New Fire Truck Due In Service By September 1

The Goldthwaite Volunteer Fire Department is about to have some new equipment that will augment the present fire-fighting apparatus and make it possible to work out an arrangement with County officials under which the Goldthwaite firemen will be able to help their County neighbors in the event of emergency.

A two-ton Chevrolet truck chassis has been purchased by the Goldthwaite Municipal Council from Saylor Chevrolet, Mayor Loy Long said. A pump will be mounted on the new truck chassis in San Antonio and then there will be added to the equipment locally a tank designed to meet Fire Department specifications.

Fire Chief Jack Reid and City Utilities Manager W. C. Barnett said that the present schedule calls for completion of work on the new fire-fighting apparatus within about 30 days. In the interval an arrangement, including finances, will be worked out with the County.

It was emphasized that the new fire truck, with its tank and pump, will be additional to the existing equipment. Under prevailing conditions, it is not possible for the present truck to leave the city limits of Goldthwaite, but that situation will be altered once the new apparatus is placed in operation.

Mayor Long, Fire Chief Reid and Alderman R. E. Worley are the members of a special Municipal Council Committee that studied ways and means of meeting Goldthwaite's requirements for Fire Department apparatus that also would be adaptable for use outside the city limits.

The Eagle had a happy week with the return of Miss Ruth Ervin from a fortnight's vacation.

Goldthwaite Backs Football In Generous Fund Appeal Response

Following the auspicious heralding of the football season, Coach Knox said that he and Assistant Coach Jack Locklear will take 30 boys and two cooks to a ten-day camp at Wrinkle's place on the Colorado river. The boys who are to attend will be asked to take with them to camp their toilet articles and shorts.

Coach Knox said that all football boys who will be in High School and the eighth grade come September are to report at the School Gymnasium at ten o'clock on the morning of August 13 for instructions. All such boys will be eligible to work out here in town with Coaches Knox and Locklear from August 15 to 20. Then, 28 of the best High School boys and two other football prospects from the eighth grade will be selected to go to the training camp from August 20 to September 1.

From July 31 to August 5, Knox and Locklear will attend the Texas Coaches School at Austin. Coach Knox will come to Goldthwaite to establish permanent residence about August 10 or 11. A protégé of Dutch Meyers, he is out to make football history in Goldthwaite.

Chivalry lives on in Texas, as was demonstrated this week when Assistant County School Superintendent Lois Hudson clambered up to give a much-needed scrubbing to the transom over the north entrance to the Mills County Court House. At once, there was a rush of men from the Square, all of them protesting that Mrs. Hudson would fall and break her neck. She didn't but she might have, except that:

Commissioner Jess Y. Tullos gallantly took over the transom washing. Mrs. Hudson retired to her office, and within a matter of seconds there wasn't a man in sight—except Commissioner Tullos. But Mrs. Hudson was safe, and Texas knighthood had flowered again. Texas chivalry, however, did not care about J. Y. T.'s neck.

Note to Commissioner Tullos: The transoms over the east, south and west entrances to the Court House are very much in need of scrubbing. So is the skylight over the rotunda. You'll be washing it, if Mrs. Hudson should decide to try awakening the Square just once again.

Sewer Tile Here

City Utilities Manager W. C. Barnett said this week that sewer tile had arrived for the northwest portion of Goldthwaite and that it would be put down speedily in ditches that already had been prepared for it. Mr. Barnett said he hoped to complete laying about 900 feet of tile this week.

Bill Stubblefield of Atlanta, Georgia, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. "Stub" Stubblefield last weekend. Guess what? Bill came to see how his Dad did in politics.

LOVELY LADY STEALS SHOW

MRS. EULA "MILLS COUNTY" NICKOLS

While the voters were milling around in the Goldthwaite Square last Saturday night, Mrs. Eula Nickols up and stole the election and the show that followed it when she was crowned "Mrs. Mills County" by the Home Demonstration Clubs.

The contest for the coveted first title of the sort locally has been on since last March. It came to an end at the bandstand on the County Court House lawn at ten o'clock last Saturday night when Mrs. L. B. Hart, Chairman of the Mills County H. D. Council, bestowed the "Mrs. Mills County" title on Mrs. Nickols and presented her with a corsage of white carnations.

For four months there was a lot of politicking among the H. D. Club members, who did their balloting on the basis of a penny-a-vote. The pennies, each of which represented one vote for "Mrs. Mills County," went into the fund with which the H. D. Club members support 4-H Club girls in their many activities.

Collier Dairy Retail Business Sold To Creamery

The sale of the bottling and retail milk delivery portion of the Collier Dairy to the M. B. Creamery of Brownwood was announced this week by C. C. Collier. Mr. Collier said that he would continue in the business of milk production, with the M. B. Creamery as his outlet.

"After having been in the bottling and retail milk delivery business for 15 years it was decided to sell all but the production end of the business," Mr. Collier said. "We are deeply grateful to our friends and customers with whom we enjoyed so fine a relationship for so long."

Mr. Collier said that the pressure of other business interests was the determining factor in his decision to conclude his negotiations with the M. B. Creamery. The arrangement became effective on July 10.

Miss Yvonne Nix of Waco is visiting this week in the homes of her cousin, Miss Earlene Nix, and Miss Vera Bell in the Jones Valley community.

