.

 Likes best—Chocolate bars.
 Dislikes—Screaming on the blackboard with finger-nails.
 In-a-word description—Deelightful.

I suppose you have been wondering just what person would be able to preside over and get results out of eighty Seniors. Well, I'm telling you, it's not an easy job, and no one is more capable of holding this position than our own noble president, Eloise Slaughter. Whenever you hear a pleasure-evoking "hee-hee-hee" Eloise is sure to be somewhere around. This lovely down-to-earth young lassie with glossy brown hair and green eyes that sparkle with fun and laughter, has attended Goldthwaite since way back in her freshman days. "Slaughter" excels in twirling, and has been an indomitable figure of the band for the last three years, being majorette for two years and drum major this year. Not bad in her studies either—oh no—not with a perfect record so far. And what's more, she's one of the foremost debaters of our time. She is going to pursue a dramatic career, but whether it's to be at T.C.U., Texas University, or TSCW at Denton, she hasn't decided.

Likes best—Some people.
 Dislikes—Other people.
 In-a-word description—Killer.

Her name is Evelyn Kauhs and you've seen this pleasing number at Goldthwaite for the past eleven years. She's the quiet little lady with the appealing brown eyes and the face that is all crinkled up with laughter, which is hardly surprising, because she is always wreathed in smiles. Her height is average, and she keeps us all guessing by wearing her brother's football jacket. Evelyn has always been a faithful pep squad member, and now belongs to the typing and volley ball clubs. She just loves to play tennis, she is going to study to become a nurse.

Likes best—Lemon meringue pie.
 Dislikes—Toothache.
 Secret ambition—To find the source of the wind.
 In-a-word description—Modest.

THE TRASH CHUTE
 My, my, the way some girls went around gaping, waving, and smiling so enhancingly at the soldier boys that recently passed through our city, you would think they never saw one before. But then, we all have our moments.

Speaking of soldiers, a cute little thing in a uniform strayed up to high school last Monday and stole the hearts of all the girls. What a jamboree there would have been if there were only a matinee feature in town!

Bobbie O., who is Dick and why did you go to so much trouble to elude him Monday afternoon.

Mohler and Eunice are seen quite often together since he came home. Has Shirley lost out completely?

Wanda B. Stoddard, Burnsie, and Sam were all having a wonderful time Saturday night. The girls must have buried the hatchet.
 Here comes those soldiers again! They just won't remain in the background. Birdie Lee and Margie Bryant were seen with their favorite rookies Saturday night. And sometime later we found Margie and her buck private (maybe he's a corporal or lieutenant—we haven't got the details yet) on the church steps, of all places. That's getting close!

Maxine, you better hang on to your man or Bonnie Fern is going to run away with him.

Make up your mind, Billy Jack. We thought it was Macalee, then Friday night you were seen at Shady Pause with Mary Nell.

Lafon's profound interest in Big Valley isn't just Big Valley—it's mostly Harold R., aren't I right?

Patsy, Joe, Lanelle, and Norris are getting to be a habit. They make a cute little foursome, don't they?

What was wrong with your eyes Monday, Adelaide? Fred hasn't been stepping out on you, has he?

And did you know that the supposedly man-hater Evelyn K. was seen Saturday night with a very striking young gentleman? But it's never too late to yearn.

Joe, I'm just dying to find out why you wanted to know how to spell Bexyle's name. Maybe she can enlighten me.

HOMEMAKERS CAN USE SUBSTITUTES IN PLACE OF SUGAR

By FRANCES BRAMMER
 Mills County H-D Agent
 With sugar rationing just around the corner, homemakers will do well to substitute molasses for it in some dishes. In reality molasses offers more food value than most sweets for it contains minerals and vitamins not found in sugar. As a rule, the darker the molasses, the better its nutritive value. Recipes for molasses dishes are as follows:

RAISIN BROWN BETTY—Serves 5

2 c. bread crumbs, 1-4 c sugar, 2 T. molasses, 1 c raisins, 2 t butter, milk to moisten. Brown crumbs. Add sugar. Add milk and molasses. Sprinkle on top with sugar and dot with the butter. Bake in moderate oven until crust is formed on top. Prune juice may be substituted for the liquid. Grated lemon rind will improve the flavor.

CEREAL PUDDING—Serves 6
 4 c scalded milk, 1 1-2 c corn meal, grated rind of 1-2 orange, 1-2 c molasses, 1-4 c peanuts. Boil peanuts (chopped) 20 minutes. Slowly add milk to corn meal. Cook in double boiler 30 minutes. Add peanuts and other ingredients. Pour in greased baking dish and bake in slow oven for 1 hour.

