YOU NAME IT

By Everett Taylor

Monday's rain was welcomed throughout the country, especially by farmers and ranchers near Eastland.

Other sections of the county had received heavier rains than this immediate area and were not so anxious for the showers, but did not object to them.

The rainfall in the city measured .9 of an inch. A report from Flatwoods sets the fall there at the same mark. The rain fell slowly and was believed to be of great benefit to crops just getting underway and to pastures.

The calendar may save your life this Fourth of July!

That is a startling statement which has been issued by Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, in pointing out that the Fourth this year falls in mid-week, which gives most people a single holiday.

Because of this the holiday traffic probably will not be so heavy, and as a result many lives may be saved that otherwise would be taken in the toll of traffic deaths for the holiday.

Nevertheless, estimates call for 28 persons to die in the state by violence, Wednesday. Ten of these will be in automobile accidents according to the prediction.

So the occasion calls for a reminder to all drivers on July 4, as on all occasions, to be careful.

Garrison urges every citizen to exercise the utmost caution, not only on the highway but also with fireworks, boating, and swimming while enjoying the holiday.

"Be sane and be safe on the Fourth," he says, "and be alive on the 5th."

In stating that the rains Monday were welcome earlier in this column, we were not speaking for those folks who were still awaiting a repair man to work over the roofs of their homes.

Several roofs about the city showed more leaks this time than ever according to reports. The heavy demand on the adjusters has kept them from getting around to all homes which have claims to make, but it is reported that they are making steady progress along this line.

Many have wishfully made the statement that an armistice in Korea would be a great Fourth of July present for America and Americans.

We can't think of a better way to celebrate the holiday than with a cease fire order on both sides, and we imagine that there are a lot of boys in Korea who would be very happy with that situation.

Thief Steals Texas Dirt

HOUSTON, July 3 (UP)—Somebody stole a bit of Texas here today and Texas didn't like it.

J. D. Forrest, a state highway department employe, appealed to police to help trace a car seen on highway 137 near the city limits. Men in the car, he said, got out and dug up a big patch of sod from the right-of-way, loaded it in the car and sped away.

Seaman's Body Found In Surf

GALVESTON, July 3 (UP)—The body of a Baltimore seaman, identified as that of Al Demon, 45, was found floating in the surf here yesterday.

His friend, Charles Bramlette, said they were swimming about noon yesterday when Demon disappeared.

He notified the Beach Patrol and assistant beach captain Charles Gallishaw, Aubrey Shapiro and Jack Thompson found the body near 17th street.

Police said it appeared Demon suffered a heart attack and had not drowned. An autopsy is to be performed.

CHARGES AGAINST NEWSPAPER REPORTER ARE QUESTIONABLE

There are no American, British or French representatives of Western News Agencies or newspapers in Prague. The trial of Associated Press Correspondent William N. Oatis is being covered for the United Press by Ivo Berounsky, a Czechoslovak national employed by the UP in its Prague office. His copy is not subjected to censorship, but as a Czechoslovak citizen, he is subject to Czechoslovak laws.

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, July 3 (UP)—Associated Press Correspondent William N. Oatis, on trial for espionage, returned to the stand today to denounce his Western Newspaper Colleagues and Western Diplomats in Prague as spies.

His shoulders bowed, looking tired and speaking in a voice so low that it was barely audible, Oatis read a 15-minute statement in which he named former United Press Bureau Chief Russell Jones, Reuter's News Agency Correspondent Robert Bigio, French Press Agency Correspondent Gaston Fournier and nine diplomats as having spied.

Oatis said that western diplomats who spied included United States Ambassador Ellis O. Briggs and others whom he had named in his first appearance on the stand yesterday.

Oatis said United Press Correspondent Bigio gave espionage reports to American diplomats. He said French Press Agency Correspondent Fournier published a news bulletin, containing espionage material, for diplomats.

(Jones, Bigio and Fournier all have left Czechoslovakia.) Oatis took the stand again today after 11 prosecution witnesses including former United Press employe Jan Stransky, 35, had testified against him and his three co-defendants, all former Czechoslovak employes of the Associated Press.

