EASTLAND, TEXAS, SUNDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1952

PRICE FIVE CENTS

To Observe Oil Progress Week In This County

Mayor Jack Muirhead today proclaimed October 12-18, inclusive, as Eastland's Oil Progress Week.

The proclamation announced that the observance is to be held so that the oil men who live and work in this community may report to their neighbors on the contributions and services which their industry renders to all the public.

During the week designated, the proclamation said, oil men engaged in producing, transporting, refining and marketing petroleum products will cooperate to inform the public about the ways in which their industry has helped make America "the very symbol of progress, comfort and security."

Mayor Muirhead described Eastland's oil men as "friends, neighbors and good citizens", and called attention to the "initiative, skill and daring" by which America's competing oil companies serve the nation.

Posters, banners and leaflets are to be handed out by all Service Stations in the city, which will mark Eastland's Oil Progress Week, according to J. R. Phillips Community Chairman of the Oil Industry Information Committee.

Many Visitors Visit Plant Of Telephone Co.

Open House at the Telephone Office has been quite a success so far, and company officials were agreeably surprised at the number of visitors on Friday. The crowds for Saturday will likely be much larger it is thought.

A visit will enable you to have some idea as to how your telephone service is made possible. Refreshments are being served.

CORRECTION

In Friday's Telegram it was stated that Virgil Seabery was vice chairman of the "Texas Democrats for Eisenhower" for Eastland county. It should have read "Mrs. Virgil Seabery." Also the age of the county chairman is 61 and not 64—bad enough as it is.

Continued 'Dry And Mild' Says Area Forecast

Eastland County, along with the great Southwest, was dry a mild today.

And the weatherman reported early this morning that continued "dry and mild" in the forecast for tomorrow.

Of course, that means no rain. The only area where a change took place was West and North Central Texas where a cold front was moving in from the west.

The air mass reduced temperatures in the Panhandle Saturday, and forecasters expected it to continue east through the northern half of the state.

As usual with such fronts, the weatherman was not sure how far it would go before becoming stationary. Most cold fronts in the South have followed a well worn path from north to south, but the new one had a pronounced easterly drift.

Elsewhere in the Southwest, skies were generally clear. No rain was forecast.

Third Annual Cancer Meeting Be In Graham

Representatives of twenty-one North Texas county units of the American Cancer Society will meet in Graham Oct. 28 for the third annual meeting of the state Society's District 13.

The annual meeting will stress the need for evaluating county cancer control programs and is aimed at strengthening these local organizations for better public cancer education and service.

The meeting will be held at the Graham Memorial Auditorium and will feature talks by county, district and state leaders of the Society. The ACS directors for District 13 are Floyd Randel of Wichita Falls, Mrs. L. E. Dudley, Abilene, and Dr. Porter Brown of Fort Worth.

Two cancer films will be shown including the recently released "Man Alive," which has been hailed as an outstanding color cartoon film for presenting cancer information to men.

The election of the District's lay directors will be held during the luncheon program while the afternoon session will consist of a discussion of long-term plans for more effective cancer control by ACS county units.

Counties comprising District 13 are: Archer, Baylor, Callahan, Clay, Eastland, Haskell, Jack, Jones, Knox, Montague, Palo Pinto, Farker, Shackelford, Stephens, Tarrant, Taylor, Throckmorton, Wichita, Wilbarger, Wise and Young.

Eddie Haines Is Now Star Player McMurry Indians

Eddie Haines, McMurry College tackle from Eastland, is likely to see plenty of action when the Indians tangle with the Abilene Christian College Wildcats in a traditional cross-town grudge game on Oct. 18.

The 22-year-old rivalry will be set this year amidst the McMurry Homecoming and the Indians will be "on the spot." It is normally considered a good grid season on the Reservation if the Tribe beats the Wildcats.

Ike To Report Income Before Election Day

By Merriman Smith

WITH EISENHOWER, Oct. 11 (UP)—Dwight D. Eisenhower said Friday that "of course" he would make public his recent income tax returns or a statement containing substantially the same information before election day.

Eisenhower, just before leaving Phoenix, was asked by reporters, "may we please have an answer from you whether you intend to make public before election time your income tax returns, or a financial statement giving substantially the same information?"

He sent this reply to the newsmen through his press secretary, James Haggerty:

"Of course. If anyone is interested, they can have the report as soon as it is completed. It is virtually a matter of public record anyway."

"The general does not have a complete report on his finances yet," Haggerty said.

When the report is completed, he said, "if anyone has any real interest, they, of course, can take a look."

Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire, one of Eisenhower's key campaign managers, was asked whether "anyone" would include reporters.

"Anyone Can See," Haggerty said in a statement at Phoenix, as Eisenhower started a day of campaigning in Arizona and New Mexico.

A cheering crowd, which police estimated at 12,000 overflowed on Montgomery Stadium field.

