MATS Plane Crash Kills 3 Crewmen

PARIS, Sept. 20 (UP)—An American military air transport twin-engine DC-3 crashed in flames Saturday into a house 500 yards from Orly Airfield killing three crewmen and critically injuring the fourth.

The plane struck a high tension wire while coming in for an early morning landing on a flight from Chateaux Air Base, in central France.

None of the occupants of the house was injured, the Military Air Transport Service office said. The plane was making a low approach to the field when it struck the wire and burst into flames.

After shearing off telephone poles the plane crashed on top of the house in the Villeneuve de Roi Paris suburb. One wing of the plane struck a second house.

Names of the casualties were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

Mavericks Lose To Bluecats In Fridays Battle

A bruising gang of Coleman Bluecats crushed an undermanned and injury ridden Mavericks eleven 39-6 Friday night in the second non-conference game for both teams. The Cats broke loose at the seams as they crossed the double stripe three times in the first quarter. The injury ridden Mavericks entered the fray with only two regulars from last season, and it was these two that gave stellar performances for the Mavs.

—Jamie Jessop and Norman Watson.

Halfback Fred Williams saved face for the Red and Black as he broke into the clear on an end run and scampered twenty-five yards to pay dirt in the third quarter.

Next week the twice beaten Mavericks meet the twice beaten Ranger Bulldogs in another non-conference battle in Ranger.

Water District Independent Body

It has been brought to the attention of this newspaper that there exists a misconception concerning the tax renditions of the Eastland County Water Supply District.

Some taxpayers are prone to think that the rendition of the water district will affect their city, school, and county renditions or valuations.

The water board would like to have known that the water district is an independent political sub-division in no way connected with any of the other tax levying bodies. The water district rendition does not affect any other tax roll other than the water district.

Furthermore the water district rolls will not be used by the other tax levying bodies as a basis for taxation.

A hearing will be held in Eastland at the courthouse on September 23rd and in Ranger at the City Hall on September 30th by the equalization board of the Eastland County Water Supply District to hear any complaints the tax payers of the district may have concerning their tax rendition.

Do not construe the water district as being part of any of the other taxing bodies.

W. F. Simmons Is Buried Saturday

Graveside services were held in the Evergreen Cemetery at Ranger for William Frank Simmons, retired farmer, who had lived in Ranger since 1919. Rev. A. Lynn Robbins officiated.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Floyd of Ranger and Jimmy E. of Ft. Worth; two daughters, Ethel Wallace of Redwood City, California, and Elva Greenwood of Ranger; a sister, Samantha Whitehead of Cleburne; and 7 grandchildren.

The services were at 5 p.m. Saturday with Killingsworth Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Truce Talks Are Recessed

PANMUNJOM, Sept. 20 (UP)—United Nations negotiators called the Communists clumsy and stupid Saturday at the first Korean truce meetings in eight days.

Then, for the eighth straight week, both sides agreed to take another seven-day recess. They will meet again Sept. 28 with the question of forcible vs. voluntary repatriation of war prisoners still the only issue blocking an armistice.

Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison, chief Allied delegate, told the Reds in Saturday's unproductive 52-minute meeting that they were guilty of "ridiculous lies and enormous crimes."

He said their words "have been clothed in evil" since the truce talks began. Harrison said the Red charge that the United States "has stolen the name of the United Nations" to wage aggressive war in Korea was "ridiculous."

Harrison informed North Korean Gen. Nam Il, top Red delegate, 53 UN members had endorsed the police action and only three members—Russia, Czechoslovakia and Poland—had not branded North Korea the aggressor.

KANSAS CITY VOTE FRAUD UNDER NEW HOUSE PROBE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (UP)—House investigators were hot Saturday on a new lead on an old mystery—the Kansas City vote fraud case.

The House subcommittee investigating the Justice Department announced that Attorney General James P. McGranery has granted it permission to inspect documents allegedly "stripped" from FBI files on the case.

The lead was furnished Friday by Rep. Claude I. Bakewell, R-Mo., who quoted FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover as saying former Attorney General Tom C. Clark ordered a lot of material "deleted" from the FBI files on the case five years ago.

According to Bakewell, Hoover didn't get any of the material back until two years later when Clark was elevated to the Supreme Court.

The House subcommittee promptly requested and received permission from McGranery to inspect the "deleted" material.