Oatis' lawyer Dr. Bartos, told the court that Oatis wanted to complete the testimony he gave yesterday. The following exchange, incomplete because Oatis' voice was sometimes inaudible, then took place between the court president and Oatis:

"You want to add something, Mr. Oatis?"

"Yes, I do. In my testimony I described one group of people—Czechoslovaks of reactionary leanings. I did not describe, however, the other group, the Western Correspondents and diplomats."

"Yes, we know that you did not say all that was on your conscience."

"But I answered all questions. The witnesses have pictured the espionage activity I engaged in. Now I want to say something of the espionage activity of those others."

"Yesterday I said that the other correspondents also sent espionage reports similar to mine. I will give you some examples."

Assessment Plan Decision Delayed

Eastland's City Commission delayed action on the proposed water assessment of $1 on the water meters of the city until a full report is given by the newly organized Hospital Volunteer Workers Association on the hospital picture.

I. C. Heck, city manager, said that representatives of the HVWA met with the commission and reported that their committees were working to get an overall picture on the hospital situation.

The committees of the association are to report at the next HVWA meeting at 7:30 p.m., Monday, July 9, at the Texas Electric Service building.

A decision will be made by the commission following the report of the HVWA committees, Heck said.

City Holiday On Wednesday

Business houses in Eastland will be closed all day Wednesday, July 4, in observance of Independence Day, which is one of the official holidays of the city.

No Eastland Telegram will be issued Wednesday. The regular issue will be printed Thursday.

Oatis then said:

1—Col. George L. Attwood, U. S. Military Attache, told him that he received two reports from UP Correspondent Jones. The first concerned "military questions in a certain Bohemian town involving the Ministry of National Defense." Attwood also said Jones gave him the names of army officers arrested in connection with the arrest of former Foreign Minister Vladimir Clementis, now awaiting trial.

2—"Bigio of Reuters used to give espionage reports to (American) Ambassador Briggs. I was with him last August when Bigio told Briggs that a certain number of high officials had been dismissed."

3—"Gaston Fournier of the French Press Agency put out a news bulletin for the diplomatic corps in Prague which contained many espionage reports."

Oatis said that the United Press, Reuters and the French Press Agency all sent news of the arrest of Clementis. When they sent a story Oatis did not have, he said, "I have received an order from London or New York telling me to file it as soon as possible."

"The American Embassy received regular espionage reports from the British, Italian and French Embassies," Oatis said.

Oatis, 37, and his co-defendants are charged in their trial in Pankrac Prison with political, military and economic espionage and complicity in the murder of a Czechoslovak army officer.

Texas Company Ask Increase

LUBBOCK, July 2 (UP)—West Texas Gas Company has asked the State Railroad Commission for permission to increase rates in 47 communities, President C. I. Wall announced today.

He said the petition was presented to the commission at an Austin meeting today.

Wall said the proposed boost would approximate five cents per thousand cubic feet, increasing rates an average of 14.6 per cent through the system.

Copies of the proposed hike were sent to mayors of the 47 towns serviced by West Texas Gas, from Hereford and Canyon on the north to Odessa on the south, Wall said.

The Railroad Commission was expected to present the matter to the gas utilities division for study before deciding whether to publicly air the proposal.

Two Die, Seven Hurt In Wreck

LYTLE, July 2 (UP)—A crash between a laundry truck and a passenger car two miles south of here late Saturday night resulted in two deaths and injuries to seven persons.

Mrs. Bert Baxter, 32, of Lytle, and Jerome Navarre, 48, of Natalia were killed in the head-on collision.

The injured included Mrs. R. L. Jenkins and three of her children—Loretta, 14, Jimmy, 9, and Bobby, 7, Nancy Strange, 14, Bert Baxter, 28, and Baldoner Garcia. Navarre was driver of the laundry truck. It was not known who was driving the passenger car. Among the injured, Mrs. Jenkins was considered the most critically hurt. She was in a Santa Rosa hospital.

