With Eastland
By Bob Moore

When the flag is displayed tonight during halftime intermission at the Eastland-Hamilton game let's all remember to give the proper respect. Every person should stand while the colors pass. Gentlemen should remove hats and hold them against their hearts. This is something we have been lax about doing in recent games and we should be more careful in the way we treat Old Glory. It's a grand old flag. It's seen some pretty rough times. But it still unfurls as a symbol of priceless freedom. Yes sir, the Stars and Stripes are certainly worth a minute of our time and consideration.

"What is your name?" asked a teacher of a little boy on his first day at school.
"Johnny Dorsett, ma'am," he answered.
"How old are you, Johnny?"
"Seven, going on eight."
"I shall have to ask you to bring me a certificate of your age. When you go home ask your parents to write me a note telling me when and where you were born."
Next morning, when the children had assembled in the school-house, Johnny presented himself at the teacher's desk, flushed with triumph. The glow soon began to fade from his face, after feeling in all his pockets and failing to find the note his parents had written. Johnny began to cry.
"What is the matter?" asked the teacher.
"I've lost my excuse for being born," cried Johnny.

Some fellows are so lazy going to the dogs that they want the dogs to meet them half way.

It appears that Eastland is going to lose its headquarters detachment and one of the companies in the Reserve program here. This will leave our community with one Reserve company. Lack of interest seems to be the main reason. Not enough Eastland former servicemen have enlisted in the Reserves for payments while training, while neighboring cities have the interest. It's still not too late to keep the headquarters here, if the fellows will contact Capt. Gus Clemens. Could mean a nice payroll income for the city.

This column is appearing today with a "new look" for the heading. A more recent picture of this scribe is included with type arranged differently. Hope you like the new heading better. If not, we'll go back to using the other one.

Here and there: Eastland High School girls "hitting folks up" to buy tickets for the Breakfast in Hollywood Show, as the various clubs vie to see which will win the $25 cash prize for most sales. . . . Incidentally, "the show" will be at night and you'd better eat before you go as "breakfast" won't be served at that late hour. . . . Several local golf hot-shots can hardly wait until they try out their irons on the new Eastland Golf Course next spring—mainly Jimmie Harkrider, Everett Plowman and Neil Day. Blair Lewis, local man-about-town doing a grand job publicizing and promoting the Breakfast in Hollywood Show. Never saw anyone work so diligently at anything in my life. . . . Just mention project to some folks and they head for the nearest exit.

43 CANDIDATES VIE FOR EDUCATION POSTS TUES.

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 3. (UP)—A slate of 43 candidates, including a former state attorney general, will vie for 21 places on a new state board of education when voters go to the polls next Tuesday.
Actually, 44 persons were certified for the race.
However, on Oct. 18 Hulen N. Anderson of Conroe, a candidate from District 7, announced that he was withdrawing. His announcement followed formal certification by the secretary of state on Sept. 28. Legally, Anderson was a candidate.
The field of candidates includes Grover Sellers of Sulphur Springs, a former Texas attorney General, and a candidate from District 1, is running against 46-year-old Leon Coker of Naples.
Roy G. Baker of Sherman, 35-year-old former national president of the Young Democrats, is a candidate from District 4, opposing Paul Mathews, 45, of Greenville.
A former member of the University of Texas Board of Regents is represented in the District 21 race.

He is George D. Morgan, 55, of San Angelo. His opposition includes John T. Rowntree, 44, of Lampasas, and Gordon Griffin, 60 of Brownwood.
The 10th District race includes as a candidate Dr. P. E. Womack, a 58-year-old Austin negro minister.
Womack's bid for representing the 10th District is being contested by Paul Zolton, a 46-year-old Austin newsman and radio commentator, and Eugene Clyde Weaver, 36, of Caldwell.
Of the 21 Districts, Houston topped the list with four candidates. The District 8 contenders, all of Houston, were Jack Binion, 45, a former member of the outgoing state board of education; Virgil E. Arnold, 56; T. M.

Dead Man Speaks At Own Funeral

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 4 (UP)—"This is my funeral" said the voice of a dead man in a Denver mortuary.
The body of Oscar O. Whittenack, 49, lay motionless in the coffin, but his voice filled the room and rolled out over the small audience of friends.
The former Denver newspaperman had recorded his "rational funeral" address several months before his death. He asked that the record be played at his services.

