See Rugged Capital Fight Over Pay-As-You-See TV Television Networks, Movies Lead Subscription Plan Foes

WASHINGTON—An all-out fight is underway in Washington over the question of subscription television—better known as pay-as-you-see TV.

The Federal Communications commission has started proceedings to ascertain if pay-TV is feasible in the popular entertainment field and the lines are sharply drawn between those who want it and those who emphatically do not.

Both sides are beginning all-out public relations campaigns to uphold their views.

Opponents, chiefly the movie makers and present television networks whose revenues are drawn from advertising sponsors, claim the "coin-in-the-slot" proposal would strike at a basic American right of set-owners to see all programs without paying.

Those who favor the subscription plan argue that such a development would enable television to bring to the viewing public top-flight entertainment, such as hit Broadway shows, to those who want them now but don't see them at home because of prohibitive costs and lack of popular appeal.

Free-or-fee?

POLITICAL HAY—Whatever finally happens to that $20-per-person income tax cut which passed the House under Democratic sponsorship, most Washington observers feel the Democrats scored a quick march on the Republicans and have filled the barn with political hay.

Even though the Eisenhower administration should come forth and agree to a tax cut next year, the Democrats believe they have taken the edge off any political appeal such a move might have.

Democratic strategists in the House who devised the move feel that whatever happens, they have made it plain they favor lower taxes for the "little people."

Even if the Republicans adopt a similar program next year, they feel they can claim priority on the move.

CONTROLS OFF—The Eisenhower administration, after some study, has about decided to withdraw tentative plans to ask Congress for stand-by controls on prices and wages this year.

The Office of Defense Mobilization has had under study for several months the entire problem of controls which would probably be clamped on in event a major war broke out.

The ODM now feels that a special committee of government specialists, drawn from the Commerce, Labor and Treasury departments, should review the entire situation.

Top officials feel that if any emergency should develop suddenly, a 90-day freeze of both prices and wages could win congressional approval quickly, thereby permitting the government to work out more detailed plans.

The administration also believes that once a thorough study of the "if and when" problem is made, it is possible no stand-by legislation would be needed.

So far as controls on strategic materials are concerned, particularly in the field of copper, ODM authorities feel that Congress will sanction continuance of the agency for another year, automatically vesting the President to act in this vital industrial field.

VIC'S... SOLILOQUY

Jack Holden, sports writer for the Abilene Reporter-News, writing in his column "Sports Spotlight" one day this month paid a fine tribute to Billy Jack Rudd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rudd, Abilene, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Rudd of Goldthwaite.

He had some really nice things to say about Billy Jack and for the benefit of our many readers, who know Billy and his family in Abilene and in Mills County, we are passing it on here, as follows:

"You may have guessed by now that the preceding paragraphs are an introduction to Billy Jack Rudd, Abilene High School's most excellent student manager and team trainer.

"You see, we added that team trainer tag for a purpose. Of all the managers you find, a lot of them don't fall into the trainer class. Rudd does.

"Sitting in the Eagle dressing room one gets the impression Rudd is a regular mother hen to the scores of young huskies who troop in and out each day.

"It's 'Rudd, where's that?' or 'Rudd, where's that?' and maybe, 'Rudd, look at this leg,' or 'How about taping this ankle?'"

"We told Nat Gleaton, Abilene High basketball coach, that we intended to write a column about Rudd. He immediately said, 'I'm glad. He deserves it,' and then added, 'You know, I don't know what we're going to do without that boy. He's just like having another coach on our staff.'

"The kids don't go to the coach, they go to Rudd," Gleaton then said.

"You know, a few weeks ago Bob (Groselose) started on a track trip. Just before he boarded the bus he told Rudd that it was supposed to be cold where they were going and he'd better get the warmup jackets. 'They're already on the bus, coach,' Rudd told him. That's how he is. He looks at things like a coach would. He plans ahead."

"When you start adding up all the ingredients of Abilene's state championship football team last fall you have to include Rudd and his two colleagues, Roy Reid and Don Bridges. Rudd estimates he and his helpers worked four to five hours each day after school during the grid season, but he says more than anything else he 'loves to be around athletes.'