MOLASSES COOKIES

About 3 dozen
 1-4 c butter, 1-2 c molasses, 1-2 c sugar, 3 c flour, 1-4 c milk, salt. Cream butter and sugar. Add molasses and milk. Add other ingredients. Mix thoroughly. Chill. Roll dough thin, cut and bake on greased sheet.

TAKE CARE WASHING MACHINES, IS ADVICE

COLLEGE STATION, March 19.—Families fortunate enough to own electric washing machines had better take good care of them, for production of war equipment has curtailed the supply of new washers.

Follow the manufacturer's directions for oiling the motor, wringer gears, or any part of the machine. Do not over-oil any part.

Keep the washing machine clean. Rinse and drain it well, wipe out any lint, and dry the machine inside and out. To keep the outside frame from rusting, if it is made of steel or iron, rub it occasionally with a little oil. If the machine is out in the open, cover it to provide added protection. Between washdays, leave the drain faucet open and prop the lid open an inch or two.

Now that rubber is scarce it is especially necessary to take care of rubber rolls in the wringer. Don't stall or strain the wringer by putting too much clothing through at one time. Buttons and buckles should be folded to the inside of clothes before they are wrung out.

After every washing the rubber rolls should be wiped clean and dry and the pressure on them released. One added warning is: Never use harsh scouring powders on any part of the machine, especially the inside.

PRIDDY NEWS

We rejoice that men have started paving the new highway. It will not be long now, about 120 days, that we can drive on a paved road. This will eliminate some of the dust. Special Lenten services are held every Wednesday night at Zion's Lutheran Church. The well at the church property has been completed and the wind-mill is set up, and the workmen are getting the cistern-house ready. Mr. August Marwitz has moved the old St. John church building on the property and it is repaired to be used for Sunday School rooms and other church activities.

Last Sunday Zion's congregation met to adopt a new constitution, since the job was not completed it was recessed until next Sunday afternoon, 5:00 p. m. Wilfer Schuster, Gilbert Schlee and Emory Muehlrad accompanied some of their teachers to Star for the Teacher's Meeting, to render a part on the program.

In the Lutheran services last Sunday a beautiful Service Flag was dedicated. Mr and Mrs Mike Schlee donated this flag. There will be 16 stars on his flag next Sunday. Our boys are leaving to protect our precious rights. The Ladies Aid members of Zion's congregation decided to have a short program in connection with their business meetings. They also decided that more paint should be purchased to finish the parsonage. Having a love for their Master and His Kingdom, the Aid members decided that they will donate all the eggs laid on Good Friday, when the Lord gave His all for us, for the Lord's cause. Some of this money shall be used to fix up and furnish the kitchen in the new parish house.

THE PEOPLE ARE AROUSED (Commercial Appeal)

Saturday The Commercial Appeal printed as an editorial on the front page a letter from John C. Sheffield, a member of the Arkansas Bar who served with the United States forces in the first World War. Mr. Sheffield, a native Mississippian, was born and reared at Arkabutla in Tate County. The article follows: "To The Commercial Appeal: "My only son was born while I was in France during the first World War. Today he is a member of the United States Marine Corps. He sailed from California the first of January, and we have heard nothing from him since. We know he is somewhere in the Pacific. We are anxious about him. Thousands of other parents are like us. "The President says we do not have enough ships to send supplies to our troops, and that we must build ships in a hurry. Even as he spoke several hundred shipbuilders refused to work on Washington's birthday because they were not paid double time. "How can fathers and mothers of boys who are in the danger zone and who are being called upon to sacrifice their lives feel any 'surge' of unity when the President and the Congress permit a bunch of shipbuilders and munitions workers to quit when they get good and ready? "Do our boys at the front get 'overtime' and 'double time' in the fox holes of the Philippines? Do our sons who are giving their lives to protect the jobs of these and others like them quit on holidays? Like hell they do! "One of my friends, who is a good mechanic, with a family to support, went to get a job in a munitions plant. Every day we hear on the radio and read in the newspapers that such men are needed to turn out munitions for our soldiers, sailors and marines. But this man was refused a job until he could get a union card. He could not get a union card because he did not have enough money to buy one. "Is it the idea of our government that it is more important to preserve labor unions than it is to preserve the American Union? Why can't a freeborn American citizen get a job in a plant where the government needs workers without having to pay tribute to a high-powered labor leader "If our sons are to be drafted to give their lives for their country why should not Labor and Capital be drafted to supply them with munitions of war? Why should Congress, which has the power to make laws, be so tender of the regard for laborers and management who work and prosper in safety while having an utter disregard for the lives of the boys at the front? "We don't like it, and we don't mind saying so right out loud. Maybe it is time we were electing some senators and congressmen who will crack down and compel Capital and Labor to get into this war. And, come to think of it, this is election year, and we might as well get busy while we have time and opportunity.—John C. Sheffield, Helena, Ark."