The voice on the record departed from a funeral oration to attack "this theological nonsense."
"We are thousands of years behind in science and medicine because of clergy and religion," the voice said. "I am an atheist and have been for many years. . . .
"I have the utmost contempt for this theological nonsense. The Bible and religion have done nothing but spread the ignorance and impede the progress of the human race. . . .
Mortuary officials said the service, carefully planned by Whittenack before his death, was "most unusual."

Mystery Of Recovered Yearlings Solved By Sheriff J. B. Williams

The mystery of the three yearlings that Sheriff J. B. Williams recovered several weeks ago that hadn't been reported missing has been solved.
J. R. Castleberry of Ranger was charged in Justice of the Peace E. E. Wood's court Thursday, with cattle theft in connection with the three yearlings, and bond was set at $1,000. Castleberry is being held in the Eastland County Jail and will be bound over to the next session of the grand jury.
Investigation and news items in state papers revealed the cattle had been stolen from W. B. and W. H. Peterson of Terral, and

Big Reclamation Bureau Program Is Announced

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 4. (UP)—Reclamation Commissioner Michael W. Straus today announced a $387,000,000 (M) reclamation bureau construction program for next year—the largest in its history for any one year.
Straus, who made the announcement at the National Reclamation Association Convention here, also disclosed that for the first time the whole Missouri River basin has been set up as one project. That project, covering seven states, will get $95,980,854 in construction.
The biggest sum, however, will be put into the Columbia River basin drainage area. That four-state area—Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Western Montana—will get $115,702,360 in construction.
The over-all construction program covers 63 projects and divisions. It includes work on 35 storage dams, nine power plants and more than 200 miles of canals.
On a state-by-state basis, Washington will get the biggest allotment—$80,219,841. Of this amount, $79,148,757 will be spent on the Columbia river project. The other $1,071,084 is for the Yakima project.
California, with its huge Central Valley project, gets the second largest share—$74,727,417 for various projects. Arizona gets $51,008,709 and Montana $37,553,605.
Other state allotments include: Colorado, $35,952,051; New Mexico, $2,143,931; Oklahoma, $408,911 and Texas, $83,000.
The Texas allotment is to be spent for closing down the valley gravity project and disposing of equipment.

More Donations To Breakfast Show

Additional donations of prizes by citizens and businessmen to the Breakfast in Hollywood show to be held Tuesday night in the high school gymnasium have been received from Osborne Motor Company and Dick (Tip Top) Jones, Blair Lewis, publicity director, announced.
Due to a typographical error, the name of Joe Moylan, Texas Mattress Company, appeared incorrectly in Thursday's Telegram.

Steel Company OKs New Plant

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 4 (UP)—Directors of the Lone Star Steel Company today authorized the construction of a $1,000,000 (M) cast iron pressure pipe plant at Lone Star.
The plant is to be completed and put in operation in six months.
The directors also ordered the sale of 592,185 shares of common stock. These shares, authorized previously, will be offered first to present stockholders and then to the public.
The cast iron pipe plant will supply what lone star called a "rapidly expanding market" in Texas. At present, no cast iron pipe is being made in the state. The plant will make use of a major part of the company's pig iron production.
Lone Star's blast furnace, banked last August, will be placed back in operation within ten days to enable the company to supply current orders for pig iron.

Janiel Patterson Ill In Hospital

Janiel Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Patterson, 805 South Daughtery Street, and student in Eastland High School, was admitted to Ranger General Hospital Thursday.
Miss Patterson, who is sweetheart of the Eastland Rotary Club had been ill for several days, suffering from a kidney disorder.

Waurika, Okla.

Before the owners had been found, Sheriff Williams, after feeding and keeping the animals in his backyard for several weeks, released them to an auction barn at Ranger. After identity of owners was learned, it was necessary to stage a roundup. One of the yearlings was sold to a rancher who resides 25 miles northeast of Seymour, another 15 miles northeast of Throckmorton, and the third was at the Fort Worth stock yards.
Assisting Sheriff Williams in the investigation was Texas Ranger Johnny Cope.

