 ESTABLISHED 1894 GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS—FRIDAY, AUGUST 1, 1952 VOL. 58 NO. 49

GOV. SHIVERS, PRICE DANIEL AND JESS TULLOS DO OKAY

A few paragraphs below is the Mills County vote, box by box, in the most hotly contested races in last Saturday's first Democratic primary election. A number of the candidates were unopposed. In some cases there was only token opposition—as was true of Ben Ramsey, who was renominated for Lieutenant Governor. Mr. Ramsey received 1,611 votes in Mills County while his opponent, Frank Hessbrook Morales, was given a total of only 273 votes in all of Mills County.

A race of special interest was in Precinct 1, in which Jess Y. Tullus was renominated for County Commissioner. The votes in that race were as follows: Goldthwaite box 1, Tullus, 258; Craig C. Wesson, 22, L. R. "Bally" Rudd, 85; Scallorn: Tullus, 33, Wesson, 0, Rudd, 10; Goldthwaite box 19: Tullus, 392, Wesson, 37, Rudd, 86. In absentee ballots the results were: Tullus, 73, Wesson, 3, Rudd, 16. The total vote for County Commissioner, Precinct 1, was: TULLOS, 756, Wesson, 62, and Rudd, 197.

Precinct 3 results made necessary a runoff on August 23 between A. A. Downey, who polled 205 votes, and W. T. "Son" Lee, who was given 179 votes. The Precinct 3 results were: Downey: Mullin, 60, Fisher, 28, Priddy, 108, Pompey, 7, and absentee, 2; Lee: Mullin, 103, Fisher, 21, Priddy, 34, Pompey, 17, and absentee, 4; R. T. Ratliff: Mullin, 119, Fisher, 5, Priddy, 27, Pompey, 4, and absentee, 12; Eli Edmondson: Mullin, 51, Fisher, 3, Priddy, 12, Pompey, 3, and absentee, 1; Niles E. Wootten: Mullin, 18, Fisher, 5, Priddy, 10, Pompey, 3, and NO absentee votes for Mr. Wootten. As against the 205 votes for Mr. Downey and 179 votes for Mr. Lee, Mr. Ratliff polled a total of 167 votes while Mr. Edmondson received 70 and Mr. Wootten's total was 35.

In Precinct 4, Cecil Egger unseated the incumbent, County

Commissioner J. Frank Davis. Mr. Egger polled 99 votes while Mr. Davis received 85 votes. Here is the breakdown on that voting: EGGER: Big Valley, 12, Rock Springs, 6, Rattler, 10, Regency, 25, Ebony, 33, Ridge, 9, and absentee ballots, 3; Davis: Big Valley, 32, Rock Springs, 30, Rattler, 8, Regency, 1, Ebony, 7, Ridge, 7, and NO absentee ballots for Mr. Davis.

In Precinct 2, County Commissioner Fred V. Wall was renominated without opposition with a total of 337 votes.

Now, here is the vote in Mills County, box by box, in the major and most hotly-contested races:

JOHN L. PATTERSON UNSEATS LEWIS B. PORTER AS COUNTY JUDGE BY VOTE OF 1427 - 767

John L. Patterson, who served as Mills County Judge and County Superintendent of Public Instruction during the years 1947 and 1948, will return to the same office next January 1 as a result of last Saturday's first Democratic primary election.

Prior to last Saturday's voting, many a political seer had predicted a close race between Mr. Patterson and the incumbent Judge Porter, but as the returns flowed into the Court House last Saturday night a landslide appeared to be in the making. When all of the ballots were tabulated, Mr. Patterson had unseated Judge Porter by a vote of 1,427 to 767.

Of 18 boxes, Judge Porter carried only five—and by very close margins at that. Absentee voters also gave Judge Porter 68 votes as against 60 for Mr. Patterson. The boxes that Judge Porter carried and his majorities in them were: Caradan, 5, Rattler (Jones Valley), 1, Regency, 5, Ebony, 5, and Pompey, 8. Mr. Patterson carried 13 boxes—some by as few as five votes and in some cases by 3 to 1.

Palmer Announces Precinct 3 Only August 23 Runoff

Chairman Joe A. Palmer of the Executive Committee of the Mills County Democratic Party said on Wednesday that the only runoff election in Mills County on August 23 will be in Precinct 3.

In Precinct 3 W. T. "Son" Lee will oppose A. A. Downey for nomination as County Commissioner to succeed K. B. Henry who this year was not a candidate.

"John Lee Smith has withdrawn from the race for Congress-at-Large, making certain the nomination of Martin Dies," Mr. Palmer said. "Accordingly, there will be no runoff in Mills County on August 23 except in Precinct 3, where a candidate for County Commissioner has yet to be nominated."

Mr. Palmer expressed the hope that the voters of Precinct 3 would maintain their interest in the campaign and that there would be a large turnout at the polls in Precinct 3 on August 23. That appeared to be assured inasmuch as both Mr. Downey and Mr. Lee already have resumed their politicking in a big way.

In the first Democratic primary last Saturday Mr. Downey polled 205 votes as against 179 for Mr. Lee. Defeated candidates and their votes were R. T. Ratliff, 167; Eli Edmondson, 70; and Niles E. Wootten, 36.

Max Shepherd Must Have More Surgery

Max Shepherd, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. "Spud" Shepherd, took it bang on the chin again this week when, after a checkup at the Hillcrest Hospital in Waco, he was given the bad news that he will have to submit to another operation—bone surgery of the hip. His parents took it on the chin, too.

Max has spent most of the summer abed encased in a cast. He got rid of the awful cast last month but at the Hillcrest Hospital on Tuesday examination showed that Max's hip bone had not healed in the proper place and so he will have to go through his ordeal all over again. How about going over to see Max and doing whatever you can to cheer him up?

If you cannot drop in on Max at his home on Hanna Valley Road, then please write him a letter or send him a card. The news that he and his parents got in Waco this week has been mighty hard to take.

From the start of the counting the outcome of the Patterson-Porter race never was in any doubt but the count was not complete until 1:00 o'clock last Sunday morning when the returns from Goldthwaite box, number 19, finally became available. That return gave Mr. Patterson 220 votes and 192 for Judge Porter. The complete count, box by box, in the contest for nomination as County Judge is printed elsewhere on this page.

Following the election of last Saturday Mr. Patterson made the following statement: "I am deeply and sincerely grateful to the citizens of Mills County. I wish to thank them for their consideration and many courtesies during the recent primary election campaign. I pledge to all of you that I will, as your County Judge and Superintendent of Public Instruction, render service in the public interest."

A statement was not issued by Judge Porter but it was business as usual with him at the Court House this week. He attended a session of the Commissioners on tax equalization last Monday and gave formal notice of a meeting of the County Board of School Trustees that will be held next Monday, August 4.

E. A. Obenhaus Lost His Trusty Watch

Justice of the Peace E. A. Obenhaus, who usually is very careful not to have his pockets picked, has lost his watch and, because it has a sentimental value and keeps good time, he would like to have it back. The pocket watch, made by Ingersoll, is nickel-plated and has a white face with black hands. Mr. Obenhaus lost his watch last Monday either in the Court House, the Southside Grocery or on his way home. He last looked at his watch in the presence of County Attorney A. M. Pribble—and he has not seen it since then.

Bank's Saturday

Remember that this Saturday and every Saturday thereafter the Mills County State Bank will close at noon. Henceforth the bank's Saturday hours will be 9:00 a. m., until noon—along with other banks in Central Texas.

O. C. Fisher Says Clean Government Fight Continues

Representative O. C. Fisher of the 21st Texas Congressional District, whose successful campaign for renomination consisted chiefly of staying on the job in Washington, working for his constituents, this week thanked the voters of Mills County for their encouraging support last Saturday.

Congressman Fisher carried Mills County against Ira Gallaway of Coleman by a vote of 1,272 to 735. He carried the 21st Texas Congressional District, which embraces 27 Counties, by 2 to 1.

