Saturday May 30 Is Victory Day For Mills County Folk

Food Display Being Planned To Show 'Food For Freedom'

May 30 is Victory Day for Mills County. An all-day celebration will be held in Goldthwaite on that day, and is being sponsored by the Goldthwaite Garden Club, Home Demonstration Clubs, and the Livestock Raisers Association of Mills County.

All clubs and communities are urged to plan a booth for the exhibit of all food products. The material for building the booth must be in Goldthwaite on Thursday, May 28, if you desire help on the construction. Then the food for exhibit may be brought early Saturday morning. Any booth design may be used, because the idea is to make the square take on the form of a public market.

A flower show will be sponsored by the Garden Club. Anyone having flowers is urged to bring them for exhibit.

Farm machinery, seeds, and livestock will be exhibited around the square.

Another added attraction is a free picture show at the local theatre from ten in the morning until six in the afternoon.

This is an educational affair and is an opportunity to show the world what Mills County is doing about "Food For Freedom" in an all-out effort to win the war.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT SAYS:

We of the United Nations are agreed on certain broad principles in the kind of peace we seek. The Atlantic Charter applies not only to the parts of the world that border the Atlantic but to the whole world; disarmament of aggressors, self-determination of nations and peoples, and the four freedoms—freedom of speech, freedom of religion, freedom from want, and freedom from fear.

"We Pledge to Give that You May Live"

OUR COUNTRY

We will give
That you may live.
Our Country,
Our lives in the air,
If the need be there,
Our selves to the sea,
If that must be,
Our sweat in toil
Our blood to the soil,
Before we yield
A rock or field
Of this Our Country!

Spirit, sinew and bone,
All we have and own,
We pledge to give
That you may live,
Our Country, Our Country!

By Merrick Fildel McCarthy
Picture by William Heaslip

"Our Country" was written by Dr. Merrick Fildel McCarthy of the University of Cincinnati for Bundles for America, Inc., as his gift to this national organization which is furnishing comforts to men in the armed forces of the United States, their families and others adversely affected by war conditions. William Heaslip, noted American artist, conceived and executed the striking illustration. A revised version of the poem has been set to music by Jacques Wolfe, author of "Glory Road," "Short'n Bread" and other delightful melodies, and published by G. Schirmer, Inc., of New York. Post card size reproductions of the illustrated poem will soon be available through Branches of Bundles for America where they will be sold to raise funds to help carry on its manifold services.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT SAYS:

Conquered nations in Europe know what the yoke of the Nazis is like. And the people of Korea and Manchuria know in their flesh the harsh despotism of Japan. All of the people of Asia know that if there is to be an honorable and decent future for any of them or for us, that future depends on victory by the United Nations over the forces of Axis enslavement.

VICTORY FASHIONS

Since clothing for this spring and summer is practically all manufactured and on the market, women and children likely won't be wearing many Victory fashions until fall or winter, says Mrs. Dora R. Barnes, clothing specialist for the A. and M. College Extension Service.

Women who do their own sewing, however, should become acquainted with recent orders of the War Production Board which will streamline ready-made garments to conserve cloth. Skirts and coats will be narrower. Two-piece dresses are out. So are big sleeves, woolen inner-linings, patch pockets, capes, hoods, all-over tucking, and wide belts.

Like the men, women will give cuffs on their slacks and the trouser legs may be only 19 inches wide. This should make them safer to wear.

Where color is concerned, black, brown, and blue may no longer be leaders, for these dyes are getting low. Gingham will be available as long as the dyes hold out, and print materials in four colors are allowed until Sept. 1. After that, dresses may be more somber, the specialist says.

No Grade A leather is now available for civilians' shoes. The men in the armed forces will have the best.

Principal headache for women just now is the price and supply of hose. Nylons are playing out. Silk hose are also becoming scarce, are expensive and of poor quality. Rayon hose, recently introduced to the market, appear to be durable but 18 hours is required for them to dry properly. One war-time innovation is bemberg hosiery, but these have not been tested by consumers thus far.

HOW TO COOK CABBAGE

Boiling cabbage for hours is as out of date as high button shoes.

When the homemaker of yesterday prepared an old-fashioned "boiled dinner," she literally cooked her cabbage to death, as far as its Vitamin C was concerned, according to Hazel Phipps, Extension Service Specialist in food preparation.

"The reddish brown color and disagreeable odor and flavor of overcooked cabbage are due to the sulphur compounds contained by all members of the Brassica family," Miss Phipps says. "Cook cabbage the shortest possible time, or to save even more food value pan young cabbage in a little well-flavored fat."

Ordinary new green cabbage when properly cooked has the most delicate flavor of all the cabbage family. Too, it is a fair source of Vitamin B. In addition, green cabbage is a good source of Vitamin A, iron, and calcium. For these, the outside green leaves of the cabbage which some people discard are the most valuable.

Here are some recipes for cooked cabbage:

Panned Cabbage

Panning is another cookery method highly recommended for cabbage. Panned cabbage is cooked with a little fat and without water in a covered frying pan, on top of the stove, where the vegetable is in fact steamed in its own juice. Cabbage may be panned, with another variation. After cooking 5 or 10 minutes in a little fat, a teaspoon of flour may be sifted over the cabbage, a cup of milk added and the mixture stirred until thickened.

