 The Goldthwaite Garden Club has done a great work at the local cemetery in the past, and will continue to do so.

ROG'S CORNER

A PHARAPHRASE—MAUD MULLER
 "Maud Muller on a summer's day, Raked the meadow, sweet with hay."
 For olden times that sounds O-kay.
 But modern Mauds don't work that way.
 "Neath her torn hat glowed the wealth Of simple beauty and rustic health"
 Now modern Maud uses lots of paint Makes 'em look like what they ain't.
 "The Judge rode slowly down the lane Smoothing his horse's chestnut mane"
 Our modern Judges all drive flivvers Sight of horses gives 'em shivers.
 "He drew his bride in the shade
 Of the apple-trees to greet the maid"
 A modern Judge could hardly wait
 To ask the maiden for a date.
 "And Maud forgot her briar-torn gown
 And her graceful ankles bare and brown"
 To a modern Judge, that seems not rude
 He'd rather see her in the nude.

METHODIST DISTRICT THE FIRST CONFERENCE TO BE HELD AT KERRVILLE

The pastors and elected delegates from every church in the Kerrville District of the Southwest Texas Conference met in one of the best District Conferences in years last Tuesday in the Methodist Church at Kerrville. Rev. Murry Dickson, a Methodist Missionary to Bolivia, spoke challengingly to the Conference about our work in Bolivia, and the great need there for additional Christian workers and additional financial support.

The different interests of the Church were represented by various workers in the respective fields. Inspirational talks were presented by the Rev. R. F. Curl, the executive secretary of the Southwest Texas Conference, and Dr. Albert Shirkey, pastor of the Travis Park Methodist Church in San Antonio. The Rev. Mr. Curl spoke on "Facing the Future" in the Advance Movement for Christ and His Church, a movement which will engage our interests for the next four years. Dr. Shirkey spoke on "Advancing with Christ," wherein all the hearers were stirred with great enthusiasm for the Advance Movement for Christ.

The Goldthwaite Methodist Church is happy to report that a fine program in the local church is being carried forward. We have had a substantial increase in Church membership and in Sunday School attendance. Our finances are current and a healthy atmosphere manifests itself.

'RED RIVER' TELLS A THRILLING STORY OF CHISHOLM TRAIL

Out of the adventure-sweet history of our great Southwest, Howard Hawks has fashioned a spectacular production called "Red River," which opens Sunday at The Melba Theatre through United Artists release. A great Western saga that takes its place alongside such screen classics as "The Covered Wagon" and "Cimarron," "Red River" is based on the popular Saturday Evening Post serial, "The Chisholm Trail," by Borden Chase. Co-starring in the film are John Wayne, well-known to screen fans for his rugged, he-man roles, Montgomery Clift, a comparative newcomer who is sensational, the always likeable Walter Brennan, and a charming miss called Joanne Dru. It is a Monterey Production.

The story begins in Texas just prior to the Civil War and concerns Thomas Dunson (John Wayne), a hardy pioneer who dreams of building the first cattle empire in the Southwest. Years later, Dunson and his adopted son, Matthew Gart (Montgomery Clift), his trusted friend, Groot Nadine (Walter Brennan) and a huge band of trusting cow wranglers strike out over the now-famous Chisholm Trail, with Abilene, Kansas, as their goal.

The road is long and tough, the dangers many. With over five hundred men on horseback in the caravan, and more than 9,000 cattle, producer-director Howard Hawks has accomplished the major task of keeping his mammoth production in bounds so that none of the subtle drama involving the principle characters is ever lost, while at the same time maintaining the wide scope of the exciting trek to the North.

