Crippled Dogies Lose To Ranger 25-19, Comanche Next Opponent

A crippled bunch of hard-fighting Eastland Junior High Dogies were defeated 25-19 by the Ranger Bullpuppies there Tuesday night.

The Bullpuppies ran up 13 points in the first quarter to take the lead, which they retained throughout the game.

The Dogies opened an attack of their own in the second period with Billy Jordan, right end, taking a 30 yard pass on the line and galloping the remaining 40 yards to paydirt.

right half and leading scorer, while sufted out, was not able to play because of injuries also sustained in the car wreck.

Ranger's offense proved potent on wide end sweeps, while a let down in the Dogies' blocking told the difference in the score.

Outstanding work was turned in by Butch Harbin, Stanley Harris, Alan Vermillion, and Billy Jordan.

Next game for the Dogies will be Thursday night, Oct. 20, against Comanche, there.

Coach Joe Williams said the team will bear down on blocking during the coming week of scrimmages. He plans to work out some new plays using either the double wing or single wing formation—keeping the tight T in reserve.

Eastland County Peanuts At Fair Get Special Care

Peanuts growing in the Eastland county exhibit get just about the most attentive care of any display at the 64th State Fair of Texas.

The water that is sprinkled on them daily is hauled all the way from Eastland, according to George I. Lane, manager of the booth.

Not even the prize livestock and poultry being shown at the State Fair get that kind of care, declared Lane who has been supervisor of the Farmers' Home Administration in Eastland county for 15 years.

The exhibit of peanut plants is thriving on its imported water as new leaves are appearing every day. There are both growing and harvested peanuts on display in the booth.

Sam Herring of the Flatwood community in Eastland county provided the harvested peanuts and the growing peanut plants come from a field cultivated by J. W. Overstreet on the Knox Farm.

Others who were at the Eastland county booth Tuesday which was Eastland County Peanut Day included P. L. Crossley, county judge; J. M. Cooper, county agent; Ed Steele, assistant county agent; Travis Wheat, farm representative of the Texas Electric Service Co., and Miss Rosie McCoy, home demonstration agent.

RED MINISTER MAKES CHARGE IN MAIDEN SPEECH TO HOUSES

BY JOHN B. McDERMOTT

UNITED PRESS STAFF CORRESPONDENT
BERLIN Oct. 12 (UP)—Communist Prime Minister Otto Grotewohl said today that Russia virtually was forced by "the serious threat of war in Europe" to form a new East German Government.

Unification of Germany was more urgent than ever, Grotewohl told a joint session of both houses of the new East German legislature in his maiden speech as prime minister.

Grotewohl delivered a major statement of policy for the new East German government in an hour-long speech in which he said the new state would:

1. Pay Russia war-damage reparations and "overcome the national misery created by war."
2. Welcome with open arms all non-criminal Nazis.
3. Embark immediately upon a new Soviet-engineered two-year plan.
4. Provide an abundance of food for its people.
5. Remain staunchly loyal to the Soviet Union.
6. Fight for unification of Germany against the German state, which Grotewohl denounced as an "imperialist" puppet government "founded in London."
7. Take sharp legal measures against any Anti-Semitic activity.

"Western Germany today is the gathering place of foreign and German militarists," Grotewohl said in a major statement of policy before a joint session of both houses of the legislature.

Top Honor Won By Mav Band

Top honor was won by the Eastland High school Maverick Band in the Class B division of a band clinic held at Brownwood Tuesday in connection with concerts by the United States Marine Band.

The Maverick Band, under direction of T. R. Atwood, participated in the clinic, sponsored by music department of Howard Payne College.

Breckenridge won in Class A, while Richland Springs captured the Class C title.

Twenty-one high school bands and those from Tarleton State College and Howard Payne College attended.

