Cominform Pledges Support To Yugoslavia Reds

Going Forward With Eastland
By Bob Moore

Sport fans should not miss the Sunday, Sept. 4 issue of the Abilene Reporter-News, as the paper will be a special football edition. The Reporter-News will have stories and pictures on each team in this area, including schedules. One of the teams to be featured is our own Eastland Mavericks.

Say, hasn't the cool weather the past several days been grand. It won't be long until time to start thinking about Fall and winter clothes. But if your pocketbook is as lean as mine, about all you can do is think about it.

There is no record of any man being shot by his wife while he was washing dishes.—"Rotary News," Easy, S. C.

Don't know where you are going tonight about 7:30 o'clock, but this scribe will be out at Maverick Field to see the Mavericks tangle with the Class AA Stephenville Yellow Jackets in an inter-city scrimmage. This will be the first time the Mavericks have worked out under the lights. With the addition of Roy Lee Smith to the backfield, and the general improved performances of other Mavericks, our team should make a very creditable showing against the Jackets.

Here and there: Henry Pullman, of the Pullman Store, and family back from a vacation deep in the heart of Old Mexico. Henry says the entire family really enjoyed their trip. Seems that merchandise costs much less in that country than in the States, and Henry says a fellow with a little money could go down there and live like a rich man. He expressed surprise there were so many new American cars in Mexico. While there, the Pullmans ran into Walter Murray and wife, who have business interests in Eastland and are well known here. Incidentally, both the Pullmans and Murrys met up at a silver mine.

Cecil Holfield, of Holfield's Firestone Store, has one of the clearest decorated snow windows seen in a long time. Cecil scooped the window and then cleared "peep holes" for passersby to peer into and see what he has on sale. One of the "peep holes" is in the form of a keyhole, another is low down for the small fry, and etc. Couldn't resist taking a peep myself.

Now if the Majestic Case isn't the snazziest thing you ever saw since Ernest Halkias and Sam Diamond have remodeled it. The color scheme is really something, with the red cushioned booths and red, white and green painting of the interior. Ernest and Sam must have really done a lot of work during the months "vacation" they had. Probably they need another vacation to get over the one they just had.

Snyder Banker's Funeral Today

SNYDER, Tex., Sept. 2 (UP)—Austin D. Erwin, president of the Snyder National Bank since 1934, died unexpectedly last night at a hospital. He was 61. He had been ill but a short time. Services will be held this afternoon at the Sluder First Methodist Church.

Prominent in West Texas banking circles, Erwin had lived in Scurry County 43 years. He was, for a time, associated with the Fuller Cotton Oil Company.

Polio Victim Goes Home

Polio nurse Virginia Warner, 24, who has had polio for the second time, flew to her home in Kansas City, Mo., Wednesday from San Angelo, Texas in a chartered plane. Miss Warner dedicated her life to the fight against polio after her first illness when she was eight years old. As she worked in a San Angelo hospital last July she was again struck by the disease. On hand to welcome her home with a gift was her niece, Barbara Vanneman, 9, and her parents Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Warner. (NEA Telephoto)

Williams To Coach Junior High Football

For the first time in history, Eastland Junior High School will have a regular football coach during the 1949-50 term, Supt. W. G. Womack announced. He will also teach health and science. Williams majored in physical education and minored in biology. He is a graduate of Dalhart High School, where he lettered two years in football and basketball. His first year of college was at Panhandle A&M, where he lettered in football, playing as quarterback. He played football and was on the boxing team at Hardin-Simmons for one year, but was unable to play the last two years because of a knee injury.

Announced purpose of the meeting is to "discuss local school problems."

MAVERICKS WILL SCRIMMAGE STEPHENVILLE HERE TONIGHT

The Eastland Mavericks and the Stephenville Yellow Jackets will have an intercity scrimmage to night at 7:30 o'clock at Maverick Stadium, Coach Wendell Siebert announced. There will be no admission charge and the public is invited to come out and see a "sneak preview" of how the 1949 Maverick team is shaping up. According to the Stephenville Empire-Tribune, Coach M. O. Murphy's Jackets showed strength in the line and the backfield showing promise in a scrimmage with Dublin Tuesday night. The Class AA Stephenville delegation "as a whole need much more work on defense play. Of offense, the Jackets will be hard to handle because of a large line, and the broken-field running of