Senator Long Backs Adlai

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 20 (UP)—Sen. Russell B. Long D-La., announcing he will vote for Gov. Adlai Stevenson, called on Republican minded southerners Saturday to "get out of the Democratic party and show their own colors."

Among southern Democratic leaders who have said they intend to vote for Republican nominee Dwight D. Eisenhower are Goves. James F. Byrnes of South Carolina, Allan Shivers of Texas and Robert F. Kennon of Long's own state.

"We ought to have a two-party system in the South," Long told a gathering of Louisiana Democratic leaders here Friday, "and I believe we can have it only if the Republicans get out of the Democratic party and show their own colors."

The younger senator, son of the late Sen. Huey P. Kingfish Long and an influential party man, aroused the ire of the Louisiana delegation at the Democratic national convention by signing the so-called "loyalty oath."

"I know I won't find myself as uncomfortable as a southern Democrat supporting Stevenson as Taft supporters will be, supporting Eisenhower," Long said.

NIXON PROMISES FULL ACCOUNTING

Stevenson Wants GOP Account Of $16,000 Campaign Donation

By United Press

Sen. Richard M. Nixon, sustained by his running mate, Dwight D. Eisenhower, promised Saturday a full public accounting of the $16,000 fund which he received from wealthy Californians.

In rapid-fire order:

1. The Republican vice presidential candidate defended his right to use the fund and asserted that "not one red cent" of the money went into his pockets.

LIKE AND LIKED—Gov. James F. Byrnes (L) once Secretary of State announced he will vote for Dwight D. Eisenhower for President. Senator Wayne Morse, (R) charged that Eisenhower's campaign was being run by Senator Taft and said he will not actively support the GOP candidate.

2. Eisenhower gave Nixon a clean bill of health and said that "when the facts are known . . . they will show that Dick Nixon could not compromise with what is right."

3. Gov. Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic presidential candidate, took formal recognition of the development and called on the Republican party to ascertain the facts in the case. He said the questions that arose were: "Who gave the money, was it given to influence the senator's position on public questions; and have any laws been violated?"

Sure GOP Will Give Facts

"I am sure that the great Republican party will ascertain these facts, will make them public, and act in accordance with our best traditions and with due respect for the second most important position in the land," Stevenson said in New York.

"Condemnation without all the evidence, a practice all too familiar to us, would be wrong."

Eisenhower, in Kansas City, Mo., where he made a "corruption" speech Friday night attacking Stevenson as a front man for big-city political bosses, accepted fully a statement by Nixon that there was nothing wrong and that the criticisms were only a political "smear."

"I have worked with and have confidence in Senator Nixon," the GOP presidential candidate said.

Taft Defends Nixon

Sen. Robert A. Taft, whom Eisenhower defeated for the Republican nomination, also was quick to come to Nixon's defense. Taft said that he saw no basis for criticizing Nixon and that the California senator was within his rights in accepting the "gifts" from his constituents.

The Ohio Senator said the only possible question about the contributions would be if "the donors asked for or received special legislative or other favors."

Nixon, on a whistle stop tour of the West, gave a statement to his running mate in which he swore that he did not profit personally nor given any special favors to his benefactors.

"This whole issue developed as a deliberate smear attempt by persons intent on perpetuating the present administration in power," his statement said.

"The only way to answer a smear is with the truth. This we shall do."

High Peak Of Living Costs Will Remain

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (UP)—Government experts Saturday looked for the cost of living to hover at the new all-time peak in the coming month.

Although housewives may get a better break on some items such as beefsteak, they face price increases in pork, poultry and dairy products.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics' consumer price index crept to another all-time high in August—the third consecutive month of record peaks in the average family's living costs.

Food, which makes up about a third of the index, went up three tenths of one per cent from July 5 to August 15.

Prices paid to farmers leveled off last month after a slight gain in July. Wholesale commodity prices, which are not immediately reflected in family budgets, dipped a bit last week to a level seven tenths of one per cent below that of a year ago.

Rents, another important factor in the government's cost of living estimate, will be affected in months by some by what action local communities take next week on the question of rent control. Local governing bodies must vote by Sept. 30 to continue rent controls, or they automatically expire except in critical areas.

Residential rents went up three tenths of one per cent from July to August.

Largest increase in cost of living factors last month was a six tenths of one per cent hike in fuel, electricity and refrigeration.

