Men Retreat—

lines at all costs.
"This time, most observers believe, the United Nations forces have a reasonable chance of holding and turning into the first stages of victory the retreat which has carried them toward a southeast Korea Dunkerque," a dispatch from 8th Army headquarters said.
The defending infantrymen still were thinly spread along the broad, shallow twisting Naktong river and the rice paddies that stretch below it to the south coast. But for the first time they have strong enough reserves to deal with any breakthrough the Communists attempt.
The American and South Korean forces are now nearly a numerical match for the 90,000-man North Korean Red army, the 8th Army headquarters dispatch said.
The biggest Communist threat seemed to be building on the South coast plains, which stretch 20 miles south to the sea from the point where the Naktong swings east toward Pusan.
There are no natural defense barriers there, and the Reds were reported throwing in all their reserves to bolster their sixth division's assault against the U. S. 24th division line.
Swarms of Allied planes came to the aid of the Americans all along the front. They knocked out several enemy tanks around Chinju and burned every enemy village they could find along the front from Kumchon in the north to Chinju in the south.
The Reds have been using the mud-thatched huts of South Korean villages to hide tanks, vehicles and troop concentrations.
American and South Korean Republic engineers blew up all bridges across the Naktong, last important defense barrier before Taegu and Pusan, except those bridges at Waegwan. These were left intact temporarily to enable supplies to reach 1st Cavalry division troops still holding forward positions on the west bank below Kumchon.
Waegwan lies astride the main supply highway and railway running northwest from Taegu and Pusan. It is 18 miles northwest of Taegu and 18 miles southeast of Kumchon, which the 1st cavalry division abandoned yesterday after burning it to the ground.

B-29 Raid Hits Chemical Plant Very Hard Lick

TOKYO, Aug. 3 (UP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters said Wednesday a B-29 raid Tuesday on the Konan chemical plant—largest in the Far East—wiped out at least 20 per cent of the main factory building.
Photographs taken during the raid showed that 40 per cent of the plant at Konan, on the North Korean East coast, was damaged, a headquarters release said.
The plant, which also produces light metals, is "a principal manufacturer of critical war material used by the North Korean forces," the release said.
Its size is indicated by the fact that its facilities include a complete harbor and a dock that can accommodate ocean-going vessels.

Superforts raided another portion of the same works last Sunday, claiming destruction of 85 per cent of their specific target area.

F-82 Twin Mustangs, F-80 Jet Shooting Stars, and F-51 Mustangs attacked North Korean forces at Chinju again today, inflicting "considerable damage" on supplies, ammunition and motor vehicles, it was announced.

First Lt. George B. Boughton of Gardner, Kansas, said Chinju was on fire when his group of F-82's left it.

First Lt. William G. Hudson, of Selma, Alabama, said, "I used rockets on a tank two miles east of Chinju and I don't believe that tank will ever run again."
The Fifth Air Force has been reinforced by Mustang fighter planes from the United States.

The Association of American railroads has opened a $1,000,000 research laboratory at the Illinois Institute of Technology.

TEXAS NEWS BRIEFS

By United Press

FORT WORTH, Aug. 3 (UP)—Conrad Vernon, Jr., 30-year-old manager of radio station KTFY at Brownfield died yesterday in a Fort Worth hospital of Polio.
Vernon, a civic leader, was president of the Brownfield chamber of commerce.
He was stricken at Longview while visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Vernon, Sr., and was flown to Fort Worth Monday for treatment.

HOUSTON, Aug. 3 (UP)—A precedent was established here yesterday when the Harris county grand jury accepted blood tests as evidence of intoxication.

Two men, who submitted to blood tests shortly after their arrest were indicted on charges of driving while intoxicated.

State highway patrolmen said the men voluntarily took the blood tests.

TEXARKANA, Aug. 3 (UP)—The huge Red River arsenal began preparing its ordnance unit training center today for "several hundred troops."

The exact number of ordnance men to be trained is not known, an arsenal spokesman said, but the center will be ready to receive them in the "latter part of this month." He added that immediate steps were being taken to renovate and repair buildings.

AUSTIN, Texas (UP)—Injuries took their toll today among members of North-South all-star football squads and caused a whole sale shakeup of the "Yankee" lineup as the two teams geared for Friday night's clash.

