$380,000 IN AWARDS FOR 4-H'ERS WITH HIGHEST RECORDS

Forty-five business concerns and private citizens are offering $380,000 in 4-H incentives this year through the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, according to G. L. Noble, director.

This amount will be presented to 4-H boys and girls who have outstanding records of accomplishment in the 28 agricultural and home economics programs arranged by the National Committee and supported by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Awards range from county medals to college scholarships. Some 1,800,000 members in 30,000 4-H Clubs from 46 states—plus Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico—may take part in the activities.

Climaxing the year's events is the National 4-H Club Congress to be held in Chicago, November 27 to December 1. An estimated 1,500 members, accompanied by leaders and other 4-H workers, will attend and receive well-earned recognition.

Nearly 150,000 county medals valued at $100,000 are offered to the ambitious 4-H'ers. State and sectional awards, which include trips to the Chicago Congress, U. S. savings bonds and gold watches, amount to over $180,000. National winners announced at the Congress are eligible to receive scholarships totaling $40,000. Last week while the Senate Agricultural Committee was trying to agree on a long-range farm bill the House passed a cotton acreage allotment measure, a Natural Gas bill and a few odds and ends. The cotton acreage allotment proposal, which passed the House without any difficulty, is necessary if we are to keep our cotton price support program. The Government simply can't support cotton if we are to continue to grow an unlimited amount each year.

During the past several years our cotton acreage has averaged around 20 million acres a year, and this year it has jumped up to 26 million. Under the present quota laws the Secretary of Agriculture is not allowed to cut the national allotment below 27,500,000 acres even though 2/3 of the growers vote in favor of controls. It is essential, therefore, that the law be amended in order that the minimum over-all acreage be reduced. Under the terms of the House bill the amount is reduced to 21 million acres in 1950 and permits it to drop still further in 1951 if necessary.

The Senate had already passed a cotton acreage bill, and the matter of ironing out differences between the House and Senate versions is in the hands of a conference committee which is expected to agree on a compromise in the near future. Under the terms of the House bill anyone who has grown cotton during the last three years (1948-47-46), or who grew "war crops" instead of cotton in 1947 or 1946, will be entitled to an allotment. At the same time, if his greatest acreage for any one of these years was less than the county allotment figure, he will get an allotment equal to his greatest acreage in any one of these three years. The bill further provides that if the grower has grown more cotton in any one of these years than the county figure, he will get the same percent of his tilled acres for cotton as are allotted through his county.

It is also provided that the State Committee can set aside 10% of the entire acreage to be allotted to counties to aid small growers and new growers build up their acreage. This is five times as much as could be used for such adjustments under the old law.

There are said to be a lot of crystal-gazers in and around Washington. Last week one of them delved into the future of our population and came up with some interesting figures that can make you wonder what this old country will look like a hundred years from now. The population of the United States — which has increased by about 17 million since 1940 — now totals approximately 150 million. A century hence, if present trends continue, the country will be peopled by at least 300 million in a world whose inhabitants will have multiplied by that time to a minimum of four billion — or roughly twice the present figure.

This outlook is rather startling. Such an increase will bring about far-reaching changes in the international balance of power and in the every-day life of the human race. The gloomy view expressed is that it will lead to mass starvation on a global scale, and to nightmarish strife between the "haves" and the "have-nots", unless the world takes action to promote an increase in agricultural output and in over-all productivity that will be big enough to meet the needs of the vastly increased population. On the other hand, the optimistic view is that the earth—with the help of science, including the science of the atom—will be quite capable of supporting the increase and even of offering better living standards.

The Brookings Institute recently made a report on this and took the view that with the advance of science the United States can easily support a population of 300 million. But it is admitted that the increase will involve many complexities and many social, economic and political changes. The big question to be faced is whether our free way of life can survive these changes. Perhaps so, but to avoid a regimented welfare state will require a lot of vigilance, courage and determination as time goes on.

A note in The Washington Post the other day had this suggestion: "The way to make Congress quit early is to pass a law making adjournment illegal. They'd never rest until they found a loophole in it".

Among the visitors who called on us last week were Commander Geo. P. Goss, of Brownwood, recently retired from active naval service after nearly 9 years; Howard Kingsberry, State PMA official of Santa Anna; Edgar Burrow, of Brady; Miss Lucy Wilson, of Mullin, an employee of the General Accounting Office in Washington; and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McMillan, of San Angelo.

Mrs. E. B. Anderson left Sunday morning for Ruidoso, New Mexico to attend the Simms Family Reunion. She expected to visit in California before returning home.

NEWSPAPER ADS GET CREDIT FOR BIG OLDSMOBILE SALES

Latest consolidated reports from the field show that more than a half million demonstrations of the new 1949 Oldsmobile Series "88" cars were given to motorists of the United States since the start of the "Make a Date with the '88" campaign late in June. In making known the initial success of the program, G. R. Jones, general sales manager of Oldsmobile Corporation, related that the Division of General Motors campaign was being carried on through public invitations printed in newspaper advertising columns.