Asked whether Sen. Richard M. Nixon, the GOP vice presidential nominee, would make his finances public too, Haggerty said "I don't work for Senator Nixon."

Asked whether the "reports" would include actual income tax returns, Haggerty said he did not know. Neither did he know when the reports could be expected.

Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, Eisenhower's Democratic opponent, recently made public his actual federal tax returns for the past 10 years.

Before Friday's statements by Adams and Haggerty, Eisenhower was represented as feeling that Stevenson's action should not force him into any particular rush to bare his finances.

Since Stevenson's disclosures, however, Eisenhower has been turning over in his mind what would be the best course and has had some of his staff getting his financial records together.

Spoke At Los Angeles

Earlier Friday, Eisenhower said that President Truman was making political statements that Stevenson "could not bring himself to say."

The Republican presidential candidate, in a speech at Los Angeles, said that the President was acting as "White House spokesman" for the Democratic nominee.

Shivers will introduce Eisenhower Tuesday night from the Alamo at San Antonio.

Claud Gilmer of Rock Springs, chairman of the Texas Democrats for Eisenhower, asked Daniel to make the Houston introduction.

"Texas is honored in having its native son, Dwight Eisenhower, as a candidate for President of the United States," Daniel said, "and I will be honored to introduce him in Houston."

Daniel said he "had no... plans at this time" to campaign for Eisenhower. Shivers has said he would make a few more speeches in Eisenhower's behalf before the general elections Nov. 4.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS we live in an age in which civilization has been transformed through the discovery of petroleum in commercial quantities, and

WHEREAS we dwell in a land which is the very symbol of the progress, comfort and security which petroleum makes possible, and

WHEREAS the week of October 12th to 18th has been designated Oil Progress Week, when the oil men of this country will cooperate to inform the public of the contributions of their industry both to our high standard of living and to the preservation of our traditional freedoms, and

WHEREAS the citizens of Eastland who are engaged in producing, transporting, refining and marketing petroleum products desire to participate in the observance of Oil Progress Week by arranging exhibits and joining in various other activities for the purpose of showing how, through initiative, skill and daring, America's competing oil companies serve and will continue to serve the people of this nation and of this state or community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jack Muirhead, Mayor of Eastland, do hereby proclaim the week of October 12th to 18th inclusive to be EASTLAND'S OIL PROGRESS WEEK and do call the attention of all men and women to the many contributions and services rendered to us by the American Petroleum Industry, and most particularly to those rendered by the members of that industry who live and work among us, and who we of Eastland know as friends, and good citizens.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of Eastland to be affixed.

Missing Woman Is Found Near Home Saturday

Mrs. Jenny K. Hinds, 75-year-old Eastland County woman missing from her home for about 30 hours to greatly alarm relatives and neighbors, was in the Ranger Clinic Saturday morning being treated for exposure.

Dr. Watkins, her attending physician, reported her condition as satisfactory Saturday morning at Ranger.

The aged woman, who lives alone near the Staff community about 7 miles southeast of Eastland, was reported missing yesterday by her daughter who lives nearby. The woman had been reported last seen late Thursday.

Following the report an intensive search through the underbrush-covered, rocky terrain in that area was launched, and the countryside was scoured by deputies of the sheriff's department at Eastland, joined by officers and volunteer searchers from Ranger, Eastland and Cisco.

Mrs. Hinds, reported to be feeble-minded, was found Saturday morning at 1:25 a.m., sitting on a rock in a pasture area about three-fourths of a mile from her home. She "was tired," she told officers, and "sat down to rest."

Raisers Urged To 'Hold' Lint

DALLAS, (UP)—Cotton growers were urged to hold back about half the present crop from the market in order to keep prices from plummeting.

The advice came from the belt-wide cotton producers committee, a group that said it had boosted prices from 34 to 39 cents a pound last year through "an orderly marketing program."

The group based its proposal on a federal crop estimate of a 14.4 million bale cotton crop for 1952. The estimate was about four per cent above last month's report.

The committee said, "the rapid harvest of the 1952 cotton crop has moved cotton to market at a rate greater than the normal demand can absorb... the market is glutted with producer offerings."

The committee urged that cotton be held back "in the belief there is a need for all the cotton grown this year, and that the market eventually will develop."

TEXANS' BODIES BACK ON HOME SOIL FROM KOREAN BATTLEFRONT

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11 (UP)—The bodies of six Texans, all killed in action in Korea, were returned to the United States Friday aboard the S.S. Beaver Victory.

The Texans—were a Marine and five soldiers—were among 224 bodies returned on the Beaver Victory.

The soldiers were Pvt. Thomas Spencer, Harlingen; 1st Lt. John L. Weaver, San Antonio; Pvt. Robert L. Jeffrey, Fort Worth; Cpl. Alberto Hernandez, San Angelo, and Pvt. Vinner E. Blackley, Victoria. The Marine was Sgt. Tommy J. Neves, Reby.