Two Northerners—fullback Bud Rollins of Wink and guard Richard Martin of Jackboro—were lost to coach Bud Wilkinson's squad, a third suffered a slight injury, and a South all-star lineman was hobbled with a pulled thigh muscle.

Rollins suffered two fractured vertebrae and Martin went out with a fractured thumb.

The injuries resulted from full scale scrimmage yesterday when the two teams cracked down on preparations for their Friday night meeting in Austin's House Park, climaxing the 18th annual clinic of the Texas High School Coaches Association.

Tackle Jack Archibald of Highland Park, Dallas, was limping from a turned ankle, but was expected to be ready for starting duties with the North squad.

The only casualty in the South camp, guided by Michigan State

College's Clarence "Biggie" Munn was end James Gist from Marshall, who suffered a pulled thigh muscle.

Russia Avoids UN Military

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Aug 3 (UP)—Russia failed to assume the chairmanship of the United Nations military staff committee today, indicating that the Kremlin has decided to continue a partial boycott of the world organization.

SOVIET MAJ. GEN. IVAN A. Skilarov was scheduled to take over the chairmanship of the military committee for August under the monthly rotation system. Col. M. I. Maximov of the Soviet Air Force, was slated to become the principal secretary.

BUT NEITHER SHOWED UP as the committee met in secret at the UN's New York office in a building at the site of the new headquarters in Manhattan. This was taken as an indication that Russian Premier Joseph Stalin and his politburo have decided the Soviet boycott of the UN is to be ended only in the Security council, to which Russia's chief delegate, Jacob A. Malik, returned Tuesday and assumed its chairmanship.

TO ALL PULLMAN'S CUSTOMERS

The Korean situation has set off a tidal wave of buying, and supply has not kept pace with this increased demand. Our own situation is that all major appliances now are to be allotted to us.

Because of this allocation, we are not able in all cases to supply our customers with the appliances they want when they want them. In fact, we have accepted orders for some major appliances which we are unable to deliver at this time.

We can and will sell the appliances which we still have left on our floor, even our demonstrators, but we can not guarantee prompt delivery of any appliance which we do not have in stock.

In view of the prevailing situation, and the seriousness of the outlook, we have no alternative than to take orders from our customers, and to deliver appliances to these customers as we receive our allocations. In all fairness, these deliveries will be made on a first ordered, first delivered basis.

Therefore, we want to urge those of our customers who are interested in appliances to come down to Pullman's soon. We still have a fairly large stock of some kinds of appliances, and some will be able to find what they need on our floor. To the others, we want to say that we will fill their orders as soon as possible.

We also want our customers to know that we will not raise our prices, unless they are raised to us. And as always, we will have the easiest credit terms in town.

PULLMAN'S

Let's Keep The Record Straight

When I served the people of Precinct No. One as County Commissioner, I took office with a deficit of $19,667.18 in warrants charged against the Road and Bridge fund allotted to the precinct.

During the first two years of my tenure of office I was able to pay off the major portion of this deficit, but due to the added expense of sponsoring the relief program during the depression years and the small amount of revenue allotted to the road and bridge fund during those years, I was unable to liquidate the entire deficit and build the many needed roads and keep them in good condition.

In addition I was compelled to buy new machinery which was turned over to the present incumbent free of debt and with a reasonable value of $12,000.00. With this machinery I completed 139 miles of graded and graveled roads, installing 245 permanent stone and concrete drainage structures on roads in precinct No. 1.

During my administration commitments were made with the State Highway Department, under the State Farm to Market road program for approximately 23 miles of surfaced roads in this precinct, out of a total of approximately 28 miles allotted to the entire county. Owing to the fact most of the right of way had been secured, the road beds graded and drainage structures installed, I was able to secure the major portion of the allotment for the county. Most of these roads have been completed, and for which my opponent seems to take credit, but during the present administration when it seemed that the Farm to Market road north of Ranger to the County line had been lost, I made a trip to Austin in company with Ranger citizens and Stephens County officials and was able to get the project re-instated and the road is now completed. But since my administration no further commitments have been made for Farm to Market roads in this precinct.

Considering my opponents statement that he had bought new machinery and had a cash balance of more than $15,000.00, he did not state that he still owed $7,940.00 on the machinery. The more than $25,000.00 earned with the machinery was of a commercial nature in direct competition with private citizens engaged in the same line of work, underbidding them on many of the projects, while this commercial work was being done the graded and graveled roads of the precinct were deteriorating.