"An interesting side light that shows up in dealer reports," said Mr. Jones, "is the popularity of tests in heavy traffic. The new crop of buyers appears to be particularly concerned with a car's maneuverability, ease of handling and instant response."

"For example, we have been called on to demonstrate the 'Rocket' in such familiar areas as traffic as New York Square during the evening Wilshire Boulevard, Angeles, when the bumper is on; Grand River in Detroit; the Chicago Bay Bridge during the commutes; other well-known places out the country."

The "Make a Date '88" campaign will Mr. Jones stated. The million demonstration enthusiastically under Oldsmobile's $700 dealer reported. The effort is first all-out post-war of its kind among dealers. It was largely means of efficiently the growing number of for test drives of the compression 135 hp "Rocket" Engine.

Reva Mae Horton, Allen D. Moreland Married In Double Ring Ceremony

Wedding vows for Miss Reva Mae Horton, daughter of Mrs. Vestus Horton of Goldthwaite, and Allen D. Moreland, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Moreland, also of Goldthwaite, were read in an impressive morning ceremony Sunday, July 31, at the home of ev. and Mrs. Joseph L. Emery.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Emery, pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city, before an archway adorned with large baskets of white gladiolas.

Preceding the ceremony, Janet Soules sang "Because" accompanied by Mrs. Emery and after the rites were read, she sang "The Lord's Prayer". Traditional wedding music was played during the ceremony.

The bride wore a two-piece balenciaga, brown linen suit created by Maurice Hirsh of California. The original styling of the collarless neckline was designed for use with costume jewelry. She wore a gold chain. The blouse was made of Duplex San-Cher crepe in the beautiful magnolia shade, created by Eclipse of Seattle, Washington. She used brown accessories and her corsage was of baby orchids. For "something old", Miss Horton wore an English lapel watch, one hundred and twenty-five years old, belonging to a friend, Mrs. Sallie Williams of Brownwood. For "something new", she used magnolia gloves and for "something borrowed", she wore gold ear screws belonging to a friend, Miss Wanda Henderson of Santa Anna. Her "something blue" was a handkerchief of brush linen made in China belonging to an aunt,

Mrs. Essie Livingston of San Francisco, California.

Attending the bride as Matron of Honor was her sister, Mrs. C. W. Hill. She was dressed in a Minx Modes Junior dress made of mauve rose alpaca crepe. The neckline was a cowled bertha design, draped on the left shoulder by means of gold buttons which matched the belt. Her accessories were brown and her corsage was of white gladiolas.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother-in-law, Lawrence Dalton.

Little Miss Judy Dalton, niece of the groom, served as flower girl and wore a white organdy dress sprinkled with pink bows. Her flowers were a cluster of pink carnations tied with white lace and pink satin streamers.

Mrs. Horton, mother of the bride, chose a dress of blue crepe with black accessories for the occasion and her flowers were white carnations, while Mrs. Moreland, mother of the groom, wore a changeable blue-green shantung dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of yellow marigolds.

Mrs. Moreland is a graduate of Goldthwaite High School and is now half owner of the Cozette Beauty Shoppe.

Mr. Moreland is also a graduate of Goldthwaite High School and spent twenty-two months in the United States Navy. He is employed at Little's Department Store.

After a trip to the coast the couple will be at home on Fourth Street of this city.

Other wedding guests included Mrs. Lawrence Dalton and C. W. Hill. A recording was made of the ceremony.

and honor, gaining for itself a title it took decades to live down—"the coffin corner" of Texas. Then, El Paso knew only the code of the cut-throat, Clench-fisted, double-barreled mob rule was the order of the day and it transacted the town's most lucrative business—land-grabbing from victimized townsmen. When one principled lawyer takes it upon himself to match lawlessness with lawlessness and murder with murder, it becomes the storm center of the entire Southwest.

"CHICKEN EVERY SUNDAY"

Capitulating on the entertainment trend it set with "Miracle on 34th Street," "Sitting Pretty" and "Apartment For Peggy," Twentieth Century-Fox has produced another delightful and heart-warming comedy in "Chicken Every Sunday," which previewers are claiming will be the best of them all. Starring Dan Dailey and Celeste Holm, the film opened last night at the Melba Theatre.

Based on Rosemary Taylor's best-seller, which told the hilarious story of life in a boarding house in Tucson at the turn of the century, the film depicts Dan and Celeste as the rulers of the roost. It represents a definite change of pace for the lanky song and dance man who climbed aboard the star bandwagon upon his release from service. As the lovable father, Dailey is always on the lookout for easy street, but he never quite finds it.

Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Graves, Carolyn and Tom Cody and his mother, Mrs. Amber Graves, left Saturday on their vacation. Stopping in Dallas to visit relatives, from there they went to Girard Kansas, where Mrs. Amber Graves will visit her daughter, Mrs. John Sheltar and family. Dr. Graves and family will visit in Huntington, Philadelphia, Penn. with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Campbell. They plan to see Niagara Falls and other points of interest.

