Secret Sessions To Avoid Coal Strike Revealed

Considerable discussion, both orally and in print, is being made concerning the outcome of Ranger-Ballinger bi-district football game, in which Ballinger wor statement. Why wouldn't it be fair. Ballinger didn't have an outside chance to win, if they hadn't had five downs, while Ranger had the ball game won on the other hand.

It so happens this scribe attended Howard Payne College at Howard Payne College at Brownwood with Coach Waymon Wilson of the Ballinger Bearcats. Waymon is a fine sport, a Christian gentleman and as fine an athlete as they make them. But, despite the fact Waymon is all this, he could hardly voluntarily forfeit the game because of rabid fans in his hometown who would be after

The whole affair is regrettable Yes, regrettable, in the fact that this area does not have better trained and more capable officials than it has. This isn't the first me this season that poor officiating has been observed. Looks like an officials' school next summer would be a fine thing for the area. While we don't believe any man would intentionally call a game wrong, the many rules and new ones being added all along, make officiating of a football game one of the most complicated and difficult tasks imaginable.

Elbow grease always comes in cans-not cant's.