HILLSIDE MISSION

By LIDA BYRNE

The following, we are told, is part of an article which was engraved on brass plates and handed down from generation to generation for many years and now we can be blessed by such marvelous writings in this generation:

"Will ye reject the words of the prophets and will ye reject all the words which have been spoken concerning Christ; after so many have spoken concerning Him; and deny the good Word of Christ, and the power of God and the gift of the Holy Spirit, and make a mock of the great plan of redemption which hath been laid for you? Know ye not that the power of redemption and resurrection, which is in Christ, will bring you to stand with shame and awful guilt before the bar of God?
And according to the power of justice, for justice cannot be denied, ye must go away into that like of fire and brimstone, whose smoke ascendeth up forever and ever, which lake of fire and brimstone is endless torment.

O, Then, my bretheren, repent ye, and enter in at the strait gate, and continue in the way which is narrow, until ye shall have obtained eternal life."

"Come now, and let us reason Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow;
Though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool."— ISAIAH 1:18.

ART AND CIVIC CLUB

The Art and Civic Club met on October 21 in the home of Mrs. Marvin Hodges for their annual Art Appreciation Program with Mrs. Phillip Nickols as leader.

Mrs. Fanny Taber Camp of Brownwood was guest artist for this program. Mrs. Camp is a widely known artist, and most graciously displayed thirty-one of her pictures relating the story behind the painting of each picture. Among them was "Brown-wood's Earliest Church," which was a painting of the first church ever erected in that city.

Others exhibited were "Lone Fisherman." This picture was painted by Mrs. Camp as she watched her husband fishing on the Llano River. The picture titled "Rock and Surf" was painted in one hour by Mrs.
Camp and is a view of her husband's favorite fishing place.
The outstanding portrait picture shown was "Sarah Frances," a painting of Mrs. Camp's granddaughter. Also a number of outdoor close-ups of "Magnolias as They Appear in Native Habitat" were shown. Mrs. Camp gave a most interesting illustration of the effect the frame has upon the picture by taking a number of unframed pictures and placing them in suitable frames.

Club members and a number of guests were privileged to hear this outstanding artist, and we are looking forward to another visit by Mrs. Camp.

Tea dainties were served with Mrs. Phillip Nickols presiding at the tea table, which was beautifully centered with queen's wreath and fernery—

A sweetheart for a winter start!

Want to get off to a good start? Then let your Conoco Mileage Merchant steer you right ...
He'll tell you that when it comes to fast, smooth winter starts, a lot depends on having the right kind of oil in your engine. He'll tell you, too, the right oil is winter-grade Conoco Nth Motor Oil. For two reasons:
First, because winter-grade Nth is specially refined for cold-weather performance. It's lighter ... freer-flowing. Saves wear on your battery ... and on your nerves ... because it gives you faster starts.

And second, Nth oil extra-protects against "dry" friction starts ... saves wear on engine parts ... because it contains a special, added ingredient that actually OIL-PLATES metal surfaces. And this extra film of lubricant stays up ... won't all drain down, even overnight!
So, if you want to start off right—and right off—on the next wintry morning ...

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Adam and Fallen Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 7. The Golden Text is: "There went up a mist from the earth, and watered the face of the ground. And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul" (Genesis 2:6-7). Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following passage from the Bible: "Cease ye from man whose breath is in his nostrils; for wherein is he to be ed of?" (Isalah 2:22). The Lesson-Sermon includes the following from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "We look away from the supposition that man is material, and turn to the spiritual record, to that which is engraved on the under and heart 'with the pe diamond' and the pe angel" (page 521). Preparations For Child And Youth White House Conference Of 1950

The Texas Committee for Children and Youth has been invited to cooperate with the National Commission for Children and Youth in planning NOW for the Child and Youth White House Conference of 1950. Each tenth year since 1910 the President of the United States has called together leaders in the field of child welfare from all parts of the country, to survey conditions pertaining to children and to make recommendations for progressive steps which would insure the American child the best possible care.

The United States Children's Bureau and the National Commission for Children and Youth have planned and conducted these meetings. The White House Conference of 1950 will be conducted along somewhat different lines. Each state is being asked now to make a survey of conditions affecting children and to take action with respect to as many of them as feasible, so that as many improvements as possible may be made by 1950 to report to the White House Conference in Washington, at that time.