From the approximate 1,000 band members attending, top musicians were selected from the musical aggregations to play in a combined band. Selected from the Maverick Band to play in the combined clinic band were: Jim Ed Willman, Stanley Stephen, Nancy Freyschlag, Janiel Day, G. W. Mc Bee, Guyrene Robinson, Mozelle Pullman, Sarita Seale, Bobby Vaught, Christina Arthur, Beth Hart, Ila Gene Griffin and Tommy Patterson. Interscholastic League music was played by the clinic band.

Doctors attending were from Gorman, Dr. T. G. Jackson and Dr. C. T. Cole; from Cisco, Dr. Addy and Dr. E. L. Graham; from Eastland, Dr. W. K. Cowan, Dr. E. R. Townsend, Dr. J. C. Whittington and Dr. Sarah Whittington; and from Ranger Dr. A. K. Wier, Dr. P. M. Kuykendall, Dr. C. W. Harris and Dr. Watkins.

A 2,000 horsepower high temperature gas tubing has been harnessed to pump natural gas on a pipe line linking Monroe, La., and St. Louis, Mo.

Mix-Up In Make-Up Combines Wrecks

Due to a mix-up in the make-up department of the Eastland Daily Telegram, a train wreck article was combined with the accident of the automobile wreck involving three Eastland Junior High students and resident of Breckenridge, in Tuesday's Telegram. The part of the article dealing with the sheriff's office searching for a missing child were in connection with the train wreck and should not have been included. Our apologies for the composing room boner.

Fire Prevention Week Talks Made At Lions, High School

Marion Wheeler of Fort Worth, representing the North Texas Field Club, an organization composed of insurance salesman, addressed the Eastland Lions Club at noon Tuesday and an assembly of Eastland High School students earlier in the day, in observance of Fire Prevention Week.

The speaker was presented in the address by E. E. Freyschlag chairman of the Chamber of Commerce fire prevention committee.

Other activities here in connection with Fire Prevention Week included an essay and poster contest being conducted in Eastland Public Schools.

Wheeler, in his talks here, cited the tremendous loss caused by fire in the United States each year. He appealed to citizens not only to observe the principles

The western government at Bonn, he charged, was founded in London and not on the Rhine.

Grotewohl pledged his East German government to pay reparations—presumably to Soviet Russia—for damages in World War II and said his government wants peace and unification of Germany.

"The way toward peace contains a recognition of the payments of reparations," he declared.

Grotewohl did not specify the exact amount that East Germany would pay. Observers recalled that Russia demanded $10,000,000,000 (B) in reparations at the last German peace treaty discussions among the big four powers.

The western allies stopped shipping reparations to Russia some time ago when Russia failed to maintain agreements for return shipments from the eastern zone.

Grotewohl promised that his government would abide by the decisions of the Potsdam conference. He denounced the Western Allies, charging that they had violated the Potsdam agreement and repeatedly blocked unification of Germany.

Polio Lowest In Last Six Months

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 12 (UP) — The State Health Department has announced that polio dropped to its lowest point last week in almost six months, with only 52 cases reported.

The 52 cases represented the smallest number since the week of May 21, when 42 cases were reported.

However, the year's total was brought to 2,010, nearly 500 more cases than were reported for the corresponding period of 1948.

Of the state's 254 counties, 190 have had some polio cases, including two counties reporting the disease last week for the first time this year. Hansford County with three cases and Maverick County with one.

of fire prevention during the special week, but throughout the year. Fires, last year in the United States, numbered 800,000 with damage amounting to $700,000,000. Forest fires, which were largely caused by cigarettes and matches discarded, entailed a loss of $23,000,000 acres last year, valued at $55,000,000. Enough lumber was consumed in the forest fire to construct 86,500 five-room homes.

The speaker pointed out that $100,000,000 loss on farms was caused in 1948 by fires, with 3,500 persons killed. Of the 56,000 retail firms destroyed by fires each year, 43 per cent go out of business.

Lows For Season Hit Overnight

By UNITE PRESS

The cold front which moved across the state yesterday left the coldest temperatures of the season in a wide area during the night, but skies were generally fair and the weather cool today.