PRESENT 27 MONTH DROUTH BRANDED WORST-IN HISTORY

FORT WORTH, Sept. 20 (UP)—A Texas drouth that has parched crops and burned the topsoil moisture out of the state's plains for 27 months is the worst in the Lone Star state's history, a government official said Saturday.

Regional Director Louis P. Merrill of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service said crops have been a complete failure in many parts of West, Southwest and South Texas.

Rango cover has disappeared in unprotected ranching areas, and stockmen have sold or sent away most of their cattle, Merrill said.

He said the drouth was worse even than the "dust bowl" period of the 1930s. The estimate was based on the total area involved, the duration, lack of rainfall, effect on land cover and high temperatures.

Other States a Little Better

Merrill said a summary from 440 soil conservation field offices, 230 of them in Texas, showed nearby states were generally in better condition. Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana were hard hit in some areas, he said, but did not suffer the slow, inexorable destruction that moved through Texas.

Merrill said recent torrential rains in Central Texas which brought on many local floods might be a forerunner of a break in the dry spell for that area.

But they may be only a repeat of earlier storms which farmers hailed as godsends, but which turned out to be only temporary relief.

Felt for Years

Even if the drouth ended tomorrow, said Merrill, its effects would be felt for years. He said it was impossible to give a monetary estimate of the damage.

This was because forage losses could be determined only after enough rainfall has occurred to bring surviving plants into growing condition.

Texas State Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has estimated crop damage from the 1952 summer drouth alone was more than $100 million.

Medical Study Reveals Nose And Throat, Not Harmed Form Smoking

Liggett & Myers, the first tobacco company to offer smokers a premium quality cigarette, Chesterfield, in both regular and King size, scored another first today with the release of a report by a responsible consulting organization which reveals that the nose, ears, throat and accessory organs are not adversely affected by smoking Chesterfields. This report, the first of its kind ever published about a cigarette, gives the findings of a continuing study by a competent medical specialist and his staff.

The report states that early this year a group of people from various walks of life was organized to smoke only Chesterfields. For six months this group of men and women smoked their normal amount of Chesterfields—10 to 40 a day (45% of the group have smoked Chesterfields continually from one to thirty years—for an average of 10 years each). At the beginning and at the end of the six months period each smoker was given a thorough examination, including X-ray pictures, by the medical specialist and his assistants. The examination covered the sinuses as well as the nose, ears and throat.

The medical specialist, after a thorough examination of every member of the group, stated: "It is my opinion that the ears, nose, throat and accessory organs of all participating subjects examined by me were not adversely affected in the six months period by smoking the cigarettes provided."—Chesterfields.

POTPOURRI AND WORSE

(By Major Hoople McCorkle)
Telegram Philosopher

Taxation is not something new, but rather it dates back for hundreds of years, yet the word itself sounds depressing. The collection of taxes seems the only fair and equitable plan to finance a government. Its advantages are many, and so are its abuses.

In order to finance our schools we must have taxes, or depend upon public or private subscriptions, and they have been proven to serve classes rather than the masses. The few are permitted to say what is to be taught, and the whole truth is seldom heard. Therefore, we are for taxation, but "just" taxation. We do not favor any tax that works undue hardships on the paying group. Nor do we favor receptive taxation, where large amounts of money is gathered in only to be squandered by a thoughtless and deceitful few.

Today we see this on every hand, and it is alarming. A change must be made or we are going on the rocks. Our government will not only fail, but it will break us as individuals.

A few days ago we had occasion to read an editorial from a certain "House Organ" magazine, and we were startled by the many revelations published therein.

Did you know that one tax payer in a hundred suspects the extent to which buried taxes are cutting into his earnings? We rave and rant when "income taxes" or "withholding taxes" are mentioned, and yet these taxes fade out of the picture when compared with "unseen or buried taxes." Most of us likely imagine that it is the millionaire or big corporations that get hooked for this, but in truth, it is really the small American consumer who shoulders the bulk of the load.

Today the average American is turning in over 32 cents from each dollar he earns to various tax collectors. The federal income tax is bad enough, but more insidious are the hidden levies that hit the tax payer when he is not looking—the taxes that are imposed on merchants and manufacturers that are passed on to the consumer under the guise of "higher prices." In truth it is taxes that have made them so.