Because of the great size of Texas, it is difficult to gain a real understanding of our resources and needs affecting children, especially on the local level. This can come only through a knowledge of such conditions as they exist in each county. Accordingly, county chairmen for the White House Conference of 1950 are being appointed to secure such information and to confer with the Texas Committee for Children and Youth in ascertaining the urgent needs which should be met first in the local communities and then in the state as a whole.

The Texas Committee for Children and Youth is made up of representatives of seventy state-wide agencies and organizations, as well as individuals, who are interested in children. Its purpose is to assemble and distribute facts pertaining to the needs and care of children and youth in Texas, and to coordinate efforts in behalf of their health, education and social welfare. This Committee will furnish the county chairmen with questionnaires and other materials which will be helpful in evaluating local conditions in the fields of health, education, child welfare services, juvenile delinquency, recreation, child employment and handicapped children. A small committee of representative persons may be appointed by the county chairman to assist in making this study and in preparing recommendations. Such a committee would also be valuable in interpreting these findings to the community. These recommendations will then be brought together and the most outstanding needs for the entire state will be decided from them, as well as the steps to be taken in meeting these needs.

The vastness of Texas is something of a handicap in securing state-wide information. However, with 254 local county chairmen and committees studying conditions affecting children and planning together for the best ways of improving these conditions, Texas can take its place proudly in the White House Conference of 1950. The Mills County Committee will make a study of local needs, resources, and will make recommendations in the field of Child Welfare.

COMMITTEES
Brian Smith, Mills County Chairman; Rev. M. D. Lowry, Child Care and Protection; Judge John L. Patterson, Education; Mrs. John L. Gwin, Health; Mrs. Anita Isham, Handicapped Children; Mrs. John Scholer, Library Services; Rev. M. E. Blake, Recreation; Rev. Joseph

L. Emery, Religion. The State Committee will analyze all county reports and from them will compile a state report, which will be made available to all who are interested in it. This will form the basis for the work of the State Committee in its preparation for the White House Conference of 1950. Brian Smith will attend a meeting of all County Chairmen in Houston on Nov. 17. County Chairmen who attend will meet with Leonard W. Mayo, chairman of the National Commission on Children and Youth and have the benefit of his counsel and advice.

A MIGHTY EFFORT

As General Eisenhower once said, "Citizens, community and nation must join to help defeat the menace of fire . . . It is a mighty effort involving all our citizens, and covering every area of our social and economic life. Fire must be controlled if the economic structure we have built is to be free from the threat of recurrent destruction."

The citizen's duty in this regard is plain. It lies in keeping his property to high standards of fire safety. That means care in the handling of cigarettes, explosive fluids, and all other flammables. It means a clean and orderly home and place of business, without dangerous accumulations of trash. It means thorough maintenance of heating systems, electric appliances and other such equipment.

From the community standpoint, fire prevention involves a long range program. The National Board of Fire Underwriters has summed up some of the necessary projects. They include better building construction, better water systems and better fire fighting services. All of these goals can be attained by any town—and the cost will be repaid time and time again in the lives and property that will be saved from destruction

What it all adds up to is that we can lick fire—if we have the will to do it.

FARM INCOME TO BE DOWN A LITTLE

On the average, prices paid for Texas farm products will go down a little in 1949; prices farmers pay for things they buy will probably be a little higher than they were this year.

It all adds up to an expected 1948 net income on Texas farms and ranches of some 5 to 10 percent below that of 1948, but still greatly above any pre war year.

That's a two-sentence summary of the 1949 farm prospects as seen by Tyrus R. Timm, extension economist and professor at Texas A. and M. College, who last week returned from the National Agricultural Outlook Conference in Washington, D. C.

As to new farm commodities, livestock and livestock products seem to hold the most favorable price position. The most speculative situation is indicated for fruits and vegetables. No sharp decline generally is expected, but certain individual commodities in this grouping may experience serious "short-run" seasonal declines. In between, these two groups of commodities is the outlook for cotton and grain, with cotton holding a more favorable spot.