Annual 4-H Club Camp Set

The Annual 4-H Club Camp at Lake Cisco will be held July 10 and 11, according to C. V. Waitaker, assistant county agent.

Four-H Club boys and their dads from six counties are to attend the camp. The camp begins at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, July 10 and will end Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. Charge for this year's camp will be $1.25, payable upon arrival.

The program for this year will include swimming, pole pillow fights, horseshoes, washers, track, baseball and boxing.

All 4-H Club boys and their dads are urged to attend the camp.

CAPITOL SNARL—A strike of 3,400 transit workers paralyzed trolley and bus service here in the nation's capitol creating a record tieup. This was the scene on historic Pennsylvania Avenue as Washington drove to work. To ease parking problems, cars were permitted to park diagonally across idle street car tracks. (NEA Telephoto).

Ridgway Accepts Proposal Today For An Armistice Conference

TOKYO, July 3 (UP)—Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway accepted today a Communist proposal for an armistice conference in the Korean no-man's land city of Kaesong July 10, but suggested an earlier meeting would save lives.

Ridgway's reply, broadcast to the Communists at 2:30 p.m. (12:30 A. M. EDT), said he was prepared to send three liaison officers proceeding to Kaesong Thursday "providing you advise me" of their route and schedule.

"Since agreement on armistice terms has to precede cessation of hostilities, delay in initiating the meetings and in reaching agreement will prolong the fighting and increase the losses," Ridgway said.

Red China already had indicated however, that July 10 is the earliest date on which it is prepared to open cease-fire talks.

Deaf Man Dies In Electric Chair

HUNTSVILLE, July 3 (UP)—Sam Williams, 53, and totally deaf, died in the State Electric Chair today for the murder of his wife at Houston on July 29, 1950.

Before he was taken to the death chamber, Warden Emmett Moore handed him a note asking if he had anything to say.

Williams replied—"No sir, I don't want to say anything." He was strapped in the chair at 12:04 a.m. and was pronounced dead five minutes later.

Williams was convicted last April 26 of murdering his estranged wife, Lessie. He claimed self-defense.

But the couple's 17-year-old son, Johnnell Williams, testified his father shot his mother in the back while she was trying to flee. The shooting occurred at a house where she lived with her children.

Judge Rules In Hap's Favor

FORT WORTH, July 3 (UP)—A district judge has ruled in favor of Tarrant county commissioner M. W. (Hap) Hovenkamp, who was named in a civil suit filed by former employes alleging they were forced to pay salary kickbacks to hold their jobs.

Judge Robert Young handed down his decision at the end of a daylong hearing yesterday. He said testimony presented by five former county workers failed to show any connection between Hovenkamp and an employes' benefit fund to which they contributed.

The judge also found that employe contributions of one per cent of their monthly salary to the fund were made voluntarily and without threat or coercion.

The former workers had charged that they were forced to contribute part of their salaries to keep their jobs and sought an accounting of the fund and recovery of the money they contributed.

J. S. Armstrong Dies Monday In Grandbury

John Samuel Armstrong, 69, until recently of Eastland, died at 9 p.m. Monday in Grandbury following a long illness.

Born Oct. 10, 1880 at Alvorada, Texas, Armstrong was employed here with Kilgore's until he suffered a heart attack February 17. He lived here two and a half years.

He taught school in Brown and Eastland counties 46 years. He was teacher of the 9-19 Bible Class of the First Methodist Church in Eastland for a year and a half.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday at the First Methodist Church in Eastland with Rev. J. Morris Bailey conducting assisted by Rev. W. E. Anderson of Brownwood. Burial will be in the Eastland cemetery.

Palbearers will be his nephews and members of his Sunday School Class here will be honorary pallbearers.