OFFERED 6-YEAR SCHOLARSHIP AT SMU

"Southern Methodist University has recognized Rudd's ability because it has lined up for him a six-year scholarship if he wants to attend classes that long.

"Just like an athlete, Rudd will get the works, everything except laundry money—and he can stay for a master's degree if he so desires. He'll live in the athletic dorm, travel with the teams and be first assistant to Wayne Moody, the school trainer.

"It's a good break. Rice had earlier offered him something similar but, 'not quite so good' as Rudd put it. Eddie Wojcicki, Rice trainer, told Rudd on a visit there he knew of three $8,000 jobs open now for graduate trainers but that he had nobody to fill them.

"Rudd says he will become a college trainer or a physical therapist. 'A back injury suffered in the ninth grade started Rudd as a manager. Until then he had played football. Later he found he liked to manage and after entering Abilene High he's held a job each year. For the past two years he's been varsity manager.

"Rudd is too busy during the school year to participate in athletics himself but has led some in the Teen-Age league summer baseball program.

"Much of his therapy technique he has learned from Sley Smith, therapist for county crippled children's association. He's also read a 'To watch him tape an ankle you'd think it was a pro's work.'

"Rudd will go to SMU with no strings attached. The Adams wanted his best buddies Bob Gay and Twyman Ash or both may go, but if don't, the deal is still his.

What is Church of Christ?

Each Organization Directed Locally

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is one in a series of informative articles on the role of religion in today's world, written for The Reporter-News of Abilene, Texas by members of various religious bodies. This series on the church of Christ was written by President Don H. Morris of Abilene Christian College.

BY DON H. MORRIS
President
Abilene Christian College

It was shown in the first article that members of the church of Christ have as their purpose to restore the organization, worship and doctrine of the New Testament church.

Members of the church accept the Bible as the inspired Word of God. They believe that Jesus is the divine Son of God, that his is the head of the church and that he speaks to his followers today through the New Testament.

In answering questions of religious teaching or practice, members of the church ask: "What does the New Testament teach?"

For instance, what does the New Testament teach regarding the organization of the church?

The only kind of organization or church government in the New Testament is that of the local congregation directed by elders, bishops, pastors or presbyters (the words are used interchangeably). These men, always a plurality, are overseers of only one congregation (Acts 20:28). Deacons of the church are special servants who work in a congregation with and under the elders. Nowhere in the New Testament is there an example of one official overseeing one or more congregations. Neither is there an example of a body of officials exercising any kind of oversight over more than one congregation.

So, members of churches of Christ hold that the pure congregational system is the only scriptural church organization. This is not a matter of expediency or religious liberty, but of principle.

Again, what does the New Testament teach regarding the name of the church and its members?

Christ's followers in the New Testament are called "Christians" (Acts 11:26; I Pet. 4:16). Collectively they are often designated as the church. As a group in a certain location, Christians are referred to in the New Testament as the church at a particular place. For example, the church at Antioch, the church at Rome, or the seven churches of Asia. Therefore, members of churches of Christ today refer to an individual congregation as the church at Bowlington, N. M., or the Skillman Avenue church in Dallas, or the church in some other place. They refer to their brethren as Christians or as members of the Body of Christ (Rom. 12:5; I Cor. 12:12). Speaking of all Christians they may say simply "the church."

DENOMINATIONAL ERROR

The New Testament also refers to the church—the general body of Christians—as churches of Christ (Rom. 16:16), the church of God (I Cor. 1:2), the church of the first born (Heb. 12:23) and the church of the Lord (Acts 20:28).

Other descriptive phrases in the New Testament are used to refer to the church. But no denominational designations are found, and church of Christ members believe that to use them is error (I Cor. 1:10-13).

Members of the church of Christ are also concerned with what the New Testament teaches regarding acceptable worship.

(1) They pray in public worship, because the New Testament so teaches.

(2) Likewise, they teach in the public assemblies because the New Testament offers such examples.

(3) They contribute of their means on Sunday, which the Bible refers to as the Lord's day or the first day of the week. And they use as an example I

Cor. 16:2: Upon the first day of the week let each of you lay by him in store, as he may prosper.

(4) They sing in worship. But they use no other type of music, because they find no teaching or example of it in the New Testament, and because they believe, consequently, that doing so would be in violation of God's law. They read in the New Testament that Christians are to admonish "one another with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs" (Col. 3:16) and that this is to be done by singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord" (Eph. 5:19).