Meanwhile he expects prices of automobiles, farm equipment and building materials to be as high or perhaps even higher than in 1948. Some economists, he says, think a general increase of 5-8 percent may be expected.

You may pay a little less for radios, some items of household equipment and textiles.

The outlook interpretations are based on present supply and demand situations and requirements of existing government programs, Timm points out. Drastic changes from normal weather conditions, or a major overhauling of the government's programs, could change the picture completely.

There are five types of cookies—rolled, refrigerator, drop, sheet and cookie press. The drop and sheet kind requires less time, since dropping from a spoon is easy. Sheet cookies are baked in a pan and cut into bars or strips before they are served.

CANCER FUNDS INADEQUATE
There was only $76,219,000 available from private and public sources for cancer research last year. This amounts to less than $30 per known case.

MUSIC TOPS CANCER

The American public spent $165,000,000 for phonograph records in 1947, but only $12,126,875 was given to the American Cancer Society to fight cancer.

DON'T NEGLECT COUGHS

Persistent hoarseness, an unexplained continued cough or difficult in swallowing is one of the "danger signs" of cancer. A physician should be consulted.

SCRIPTURE: The Book of Job DEVOTIONAL READING: Job 23:3-10.

Drama in the Bible

Lesson for November 7, 1948

THOMAS CARLYLE, a crusty dyspeptic but a literary artist of no small skill, was visiting a Christian friend. In the morning at family prayers (so the story goes) his host put into his hands a copy of the Bible and asked him to read a chapter. Carlyle opened at the first chapter of Job; read it—read on to the next and the next — and refused to stop reading till he had finished all 42 chapters.

Job is like that. It is a book you hate to put down. In all the Bible it is the outstanding example of the drama; a drama of conflict in which the opposing forces are not people as much as ideas.

The Characters

THE characters at first are three: God, Satan and a man named Job. Job is a good man, in fact God calls him perfect. He is also prosperous, and thereby hangs the tale. For one fateful day God and Satan have a conversation about this man. The Lord inquires if Satan has seen him, and how good he is. Oh, yes, Satan says airily, he has seen him, but he does not think highly of his "goodness." He is too well paid for it. He has a large and happy family, and has immense wealth; why shouldn't he be good? Take away his prosperity and he will curse you to your face, Satan sneers.

So God lets Satan work his malice on the man. In a terrible series of disasters, one rushing on another's heels, everything Job has owned vanishes. His children are killed by storm and fire, and Job is left a childless, penniless man. But Job will not complain; his faith in God still does not waver.

So when next Satan reports to God, the Almighty asks again: Did you see my servant Job? He holds fast to his integrity. Ah, yes, sneers the unbelieving fiend. Yes, but he still has his health. He can have another family, another fortune. Make life itself so miserable that he will long to die, and then you will see his goodness vanish, then he surely will curse you to your face.

So God let Satan do his worst—Do all you can to him, God says, only leave him alive. And then Job is made horribly and painfully ill, he cannot sleep for the torture of boils covering him from head to foot. Three of his friends come to visit him. For seven days they sit in silence, and then begins a great debate, with Job on one side and his friends on the other: Why must such things be? Why must good people suffer?

Was Job Real?

DON'T ask: Was Job a real character, or a made-up one like Hamlet and Macbeth? It is very likely there was once upon a time some man by that name who suffered in that way, and that he had friends, not too sympathetic, who talked it over with him.

As Hamlet and Macbeth were historical characters, whom Shakespeare used with high art to express profound ideas, so the author of Job may well have used the trials of some man he knew, or knew of, to express truths about a problem as profound and widespread as the human race.

For Job most surely is real: his local name may be Smith or Jones, and he may be living just around the corner from you. Indeed, sooner or later every man's name is Job. Sooner or later, every thoughtful person has to face the tragedy of human suffering: Why must such things be?