When you walk in and plunk down $2,000 for a new car, that no where that amount reaches the pocket of the dealer, the manufacturer and the suppliers of parts and raw materials. Some $824 has already stuck to the fingers of the federal, state and local tax collectors.

Hidden taxes multiply rapidly. For example there are more than 475 taxes on the construction and materials that go into a new house. A new hat for friend wife carries 150 hidden taxes, and the lousy suit you are wearing was paid for at the same time you paid the 116 taxes that it carries. The same will be found when you buy a pack of cigarettes, a loaf of bread or a bottle of milk. At least half of whatever you may have paid for the item represents hidden taxes. There are more than ninety hidden taxes on a two-bit bottle of Milk of Magnesia.

Think your income tax is high? Well, on an income of $3,500, the family pays out $799 in hidden taxes, before they get to that small withholding tax which amounts to only $249. The reason it is so painful is that you saw it. Tax collectors, largely federal got the balance while you were not looking.

When you buy a 15 cent hot dog, just remember this: You are getting your old nickel hot dog, alright, but before you eat it you must kick in a dime for tax.

It is widely agreed that a tax load of 25 cents on the dollar is about as far as the government can safely go. Up to this point, taxes pay their way and act as a brake of inflation, but above this figure taxes sap initiative, and we certainly don't wish to see this done.

Taxes have reached the point where people are not caring for a salary increase, for it simply puts them in a higher tax bracket. The extra thousand dollars may look good on the surface, but when a tax collector steps in and takes most of it for taxes. You merely assumed more work and responsibility, while the collector draws most of the pay. You didn't improve your condition—just shortened your life by doing too much extra work, and most of it free.

This taxing business is as catching as the small-pox. The federal government started it, but it did not take states and municipalities long to follow suit.

There must be a let-up somewhere! The United States is in real danger of biting off its nose to spite its face.

We know what the Fair Deal and New Deal have done. And we also know that Democrats have all this charged to their account. As a matter of fact it should not be, for a majority of Democrats do not approve of such goings on. But Fair Dealers insist that they are Democrats, and that it was a Democratic vote that placed them in office. This may be true, but since they have wandered off into Socialism, Communism and what have you, real Democrats do not care to recognize them any longer. That is why life long Democrats will support the Republican nominee, rather than the man running under the alleged Democratic banner. At least they feel that Mr. Eisenhower is a good man from the standpoint of ethics and morals, and to date he hasn't promised he would steal anything from them—tidelands or otherwise. In fact he indicates he will favor turning back our property, and at the same time assure us that thieves will be prosecuted in the future.

This is our only excuse for asking a good, honest Democrat to support Ike. We want them to vote for a MAN and not some PARTY or system that will lead us down to disgrace.

This same man, Eisenhower, feels that he can operate this government on a greatly reduced budget, even though it may be necessary to eliminate a few thousand useless boards, authorities and commissions. It is not a matter of loving Ike, but rather loving the things he stands for.

Yes, America, we can win, but we are going to have to change our tactics—even to the point of being honest.

GRUBBY CATTLE LOSE MONEY

When a farmer's cattle were discounted one cent a pound because they were grubby, he decided to control the grubs by spraying. Over a million pounds of meat are lost each year in Texas because of grubs. And the leather lost as a result of these insects burrowing through the sides of cattle would furnish shoes to a million soldiers for a whole year. Your county agent can suggest control measures.

Controlling grubs helps to stop leaks in livestock profits and a bank statement each month helps to stop leaks in business profits.

Natalie Wood, At Age 14, Is Showing Curves In Right Places

By Aline Mosby
HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 20 (UP)—Natalie Wood, that "baby star" in pigtails, is a growing-up beauty of 14 now. And, she said Saturday, she's determined she won't wind up in divorce or unhappiness like the other child celebrities.

Movie fans will feel for the gray hairs when they see Natalie as Bing Crosby's daughter in "Just for You."

She was just a moppet in "The Blue Veil," "Miracle on 34th St." and "Jackpot."

But now her pigtails have been fluffed into a glamour girl bob. She has big brown eyes, wears lipstick and when she wears a bathing suit for the Crosby film she shows curves in the Hollywood approved places.

Natalie could easily pass for 16 or 17, and she even has a boy friend, actor Tom Irish, who's 21.

But the budding beauty insisted she's not thinking of marriage "for a long, long time yet."