BIG THREE MINISTERS TO MEET NEXT WEEK

By Richard S. Clark
LONDON, Nov. 4 (UP)—The American, British and French Foreign ministers will meet in Paris next week to discuss means of bolstering the west German government and retarding the sweep of Communism in Asia.
The foreign office announced plans for the Big Three conference today. A spokesman said Germany would be the main problem for consideration, but acknowledged that other matters were likely to come up.
Informed sources said the question of recognizing Communist China would figure in the talks, expected to start Wednesday.
Diplomatic quarters reported that the ministers—Dean Acheson of the United States, Ernest Bevin of Britain and Robert Schuman of France—would exchange views on recognition of Communist China as part of a general study of the Far East.
On Germany, the big three faced the task of belaboring the prestige of the West German government at Bonn against its new rival for the allegiance of the German people, the Soviet-sponsored east German government.
Informed sources believed the upshot of the meeting would be an agreement to abandon, or at least modify, the program for the dismantling of industrial plants in Germany. The program has aroused considerable antagonism toward the west.
Response sources indicated the conference was likely to last a week, although it was understood to be scheduled tentatively for four or five days.

ABOARD PRESIDENTIAL SPECIAL EN ROUTE TO WASHINGTON, Nov. 4 (UP)—President Truman arose at dawn today to be greeted by bigwig Illinois Democrats but Chicago's mayor failed to show up, strengthening reports of a party rift in the Pivotal Prairie State.
The president was traveling back to Washington after making a speech last night at St. Paul, Minn., that drew the Democratic battle lines for the 1950 congressional elections.
He arose at 5:30 A. M. so that he could meet with Illinois Democrats he had invited to board the train and confer with him when it pulled in at 6:05 A. M.
The party chieftains who boarded the train were Sen. Paul Douglas, D., Ill.; Cook County (Chicago) Chairman Jacob Arvey; State Democratic Chairman George Kells; and Former Mayor Edward J. Kelly who still wields power as a national committeeman.
Reporters were impressed, however, by the fact that Chicago's present Mayor Martin Kennelly failed to appear to greet the President.
There have been reports that Kennelly, elected on a reform ticket that promised to clean up alleged mispractices by the old Kelly-Avery machine, was planning to support Chicago Corporation Counsel Benjamin Adamowski for U. S. Senator next year in opposition to the party's current floor leader, Sen. Scott Lucas of Illinois.
Reporters' interest in Kennelly's absence quickened further when Arvey said that during a half-hour's conversation, the president had asked him what chance Lucas has for reelection.
"I told him Lucas' chances were very good," Arvey said.
Arvey said Mr. Truman did not appear to be worried about Lucas' prospects but merely was expressing "presidential interest" in an important state's political situation.
Arvey said that most of their conversation was "just friendly banter."
Asked why Kennelly had not appeared, Arvey said he thought the mayor "had a very busy night and probably slept late."
In his speech before more than 12,000 persons at St. Paul last night, Mr. Truman invited the nation's voters to follow up his 1948 election victory by throwing "reactionaries" of both parties out of Congress.

GIVES BAYLOR EDGE IN SATURDAY'S GRID TEST

By ED FITE
United Press Sports Writer

Baylor's rampaging Bears run into their first Big Southwest Conference hurdle tomorrow - a scrapping Texas Longhorn eleven which has missed victory only by inches the last two weekends.

But the Bears, who haven't won a conference championship in a quarter of a century, view this year as their chance to make amends for the last 25 years.

And a lot depends on tomorrow's tussle with the Longhorns, the top attraction of an all-conference weekend card in the Southwest and the only one of more than a score of major games across the nation that the shrewd New York odds-makers are rating a toss-up.

In other weekend conference battles, Southern Methodist was rated an 18-point favorite over Texas A&M and Rice a 14-12 point favorite over Arkansas. Texas Christian will be idle.

Even if Coach Bob Woodruff's ambitious Bruins get by the ripe-for-a-win Longhorns at Austin tomorrow, they won't be able to let down for the remainder of their schedule.

Next week they meet Wyoming in a game scheduled as a "breather." But Wyoming hasn't been defeated this season. Then they face Southern Methodist, and after that comes Rice, the team which now shares the conference lead with Baylor.

There appeared to be little choice between the Bears and the Longhorns. But against their only mutual conference opponent Arkansas-Baylor's margin of victory was better by a touchdown, Baylor won, 35-14, from Arkansas. Texas got a 27-13 victory over the same team.

Still, if Baylor's superb passer, Adrian Burk, fares as well against Texas' Paul Campbell as he did against TCU's Lindy Berry last week, Baylor could take this one in stride.

Much of the story was expected to be told in the line, where Baylor may rate a slight edge on the basis of more experience and harder charging—as marked the Bruin line's performance against TCU running and passing last week.

Although Rice and SMU were the heavy favorites over the Parkers and Aggies, they cannot afford to take the opposition too lightly, for both Arkansas and A&M could have one of their better days. In that case neither would be a push-over for anybody.