(5) They meet on the first day of every week to "break bread," or observe the Lord's supper, because in so doing they follow the New Testament example (Acts 20:7). They look upon the Lord's supper as a memorial of the death of Christ (Luke 22:19; I Cor. 11:26). They believe that the bread is symbolic of his body and that the fruit of the vine represents his blood (Matt. 26:26-29).

BAPTISM BY IMMERSION

What do members of churches of Christ teach regarding conversion?

Following the New Testament they teach that conversion includes the following:

(1) Faith in Christ as the Son of God (Heb. 11:6)—faith which comes from hearing God's Word (Rom. 10:17), and which leads to repentance.

(2) Repentance, because it is likewise commanded (Acts 2:38; 17:30).

(3) Confession, which the penitent believer should be willing to make, acknowledging his faith in Christ (I Tim. 6:12; Rom. 10: 9, 10).

(4) Baptism because baptism, along with other acts of obedience, is unto the remission of sins (Acts 2:38) and because it puts one into Christ's body, the church (I Cor. 12:13).

Members of churches of Christ teach the one baptism (Eph. 4: 5), that of immersion. The original word means immersion, and the New Testament describes baptism as a burial (Rom. 6:4; Col. 2:12).

Churches of Christ do not baptize infants because an infant has neither the capacity to believe, repent, nor confess its faith; therefore they believe that an infant is not a qualified subject for baptism.

Church of Christ members believe that the New Testament teaches that salvation is a free gift of God's grace and is not procured by man's works (Eph. 2:8,9). They believe, however, that this gift comes through a live, active faith which leads one to obedience. They plead no merit of their own, but rely upon the blood of Christ to cleanse them from all sin (I Jno. 1:7).

NO RELIGIOUS TITLES

They believe in heaven as a place of eternal bliss and hell as a place of eternal punishment, because this is the teaching of Christ (Matt. 25:31-46).

Preachers of churches of Christ do not assume religious titles such as "The Reverend." Members believe that such titles are out of harmony with the teachings and spirit of the New Testament and out of harmony with the responsibilities and work of a preacher. They believe that the New Testament makes no distinction between so-called "clergy" and "laity." Too, they believe that the term "pastor" as used in the New Testament describes one who does the work of an elder or bishop—not one who is an evangelist or preacher.

Members of the church of Christ teach that Christians should conform their everyday conduct to the New Testament standard. They believe that the basic concepts of honesty, justice, morality and industry should guide Christians in all their relationships, because these principles are taught in the New Testament.

Also, Christ's law of marriage and divorce must be kept. This means that there is but one basis for divorce and remarriage, namely fornication on the part of one of the parties (Matt. 19:9). Members of churches of Christ teach this as Christ's law and not as church legislation.

Christians likewise are instructed to be good citizens of established government (Rom. 13:1-7).

And so, the churches of Christ in the 20th Century have as their guide the same teaching that the church followed in the 1st Century. They humbly invite men everywhere to follow the New Testament in all things, that they may be Christians indeed and thus constitute the church which Jesus established and for which he died.

Payments For Wool

UNDER NATIONAL WOOL ACT OF 1954

GENERAL ADMINISTRATION AND ANNOUNCEMENT OF RATES OF PAYMENTS UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, COMMODITY STABILIZATION SERVICE

INSTRUCTION NO. 750

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of this instruction is to transmit to the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation county offices general information on the operation of the payments program for wool under the National Wool Act of 1954. The ASC county offices will be responsible for informing wool growers in their counties of the details of the wool program through educational material distributed by mail, press, radio, and public meetings. The information in this instruction will be of assistance to the county offices in carrying out their responsibilities under the program and in informing wool growers and lamb feeders of the method of handling the sales of their wool and of lambs and yearlings in a manner to qualify for payments.

Sufficient copies of this instruction are being mailed for complete distribution to county offices.

II. RESPONSIBILITY FOR ADMINISTRATION OF PROGRAMS

In this procedure the ASC State committee, the ASC county committee and the Commodity Credit Corporation will be referred to as the State committee, the county committee, and CCC, respectively. "State Administrative Officer" means the State Administrative Officer or the person acting in his behalf. "County office manager" means the county office manager or other employee of the county office acting in his behalf.