Five-Minute Cabbage in Milk

2 c milk, 11-2 qts. shredded cabbage, 1 cup cream or rich milk, 3 T flour, 3 T melted butter, salt, pepper.

Heat the milk and cook the cabbage in it for 2 minutes. Add the cup of cream or rich milk, the blended flour and fat, and the seasonings, cook rapidly for 3 or 4 minutes, and stir constantly. The cabbage retains its crispness and is delicate in flavor and color.

Cabbage Casserole

(8 servings)

1 No. 2 can chili or 1 can beef and T chili powder, fat from the can of meat, 1 qt. cabbage cut into small sections, 1 t salt.

Mix the chili powder with the meat. Grease a dish and place the chili or the meat with the chili powder in a mound in the center of it. Around the mound and on top of it arrange the cabbage sections. Sprinkle the salt on the cabbage and dot the fat over it. Cover the dish loosely and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F) until the cabbage is done—about 30 minutes.

Scalloped Cabbage and Apples

2 qts. shredded cabbage, 1 qt. tart sliced apples, 2 t salt, 2 to 4 T butter or other fat, 1 c buttered bread crumbs, 1 t sugar.

In a greased baking dish place alternate layers of the cabbage and apples, seasoning each with salt and fat and sprinkling the sugar on the apples. Over the last layer spread the buttered crumbs. Cover, and bake in a moderate oven for 45 minutes, or until the cabbage and apples are tender. Toward the last remove the cover so the crumbs can brown. Serve in the baking dish.

Baked Stuffed Cabbage

1 head of cabbage, 1-2 pound of ground beef, 1-4 cup of dry bread crumbs, 2 tablespoons of milk, 1 beaten egg, 1-4 cup of melted butter or other fat.

Cook the whole cabbage in boiling salted water for 10 minutes. Remove it from the kettle and cut out the center. Save the vegetable water for use in other cooking. Chop fine the cabbage removed from the center. Add to it the ground beef, the dry bread crumbs sprinkled with milk, the beaten egg and the melted butter or other fat. Season it to taste with salt and pepper. Place this stuffing in the hollowed-out cabbage and tie it securely in a cheesecloth. Place the stuffed vegetable in a baking pan with enough water to cover the bottom of the pan, adding a little bacon fat or meat drippings. Cover the cabbage with a greased paper and bake it from 45 to 50 minutes in a moderate oven. Baste it frequently with the liquid in the pan.

The idea that Pullets can be "coasted" along through the growing season on just grain is a bad one. In order for pullets to develop properly, they must have a balanced ration right through the summer. You will reap bigger returns by feeding MID-TEX GROWING MASH.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Not long ago I made a trip to the Circle C Ranch in West Texas and one day as I sat on the corral fence, a mirage appeared on the horizon and I saw the members of the 1942 senior class as they will be ten years from now.

Sheriff Elijah Ward Tully of Bloody Gulch Creek has just captured two desperados, "The Mole" alias Walter Bryant and "B B Eyes", alias Ernest Kauh. With them was their moll, "Butcher Knife Liz", alias Zeida Stewart.

Eloped! ! Faye Griffin and Deloyd Benningfield. They are now living on two acres of her father's farm.

Earline Simpson and Neta Faye Black are co-owners of "Ye Frizzy Old Wig" Beauty Salon and they buy all their equipment from William Arthur Cline who is a traveling salesman for the "Sling It On" Beauty Supply House.

Senator Shirley Mahan of Texas is now debating for the question, Resolved: Women should be made to wear wigs if they are bald headed.

Kenneth Geeslin has now retired after making his fortune from his "Walk In: Stagger Out" Saloon where Miss Crystal Louise Skipper was featured as a blues singer.

Carrollyn Oglesby is running a tea room in competition to Kenneth Geeslin's saloon. It is rumored that this to avenge her disappointment after the failure of her marriage to Kenneth. The predictions of the cast and directors of the Senior play that Thomas Hyslop would become a great actor have been fulfilled.

Glenda Oglesby is foreign correspondent for United Nations Victory Sheet. It is believed that she got her start from her interest in Dorothy Thompson, since her marital life with Thomas Hyslop resembles that of Dorothy Thompson and Sinclair Lewis.

Wilma Bea Rose collects coke bottles from all parts of the world. She has fifteen in her collection — two from Mullin, three from Star, one from Lometa, three from Center City and six from Burkett's. Billy Ray Armstrong, Pete Geeslin and Cecil Virden are active members of a dance team called the "Rattlin' Bones."

Susie Bessent has acquired a large estate which she has converted into a home for unfortunate women.

Greta Traylor and Mary Lou Brown are a feminine comedy team like Bud Abbot and Lou Costello.

Gordon Henry owns a chain of prosperous good Gulf Filling stations from Memphis to Mobile.

Bonnie Fern Doggett sells tickets at Leslie Faulkner's flea Circus whose slogan is: "We fumigate your fleas free!"

Buren Crawford is champion prize fighter after knocking Joe Louis out in the 26th round.