"I am more than pleased with the splendid vote given me by my friends in Mills County," Congressman Fisher said this week. "Having received an overwhelming vote of confidence of more than 2 to 1 from the people of the 21st District, I shall in all humility continue with all the energy and vigor at my command to fight for a clean, Constitutional government, and for a strong, free and solvent America."

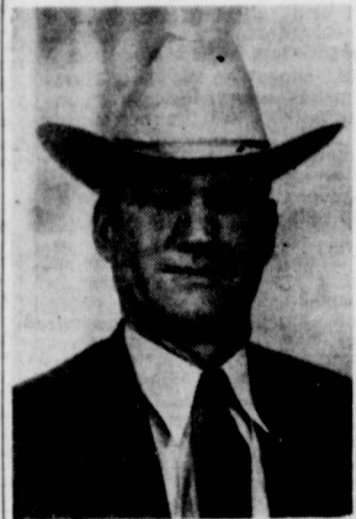

Congressman Fisher, who is a ranking member of the House Armed Services Committee, has been vigorous in his denunciation of corruption in high places and energetic in his work in behalf of the people of his District, in which animal husbandry is the basis of the economy.

No Tax Hollers

The Mills County Commissioners Court sat as a Board of Tax Equalization at the Court House last Monday but received no protests against the tax roll of Sheriff-Tax Assessor-Collector C. F. Stubblefield.

The Commissioners gave some consideration to the question of why voters behave the way they do—especially on election day.

Several County Officials Again Are Nominated Without Challenge and the vote for them were: County Attorney A. M. Pribble, 2,211; County Treasurer Bertha Weathers, 2,213; County Surveyor J. C. Long, 2,219; and Justice of the Peace E. A. Obenhaus, 1,908.

Joe A. Palmer, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Mills County Democratic Party, was reelected to his post, with a total of 2,220 votes.

Lions Club Next Tuesday Night To Consider Swimming Pool Proposals

President Jesse Moreland of the Goldthwaite Lions Club said this week that when the Club meets at 7:30 o'clock on Tuesday night of next week at the Hangar there will be discussion of latest developments in plans for a swimming pool and recreational area for Goldthwaite and Mills County.

Mr. Moreland drew the attention of members to the fact that at its last meeting the Lions Club changed the meeting time to 7:30 p. m.

Since the last meeting of the Lions Club more than 120 Mills County residents, voting in an Eagle straw poll, have registered enthusiastic support of proposals for a swimming pool. In the poll, only nine votes were cast against the plan.

Incidentally, since a report was made on the straw poll in (Continued on Back Page.)

Judge Dice Wins Mills County But Loses To Evetts

By decision of the voters last Saturday the 27th Texas Judicial District, which includes Mills County, will have a new Presiding Judge next January 1. He will be Jim K. Evetts, at present District Attorney. In one of the closest races in the entire State of Texas Mr. Evetts defeated Judge Wesley Dice in the first Democratic primary election.

The unofficial tabulation of votes in Mills, Lampasas and Bell Counties gave Mr. Evetts a majority of 282 votes or thereabouts over Judge Dice out of more than 16,000 ballots. Mr. Evetts carried Bell and Lampasas Counties by narrow margins—but they were sufficient to overcome the lead of 410 votes that Mills County gave to Judge Dice. The vote in Mills County was 1,193 for Judge Dice and 783 for Mr. Evetts.

Mr. Evetts will be succeeded as District Attorney by Raymond Thornton of Belton. Mr. Thornton carried all three Counties in the 27th Texas Judicial District. In Mills County Mr. Thornton polled 1,079 votes while his opponent, Tom A. Carlile of Killeen, received 802 votes—making a Mills County majority of 277 votes for Mr. Thornton, who is a member of the 36th Division, the Texas National Guard, with the rank of Lieutenant.

Judge Dice was appointed to succeed Judge Few Brewster, now a member of the Supreme Court of Texas. Subsequently, Judge Dice was elected to two consecutive terms of four years each without opposition. He holds an outstanding record for rulings that have been upheld on appeal to higher courts.

Mr. Evetts has been District Attorney in the 27th Judicial District for 14 years. Early this (Continued on Back Page.)

Telephone Co-ops
 Receipt Of Funds
 After many months of patient and painstaking labor, the Central Texas Telephone Cooperative actually became a reality this week with receipt of the first portion of a loan of $1,540,000.00 from the telephone division of the Federal Electrification Administration in Washington.

"We are in business," said Secretary Ernest E. Wilson of the Cooperative.

He said that the first funds have been received from Washington will be used to pay six independent telephone companies that are being absorbed by the Cooperative.

The acquisition of these companies are not received inasmuch as their interests will be traded for shares in the Central Texas Telephone Cooperative.

Within a few days, Mr. Wilson said, additional funds will be received to defray costs of operation and to enable Joe Ward, consulting engineer of Delta Falls, to go ahead with the lines and starting the electrical installations necessary for the functioning of the Cooperative.

The Central Texas Telephone Cooperative, of which Willis A. is the President, will serve rural areas of nine Counties with the most modern, dial telephone service available.

It had its inception in Mills County but the interest of others so that territory now includes portions of Brown, Comanche, Hamilton, San Saba, Lampasas, Menard, Llano and Concho Counties.

Mr. P. Duren is Vice President of the Cooperative and Directors, in addition to the others already named above, are Walter J. Marwitz of Priddy, Delton Barnett of Jones (Rattler).

Mr. Wilson said this week that actual engineering for the cooperative was expected to begin this month and that service would become a reality as early as possible.

Mr. Gwin Needs Small Wheel Chair
 "You have a small wheel chair that you are not using—please let Mr. and Mrs. John L. 'Hi Neighbor' borrow it. Their young son, Dale, was examined again Monday at the Hillcrest Hospital in Waco and it was found that his ailing leg will have to have traction applied at least another 60 days. Mr. Gwin is using a wheel chair that was provided for him by Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Bowler. But soon school will start and it would help Dale a great deal if at school he could have a smaller wheel chair.

"I am more than pleased with the splendid vote given me by my friends in Mills County," Congressman Fisher said this week. "Having received an overwhelming vote of confidence of more than 2 to 1 from the people of the 21st District, I shall in all humility continue with all the energy and vigor at my command to fight for a clean, Constitutional government, and for a strong, free and solvent America."

Congressman Fisher, who is a ranking member of the House Armed Services Committee, has been vigorous in his denunciation of corruption in high places and energetic in his work in behalf of the people of his District, in which animal husbandry is the basis of the economy.

EDITORIAL BY ALLEN DUCKWORTH

An article by Allen Duckworth of the Dallas Morning News, written from Chicago during the Democratic National Convention, merits, we believe, the thoughtful attention of all our readers—especially since the candidate of the Democrats for the Presidency of the United States was handpicked by Harry S. Truman. Mr. Duckworth's penetrating and thought-provoking article follows in full. It is better than any editorial we could write. It should be pondered throughout the South while Adlai Stevenson tries to give a new face to the same old deal.

This was old home week in the Democratic party. Like bad boys who had been blinded by the glitter of the bright lights in the big city, they flocked back to the doorstep of the mother of the party — the Solid South.

It wasn't a sentimental journey altogether. Children usually come home when they strike oil on the old homestead.

The northern party bosses needed the southern votes and they did everything short of serving black-eyed peas and mint juleps on the convention floor to prevent a Dixie walkout.

For sixteen long years, the South has been kicked around in the Democratic conventions.

The party could afford to do that. It had the minority groups of the North to appease, and Democratic national leaders didn't think it made much difference how the South was treated—it would vote Democratic just because Abe Lincoln was a Republican.

But times have changed. Party leaders with keen minds became aware of these factors in the South:

1. Population shifts had brought in new citizens, many from the North and West, who were not bound by southern traditions in voting.