Survivors include his widow,

Mrs. J. S. Armstrong; three sons, V. D. Armstrong of Grandbury; Willis L. Armstrong of Mission and Sgt. Powell Armstrong of Sheppard Field; two daughters, Mrs. H. W. Shults of Lubbock and Mrs. Alvah Allen of Weatherford; nine grandchildren; three brothers, A. W. of Rising Star, Rev. A. B. of Westbrook and W. L. of Lubbock; two sisters, Mrs. E. P. Kilgore, Brownwood and Mrs. W. H. Kilgore of Mission; a host of nieces and nephews.

District Cops Get Marijuana

WASHINGTON, July 2 (UP)—Police announced today they have found 198 pounds of Marijuana—worth nearly $500,000—secreted in the body of an automobile owned by a man arrested recently when he arrived here from Mexico.

The weed, smoked by addicts, was hidden in special steel compartments built into the vehicle, U. S. Narcotic Agent Boyd Martin said the haul was the biggest one of its kind he ever heard of.

John Raymond Weatherbee, New York, was seized 10 days ago by police along with two others after he arrived here. Eight pounds of Marijuana were found and he was held in $10,000 bond for violating a tax act.

Authorities dismantled the car in hunting for the remainder of the cache they believed Weatherbee had brought with him.

DPS Glad That Holiday Will Be One Day Try

AUSTIN, July 3 (UP)—The short July 4 holiday may not please the office worker looking forward to a day in the country, but it suits the Department of Public Safety.

Safety officials believe that the calendar's placement of Independence Day in the middle of the week may result in a fairly low holiday death toll. There's less time to travel.

Former Ranger Man Murdered After "Stealing A Wife"

SAN ANTONIO, July 3 (UP)—Dr. Clyde C. Craig, Lubbock Dentist, was shot to death today by an estranged husband who claimed "He stole my wife."

Craig, 58, was struck by four revolver bullets when Raymond Donnell crashed his way into a fashionable Alamo Heights apartment occupied by the doctor and Mrs. Ruby Donnell.

Donnell gave himself up to police an hour after the slaying and was charged with murder.

He talked freely to newsmen and claimed "Craig stole my wife."

The 34-year-old Lubbock clothing salesman said he was refused entrance at 8 a.m. this morning.

Theo Lamb Named Chairman Of Group To Push Movement

Eastland's hospital move gained the organized support of a group of the younger men of the city Monday night with the formation of the Hospital Volunteer Workers Association at a meeting in the Texas Electric building.

Theo Lamb was elected chairman of the group which made a decision to get behind the hospital movement in the city.

About 40 men were present at the meeting in response to telegrams sent by Lamb, Monday.

Jack Frost and W. B. Pickens presented the background of the hospital movement to the group, and Pickens explained why he thought Eastland needs a hospital.

He pointed out that one of the big questions asked by industries which consider moving into an area is the medical and hospital facilities.

"Medical and hospital facilities are just as important in bringing business to Eastland as anything we have," Pickens concluded.

Services Held Sunday For Mrs. Mathews

Funeral services for Mrs. S. A. Mathews, 86, long time Eastland resident, were held at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Hammer Funeral Chapel in Eastland with Rev. Lee Fields of Carbon, conducting.

Burial was at Corinth. Mrs. Mathews died at 8 a.m. Saturday at the home of her son, Ben Mathews, in Eastland, following a long illness.

Born in Arkansas, she had lived in and around Eastland for 50 years. She was a member of the First Baptist Church in Eastland.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. W. H. Boone of Eastland and Mrs. Beulah Turner of Flatwoods; three sons, H. Z., Ben, and Jimmy A. Mathews, all of Eastland; 10 great-grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; and six sisters, Mrs. Dora Slaybough and Sallie Bridges, Randlett, Okla. Mrs. Maggie Wall, Oklahoma City; Mrs. Little Rushing, Arizona; Mrs. Ida Wooley, Carbon; Mrs. Lillie Moody of Phoenix, Arizona.

Pallbearers were Howard Mathews, El Dona Mathews, James A. Mathews, Jr., and Artie Liles, all grandsons; and John Hicks and Sid Cox.

Governor Will Be Busy Man

AUSTIN, July 3 (UP)—Eating, speaking and traveling will take a large part of Gov. Allan Shivers' time this week.