Sgt. Jack Simpson and Sgt. Ben Hannon of Connally Air Force Base at Waco spent the week end in the home of Jack's mother, Mrs. Elam Kelly.

Baptist Revival Reaches Climax In Mullin Sunday

Revival services at the First Baptist Church's outdoor Tabernacle in Mullin will conclude next Sunday and this week, the Rev. Henry C. Garber, Pastor, issued an invitation to everybody to attend and take their own food so as to have Sunday dinner on the Tabernacle grounds.

The revival services are being conducted by the Rev. T. Lynn Stewart, who is Pastor of the First Baptist Church at Burk Burnett and Moderator of the large Wichita Falls Association of Baptist Churches. He also is President of District 11 of the Texas Baptist Convention, and a member of the book review committee of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Brother Garber said that the revival has been successful with many decisions on the part of those attending. Already, there have been ten new members for the First Baptist Church in Mullin.

On Sunday, all classes of the Church School will be striving for a record attendance. The goal is a Sunday School attendance of 175. Special recognition will be given to classes that reach their quotas.

Mills County Fourth Annual Baptist Camp To Start Monday

The fourth annual encampment by the Baptists of Mills County will be held at Lake Brownwood from July 31 through August 4 with the Rev. Keith Parks as the Camp Pastor and principal speaker. A record attendance of adults and boys and girls is the hope of the sponsors.

The Rev. Henry C. Garber, Pastor of the First Baptist Church in Mullin, will be the Camp Director. The Music and Recreation Director will be the Rev. Don Jones, Pastor of the Pompey Baptist Church.

In announcing encampment plans, Walter R. Langston, Jr., Assistant to the Pastor of the First Baptist Church in Goldthwaite, said this week that the program promises good food, swimming, baseball, volleyball, fishing, singing, Bible study, preaching, devotional services—and a little sleep.

All of those who intend to enroll for the encampment were asked by Brother Langston to meet either at the First Baptist Church in Mullin or at the First Baptist Church in Goldthwaite at 1:30 p. m., on Voters in Mills County decided in last Saturday's Democratic Primary Election that in the runoff on August 26, C. F. "Stub" Stubblefield will oppose W. W. "Bill" Fox for nomination as Sheriff-Tax Assessor-Collector.

Voters in Precinct 3 also decided that in the August 26 runoff, Albert Schuman, who polled 206 votes, will oppose K. B. Henry, incumbent, for County Commissioner. Mr. Henry polled 150 votes. The defeated candidates in Precinct 3 and their votes were: Eli Edmondson, 125; R. T. Ratliff, 124; and Melvin Bessent, 77.

In the only other Mills County contest, in Precinct 4, J. Frank Davis, with 101 votes, was reelected County Commissioner against his challenger, Horace G. Brooks, who won 82 votes.

Joe Palmer, who was reelected Mills County Democratic Chairman, led the field in the local voting. Mr. Palmer received 2,114 votes, with no opposition. Other unopposed candidates polled heavily. Mrs. Bertha Weathers was reelected County Treasurer with 2,111 votes, and A. M. Pribble was reelected County Attorney with 2,110 votes. County and District Clerk W. E. Summy polled 2,107 votes, and County Judge and County Superintendent of Public Instruction, Lewis B. Porter received 2,093 votes.

County Surveyor J. C. Long polled 2,101 votes and State Representative Arthur E. Gromatzky also received 2,101 votes in the official returns as announced by Democratic County Chairman Palmer.

E. A. Obenhaus was reelected Precinct 1 Justice of the Peace with 931 votes and Jess Y. Tullos was reelected County Commissioner from Precinct 1 with 932 votes. In Precinct 2, Fred V. Wall was reelected County Commissioner with 316 votes.

The race for a place in the runoff for nomination as Sheriff wound up with Stub Stubblefield receiving 888 votes as against 495 for Bill Fox. O. H. "Oma" Shaw received 323 votes and E. B. "Gene" Turbiville, who also failed to win a place

Mills County Fourth Annual Baptist Camp To Start Monday

Monday of next week with bedding and cot, eating utensils and baggage, including bathing suits. Transportation will be provided to the camp grounds from the Baptist Churches in Mullin and Goldthwaite. The fee for the entire encampment including meals, is $4.00. Spending money would be additional.

The camp program, Brother Langston said, has been designed for persons of all ages. Whole families will be welcome; children under nine years of age must be accompanied by their near kinfolk. For youngsters, the camp counselor system will be used, with groups of eight or ten young persons under the supervision of a counselor.

Last year, 51 persons, older and younger, were registered for the encampment. Parents and others who may be interested but who cannot attend the entire encampment, are invited to spend a day or to participate in evening programs, Brother Langston said.

Brother Parks, the Camp Pastor, is a student at the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth.