Scattered showers followed the cool front as it moved southeast, and the Weather Bureau said the rain line had moved to the extreme south coast of Texas this morning.

The mercury plunged to a season's low of 34 degrees at Dalhart and the showers and cool front dropped the temperature to 38 at Amarillo, 39 at Lubbock, and 40 at Amarillo. Wichita Falls recorded a 44-degree reading along with Abilene, and El Paso had 45.

Brownsville had the high mercury reading last night with a 73. Corpus Christi was close behind with 70 degrees. Laredo in the Rio Grande Valley had the day-time high with a 96-degree reading.

Houston, already suffering from too much rain during the past week, recorded the highest rainfall during the cold front movement. The Weather Bureau said 2.71 inches fell during the last 24-hour period. Palestine had 1.71 inches and Tyler recorded 1.31 inches.

However, the Weather Bureau said generally fair skies, with little changes in temperature, were predicted for the next 24-hour period.

American Experts Still Tracing Information on Nazi Germany

BY DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—One of the important and unheralded jobs being done most efficiently by Allied occupation authorities in Europe is a careful writing of the history of the Nazi rule in Germany and of the Axis' side of the war.

Fortunately the Western countries captured most of the official Nazi records and documents. By pooling what each one collected, American, English and French experts have been able to piece together a pretty detailed and intelligent record of everything that went into the growth of Nazism and the prosecution of the war.

There are some important gaps, however. The Russians hold many of the official files and documents. These records have been moved out of Germany and what they contain and how complete they are, nobody but the Russians know. They have flatly refused to discuss the matter with the Allied scholars.

In the last month of the war many important and incriminating papers were destroyed by high Nazi officials. But their system of record keeping was so efficient it ended up outsmarting them. In a great many cases carbons and copies of destroyed originals have been located in different places. But it is still impossible for the experts to determine just what gaps exist because of papers being destroyed or which are due to the papers being in Russian hands.

GERMAN foreign office records and technical data on various scientific developments, unfortunately, have the biggest gaps. It is believed likely that the Russians grabbed more foreign office records than the Americans or British. They may have concentrated on this on purpose, to be able to hide forever the details of the agreement between Hitler and Stalin at the start of the war. The U. S. has made public some of the details which it had of this agreement several years ago. But the experts agree much of the information remains hidden.

Included in the batch of missing records are many of the details of the German attempts to get co-operation during the war with Latin American countries. Knowing how successful or unsuccessful such attempts were would be of extreme importance to the State Department and military experts for future defense planning.

Now that the examination and use of the Nazi records is well under way and some phases almost finished, the Army has begun to worry about what to do with them for permanent keeping. To look into this problem the Army sent one of the country's outstanding experts on records and archives management, Dr. Ernst M. Posner, to Europe this summer.

DR. POSNER was well fitted for the job. He formerly taught archives administration in Berlin and now is with American University, teaching the subject in connection with U. S. and state governments. He found that the German historians are eager to get all these records returned to them as soon as possible. There are many things that they would like to find out about what went on inside the Nazi Party itself.

Involved in the problem, of course, is the question of how and when all of this material will be made public. The great bulk of it is still classified and confidential information. Most of it, however, only has historical interest.

The German archivists with whom Dr. Posner discussed the problem were astonished to hear about the process of microfilming and the other advances which have been made in the handling of official records. Dr. Posner urged them to try to make the science of keeping archives more alive than has been their habit.

Threatening weather culminated in showers yesterday sliced attendance to 33,815. However, total attendance since opening day of 124,290 was still some 16,000 above last year's figure for the Fair's first four days.

AUSTIN, Oct. 12 (UP)—Almost all state departments and agencies closed today in observance of Columbus Day.

However, state courts continued to do business-as-usual.

EDINBURG, Oct. 12 (UP)—State Senator G. C. Morris, acting lieutenant governor of Texas, was off on a short speaking tour of the Lower Rio Grande Valley today.