Neither favorite was at top strength, with first-line stars on the injured list. But SMU was expected to have Doak Walker back in near his usual form after a bout with the flu.

3 Big Games Will Be Aired By Humble Oil

Three important decisions in the 1949 Southwest Conference race will be reported to listeners this weekend on Humble Oil & Refining Company's football broadcasts.

Three Conference rivalries will be renewed—Texas-Baylor, SMU-A&M, and Rice-Arkansas—each noted for its upsets or near-upsets in recent years. The seventh league member, TCU, is idle Saturday.

The Texas-Baylor game, from Austin's Memorial Stadium, will be broadcast starting at 1:50 P.M. by Kern Tips and Alec Chesser. The game will be heard over stations KTRH, Houston; KRLD, Dallas; KABC, San Antonio; KVBC, Austin; KWTX, Waco; KVVU, Corpus Christi; KRIO, McAllen; KPET, Lamesa; KRIG, Odessa; KIUN, Pecos; KVKM, Monahan; KVIF, Alpine and KELP, El Paso.

From Kyle Field, at College Station, Ves Box and Jerry Doggett will describe the Texas A&M-SMU game, beginning at 1:50 P. M. over stations WFAA-WBAP-820, Dallas-Ft. Worth; KPRC, Houston; WOAI, San Antonio; KRIS, Corpus Christi; KVAL, Brownsville; KURV, Edinburg; KGNC, Amarillo; and WTAW, College Station.

The day's third game, Arkansas-Rice, at Houston, will be reported by Charlie Jordan and Fred Kincaid. Broadcast time is 2:20 P. M. over stations KXYZ, Houston; KFSA, San Antonio; WBAP-WFAA-570, Ft. Worth-Dallas; KEYS, Corpus Christi; KRGV,

Bell Denounces Criticism Of Game Officials

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 4 (UP)—Southern Methodist football coach Matty Bell took a potshot today at sportswriters and fans who have been critical of officiating on southwestern gridirons this fall.

Continued "unjustified" criticism of the men in the striped shirts and white pants, said Bell, will result in the loss of some "capable" whistle-tooters.

As much as he feared that, Bell said, he also resented insinuations and statements that "because of the officials" opposing teams have trouble licking his own Mustangs in the Cotton Bowl.

His statement recalled that there were loud protests about the quality of the officiating after SMU licked Texas and Kentucky in "the Dallas saucer," and after his Mustangs were, in turn, licked by Rice.

Decisions of the officials, Bell allowed, "didn't have any more to do with our victories over Texas and Kentucky than they did with our loss to Rice."

"Officials have to make countless decisions in a game and may be some of the decisions are errors in judgment," Bell declared. "But a study of the movies of those three games will show that these errors have hurt the Mustangs just as much as they have our opponents . . ."

"I deeply resent statements that because of the officials it is difficult to beat SMU in the Cotton Bowl," Bell said. "Fans in the stands are not in a position to check fouls that are called on the field."

He observed that football "is supposed to be dominated by the

San Antonio Sales Boosted

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 4 (UP)—San Antonio department store customers went on a buying spree during the week ended Oct. 29 and pushed sales 46 per cent higher than for the corresponding week a year ago, the Federal Reserve Bank reported today.

Its weekly report on department store sales in the state's four largest cities said the district average was a six per cent plus—the first noticeable increase in several weeks.

Fort Worth had a two per cent gain for the week, Houston a minus four and Dallas a minus one.

The players have set a fine example in this respect, and unless others officially associated with the sport show the same spirit, the future of football is dark indeed."

Sales for the four weeks in the four major cities averaged five per cent below the corresponding period in 1948 but San Antonio had a 10 per cent increase. Houston sales were up 14 per cent for the four weeks; Dallas down seven per cent and Fort Worth six per cent off.

The survey covered 19 department stores in the four cities.

Tough Life for Bees

LINCOLN, Neb. (UP)—Bees in Nebraska have had a hard year of it. State-federal agricultural statisticians said the unusually severe winter resulted in a loss of 52 per cent of the colonies on hand last fall. The bees could not leave the hives for water and many starved.