GOOD VOTE IN MILLS COUNTY

Mills County voters did themselves proud last Saturday. They turned out to cast their ballots in the Democratic Primary Election in numbers far greater, proportionately than in many other parts of the State. There are approximately 2,600 eligible voters in Mills County, including 1,874 poll tax payers and more than 700 exempt persons. More than 2,100 voters cast their ballots, thereby showing both interest and citizenship responsibility. It seems to us that the resounding vote of confidence that was given to Governor Shivers also was a reflection of good sense and a refusal to be swayed by the thoroughly unsound economics of Caso March, who had tried to attract votes on an untenable premise that appealed only to selfishness. A few ballots showed that some of the voters marked their ballots without having even the foggiest idea about the identity of the candidate for whom they voted, but they were relatively few. Voting for merely a name is a waste of the influence that a citizen can exert at the ballot box. Campaigning now will continue until the runoff on August 26 with the race for Sheriff between Stub Stubblefield and Bill Fox attracting the local interest. The runoff for Lieutenant Governor between Ben Ramsey and Pierce Brooks also appears to be another campaign of more than usual interest hereabouts. It is probable that there will be some strong feelings as the citizens argue the merits of the respective candidates during the next month. Another good turnout for the runoff election on August 26 would be just fine and a wonderful follow-up to the interest of last Saturday. The more debate there is during the next month, the more meaning there will be to the outcome of the August 26 balloting.

FOOTNOTE TO THE ELECTION

After the votes had been counted last Saturday night there was a grand demonstration of good sportsmanship and spirit in the Square in Goldthwaite when defeated candidates, managing to conceal their disappointment behind smiles, went around shaking hands with all and sundry. It seems to us that Oma Shaw and Gene Turbiville deserve loud cheers for the manner in which they took the verdict from the polls. This is our own big cheer to both of them.

BETTER FIRE PROTECTION

This week's announcement that the Goldthwaite Volunteer Fire Department soon will have some new fire-fighting apparatus to augment the present equipment is good news. It will mean greater protection for property inside the city limits of Goldthwaite and it ought to make possible an arrangement between the County and the City by which, in time of the emergency of fire, Goldthwaite firemen will be able to go to the assistance of County neighbors. There is good prospect of just such an arrangement. The Municipal Council of Goldthwaite has met one of its responsibilities wisely, within the limits of budgetary limitations. It appears that the Council can expect a cooperative attitude on the part of County officials. The new fire truck that soon will be available didn't just happen by the wave of somebody's magic wand. It took the time and thought and energy of busy men who were working in the public interest. The public owes a vote of thanks to Mayor Loy Long, Fire Chief Jack Reid, City Utilities Manager W. C. Barnett and Alderman R. E. Worley, Commissioner J. Y. Tullos of Precinct No. 1 also has been right in their pitching for better fire protection for everybody. It is to be remembered that while progress is being made on providing improved local protection against fires, hard work continues in the effort to impress upon the State Fire Insurance Commission at Austin what is being done here. There may be still better news for the payers of fire insurance premiums once the State Fire Insurance Commission has been duly and properly impressed. May all of us also remember that our equipment depends on the use made of it by the members of the Goldthwaite Volunteer Fire Department, who are ready at all times, day and night, to respond to the fire siren. Let's never overlook any opportunity to thank the firemen. They should not be taken for granted.

CONGRATULATIONS TO MRS. MILLS COUNTY

On the Court House lawn Saturday night, the Home Demonstration Clubs recognized Mrs. Eula Nickols as Mrs. Mills County. It was a tribute to a wonderful person who is loved by all. Congratulations, Mrs. Nickols—and to the ladies of the H. D. Clubs.

The President's Message was the big news on Capitol Hill last week. It was followed quickly by bills to lift the ceiling on the number of men who compose the armed forces and steps were taken to put the nation on what has been called a "limited" war footing.

The best guess around here is that about 100,000 men will be required to chase the commies out of South Korea and that it will be September before a real counter offensive can be launched. Thus far our delaying action tactics have been carried out with less than two divisions, whereas the invaders swooped down with a total of nine divisions, well trained, seasoned and mechanized. Out-numbered 10-to-1, our troops have suffered but have performed with gallantry and heroism.

The North Korean army includes an estimated 70,000 veterans of the China war—Koreans who were in Manchuria and who went into the Chinese communist forces. And about 150 modern 54-ton Russian tanks spearheaded the drive. The Joseph Stalin tank—the largest of all—has not been used much. In fact only one of them has been seen in action. At least two others are known to be standing by.

The new super bazooka, capable of stopping any of these tanks was flown to Korea three weeks after the invasion began. Many people have wondered why those bazookas were not readily available to meet the Reds when they crossed the 39th parallel. The fact is this weapon is brand new. It was still in the testing stage, and the very first ones released by the factory were promptly flown to the war front. There they have proven very effective.

Our central intelligence agency has been sharply criticized for its reported failure to report the pending invasion before it occurred. Actually, much of that criticism has been unjustified. CIA warnings had been very accurate so far as North Korean preparations were concerned. Accurate details of the massing of troops by the commies, the number of Russian tanks, the evacuation of civilians along the 38th parallel, the construction of military roads to the border, were made. Admiral Roscoe Hillenkoetter, director of the CIA, the other day furnished our committee with detailed reports of what his service had done, and the reports and warnings of the pending invasion were detailed and accurate.

The trouble was, our policy in Korea has in the past been indefinite and ill-considered. Only a few months ago it was announced around the world that neither Formosa nor Korea were considered essential for American defense and security. More than a year ago we pulled our troops out of Korea, and left the natives practically unarmed and unprepared for any invasion from the north.

And, despite that, American economic aid was continued for Korea. Now we know that the economic assistance there was a mistake without at the same time committing substantial military support. Many of us in Congress felt that to pour economic help into South Korea, without any assurance of military protection, was waste and folly. Now everyone knows that position was correct.