A. County Committees and County Office Managers—Each county committee shall, in accordance with the regulations governing the wool program and the applicable instructions issued by the Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment, CSS, and under the supervision of the State committee be responsible for the determination of policy on all matters involving the administration of the wool program on the county level. Such determinations should be recorded in the minutes of county committee meetings. Working in close cooperation with the county committee, the county office manager shall be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the county office in accordance with determinations of the county committee. Situations that arise in day-to-day operations of the program for which no policy or judgment determinations have been made should be referred by the county office manager to the county committee for decision. County office managers are cautioned that in any case involving questionable data or where the reliability of the person requesting a payment is in doubt or where there are any other unusual circumstances involved, they should review the case with the County Committee before approving the payment. The county office manager shall be responsible for maintaining complete files and records in connection with the wool program and making reports as required. It is necessary that all records and reports be accurate and kept up-to-date. All records are subject to audit.

B. State Committees—Each State Committee shall, in accordance with applicable instructions issued by the Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment, CSS, be responsible for the administration and audit of the field work of the wool program.

III. INCENTIVE PAYMENTS ON SHORN WOOL

Under the National Wool Act of 1954, wool is recognized as an essential and strategic commodity which is not produced in sufficient quantity in the U. S. It is the declared policy of Congress, as a measure for national security and in the promotion of the general economic welfare, to encourage an annual domestic production of approximately 300 million pounds of shorn wool. We are now producing around 230 million pounds. The Secretary is directed to establish an incentive price for shorn wool which will encourage the larger production.

A. Incentive Price—On October 12, 1954, the Secretary announced an incentive price of 62 cents for shorn wool for the 1955 marketing year, April 1, 1955, through March 31, 1956. Under this program, the incentive price for a marketing year is to be announced sufficiently in advance so that wool producers may know the price when shaping up their herds in the fall of the year for the next season's production. Thus, it is expected that the incentive price for the ensuing marketing year will be announced around September of each year.

B. Payments to Producers—Payments will be made to wool producers (including feeders) after the marketing year is over to bring the national average price received by all producers for wool sold through normal marketing channels up to the incentive price. Under the Act, only wool shorn on or after January 1, 1955, and marketed on or after April 1, 1955, will be eligible for payments.

C. Rate of Incentive Payment—After the marketing year is over and the average price received by all producers is known, the rate of the incentive payment for the marketing year will be announced. The rate of payment will be the percentage required to bring the national average price received by all producers up to the announced incentive price. Following is an example of how the rate will be calculated:

Incentive price as announced	$4.62
Reported average price received by growers for the year	.50

Difference	.12

Percentage necessary to bring 50 cents average up to the 62 cents level 24%

D. Application of Rate—The announced percentage will be applied to the net proceeds received by each producer for the wool he marketed during the marketing year as shown by the sales documents, like the bill or account of sale, to determine the amount of his incentive payment. The following example illustrates how the county office will use the announced percentage rate to determine the amount of payment to each producer:

Producer shipped his clip of 500 pounds to Boston and it was sold to a mill at 60 cents per pound
Gross proceeds	$ 300.00
Marketing Costs (transportation, commission, grading, etc.) deducted	35.00
Net proceeds after marketing deductions	$ 265.00
Rate of Payment (assuming the rate of payment should be 24 percent as illustrated in C above)	24%
Amount of payment to the producer (24% of $265.00)	63.60

Use of the percentage rate will recognize quality production and encourage producers to improve the quality and marketing of their wool to get the best price possible in the open market. The higher the price received, the greater the payment.

IV. PAYMENT ON LAMBS AND YEARLINGS (Pulled Wool)

In announcing the incentive price of 62 cents for shorn wool for the 1955 marketing season beginning April 1, 1955, the Secretary announced that support for pulled wool would be handled by payments on live animals marketed with the wool on. Under the Act the support price for pulled wool is to be established at a level in relationship to the support price for shorn wool that will maintain normal marketing practices; i. e., to avoid the unusual shearing prior to marketing to obtain the incentive payments on shorn wool. As announced this will be accomplished by making payments on lambs and yearlings sold for slaughter to give the producer or feeder essentially the same net returns that he would receive if he sheared the animals prior to sale and obtained the incentive payment on shorn wool.