RANGER BLAST VICTIM DIES; FOUR HOSPITALIZED

Dewitt Young, 56, died at the West Texas Hospital this morning about 6 o'clock of burns sustained in a gasoline pipeline explosion three miles west of Ranger Thursday night. Four other men who were buried in the explosion remained in hospitals today. Harley Bollinger and R. W. Gordon, at the West Texas Hospital, were reported to be resting very well and were not believed in a serious condition. Attending physicians reported this morning that W. J. Van Bibber and W. O. (Shorty) Cox, both at the Ranger General Hospital, were seriously burned but are expected to recover, barring complications. Gordon was burned about the head and hands and Bollinger sustained third degree burns on the body, face and arms and second degree burns on the legs. Both Van Bibber and Cox had face, head, back, arms and leg burns. The accident occurred while the men were repairing a gasoline line from Lone Star Producing Company Plant 108-2 to the Ranger Central Fractionating Plant, No. 108 West of Ranger. Gordon stated last night that he did not know what caused the explosion. He said that the first thing he knew he was engulfed with flames. Policemen reported last night that they understood that the explosion had been set off when a motorist ran a road block which had been set up as a safety measure by the workmen. This had not been confirmed today, but Gordon said that safety road block had been set up. It was believed that a spark from the passing car may have ignited the gas that had accumulated in the area from the leak in the line. J. A. Bates, superintendent of the Lone Star Producing company in the Ranger Division, stated today that officials of the company have not been able to determine the cause of the explosion but that an investigation is being made. He stated that Fred Townsend, general superintendent and John Kindler, assistant superintendent, both of Dallas, drove to Ranger last night after being notified of the accident. After an inquiry they returned to Dallas.

Young Rites Saturday

Funeral services for Mr. Young will be held Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Church of Christ in Ranger with Floyd J. Spivy, minister officiating. Interment will be in Evergreen cemetery with Morris Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

MILLIONS TO CROWD HIGHWAYS OVER SUMMER'S LAST HOLIDAY

By United Press
Millions of Americans had their picnic baskets packed and their cars tuned up, ready to take off for the country at the end of their day's work today for the last long weekend of the summer. The weather generally over the nation was clear but somewhat cool. Highways were expected to be jammed throughout the Labor Day holiday period. The National Safety Council predicted that 280 persons would be killed in traffic crashes as 3,300,000 cars crowded the pavements, burning up 270,000,000 gallons of gasoline to travel 4,000,000,000 miles. Ned H. Dearborn, president of the council, pleaded with drivers to use extreme caution—to "start trips early, take it easy and exercise courtesy." Last year, 492 persons died violent deaths over Labor Day, 302 in automobile accidents, 62 by drowning in 11 plane crashes and 128 in miscellaneous mishaps. In 1947, a total of 456 persons died in accidents, 272 on highways, 70 by drowning, 24 in plane crashes and 90 in other types of accidents. At New York, domestic airlines scheduled 80 extra flights and predicted a record traffic load 10 to 15 per cent higher than last Labor Day. Railroads, however, expected a decline from last year because more people own cars this year. The New York Automobile Club predicted that traveling conditions would be less congested because motorists planned shorter trips. One of those traveling over the week end will be President Truman. He was scheduled to fly to Pittsburgh to make a Labor Day speech Monday noon and then fly on to Des Moines for a farm speech that evening at the national convention of the American Veterans of World War II. He will spend the night at his home in Independence, Mo. Union Station officials at Washington said they added 20 extra trains and that advance reservations indicated that holiday travel at the capital may hit a new record. About 4,000,000 Texans were expected to ride the highways of the big state during the week end with clear, near 90 weather prevailing. Twenty seven persons died last year in Texas highway crashes. Most of Dixie expected cloudy weather with some rain except in Florida and Louisiana. Nevertheless, highway, railroad and plane travel was expected to be heavy.