Bobby Fairman, the great scientist, has invented reducing pills for streamlining figures. Her former roommate, Dortha Marie Wolfe, is an example of the results, and she is still living.

Sammie Smith is caretaker in Miss Gatlin's home for "little animals."

Evelyn Burns is old and gray and is still living a life of seclusion as a nurse in a home for the aged, after her tragic love affair with Aubrey Burks, who is now living a useless, hilarious life as a playboy in Bozar.

James Cornelius is vacationing on his brother Harold's dude ranch after a strenuous year as professor of mathematics at Yale.

Madeline Porter is singing with the "Lighterest Dough-boys".

Janet Jernigan is a milkmaid at Collier's Dairy just 2 miles north of Goldthwaite.

Ira Lynn Griffin is perfecting his rocket ship in which he plans to take a trip to Mars. Eloise Slaughter, alias Lily Water, is starring in the great play, "The Wolf Calls, or Hi Yu Babe", written by the famous play-wright, Professor Clayton McNeil.

Katherine Wright is a sales woman for Gossard's Girlish Girdles for Gawkly Girls—she is a fine example of its results.

Since the modern ways have changed the trend of times so much women are now doing men's work and vice versa. Nelma Rhea Perry is driving a cattle truck.

Dorothy Louise Eckert, the great woman columnist, is advancing the theory that women should not wear lipstick. So far Maxine Spinks is the only woman converted to this belief.

Evelyn Kauh, Eunice Wrinkle Florine Kemp and Billie Jo Sparkman are on a benefit

NEW CCC CAMPS HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED

AUSTIN, May 19.—New CCC Camps have been established at Camp Bowie, Brownwood, and Camp Wolters, Mineral Wells, where boys will be assigned to work on military reservations. Only five of the camps, which previous announcements indicated would be closed, have been closed thus far. These were at Coleman, Denton, Memphis, Newton, and Waxahachie. Closing orders are expected in June for eleven additional camps. These camps include three for white boys, located at Wolfe City, Morton, and Humble. Eight are for colored boys, located at Bogota, Mt. Pleasant, Winnsboro, Nacogdoches, Yoakum, Seguin, Huntsville, and Austwell. If all expected closing orders are received the state will then have ten CCC Camps. Seven of these will be for white boys and will be located at Breckenridge, Temple, Gatesville, Brownwood, Mineral Wells, San Antonio, and Alto. Three will be for colored boys, located at Waco, San Augustine, and Zavala.

Boys now being selected for CCC services will be sent for induction to the camp nearest their home on May 20. All boys enrolling must be willing, however, to leave the state.

COTTON STAMP PROGRAM TO BE DISCONTINUED

AUSTIN, May 19.—The Cotton Stamp program will be discontinued on May 30, 1942, the Department of Public Welfare has been advised by the Agricultural Marketing Administration. Executive Director J. S. Murchison explained that this action was made necessary because the government finds it imperative to release all manufacturing facilities of the cotton industry. Cotton stamps were exchangeable for cotton goods and were issued to public assistance recipients in seven counties in Texas. These included Tarrant, Dallas, Hill, McLennan, Travis, and El Paso.

DRENCH FOR STOMACH WORMS

Stomach worms are going to give ranchmen as much trouble or more this year than they did in 1941 due to the excessive amount of rain this spring. The Stomach worm thrives in wet weather and stays on the blades of grass almost all the time; thus causing the sheep to pick up many more worms while grazing.

The life cycle of the stomach worm is from eighteen to twenty-one days. This means that if sheep are drenched on May 22nd for stomach worms and all of them are removed, the sheep may on June 8th or 10th be as heavily infested as he was right after drenching on May 22nd.

June and July are the most suitable months of the year for Stomach worm infestation, and during these periods sheep should be drenched every twenty-one days.

In addition to the Stomach worm, the Nodular worms are costing Mills County sheepmen many dollars. The only drench known so far that will remove them from sheep is Phenothiazine. The life cycle of the Nodular worm is from 48 to 52 days. These worms are found in the intestines. Many people are not using this drench because of its cost, but if they are troubled with Nodular worms it is the only way out, and in many cases is the most economical drench to use for stomach worms. According to recent experiments it is the least toxic to sheep and the best killer of stomach worms sold, in addition to being the only one that will kill or remove nodular worms.

Many ranchmen waited too long before they started drenching last year. It does not pay to wait until your sheep start dying before beginning to drench. If this is done you will get very little results from anything you use.

Regular drenching is very essential in infested areas. It will pay to drench every twenty-one days, until your sheep stop showing signs of stomach worms. Thin droppings, scours, and swelling under the stomach and neck, and a general poor condition are good signs of stomach worms.

This is by no means a complete picture of parasites of sheep and goats, and if further information is wanted the county agent will be glad to supply it. Analysis of grasses are running around three percent this year, whereas in normal years it is from six to nine percent. This is one reason why sheep are not doing as good as it seems they should.

COCCIDIOSIS CONTROL

Many poultry raisers are having trouble with coccidiosis among their young chickens. Listed below are four measures of control for the disease.