Shivers was scheduled to speak today at a barbecue at Diboll, Angelina County.

Tomorrow he will make an Independence Day speech at Amarillo, again at a barbecue and Saturday he will address the State Bar Convention at Dallas and attend a luncheon of University of Texas Law School Alumni.

The Governor and Mrs. Shivers will leave Dallas at 3 p.m. Saturday for Colorado Springs, Colorado, returning to Austin next Monday.

Whistle Gets Return Blast

HOUSTON, July 3 (UP)—A whistle got stuck on a Santa Fe Troop Train late yesterday and hundreds of East End Citizens, assuming it signaled the end of the Korean War, joined in.

Everyone who had a whistle on his ice house or any other place of business started blowing that one, too. Those without whistles, shouted and beat pans.

The false celebration lasted for 40 minutes—until the troop train's crew unstuck the whistle.

Bianckino May Play For Navy

HOUSTON, July 3 (UP)—Richard Bianckino, star end and tackle on last season's St. Thomas High School football team, has received an appointment to the U. S. Naval Academy. He will be sworn in next Monday at Annapolis.

Bianckino, who won two football letters and compiled a straight "A" scholastic record, plans to be a candidate for Navy football, starting with his fire-year term this fall.

When hogs go without salt for two or three months at a time, they should be fed with caution—B poisoning and death are likely.

Lamb, acting as chairman of the group, asked them if they wanted to work on the hospital or quit. Several opinions were expressed, all wishing to continue working on the hospital plan, and agreeing that Eastland needs a hospital.

Numerous questions were asked including the much discussed question of management for the hospital, who is to own it, who is to manage it, and several others.

A prominent expression was that something must be done to get the hospital started.

E. C. Johnston was elected recording secretary of the association and J. L. Cottingham, treasurer.

Lamb appointed various committees to work on the movement, including groups to investigate the possibility of re-modeling an old building, the building of a complete new structure, finance committee, and others.

The purpose of the newly organized group is to do the actual work on obtaining a hospital, Lamb explained. They will try to obtain complete information on all potentialities of the hospital plan, present that information to the public, and get the construction of the structure underway and see that plans are complete.

They will work with other groups which have been devoting time to the hospital movement, and with all citizens in getting the actual plans laid and the building underway.

A second meeting of the group will be held at the Texas Electric Building at 7:30 p.m. next Monday, at which time the various committees will report and plans for more advanced action will be formed. Plans were made for a drive to double the number present at the next meeting of the association.

A great deal of enthusiasm was shown by the group at the Monday meeting, and a general feeling among those present was that Eastland will have a hospital in the near future.

"A fundamental element which has been missing in the hospital drive thus far, it seems to me," Lamb said, "has been the lack of support from the young men of the city."

"These are the men who did a lot of the work in building the golf course, the football field and other projects in the city, and their help is needed in order to build a hospital," he added.

The question was put to the group of whether they wanted to quit or take up the task. They voted unanimously to work on the project.

This is How it Works Out—
... Insurance operates on the theory that the worst never happens, and it seldom does. Insurance says: "You will have no losses for a whole year". You challenge, buy adequate insurance and wait. Who wins? The law of averages gives the premium to the company, but a full year's protection and satisfaction to you. And, like the story, it ends well, everybody is happy but the poor fellow who wasn't insured the year the law of averages went hay-wire!

FBI Making Full Facilities Available To Find Communists

WASHINGTON, July 3 (UP)—The FBI said it is making its "full facilities" available to determine the whereabouts of four Communist leaders who failed to show up today in New York federal court to begin prison terms.

When asked by newsmen whether the four might have "skipped the country," the FBI spokesman replied: "No comment."

He did say "the FBI is making its full facilities available to ascertain their whereabouts."

The four missing leaders were among the 11 Communist party politburo members sentenced to prison for conspiring to teach and advocate forceful overthrow of this government. They are:

Robert Thompson, New York state chairman; Gus Hall, Ohio chairman; Gilbert Green, Illinois chairman, and Henry Winston, organization secretary.