One Way to Cash In

WARWICK, R. I. (UP)—When the town council opened bids to rebuild a five-ton bridge which was wrecked when a 15-ton truck fell through it, the low bidder turned out to be the company that owned the truck.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

Someone to Love

By IRENE LONNEN ERNHART Copyright, 1949, NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Finances, inhospitable in-laws, no place to live and Tod's "carrying the torch" for Jane Connor, contrive to make Jenny's marriage unhappy with Tod. Jenny becomes the mother of twins. Tod graduates from college and they are invited to live in the guest cottage of an old friend, Rick Morris, until Tod finds a place in the city. Tod is sullen, suspecting that Rick is in love with Jenny. Even Jenny's friend, Nina Cushman, advises against this move, but Jenny likes the place. Tod's mood grows more disagreeable as he is unable to adjust himself to commencing Jenny accuses him of grumbling.

XX

"Oh, so I grumble!" Tod said bitterly. "Who wouldn't I grieve to that hot office all day and then drag home on that jolting old bus in the heat, breathing carbon monoxide fumes all the way, eat dinner, go to bed, get up and do the same thing all over again the next day."

"But, darling, we'll find some place to live in Capitol City soon. Meanwhile, why don't we try to be contented here?"

"Why shouldn't you be contented?" he exclaimed. "You sit here in the cool cottage, nap when the twins do, go for a swim with Rick—"

"If that's the sore point, I can tell Rick that you—"

"That's not the sore point!" he snapped. He pushed away from the table. The screen door banged after him.

Jenny got up and stood in the doorway, watching him stride down the driveway and then off across the park. Every time they quarreled he went off like this and after a while he'd come back and everything would be patched up.

However, when Tod returned on this evening an hour or so later, he was still sullen. He came into the cottage and flung himself down in a chair and lit a cigarette before he spoke to her.

IN HOT SPOT

With the current situation in Europe, the U. S. ambassador to Yugoslavia holds one of the most critical posts in diplomacy. Chosen for this job is George V. Allen, above, assistant secretary of state for public affairs. A career diplomat who was ambassador to Iran in 1946, Allen will watch out for American interests in the struggle between the Kremlin and Marshal Tito.

Saturday morning and borrowed Rick's car to drive up to Capitol City, resolved to rent the first place she found that she could live in.

It turned out to be a basement apartment on a shabby side of town. It smelled a trifle musty, but on the south there was a row of windows.

There was a fireplace, too, wonderful for cold winter evenings and dismal afternoons. Aside from those two advantages, however, there was little to be said for the apartment. The kitchenette, a converted closet, was dark and damp and smelled of mice and roaches. The tiny bedroom's window opened on an alley. And the rent was far too much, $65.

A basement would be damp, Jenny mused, and probably not too good for the twins, but she could take them for long walks in the sun to make up for it. She'd have to keep them off the floor, but it wouldn't be long until they'd be out of the crawling stages anyway.

ONCE she'd made up her mind to take it, she felt elated. Tod was surprised when she phoned him. "But Jenny, whatever made you take it into your head to drive up and look for a place yourself?"

"When you said you weren't coming home this week-end, I couldn't stand it," Jenny answered. "I felt that any place, no matter how shabby or inconvenient it was, would be better than our being apart. I hope you like it. It's not bad, really!" Her voice grew hoarse with excitement, her weariness over the long day's search gone now completely. "It even has a fireplace."

"That's wonderful, Jenny."

"It's not in a very nice part of town, but—"

"Well that doesn't matter too much. After all it's just temporary."

"Yes—just temporary."

"I'll see about renting a truck to move our things up Monday."

Preventative For Cold Rumored

By Ruth Gmeiner
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Nov. 4 (UP)—Science has not yet developed a cure for the common cold. But it may have turned up a drug that will stop a cold before it has a chance to get started.
There is, however, a sharp difference of opinion among medical authorities even as to the preventive value of the drug, which actually is a family of drugs known as anti-histamines. Some are enthusiastic; others gloomily skeptical.

New 1950 Studebaker passenger cars await shipment from a lot near the main plant in South Bend. In response to an unprecedented demand, the automobiles are being transported by rail and haul-away as rapidly as possible. For the month of September the company attained new peaks in both production and sales. At the end of the first week in October, Studebaker's domestic dealers in 1949 had delivered at retail a greater number of passenger cars and trucks than in the full year 1948, best year in the company's history.

If the enthusiasts can prove their case, the drugs may put a helpful dent in the nation's cold bill which annually runs $1,000,000,000 (B) to $3,000,000,000 (M) and costs 100,000,000 (M) work days.
"Startling" success is reported from recent experiments conducted in prisons, a university, factories, a convent and with navy personnel.

These tests showed that, if the anti-histamine drugs were taken within a few hours after the first sniffle, colds did not develop in from 75 to 90 per cent of the cases.