MELBA THEATRE TO PARTICIPATE IN THEATRE POLIO FUND

Manager Phillip Nickols of the Melba Theatre today announced his theatre will participate in the Texas Theatres Polio Fund with audience collections during the week beginning Thursday, August 11.

Under the slogan, "Texas Takes Care of Its Own," the drive was planned to meet the emergency when Texas polio cases totaled one-fourth of all cases in the United States. The slate has had 1,123 new cases through July 23 this year.

L. M. Rice, Dallas attorney, heads the campaign committee. Other members are: R. J. O'Donnell and John Q. Adams, Interstate Circuit Theatres; R. I. Payne, Theatre Enterprises Inc.; S. L. Oakley, Jefferson Amusement Co.; F. W. Allen, National Screen Service; Johnny Long of Bay Town, Texas, Long Theatres, and Don C. Douglas, Robb & Rowley United.

Money collected in the theatres will be used only to treat Texans suffering with polio. While several polio reception centers have been set up at strategic points to handle the acute or isolation period, the facilities for post-acute treatment to restore use of limbs are limited, Mr. Rice said.

Among the polio alleviation agencies to benefit is the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation, near Austin.

Local residents may contribute at the theatre collections or may make checks payable to the Texas Theatres Polio Fund and mail them direct to headquarters at 801 Mercantile Bank Building, Dallas, Texas.

Ernest Strickland and daughter, Mrs. Harold Andrews and son, Bobby of Brady, spent Thursday of last week with Mr. Strickland's sister, Mrs. John W. Roberts and Mr. Roberts.

The engaged couple were commercial art students at Texas Technological College last year and Mr. Collier was a summer graduate.

LARGE GATHERING OF FARM BOYS AT THE DALLAS STATE FAIR

Post-war rural youth activity in the state will reach its high point this year when the largest single gathering of farm boys and girls in the nation's history will be honored by the State Fair of Texas on Rural Youth Day, Oct. 15, James W. Aston, chairman of the Fair's rural youth day committee, has announced.

"At least 75,000 4-H Club boys and girls, Future Farmers and Future Homemakers from farms and ranches in every corner of the state, will make the trip to the Fair," Aston said. "Last year's attendance of 60,000 was considered phenomenal, but all indications point to a 23 per cent increase for this year." The youngsters are traditionally given free admission to the Fair, and a free lunch which is provided by Dallas business leaders.

"Purpose of Rural Youth Day is primarily to help youngsters become better citizens," Aston said. "The sights they see and the information they obtain on this day broaden their vision, and their knowledge of trends in agriculture, livestock, poultry, and modern life in general. They find out what is going on, gain valuable "know-how," learn how to profit from the experience of others and, as a result, they become better business men, homemakers, farmers, ranchers, and citizens."

Rural Youth Day was inaugurated at the Fair in 1946. Through the cooperation of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, state Vocational Agriculture and Homemaking departments, the event has grown from an initial attendance of 30,000 to 75,000 which is the goal for 1949.

Attendance prizes of $100 each will be awarded the county 4-H Club delegation and the Future Farmer and Future Homemaker chapters which have the highest score, based on the number of members present multiplied by the number of miles traveled to the Fair.

A banquet honoring the 50 outstanding Future Farmers, Future Homemakers, and 4-H Club boys and girls in the state during 1949, will be held in the Texas Room of the Baker Hotel at 7 p. m. Oct. 14.

Other junior events planned for the 1949 State Fair are Junior Livestock Show, Oct. 17-22; Junior Market Turkey Show, Oct. 8-13; Junior Market Broiler Show, Oct. 14-20; Junior Grass Judging Contest, Oct. 19; and the State Junior Livestock Judging Contest, Oct. 11.

POLIO PATIENTS GETTING BEST MEDICAL CARE

DALLAS—Every polio patient in Texas is getting the best available medical care, Joe W. Savage, Executive Director of The National Foundation For Infantile Paralysis, announced here following a 10 day survey of conditions in the major epidemic areas of the state.

Savage, who directs the nation-wide fight against infantile paralysis from headquarters in New York, came to Texas to inspect polio conditions at first hand and to make sure that everything possible was being done to aid victims of the disease.

On his trip he visited San Angelo, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio. In each city he discussed the situation with local chapter officials, physicians and hospital administrators and inspected treatment centers.

"The Texas chapters of The National Foundation are doing an outstanding and heart-warming job," Savage reported after surveying all areas in Texas where serious outbreaks of polio have occurred.

"In one or two places I found there was a shortage of trained personnel but steps were taken on the spot to supply this need. Texas is adequately equipped with hospital facilities, physicians, nurses and special equipment to meet the threat of polio."

Savage disclosed that $315,000 in additional funds have already been furnished to local chapters in Texas so far this year by The National Foundation.

In addition to money, the Foundation has dispatched 62 nurses, 16 physical therapists, 5 physicians and 1 epidemic aid team to sections of Texas needing help. Also furnished were 23 respirators, 28 hot pack machines and a considerable amount of hospital equipment.