2. The old-line southern Democratic leaders had had enough. They would no longer kiss the foot of the political boss who kicked them in the face.

So, the national Democratic leadership was faced with this problem:

Should the South be sacrificed in order to cater to the left-wing Northern minority groups?

Radicals like Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota said "yes"—the party could win without the South.

The men in the saddle, however, didn't figure it that way. They decided to appease the South and offend, if necessary, the hothead leftists who were trying to take over the party.

A heavy factor in swaying the practical politicians to the South was the bloc of votes brought into the convention pledged to Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia.

Russell wasn't just a token, or protest candidate from the South. He meant business and in addition to his great core of Southern votes was gaining scattered support all over the country.

The battle was on when the convention opened Monday.

Left-wingers picked Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., of New York and Sen. Blair Moody of Michigan to master-mind their attack on Dixie.

They couldn't have found two better men—so far as the South was concerned.

Roosevelt and Moody bungled around for five days, like a couple of banana-fingered plumbers trying to repair a lady's wrist watch.

The two drew up a party loyalty pledge designed to keep Southern states from voting.

Few persons understood the pledge after Roosevelt and Moody presented it. And, after they amended it, there was some doubt whether Roosevelt and Moody understood it.

After jockeying around for five days, Roosevelt and Moody could look back on this record:

1. They passed a pledge to keep three Southern States from voting.

2. Saw the pledge set aside by the convention so the three Southern States could vote.

3. Delayed the convention three days with useless maneuvers.

The South could look back on this:

They had been challenged by the Liberals to take a personal pledge they would support the party nominee—even if it turned out to be an antisouthern candidate.

They thumbed their noses at the left wing, didn't walk out and waited.

The moderates of the party found they couldn't whip the Liberals without the South.

Southern States got back in the convention without taking the pledge.

The net result is that the Democratic party, with the exception of the Roosevelt-Moody-Humphrey thinkers, has recognized that Southern States now have a bargaining power to match the minorities of the North.

GUEST EDITORIAL

(Editor's Note: In commenting editorially on the Democratic platform for 1952, the Houston Chronicle pointed out that it contains some glaring omissions, including silence on an issue of vital importance to Texas—the ownership of the tidelands. As a contribution to public thinking on current issues as we discuss them between now and November, the Eagle prints in the paragraphs below the Houston Chronicle's editorial on the platform that was adopted by the Democrats at Chicago last week.)

The platform adopted by the Democratic national convention is, like so many such documents, a hodge-podge of catch-all promises and claims of virtue. It covers the usual vast range of subjects but completely ignores one of the hottest issues before the nation and one in which Texans are particularly interested—the tidelands question.

Most controversial of all planks is, of course, that on civil rights. This time the resolutions committee, remembering the Dixiecrat rebellion of 1948, omitted specific indorsement of President Truman's so-called civil rights program.

Federal antipoll tax, federal antilynching, and federal fair employment practices acts are pumped for, albeit in general terms. It is possible to put varying interpretations on the strength of this plank, but it is a safe bet that in its intent it is as strong as 1948's. It plainly calls for federal action which, in the opinion of most believers in states rights, is unconstitutional.

By contrast, the Republican platform declares that "it is the primary responsibility of each state to order and control its own domestic institutions"; then adds "the federal government should take supplemental jurisdiction to oppose discrimination against race, religion or national origin." Clearly the Republican plank is the more acceptable to states righters.

The Democratic plank is preceded by a demand for an anti-filibuster rule which is pointless. Senators who would filibuster against civil rights bills would filibuster against an antifilibuster rule.

The platform asserts "Our nation has strengthened its national defense against the menace of Soviet aggression." True. But what it did not admit is the fact that the Soviets still are far stronger than we are militarily.

On Korea, the platform says "The Communist aggressor has been hurled back from South Korea" and urges continued efforts for honorable peace. No admission that the original goal of punishing Communist aggression and unifying Korea under a government of its own people's choosing has been abandoned.

Flat repeal of the Taft-Hartley act is urged, but some concession that the Wagner act is not perfect is made in the recommendation that a new legislative approach to the labor-management problem should be explored.

"As rapidly as defense requirements permit we favor reducing taxes." Little solace for a tax-burdened people there, since administration spokesmen have forecast a 10-year defense emergency. The resolutions committee may have spoken here for the majority of Democrats, but not for the tax-and-spend forces in the administration.

The one amazing thing about the platform is its studied ignoring of the tidelands issue. The Democratic platform is twice as long as the Republican, but not a word is in it about one of the most vital questions of the day.

The Republican platform flatly declared: "We favor restoration to the states of their rights to all lands and resources beneath navigable inland and offshore waters within their historic boundaries."

This issue alone could decide the winner in November in Texas, California, Louisiana and most of the other maritime states.

J. B. Robinson and their families returned Monday from a fishing trip to the San Saba river. They report plenty of fish, rain and mud.

A. J. Gatlin has had a new and unique sign painted and placed in front of his store.

Dr. Brown and family returned Monday night from a visit to relatives at Paint Rock.

W. D. Moon was a visitor from the neighborhood of Warren Crossing and reported cotton growing nicely.

Randolph Whitley was in the city Monday and informed us that C. B. Mohler was on his way home from a trip through New Mexico.

The Eagle's Aery

By The Editor

In its July issue Pathfinder magazine published an article entitled, "Why Not Build a Swimming Pool in Your Own Community?" In all respects the article is not applicable to Goldthwaite but in others it is. The figures do not apply, but it seems to the editor, there ought to be interest here in what others did and how they did it. The article was written for Pathfinder after a citizen in Claremont, N. H., had stated that the major problem in his town of 7,000 population had been creating "a place for the kids to swim." The Pathfinder article is reprinted in the following paragraphs because it contains information that could be useful to us here in Goldthwaite.

Would you like to take a swim each night after work? Have a place where Junior could learn to swim under expert instruction? Help the whole family to escape the heat?

Maybe you've thought your town should have a swimming pool—but doing nothing about it. That's how it was in Claremont, N. H. (pop. 12,811).

For more than 20 years, a few citizens tried to arouse interest in a city swimming pool. But the voters always said "no" to a bond issue to provide the money.

Claremont's kids would still be swimming in the polluted Sugar River if it hadn't been for a small group of pool-proponents who kept plugging and finally came up with an answer: a pool built as a community project with volunteer labor.

Late last month Claremont youngsters gave splashing dedication to the new John McLane Clark pool, built by volunteers for less than $34,000, and worth $150,000.

Pitching in. Claremont's pool project was launched three years ago when Clark, editor of the Daily Eagle, who died in 1950, called together representatives of Claremont's 125 civic, fraternal and veterans organizations. Would they, he asked, work together to build the pool without a bond issue?

Enthusiastic, they set up a committee which arranged to buy an ideal pool site—15 acres of woodland a mile from the center of Claremont. The real estate man and the lawyer who handled the transaction refused fees.

Then the committee sought out engineers, architects, and masons, and lined them up for free work.

To pay for materials not donated, organizations held food sales and dances. Rotarians collected discarded furniture, old clothes and even two newly weaned pigs, auctioned them in the city park.

John Howe, auto dealer, bid $55 for the privilege of sending City Councilman Morris Gellis to jail for a night. Gellis promptly offered a similar sum for a companion. He chose Municipal Judge Albert D. Leahy. To see these "jailbirds" behind bars, some 400 gleefully bought 25¢ tickets.

"Help Wanted." Work started with $3,000 in the kitty. Power shovels—all loaned—dug the hole for the concrete tank. To get a steady supply of volunteer labor, Clark ran a daily column entitled "That You May Swim."

It listed jobs to be done and specialists needed. Sample: "Jobs for tonight: Building and locking wall forms at the deep end. Stripping used panels. Saws and hammers will be welcome. Note: Plumbers are needed to install inlet fittings."

Underneath, the previous night's crews were listed as given credit for their work.