A. Rate of Payment—When the rate of incentive payments for shorn wool is announced, the rate of payments for lambs and yearlings sold during the marketing year will also be announced. The rate of payment will be a fixed number of cents per hundred weight of animals sold to reflect, on the average, the approximate number of pounds of wool on the animals at the time of marketing.

The pounds of wool on lambs or yearlings that have never been shorn and as sold for slaughter over the year averages around five pounds per hundredweight of live animal. Wool on lambs and yearlings sold for slaughter is coarser and of shorter staple on the average than the U. S. shorn wool clip; hence, a lesser payment per pound to compensate for pulled wool is appropriate. Allowing for these factors, the rate will be calculated as follows:

Incentive price for shorn wool as announced	62 cents
Reported average price received by producers for the year	50 cents
Difference	12 cents

80% of difference to adjust for difference in grade and staple 9.6 cents

Wool (greasy shorn basis) per cwt. of lamb or yearlings 5 pounds

Rate of payment per cwt. of lambs or yearlings with full wool pelts 48 cents

B. Application of Rate of Payment—The rate of payment for lambs and yearlings as announced at the end of the marketing year will be used by the county offices to compute the amount of payment to each producer or feeder who qualifies for a payment. The number of hundredweight of lambs and yearlings, as shown on the sales documents submitted by the applicant for a payment, will be multiplied by the rate per hundredweight. Following is an example of how the amount of payment would be calculated:

Rate announced	48 cents per cwt.
Live weight of lambs and yearlings sold	10,000 pounds
Amount of Payment	$48.00

V. ANNOUNCEMENT OF RATES

The rates of payment—percentage rate for shorn wool and the cents per hundredweight rate for lambs and yearlings sold for slaughter with the wool on—will be announced and transmitted to the county offices after the marketing year is over—in the summer of 1955 for the 1955 marketing year which ends March 31, 1956.

VI. AUTHORITY TO MAKE PAYMENTS

The announcement of the rates of payment for the marketing year will also give authority for the county offices to proceed with making the payments. The detailed procedures for processing applications and making the payments are given in Instructions 750 (Wool-2) and 750 (Wool-3).

VII. REGULATIONS

Regulations governing the payments on shorn wool and pulled wool will be published in the Federal Register and will be made available to the county committees.

LIVESTOCK MARKET PROJECTS THREATENED

The Texas livestock industry is faced with the prospect of losing three important market information centers because the Texas Department of Agriculture may not have adequate funds to maintain them next year.

Market news services at Amarillo, Houston and San Antonio are the critical points. They represent three points which service at least three-fifths of the state.

The TDA requested an appropriation of $15,000 from the Legislature to maintain a price reporting system in these cities. The federal government considered the projects of such importance that it was willing to contribute an equal amount annually provided Texas furnished the initial funds. After first consideration by the Legislature, the appropriation was defeated and only a slim possibility remains that the money will be reinstated in a subsequent bill.

This action means that cattlemen bringing their livestock to any of the three cities for sale may not have adequate information on the worth of their stock. The market reporting system, which previously recorded daily transactions and furnished up-to-the-minute national prices, might be a thing of the past by September 1.

The loss will be keenly felt in the industry. The volume of livestock moving through the Amarillo auction in the past five years has increased to the extent that it has attracted nationwide attention. In Houston, the amount of calves going through the market makes it the fourth largest calf market center in the nation. San Antonio has been a trade center for South, Central and West-Texas cattle for many years. Marketing information is aimed at attracting new business and assuring the cattlemen of a good basis for trade. The seller needs to know what his cattle is worth that day. He is seriously handicapped if he has to use guesswork.

It is hoped that the Legislature will see fit to restore these funds before the present session is ended.

Larger Flocks Reportedly Make Greater Efficiency

COLLEGE STATION, (Spec.)—Egg producers who seek efficiency in the laying house are advised to have flocks of 1,000 or more hens.

"Efficiency increases with flock size," says Ben Wormell, extension poultry husbandman. "There is a definite need in Texas for increasing flock numbers to more economical units—to at least 1,000 layers."