Red Deserter's Diary Studied

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2 (UP)—The pencil-scribbled diary of Anatol Barsov, the "repentant" Russian deserter, has fallen into the hands of the state department it was learned today. Officials are at work on a translation in an effort to see whether the diary will shed further light on the mysterious case of the Red officer who deserted to the United States, and then voluntarily went back home to face the music. Examination of the diary marks the first time that government agents have inspected any of the possessions which Barsov left in his Washington hotel room when he was arrested Aug. 17. He was held secretly at Ellis Island for five days, then flown to Austria and finally handed over to the Russians on Wednesday. Barsov left the diary, another notebook, a few clothes, a Russian novel, and his shaving kit at the Alturas Hotel. Persons who have scanned the diary said it deals mainly with Barsov's early impressions of America, with whisky drinking and with the condition of his heart.

Grandstaff To Hear Cantata

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 2 (UP)—Life-terminer Frank M. Grandstaff today had the governor's permission to get out of prison long enough to attend the Big Spring, Tex., centennial on Oct. 2 to hear for the first time the cantata he wrote in prison. Gov. Gordon Browning agreed yesterday to let Grandstaff attend Big Spring citizens promised they would "see that he gets back." The 47-year-old convict named his work, composed without a musical instrument for help, after the Texas town he used to visit as a piano salesman. On his visit to Big Spring he will hear for the first time the hour-long cantata he composed mentally, writing the notes on his cell wall and tapping out the time with a pencil. Then he will return to serve out the rest of his sentence as a habitual criminal after several burglary and larceny convictions.

The farm was purchased by L. F. Hancock of Eastland and his two sons, both of Midland. Brashears was the subject of a feature article published in June by the Eastland Daily Telegram and other daily newspapers, in which he was quoted as saying he was taking no bets on the chances of oil being found in large quantities on his farm.

Fear Soviets May Attempt Liberation

By EDWARD M. KORRY
United Press Staff Correspondent
BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Sept. 2 (UP)—The Cominform Journal promised "total support" to Yugoslav Communists opposing Marshal Tito today, stepping up government fears that Russian troops might undertake to "liberate" Yugoslavia. Bucharest dispatches disclosed that the Cominform, through its official journal, reported that a fifth column Communist party was being organized throughout Yugoslavia against the Tito regime. Diplomatic sources said after reading the Cominform announcement that it could be the opening gun in a campaign to "free the oppressed people of Yugoslavia." Official Yugoslav quarters admitted only last night that they were worried about the possibility of some such move by Russia. But they said they did not believe it was likely now.

Belive More Than One In On Dymantite Theft

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 2 (UP)—The Baxer County sheriff's office today believed more than one person was responsible for the theft of dynamite and other explosives from powder magazine last Monday night.

A charge was filed against Billy Piper, 18, yesterday shortly before 136 sticks of dynamite, 100 detonating caps and 500 feet of fuse were found cached in underbrush seven miles west of here.

The explosives were from the Lillioia Powder Manufacturing Co. Dump. Sheriff's officers received them on information supplied by an attorney for Piper, who was freed in $1,500 bond.

An attempt also was made last Monday night to explode a powder magazine containing 15 tons of dynamite. Powder experts said a catastrophe was averted only because the arsonists were ignorant of explosives.

A half ounce of new cerasan or a like amount of cerasan M will treat one bushel of planting seed. Use it on wheat or oats. This treatment will aid in preventing losses from stinking smut seed rots and seedling blights and dockage losses at selling time.

MORE TO GARIN PASTURES THAN SOWING OF SEED

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 2—There is a lot more to growing a good small grain pasture for fall and winter grazing than putting seed into the ground. M. K. Thornton, extension agricultural chemist of Texas A. & M. College, says plenty of the right kind of fertilizer and early planting will help you grow a crop that your livestock will appreciate.

Scarce feed items in the winter rations are abundant in small grains such as wheat, oats, barley and rye, says Thornton. These grains contain over 20 per cent protein when they are at their best stage for grazing. Rye grasses and rescue also supply good winter grazing in the areas where adapted.

If moisture conditions permit, September seeded small grain pastures offer the best possibilities for good fall grazing and the use of fertilizer will improve those chances, says Thornton. On the sandy soils of East Texas where legumes have not been turned under, small grains should be fertilized with 300 pounds of 5-10-5 or 4-12-4 per acre at the time of planting. To keep the pasture really producing, Thornton says, top dress later in the fall with 20 to 40 pounds of nitrogen per acre and another similar application next spring will pay you well. From 65 to 135 pounds of ammonium nitrate; 130 to 250 pounds of sodium nitrate or 100 to 200 pounds of sulphate of ammonium per acre will supply this nitrogen.