Such columns quickly created an "I want to be a worker" spirit, brought hundreds of volunteers—from doctors and lawyers to gas station attendants and textile workers—to work on floodlight.

When more money was needed, the Junior Chamber of Commerce collected $2,691.15 in one night house-to-house canvass. A Fourth of July celebration in which every Claremont organization participated netted $2,000; private solicitations among merchants another $6,000. Receipts from a Boston minstrel show and a Jaycees home-talent production helped swell the total.

The drivers ultimately raised all but $4,000. The city agreed to foot that, plus upkeep, repairs and $140 a week for four lifeguards.

Claremont's pool is 125 by 100 feet. It has a bathhouse, 100 feet long. Your town's need may differ; so may your methods of raising money. There are plenty of schemes available.

Garden City, Kan. (pop. 14,965), built a two-acre pool. The local Chamber of Commerce solicited cash donations for materials. And merchants forgave overdue debts where the donors offered to substitute labor on the pool.

Avoca, Iowa (pop. 1,585), built its pool with volunteer labor and money raised by the American Legion, which sold $5 coupon books containing 24 admissions to swim.

In Pana, Ill. (pop. 6,178), the Chautauqua Association sold bonds, payable in five years at 6 per cent.

Noblesville, Ind. (pop. 6,570) built its pool through a municipal bond issue and used the pool project to relieve unemployment.

Outside Help. Many communities may find it practical to hire a professional pool builder handling only the financing of a community project. New professional techniques like pressure-spraying concrete on site reinforcing rods (Paddock Pool Construction Co. of California) and combination pool-and-bath house above ground (West-Bintz of Lansing, Mich.) to effect savings.

MRS. JAMES LEN SMITH

Miss Walta Jean Sturgis, daughter of Mrs. W. E. Sturgis and the late Dr. Sturgis of Corpus Christi, became the bride of James Len Smith, son of Mrs. A. H. Smith and the late Mr. Smith of San Antonio, at the First Methodist Church in Corpus Christi last Saturday. The groom's late father was Superintendent of Schools in Goldthwaite a number of years ago. Mr. Smith now is a University of Texas medical student. His bride was graduated from the University of Texas.

BIRTHS

A daughter, Marjorie Jean, was born to Dr. and Mrs. John R. Graves of Kermit on July 21. Her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Bowman of Goldthwaite and her paternal grandparents are T. M. Graves and Mrs. Amber Graves, also of Goldthwaite.

A daughter, Deborah Denise, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Foy Page in Kerrville at 11:29 p. m. on July 14. Her paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Page of Goldthwaite and her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Seagraves.

A daughter, Neta Sue, who weighed eight pounds and three ounces, was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Berry of Jones Valley (Rattler) in the San Saba Memorial Hospital at 1:15 a. m., on July 23. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Bell, also of Jones Valley, and the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Berry of Rt. 2, Goldthwaite. Neta Sue has two sisters, Pamela, who is 8, and Rebecca Jo, who is 17 months.

A son, Alvin Lynn, weighing 6 pounds and 4 ounces, was born to Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Fallon of Goldthwaite at 6:30 p. m., on July 25 in Childress Clinic. He has a sister, Betty Sue, and a brother, M. D., Jr. His paternal grandmother is Mrs. J. D. Fallon and his maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart of Lampasas.

Nix Family Reunion
The annual Nix family reunion was held last Sunday at Cameron Park in Waco. Those who attended from Goldthwaite were Dennis Nix, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Nix, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nix and their daughter, Cheryl. Also attending the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. William Adrien Anderson of Odessa and Miss Mary Anderson of Mullin.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Woody and Miss Love Gatlin, with Mrs. Cartwright and daughter, Carolyn of San Antonio, have returned from a ten day tour of Colorado Springs, Estes Park, Yellowstone National Park, Salt Lake City and The Arches Park, Utah.

Mrs. J. S. Bowles returned to her home in Fort Worth Tuesday after a visit with her mother, Mrs. A. J. Gatlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Denard and children of Fort Worth spent the weekend with his parents.

Millard Cockrum Barbecues Goat And Makes It Taste Just Luscious

If you had been up at the A. P. Fambrough ranch on the top of the mountain and had heard all of the oohing and aahing of Thursday night of last week you would have believed that nobody except Millard Cockrum ever had barbecued a goat, wrapped in brown paper and tow sack, on hot rocks and amidst glowing coals in a pit dug deep in the ground.

Mr. Cockrum—Millard, that is—did barbecue a goat thataway and he did it to perfection while hundreds of other goats walked around adjoining pastures apparently blissfully unaware or not caring about what was happening to their brother and/or sister as appreciative guests smacked their lips over him

GOAT

This handsome critter is NOT Millard Cockrum's goat. Since a photograph of Mr. Cockrum was not available, it was decided that a picture of a goat should have a place in this story. The goat pictured above is by courtesy of Rahl & Woody—and goodness only knows when the goat was photographed or where it is now. It probably went to San Antonio a long, long time ago.

and/or her. It took Mr. Cockrum—Millard, that is—8½ hours to cook that goat. Perhaps it is heresy to say so, but when the goat was cooked he and/or her tasted just like roast spring lamb. That is a compliment, Millard.

Present to enjoy the culinary achievement of Mr. Cockrum—Millard, that is—in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Fambrough and Janie and Arthur Fambrough, were:

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Schwartz, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cockrum, John Carroll, Mrs. J. V. Cockrum, the pretty Miss Joan Ware of Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Hanks of Brownwood, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Taylor and Genie or Jeanie, N. E. Stockton, "Judge" D. A. Darroch, Raymond "Since 1898" Little, Neil Broom, Sue Mitchell, Joe Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Cockrum, and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Ekins and their son, Harvey.

If anybody's name has been left out of the guest list it is because he and/or she could not be seen for barbecued goat in front of him and/or her.

Hardman Reunion

The Hardman family held its annual reunion at Hancock Park in Lampasas last Sunday when more than 60 persons who attended paid honor to Mrs. Victoria Hardman of Goldthwaite. Among those who were present from many places in Texas were Mrs. J. H. Henry and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Henry and Walter, Jr., all of Goldthwaite, and Mr. and Mrs. O. Z. Berry of Pleasant Grove. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Jude Miles and their four sons of Goldthwaite.

Mrs. Pauline Woodard visited Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Star and Glenrose.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Laughlin and little son of Fort Worth spent the weekend here with their parents.

Dorothy Williams And Wilbur Heath To Wed August 22

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Dorothy Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Williams of Lubbock, and Wilbur Heath, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Heath of Goldthwaite, was announced this week by Mr. and Mrs. Williams. The marriage will be solemnized on August 22 at the First Methodist Church of Comanche. The bride-elect and her family formerly lived in Comanche. The Rev. Joseph L. Emery, formerly of Goldthwaite and now Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Ballinger, will officiate.

Miss Williams, who was graduated from Comanche High School and who attended Draughon's Business College in Lubbock, now is in her Junior year at Texas Technological College. Mr. Heath, who was graduated from the Goldthwaite High School, is a Senior at Texas Tech, where he is majoring in business administration.

The home of the bride-elect is at 2106 Eight Street, Lubbock.

Lee Family Reunion

The Lee family held a reunion on July 20 at the Pottsville home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Venable. A number of persons from Mills County attended the reunion.

89th Birthday

"Aunt" Lee Roberts of Mullin, who was 89 on July 19, was honored on July 21 when members of the W. S. C. S. of the Mullin Methodist Church met with her for devotionals and a social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Pass of Abilene and Miss Thelma Graham of Portland, Ore. spent Wednesday night with their parents, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Pass.