As we move toward a new era of peacetime preparedness, it is important to keep in mind that this is not being done just to drive the Reds out of Korea. There are other trouble spots, and only the Kremlin knows where another war of the Korean type may break out around the world. The general belief here seems to be that Russia

The Eagle's Aery

By The Editor

It is not easy adequately to express gratitude for warm and generous impulses. Recently the editor was reading the biography of an American who, in thoroughly hard-boiled fashion, was out to get everything he could for himself. His whole attitude toward his relationships with other people was based on the philosophy that "nobody ever gives you anything." That made him tough and ruthless and grasping. If he could come to Mills County he would perhaps, feel differently. Here's why:

The other day J. D. Berry of Jones Valley (Rattler) came into the Eagle office lugging the Granddaddy of all watermelons. Mr. Berry put the watermelon on the floor with the shy remark that "I never gave anything to the Eagle before." It was hard to say "thank you" to Mr. Berry in person, so it is printed here for him to read, along with the comment that it was a mighty good watermelon. Our Miss Earlene Nix did away with most of it and she is a supporting witness in behalf of Mr. Berry's watermelon.

Just a little while before the watermelon episode, Miss Pearl Crawford, the Eagle's Chappell Hill correspondent, came in with a sack of potatoes that she had dug for the editor. That kindness touched the editor very much. At the time, he just couldn't find the proper words to say "thank you." Miss Crawford, As potatoes, they vied with the best that Idaho or Maine could possibly produce. The editor and his family had those potatoes for several meals and thought they were wonderful. Miss Crawford.

The other day, and looking just like a perfect peach herself, Miss Vera Mae Bell, also of Jones Valley (Rattler), came into the Eagle's Aery and de-does not want show-down war with us at this time, but is prepared for several small wars to be fought by satellites.

Right now Greece is menaced by a concentration of the old Communist guerilla armies across the frontier in Bulgaria. Iran, with its oil riches, faces hugh Russian armies across the border, but internal rebellion is not believed likely. Tito's Yugoslavia is ready for anything to happen. For weeks masses of communist troops and tanks have been focused on the Yugoslav border. And in the Far East Indo-China is on the brink of communist attack any time. Except for American intervention, it is believed Formosa would already be under invasion by the Chinese Communist armies.

So, it can be easily seen that if Russia had been permitted to have her way in Korea—if the U. S. hadn't reversed its position and intervened with military assistance, the Korean incident would have been but the beginning of a series of wars. Others may concur anyhow, but they will hesitate more now that Uncle Sam has got his dander up. The best insurance for peace is preparedness. It's the only language the dictators understand.

posited a sack of peaches on the editor's desk. That day I picked on the Bell plane herself. The bad part of that Miss Bell didn't around very long and the peaches served to the editor of the Eagle here's another "Thank you" and a refutation of the ophy that "nobody ever gives you anything."

Relax, everybody, relax. Saba has a Mayor, in the son of a Mayor, in the son of a Mayor, in the son of a Mayor. Jameson, for the first time last May, Jack H. Brown, San Saba News crowd in town got a Mayor for the long last without any Goldthwaite. "We in San want you in Goldthwaite know that we appreciate efforts in our behalf. The best you could offer is good enough." Mr. Brown on July 20 in his column Round-Up, on page one of San Saba News. As reported Mr. Brown's crowing, he wishes a most successful administration to Mayor Jameson.

Here is a little note of ciation to the Dallas News. Last Sunday, on the editorial page, the Dallas News reprinted in part a column from The Eagle's Eye in Goldthwaite. The Dallas News had given wide latitude to editorial comment on the Eagle. The editor of the Dallas Morning News knows how happy he is the Eagle is read in Dallas. The editor believes that Sunday the Dallas News renders a fine service providing a composite of smaller newspaper stories at the grassroots in Texas.

Baseball fans who heartily lionize the Texas State Ball Park last Saturday are indebted to County Earl Summy's wife, Miss Summy, from her lookout Court House, kept an eye on the election returns and as the results from the various precincts were received, telephoned them promptly to the Ball Park box office of line that had been especially installed for the purpose.

Mrs. Summy gave the best fans a service that was fast and accurate as they received by the citizens in Square, who did not have soft benches to support through the surprises of election returns. Returns to the Ball Park also were phoned to the Court House that was because Mr. Summy came on the line a time or two and asked for them. Now the Ball Park was in a very volunteer any information that was happening in the Goldthwaite Red Sox Sprigleville. The whole idea to keep that as secret as possible. Bandera, Gatesville, Sprigleville are three towns that ought not to be left when Goldthwaite is tired.

You did a good and ancient job, Mrs. Summy, and editor feels certain that fans are grateful to you having helped to make it possible for them to see the game and yet not miss the election returns.

Postmaster Clarifies Rules For Sending C. O. D. Matter

Patrons who send C. O. D. matter through the Post office were given clarification of postal regulations regarding such matter by Goldthwaite Acting Postmaster Lucile Fairman this week.

The sender of C. O. D. packages is required to pay both the postage and the C. O. D. fee at the time of mailing. Postmaster Fairman said. The amount, however, then is included in the charges collected from the addressee and it is returned to the sender from the Post Office of destination.

Sealed matter of any class which had postage at the first class rate paid on it can be sent C. O. D. C. O. D. mail is automatically insured; the C. O. D. fee covers insurance against loss, rifling and damage in an amount equivalent to actual value or cost of repairs. Further, the amount of the C. O. D. fee is based on the amount of the charges to be paid by the addressee.