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Tate had as week-end guests their son, Milton Tate of Grand Prairie and Mr. Tate's mother, Mrs. B. S. Tate, of Snyder. Mrs. J. C. Martin and Mrs. W. C. Thompson visited their mother, Mrs. W. B. Potter, Sunday. For Victory: Buy Bonds —

School Trustee Election Day Is Saturday, Apr. 4

March 24 Is Last Day To Get Names Printed On Ballots

Saturday, April 4, 1942, will be school trustee election day. Election notices have been mailed out to the different districts. Each district, except those having seven members, will elect one member. Those districts having seven members will elect two members each this year. This does not apply to the independent districts. County trustees will be elected in Commissioners Precincts One, Two, and Four. Precinct Three and the county at large elected trustees in 1941, and will not have elections for those places this year.

Blank ballots for the trustee elections will be furnished in each district. The name of any person may be written on the ballot, either blank or printed. Some districts prefer to have a printed ticket. The law provides that any five qualified voters may petition the County Judge to have the name of any person qualified to serve as trustee placed on a printed ballot in the district. The same law applies as to county trustees ballots. All petitions must be on file at least ten days before the date of the election. This year the last date for filing names of candidates for trustee will be Tuesday, March 24. The following form of petition is sufficient to have a name printed on the ballot: To the County Judge of Mills County, Texas: We, the undersigned qualified voters residing in the School District, hereby request that the name of _____ a resident qualified voter, be placed on the school trustee ballot in the election to be held in said district on Saturday, April 4, 1942. Here's a way You can help in National Defense

You are not asked to give up using any electrical appliance, but merely to see to it that lights are not left burning when no one is using them, that the radio is turned off when no one is listening to it . . . that all appliances are used efficiently. In short, Don't waste power!

By orders curtailing the production of household goods to release critical materials for defense articles, Uncle Sam tells us that we must get along for a time with what we have. To help with this program, SEE YOUR ELECTRICAL DEALER for repair services on old appliances so that you can "make them do" until the emergency is over.

WARTIME RESOLUTIONS

By GEORGE C. HESTER

This is going to be a tough war. Regardless of whether it lasts one year or ten years, we must win it. There can be but one end, one achievement, which is complete victory. Nothing else should ever enter our thinking. Confidence and not fear should govern us. To that end let us resolve each day:

- That this is a total war;
- That in the end only those who fight will survive;
- That destruction comes to those who fear, to the weak and to those of little faith;
- That the cause of freedom in the world for the next hundred years is at stake in this struggle;
- That this war is being waged on two fronts, the battle front and the home front;

That the winning of a few preliminary campaigns does not decide a war;

That it is the devotion and determination of free peoples, their faith in themselves and the future, that will finally win this struggle;

That our cause is the cause of free peoples everywhere; That Liberty, Democracy, and Freedom are not prizes that we can win once and stop, but they are precious awards for those who are willing to defend them perpetually in order to hold them;

That defending them is a duty we owe not to ourselves, but to those who have died to gain them for us;

That a glorious heritage is at stake, a heritage that was bought by sacrifice and struggle, and without which life itself would become a dreary thing;

That I individually have a part to play, a post to fill in this "all out" struggle;

That I shall inform myself upon the vital issues involved, so that I may act intelligently in the role of a citizen;

That I will dedicate my efforts, zeal, intelligence, means, and initiative each day as my contribution to the mighty task of total war;

That I shall always see the greatness of our cause looming like a massive mountain above the foothills of little things, petty doubts, and pessimism.

That there is no such thing as security for me, individually, unless the nation itself is secure and triumphant;

That wealth, money, enterprise, and even ability become meaningless things and hollow mockeries to those who have lost their freedom;

That I had rather sacrifice my wealth in defense of freedom than to surrender it along with my freedom under orders from Tokio or Berlin;

That to these convictions I resolve to stand steadfast, come what may in the furies of war, confident that in the end those things which are right and just will stand triumphant.

Feeding our armed forces both at home and abroad requires staggering amounts of food.— Arthur E. Petermann, Oklahoma State Director, Farm Security Administration.

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS INCREASE OVER 1941

GALVESTON, March 19. (Special)—Santa Fe System carloadings for the week ended Feb. 28 were 20,981 compared with 16,474 for the same week in 1941.

Cars received from connections totaled 8,125 compared with 7,044 for the same week last year. Total cars moved were 29,106 compared with 23,518 for the same week in 1941.

Santa Fe handled a total of 29,135 cars in the preceding week of this year.