Suffering Is Test

THERE is, however, one solution which comes out in the course of the drama. It is not a theoretical solution; that is, it does not altogether answer the question, WHY must men suffer? It does tell us WHAT we can do about it.

Suffering is a test: A test of man's faith and real goodness. "When he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold," Job says. (23:10.) The test of a ship is not the quiet waters of the harbor but the roaring open sea; the test of a man is not comfort but stress and pain.

To have faith in God only when we are well-fed and softly cushioned is not faith at its best. Faith and goodness prove their reality only when they hold together even when torn by the nails of a cross.

GIRL SCOUT LEADERSHIP DRIVE

This may be your daughter who says: "I am a Goldthwaite Girl Scout. My Troop needs a leader? Will YOU come to her aid?"

What do you know about the Goldthwaite Girl Scouts? Did you know that Girl Scouting had been struggling for five years in Goldthwaite? It has grown from two to six Troops.

No doubt that there are a world of facts that you, as a citizen of Goldthwaite, don't know about this organization. Perhaps you have a daughter who is a Brownie Scout but still you aren't actually informed about it. This is the purpose of this article—to tell you some facts and through telling you, perhaps we shall help you see the need for YOU in the organization, even though it has been successful, it needs many more workers.

As you know, the Art and Civic Club started Girl Scouting in Goldthwaite in 1943 and carried it on until June 1947, when the Council was organized with Mrs. Steen as president. We are very proud of the Little House that they built and dedicated while the Art and Civic Club was sponsoring the Scouting program. Last spring, Scouting was climaxed by four Day Camps which were attended by about 50 girls and their leaders and friends out at Lake Merritt.

Oct. 21 from 7 to 9 p. m. the 5 leaders who meet with the ers, friends and Miss Wash and F. E. Ferguson ended a pleasant evening with a supper, a talk by Miss Wash and Mr. Ferguson, which was a challenge to every parent in and near Goldthwaite.

This brings you up to date. The National Girl Scout Week, October 31 to November 7, 1948. Now you know just about as much as anyone else about Scouting in Goldthwaite.

From here on, YOU can be on the inside too if you want to. Mrs. Dr. Smith, Mrs. L. V. Benningfield, Mrs. Guy Calder, Mrs. A. P. Famborough, Mrs. R. G. Elackburn, and Miss Polly Stubblefield, assisted by Mmes. T. C. Graves, and Fred Reynolds, are meeting with Brownie and Intermediate each week trying to put over their splendid work. Why not follow the example they have set, and be a leader. The Goldthwaite Scouts are depending on YOU. Your daughter may be among them. Please don't fall them.

There are many ways in which everyone can help. Below are the eleven (11) Fields in Scouting and ways that you may help. Please read it over and ask yourself honestly if you can't give just a little of your time to Scouting.

You may be a leader or co-leader. Each Troop needs two leaders who meet with the girls once each week. They plan the year's work and guide the girls in this work. They in turn recruit the assistance of:
Program Consultants—Who are called on to assist to earn Merit Badges. Once you get started you are bound to get interested and you'll be doing things.

- The Eleven Fields in Scouting:
1. Arts and Crafts.
 2. Community Life.
 3. Health and Safety.
 4. Homemaking.
 5. International Friendship.
 6. Literature and Dramatics.
 7. Music and Dancing.
 8. Nature.
 9. Out of Doors.
 10. Sports and Games.
 11. Agriculture.

NOW is the time to get interested in Scouting: The National Girl Scout Week. Enroll for the Girl Scout Group Leadership course which will be taught December 1 and 2 in Goldthwaite by Miss Bobbie Wash, Girl Scout Executive. This course will cost your time only.

Call Mrs. Famborough, No. 1619F21, or Mrs. Fred Reynolds, No. 192.

Buy Girl Scout cookies, beginning Girl Scout Week. They are delicious and fresh. Sold by every Girl Scout and Brownie.