Mrs. Fairman said also that under postal regulations, C. O. D. packages can be held at the office of destination for only 15 days. If they are not picked up by the addressee within that time, they are returned to the sender.

Mills County Singing Convention On Sunday At Goldthwaite School

William J. Young May Be Your Cousin

William J. Young of Midland, who lived in Goldthwaite until 40 years ago, came back for a visit last week. Much of the story of Mr. Young's visit was lost because he was so busy establishing kinship with the Eagle's Miss Earlene Nix. By the time he was well on the way to establishing kinship with nearly everybody else in Mills County, the story became too complicated to write.

ston, Mrs. Floyd Manuel, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Horton, Mr and Mrs. Will Horton and children and Mr. and Mrs. Elam Horton and their children. Others from Goldthwaite who attended the funeral were Mrs. Annie Armstrong, Mrs. Berthal Roberts and Mrs. Horace Gray. Former Goldthwaite residents who were present were Lee Casbeer and Mrs. Ell Booker of Dallas, Mrs. Madge Walker of San Angelo and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Featherston of Odessa.

Mitch Miles announced this week that next Sunday the Mills County Singing Convention will have its fifth session in the Goldthwaite Grammar School Auditorium.

Sunday, Mr. Miles said, will be a big day for all of those who enjoy singing, regardless of their denominational affiliations.

"Everyone is invited to come", Mr. Miles said. "Bring your dinner and enjoy a day of good gospel singing. Dinner will be served about one o'clock."

It is expected that singers will come from many other places to join in the Fifth Sunday Singing Convention.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish, by this means, to thank my friends in Precinct 3 for the support which they gave to me during the recent election campaign and at the polls on Saturday. I appreciate the expression of confidence from those who cast their ballots for me. My gratitude to all of you.

Sincerely,

Pipe of Peace Sent Back Home By Judge Gerald

At least one silent and unpublicized war came to an end this week when former Mills County Judge P. J. Gerald wrote in from Houston to renew his subscription to the Eagle and to send his and Mrs. Gerald's congratulations to Mrs. Ben Crawford "on the attainment of his 88th birthday, and to Uncle Jim Evans who helped him celebrate."

The Eagle is grateful for kind words, not only from Judge Gerald, but also from Mrs. Dial B. Raney of Ranger. Mrs. Raney, too, wrote graciously and generously about this newspaper.

Another good communication came from Brownwood, from M. G. "Man" Roberts, who sent the glad tidings that despite an operation that involved the removal of an eye, he soon would be home and anxious to see his many friends. After five months of being hors de combat, Mr. Roberts was able to write his appreciation to his friends for their sympathy in his recent loss of his mother, Mrs. J. H. Roberts. Your come-back spirit is swell, Mr. Roberts.

Mrs. O. A. Carothers returned Friday from a 10-day visit in Waco and Marlin.

Special Message For Hollis Ford

Elsewhere in this week's Eagle the Mullin Cemetery Association thanked just about everything, including the sun, moon and stars, and everybody for their help and participation in the Association's highly successful dinner in the G. I. Building at Mullin last Saturday. But due, proper and sincere gratitude was not tendered to Hollis Ford for the use of the G. I. Building. In behalf of the Mullin Cemetery Association, Mr. Ford, Mrs. Jewell Ivy sends a very special thanks to you all by yourself.

Caradan Club Has New Members

The Caradan Community Club, which nearly completed a quilt at its last meeting with Mrs. Oleta Kerby as the hostess, will meet again on August 4 with Mrs. James Koen as the hostess. The Club's reporter, Mrs. Elton Horton, said that everybody is invited to attend the next meeting.

"At the last meeting everyone was glad to have Mrs. Coule Lawson, Mrs. Bennie D. Wilcox and Mrs. Raymond Williams with us," Mrs. Horton said. "Mrs. Wilcox and Mrs. Williams are new members of the Club." Fourteen ladies attended the last meeting.

News Of The Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District

L. B. Burnham of Goldthwaite wanted to see the tall grasses in Oklahoma so a trip was planned to visit the Wichita Mountains Wildlife Refuge near Cache. Mr. Burnham, Glenn Miller of San Saba county, and Paul Koshi, Range Conservationist with the Goldthwaite Work Unit of the Soil Conservation Service, made the trip, visiting the Refuge July 15 and 16.
 The Wichita Mountains Wildlife Refuge covers 59,099 acres of the ancient Wichita Mountain Range. The granite hills are covered with Post, Black-jack, and Schneck oaks. There are many lakes and parks of bluestem grassland.
 This Refuge is about 260 miles due north of Goldthwaite and has rainfall similar to Mills county. In 1946, a thorough survey of the Refuge was made by range technicians of the Soil Conservation Service. It shows the refuge to have about 14,000 acres in excellent range condition, 21,000 acres in good condition, 21,000 acres in fair condition, and 3,000 acres in poor condition.
 Far sighted conservationists made it possible for Buffalo, Antelope, longhorn cattle, white-tailed deer, and elk to be maintained on the range for posterity.
 The Wichita Mountains Wildlife Refuge was heavily overgrazed with domestic cattle until 1838. Mr. Burnham and Mr. Miller wanted to find out what came-back the native grasses had made under 12 years of proper range management. The first grass that really opened the eyes of the men from Goldthwaite was the big bluestem. There it was making up nearly half of the stand in some places. Switchgrass, little bluestem and sidecoats grama were the other principle grasses. In these bluestem grasslands very little bare ground was seen. On the surface were layers of dead grass and mulch protecting the soil from cutting raindrops as well as from washing. When the litter was removed, dark moist soil characteristic of the rich grassland was uncovered. The soil surface was not compacted, it was friable, loose, and had the sweet fertile smell. Even on steeper slopes, no runoff was noted. Mr. Miller noted the rocks being covered up gradually with soil building litter. The refuge is on year-round grazing program.
 Mr. Burnham and Mr. Miller observed that Longhorns were grazing the big bluestem colonies first. This definitely showed that the stock takes the choice grasses first and come down the line of choiceness.
 The chief grasses found on the refuge were switchgrass, big bluestem, little bluestem and sidecoats grama. Others found were Canada and Virginia wild-rye, hairy and blue grama, and