Savage disclosed that in 1948

Texas had a total of 1,765 polio cases. As of July 30 this year some 1,203 cases have been reported.

When asked whether sufficient funds were available to continue the battle against infantile paralysis, Savage stated that The Foundation, despite the heavy demands made on it this year, will meet all requests for assistance.

"However if these serious and widespread epidemics continue," Savage pointed out, "it may be necessary to procure additional funds through a national epidemic fund drive. These funds would be used only to fight epidemics and not for research or other long range objectives."

"Such an emergency fund appeal would be successful only if carried out on a national scale. In that way funds would be available to fight polio in all areas where epidemics are raging."

Savage stated that reports from all sections of the state showed a slight drop in the number of new polio cases and expressed the hope that the peak of the epidemic in Texas had been passed.

Couch Reunion

The annual Couch reunion was held July 29, 30 and 31 at Gatesville, Texas. The gathering went on in the usual manner—just like a huge stage set with a group of ham actors. Every one was doing his part to add to the fun.

There was a large table set with tempting food at all hours. It was a free for all when it came to eating! Oh boy! Every Tom, Dick and Harry (and a few more, too) really went to town on that food!

The younger generation had a wonderful time in the swimming pool and the teen agers found amusement at the local midnight theatre. Another group enjoyed themselves at a fire side chat (without the fire); while the older generation tried to sleep through their outburst of laughter.

Speaking of sleep—any member present could tell you that the guy who had the spurs did the most sleeping. Those sloping hills in the Gatesville park are for beauty alone!

All light thoughts of gaily and fun were clouded at the memory of those who had attended previous gatherings but who were no longer present. Alford Dee Couch who left in October, 1941; Donna Self, October 1943; Dora McCandless, January, 1944; Maude Koen, August, 1947; and Dick Couch in November, 1947.

Those attending to make the gathering such a huge success were Sylvester and Nancy Laird from Goldthwaite with their grandson, Kenney Laird from Galveston; Lloyd and Maudie Sisk from Levelland with their children, Charles and Pattie Sue; Allene Sutton from Colorado with her children Glenn Ray, Sandra and Kenney Bill, also her guest Iola Mae Norbe; Merton and Dorothy Stiles from Dallas with their children, Sharon and Norman C.; William Andy and Mary Ellen Couch from Houston; Oscar and Emmie Couch, also of Houston and their sons, Billy and O. G. Jr.; Louis and Ibyl Miller from Houston with their daughter, Shirley; Harry and Jackie Couch from La Marque, Texas with their daughter, Onera and granddaughter, Valetta; William and Pink Koen from Caradon, Texas; Richard and Edna Wilcox, also of Caradon; Dub and Billy Thompson and children, Barbara Ann, Patsy, and James Calvin from Flat, Texas; Raymond and Nita Wilcox and children, Jean Laphane, and Jimmy from San Angelo; Hubert and Sylvia Pruitt and their daughter Mary Edna and her fiancée, Raymond Woodward from Seminole, Texas; Melvin and Lucille Wilcox and daughter, Mary Ann from Fountain, Colorado; Elton and Lorey Huckabee and their children, Bobby, Roy, and Evelyn Ruth; and Bob and Sadie Black and Aggie Yeager of Star, Texas. Late arrivals to the reunion were Louis and Bessie Brooks and daughter-in-law, Lavania, with her son, who came from Waco along with their friend, Mr. Jones.

A wonderful time was enjoyed by all present but in parting the following request should have been posted: Attention! All members of the Couch fam-

Scallorn H. D. Club

The Scallorn Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Fields Hines on July 27. The Chadwick Club graciously accepted our invitation and met with us—we certainly enjoyed having them along with several ladies from Goldthwaite and Mrs. W. M. Gray from Alvin, Texas.

After our recreation period, Mrs. Dutch Smith opened the meeting. A report on the council meeting was given by Miss Greta Sue Hines. We were reminded to have our gifts ready for the bazaar to be held in September. A picnic was planned for August 26th to be held at Mrs. Ora Black's. Every one in the community is cordially invited—so come and bring your husband and your picnic basket and join in the fun. Watch Mrs. Black's column for more details. There being no further business, the meeting was turned over to the Home Demonstration Agent.

Miss Ella Hintz gave an interesting demonstration on the making of leather and cloth gloves. Directions were passed out to all present and patterns were available for any who wished to use them.

Mrs. Lloyd King gave a demonstration on salad making which was very helpful in planning meals for these hot summer days.

All of us like a tall frosty drink to help us get through the summer so Mrs. P. R. Jordon showed us how to make two delicious fruit drinks that would be ideal to set off a meal or a party.

We sincerely thank these ladies for the time and effort required to put on these demonstrations. We learned a lot and shall put it to good use.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Frank Hines, Greta Sue, Mrs. Gage and Mrs. P. R. Jordon served a delicious luncheon to twenty seven women and two children.

After luncheon we surprised our hostess with a stork shower. We all enjoyed the gifts as much as she did.