Baxter's Fan Mail

A couple of weeks ago Andrew Baxter, formerly of Greenock Scotland, wrote quite an article about his own impressions and those of Mrs. Baxter and their daughter, Susan, after a year in Texas. After his article got around the State, Mr. Baxter was tickled pink to find himself on the receiving end of fan mail. One of the letters came in an envelop of the Hamilton Chamber of Commerce and it showed "Hamilton Surrounded by Texas." That, Mr. Baxter thought, was inaccurate. He considers that he lives smack in the heart o' Texas and that any maps anywhere should show Goldthwaite surrounded by Texas. Anyway, Mr. Baxter and his family are surrounded by Texans—and they like it.

Personals

Mrs. Doris Morris was taken to the San Saba Memorial Hospital in San Saba on Monday morning of this week. She is expected to be there for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Uttaro and little daughter, Rose Marie, of Fort Knox, Kentucky, were guests of Mrs. Uttaro's mother, Mrs. Jess Cockrum, and other relatives here last week.

John L. Boland Finds Poem That Mrs. Briley Wrote In May, 1903

John L. Boland, formerly of Mullin and Goldthwaite and now of Cleveland, Texas, was looking through some of his old papers the other day when he came across a copy of the "Daniel Baker Collegian," dated May, 1903. It was described as "published monthly by Literary Societies of Daniel Baker College."

What makes the publication especially interesting to Mills is the fact that in May, 1903, it printed the "graduating poem of Miss Clementine Wilmett." She is, of course, Mrs. Clementine Wilmett Briley, the Eagle's valued Ebony correspondent. In drawing the Eagle's attention to the poem, which was entitled, "Virtue And Opportunity Live Through All The Ages," Mr. Boland said: "I thought you might make her (Mrs. Briley's) eyes bug out with surprise." Then Mr. Boland added: "After reading this original poem, you will agree that she was also smart in her teens."

In complete agreement with Mr. Boland, the Eagle herewith prints that 1903 poem as written by Clementine Wilmett, who now is Mrs. Briley. Here it is:

When through the flight of youthful years we reach — Crowned with the joy that cometh after strife — The bound of youth, the solemn day where each Must step upon the busy stage of life: To battle there with cares and sorrows rife: To find while still the happy morn is ours, That Sin — whose sting doth wound as doth a knife — Along our path had hid her woeful powers Like thorns and briars that hide themselves among the flowers. When to the past our childhood day depart. Sweet with the mem'ry of many pleasers fled, Which leave their sweetness clinging 'round our heart As perfume from the blossoms that are dead. When o'er the buds of hope stern Care hath shed His blighting power unmindful of our tears, Because the mirthful days so fast have sped, Need we to think on them with many fears, Lest gladness die with them and live not through the years? Or cherish in our hearts the day gone by More than the one that comes to greet us now; And from our youthful bosoms heave a sigh, And say that cruel fate doth not allow That life should us rich heritage endow Like those whose deeds by ancient bards are told; That no fair laurels grow to crown our brow, That all the beauties life should hold Have gone to slumber with the deeds and days of old. Oh, sweetly sleep ye bards and heroes brave We know that goodness hath not died with you, But long as time's mad, surging billows wave Or summer's flowers in tear drops of the dew Their petals bathe there're good deeds we can do. We may not reach the glowing heights of fame But we would give your worth, your virtues true, And more than palms of glory we would claim A strong and loving heart, a pure, unspotted name. Some say that the world has worsen grown, That wicked vice and sin are now more bold That love and lasting friendship are unknown; That youth for age doth not its reverence hold As did it in those golden days of old. But defects of the past we oft forget; I believe that still there're deeds and hearts of gold; And would e're life's bright golden sun shall set, Have proved to you that love and virtue liveth yet. Sweet school friends, classmates up the golden stair That leads to knowledge of the better way, Oh! let us ne'er our strong young hearts despair And believe that time hath made the world less fair. But e'er the swift winged golden hours have sped, That do to us so many beauties bear, May we some treasure grasp, whose light will shed Its beauty on our way when youthful years have fled. Doth now the sun less brightly shine? Hath time made him to rue with lesser way Than when at first his maker's voice divine Bade him exist, and start upon his way To light the earth, and be the king of day? Blossom the twinkling stars at stillly night Less bright? Or fainter gleam the moon's soft ray? Since God bade them begin their endless flight Hath time bedimmed the glory of those orbs of light? When o'er the hills soft blows the breath of spring, Comes she with wearied air, or slackened pace? Her winds too tired to blow, her birds to sing; Doth summer follow her with withered face? Hath age shorn her of beauty, love and grace? Doth bounteous autumn from our age deny, The fruits that long have blessed our dwelling place, Hath now the beauty of her fair, blue sky Grown grey, that was so lovely in the days gone by? Look on the beautions world! Behold the truth! For every quickly passing season, brings Bright heralds of her everlasting youth. The earth is green with joyous, growing things, The air is filled with merry, flitting wings And, out from the shades of the leafy wood Many a flower its balmy sweetness flings.

The earth, the air, the quiet solitude In solemn tongues reveal the everlasting good, Peace to our childhood's memory. Let it live Through all our years, with tender sweetness fraught; And may it ever teach our hearts, to give To every child across our pathway brought, A gentle smile, a careful, loving thought. That in the years which quickly come and go, When longer in life's battle we have fought, He might reap joy from what we sowed; For seeds dropped in a child's young heart will surely grow. No! we'll not grieve to see our childhood gone, Nor when in rugged paths our feet must tread, Regretful sigh to see the years come on. O beautiful life! Thou wonderful gift of God! Though we must bow and pass beneath the rod, I would that I might use thee best, and trust That e're I silent lie beneath the sod, I may some work have done, some deed that's true and just, Some treasure claim that will not ruin by moth or rust.

Mrs. Briley was the Exchange Editor of the Daniel Baker Collegian in 1903. The May, 1903 issue, listed Clementine Wilmett as one of the students who was about to receive a degree. In the "personal items" it reported that she planned to spend the summer at her home near Ebony.

P. S. After the above was in type Mr. Boland paid a visit in person to the Eagle Office. Whether he also went to see Mrs. Briley is not known but he did visit, along with Mrs. Boland, in both Goldthwaite and Mullin. It may be of interest to Mr. Boland to know that when it was decided to print Mrs. Briley's 1903 poem it had been supposed that it was only TWO short verses long. It is a good thing that Mr. Boland was not in the Eagle Office when it was discovered that Mrs. Briley's poem ran considerably longer!

Walter "Pop" Carroll Back Home After 3 Years Of Duty In Germany

After a three-year tour of duty in Germany, Sgt./1c Walter "Pop" Carroll, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Carroll of Goldthwaite, disembarked in New York last Saturday night. He was scheduled to arrive in San Antonio on Thursday of this week and to be reunited with his family in Goldthwaite next weekend.

Sgt. Carroll, who served with distinction in the European Theater of Operations in World War II, is the husband of the former Sue Bare of Oklahoma. They have two children, Billy, who is 3, and Ethel Lynn, 5. Mrs. Carroll and Billy and Ethel Lynn were with their father in Germany until last January, when they came home to Goldthwaite to await his return.

After a furlough, Sgt. Carroll expects to be reassigned to duty somewhere in the United States. He first entered the Army in March, 1939. He was discharged in September of 1945 after service in which he was awarded the Purple Heart and a cluter. He was cut down by machine gunfire at San Lo in the "battle of the hedgerows" in Normandy in 1944 and, according to dispatches at the time, he was "put back together with silver plate." He was well known to and affectionately regarded by accredited war correspondents with whom he worked in the battle for Europe.

Following his return to civilian life in 1945, "Pop" Carroll was in business where John L. "Hi Neighbor" Gwin now operates. In 1949 he sold his business to Mr. Gwin and returned to Miss Mabel Deats of San Angelo returned home on Friday of last week after a two week's visit with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. White and daughter, Mary Sue, of Temple spent the weekend with relatives here.

military service, which he is making his career.