Mrs. Ann Poling, 609 Delaware St., Indianapolis, Indiana, who was suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron, and Nicotin, smiles as she pours herself another cup of coffee. Mrs. Poling says life lately is like it used to be years ago. "That is, of course, since I've been taking HADACOL." She can't get over what a difference HADACOL has made in her outlook on life.
 Mrs. Poling says: "Three months ago a good friend of mine told me about HADACOL—she knew how much stomach distress I have had. Any type of food that was fried or that had acid in it I just couldn't eat. It affected my sleep, too. In fact, I couldn't have been in a worse condition. When I ate what I wanted to I felt miserable and when I didn't eat these things—I didn't have a proper diet and still felt bad. Then, when I started taking HADACOL, I felt better immediately. I've got a bottle in the house now—and will continue to keep HADACOL from now on. I have told many folks about HADACOL—and they all thank me for telling them about HADACOL. They all have gotten wonderful results from HADACOL like I have. Now I eat anything I want and get a good night's sleep. I can't praise HADACOL enough."
HADACOL Can Help You, Too!
 ... as it has helped thousands of others whose systems lacked Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Nicotin. Yes, even hundreds of doctors have recommended HADACOL to their patients. The HADACOL formula is so effective for stomachache, distress, nervousness, insomnia, constipation, aches and pains of neuritis, and a general run-down condition caused by such deficiencies.
Make Up Your Mind
 ... to give HADACOL a chance to help you, as it has helped countless thousands of others. Remember, there are no substitutes for HADACOL. Always insist on the genuine HADACOL. No risk involved. Buy a bottle of HADACOL, either the trial size, $1.25, or the large family or hospital size, $3.50, and if HADACOL does not help you your money will be refunded.

 "Love" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 30.
 The Golden Text is: "Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God" (1 John 4:7).
 Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him" (1 John 4:16).
 The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Divine Love is infinite. Therefore all that really exists is in and of God, and manifests His love" (page 340).

Day Solves Simultaneous Sowing Of Grain, Clover And Fertilizer

(Editor's Note: How the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District solved the problems encountered in growing Madrid sweetclover and how ingenuity resulted in the devising of a clover attachment for a grain drill is described in the following important and interesting article by Ren R. Day of the Goldthwaite Work Unit.)

In the Goldthwaite Work Unit area, the cooperators with the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District wanted to grow Madrid sweetclover but the failures they experienced were discouraging. In two successive years, the clover was heaved out of the ground and the young seedlings were killed. The few plantings that escaped the freeze, did not make sufficient growth during the first season to furnish summer grazing. Twenty-four District cooperators made a visit to the Temple Experiment Station in the summer of 1949 and came back with an idea of what they wanted to do. They wanted to plant their clover in the fall with small grain and phosphate. They were convinced that the clover, small grain, and phosphate should be in the same drill together. But they wanted to plant the oats and phosphate about two inches deep and the clover not more than one-half inch deep. Dr. Johnston of the Temple Experiment Station showed the farmers how he rigged up a combination drill to sow all the crops at the proper depth.

J. H. Priddy, chairman of the Board of Supervisors of the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District asked Ben R. Day, Work Unit Conservationist of the Goldthwaite Work Unit to rig up the District-owned drill to sow, clover, small grain, and fertilizer at the same time. Day used the principle that Dr. Johnston had demonstrated but he had to use the material that was available. He bought enough garden hose to extend each clover spout 32 inches. The coiled spring spout fit snugly into the rubber hose and the hose was passed under the drill boxes. In order to hold the rubber hose securely, behind each disc opener, a seven-eighths inch hole was bored in a block of wood 1" x 2" x 10" and the hose was forced through this hole. The block of wood was then nailed underneath the footboard on the drill directly behind each opener. The hose was then adjusted in its holder so that the clover seed would fall in the same furrow with the small grain and fertilizer, but after some soil had fallen back in the furrow. The drag chains then would cover the clover seed to the proper depth.

Mr. Day points out the advantages of using garden hose as follows: 1. It is available in any quantity; 2. the total cost is about $6.00 per drill; 3. since the spouts are not fastened to the discs, there is no wear and tear on the spouts; 4. the hose is flexible enough that it goes around obstructions and springs back in place; 5. the placement of the seed can be easily adjusted.

In the absence of the foot board on the drill, Day says that the holes can be bored in a 1" x 4" board, the length of the drill and then fastened to the drill with iron brackets.