An application of 30 to 40 pounds of nitrogen per acre made before or at the time of seeding small grains for pastures in the Blacklands of North and Central Texas and the heavier soils of the West Cross Timbers areas will materially increase the pastures value.

On the sandy and sandy loam soils of the same areas, Thornton suggests that you use 200 pounds of 4-12-4 or 5-10-5 at seeding time and a top dressing of 20 to 40 pounds of nitrogen per acre early next spring.

2,709 Head Examined For Rabie Disease

Austin, Sept. 2. The Texas State Department of Health during the first seven months of this year has a record of the examination of 2,709 animal heads for rabies and of this number almost one fourth were found positive, said Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

Rabies is transmitted to man through a bite or having a cut exposed to the saliva of a rabid animal. If a person is bitten, the offending animal should be penned, if possible, for a period of at least ten days. If the animal is in the infective stage, he will die within this time. This does not mean that he may not be in the noninfectious or incubative stage and develop rabies later. All dogs bitten by a rabid animal should be confined six months. If it is necessary to kill the animal, this should be done in such a manner that the brain is not destroyed.

SEEDS ARE SAFE from harmful disease bacteria that cause rotting and smut when they come out of this machine. This picture, taken at the Terminal Grain Co., in Fort Worth, show a modern slurry process machine for the disinfecting of all types of field seeds.

When sending a head to the state Laboratory it should be put in a container, sealed and packed in ice to prevent decomposition.

Dr. Cox said that rabies is a hard disease to eradicate, but that it could be done if all owners would have their dogs vaccinated each year and eliminate all stray dogs. If you have a dog, get him vaccinated the same as you have your children immunized against diphtheria and smallpox.

Rabies is commonly supposed to be a disease of warm weather, but it is more prevalent during the spring and fall because the dogs congregate and move about more, therefore the chance of exposure is greater during this time. It is true that more dogs are killed during the summer months but the percentage of rabies is low.

The action of the organic supplied by legumes when plowed under provides more water for following crops by increasing the water-holding capacity of the soil.

Feed The Land Save The Soil

COLLEGE STATION, September 2—The slogan, "Feed the Land and Fatten the Crops," is a good one for Texas farmers to adopt. Plants need plenty of the right kind of food in order to thrive and produce profitable yields. It is not possible, says E. A. Miller, extension agronomist of Texas A. & M. College, to produce good crops unless sufficient plant food is available, regardless of how good the seed or cultural methods may be.

In addition to the plant food, plants also need a good home in which to live and lots of water to drink, adds Miller, and one of the best ways to provide these important items is to feed the land with inoculated and fertilized legumes. They not only supply plant food—especially the high priced and badly needed nitrogen they get from the air—but they also make a better home for the plants. The action of the organic matter supplied by the legumes when plowed under improves the home for the plants and provides more water by increasing the waterholding capacity of the soil.

Results of experiments and hundreds of extension service demonstrations furnish the proof that it pays to feed the land with inoculated and fertilized legumes says Miller. Hairy vetch increased cotton yields on the Texas Agricultural Experiment Stations at Nacogdoches and Tyler by more than 100 pounds of lint per acre and doubled the corn yields.

Small grain pastures for fall and winter grazing will supply scarce feed items in the winter ration.

Hurricane Dies Out In Canada

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 2 (UP)—A 60-mile-an-hour gale backlash of the hurricane which hit the United States earlier this week, dissipated itself to the north today after leaving wreckage strewn across Ontario and Quebec and killing one man.

The full force of the winds, accompanied by lashing rain and hail, ripped through the two provinces yesterday, snapping power poles, damaging scores of store fronts and ripping roofs off houses. A number of cities within 50 miles of Ottawa were without electricity for several hours.

Achille Oumet, 37-year-old employe of Canadian Arsenals Ltd., was electrocuted when he touched a 2,200 volt high tension cable as he was helping extinguish a fire caused by short-circuited power lines.

In 1946 Texas ranked first in the number of horses and mules on farms and third in the number of mules on farms. Today about 65 percent of Texas farms do not have a team on the place, and only about 200,000 horses were used in crop production in 1948.