Shirley Temple, Judy Garland, Deanna Durbin and Elizabeth Taylor tied the knot at tender ages of 16 and 17—and untied them shortly thereafter.

"When I get married it will be for keeps," said Natalie firmly. "I don't want any divorces."

"My career is important right now. But I think going out on dates like other girls is important, too."

Church Fathers Tell Mitzi To Take Grinds Out Of Burlesque

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 19 (UP)—Mitzi Gaynor, the new pert-faced dancing star, is doing the bumps and a hip-wiggling burlesque tassel dance in the auditorium of a Baptist church these nights—but the church fathers censored out the grinds.

Miss Gaynor, who's been a bob-by sex type so far on the screen, set the town on its ear with her shimmy number.

The Baptist church also doubles as the Philharmonic Auditorium, where the local Civic Light Opera Association is presenting Miss Gaynor and Bobby Clark in "Jollyanna," a new version of the Broadway musical, "Flahooley."

On opening nights of any stage show the church executives show up to pass their verdict on what their tenants are doing.

"I didn't know that," chattered the vivacious dancer.

"I went to the side of the stage and did a slow grind and twirled this long gold tassel that hangs down in front. Then I would up with a bump."

"After the show when the producer regained consciousness he said, 'Do you know who you did that grind to? The church executives sitting in their box.'"

"They were very nice," added Mitzi. "They suggested I take out the grind, which I did. They said if anybody else had done the dance, it would be out, but because it was me, it was all right."

Returning to the stage is old home week for Mitzi. She was dancing in a civic light opera version of "The Great Waltz" when Fox Studio whisked her off to become a star in her first movie, "My Blue Heaven."

She'd never been censored in the Philharmonic before, but other stage shows have. A touring company of the Broadway musical

Children From Methodist Home To Be On Radio

The story of the Methodist Home at Waco actually told by the children themselves will go on the air again Sunday, September 21, at 8:15 a.m. over fourteen radio stations. The Home is dramatizing activities from the lives of its more than four hundred children again this fall on Sunday morning because of an enthusiastic response from radio listeners all over the Southwest last fall. Some of them wrote that they had contributed to its support many years without ever being able to visit its campus, and that the radio programs gave them a vivid picture of its life.

Students and ex-students have done most of the script-writing, and are acting out the incidents. Music by the Home choir will be a feature of the fifteen-minute broadcasts which are entitled, "These Are Your Children."

Radio stations which will carry the program, nearest this area, are as follows: WFAA, Dallas; KWKC, Abilene, and KGKL, San Angelo.

Charlie Chaplin Investigated For Illegal U.S. Entry

By James F. Donovan
WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (UP) — The Justice Department scheduled a new starring role for movie actor Charlie Chaplin Saturday in an effort to determine whether the famous little tramp of the silent movies should be given his most important "bum's rush." Attorney General James P. McGranery ordered the Immigration Service to bar the famed comedian from re-entering the United States until a hearing has been held to decide if he is admissible under U. S. laws.

Chaplin, a British subject, who has lived in this country for some 40 years without applying for naturalization, sailed for his native England last Wednesday with his wife and four children. His wife is Oona O'Neill, daughter of the American playwright Eugene O'Neill.

PARDON MY GUST!

POWER STEERING on the Roadmaster and Super

BENEATH that big broad bonnet is the reason for this headline. It's a four-barreled automatic carburetor—Airpower by name—which has a way of gulping in what the dictionary defines as "a sudden blast of wind" when extra power is needed. And the way this gorgeous performer can step out as this occurs is something you'll always remember.

For ordinary driving, two barrels are all you need — and two barrels are all that are working. They give you an extra thrifty flow of fuel for round-town cruising.

When extra power is wanted in a hurry — the "reserves" swing into action — feeding extra fuel and extra air in an ever-thrifty mixture, which delivers the greatest horsepower in Buick history.

This is one of many distinctions that endear ROADMASTERS to fine-car owners. It's a car as rich in finish as it is in power — a car of expansive room — restful silence — level in gait — beautifully responsive to your mood and will.

And it offers the effortless ease of Power Steering* especially engineered by Buick to save your energy in parking and slow-motion maneuvers, and still let you feel a proud sense of command and a sure sense of control on the highway.

There's just one question we'd like to ask: When are you going to come in and enjoy the ride of your life?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Optional at extra cost on ROADMASTER and SUPER only.