Dr. T. C. Graves and W. A. Hill also have rigged up their drills with this attachment. The successful stands of Madrid sweetclover that have been obtained by the use of the drill is evidence that the principles are sound and that the attachment works effectively. The fertilizer in bands in close contact with the small grain and clover stimulates the root growth of both plants to such an extent that they resist heaving out of

Hillside Mission

By LIDA BYRNE

What causes the right kind of heroes in any kind of battle? Where is "the secret place of the Most High?" We shall know the 91st Psalm. We believe "the secret place of the Most High" is anywhere that we accept the Lord as our absolute Protector, regardless of where we are or what we are doing. We do not see God, neither do we see trust and faith, but we know God is, and we know there are such virtues as "trust" and "faith." His word tells us to put our trust in Him. Divine protection is promised if sin is abandoned. If we expect His protection we must be absolutely honest with God, not letting our faith waver. Prayer, we are told, is communication between us and God. Our prayer to God should be to not let us compromise with sin, anywhere at any time.

Two verses of the 91st Psalm are herewith quoted: "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty." Psalm 91, verse 1. "A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee." Psalm 91, verse 7.

Ebony News

(Written For Last Week.)

Since rains have come, late corn gives promise of a fair yield. Late maize is shining in the sun.

Charlie Griffin's fine, young orchard is yielding its largest crop this year.

Clayton Eger's corn, already made, promises a heavy harvest.

The auto has eliminated distance. Dale Reid comes from Goldthwaite to cultivate his good-sized farm here, and it is looming with maize and corn and cotton.

Combine maize on the Russell farm is holding up a sea of large, ripe heads. The corn is made, and the cotton strips are clean and thrifty.

Mrs. Daz Oliver and Iravon from Brownwood visited the Edward Eggers and attended church here Sunday.

The Mose Smith family from California are spending their vacation here. At the present they are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Egger. Mose contemplates fishing in several different places while here.

Mrs. Sanders from near Kansas City, Mo., who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Kay Roberts, is leaving this week for Fort Worth to visit another daughter there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Briley and Mrs. Edna Dwyer attended church at Mullin Sunday night. While there they met up with Mrs. Ruth Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Brack, and Mrs. J. D. Crowder.

Behold the fleeting, fragrant beauty of the lacy flowers of the cabrante (bee brush), a gift of the rain. Right now they wave profusely above the craggy hillsides and in the level valleys.

The passing of Mrs. Lizzie Middleton of Indian Creek constrains me to relate an incident told me by our mutual friend, Stella Reeves, who knew these parts in her childhood. It was in 1898, when I was a school girl at Snyder, that Stella wrote me she was leaving Ebony to go to relatives in Tennessee. She had been a dear friend, and it was a real sorrow to me. I remember I sat down at the piano and played and sang "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

After 30 years I heard that Stella of Tennessee and her brothers, Charlie, a business man of Houston, and Raymond, a lawyer of Denver, Colo., were coming back to Ebony for a visit. And that their cousin, Flora Reeves, of Texhoma would meet them here. I couldn't think of anything happier. But I was living in Dallas and couldn't be here at the time. My sister wrote me that when the four came to visit the Wilmekh home that Charlie took my little mother up in his arms and kissed her and cried over her. And when they went down where our little old shack used to be when they were children and found it all torn down, all four sat down and wept.

Stella didn't leave me out of it. She came by Dallas to see me. In telling me all about the visit she said, "I couldn't leave without slipping out to the cemetery to see Bro. Wilmeth's grave. Then when all was over, and they had started home, she rode with Raymond in his car. When they got near Indian Creek he told her that this was their day, and they would do anything she wanted. She said, "I want to go see Mrs. Lizzie Middleton."

Stella's father, the late Bill Reeves, had taught the Indian Creek School, and he and the three children had boarded at the Middleton home. It was while they were boarding there that Will Middleton brought Lizzie there a bride. Stella said she was the first bride she had ever known, and to her she was beautiful and sweet, and she made her life happy with the motherly attention she gave her. Mrs. Middleton was very sweet and kind to the three motherless children. Stella and Raymond inquired and found the home of Mrs. Middleton's daughter, Mrs. Etha McClung. Mrs. Middleton was picking cotton. Etha sent for her. When she came, Etha said, "Do you know these people?" She looked at them a minute, then she said, "You are the Bill Reeves children. You are Stella and you are Raymond." Stella said Etha had them stay and visit with her mother, and she fixed them one of the best dinners she ever ate. She said, "This visit is one of the happiest memories of our trip."

High Blood Pressure

Hardening of Arteries, Pains In Left Arm And Side—
 Elmer G. Johnson, President of Harlingen State Bank, Harlingen, Texas, writes on Feb. 20, 1948:
 "Please send another bottle of Liquid Garlic, also send a bottle to my sister-in-law, Mrs. Hulda C. Dutton, 45 Atwater Terrace, Springfield, Mo.
 "I have some good reports to make on the effectiveness of garlic used. Mr. Turner, Texaco dealer here has taken two bottles and is much better, his blood pressure down about 60 points. Mrs. W. F. Nelson, San Benito, who was in bad shape, is also very much better and her blood pressure down considerably. This garlic works, and you are doing a fine job of producing it for the benefit of those suffering from high blood pressure or heart trouble."