"Pop," by the way, is called that only in the Army. His sister, Mrs. Raymond Cockrum, made it quite clear this week that she calls him Walter. Further, she seemed resigned to having to listen to a lot of reminiscing during the next few days when Walter Carroll and Raymond Cockrum get together.

Walter Carroll is one of four brothers who rendered great service to their country. Chief Warrant Officer (1stG) Samuel Carroll now is stationed at the James Connally Air Force Base at Waco. He has been in the armed services since 1936. Glenn Carroll, a former Sergeant, now is in civilian life in Dallas. O. B. Carroll, who served with the Air Force in North Africa and Italy during World War II, died in September, 1946.

During the first part of his tour of duty in Germany Sgt. Carroll was stationed at Frankfurt. Prior to his return home he was on duty at a medical center in Landstuhl.

How smart can a Wife get?

"... I don't know... but my wife can sure spot a bargain. She knows most people earn nearly twice as much today as they did in 1940. But she also says all her costs are up. Most things she buys for the family cost 2 or 3 times as much as they did then... but not our telephone."

Noted Visitors Inspect Cattle And Sheep Here

Two of the outstanding livestock experts of the entire United States came to Mills County last week to make a tour with Y. B. Johnson, Jr., teacher of vocational agriculture at the Goldthwaite High School; County Agriculture Agent George G. Reese, and President Robert L. Steen of the Mills County Livestock Raisers' Association.

The visitors were W. L. Henning of Penn State College, Pennsylvania, and Milt Miller, field representative of the Tri-State Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' Association. Mr. Henning, who is Secretary of the American Southdown Association, also is famous for the champion livestock judging teams that he has coached at Penn State College, which is in the front rank of agriculture-education institutions in the country.

Mr. Henning and Mr. Miller went last Friday with Mr. Johnson, Mr. Reese and Mr. Steen to study the livestock projects of John Dean Stark, Bill Parker, Bob Parker, John Howard Owens and Dana and Shirley Saylor. They also inspected some of the stock of Mr. Johnson and Mr. Steen.

Mr. Henning and Mr. Miller were especially interested in Aberdeen-Angus cattle and Southdown sheep but they inspected other projects as well because of the national reputation that has been built up during the past few years by Mills County 4-H Club and F. F. A. members.

Center City Club Picnic August 14

The Center City Home Demonstration Club will have a picnic at 7.00 p. m., on August 14 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Head. Mrs. Head, who is Reporter for the Club, said this week that everybody is invited to attend the picnic. "Come and bring your basket," she said. Plans for the picnic were made on Thursday of last week at a meeting of the Club at the home of Mrs. Jack Porter.

Scallorn News

By ORA BLACK

The weather out our way has been unusually warm for the past few days. Still very dry with not a cloud in sight.

The revival meeting which has been in progress the past 10 days closed Sunday evening. There were six additions to the Church, four for baptism and two came by letter.

Most everyone from our community went to Pleasant Grove Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Ray Berry.

Jane Black accompanied by a friend, Jack Turman of Austin, spent Sunday here with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Burk, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Burk of San Angelo, John Kuykendall and Layton Black fished Wednesday at Double Ford on the Colorado river.

Mrs. Earl Blake of Brownwood spent last week with her mother, Ora Black. Her brother, Billie Black, accompanied her home for a visit.

Mrs. Charlie Bryant and Charley Sue of Goldthwaite came by Thursday for Huntis and Layton Black and they spent the afternoon on the river fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lock and children of Goldthwaite were guest Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Burk.

Guests Sunday afternoon of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bishop were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. Coquots and four children of Corpus Christi were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Johnson.

Mrs. Clark Bristoe is in Austin with her little granddaughter who is taking treatment at Breckenridge hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Johnson and Yvonne were in San Saba Sunday. They visited with Leon's father and mother.

Mrs. Charles C. Wright of Mullin came over Sunday for the home coming at the Scallorn Church.

C. H. Black has made several business trips the past two weeks throughout South West Texas.

C. H. Black and Huntis left Sunday for San Antonio.

HE IS INDESTRUCTIBLE!

When the above photograph was made during the Goldthwaite Lions Club Talent Show last Spring the Eagle warned that it should not be used for political purposes. Now that the first Democratic primary election is a matter of history, this photograph adorns this page again as a tip to others who may have long term political ambitions. The subject, Miss Jessica Tullos, is better and more widely known as Mills County Commissioner Jess Y. Tullos of Precinct 1. Last Saturday the voters of Precinct 1 gave Jess Tullos almost 75 per cent of a vote that was cast among three candidates. Incidentally, R. V. Littlepage had predicted in advance of the counting of the ballots that Commissioner Tullos would receive 75 per cent of the votes cast and he missed the mark by only six votes — out of a total of 1,015! Last Monday and every day since, Commissioner Tullos was beaming on the citizens and was shaking their hands — possibly with 1954 in mind. Take it back — Jess Tullos resumed his politicking last Saturday night and kept it up all through Sunday. It has been rumored that Harry S. Truman plans to send for Commissioner Tullos and Judge-elect John L. Patterson so that they can talk to the President's boy, Adlai Stevenson, and give him some pointers.

Mrs. Horace Gray Has Sorry Vacation

Mrs. Horace Gray returned to her duties as Deputy to County Clerk Earl Summy last Monday after a week's vacation — a vacation that was interrupted last Saturday night when Mrs. Gray dropped into the County Clerk's office to watch election returns being tabulated.

"What are you doing here?" Mrs. Gray was asked Saturday night.

"I'm watching other people work," she replied.

"What did you do on your vacation?" she was asked.

"Everything I did NOT want to do," she said, grimly.

TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT 3

I am grateful for the strong support that I received in the first Democratic primary election last Saturday. Your support put me in the August 23 runoff primary for nomination as County Commissioner, Precinct 3. I hope to have your continued encouragement and, for my part, I will work hard to win the runoff. If elected, I will give my best efforts to the citizens of Precinct 3.

Again, thank you.

Joseph B. Townsen, Father Of S. Dow Hudson, Died At Age Of 82

Joseph B. Townsen, father of S. Dow Hudson of Goldthwaite, died on Thursday of last week at the Hudson home on 1st Street in Goldthwaite, having been ill for a year and a half and a heart ailment.

Member of one of the oldest pioneer families in Texas, Townsen practiced medicine in Lampasas and surrounding areas for 60 years. He was beloved by thousands of people who were made grateful ministrations and skill.

Funeral services for Dr. Townsen were conducted on Friday of last week at the church of Christ at First and 1st Streets in Lampasas. The rites were conducted by Rev. Ben West. Interment was in the Oak Hill Cemetery in Lampasas. Many friends went to Lampasas from Goldthwaite to contribute to the memory of Townsen.

The late Mr. and Mrs. Townsen, Dr. Townsen was what now is known as Adamsville on September 11, 1869. At the time of his birth, Adamsville was known as Townsenville. For many years his father, who had come to Texas from Tennessee, operated at Townsenville a flour mill and cotton gin. Dr. Townsen's mother was a native of Mississippi.

Dr. Townsen was educated at Tulane Medical College in New Orleans and at the State Medical College at Galveston. On August 2, 1893, he was married near Lampasas to the former Miss Annie Alexander, who survives.

In addition to his widow, Dr. Townsen is survived by three daughters — Mrs. Dow (Ima) Hudson of Goldthwaite, Mrs. T. B. (Amy) Rodgers of San Antonio, and Miss Lila Townsen, also of San Antonio. Also surviving are a grand-daughter, two grandsons, two great grandsons and one great grand-daughter.

Dr. Townsen had been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dow Hudson since July 2.

Revival Meetings At Center City

With preaching by the Rev. J. T. Ayers, Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Goldthwaite, revival meetings will be conducted at the Center City Baptist Church starting on Friday of this week and continuing through August 10, it was announced this week by the Rev. C. M. Head.

Brother Head said that during the August 1-10 revival period, services would be held at the Center City Baptist Church daily at 10:00 a. m., and at 8:00 p. m.