Many large railroads, including the Santa Fe, maintain departments which devote their full time to promoting industrial and agricultural developments in their territories. These departments, manned by industrial and agricultural experts, are active in locating new manufacturing plants, mining enterprises and business establishments in communities along their lines and in co-operating with farmers in introducing new and profitable crops and better farming methods, improving livestock and dairy herds, developing markets and otherwise aiding agriculture and industry.

On top of feeding our own people, there will be lots of hungry nations in Europe after this war that will need a great deal of food during the transition period between war and peace.—Farm Security Administrator Baldwin.

Short Lessons In FIRST AID

By Dr. L. M. THOMPSON
Red Cross First Aid Director

8.—SHOCK, THE UNKNOWN QUANTITY

Few persons outside of hospitals realize the seriousness of shock. It is present to some degree in virtually every case of injury, and it is often the result of nervous and emotional upsets.

Even to the medical profession shock is something of an enigma, for a vast amount of experimental work has failed to reveal all that takes place. However, a great deal is known the symptoms are readily apparent, and effective First Aid measures are available.

Shock varies greatly in severity. In mild cases, such as might be caused by a minor injury or near escape from accident, it may be confined to an "all gone" feeling which passes quickly.

Serious cases involve great distress, unconsciousness, or even death. The condition, in some instances, does not occur until hours after the situation which has caused it, and a person with an easily upset nervous system may suffer severe shock as the result of an accident or other situation that would cause scarcely any disturbance in another.

In general, the term shock is used to indicate a condition in which all the activities of the body are depressed. Especially characteristic are listlessness, dulling of sensibility, weak and rapid pulse with considerable lowering of the blood pressure, subnormal temperature, and irregular, gasping breathing.

Cold perspiration is likely to appear, particularly on the forehead and the palms of the hands. The face may become pale, with an anxious expression, and nausea and vomiting are often present. In severe cases the lips, fingernails and ears have a bluish tinge; the eyelids droop; the lusterless eyes may be fixed in a vacant and glassy expression, and the pulse may be so weak that it cannot be felt at the wrist. In some instances a severe chill develops.

Usually the victim lies quietly and takes little interest in what goes on around him, although sometimes he may be restless. Restlessness is particularly likely to be present if there is internal bleeding. If he is asked how he feels, the question often has to be repeated two or three times before there is any reply.

Then he usually complains of being cold, or very tired, or that his limbs feel dead. In extreme cases there may be complete unconsciousness.

All of these symptoms result from the fact that all parts of the body are receiving an insufficient supply of blood. There is a stagnation of blood chiefly in the blood vessels of the abdomen. This is due to the "insult" the nervous system has received, which causes the nerves to lose control over the blood vessels.

Consequently the vessels relax and dilate. This lowers the blood pressure in them, just as opening up many pipes in a water system will reduce the pressure. The pressure becomes so low that the blood does not flow back to the heart fast enough to supply a sufficient amount to fill the pump each time it pumps. This accounts for the weak pulse. Because it is not filled up each time it beats, the heart attempts to make up for this deficiency and maintain a constant output by going faster. This accounts for the fast pulse.

Shock cannot always be prevented from developing, but its severity can often be greatly limited or reduced. The First Aid measures used for the prevention and for the reduction of shock are the same. They are:

1. Heat—This is the most important.

2. Position—Second in importance.

3. Stimulants—Important in mild cases, but a poor third in serious cases.

No amount of printed information on this subject can be as valuable as a Red Cross First Aid course. But there are certain facts under these three heads which may well be mentioned.

State Department Health Notes

In his recent May Day-Child Health Day Proclamation, President Roosevelt stressed the vital importance of the health of children to the strength of our nation. He urged that all Americans exert every effort at this time to conserve child health, not only through the application of positive health measures, but also by reducing the incidence of the more devastating childhood diseases.

Doctor George W. Cox, State Health Officer, today issued an urgent appeal to all Texans to co-operate whole-heartedly in this health conservation program.

"While it is true that science has had at hand for years the means to reduce almost to the vanishing point the incidence of diphtheria and smallpox," Doctor Cox stated, "nevertheless the actual control of these two diseases is largely in the hands of parents."

Children should receive toxoid treatment between the ages of six and nine, he declared, and pointed out that the necessity for immunization at this early age is based upon the fact that nearly two-thirds of all diphtheria deaths occur in children under six years of age.

"I cannot emphasize too strongly that to deprive your children of the protection that science has made available amounts almost, if not altogether, to criminal negligence," Doctor Cox warned. "The family physician and the public health workers can only point the way and urge action, but the essential factor still lacking in most diphtheria illnesses and deaths is parental co-operation."