After they failed to appear, the court issued bench warrants and turned them over to the U.S. Marshal in New York. The FBI will assist the marshal in the search.

Four "second layer" officials of the party are still missing and are being sought on warrants charging them with a like conspiracy. They are among the 21 indicted June 29 by a New York federal grand jury.

This group consisted of Red Fine, 37, Jackson Heights, L. I., New York, a member of the Alternate National Committee; James Edward Jackson, Jr., 36, Brooklyn, N. Y., southern regional director and alternate national committeeman; William Norman Marron, 49, Flushing, L. I., N. Y., New York state executive secretary and alternate national committeeman; and Sydney Steinberg, 36, Jackson Heights, assistant national labor secretary and alternate national committeeman.

These, and others indicted who were members of the alternate national committee, were supposed to take over the running of the party when the 11 top leaders went to prison today.

"Police Action"?

WASHINGTON, July 3 (UP)—Eleven Texans are on the latest casualty list released today by the Department of Defense.

Three Texans were killed in action, six wounded and two missing in action. The list, all army personnel, follows:

Killed in action: Sgt. Cloma Marshall, Route 10, Tyler (previously missing in action); PFC Marcos H. Perez, Sr., 328 Henry St., San Antonio, (previously missing in action); and Pfc. Linnard M. Taylor, Route 1, Port Arthur (previously missing in action.)
Missing in action: Pfc. Milburn H. Starnes, Route 1, Amherst; and Pfc. Curtis L. Walton, 706 S. Delphine, Terrell.

Court Reverses Previous Word

NEW ORLEANS, La., July 2 (UP)—The U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals reversed today a lower court ruling that had declared the Eules, Tex., school board, in Tarrant county, discriminated against Negro students.

The case arose when the Eules school board discontinued an elementary school for Negroes. Arrangements were made for classes to be held in the Fort Worth School District, and transportation provided for the 15 miles.

Roscoe Woods, Jr., and his father filed the suit, claiming that the action was contrary to Texas laws and also to the federal constitution. They asked a declaration by the U. S. District Court for the northern district of Texas, and they asked for an injunction preventing the board from continuing the alleged discrimination.

The lower court did not grant the injunction, but made the declarations asked. It held the new schooling arrangements were discriminatory and invalid and the school trustees appealed. The circuit court of appeals, in a unanimous ruling, said the federal court should not have adjudicated the issue unless and until the state administrative procedures had been exhausted.

Hotel Purchased in Galveston

HOUSTON July 2 (UP)—The purchase of one of Galveston's three top hotels, the Seawall, and two swank beachfront apartment houses, was announced today by a corporation of four Houston businessmen.

Investmentman Frank Burke said the total purchase figure was $750,000. Included with the Seawall Hotel were the Sparta Apartments, all formerly owned by Peter Douvry, Galveston man.

The property was purchased under the name of Marb Realty Corporation. Burke said his partners in the corporation are Alered Miz, loan office owner; Morris Shainock, also a loan man, and Sam Rubenstein clothing store operator.

Carolyn Ducker, Charles Brown United In Marriage Sunday

In a ceremony performed Sunday afternoon at 4:00 p.m. in St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Mineral Wells, Jane Carolyn Ducker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Ducker of Mineral Wells became the bride of Charles V. Brown of Ft. Worth, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Brown, Sr., of Ranger.

The very Rev. David Cartwright Clark, rector of St. Luke's and dean of the Northwest Deanery of the Dallas Diocese read the service before an altar decorated with white mums and gladioluses and lighted by white altar candles in brass candlesticks. Jade fern and huckleberry were used to decorate the rood screen and over the main arch of the rood screen hung a cluster of white mums and gladioluses. Seven branch floor candelabra holding white candles stood on each side of the sanctuary.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Milton Hill of Mineral Wells, organist, played Schubert's "Ave Marie," and "Oh, Promise Me" and McDowell's "To a Wild Rose." Mrs. Hill accompanied Mrs. David D. Pickrell of Ranger, violinist, who played "The Lords Prayer" by Malotte and Chopin's "Third Etude." During part of the ceremony Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Pickrell played the Episcopal hymn, "O, Perfect Love." Mrs. Hill played the traditional wedding marches by Wagner and Mendelssohn.