Our Miss Crawford Rigs Cotton Market

The following report from our Chappell Hill correspondent is expected to shake the gins at Star and Priddy:

A. I. Crawford poisoned cotton for B. J. Crawford Monday. David Ivy of Priddy reports the leaf worms were eating up his cotton.

V. T. Stevens reports leaf worms in his cotton.

W. W. Williams is poisoning his cotton.

It looks as if the cotton crop will be cut short.

O. A. Evans finally got his cotton chopped. Mr. Evans said he had taken all the signs down from around the field.

Mrs. Jewell Ivy Is Nominated To Be "Miss Car Hop Of 1950"

Ernest Ingram had to eat with a screw driver instead of a knife and fork because Mrs. Jewell Ivy forgot his cutlery, and nobody knows what they did at the Harvey Kesler feed store for the same reason, but all the same last Saturday's dinner of the Mullin Cemetery Association was a walloping success.

Come to think of it, maybe it was Kesler who ate with the screwdriver and Ingram with his thumb, but why should they care --- they got plate service direct from Mrs. Ivy right at their places of business, didn't they? And just let you try to take notes before Mrs. Ivy runs out of breath, if ever. You'd get mixed up too, just like this reporter.

What the notes say is that out in Mullin the Cemetery Association wants to thank everybody for the support given to last Saturday's dinner at the G. I. Building. The Association Mrs. Ivy says, also wants to thank those who helped in so many ways. There was a better turnout than ever before. That meant long waiting for table seats, in some cases, and the Mullin Cemetery Association wants to thank everybody who waited with such good nature.

"Everybody was so willing and helpful that we just want to thank everybody for helping and waiting and eating and coming and, and, and..." Mrs. Ivy started to say. Whoa, Mrs. Ivy, save your breath. There will be another dinner some day and you will be wanting them to be doing twice as well as they did this year. The customers reported they had a fine time, too, and they all say thanks to the Cemetery Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mayr and little son, Mark, left Saturday for their home at Kerrville, after spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Hodges.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Eugene Palmer and Tommy Joe of Lampasas motored to Goldthwaite Sunday afternoon for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Palmer.

Miss Gladys Holland and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Crow recently visited with Misses Flora and Lula Jackson.

May Close Bridge Over Pecan Bayou Early Next Week

Walter Summy of the Texas State Highway Department said this week that unless there is a further delay in the arrival of required steel the Pecan Bayou bridge would be closed for major repairs some time next week.

Mr. Summy indicated that in all probability the bridge would remain open during the coming weekend but that it might be closed to traffic along about next Monday.

Since the Pecan Bayou bridge is to be painted as well as strengthened, detours may be necessary for some two or three weeks. Mr. Summy said, however, that every effort will be made to inconvenience travelers as little as possible.

wisdom he got cold, fishy and petty stares from the White House.

The reason we are in the fix we are in is that our official policy has not caught up with realities, despite handwriting on the wall that could be seen from miles away. The attempts now to close the book on the blunders of an Administration that led us into the great crisis in which we find ourselves can only make matters worse. For they would silence just demands for a riddance of bad and dis-proved leadership and the substitution for it of leaders who might care about the future of all the people rather than merely the future of a long-entrenched political party.

I am asked every day, "What of the war?" The answer is that it is bad and getting worse and that by the time the ink dries on this page it can have spread. But that is not what is of most importance at the moment. What is of the utmost importance is that the men who blundered or deliberately led us into the crisis in which we find ourselves still listen only to their own counsels, and so long as that is true, we can expect only more blundering, while the enemy gloats and plots below the domes and minarets of his fortress. I would feel better about the future if President Truman would call upon Benard Baruch for help and guidance and the benefit of his experience, instead of sneering at a man who has done as much for our beloved country as any other man.

Mrs. D. A. Hamilton attended a community re-union at Paige, Thursday of last week. She also visited her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Farmer at Austin and Mrs. J. M. Harris at Elgin.

in the runoff, received 409 votes.

Politicking in the County as a whole now will concentrate on the August 26 runoff between Stubblefield and Fox. There will also be hectic campaigning in Precinct 3 as Albert Schuman and K. B. Henry fight it out for County Commissioner.

This week, Bill Fox took note of what he described as "quite a bit of talk" that he had quit the race for Sheriff.

"I am not a quitter," Mr. Fox said. "I want all of my friends to keep on working for me so that I may win in the runoff."

Stubblefield, in thanking the voters for their support in the July 22 Primary, said:

"And now I am again asking for your support in the coming election, which will be on August 26. If you elect me, I will try to merit your trust placed in me by caring for the duties of the office to the best of my ability."

Both Fox and Stubblefield made it clear that during the next month they will be out working hard for the votes that went to Oma Shaw and Gene Turbiville in the first primary.

FROM BILL FOX TO THE VOTERS OF MILLS COUNTY

I want to take this means of thanking each and every one of you for helping me to get in the runoff for your Sheriff-Tax Assessor-Collector. I will try my best to see each one of you between now and the day for the runoff, August 26. If I don't get to see you and talk with each of you, please don't think it was my intention to pass you up.

There has been quite a bit of talk of me quitting the race. I want to take this means of letting my friends know I am NOT a quitter. I don't think I have any enemies. My opponents were three men as good as any in the County. All of them are my friends.

I will appreciate the help of everybody in the runoff. And thanks again for your past favors and your support during the next four weeks.

W. W. "BILL" FOX
Candidate For Sheriff-Tax Assessor-Collector