Our next meeting will be with Mrs. Elmer Berry on Sept. 28th. At this time we will be instructed on the selection and use of a commercial pattern. Club officers will also be elected so every one please come.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the assistance and sympathy shown to us at the death of our son and grandson. Such acts of thoughtfulness will always be remembered. May God bless each of you.—Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Has-haw, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Thomson.

Mrs. Jake Kirby left for her home at Somerton, Arizona Tuesday morning. After an extended visit with relatives in the valley, Corpus Christi and Goldthwaite.

On Sunday the Kelso relatives had their family reunion at the Mullin Park. About seventy-five attended. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kelso and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jack Kelso and family of Goldthwaite also attended.

FARM AND RANCH CHATTER

It's time to take action for fall gardens. Get the old plants out of the spring garden, turn the soil over, and water it. Keep the weeds out, of course. If some of the spring tomatoe plants did well and are still healthy, they can be used again. Tomato plants put out in July must be given special attention during August and early September. Water them good.

Even if we wanted to, we couldn't keep up to date discussing congressional work on a farm program these days. The picture changes by the day with a new compromise bill introduced nearly every morning. Don't underestimate Farm Bureau influence in Washington.

There will be another "dust bowl" when the next drouth cycle hits the plains, you can bet, in spite of what people tell you to the contrary.

It may not be in the same places as the other one, back in the thirties, because a lot of landowners there learned the lesson. But a lot didn't, and besides much of the country has changed hands a couple of times. People who bought it just to take advantage of high grain prices as a rule have no permanent interest in the soil and will leave it. "Suit case farmers" they have been called.

But right now is the time to stop next winter's dust storms by proper cover crops on grain and cotton and peanut land.

Everyone seems to be hedging now on the future of the livestock market. If you have your own feed and breed carefully, livestock raising is nearly always a good bet.

One of these years, a milk distributor will appoint an advisory committee of dairy farmers to help work out the difference between the producers and the wholesale buyers of raw milk. As it is now, there is a lot of distrust between the two groups.

Until an eye-level understanding is affected, though, dairymen can help things some by breeding more helpers for fall freshening.

FARM AND RANCH CHATTER

It's time to take action for fall gardens. Get the old plants out of the spring garden, turn the soil over, and water it. Keep the weeds out, of course.

If some of the spring tomatoe plants did well and are still healthy, they can be used again. Tomato plants put out in July must be given special attention during August and early September. Water them good.

Even if we wanted to, we couldn't keep up to date discussing congressional work on a farm program these days. The picture changes by the day with a new compromise bill introduced nearly every morning. Don't underestimate Farm Bureau influence in Washington.

There will be another "dust bowl" when the next drouth cycle hits the plains, you can bet, in spite of what people tell you to the contrary.

It may not be in the same places as the other one, back in the thirties, because a lot of landowners there learned the lesson. But a lot didn't, and besides much of the country has changed hands a couple of times. People who bought it just to take advantage of high grain prices as a rule have no permanent interest in the soil and will leave it. "Suit case farmers" they have been called.

But right now is the time to stop next winter's dust storms by proper cover crops on grain and cotton and peanut land.

Everyone seems to be hedging now on the future of the livestock market. If you have your own feed and breed carefully, livestock raising is nearly always a good bet.

One of these years, a milk distributor will appoint an advisory committee of dairy farmers to help work out the difference between the producers and the wholesale buyers of raw milk. As it is now, there is a lot of distrust between the two groups.

Until an eye-level understanding is affected, though, dairymen can help things some by breeding more heifers for fall freshening.

Weekly Swing of SOUTHWEST FARM MARKETS

Southwest farm products brought unevenly higher to lower prices compared to a week ago, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

Eggs held unchanged for the week at north Texas markets, but advanced a cent or two at Denver and New Orleans. Prices of spring chickens increased one or two cents at most southwest markets, and other poultry remained firm.

Potatoes and cauliflower weakened slightly at Colorado shipping points, but peas recovered from last week's slump as demand improved. At Denver, cantaloups, cherries, peaches, spinach, and tomatoes sold lower than a week ago. Also lower were Texas watermelons and potatoes and Texas and Louisiana sweet potatoes.

Barley rose 4 to 5 cents a bushel for the week, milo 3 cents a hundred, and wheat a cent a bushel. Yellow corn lost 1/2 cent, as other grains showed little change. No. 1 hard wheat closed Monday at $2.18-1/2 to $2.25 per bushel in bulk carlots at Texas common points. No. 2 yellow milo ranged from $2.15 to $2.22 a hundred.

Wool trading remained slow, but mohair buying picked up last week. Prices advanced 2 cents a pound to reach 40 cents for adult mohair and 60 cents for kid.

Dressed meats turned toward higher values for the week except the lower grades of beef and veal. Slow to fair opening trade Monday found most buyers cautious.

Last week's southwest livestock receipts changed little from the week before.