Taken later, experimenters said, there were indications that anti-histamine can markedly shorten the length of colds and eliminate later complications. They said the only apparent undesirable effect was that the drugs made some patients drowsy.

Harlem Police Are Reinforced

NEW YORK, Nov. 4 (UP)—Police Commissioner William F. O'Brien sent 350 additional police to Harlem today to prevent an other outbreak of violence like that which followed a "victory" rally last night by pro-Communists celebrating the release of 11 Communist leaders in bail.

Six policemen were injured in the disorders and six men were jailed.
O'Brien ordered 135 extra patrolmen, mounted policemen and detectives to the S. A. M. to 4 P. M. tour and an additional 225 policemen to the 4 P. M. to midnight detail in the district.

He did not disclose how long the order would remain in effect.
Last night's outbreak followed a parade for Benjamin Davis, Jr. one of the 11 members of the American Communist party politburo

Bricks, flower pots and bottles poured down on the officers from the upper stories of tenement houses along Lennox Avenue when they tried to control the surging throng, egged on by sound trucks blaring: "We shall not be moved by these blue-coated fascists."

PONTIAC, Mich (UP)—Accused of stealing a Gulf gasoline station attendant's shirt, Earl Mackey pleaded innocent before Justice Donald E. Adams. Adams looked at Mackey, who was wearing a shirt with a big sign "Gulf" on it and said, "Are you sure you plead innocent?" Mackey, red-faced, said, "I just wanted to give your honor a hard time."

MILLIONAIRE TO SPURN ALL REQUESTS FOR MONEY

FORT WORTH, Tex. Nov. 4 (UP)—"Dear Sir:
"Would you be so kind as to let me have five-million.
"Yours very truly . . ."

Such have been the tenor of more than 700 letters received by Judge George Armstrong, Fort Worth and Natchez, Miss., capitalist who captured the nation's attention a few days ago with his conditional endowment offer to Jefferson Military Academy.

The 84-year old Armstrong, whose personal fortune has been estimated by oil men "conservatively" at $50,000,000 (M), has been receiving mail by the pound ever since.

His endowment offer, first accepted by the school and later rejected, was contingent upon the college barring any person of "African or Asiatic" descent.

All the mail he has since received—from all parts of the country—has been of a "touching" nature, the sharp-eyed judge said. One was in German from a doctor in Forest Hills, N. Y. Armstrong was unable to read it, so he scrawled across its face: "Translate."

All the others were in English and straight to the point.

A widow wrote for herself and two grown sons: "please send us $1,000,000. This would enable my sons to go into business for themselves and have their own homes. We would be the three happiest people in the world."

"Please send me $100,000 to buy a bowling alley. I know the business well," pleaded another.

The writer of still another letter wanted $300,000 for a milk farm. A Massachusetts man wanted to learn first if Armstrong's racial prejudices included persons of "celtic" origin, before he asked for money. He was "descended from Highland Scotch blood," he wrote.

Eight colleges scattered throughout the nation have appealed to Armstrong for money. His officials of all declaring they were willing to meet the judge's conditions in return for grants.

Hospitals have asked for endowments, requests have come from persons wanting backing for television shows, and publication of songs and poems. One writer, wanting to make sure his letter reached the right Armstrong, placed in parenthesis on the address: "The rich Mr. Armstrong". None of the letter writer will get a penny, Armstrong said.

NEW YORK: (NEA) One of France's biggest dressmakers has arrived in the U. S. to buy American fashions, putting a reverse twist on the traditional idea that France dictates fashion to the rest of the world. He is Molyneux, dressmaker to Britain's Princess Margaret. He is enroute to California to buy 25 models of "America's best sports, play and resort clothes to take home and copy. Molyneux said in New York: "I'm looking for typically American play clothes, not influenced by Paris. The U. S. makes the best play clothes in the world." The models Molyneux will buy will be ready-to-wear items. He will "copy up" these designs into custom clothes for his well-heeled customers. He admitted this was a new twist to the Americans coming to Paris to "copy down" designs of the Haute Couture for American budget buyers. Here are two California fashions typical of those Molyneux, inset will examine. (NEA Telephone)

Biggest-Capacity Combine on Wheels

RACINE, WIS.—Easier harvesting in the nation's vast grain belt will be experienced next year with this newest and biggest capacity combine on wheels. Developed by Massey-Harris company engineers, who produced the first really successful Self Propelled combine 11 years ago, the machine has a 16-foot table, Balanced Separation and a variety of operating conveniences. Welcome news to the big wheat farmers is that it can harvest up to 70 acres per day. For the smaller farmer is another new model, with a 12-foot table and capable of harvesting 50 acres per day.