Morris said the tour had nothing to do with the 1950 elections, but added that he would be back within six months.

BONHAM, Oct. 12 (UP)—Funeral services were held here today for Thomas B. Williams, 87, former president of the Bonham State Bank.

Williams, co-owner of a general merchandise store, died in a hospital here yesterday.

AUSTIN, Oct. 12 (UP)—Officials of the Veterans Land Board predicted today that a recent ruling by Attorney General Price Daniel "would insure a successful sale" of land bonds on Oct. 26.

Daniel held that bonds issued by the Veterans Land Board are eligible investments for the permanent school fund.

Alvis Vandegriff, executive secretary of the board, said the decision would "considerably enhance the value of the bonds."

KILGORE, Oct. 12 (UP)—Two persons were killed and one seriously injured in an automobile accident near the Smith-Gregg county line yesterday.

Joe A. Johnson, 65, of Tyler, was killed immediately when the automobile in which he was riding careened off the highway and overturned. Johnson was a former Henderson County judge.

L. S. Maddon, 59, of Tyler, died several hours later in a Kilgore hospital. Mrs. Johnson was seriously injured in the accident.

AUSTIN, Oct. 12 (UP)—Dr. T. S. Painter, president of the University of Texas, pushed an idea today which he felt would help eliminate overlapping of the state's college and university facilities.

The proposal was a study of Texas' higher educational system, similar to a "Gilmer-Aikin" type study which the 51st legislature rejected last spring.

Painter told a university faculty meeting yesterday that the need for a "central administrative machinery" was growing as Texas colleges faced declining enrollments and the prospect of reduced legislative appropriations.

AUSTIN, Oct. 12 (UP)—O. B. Ellis, general manager of Texas' prison system, conferred with Gov. Allan Shivers yesterday on measures to redamp an estimated $500,000 loss suffered in last week's hurricane.

Ellis said the loss was particularly hard on the system since it was looking toward its best crop year in history. He reported that the prison staff was taking "every possible step" to make up for losses of the past weeks.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 12 (UP)—Technical Sergeant Nicholas M. Sweden, 53, of Kelly Air Force Base, was killed last night when he was struck by a moving car on a downtown street.

Dallas Oil Men Lose Damage Suit

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 12 (UP)—Two Dallas oilmen have been assessed damages totaling $1,980,000 in federal court for business dealings involving the N-Enamel Corp. of New Jersey.

The suit, brought in the firm's name by James D. Colyer of New York, a former director of the corporation, charged C. L. Lloyd, former board chairman, and L. F. Pitts, a former director, "packed the board membership with persons favorable to their views."

It also alleged they "juggled, sold and rebought ownership of another company and profited from all transactions in which the corporation was interested."

Federal District Judge William H. Atwell fixed damages against Lloyd at $1,008,000 and $190,000 against Pitts. His opinion said in part:

"I find that Lloyd and Pitts secured certain options to purchase stock when the corporation stock was increased to $2,000,000.

Mrs. Frost Leader Of Program On India At WSCS Meeting Monday

Mrs. Herman Hassell presided over the business session of the Women's Society of Christian Service in their meeting Monday afternoon at the Church, in the absence of the president, Mrs. N. F. McCarney.

The meeting was opened with the song, "What a Friend We Have In Jesus" with Mrs. L. C. Brown at the piano. The "Lord's Prayer" was repeated in unison.

Police said the two men own a small plane which the officers said was used in get-aways from store robberies.

The Raders also are wanted for similar robberies in Bellflower, Nation City and San Diego, Calif.

Officers said the sheriff from Boswell, N. M., also was going to "hook" at the twins today. They are suspects in a store robbery there.

The twins live in Bellflower, Calif.

Wife Of Governor Of Hawaii Dies

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 12 (UP)—Mrs. Cecil Stainback, 55, wife of Hawaiian Territorial Gov. Ingram M. Stainback, died suddenly after a brain operation, doctors at Missouri Baptist Hospital said today.