Stay in business in both good and bad years, he advises. Only increased commercial production and fewer backyard producers will stabilize the state's fluctuating egg market.

When eggs make favorable returns one year, there is a tendency for backyard producers to upsurge in production, it is enough to put prices on the skids, Wormell explains.

Clementine Wilmeth Briley Writes From Temporary Home In El Paso

By CLEMENTINE WILMETH BRILEY

The pansies have recovered from the recent extremely low temperature and are again delighting us with their exquisite beauty. I believe they are the largest and loveliest I have ever had. The daffodils — always a joy — have spared us a few more blooms. The ranunculus are now blooming profusely and are adding quite a bit of color to our front flower bed. It is my first attempt at raising them, but they have no sentiment for me, so I think that next year in their stead I will grow hyacinths and jonquils. I did not plant sweet peas until February, so they are quite small yet but seem to be taking off. I only hope they bloom before I leave. One little rosebush had eleven buds on it, but the freeze ruined all of them.

That report from Goldthwaite of only .04 of an inch of rain for March sent my spirits skidding. But I remember that during all these five years of drought, we have each year had the rain gauge registered 5.5 of an inch for March and 4.5 for April. Also 3.35 inches for May.

I remember too that a year or more ago I read that that engineer from Fort Worth (I can't recall his name) who has something to do with the Lower Colorado River Authority and makes weather observation his hobby, prophesied that 1955 would see the Colorado River again overflowing its banks from our returning heavy rainfall. When I read it, I thought that would be an awful long hand and seal of said Court at office in Goldthwaite, Texas, this the 28th day of March, A. D. 1955.

(SEAL) WALTER A. BRYANT Clerk of the District Court of Mills County, Texas. Published, March 31, April 7, 14, 21, 1955. Goldthwaite Eagle time to wait, but now if it will just come true in 1956, I shall be very thankful.

Walter Edmonson, who went to school to me at Lane's Chapel in Mills County, where I taught my first school, writes me from Wyoming that he was just roaming around waiting for the snow to leave Wyoming. Since receiving his letter, I have heard over the radio of more snow for Wyoming, bringing it to a depth of 44 inches. I'm glad they can have moisture somewhere.

El Paso still looks much like a desert to me and almost every day brings its dust. I marvel that a city of this size with practically no rainfall seems to have no water problem whatsoever. Every person can water the yard just as much as he pleases the year around. Not far under the ground they seem to have an inexhaustible supply. All winter I have put out bread crusts in our back yard for the birds. Black birds and sparrows have thronged to get them. I had hoped that spring would bring some others, but none have I seen. How I miss the red-birds and mocking birds who were always with us at home; the robins and bluebirds that passed through our woods; and the many and varied kinds who came with the spring-time.

Mrs. Ora Hooper Herring called me yesterday (March 7). She said they might go to Indian Creek the last of school as they have a grandchild there who will graduate from high school this spring. Lately she talked to Mrs. Joe Boyd (formerly Mrs. Cearnels, wife of the late Dr. Cearnels of Indian Creek). Mrs. Boyd is 84 and lives alone far out in the edge of El Paso. She says she has been unusually well this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hodges of Austin visited friends here Sunday.

ATTENTION FARMERS AND RANCHERS IN THE BROWN-
MILLS SOIL CONSERVATION
DISTRICT!!! Will you assist in getting the pastor of your church to observe a Sunday in May as Soil Stewardship Sunday? It is fitting to set aside at least one Sunday out of the year to give humble thanks to our Creator for the priceless gifts of soil, water, and sunshine that makes all living things possible.

The supervisors of this District are asking the cooperation of each pastor in the Goldthwaite work unit area in observing May 15th as Soil Stewardship Sunday.

Plans are being made by the Supervisors to distribute Soil Stewardship material to all ministers in this area.

With a little moisture from the recent rains several cooperators of the District are giving some thought to guar seeding. Guar, a summer legume is an excellent crop for improving the condition of the soil, as well as producing livestock feed. The seed when crushed produce an oil that is being used by industry. As a feed crop some farmers plant guar in strips with bundle feed while others mix the guar and other seed together before planting. When crop is harvested for feed the guar improves the protein content of the feed. A market can be obtained for the seed if a large enough quantity is produced.