Star 4-H Club Boy Wins More And Better Honors With His Turkeys

Armand Zoe Clary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Clary of Star Community entered 20 of his Broad-Breasted turkeys in the Texas State Fair at Dallas, in the Junior Market Division. They were judged in groups of five hens, and five toms. On Armand's four entries, he had the Champion toms, and this same group of toms were also judged to be Reserve-Grand Champion of the show. They were sold at auction, and brought $120.; also two rosettes and one blue ribbon.

The second group of toms took 2nd place; with one group of hens placing 2nd in the hen class. All turkeys were sold at auction, and brought well above market price.

This being Armand Zoe's first year as a 4-H Club member, we feel he has achieved much. Also helping to prove to others the type of turkey our local R. O. P. breeder is producing.

WESTERN MILLS CO. CO-OPS WANTING ELECTRICITY—NOTICE

At the last regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the McCullough County Electrical Cooperative, Inc., held in Brady October 14, it was decided that a clean-up drive would be made to obtain membership applications from every unserved resident in the cooperative's territory. The cooperative serves all of McCullough County, and certain sections of Brown, Mills, San Saba, Menard and Concho counties.

The purpose of this clean-up drive is to provide the cooperative with information on who wants electricity and where these prospective users live, in order that the cooperative may apply for a loan with which lines may be built to every unserved resident of the cooperative's territory.

It was pointed out by C. Ray Jones, that materials are not on hand now for these prospective members and that materials cannot be bought until a loan is obtained.

In order that no one is overlooked, and that the loan may be applied for as soon as possible, Mr. Jones urges every one who is not already a member of the cooperative to apply for membership as soon as possible.

All Equipment Available Is Not Enough!

In 1941, the date of the historic attack on Pearl Harbor, telephone service was normal with the telephone company handling 58,990,900 local calls annually. During the period from Pearl Harbor to V-J day the number of local calls ran over 90,000,000 per year. This increase in local calls was far in excess of reserve facilities designed for normal expansion. By careful planning and cooperation of patrons and communities telephone service remained at a high standard. Since the close of World War II, installation of new lines, cables, central office equipment and instruments has enabled a handling of almost 140,000,000 local calls per year. But with facilities to handle almost twice the calls placed a decade ago there is an ever-increasing demand for additional service.

Almost a third of a century of progress has been accomplished in 120 months and even greater progress is in prospect for the months ahead.

Your continual patience and cooperation is greatly appreciated.

MARINES CAN USE REPLACEMENTS

The U. S. Marine Corps Recruiting office announced that the quota is now unlimited for first enlistments for three or four years and for one year enlistments for 18 year olds. The Waco office stated that four to nine months of formal schooling will be available to one-year enlistees of the Marine Corps. Expansion of service school facilities and quotas in both ground and aviation fields will permit a desired ratio to be reached. Recruits will attend basic training and then receive leave. Upon return, they will be assigned schools in the following fields: Clerical, Engineer, Ordnance Repair, Automotive Repair, Supply-Clerical, Photographic, Electronics, Aviation, and Cooking and Baking. All men interested in enlisting should contact the recruiters in Room 207, Post Office Building, Waco, or see their Postmaster in their respective

OLD MAN 100

(Continued from page 1) one man walked up to him and asked, "Where's your dog?" O. H. replied, "I have no dog." "Why, I never saw you without a dog," said the man. Here's an injustice: Many a chous girl in them cities has been pinched when the cops couldn't find a thing on her. And when the Boss asked her to please show a little more incentive, Mabel quit her stenog job.

And here's some free advice to them young brides around here: The best way to protect a wedding ring is to dip it in dish-water three times a day. Onct in Dallas in a big department store, O. H. squeezed one doll and it cried "Mama!" He squeezed another and it cried "Floorwalker!" And a Goldthwaite mother told Dad: "See that boy over there annoying Mary?" And Dad said: "Why, he isn't even looking at her." Mother—"That's what's annoying Mary."