During the years I served as your Commissioner, the available funds for road work in the precinct averaged between $16,000.00 and $18,000.00 each year. During the incumbency of the present Commissioner the available funds average between $30,000.00 and $35,000.00. Had I had an equal amount of funds with which to build roads, this precinct would have had the best road system in the county.

I solicit your vote in the coming Primary Election on the basis of experience and ability.

Dillinger Gets Most Optimistic Player Label; Just Low Man On Big League Baseball Totem Pole

NEW YORK, Aug. 3 (UP) Bob Dillinger must be rated today as baseball's most optimistic player. He thinks it's a break being sold by the last place Athletics to the last place Pittsburgh Pirates.

"Maybe it does sound funny," the 31-year-old third baseman chuckled, "but that's the way I feel about it. Pittsburgh is a good baseball town and the Pirates draw much better than the Athletics have been drawing. And you feel more like playing when you know more people are watching."

Dillinger, a better-than-average major league player, shrugs off his apparent destiny to remain with bottom division clubs. The three-time stolen base champion of the American league started out with the low St. Louis Browns and looked for a good year with the A's this season.

"The A's pitchers always gave me plenty of trouble," he exulted when he was sold to the Athletics. "The A's, figured to be in the weak of the American league pennant race, folded miserably."

"That pitching failed, and that's the whole answer," Dillinger insisted.

The slender six footer looked little like a major leaguer as he made these observations. Thick-lensed glasses nearly hid his blue eyes and his relaxed body appeared almost frail. It's a different picture on the ball field.

There the placid expression is gone. A cud of tobacco juts out on his jaw and the indolence is replaced with a wiry readiness.

Currently he is plagued with a pulled tendon in his right leg and it has cost him much of the speed which allowed him to steal 82 bases during the last three seasons.

"You think a person would be in good shape like this late in the season," he groaned. "Just think, I've missed two games this year."

Sitting on the bench is galling to "Bandit Bob," an every inning, every day ballplayer, even though it must be obvious that this year the Pirates aren't going much of anywhere.

"I haven't seen too much of the National league," the Californian explained. "But I did see the Dodgers, Braves and Phillies—and when I saw them, the Dodgers looked to be the strongest of the lot."

North Korean Propagandists Got Know-How

By James E. Roper
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Aug. 3 (UP)—North Korean propagandists have pulled out all the stops against South Koreans, the United States and the United Nations.

Never before have the Red Korean propagandist been so vigorous and never before so dangerous. They are dangerous because they are skillful.

The Communist radio at Pyongyang is featuring the voices of American prisoners of war in day and night operations. The voices mouth the Communist line.

The speakers often falter or mumble as if they were tired—exhausted by the grillings and psychological mistreatment that at last made them talk for the Reds. But their stories sow doubts.

The Communists are hammering at themes popular in the Orient. One is land reform—the Communist kind—that involves cutting up big land holdings and giving the bits to poor farmers. The people in areas freshly overrun by the Communists are told that taxes will be reduced, and elections held. The elections are only for local Communist peoples' committees that take orders from higher up. And the ballot is barred to "pro-Americans, pro-Japanese and the insane."

That phrase, carried time and again, is insidious. Psychologically it hints that Americans are just like the Japanese, whom the Koreans hate. It also says Americans and Democratic Koreans are in the same class as lunatics.

A South Korean cabinet member is accused of using missionary funds for carnal pleasures.

Another is denounced as being too ugly to seduce a girl. This man the Communists cry, has to resort to rape.

This is how low Communist propaganda can be. But is it too low to be effective?

Anyone inclined to underestimate the danger of Communist propaganda should recall that even Joseph Goebbels seldom in-

Tex. Candidates Begin Wind-Up For Run-Off

By United Press
Texas candidates are beginning to warm up for the Aug. 26 Democratic runoff primary.

Some heat already has been generated in the race for agriculture commissioner between J. E. McDonald, who has held the job for 20 years, and John C. White, a vocational agriculture instructor at Wichita Falls' Midwestern University.

White, 25, announced he was confident of victory against my opponent, and prepared to stump through Houston, the coastal area and the Rio Grande Valley this week.