Other cooperators taking advantage of the moisture are H.
R. Collier near Center City and Jim Soules near Star. These cooperators are planning to plant a few acres of Blue Panic grass. This grass will be planted in rows in a cultivated field where it can receive several cultivations. These plantings will only be on a trial basis in hopes that more moisture will fall when the young seedlings need it.

Diversion terraces have been started on the C. D. McMillan Ranch near Caradan and on the Lee Walton farm near Center City. These diversions will divert runoff water to farm ponds that have inadequate drainage areas. By diverting this runoff water the ratio of the pond's storage and the number of acres draining into the pond will be more in balance.

Lee Parker, local contractor, is constructing the diversion on the McMillan Ranch while Fred Wall, County Commissioner of Precinct No. 2, is building Mr.
Walton's diversion.

Nature Needs Your Help In Annual Spring Clean-Up Campaign On Farm

CLEANER FARMS . . .
FEWER FIRES

COLLEGE STATION, (Spec.)
—Now is the time to get rid of the winter's accumulation of rubbish and junk. Nature is replacing winter's bleak landscape with the soft green of renewing life of spring and needs your cooperation to complete the job.

If every farm family would conduct a cleanup campaign at home—inside and out—it would help eliminate fire and accident hazards, make home a safer place to live, and result in happier and more productive workdays, says the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Committee.

Farm fires take a heavy toll of life and property each year in the nation, about 3,000 lives and $139,000,000 worth of property. Both figures could be reduced, believes the committee, with good "housekeeping".
Cleaner farms will mean fewer fires.

Inspection, they say, is the first step in fire prevention. Remove the hazards which may cause fires and accidents and ask the neighbors to cooperate in a community cleanup campaign.

Secondly points out the committee, stop taking fire risks.

Careless smoking habits and the misuse of matches are major causes of fire. Too, kerosene, gasoline or other flammable liquid should never be used for starting or boosting fires in stoves, ranges or fireplaces. Be sure flammable liquids are safely stored and away from farm buildings.

During the cleanup campaign if trash is burned, pick a still, damp day for burning and have help and equipment handy in case it is needed. Then be sure the fire is out before leaving it unattended.

The committee believes the dollars spent for fire extinguishers and other needed fire fighting equipment is mighty good investment and would like to see every Texas farm family trained in their use. Finally, they say, give everything a place and then keep it there . . .
that's good "housekeeping."

Mrs. A. H. Smith of San Antonio was a guest of Mrs. John Delis last Friday.

Want to feel like a pilot feels?

HOTTEST BUICK IN HISTORY
No wonder you see so many '55 Buicks on the highways —they're ralling up bigger sales than ever before in history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the "Big Three" of America's best sellers.

Today's the day to "Join The Test Pilot Club" and see what a thrill you get when you try Variable Pitch Dynaflo®

We're not kidding.
When you try a '55 Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflo, you'll feel like a pilot does when he heads his plane down a runway for take-off.

For you, in the driver's seat, are doing what that pilot does—you're changing the pitch of your propellers—one way for instant response on getaway—another way for better gas mileage in cruising.

Your propellers are whirling in oil, deep inside the Dynaflo unit. When you press the pedal in the normal way, you hold those propellers in their economy angle—and you enjoy plenty more miles from your gasoline.

But when you want instant acceleration—for quick getaway, or for a sudden safety-surge of emergency power—you just press the pedal way down, and—with absolute smoothness—you get the action you want, and split-second quick.

It's the thrill that's the talk of the industry —performance unlike anything you have ever known before on the ground.

And so many folks have been asking to try it that we Buick dealers across America have set up April as "Test Pilot Club" Month. All it takes to join the "Club" is a test drive at the wheel of a new Buick.
That's all.

So we cordially invite you to win your "wings"—to try the spectacular performance of Variable Pitch Dynaflo—and to feel the mighty V8 power that puts the whip to these gorgeous new Buick beauties.
Drop in this week.

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Local Delivered Price of the 1955 Buick SPECIAL Sedan,

the best-known smaller cars!

Said a sleuth: Ah! The mystery's unraveled!—
About cars that "take off like a javelin."
But with Dynaflo's switch—
Of its Variable Pitch—
You were here. Now you're there.
Boy, that's travelin'!