Bridal attendants were Mrs. W. M. Brown, Jr., of Eastland, matron of honor, Miss Jeane Crawley of Ranger, bridesmaid, Mrs. J. G. Chatmas of Hearne bridesmatron and Cheryl Ann Brown of Eastland, flower girl. The attendants all wore organdy gowns designed with tight tucked bodices with high necklines and pointed collars and long full skirts over matching taffeta. They wore matching picture hats and mitts.

Mrs. Brown's gown and hat were pink with dusty pink sash and Miss Crawley and Mrs. Chatmas wore light green with moss green sashes. Little Miss Brown wore pink. All carried baskettes of daisies with ribbon matching their dresses.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a white Chantilly lace and nylon net gown styled with tight bodice of the lace with v-neckline and short sleeves. The very full net skirt was attached to a hip-length, scalloped yoke of the lace and fell into a chapel length train. Her veil of illusion was attached to a coronet of seed pearls overlain with illusion and her something old was a strand of pearls belonging to her mother. Her lace mitts were ornamented with small clusters of lillies of the valley touched with blue. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis, with a shower of stephanotis and white satin ribbon.

W. M. Brown, Jr., of Eastland, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and groomsmen were J. B. Thompson, Venezuela, S.A., and Ven O. White of Houston. John F. Pearsall of Houston, Alvin Johnson of Andrews, Frederick Larson and Cicero Harris, Jr., both of Ranger, were ushers.

For the wedding the bride's mother chose an ecru linen lace dress worn over maize satin with brown accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of pink gladioluses. The bridegroom's mother wore a dusty pink linen lace dress with tan and brown accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the Mineral Wells Country Club. The bride's table was covered with a Normandy lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink carnations, candy tuft and fern in a silver bowl. White candles in silver candlesticks lighted the table. The two tiered white wedding cake was topped with pink carnations. The bride's bouquet decorated the table where guests registered in the bride's book. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. W. P. Cameron; Mrs. Bob Yeager, both of Mineral Wells and Mrs. Walter Sikes of Amarillo, aunt of the bride and Misses Jo Oyler of Denton, Elaine Brazda and Doris Perstein of Dallas, Katherin Adams, Lynn Pearson, Jean Valentine and Betty Lou Hagaman, all of Ranger and Greta Cosby of Mineral Wells.

When the couple left for a short wedding trip, the bride wore a navy blue linen dress with a white hip-length pique jacket made with three-quarter length sleeves. Her accessories were blue and white and she wore a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Brown is a graduate of Ranger High School and attended Ranger Junior College. She received a bachelor of journalism degree at the University of Texas in 1949 and is a member of Gamma Phi Beta Sorority and Theta Sigma Phi, honorary journalism fraternity for women.

Mr. Brown is a graduate of Ranger High School and received a B.S. degree in mechanical engineering at Texas A.M. College in 1949. He served in the U. S. Marine Corps for three years during World War II with overseas duty in the Pacific. He is now a senior engineer with the Texas Electric Service Company in Ft. Worth.

The couple will make their home at 1004 Eighth Avenue in Ft. Worth.

Saturday night Mrs. Minniebell Booth entertained at a rehearsal dinner given on the terrace of her home in Mineral Wells. The dinner was served buffet style and the dinner tables were centered with garden flowers.

Those attending the party were Miss Ducker and Mr. Brown; Mr. and Mrs. Ducker, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Jr., Cheryl Ann Brown, Mr. and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. Pearsall, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Chatmas and her father, L. A. Nunley of Hearne, Mrs. Yeager, Mr. W. P. Cameron, Dean and Mrs. Clark, Miss Crawley and Messrs. Thompson, Larson, and Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Sikes, Mrs. Margaret Terry, grandmother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Minniebell Smith and Mrs. Booth.