1. Wash water troughs daily and disinfect water with potassium permanganate, or some other disinfectant.
2. Clean houses at least once a week and white wash the floor and roosts with the following: 1 pound lye, 2 1-2 pounds lime, 5 1-2 gallons of water. Have the water hot, add the lye and then the lime.
3. Add two pounds of sulphur to each 100 pounds of starter or mash fed. Do not feed them this on a cloudy day.
4. Remove birds showing the least symptoms of the disease from the rest of the flock.

4-H WAR EFFORT

Texas 4-H Club boys have collected and moved into the channels of the nation's armament program 1,566 tons of scrap iron. Collections of other scarce materials include 50,875 pounds of aluminum and 114,084 pounds of waste paper.

On the Food For Victory front the club boys have 48,070 hess in production with 664,057 baby chicks coming along.

They have on feed 9,145 hogs, 3,677 beef calves, 4,472

lamb. This information is contained in a preliminary report issued by L. L. Johnson, state boys' club agent of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, on the basis of returns from county agricultural agents in 113 out of 254 Texas counties.

Johnson said he expected these totals to be doubled when all counties are heard from.

Enrollment reports from 184 counties show 25,243 members in boys' 4-H Clubs. The state goal for 1942 is 43,200.

INCREASE IN DEER LAST YEAR OVER 1940

(Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission News)

An increase of 13 per cent in the number of Hill Country deer placed on cold storage during the 1941 hunting season, as compared to the 1940 season, was reported this week upon completion of a check of the deer kill in that region by Game Department biologists.

The turkey kill in that section also increased last year, as is indicated, Wm J. Tucker, Executive Secretary of the Department, said, by a jump of 144 per cent in the number of gobblers placed on storage during the open season in three of the principal cities located in the Hill Country deer and turkey range.

The scarcity of rain during the early months of this year already has been broken and if additional rain falls in abundance over the wide-spread deer and turkey ranges of Texas, a food and cover supply for these excellent game species equal to that of last year would result, and the deer herds and turkey flocks would show an additional increase. Field biologists of the department are encouraging ranchers and farmers not to overgraze their land that wild game may hold its own in the Hill Country, and in some instances ranchers have cut down large numbers of live oak trees in an effort to produce more browse for deer. Many of the best deer hunting grounds in the Hill Country are badly grazed by sheep, cattle and goats, with the result that deer in some localities are lucky if they get minimum food requirements.

HEEP BIG FISH

J. C. McGlothlin had a lot of fun the opening day of the fishing season, reports the Wood County Record of Mineola.

First he caught a five-pound bass. Then with a fly-rod, he hooked a nine-pound grindie that according to all the evidence put up one whale of a fight.

The evidence is McGlothlin's fly rod.

NEW DOPE ON BULLFROGS

In wartime all sources of food are important, and the bullfrog, never held in disrepute by food fanciers, has assumed even more importance as a vital natural resource.

For years many Texans have advocated a shortening of the season on taking frogs, which now may be gilled at any time of the year. Two local bills introduced during the last two sessions of the Legislature failed to pass, however.

The supply of frog-legs at Texas restaurants and hotels is in danger of diminishing because, in the opinion of Game Department biologists, the supply of these cold blooded animals is being rapidly depleted because of overhunting.

Bullfrogs will not thrive in captivity. This has been demonstrated time and again.

But if their native marshy habitat is properly managed the frogs will multiply and the landowner can get a fancy price for his product.

To assist landowners in properly managing their property for bullfrog production the Game Department recently issued a bulletin on this subject, written after considerable research by a field biologist.

PLANS BEING MADE FOR BAG EXCHANGE IN GOLDTHWAITE

Mills County farmers, farm organizations, grain, feed, and seed dealers were asked today by A. A. Downey, Chairman of the Mills County War Board, to aid in the nation-wide bag conservation program launched recently by Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard.

"Every farmer and dealer in this county," Mr. Downey said, "has an important part to take in the conservation of fabric bags (burlap and cotton) needed for agricultural commodities this year. There is a shortage of bags now, but if we take care of those we have and keep them in use we will be doing much to offset the shortage and a great deal to prevent it from becoming a serious one."

"Wartime expansion in American agriculture means that approximately two billion bags will be needed for packaging farm commodities in 1942. That is roughly 500 million more bags than would be needed under normal conditions."

"Our part in the conservation program is to see that every bag now on hand and in use does its full job and a great deal more. War has cut deeply into the imports of burlap from India and the stocks of this material now on hand must be shared with our military forces. We have plenty of cotton in the raw state, but mills having the facilities to make bagging material are operating to capacity to turn out war orders."

Mr. Downey pointed out that farmers can take the first step in bag conservation by taking stock of the bags they have on hand, by sorting them for size, type and condition and storing them where they will be dry and safe. Farmers are urged to sell the bags they will not need.

Since it is probable that a number of farmers will find that they have more bags than they

DOWNEY LISTS WAYS FOR EGG CRATE CARE

Egg crates are the latest item to be listed as a vital war material. Handle them gently and don't hoard.

According to A. A. Downey, Chairman of the Mills County USDA War Board, the increased production of eggs in the nation has strained the egg crate capacity, so the board has been asked to urge careful handling and rapid movement of all used egg crates.