Cattle and calves lost $1 to $2 for the week at Houston, but all mostly steady to strong at other southwest markets. Fairly active markets Monday continued steady to strong trends. Beef cows ranged from $13 to $16 at Houston, $14 to $16 at San Antonio, $13.50 to $15 at Fort Worth, and $14 to $17.50 at Denver.

Butcher hogs gained mostly 25 to 50 cents for the week and sows 50 cents to $1. Feeder pigs held unchanged in Texas, and stock pigs advanced 50 cents in Oklahoma. Top butchers brought $22 to $22.75 Monday in Texas and Oklahoma and $24 at Denver.

Sheep and lambs declined 50 cents to $1 at Fort Worth but gained an equal amount at Oklahoma City. Top spring lambs brought $23 Monday at both markets. Ewes held steady at Denver and San Antonio. Goats changed little but kids declined.

Cotton ranged from 25 cents to $1.75 a bale lower for the week. Dallas fell the full 35 points to close Monday at 30.30 cents a pound for middling 15/16 inch. Houston paid 30.85, Galveston 30.50, and New Orleans 31.05.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Locke and daughters attended the Murphree reunion at Brownwood Saturday night and Sunday. Mrs. Will Sanders was a guest Sunday.

FINE WATERMELONS SOLD MIGHTY CHEAP

Bert Murphy, highmugol on the Robert Weaver place at Big Valley, says what Mills County needs is more advertising. He planted 14 acres in watermelons this year. They made mighty good—but are selling mighty cheap. He brought Old Man 100 a 55 pound watermelon yesterday to prove it.

If we had more trucks coming through here to pick up our produce, Bert says, we would get more money for it. This week he sold a load of 150 big melons to a trucker for 15 cents each.

Watermelons and fruit made good this year in the sandy land section of the county, but prices are off. Mr. Murphy says the Weaver place has a thousand bushels of peaches beginning to ripen now, and many pears.

Health Notes

Among a certain and rather extensive group of self-centered persons symptom hunting unfortunately is rather popular. Because of a too detailed study of so-called health literature of the alarmist type or on account of a recent death in the family, introspection develops to a morbid degree. The result is an entirely unfounded fear for all sorts of disease possibilities. Many becoming victims of this warped psychology develop brain and nerve exhaustion and in extreme cases even become affected mentally, stated Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

Of course, it is entirely proper to have a normal regard for personal well-being. To maintain vitality and to prevent disease is a logical pursuit for every one. But it most decidedly must be kept within bounds. When one becomes obsessed with the subject, concern for health has overstepped the limit.

For all practical purposes, after giving reasonable attention to diet, personal sanitation, sleep and exercise, and assuming that one's bodily limitations as defined by the family physician are appreciated, the average person can dismiss the subject of health. This, plus the annual physical examination should adequately cover the situation.

On the other hand, conditions are bound to arise where actual disease symptoms manifest themselves. It will then be up to the doctor to decide what the trouble, if any, is and for the patient to abide by his judgment.

In short, symptom hunting as a hobby is a dangerous matter. One should stay away from it. It is neither safe nor healthy to do otherwise.

LOOPHOLES
in the Law

By WILL WILSON
Past President, Texas District and County Attorneys Association

John Smith saw Joe Brown steal his watch. He had Brown arrested and the watch was found in his pocket. Smith told the officers that he had paid $49.50 for the watch, and misdemeanor charges of theft were filed against Brown.

When the case was tried in the county criminal court, Smith said he had made one slight mistake. He actually had paid $50 for the watch instead of $49.50. Since it was new when stolen it was considered worth the purchase price of $50. Smith was a convincing witness and, after all, he had actually witnessed the theft, so Brown was promptly convicted.

Upon appeal the case was reversed. The higher court held that the theft of a watch valued at $50 constituted a felony, rather than a misdemeanor, theft. Thus the county criminal court lacked jurisdiction over the case. There was no question about Brown's guilt, but he was given a new trial simply because the watch was valued at fifty cents more than it was originally said to be worth.

Such delays in punishing criminals, made possible by legal technicalities, hamper justice and encourage crime. Proper revision of Texas' criminal statutes, as advocated by the State Bar, would eliminate such technicalities.

DEATH TOLL FOR FARMER RESIDENTS

"How are you going to keep 'em down on the farm?" is as good a question today as it was following the first World War. Only now it's accident rates instead of the gay young blades who saw Paree.

According to the 1948 edition of "Accident Facts," statistical yearbook of the National Safety Council, the accidental death toll among farm residents was approximately 19,500 in both 1946 and 1947. The slight decrease in farm work deaths in 1947 was offset by an identical increase in other accidents to farm people.

Singing Holidays

Lesson for August 14, 1949

IF A CITIZEN OF THE U.S.A. observed all the holidays that are officially counted as legal, somewhere in his wide country, he would have 43 days off every year. Holidays are a national habit in all countries. Not content with what the law gives us, we take our personal vacations besides. But how many holidays do we sing about? (One might even dare to ask, how many are worth singing about?)