Keeping the body warm is of the utmost importance. In many cases all that can be done immediately in this direction is to wrap the victim, underneath as well as on top, to prevent further loss of body heat. Blankets, robes or anything of the kind may be used. Newspapers, preferably used under or between layers of other material, are valuable in conserving warmth.

Heat should be applied externally whenever possible. This is best done by means of hot water bags, although glass jars and bottles may be used in the same way; and other objects, such as bricks, bags of salt or sand, and dinner plates, may be heated and used.

Whatever is used must, however, be used with great care. It is all too easy to seriously burn a person who is in shock or unconscious. This can usually be avoided by holding the heating agents against your own cheek or elbow for half a minute to make sure they are not hot. They should then be wrapped in a layer of cloth or paper, and applied to the feet, between the thighs, along the sides of the body, and over the abdomen. The victim of shock is much better off in a warm room, and under all circumstances he must be shielded from drafts.

Position is a relatively simple matter. Since there is a stagnation of blood in the vessels of the abdomen and there is an insufficient supply particularly to the heart and the brain, the most logical thing to do is to place the shock victim on his back, with the head low, so that gravity will help the flow of blood to these parts. If the victim is resting on a bed or something which can be inclined it is well to raise the foot about 18 inches.

Above all, do not have the victim sit up, except in cases of chest injury or severe nose bleed. And if the skull is fractured or there is other serious head injury, keep the victim level instead of elevating his feet.

Stimulants are often helpful in cases of mild shock. The best stimulants are strong, hot tea or coffee, or aromatic spirits of ammonia, a teaspoon to a half a glass of water. But do not give a stimulant in cases of severe bleeding, whether internal or external, until the bleeding has been checked. And remember that alcohol is not a stimulant and should never be used as such.

MARCH

March, again we welcome you With all your blow and bluster, We're so glad that winter's through, We'll face a sandstorm duster, For you bring our springtime too With all its brilliant luster.

We're impatient to get out The rakes and hoes to muster Scatter plants and seeds about All in an anxious fluster; Watch for nature them to sprout And hopefully to trust her. —May Marshall Weaver.

Midway H-D Club

Midway H-D Club met with Mrs. Vestus Horton on March 13, with eight members and one new member, Mrs. Bula Bleeker, and the Midway 4-H girls present.

Mrs. Caraway planned ten minutes of recreation that everyone took part in and enjoyed.

Each one answered roll call with The Most Common Diseases of their chickens. Mrs. Sevier gave a very interesting report on last Council meeting. She also brought a sick hen with her that she killed and cut into to find the trouble. Everyone was surprised to see the condition that was caused by worms. The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Elton Horton April 3. We would like to have more new members.

DEFENSE LEAGUE HAS MEETING

Mrs. John Hester called the Women's Defense League to order at the Melba Theatre Friday, March 13, at 2:30 p. m.

After a moving prayer by Rev. Dawson, the assembly gave the salute to the flag.

Mrs. Sam Sullivan gave a report on the Sing-Songs stressing the part singing plays in building morale and offering the services of her committee in helping prepare and direct music for any public gathering in the county. A book of songs for such occasions is being prepared. Then she led the group in singing "The Song of the Marines." Every person in the county would have been a better citizen had they seen the program of patriotic pictures shown by the Melba Theatre. They were most worth while.

Mrs. Raymond Little read the minutes of the previous meeting, and gave the treasurer's report, after which Brian Smith reported $56.34 turned in by the paper committee. A. L. Whitaker and the Junior League Boys gather the waste paper every Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Smith also reported that the Red Cross classes in Home Nursing and First Aid would begin the next week.

Mrs. A. L. Whitaker reported that more than one thousand garments made by Mills County ladies in the last 30 days were shipped to Red Cross headquarters Thursday, and cutting on the next assignment would begin Monday. She was enthusiastic about the co-operation and support she was receiving in the Red Cross sewing and knitting. Sixty-six sweaters and 19 pairs of socks had been finished and the knitters were still busy.

Mrs. Jim Weatherby reported a truck would come Saturday for the shrubs and plants and flower seed being assembled at Fairman's Store to use in landscaping Camp Bowie.

The Bible committee reported two given since last meeting. The League voted to contribute to a fund for a parting gift for the men leaving for training in a few days.

A motion to send letters to our congressmen asking for legislation against strikes and to hasten war work carried unanimously.

Mrs. J. H. Saylor reported one hundred and fifty-nine books had been received for our soldiers and sailors.

The manager of Paramount Pictures of Dallas was given a vote of thanks for sending the films for the program without cost.

Being seriously impressed, the majority present signed a Victory demonstration pledge and asked for Home Farm Books.

Improved Uniform International SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D. Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for March 22

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

JESUS THE MESSIAH FORETELLS HIS DEATH

LESSON TEXT—Mark 8:37-37. GOLDEN TEXT—For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.—Mark 8:35.