Chairman A. A. Downey listed six suggestions for helping to keep egg crates from becoming a bottleneck:

1. Open Cases Carefully—Take care of the lid so that it will be available to protect the eggs on the next trip. A strip of wood is not enough.
2. Use Care in Removing Fillers—They can be used again. By being careful when you take them out, you are preventing egg breakage.
3. Replace Flats and Fillers in Emptied Cases—They are hard to obtain. Otherwise put them into a clean, dry place. A wet, dirty filler may damage your next lot of fresh eggs.
4. Don't Drop Cases—They take nails and extra time to repair.
5. Make Every Case Go Another Trip—If care could make every case go to market and back just one more trip, it would help overcome the shortage.
6. Don't Hoard Cases—Remember there are poultry producers who have eggs to move with nothing to put them in. Let that extra case go back into circulation and there will be enough for everyone.

can use, plans are being made to establish a bag exchange in Goldthwaite for Mills County. This will give farmers an opportunity to buy bags if they do not have enough on hand. Also, the exchange will provide a means of returning bags into current use more quickly than would otherwise be the case.

Declining Prestige Of Legislative Bodies

By GEORGE C. HESTER

Again Congress is receiving a "panning" from the general public. This time it is because of the privilege given congressmen by exempting them from gasoline rationing.

The fact, however, that there are so many hecklers standing ready at all times to condemn and discredit the legislative body, is a thing of more than passing significance.

The declining in the prestige of legislative bodies has been evident for many years. In times of emergency the tendency is even more apparent.

It is true that Congress has made errors. It committed a terrible political blunder by enacting pensions for members of Congress. This error it later ratified, but only after severe popular condemnation which only added to the waning public confidence in that body.

There are those who stand ever ready to condemn Congress for any of its faults or errors, but are prone to overlook similar errors on the part of the executive branch or even the courts.

In fact, the business of decrying and condemning legislative bodies in this country has become more or less a public habit. Both the Congress and the State Legislature are condemned for what they do as well as for what they do not do.

More and more the executive branch occupies the spotlight in modern politics. It has the natural advantage of leadership, together with the glamour that such leadership attracts.

Congress, on the other hand, has hundreds of voices, many crying in opposite directions. It falls victim to all the cumbersome procedures of democracy, which fickle public opinion little understands or rarely considers.

Back of the problem, however, is a deeper and more fundamental consideration. Modern history is filled with examples where declining prestige in legislative bodies was a prelude to the rise of dictatorships.

Hitler's remark implied a similar situation in Germany when he described "democracy as a ludicrous barnyard where everybody cackles."

It is an easy matter to decry democracy and the imperfect institutions under which it operates. But the legislative body in all its powers and affluence is a cardinal principle of democratic government.

James A. Garfield once said: "All governments are managed by the combined wisdom and folly of the people." The crux of the whole problem is intelligent direction of public affairs in the hands of responsible citizenship.

In all the prattle about saving democracy, many are too dumb to recognize totalitarianism when they see it.

THE U.S. NAVY NEEDS CONSTRUCTION WORKERS

The Navy is engaged in constructing bases outside of the continental limits of the United States, and is enlisting men in construction regiments, Class V-6, U. S. Naval Reserve, for this duty.

All types of construction workers: mechanics, technicians, craftsmen, supervisors, foremen and equipment operators are needed. Age limits are 17 to 50. Pay ranges from $36 to $133.50 per month, plus board, lodging, clothing and medical care.

Those interested in this service should obtain at least two letters of recommendation from former employers, or other authentic evidence attesting to their professional ability, and apply at the Navy Recruiting Station located in the Post Office Building, Abilene.

Men qualified for rating in construction work who wish to serve their country, but have been deferred because they have dependents to support, will welcome this opportunity to both serve their country and support their dependents.

HOW RICH ARE YOU?

You are richer today than you were yesterday if you have laughed often, given something, forgiven even more, made a new friend, or made stepping stones of stumbling blocks; if you have thought more in terms of "thyselves" than "myself," or if you have managed to be cheerful even if you are weary.

LOOKING BACKWARD

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

(From Eagle Files May 26, 1917)

Friday evening, May 11, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cockrum, the Seniors enjoyed their annual reception. As we entered the door the word "Welcome" was given by Mr. and Mrs. Cockrum and we were told to register in the Senior Class book.

D. J. Stoneham, of Stoneham, Grimes County, visited his cousin, Mrs. R. M. Thompson, and family in the city the first of the week. He was on his way to Colorado Springs, Colo., to spend the summer.

County Clerk Summy issued marriage license since last report to A. O. Sharp and Miss Gladys May James.

Miss Sophia Martin, who is a student in C.I.A. at Denton, is expected home next week to spend the vacation.

President Wilson has fixed Tuesday, June 5, as the date on which all men liable for military service between the ages of 21 and 30, shall register at their respective polling places.

Miss Mable Denison of Lometa and Miss Sude Locker of Temple are visiting Mrs. Will Burks this week.

What might have been a serious fire at the Commercial Hotel Wednesday morning was prevented by the prompt action of Mr. Edwards, proprietor of the hotel. Fire was discovered about 7 o'clock in the morning in a bed in one of the rooms in the upper story.