AUSTIN, Tex. — Tax plans tallspinned in the House before adjournment last weekend. A tight-running team carried the Stanton Stone "fleas to uranium" omnibus tax compromise. But they threw the ball over the head of the receiver. Net result: The House refused to pass the bill at second reading. It had to be revived for further action.

Some members rebelled because they weren't in on the play. New compromises, with more players and a less taut rein, however, promised an ultimate tax bill. Members have been talking about "$100 million new axes", and that was just about what the new compromise plan embraced. It would involve face saving all around.

The four-point plan included:

Acceptance of the Stone cut of the gasoline tax to one cent, from two, as originally asked by Governor Allan Shivers. At the same time, one-fourth of its revenue — eight million a year — would be given to cities and counties to buy rights-of-way.

One-cent increase on cigarette tax was kept.

Cut-down levies on beer dealers' licenses voted by the House was accepted, but, in deference to strong group demands, $1 a barrel tax on beer was added.

Natural gas production tax would be frozen at its present 3-cent level. By present law, it would drop to 8 cents in September and 7 cents after Sept.

As the bill stood when the House refused passage, it would raise forty and one half million dollars a year. Various changes proposed in the second compromise would push it up to $50 million a year, thus reaching the "$100 million" about which members talked.

There still is talk of a special session, should the regular session not be able to iron out differences on where and how to raise the needed revenue.

OTHER BILLS PASS

While the House walked around the tax issue, a number of non-controversial bills were passed.

Voted by the House was concurrence in Senate amendments to a bill banning "lewd and depraved" comic books.

Also voted was a Senate amendment shortening the "cooling off" period in divorce cases. The House has passed a bill setting the time at 90 days. The Senate made it 60.

Two Senate bills calling for mandatory jail sentences in sex offense convictions involving children were approved by the House.

Final passage was given a bill increasing the length limit of trucks from 45 to 50 feet.

In the Senate, 43 local and uncontested bills were passed.

PROBE TO CONTINUE

Veterans land investigations will proceed in the Senate, despite bitter objection of some members.

Senator Jimmy Phillips said it would be wrong to stop it because "all parties responsible for the gigantic fraud have not been exposed and named."

Senators Dorsey B. Hardeman and Rudolph A. Weinert contended that the probe has established the pattern of fraud and the time has come for trial of persons indicted.

Voting was 19 to 12 to carry the inquiry through May 10.

Last week was the first in a long time when no new criminal charges or indictments or civil forfeiture suits were filed, involving veterans land.

Submission of additional land bonds has been voted by the Veterans Land Board two-to-one with Attorney General John Ben Shepperd voting no. Hearing has been posted in the Senate on Sen. George Moffett's $100 million bond plan. A $200 million resolution was waiting in the House.

WATER BILL PASSES

Finally passed by the House was a measure creating the Trinity River Authority.

Water conservation, flood control, and irrigation projects are authorized by the bill which specifically forbids construction of a barge canal between the Gulf of Mexico and the Fort-Worth-Dallas area.

Failure was the destiny in the House of a proposed constitutional amendment to finance dams and other water projects.

Voting favored the resolution 78 to 81, but 100 votes are required to submit a constitutional amendment.

Under the defeated proposal, a State Water Commission, with increased authority, would supplant the State Board of Water Engineers.

TIDELANDS AGAIN

More trouble looms between the federal government and Texas over the tidelands.

Attorney General Shepperd said he had discovered that the U. S. Interior Department and the Department of Justice will oppose Texas' sale of tidelands oil and gas leases May 3.

Congress restored ownership of the tidelands, out to the 10 1/2 mile limit, after the submerged areas had been claimed by the federal government.

Only three miles of the offshore lands were returned to other states.

Now it appears the federal government wants to hold Texas rights to three miles.

Money from sale of the leases goes into the Texas permanent school fund.

HOUSE INVITES SALK

Commending Dr. Jonas E. Salk highly on his development of the polio vaccine, the House has invited the Michigan doctor to address the Texas Legislature.

Mrs. Audrey Stark and John of Lubbock, Bill Stark and wife of California, Mr. and Mrs. Oran Stark and daughter of Brownwood were recent guests of Mrs. J. C. Starks.