Balanced Separation means perfect control of grain and straw in the cutting, elevating, feeding and thorough threshing, result of which is shown.

Proper weight distribution on all four wheels assures better traction in soft ground conditions. The larger wheels make for easier riding and the new design eliminates excess weight while providing greater clearance.

Easy-to-open panels provide for convenient inspection and adjustment. It is the easiest of all combines to operate.

A high and low gear with 12 speed variations on each, provides the widest practical variety of operation needs—with instant changing to meet varying conditions.

Lays Killing To Mafia Society

HOUSTON, Tex. Nov. 4 (UP)—The dread Mafia Society, an organization that sponsors "hired" killers, was responsible for the death of restaurateur Vincent Vallone, Sheriff C. V. (Buster) Kern charged today in announcing that he had arrested the ring leader.

Peter M. Duca, chubby, mild-mannered Galveston businessman, was arrested Wednesday afternoon in a Dallas railroad station.

The 55 year old man was taken out of Texas today by plane, headed for Harrisburg, Pa., where he will face charges as a parole violator.

It was this smiling, bespectacled man who planned the shotgun slaying of Vallone last July 15. Sheriff Kern charged, claiming that numerous other Mafia killings and crimes were contemplated in Texas.

The arrest was made only after thorough investigation by the Sheriff's Department. Kern revealed that Gov. Allan Shivers and State Public Safety Director Homer Garrison both had agreed to the move, and that the Pennsylvania parole board had also been consulted.

Diego Carlinio and Louis J. Marino, Houston grocers, have been charged with the gangster-style killing of Vallone, whose body was found in his car on a lonely road leading to his suburban mansion.

"Strong links" have been established between Duca, Carlinio and Marino, the sheriff stated.

"We tailed Carlinio and Marino constantly between the time of Vallone's murder and their arrest," he said. "Duca visited both of them in Houston several times."

It was this smiling, bespectacled man who planned the shotgun slaying of Vallone last July 15. Sheriff Kern charged, claiming that numerous other Mafia killings and crimes were contemplated in Texas.

The arrest was made only after thorough investigation by the Sheriff's Department. Kern revealed that Gov. Allan Shivers and State Public Safety Director Homer Garrison both had agreed to the move, and that the Pennsylvania parole board had also been consulted.

Diego Carlinio and Louis J. Marino, Houston grocers, have been charged with the gangster-style killing of Vallone, whose body was found in his car on a lonely road leading to his suburban mansion.

"Strong links" have been established between Duca, Carlinio and Marino, the sheriff stated.

"We tailed Carlinio and Marino constantly between the time of Vallone's murder and their arrest," he said. "Duca visited both of them in Houston several times."

FOUR MILITARY PLANE CRASHES KILL 126 MEN

By United Press
The crashes of four military planes raised to 126 today the death toll in major air disasters throughout the world in the past seven days—one of the worst weeks in the history of peacetime aviation.

A U. S. Air Force B-29 Superfortress crashed and burned in the sea off Kindley Field, Bermuda, last night, killing 19 airmen and injuring three other crew members.

The plane developed engine trouble on a weather mission, authorities said, and smashed into the water 300 yards off shore. Several thousand gallons of gasoline in the plane's tanks exploded and flames shot 100 feet into the air.

At London, the Royal Airforce said nine British fliers were believed killed in the collision of a Lincoln bomber and a mosquito fighter plane over the English Channel near the Isle of Wight. The luxury liner Queen Mary was near the area and the vessel's captain said he thought an oil tanker was on fire when he saw the flames from the burning wreckage. A Swedish ship found the wreckage of the two planes and said there was no sign of survivors among the seven-man bomber crew and the two-man crew of the fighter.

At Toulouse, France, a French Navy Sunderland flying boat crashed on a takeoff yesterday, killing four fliers and injuring 11 others.

Fifty-five persons died Tuesday when a Bolivian P-38 dived into an Eastern Airlines DC-4 over National Airport at Washington, D. C., and 48 transatlantic passengers and crewmen were killed aboard an Air France Constellation which crashed on an Azores mountain last Friday.