Jesus came into the world as the Redeemer of men—and that means He came to die. The prophets who wrote centuries before His coming presented Him as both the suffering and the reigning Messiah. However, to the minds of the Jewish people only the idea of His glory and kingship was acceptable, not of His suffering and death.

Apparently His own disciples had this same impression and it therefore became necessary for Jesus as He came to the last months of His earthly ministry to speak plainly to them about these matters.

I. Recognition of Christ by Faith (vv. 27-30).

As a foundation for right thinking on any spiritual question there must be recognition of Christ's deity. He drew forth such a confession from the disciples by asking who men said that He was. Notice that while there was difference of opinion, all had a high opinion of Him, calling Him John the Baptist, Elijah, or one of the prophets. They knew that a great man was in their midst, and had to admit it, even though they hated and opposed Him. But it is not enough to accept Christ as a great man, as a teacher, a prophet, or an example. Nor is it enough to tell what others think of Him. The question quickly becomes: "Whom say ye that I am?" Have you answered that question? What will you do with Jesus Christ?

Peter responded with a straightforward, heaven-born confession of Christ as the Son of the living God (cf. Matt. 16:16-18) upon which Christ established His church.

II. Rejection and Crucifixion Prophesied (vv. 31, 32).

The foundation of faith in Him having been laid, Christ plainly laid before the disciples the fact of His coming rejection and death. Notice the word "must" in verse 31. "There was an imperative necessity for these things. But why must He die? This question is fully answered elsewhere in the Bible (John 3:14; Heb. 9:22; Isa. 53:4-6; II Cor. 5:21; Gal. 3:13; I Pet. 2:24). There could have been no salvation for any sinner if He had not died (Gal. 3:10, 13; II Cor. 5:21; Rom. 3:20-26)" (John W. Bradbury).

Note also that He "must rise again" (v. 31). He died for our sins, but "was raised again for our justification" (Rom. 4:25).

III. Rebuke of Unbelief (vv. 32, 33).

Peter, quick to accept Jesus as the Son of God, permitted Satan to blind his mind to the necessity of the cross, and thus became a stumbling block of unbelief, calling forth a severe rebuke from Jesus.

It is a striking and humbling thought that the very one who a moment before spoke such acceptable words of recognition of Christ's deity could by unbelief so quickly become the tool of Satan. "My soul, be on thy guard" lest such temptation overtake thee!

May we also learn from this incident that we do well to weigh the words of even good men lest in a moment of weakness or unbelief they say that which may lead us astray. God's Word alone is sure!

IV. Requirements of Discipleship (vv. 34-37).

Following the Christ of Calvary calls for a willingness to say "no" to self (literally, to deny any connection with self-life) and to follow through with Him on the path of shame and crucifixion. No self-will and no compromise are permissible to Christ's disciples.

Foolishly to attempt to hold one's life for self is to lose it. That painful loss has left brokenhearted, wrecked lives all along the path of man's history. But why should any one do it? Equally foolish is the one who supposes that this world has anything to satisfy the human soul. Assuming the possibility of the impossible—that is, attaining the whole world as one's own possession—to do so at the cost of one's soul would be an indescribably poor bargain.

What then shall we say of those who barter their eternal souls for a mess of pottage, a moment of sensual satisfaction, or for a few paltry dollars? "What shall a man give in exchange for his soul?" It is the unanswerable question.

Right Endures

When Christ preached the Sermon on the Mount he was mocked and later crucified; but the inspired truths that he uttered continue to live through the ages, defying crucifixion. We may doubt the divinity of the Christ, for the proof lies in the hereafter; but only by justifying ourselves can we doubt the wisdom of the moral precepts he uttered.

FORMER GOLDTHWAITE BOY FEARED LOST IN SS HOUSTON SINKING
 (From Brady Standard)
 A telegram from Admiral Thomas C. Hart that their son was well, left Mr. and Mrs. Edward Geeslin happy Thursday. Admiral Hart, formerly commander of the United States Asiatic Fleet, recently returned home by Yankee Clipper after a 20-day journey from the Far East.

The telegram read as follows: "At the middle of February Ensign Conrad Geeslin was in Java in good health in spite of having worked hard for many months. He was one of my very valuable young assistants, and until you hear to the contrary, best assume that he remains well and very usefully employed in this war. Admiral Thomas C. Hart." The telegram was sent from Washington, D. C.

Geeslin, a graduate of the University of Texas, joined the U. S. Navy last year and took the reserve officers' course. He was stationed in the Philippines at the outbreak of the war with Japan. Since he became an ensign, he had been a member of the staff of Admiral Hart, until the latter's recent resignation because of poor health as commander of the Asiatic Fleet.