In the United States, there are known to this writer no New Year songs, none for Decoration day or Labor day, none for Armistice day, none for the various birthdays celebrated hither and yon. (Who ever heard of a song to commemorate Thomas Jefferson?) We may not even sing on our personal vacations, we are too busy working up a sun-tan. On the other hand, we could hardly think of Independence day, Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter without being reminded of the songs that go with them—The Star Spangled Banner or America the Beautiful for the Fourth of July, Now Thank We All Our God in November, and all the Christmas and Easter carols.

God and Country
It looks as if some kinds of holidays produce songs and others don't. It appears to be a general rule: If the holiday is specially patriotic or religious, then people sing; otherwise they don't. God and country, in short, arouse emotion and enthusiasm which (for example) the memory even of a great man like Jefferson, or the planting of a tree, does not. This is generally true throughout the world. It was true in ancient Israel, for many of the Psalms are holiday hymns, festival songs. Some years ago a religious denomination issued a new hymn book. One minister roundly denounced the book because it had introduced a few patriotic hymns. "My Country, 'tis of Thee" has no place in public worship, he said.

If that man had been a closer student of the Psalms, he would not have made such a criticism. Most patriotic hymns are really prayers for one's native land; Psalms 105 and 106 are only two of a number of Psalms which are in the best sense of the word patriotic. If the reader will look through the Psalms for himself, noting all the references to God and to Israel, remembering that Israel was the name of the poet's country, he will be convinced that in those times as in these, love for God and love for country are singable.

Hallelujah
OUR word "Hallelujah" is Hebrew, and comes from the Psalms. It means "Praise ye the Lord!" Incidentally, it is a religious word, and should not be used, as it so often is, irreverently or lightly. Psalms 111-118 in our Bible were sung as a group, and called the Hallel, or the Praise. The Hallel was sung regularly at the three great holiday festivals: Passover (near our Easter time), Pentecost (in early summer, ancestor of our Whitsunday), and Tabernacles (in the fall).

When our Lord had his "Last Supper" he and his friends would sing these very Psalms. The "hymn" they sang before they went out was very probably the latter part of this group, 116-118, always sung at the end of the Passover meal.

The note of praise in these Psalms is very strong. They are not in a minor key.

Parodies
A SAD FACT today is that the un-Christian world, which does not understand religion at all, has taken over our religious holidays but leaves the religion out. The result is a parody, something without rhyme or reason. Take a look, next winter, at Christmas greeting cards for sale. You will find scotchy pups, all sorts of things, more easily than you will find true Christmas messages. For people who are not Christians, Christmas is only Xmas, a time for exchanging useless presents, a time for shopkeepers to make money. And as for Easter, there are cities where the big items are only the bunnies and the parade, neither of which has the slightest thing to do with the real Easter.

Farm people lost 17 million days from regular activities because of accidents in 1948, an average of 29 days per accident. The most common causes of farm accidents are falls, machines, animals, motor vehicle handling objects, hand tools stepping on or striking against objects, falling and flying objects and burns or shock. —Eagle wants ads get results.

HUMBLE TO SPEND $18 MILLION ON NEW PIPE LINE FROM W. T.

Houston, Aug. 12—An $18 million pipe line from West Texas to the Gulf Coast will be started by Humble Pipe Line Co. toward the end of 1949 and completed around the middle of 1950. The new line will be of 18-inch pipe extending 375 miles in a direct line from Kemper in Reagan county to Satsuma, 20 miles north of Houston, where it will connect with Humble's existing lines to Baytown. It is being built to provide a more economical transportation system for Humble from West Texas. Upon completion of the new line, Humble plans to take up a part of its old system from West Texas to Baytown by way of West Texas which has a capacity of 50,000 barrels per day.

No changes are contemplated in Humble's other lines from West Texas with a capacity of 70,000 barrels per day to Corpus Christi.

The new line will have an initial capacity of 95,000 barrels per day with one intermediate station between Kemper and Satsuma. The capacity can be increased to 120,000 barrels per day by the addition of a second intermediate station.

The direct route to be followed by the new line from Kemper to Satsuma will pass through sixteen counties: Reagan, Crockett, Schleicher, Menard, Kimble, Gillespie, Mason, Blanco, Hayes, Travis, Bastrop, Lee, Fayette, Austin, Waller and Harris. Kemper is a central point on Humble's extensive pipe line system serving West Texas and New Mexico.

Texas People Against 'One World' Government, Texas Poll Indicates

By JOE BELDEN

Director, The Texas Poll
Austin, Aug. 6.—In spite of the fact that the world federalist movement seems to be gaining ground in Washington, Texas continues to look with a suspicious eye upon the idea of "one world" government.

The latest statewide survey by the Texas Poll compared with one conducted a year and a half before shows little or no change in the way Texans receive this idea. The weight of opinion is still definitely against world government control of the armed forces of the United States.

In Congress more than one hundred House members and some eighteen senators are now backing a resolution to pledge the United States to help develop the United Nations into a world government with enough power to preserve peace.