PROMISIN' POLITICIANS

O. H. guesses he'd better explain to his men readers why he didn't get elected to that Prom. Pres. job last Tuesday. His figures maybe it was because he failed to get his name on the ballot in Texas—and maybe some other state, he ain't heard yet for sure—and that lots of us taxpaying voters ain't learned to write yet and couldn't spell Old Hunnert if they could. Another thing, O. H. failed to slip them polisters and them betting oddsters four to six bits or whatever it takes to get them to place him away ahead in the voting and betting before election. Also, Old Hunnert failed to give them dailies the dope that he was sure to win—like the rest of the Pres. candidates did. O. H. has had some experience now, and thinks he's a sure winner for the frequent White House job in 1952, provided they fix it up so's he can run it out. The reason O. H. didn't take his home county of Mills, Tex. figures, was because he spent so much time running that he let it get too dry around here and let his Weather Distributing Machine get all rusty. He fixed that all right, Wednesday, when he found out for sure he lost the job—by taking that 2 dullers one man donated to his campaign and spending it for lub oil and sandpaper. O. H. is still holding out his palm, as a side line to overcome the old HCL, for some silver crossing if there be some gents around here that'd like to see some rain again.

Mills county reservists interested in signing up and attending the meeting Tuesday, Nov. 9th, contact Major M. A. Campbell who is Executive Officer of the newly organized squadron. Reservists whose enlistment terms are nearly up may re-enlist and be sworn in without leaving Brownwood by going to the local Army and Air Force recruiting office in the Southern Building, according to Col. Gerloff.

COLEMAN MUTUAL HAS LARGE RESERVE

The Coleman Mutual Life Insurance Association, whose home office is in Coleman, Texas, has served the people of Goldthwaite and surrounding counties since 1924. The Association was organized in January 1924 on the death assessment plan and operated that way until 1933, at which time they adopted the stipulated premium plan. Under this plan the insured pays so much per year according to age and amount of insurance carried, payable monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually. Operating under this plan the association has been able to pay all claims promptly and in full as well as set aside a reserve each year. At the present time this reserve is $196,178.00 which is invested in Government securities and municipal bonds and used only for the payment of claims. The Coleman Mutual offers life insurance to individuals or family groups. Each life policy carries accident benefits. In order that they could offer the people of this territory more complete coverage they began writing hospitalization insurance in July 1947. This too, may be sold to individuals, family groups and employee groups. The company now offers complete coverage for life, accident and hospitalization. Since the death of Bro. Dyches the Association has not had a local representative in Goldthwaite and this position is still open.

It is the desire of the Coleman Mutual Life Insurance Association to render the people of Goldthwaite and Mills County a prompt and courteous service in their insurance problems. Do not hesitate to call on them if they can help you.

Swing Of Southwest Farm Markets

Unchanged to lower price trends prevailed at most southwest farm markets during the past week, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports. Stocker and feeder cattle and calves sold sharply lower for the week ending Monday at Houston and San Antonio, and shared the general weakness of all cattle classes at Denver. Prices netted little change after daily ups and downs on other classes and at other southwest terminals. Cows showed particular stability. Common and medium cows moved at $16 to $18 at Houston. Hogs lost mostly $1 to $1.50 during the week. Top butchers brought $24.50 at San Antonio, Oklahoma City and Wichita Monday, and $25 at Fort Worth. Sows moved in a spread from $22 to $23 in Texas and Oklahoma. Stocker and feeder pigs ranged from $21 to $25. Sheep ruled steady to a little lower for the seven days, but feeder lambs gained a dollar or

SEED REPAIR AND SAVING BONDS

This is getting-ready time for my farmer niece and nephew. Today's plowing and investment in money and labor may or may not pay off in rich crops. There's a big IF in every farm family's life. If the crop shines, if it doesn't rain too much, if we have a drought—H, H, H. However, there's one crop which has no "if" side. It's a crop of Savings Bonds, which grows steadily, rains or shine, wind or calm, year after year until it produces 4% for every $5.