Mrs. T. T. Nickols returned Saturday from a visit to friends in Scurry County.

Oscar Burns and wife came over from Buffalo Gap the early part of the week for a visit to relatives.

DON'T FOLLOW THE CROWD

By ROGER W. BABSON

Most of my associates and friends are terribly bearish. They talk as though the country was going to the dogs. Conditions may get worse before they start to improve,—but what of it? The recent Laval business struck a sour note and off goes the Dow-Jones averages.

James A. Garfield once said: "All governments are managed by the combined wisdom and folly of the people." The crux of the whole problem is intelligent direction of public affairs in the hands of responsible citizenship.

It is an easy matter to decry democracy and the imperfect institutions under which it operates. But the legislative body in all its powers and affluence is a cardinal principle of democratic government.

THURSDAY: THE LAST DAY WITH THE DISCIPLES

LESSON TEXT—Luke 22:14-30. GOLDEN TEXT—This do in remembrance of me.—Luke 22:19.

The last day! How quickly it comes, and how fleeting yet meaningful its moments.

We do not know what our Lord did on Wednesday of Passion Week. In all probability He remained in Bethany to rest in fellowship with His friends. Surely He needed that day of quiet, for that which had gone before, difficult and strenuous as it had been, was as nothing to that which lay before Him.

Late on Thursday He and His disciples came to the upper room where Peter and John had already made preparation for the observance of the Passover (Luke 22:8). This feast had (since that great and awful night of Israel's redemption out of Egypt's bondage) pointed forward to the Christ and to His cross as the fulfillment of the type of redemption by the shedding of blood.

I. The Final Passover (vv. 14-18). Our Lord looked forward with intense desire to the Passover which He now observed with His disciples, for it was the last celebration of that feast recognized by God. All that it had foreshadowed of deliverance and hope was fulfilled in Him who now sat at the table. He had moved forward with resolute purpose to this day when His mission on earth was to be accomplished, and He was to become the Christian's Passover lamb (1 Cor. 5:7).

II. The First Communion (vv. 19, 20). Taking the unleavened bread and the unfermented wine of the Passover which had just been observed, Jesus established a new feast, the Christian feast of remembrance, which we call communion or the Lord's table.

His words are significant, "For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he come" (1 Cor. 11:26). At the Lord's table His followers find spiritual strength in recalling His death for them, but they also find joy as they remember that He is to come again. They thus testify to the world that they believe and cherish these truths.

III. The Folly of the Disciples (vv. 21-30). Someone may say, "That point does not belong with the other two. Both the Passover and the Lord's Supper are for the joyful remembrance of deliverance and redemption." The objection is well taken except for one thing—we are dealing with human beings as they are, not as they should be and could be by the grace of God.

Here in the inner circle of the twelve there was one traitor. It seems impossible, but apparently Judas had maintained such outward conduct as to turn no suspicion in his direction, even though all along he had in his heart the blackest of treachery against his Lord. A sad and soul-searching fact is here revealed, that it is possible for one to make a high profession of faith in Christ and even so to live as to give no cause for criticism, and yet to be unregenerate and in fact the enemy of Christ.

What about the strife regarding position? Shameful as we agree that it was, it still goes on in the church. Not even the remembrance of our Lord's death and the reminder that He is coming again is enough to keep men from wanting to be great.

State Department Health Notes

The season of the year when the most complaints are received on account of diarrhea and dysentery or "summer complaint" is here and Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer, following suggestions to prevent in regard to this, and offers the following suggestion to prevent its occurrence among babies.

Mother's milk is the safest food. However, if other milk must be used, the supply should be clean and pure. The water should be clean, pure and boiled—no unsuitable articles of food should be fresh and clean and no unsuitable articles of food such as cake and candy should be given.

If a feeding formula is used, it should be one prescribed by a physician and it must be prepared with extreme attention to cleanliness and kept cold until used. The baby should be fed at regular intervals and should not be forced to eat when he is not hungry. The baby should be kept cool and comfortable in hot weather, should not be over-clothed and should be given plenty of clean water to drink.

If diarrhea develops, feeding should be stopped or greatly diminished and an abundance of water should be given. Cathartics should not be given except on the advice of a physician. If the diarrhea does not improve within a short time, a physician should be called and a complete examination should be made.

The three F's, flies, fingers, and food, are the three sources of danger to the baby. Flies carry disease germs to the baby and to its food. Fingers and hands that are not thoroughly washed before preparing the baby's food are likely to be germ carriers also. All milk and water that is intended for the baby should be boiled for five minutes, then carefully covered and kept in a cool place until used.

INFLATION THE ANSWER

By ROGER W. BABSON

Any historical study of inflation such as occurred both during and after the last war shows that the time ultimately comes when people prefer to own real property and good stocks rather than bonds and cash. Inflationary forces are steadily at work here, but they are further advanced in the countries previously mentioned. We see in our increasing national debt, in the scarcity of consumer goods, and in rising prices only the first effects of inflation.

Investors in other nations are ahead of our own group in realizing that cash is no longer the form in which to protect one's capital. Not so here as witnessed by the large amount of money now in circulation. Its total far exceeds any that this country has previously known. Much of this money is held by foreigners who fled Europe. Their fears have been communicated to our own people. As a result, safe deposit boxes are at a premium in most banks. As I have said before, hoarding serves no useful purpose.