To measure public acceptance of such an idea, The Texas Poll has twice put this question to a statewide cross section of adults:

"Some people say the United Nations should be made into a government of the entire world, with power to control the armed forces of all nations, including the United States. Do you think this is a good idea or not such a good idea?"

	Jan. 1948	July 1949
Good idea	26%	29%
Not such a good idea	48	52
No opinion	26	19

100% 100%
In rejecting "one world" government, Texans seem to be out of step with the country as a whole. Nationwide polls have discovered that most Americans are favorable toward the idea.

Apparently, then, Texans would not strengthen the United Nations to the extent of giving it power to control armed forces; but this does not mean people think the United Nations, as it is now, is strong enough to prevent war. Consider the answers to this question:

"Do you think the United Nations is now strong enough to prevent war?"

	Jan. 1948	July 1949
Yes	17%	30%
No	57	50
No opinion	26	20

100% 100%
Most Texans just haven't been sold on the idea of giving a world government power over American armed forces.

PRODUCTION CREDIT ADMINISTRATION HOLD 15TH ANNUAL MEET

Over 800 members and guests attended the 15th Annual meeting of the Association at Bill and Kelley Owen's pecan grove East of Sar Saba. After registration they all enjoyed a barbecue lunch with all the trimmings and everyone was high in praise of the quality of food.

After the barbecue a business session was held and the members heard the reports of the activities of the Board of Directors and the Loan Committee during the year and reviewed the financial statement of the Association. A copy of this statement appears elsewhere in this paper. Two directors were elected. They were Delton Barnett and Luther E. Smith.

Dr. Virgil P. Lee, President of the Production Credit Corporation, from Houston made a very interesting talk on different aspects of credit and what the future may hold.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Patterson returned home Saturday from Kings Daughters Hospital at Temple where she received a favorable check up. Their nephew, Ray Priddy, of Priddy, came to Temple for them Saturday.

atall. Now, when Old Hunnert first invented his famous weather distributor—figuring they'd plenty of all kinds of weather but them Washington politicians ain't distributing it right to us Solid Southerners until we vote jest to suit them—O. H. figured the cross-the-palms dimes would pay for the upkeep of them rusty balling wires on his W. D. But they ain't to date. They're still a few ignorants around Mills County that believe it'd rained anyhow even if o. h. hadn't pushed in that R buttin. How can a honest man make a good living with such ignorant customers as that? Enyway, next time you figure you need a good rain on your corn or cotton, or on your otherwise, jest cross O. H.'s palm with a silver dime, go home smiling and await results. O. H.'s motto is: "Weather, as, if and when wanted, for all Mills County people—pervidin' they cross." "And he's got his famous W. D. invention to back it up. Only thing that's lacking to date is more silver dime palm-crossing—to o. h., that is.

PRECAUTIONS

"Sister," said the deacon severely, "you should avoid even the appearance of evil. For instance, on your sideboard you have several cut glass decanters, each half filled with what appears to be ardent spirits." "But deacon," the sister protested, "it isn't any thing of the kind. The bottles look so pretty on the sideboard that I fill them half way with a mixture of floor stain and furniture polish just for the looks." "That's why I'm cautioning you, sister. Feeling a little faint, I helped myself to a dose from the big decanter in the middle."

A tourist passing through here stopped at a country filling station and said: "Hmmm, looks like we might have some rain." Filling Station Man—"Could be—I sure hope so. Not fer myself, but for the kids here. I've seen it rain."

A long time ago a restaurant here in Goldthwaite hung out this sign, if o. h. remembers correct: "Skunk Hunters please keep out. Knock on the door and you'll be served outside."

Goldthwaite Mother—"Now, Junior, be a good boy and say 'A-h-h' so the doctor can get his finger out of your mouth."

Auto Examiner—"Do you know what it means if a driver puts out a hand?" Applicant—"Well, if it's a woman, it means she's going to turn right or left, shake the ashes off her cigarette, or reverse or stop, or she's pointing to a hat store, or admiring her ring, or..." Examiner—"Yeah, and if it's a man?" Applicant—"Why, he's usually waving at a woman."

And onct when o. 100rt was young he was a floor walker, and when the sweet young thing asked him "Do you have any notions on this floor?" he answered, "Yes, but we suppress them during working hours." Next day o. h. was hunting a job again.

Onct Old 100rt went astray fer a while—and everybuddy knew about it. Then he reformed for a spell—and nobuddy would believe it. He's back now where everybuddy knows it.

Also, they had o. h. on the witness stand onct when they was trying his close neighbor for stealing hogs. The p. attorney asked o. h. after he'd testified fer quite a spell: "Do you know the nature of an oath?" O. H.—"Sure." P. At.—"Do you know you are not to bear false witness against your neighbor?" O. H.—"I'm not bearing false witness against him. I'm bearing false witness fer him."

O. H. has noticed some that a committee is a group that keeps minutes and wastes hours.

O. 100rt and the 7th has a joint account at the bank—o. h. puts the money in and the 7th draws it out.

Being a perfect gentleman, O. H. allus when he goes to a swell society function steps on his cigarette so's it won't burn.