Dr. Roland M. Klemme, famous brain surgeon, said Mrs. Stainback underwent an operation to remove a brain tumor yesterday afternoon. She failed to respond to post-operative treatment and died of "cardiac failure at 11:55 P. M. CST (12:55 A. M. EST.)"

Stainback was notified immediately and left Honolulu an hour later to fly here aboard a Pan-American airplane.

Mrs. Stainback came to the United States last June for the operation and stayed until last week with Mrs. Georgia McPheeters, one of her four sisters and brothers who live in Springfield, Mo.

She was admitted to the hospital Friday, officials said. Stainback said he was informed by Dr. Klemme on Monday that his wife's condition was "good" and it was unnecessary for him to come here. The governor had been prevented from accompanying her to the mainland because of government attempts to settle the critical CIO Longshoremen's strike which tied up Hawaiian docks. The strike was settled just last week.

BACH COMES TO LIFE—Lovers of organ music are turning their ears toward Fort Worth, where the finest concert pipe organ in the Southwest and one of the largest in the entire South will soon echo the masterpieces of J. S. Bach and the other classical composers in their original fiery brilliance of 200 years ago. Just installed in the new $1,500,000 Fine Arts Building and Auditorium at Texas Christian University, the great four-manual Moller organ has 5000 pipes, ranging from two inches to 32 feet in length. Its console, shown above, has 150 controls in addition to the four keyboards and the foot pedals. It will be heard for the first time in concert at 3:30 p. m. Sunday, when Gordon Young, eminent young American concert organist and newly-appointed TCU faculty member, will present a concert. Alexander McCurdy, of Philadelphia's Curtis Institute of Music, will play a concert at 8:15 p. m. Wednesday, Oct. 12. Dr. E. W. Doty of the University of Texas will close the series with a concert at 3:30 p. m. Sunday, Oct. 16. All three concerts will be free to the public.

Praises FHA For Care Of Soil

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 12 (UP)—Marvin Jones, ex-Texas congressman and now Chief Justice of the U. S. Court of Claims, said today that better care of the soil is one of the major benefits from the Farmers Home Administration program of financing small-scale individual farms.

"When a man owns a small tract of land that he calls his home," Jones said, "he naturally wants to preserve its fertility."

Jones was the principal speaker at the State Fair of Texas' Farmers Home Administration achievement day.

He noted that the nation's farm program for the past 20 years has been built around conservation of soil and water resources, and said:

"It is difficult to properly fashion a program when a majority of the people who are cultivating the soil are tenants and have only a transient interest in the conservation of the particular tract," and:

"This being true, the sense of trusteeship in the conservation and use of the soil is vital to the

Rayburn Given Irish Shillelagh

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (UP)—House Speaker Sam Rayburn today sported a fine new Irish shillelagh fit for cracking Democratic heads if the need should arise.

The shillelagh, cut from the black oaks of county Wicklow, Ireland, was presented to the doughty Texas yesterday in a sly Republican dig at Democratic discipline.

Rep. Daniel A. Reed, R. N. Y., took the floor shortly after the House met at noon and announced that he had been "alarmed" at the headlines he had seen on a recent trip to Europe.

"The headlines said that 'Speaker Rayburn has lost control of his (Democratic) side of the House,'" Reed said. "So I went to the village of Shillelagh, looked at the black oaks and had them make this."

With a sweeping motion, he reached under his coat and pulled out a mysterious-looking long paper bag. He unwrapped it to display a black, knobbed shillelagh which he handed to Rayburn.

"I asked the people of Shillelagh what it was used for," Reed announced. "They said it was to bash heads."

"I am giving it to the speaker to see if he can get control of his side of the house,"

Rayburn grinned, hefted the cudgel, and said:

"I've always thought that a Democratic speaker needed this more than a Republican speaker would. I'll at least threaten them