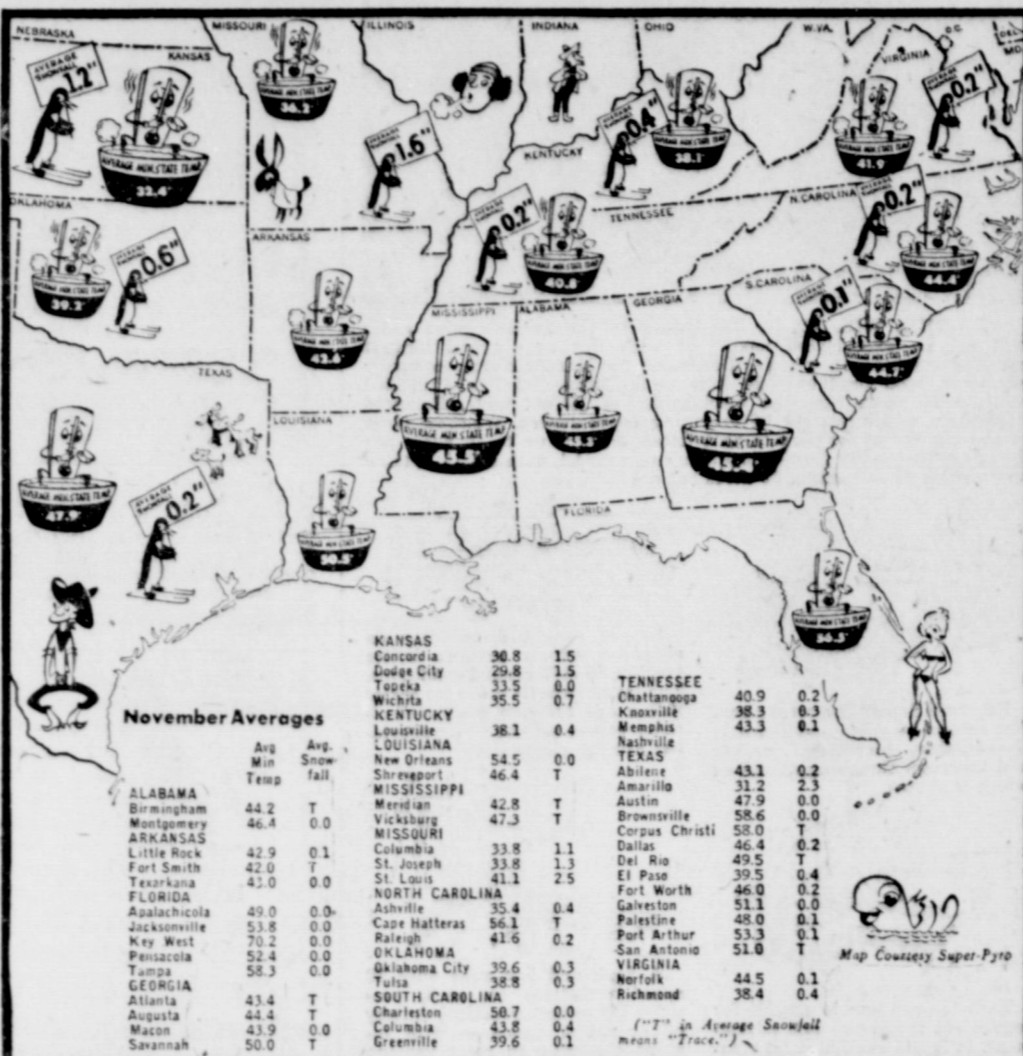

Dead Mother Clasp Her Sleeping Child

HERFORD, Tex., Nov. 4 (UP)—Mrs. Lindsay Shields' one-year-old daughter was asleep in her arms yesterday when neighbors found the young mother dead in a pasture.

Evidence indicated Mrs. Shields, 29, was suddenly stricken while feeding the child in the kitchen of her farm home four miles north of Black Community.

An unfinished note was found on the kitchen table. "I am ill. Am going to . . ." it said.

November's Weather Record for Texas

Forecasting by averaging the weather of the past is the aim of this Weather Record Map. Based on records of the U. S. Weather Bureau, some of which cover periods of 50 years and more, this Weather Record for November shows the average minimum temperatures and average snowfall for a number of states. November, as a study of the map shows, brings the sharp bite of freezing weather in many areas. It is the time to look to the furnace, to refurbish winter wardrobes and to put your car in shape for winter months. When temperatures average as low as shown, you can bet your boots that there will be many days below freezing. So November is the time to be super-safe by loading up with antifreeze.