Singing for the revival will be led by Brother Head and by the Rev. C. M. Sparkman, who is Pastor of the Center City Baptist Church.

Dr. Huff At Baptist Church Next Sunday

Preaching at both the morning and night Services of Worship at the First Baptist Church of Goldthwaite next Sunday will be by Dr. Z. T. Huff, Dean of Howard Payne College in Brownwood. Dr. Huff will occupy the pulpit of the First Baptist Church on Sunday because of the Rev. J. T. Ayers, Pastor, will be conducting revival meetings at Center City.

Nazarene Speaker

The Rev. Ponder Gilliland, District Superintendent of the San Antonio District of the Church of the Nazarene, will speak next Sunday night at 7:45 o'clock at the Goldthwaite Church of the Nazarene, it was announced this week by the Revs. J. E. and Elnora Coe, Pastors. Brother Gilliland, who formerly served at Calgary, Canada, recently was elected International President of all Nazarene young peoples' societies at a general convention in Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Simms and little daughter of Brownwood were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Kuykendall.

Final Rites Were Conducted Here Tuesday For Mrs Fred Martin, 58

Mrs. Fred Martin, daughter-in-law of Mrs. Henry Martin of Goldthwaite, died in Muskogee, Okla., on Friday of last week. Funeral services were conducted last Tuesday afternoon at the First Baptist Church of Goldthwaite with the Rev. J. T. Ayers, Pastor, and a former Pastor, the Rev. E. E. Dawson, now of Hico, officiating. Interment was in the Goldthwaite Memorial Cemetery with arrangements by the Fairman-Wilkins Funeral Home of Goldthwaite.

A daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Stephens, Mrs. Martin, the former Elizabeth Stephens, was born in Mart on July 10, 1894. She came to live in Goldthwaite with her family in 1905. For a number of years her late father carried the United States Mail on Route 3.

In 1916 she was married to Fred Martin, son of Mrs. Henry Martin. Mr. Martin survives. Also surviving are two daughters, Mrs. R. L. (Aileen) Updike of Muskogee, Okla., and Mrs. W. R. (Jeanette) Morrill of Redding, Cal.

Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. T. O. Meador of Belton and Mrs. Horace Caldwell of Corpus Christi, and three brothers, Maurice Stephens and Marion Stephens, both of Wichita Falls, and Bill Stephens of Houston. Four grandchildren also survive.

Until 1938 Mrs. Martin lived in Goldthwaite, where for 30 years she had been pianist at the First Baptist Church. She and Mr. Martin made their home in Oklahoma City but she was in Muskogee at the time of her death.

Pall bearers at the funeral were Earl Green of Oklanoma City and Walter Fairman, Dow Hudson, Dennis D. Tate, Frank P. Bowman and R. V. Littlepage, all of Goldthwaite.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Conner cut corn tops last week.

Bill Partin has several hands helping harvest his broome corn crop. Mr. Partin said he had a very nice crop of broome corn.

Mr. Anderson and sons are baling maize for A. L. Crawford. Floyd Daniel baled hay for Hugh Nowell.

A. L. Crawford took a load of fryers to Brownwood last Monday.

As Dad, George and I drove to Caradan Saturday to vote we surely were surprised when Mrs. Bill Partin came running out and told us Tom Partin was there from Calf Creek, McCulloch County, and wanted to chat with us. He was just getting ready to come down to visit with us. It had been almost 30 years since Mr. Partin had been on the mountain. Mr. Partin has been on the sick list for almost five months. His health is very much improved at present. Mr. Partin said his country was about like ours; they needed a good general rain.

Mrs. R. A. "Granny" Stevens celebrated her 80th birthday on July 22. Granny has been confined to her room for almost two years, because of a fall from her porch. This scribe visited her last Monday. She was very happy about her birthday cake which her daughter, Miss Lola, had baked.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Shipman visited at the Aaron Kelley home last Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Shipman returned home with a nice saddle pony. I think Mr. Kelley also got a pony in the deal.

Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Partin were: Mr. and Mrs. Bill Partin, Tommie, Jimmie and Jesse, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Partin, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allen of Miles and grandmother Partin of Calf Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Evans were guest regently of Mr. and Mrs. Billie McNerlin and Gene.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Daniel and Mark visited Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Daniel Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone Shipman and daughters of Brady spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Shipman.

Ray and Warren Harris visited Gene McNerlin last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Partin of Calf Creek, former resident of this community visited a host of their relatives and friends here last week.

George and Pearl Crawford visited the A. L. Crawfords Saturday. George accompanied Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford and William G. to Goldthwaite Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Tiemann visited Mr. and Mrs. Bill Oxford and sons Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Daniel and Mark entertained a number of relatives during last week.

of the Eagle, victory in the Democratic primary in Texas is equivalent to election—which will simply be formalized by the balloting in the general election on November 4.

Latest total returns from the Texas Election Bureau as the Eagle went to press this week

included the following:
Governor— Shivers 753,299, Traylor 36,079, Yarborough, 437,889.
Lieutenant Governor: Morales 203,119, Ramsey 894,306.
Senator: Beckworth 271,627, Daniel 818,558, Napier 80,092.

RAYMOND THORNTON
Agriculture Commissioner: Beard 212,886, McKay 188,680, White 673,387.
Land Commissioner: Giles 755,822, Patterson 336,577.
Criminal Appeals: Owens 513,575, Woodley 533,274.
Railroad Commissioner: Culbertson 806,574, Laird 306,189.
Attorney General: Shepperd 378,617, Stiles 221,050.
Supreme Court, place 1: Bell 334,324, Culver 324,875, Lewis 182,521, Stout 183,506.
Supreme Court, place 2: Keenan 380,375, Smedley 621,395.

CARLOS ASHLEY
In contests closer to home Congressman O. C. Fisher of the 21st Texas Congressional District was renominated 2 to 1 against the challenger, County Judge Ira Galloway of Coleman.

OLIN CULBERTSON
In the 27th Texas Judicial District, District Attorney Jim

JOHN BEN SHEPPERD

K. Evetts unseated Judge Wesley Dice by a majority of less than 300 votes out of a total of more than 16,000 that were cast in Mills, Lampasas and Bell Counties. The District Judge race was a see-saw contest in which at times Judge Dice was out in front by two votes. Victory went to Mr. Evetts when votes in the final five boxes, two in Killen and three in Temple, were counted. Judge Dice carried Mills County by a majority of 410.

Raymond Thornton of Belton was nominated for District Attorney of the 27th Texas Judicial District to succeed Mr. Ev-the interests of Mills County were nominated or renominated without opposition but with large complimentary votes. They include Senator Carlos Ashley of Llano. He represents the 16th Senatorial District in the Texas Legislature. Mills County is in the District. W. R. "Bill" Chambers of Brownwood became this County's representative in the lower house of the Legislature at Austin for the first time. Under re-districting, Mr. Chambers will represent Mills, Brown and Comanche Counties. So far as Mills County is concerned, Mr. Chambers succeeds Arthur E. Gromatzky of Priddy, who was not a candidate this year. Details of other political interest to the citizens of Mills County will be found on other pages of this week's issue.

OPEN HOUSE AT HUMBLE STATION

Fisher Street in Goldthwaite. The "welcome" that will feature the "open house" on Saturday will be accompanied by gifts — orchids for the ladies and souvenirs for all.

Mr. Smith, who will be host at his service station on Saturday, is well known in Mills County. He has lived here for 60 years, having come with his parents from Montgomery when he was 7. He has been a farmer and stockman and he has been a service station operator since 1921.

At the Humble station on South Fisher Street Mr. Smith is assisted by Mrs. Smith, the former Mable Sullivan. Another cheerful member of the staff is Junior Grover, who came to Goldthwaite from Beeville and who is an experienced service station operator too. The photographs are, of course, of Mr. Smith and his Humble station.