Opportunities For Profits

If the American investor is to combat successful rising prices and rising taxes, he must have more income and increase his capital from which his income is derived. In terms of our pre-war dollar of 1939, a dollar bill today, on the basis of wholesale prices, is worth seventy-six cents. Hence, it is advisable that these dollars should be put to work. I do not mean that they should be used to buy personal and household goods for hoarding purposes. Rather, dollars should be used (remember that compound interest still functions) in legitimate investment channels.

Governor Signs Cotton Week Proclamation

Gov. Coke Stevenson, recognizing the part that Texas' greatest agricultural product will play in winning the war, signs a proclamation designating May 15 to 23 as National Cotton Week in Texas. Looking on is Luther Sharp of Agricultural Trade Relations, chairman of the National Cotton Week Committee directing the program for the Texas Statewide Cotton Committee. Cooperating in National Cotton Week are farmers, manufacturers, chain stores, independent merchants, wholesalers, extension service, women's clubs and other groups.

'Deep In The Heart of Texas'

This song about Texas has become the nation's number one hit tune. They hum it in Boston, whistle it in Denver, and sing it out loud in Memphis. Texas is a swell place; ask any stranger what he likes most about Texas and his quick answer is, "The friendliness and open hospitality of Texas people."

That same friendliness and warm spirit of helpfulness is a very tangible part of the service we render. We're proud to be known as "Just Folks" who attend strictly to business, but who also take pleasure in applying the Golden Rule of friendship in our business dealings.

San Saba

After an illness of eight months, the spirit of Mrs. W. F. Johnson, a resident of this county for 60 years, took its flight to a better land, death coming a few minutes after one o'clock last Thursday afternoon, May 7, 1942, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Walker.

John H. Cagle, formerly of San Saba, was over from near Goldthwaite Wednesday, bringing his wool here to sell. Mr. Cagle also called at the News office and from conversation with him we would gather this genial gentleman and his wife are fond of old San Saba, which makes San Sabans happy. The Cagles are ranching in Mills County.

Miss Betsy Jane Walters came home from Comanche last Thursday to spend Mother's Day with her parents, the G. A. Walters.

Mrs. W. W. Linkenhoger and two children left last week-end for Goldthwaite for a visit en route to their home at Eastland after visiting at the W. R. Baxter home.

Coleman Burnham had a long distance phone call Tuesday p. m. from Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hufstutler, of Hamilton, formerly of this section, conveying the sad tidings that their son, Raymond, aged about 21, was reported "missing in action" in the Philippines. The message came that day from the U. S. War Department.

According to the Associated Press reports on May 7th the American Volunteer group pilots remaining with the Chinese army under General Stilwell, bagged eight more Japanese planes in a dog-fight near Paoshan, China, 100 miles north of the Burma-China border. Among the American fliers bagging Jap planes that day was our own San Saba flier, Matthew Kuykendall, known as "Kirk of San Saba."

Sponsored by the Girls Service Organization of San Saba, 67 soldiers from Camp Bowie were entertained for dinner in the homes of some 25 citizens here last Sunday.—News.

CREDIT RESTRICTIONS

The requirement by the Federal Reserve Board that charge accounts be paid by the tenth of the second month after date of purchase moderates a previous credit restriction, that such bills be payable in the first month.

The immediate effect of the regulation will be of a curtailment of buying of some types of merchandise which was already inevitable under wartime scarcity of consumer goods and rationing. The retail credit business will be relieved of the weight of bad and slow accounts. The elimination of this extra cost of merchandising may ultimately fall as a benefit to the consumer.

The Federal Reserve order confirms one of the President's seven points, which was that the American people should pay their debts and get on a cash basis. This course is necessary since war means there will be less money to spend and less to buy. In other words, a lower standard of living is at hand for the American people, and the requirements of a higher standard are no longer justification for wage increases, high profits and prices.

HOME BEING DRESSED UP FOR SOUTHWESTERN HEAD

GEORGETOWN, May 13.—Carpenters are at work remodeling and redecorating the president's home at Southwestern University in preparation for its new occupants, Dr. and Mrs. J. N. R. Score and J. N. R., II. Dr. Score will replace Dr. John W. Bergin as the head of Southwestern on June 1.

The exterior of the home is being painted white and a new roof of contrasting green rubberoid is to be laid. Two upstairs bathrooms and a first floor powder room will be added. —Austin Tribune.

CHURCH OF CHRIST ARTICLE

"If any man speak, let him speak as the Oracles of God." 1 Pet. 4:11.

"THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST"

The second coming of Christ is a Bible subject. Paul said in Gal. 3:24 that the Old Testament Law was a school master to prepare the people for the coming of Christ, and I believe we may reasonably say the New Testament is to prepare us for His second coming.