McDonald, now seeking his 11th term in the state's top agricultural post, took a poke at destruction of cotton under the federal acreage allotment. The fiery McDonald said the program was detrimental to the war effort.

He said he saw Rio Grande Valley and South Texas cotton plowed under last week-end.

"It broke my heart," he said, "to see the product of food and fiber being destroyed when we are likely to need all of it and more before our victory in Korea is realized."

Ben Ramsey, seeking the post of Lieutenant Governor, spoke out on economy.

"We should put aside the thought of new taxes and... unnecessary spending" until Gov. Allan Shivers' economy commission has made its report, he said in a statement from his campaign headquarters in Austin.

TO ALL PULLMAN'S CUSTOMERS

The Korean situation has set off a tidal wave of buying, and supply has not kept pace with this increased demand. Our own situation is that all major appliances now are to be allotted to us.

Because of this allocation, we are not able in all cases to supply our customers with the appliances they want when they want them. In fact, we have accepted orders for some major appliances which we are unable to deliver at this time.

We can and will sell the appliances which we still have left on our floor, even our demonstrators, but we can not guarantee prompt delivery of any appliance which we do not have in stock.

In view of the prevailing situation, and the seriousness of the outlook, we have no alternative than to take orders from our customers, and to deliver appliances to these customers as we receive our allocations. In all fairness, these deliveries will be made on a first ordered, first delivered basis.

Therefore, we want to urge those of our customers who are interested in appliances to come down to Pullman's soon. We still have a fairly large stock of some kinds of appliances, and some will be able to find what they need on our floor. To the others, we want to say that we will fill their orders as soon as possible.

We also want our customers to know that we will not raise our prices, unless they are raised to us. And as always, we will have the easiest credit terms in town.

PULLMAN'S

Let's Keep The Record Straight

When I served the people of Precinct No. One as County Commissioner, I took office with a deficit of $19,667.18 in warrants charged against the Road and Bridge fund allotted to the precinct.

During the first two years of my tenure of office I was able to pay off the major portion of this deficit, but due to the added expense of sponsoring the relief program during the depression years and the small amount of revenue allotted to the road and bridge fund during those years, I was unable to liquidate the entire deficit and build the many needed roads and keep them in good condition.

In addition I was compelled to buy new machinery which was turned over to the present incumbent free of debt and with a reasonable value of $12,000.00. With this machinery I completed 139 miles of graded and graveled roads, installing 245 permanent stone and concrete drainage structures on roads in precinct No. 1.

During my administration commitments were made with the State Highway Department, under the State Farm to Market road program for approximately 23 miles of surfaced roads in this precinct, out of a total of approximately 28 miles allotted to the entire county. Owing to the fact most of the right of way had been secured, the road beds graded and drainage structures installed, I was able to secure the major portion of the allotment for the county. Most of these roads have been completed, and for which my opponent seems to take credit, but during the present administration when it seemed that the Farm to Market road north of Ranger to the County line had been lost, I made a trip to Austin in company with Ranger citizens and Stephens County officials and was able to get the project re-instated and the road is now completed. But since my administration no further commitments have been made for Farm to Market roads in this precinct.

Considering my opponents statement that he had bought new machinery and had a cash balance of more than $15,000.00, he did not state that he still owed $7,940.00 on the machinery. The more than $25,000.00 earned with the machinery was of a commercial nature in direct competition with private citizens engaged in the same line of work, underbidding them on many of the projects, while this commercial work was being done the graded and graveled roads of the precinct were deteriorating.

During the years I served as your Commissioner, the available funds for road work in the precinct averaged between $16,000.00 and $18,000.00 each year. During the incumbency of the present Commissioner the available funds average between $30,000.00 and $35,000.00. Had I had an equal amount of funds with which to build roads, this precinct would have had the best road system in the county.

I solicit your vote in the coming Primary Election on the basis of experience and ability.

Month Of August Designated Free At Library

The month of August has been designated as free reading month at the Eastland Library, sponsored here by the Thursday afternoon Club, members of the library committee said today.

This has been the custom for the past several years, the spokesman said, and called special attention to the 3000 volumes of western stories available to men and boys.

Special attention has also been given to children's books this summer, tables arranged for their convenience with special lighting and the building has been air conditioned for the reader's comfort.

The library is open Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday during the hours 2 til 5:30 p. m.

An invitation was extended the public to visit the library during this time.