Skirts Ahoy! — Liza A. Hapgood Joins The Navy

The WAVES, women's auxiliary of the United States Navy, celebrated their tenth anniversary by enlisting Miss Elizabeth Ann Hapgood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Hapgood of Rancho Nueces in Big Valley.

Miss Hapgood, who was sworn into the WAVES last week, now is stationed at Bainbridge, Maryland — from whence she can keep an eye on the goings-on in Washington if she is not too busy with her boot camp training. Her address is: Elizabeth Ann Hapgood, Sr. W C453382, USNCT RT (W), Bainbridge, Maryland.

In notifying the Eagle that she had raised her right hand and was getting the works as a recruit in the WAVES at Bainbridge, Miss Hapgood sent, of all things, a picture postcard of the Dallas Morning News Building!

After she was graduated from the Goldthwaite High School, Miss Hapgood was a student at Texas Technological College in Lubbock until she decided to join the armed services.

The WAVES were organized on July 10, ten years ago. Now there are 9,000 of them, including Elizabeth Ann Hapgood.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodson Clary and children and Miss La Joy Clary of Star spent last week vacationing in New Mexico, North Texas and Oklahoma.

Miss Willa Dean Anderson of Mullin was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Nix this week.

Judge Dice Loses

 year he announced he would not seek renomination as District Attorney. Subsequently he announced his candidacy against Judge Dice.

In other contests involving the judiciary, Mills County followed the remainder of the State only in the case of Graham B. Smedley for Place 2 on the Supreme Court. In Mills County Judge Smedley polled 1,700 votes as against 585 votes for Robert Bruce Keenan.

For Place 1 on the Supreme Court, Mills County gave 957 votes to Glenn R. Lewis of San Angelo but the top man State-wide was Spurgeon Bell. He received only 221 votes in Mills County.

For Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, Mills County gave its vote to Jesse Owens, who received 905 votes in Mills County as against 822 votes for Kenneth K. Woodley. Commissioner Woodley won on a State-wide basis, but not by very much of a margin. Judge Owens was backed in Mills County by his old friend, A. W. "Uncle Amos" Lilly.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bledso and son of Breckenridge spent the weekend with her father, Henry Ezzell and Mrs. Ezzell.

Mrs. T. A. Casbeer is spending a few days in Goldthwaite with her mother, Mrs. Emma Huffstutler.

Mrs. L. E. Dunlap form Lockhart and Edwin Dunly from Lyle were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Bishop.

Elmo Phelan and family of Houston visited Sunday with his aunt, Mrs. E. L. Pass and Mr. Pass.

Akins And Jones Plan For Football

Ray Akins, new athletic coach of the Goldthwaite Schools, and Superintendent J. T. Jones, spent last Monday checking football and other equipment and preparing for the opening of the 1952 gridiron season on September 12, when the Goldthwaite Eagles will play Cross Plains here. Incidentally, the 1952 football schedule, which will be published in full later, provides for six home games.

Coach Akins, who is studying at San Marcos, will move with Mrs. Akins and their daughter into the Sparks Bigham residence about August 25. Already some of the household possessions of the Akins family have been moved to Goldthwaite.

Superintendent Jones and Coach Akins have planned a pre-season football rally. August 26 has been set for the probable date and further details will be announced when arrangements have been completed.

Swimming Pool

 last week's Eagle, additional "YES" votes have been received. One of them, apparently referring to "NO" votes that discussed Adam, Eve and fig leaves, wrote in the space reserved for remarks:

"I'm a Christian also but by rejecting a swimming pool we do not prevent nakedness or sin; we only drive our youths to some other place."

Proponents of the swimming pool plan pointed out that the project never involved contemplation either of sin or of swimming in the nude. It is customary, it was emphasized, for persons who patronize swimming pools to wear bathing suits.

Mrs. E. L. Pass visited Thursday in Brownwood with her sisters, Mrs. Sutton and Mrs. Phelan and their families.

News Of The Ebony Community

By CLEMENTINE WILMETH BRILEY

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Charm Whittenburg and Clint and Jack, Mr. and Mrs. John Briley, Mrs. Eugene Egger, Mrs. Edna Dwyer, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Reeves attended Church at Oakland where David Allan, Minister of the Austin Avenue Church of Christ in Brownwood, is holding a revival. I wish that each and everyone in this and surrounding communities could realize that in Mr. Allen they have an opportunity to hear the gospel preached in a most understandable manner by one who has wide experience, a deep knowledge of the Bible, and a charming personality. A native of Scotland, he has been thirty years in North America. He has preached beyond the Arctic Circle in Canada, has spent several years in Detroit, has preached in Old Mexico, and many other places. He spent several months in Scotland last year. While there he got many pictures of that picturesque country which he puts on the screen here. Tuesday night after Church was the time for them to be shown at Oakland.

Next Sunday we urge everybody to come to Oakland. There will be dinner on the ground and singing in the afternoon. There will be a number of singers from Brownwood. Brother Allen will make a recording of the singing, and if it is good enough, he will put it on his broadcast which can be heard at 8:30 every Sunday morning over KBWD.

After Church Sunday the Dwyer-Brileys and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Reeves had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hanna and their daughter, Mrs. Tommy Wilson of Brownwood. Then they all hurried by ford across the dry Colorado river to singing and preaching at Bowser. Memories throng my heart at Bowser. In 1910-11 I taught school there. But previous to that as a small child many times I accompanied my mother and father when my father went to preach there. I was greatly rejoiced to see the beautiful, new, little white Church House which replaces the old building.

By radio we were enabled to attend the Democratic Convention at Chicago last week, though its absurd long hours made it quite tedious for listeners as well as delegates. We think it must take an iron constitution to survive a political convention. We also see that besides its triumphs it has its deep heartbreaks. We can't tell where we're going, but we hope some one will put on the brake, for it seems we are headed for a depression, since every thing the farmer has is going down while living costs are going up.

Our drought continues unrelentingly. We hope that Fort Worth hydraulic engineer, who was so right when he said '52 would be another '51, will be just as right when he said '53 will be a banner year.

My happiest experience last week was a visit from my former pupil, Carroll Lockett, and his mother, Mrs. Bert Lockett, and three Mullin ladies, Mrs. Will Chesser, Mrs. S. M. Casey, and Mrs. Aury Keating. Carroll was my pupil in the third grade at Mullin 1946-47. When I would put a test on the board, almost as soon as I got the last question written Carroll would be ready to hand in his paper, and it would always be perfect. He is now a ninth grade pupil at Whiteface. He also plays in the band there. He tells me he is going to make a doctor. He says he reads my letters, and he urged me to write longer ones. I told him that editors were unfavorable to long letters.

Farmers in this community are cutting and baling their feed crops as there seems to be no chance for them to mature enough for combining.

Ezelle Thompson cut maize and bonita for John Briley Monday. Cecil Egger is baling for his neighbors.

The Cawyers returned to their home at Orange Wednesday of last week, leaving Mrs. Dwyer and her broken arm alone.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Griffin and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. LaRue of San Antonio spent the weekend at the Griffin home. Mrs. Griffin is working in San Antonio now, but Charles' work takes him about 20 miles from the city.

Dewey Smith and Charm Whittenburg finished the Moore well at Indian Creek last week. They went 469 feet, and the water stands within 20 feet of the top.

Mr. and Mrs. Blue Thompson called on us Monday afternoon. They have about 460 turkeys that will be ready for the September market. Mrs. Thompson tells me that in spite of the drought she has put up about 200 containers of vegetables. The Thompsons raise enough chickens and vegetables that all of their four married daughters can come home and take back enough to fill their home freezers. Mr. Thompson has had to go to the doctor this week, and his doctor tells him he must go easy on the hard work now on. But in the largest Grace Noll Crowell, the Thompsons can be "glad that had a small son to stop and now they have a tail to look up to."

Mrs. Silas Burk visited day in San Saba with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry.