The second advent of Christ is an established promise of the Bible: I Thess. 4:13-18; Acts 1:10, 11; John 14:1-4. From these passages we learn that His coming again is as certain as His going away. Men have always tried to speculate and theorize on things of which they knew nothing about and so some having studied signs, figures and unfulfilled prophecies have thought they could determine His coming and have set the date. William Miller did some prophetic figuring and set the date of His coming at 1843 and when he failed to come he revised his figures and set the date at 1844. When the Lord failed to come this time Mr. Miller stepped off the stage of prophecy and Mrs. Ellen G. White, founder of the Seventh Day Adventist Church, took up the work of Mr. Miller. She defended Mr. Miller by saying that God purposely made him make a false prophecy (page 89 of Spiritual Gifts in "Early Writings of Mrs. White.") But contrary to Mrs. White's statement, Moses said in Deut. 18:21 "When a prophet speaketh in the name of the Lord, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the Lord hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken presumptuously."

That is the divine test of a true prophet. Charles T. Russell, in the last quarter of the last century, did much writing and preaching on the second coming of Christ. After his death he was succeeded by Judge Rutherford, who is the "Pope" of the so-called "Jehovah's Witness," and he has done much to mis-guide the minds of many regarding the coming of our Lord.

In Matt. 24:36 Jesus says, "But of that day and hour knoweth no one, not even the angels of heaven, neither the Son, but the Father only." From this statement there is one thing of which we may be sure and that is, Christ will not come at a time when these religious cults say.

The time of Christ's coming is definitely fixed with God. Matt. 24:36; Acts 17:31. Here Paul says, "God hath appointed a day in which He will judge the world in righteousness, etc." z

From the reading of Matt. 24:27; 29:31; 37:39 we see conclusively three things: (1) The entire creation will be affected at His coming. (2) All tribes of the earth shall witness His coming. (3) That God doesn't expect all the elect to be at one place. Nothing is said here of the unrighteous being present but they will be there too. Matt. 25:31-46. All who have lived on the earth will be in that assembly, 2 Cor. 5:10; Rev. 11-13; Phil. 2:8, 9; Rom. 14:11, 12. "Lazarus, come forth" will call to all the dead and our bodies will come forth in obedience to that voice. John 5:28,29.

When Christ comes He will judge us, 2 Cor. 5:10; Matt. 25:31, 32; John 5:22, 23; Acts 17:31. It may be embarrassing to some when the clandestine love affairs of married men and women are brought to light, along with the hypocritical pretensions of some church members. All our words will be remembered, Matt. 12:36, 37; Mal. 3:16. Some may be surprised at the amount of profanity in their speech.

Who will be turned away into eternal punishment? 2 Thess. 1:7-9; Matt. 25:34. Those who obey not the gospel and who know not God, together with the unprofitable servants.

The saddest departure is not when one leaves on a distant journey or when death takes one into the unseen; it is when the Son of Man shall say, "Depart from me, ye cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels." Matt. 25:41. Why should a man mock and scoff at the word of God and close his eyes at the promise of His coming? 2 Pet. 3:10-13.

I MAY BE WRONG, BUT

We are in for a red hot senatorial campaign this summer. Sorry we can't adjourn politics for the duration but ex-governors are usually a problem. Now we have three to deal with at one time. As Will Rogers would put it, "We will nominate the worst two for the run-off and the run-off pick the worst one of that pair."

Each of the exes will tell us that it is necessary for him to wear a senatorial toga if we are to win the war. Probably they will intimate that Hitler will be pleased if they are defeated. According to the preview it will be an amusing show. Two ex-governors will be buddies in the first campaign both pouring it on the incumbent. Then in the run-off the one eliminated will join in and work for the other buddy. Don't make sense to me. If they are expecting a hard campaign why divide the vote in the first "heat."

But don't let us get all "het up" in this campaign. Individual Senators don't count now. The legislative and the executive branches at Washington are merged, and the executive is running the show. And all these ex-governors had a try at running Texas and each left the state in worse fix than he found it. Can we expect them to render any more distinguished service as senator than they did as governor?

If they are really anxious to win the war why not follow Lyndon Johnson's example and join the army or navy? Yes, brother, keep your shirt on. People like you will win this war if it is won. The United States Senate will contribute very little.

Quick service, and ready cash. That's me. I want chickens, turkeys, geese, ducks, and hides; also lots of eggs, I'll be laying for you.—Jack Burns.

WANT INFORMATION ON FAMILY NAMED WICKER

Ladonia, Texas, May 4, 1942. The Goldthwaite Eagle, Goldthwaite, Texas. Gentlemen:

We understand that you once had a family in your town or community named Wicker. One of the daughters, Laura C. married a telegraph operator by the name of Alf Hills. They made their home here for many years. Mrs. Hills recently died and we would like to contact any of her relatives. We thought perhaps if you would publish the above information we might locate her folk. We think one of the sisters might have been named Mary and that she may have married a Bryant.

Official U. S. Treasury War Bond Quotas For May

The above map of Texas shows the War Bond quotas, by counties, for the month of May, 1942. Total War Bond quota for the State is $18,594,500. Every income earner in the State is expected to step up War Bond purchases on a basis of ten per cent or more of income. This is necessary to help America's armed forces take the offensive against the Axis powers. The American voluntary method of War Bond purchases must be successful in reaching the quotas set by the Treasury Department for every county in the nation. The job of every American now is to stop spending and save dollars to help win the War.