Mr. and Mrs. Geeslin also received a letter from their son Thursday. It was written in Java, on February 3.

News here last Saturday that the Steamship Houston, on which Conrad Geeslin was ensign, had been sunk and whether he was aboard at that time is, so far, not known, as no word has been received from or about him.

Mr. and Mrs. John Edlin have received word that Jim Lamers, former Goldthwaite citizen, had died after a long illness at Bronte on March 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Friszelle took her mother, Mrs. F. D. Webb, to Temple for treatment Thursday of last week. They returned Friday.

I MAY BE WRONG, BUT—

It appears that every group and every individual wants to do "Business As Usual" and let the other fellow sacrifice and do without tires. An example is the controversy between Mark McGee, chairman of the Tire Rationing Board, and Mr. Bedichek, head of the Interscholastic League. Bedichek contends that school buses should have tires to carry teams to athletic contests as he thinks athletics is a great part of school training. McGee says no. We must win this war before winning any ball games. Well, just why should the schools contend for Business As Usual when we are in a war that we have not started to win yet?

Many counties have wisely voted to discontinue athletic meets for the duration and are to be commended for being defense-minded.

Then a minister contended with McGee for tires for preachers and said, "Do you know that the Scripture says 'Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel'?" To which the tire administrator said that the Bible also said "Saddle thee an ass and go forth."

So it goes. The Tire Rationers will be called a lot of names. Probably they will be called complacent, but they are charged with an important duty in the defense set-up and must set firm. As the war goes on we will see farmers coming to town in wagons, office and business men and school teachers riding bicycles and everybody going to church and to ball games like farmers come to town and merchants go to the store. Yes, we poor folks will go afoot and we sure want the law to keep bicycles off the sidewalks. And preachers well, McGee says, "Saddle thee an ass and go forth."

FABULOUS FACTS ABOUT FOOD FOR FREEDOM

American farmers will produce in 1942—
 Enough vegetables for one serving of good thick soup three times every day for every man, woman and child in the United States;
 Hogs enough to make a solid procession two abreast, snout to tail, clear around the world;
 Enough peanut and soybean oil to make more than 60 bars of soap as big as the RCA building. (Largest office building in the world.)

Eggs enough so that if you broke one every second it would take 1,600 years to break them all.

Enough 10 gallon cans of milk to build 25 pyramids the size of the great Pyramid of Egypt. Are you doing your part?

SHEARING OF SHEEP

The War Production Board has this week announced a program appealing to California and Texas sheep raisers to plan now for the shearing of lambs and yearlings so that skins at slaughter will bear just the right amount of wool for manufacture into warm flying suits for our fighting airmen.

Wool on skins used in the manufacture of the vitally-needed suits must be between one-quarter of an inch and one inch in length.

The War Production Board believes more than 2,000,000 additional skins suitable for the flying suits can be obtained as a result of the shearing program in the two states.

As a patriotic contribution to the war effort most raisers will be asked to shear many animals which normally would be marketed with wool too long for the flying suits and to shear soon enough to permit a growth of wool of proper length by slaughter time.

However, the best procedure to insure a proper interval between shearing and slaughtering will be left to the best judgment of the Texas and California raisers. Cold weather in other sheep raising sections of the country makes shearing at this time of the year impractical.

In order to protect raisers who shear immediately from financial loss, the Office of Price Administration has removed the ceiling on tanned shearlings.

The War Production Board requested tanners, in anticipation of removal of the price ceiling, to offer better prices for shearing skins than was financially feasible prior to the removal of the ceiling.

It is highly important that wool on skins be no more than an inch long because trimming longer wools to one inch or less is a difficult, perhaps expensive process involving the use of a special comb attached to the shearing head. The entire output of shearlings has been reserved for military use.

MOHAIR PRODUCTION

Texas produced 18,750,000 pounds of mohair in 1941 compared with 18,250,000 pounds in 1940. The 1941 clip is the largest of record and a half million pounds more than the previous record set in 1940. The average clip per goat was 4.9 pounds compared with 5.1 pounds a year earlier. Cash value of the 1941 mohair clip was $19,875,000, the highest of record, and compares with $9,308,000 in 1940, and $9,990,000 in 1938 which was the previous record for cash value.

The average 1941 price per pound was 58 cents which was 7 cents per pound above the 1940 price. The 1928 price was 74 cents per pound.

In 1941 Texas produced 88 per cent of all United States mohair. The estimated 1941 production of mohair in the 7 leading states is estimated at 21,777,000 pounds. This production was about 3 per cent larger than the previous record production in 1940. The number of goats and kids clipped in 1941 was 4,544,000, also a new record. The average quantity of hair per goat and kid clipped was 4.8 pounds, a little below the record of 4.9 in 1940.

The indicated income from mohair in 1941 was $12,423,000, with an average price to growers of 57 cents per pound. This was

INCENDIARY BOMBS

Two Methods of Control

There are two methods of controlling the bombs, either of which may be effectively used in the home. One is using a fine spray of water and the other is the use of dry sand.

Do not expose yourself to the intense heat. Use a shield such as an overturned table, chair or partially opened door.

To control the bomb action by water USE ONLY A FINE SPRAY OR MIST from a garden hose or a hand pump with spray nozzle.

In contact with the burning metal, the water spray is converted into steam, thereby producing a cooling effect. Water spray will reduce burning time 10 minutes or more. The floor and surrounding combustible materials are cooled, thus preventing the spread of fire until the bomb has burned out.

Never apply a solid stream of water, and never dash a bucket of water on the bomb. THIS WILL CAUSE AN EXPLOSION AND SCATTER BURNING METAL!

If water is not available use the sand method. Be sure the sand is dry. Sand will smother the bomb until it can be carried outside the building.

Use a bucket or other metal container for the sand. Pour a part of it out near the bomb. Using a long-handled shovel, place the sand around and over the bomb, enough to smother it. Pick up bomb and sand with shovel and put it in the bucket. Catching the bucket handle with the shovel, take it outside immediately.

Do not use chemical extinguishers on bombs!
 Don't allow the fire to get out of control. It may be necessary to neglect the bomb to prevent spread of fire to other parts of the building.

In event of an air raid alarm be sure you can reach the ordinarily inaccessible places in your home. Have your hose connected. Be sure it is long enough to reach any place in the house. Otherwise have sand and shovel ready.

Mr. and Mrs. Bronson Casbeer and children of Lampasas spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Harris.

Pat Bohannon is a victim of mumps, and is confined to his home.

The largest income on record, being 18 per cent larger than in 1940 and 11 per cent larger than the previous record of 1928. The average price per pound, although 7 cents higher than in 1940, was below that of the four highest years.

STAR ITEMS

By MRS. DORA GOODE

March took the invitation recently when she appeared on the scene of action and displaying all her wild idiosyncrasies. She dances from the north on dusty wind rolls one day and on the next careens in dizzy waltzes back and from the south, then comes a quiet day when old March rests, only to awaken with another sun to beckon a vicious, dehydrating west wind, a wind that whistles and roars and rips around the houses and scoops and twists out of the earth the little green, growing things in the gardens, upsets the foraging hens, and scatters to the four corners all things left unstaked or huddled.

Mrs. Lonnie Baker attended the funeral of a niece, Miss Verena Stinson, at Evant Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. Pearl Harper and mother Mrs. Cathey, of Oklahoma visited Mrs. Jim Witty last week. Mrs. Witty accompanied them so far as Waco and Dallas for a visit with other relatives on the way back home.

Mrs. Warren returned home Saturday from a two week's visit with homefolks at Llano.

Mrs. Burse of Hamilton is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Seth Waddell.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Soules and mother have gone to Madisonville to see a little nephew who was seriously hurt in a car accident.

SCALLORN

By MRS. ORA BLACK

Rev. Lancaster of San Saba filled his regular appointment here Sunday. Bro. Lancaster is doing his dead level best to meet the needs of the church and its members, but it seems there are so few interested in the promotion of the Lord's work that it seems almost a burden to attend services rather than a privilege, so let's all try to be present at our next meeting day, which will be April 5.

As we write this letter, we see hundreds of army trucks and equipment passing along the highway taking our men to join other ranks in the East.
 Sunday visitors from Lometa in the home of Mrs. R. D. Evans and family were Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. T. Tarelton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright and son, Lamoin, of Brownwood were Sunday guests of Mrs. Ora Black.

Mrs. Hattie Claunch of Goldthwaite is spending several days in the home of her son, John Kuykendall.

In connection with our H. D. Club of last week, ten garments were made for the Red Cross, which makes 62 garments to our credit. Those assisting in this last assignment were Mmes. Shoemaker, F. Hines, E. Johnston, P. Millicant, T. Hale, A. O'Bannon, W. Henry, B. McMullen, D. Smith, H. Eckert, A. Forehand, and O. Black.

Mr. and Mrs. Elza Laughlin of Blanket visited in our community Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Barney Laughlin and the writer. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hufstutler are on our sick list this week and are spending a few days in the home of their daughter, Mrs. Terrell Casbere, and family.

C. H. Black of Goldthwaite is erecting a house on his mother's place 12 miles south of Goldthwaite.

Ava Lavon Crawford spent the week-end in Mullin with her parents.