The announcement said next of kin had been notified, and the bodies would be sent, with an escort, to the point designated by the next of kin.

Reds Back On Strategic Hill

White Horse Is Taken By Chinks In Savage Push

By ROBERT UDDICK

SEOUL, Korea, Oct. 11 (UP)—Reinforced Chinese Reds drove South Korean infantrymen off the top of bitterly-contested White Horse Mountain in a savage counter-attack Saturday.

The Communists recaptured the important hill guarding the invasion gateway to Seoul only six hours after Republic of Korea Ninth division troops had knocked Chinese troops off it in a lightning "sneak attack."

It was the 23rd time the hill had changed hands since the epic running battle began five days ago.

Frontline details of the Chinese surge to the top of White Horse, northwest of Chorwon, were sketchy, but it was reported the ROKs were pushed 200 yards down the southern slope at 6:30 p.m. (3:30 a.m. CST) after fierce hand-to-hand fighting.

Flares Plaster Enemy

Allied fighter-bombers and tanks plastered the enemy's approach route in an attempt to cut off further Chinese reinforcements.

So far, the Chinese Reds have lost an estimated 10,000 men—2,000 of them in the last 12 hours—in their five-day fight for the strategic height.

Other United Nations troops recaptured big Nori Mountain farther east after a two-week fight, and beat off heavy Red attacks on Dick, Tessie and Christmas Hills on the western front.

In the air, American Sabrejets shot down six Communist MIG-15 jet fighters in battles July south of North Korea's Yalu River border with Red China.

Biggest Victory of Month

It was the biggest air victory of the month for the UN and raised the October bag of MIGs to 14 destroyed and 20 damaged.

ROKs of the Ninth division won complete control of sprawling White Horse except for two small groups of Reds huddled on the peak's southwest and northwest slopes. They were being killed off systematically.

The ROKs won White Horse in a daring, pre-dawn "sneak" attack and dug in amid crashing enemy shells to wait for an expected Communist counterattack.

United Press correspondent Wendell Merick reported the front that the five-day fight had cost the Communists nearly 10,000 men. Some 2,000 of the Reds were killed between 6 p.m. Friday and 6 a.m. Saturday.

"But they can afford it," American Maj. Gen. Wayne C. Smith told Merick.

Smith said the Communists, who already have used up one infantry division, apparently were under orders to keep the hill "at all costs" because it could be used for any big drive southward they might have planned.

"Ike" Leads In Eastland, Straw Vote Reveals

The Straw Vote taken by the Telegram this week has been completed and the final vote shows Eisenhower 79 and Stevenson 30. While most of the votes came from Eastland city voters, other towns and communities in the county were represented. One vote came from far off California. It was for Adlai, and sent in by a former Eastland resident.

We are not so sure the vote reveals anything, for most votes came from local voters. In rural districts there might be a different picture, although at precinct and county Democratic Conventions there was a strong following of Eisenhower supporters, and an uncommitted delegation was sent to the State Convention, and this Convention favored Eisenhower.

On No. 4, we will get the complete story.

MCCARTHY WILL 'TELL ALL' ON STEVENSON ON OCT. 27

SAGINAW, Mich., Oct. 11 (UP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy says he will give his "documentation" on Gov. Adlai Stevenson, over a nationwide radio and television hookup Oct. 27, "reluctantly."

"I will make the address reluctantly," the Wisconsin Republican said here Thursday, "but I don't want any good loyal Democrats to ask after my speech, 'how did we let Stevenson in as our candidate?'"

McCarthy had said previously, "if the American people want Stevenson after I make my documentation, they can have him."

He challenged the Democratic presidential nominee to name a single Communist he will remove from the federal government if he is elected.

Yanks In Korea 'Lack Faith,' Reds Charge

By Henry Shapiro

MOSCOW, Oct. 11 (UP)—Soviet War Minister Marshal A. M. Vasilievski has told the 19th Communist Party Congress the United States suffered a defeat unprecedented in its history in Korea because frontline troops lacked faith in their cause.

In a speech delivered Tuesday, but not published until Friday, Vasilievski said:

"More than two years of war in Korea have shown that the American imperialists have suffered a disgraceful military, political and moral defeat, unprecedented in their history."

"In an effort to fortify their hinterland the American imperialists Nazify their country and their satellites, indoctrinate the population and the Army, and are turning the country into a police state," he said.

"The most experienced generals and officers can be defeated if their soldiers think that the war imposed upon them is deeply unjust and if they execute their frontline duty formally, without faith in the righteousness of their cause and without inspiration," Vasilievski said.

He said that in the post-World War II period the Soviet army has been "in a constant state of readiness, with its men, officers and generals tirelessly perfecting their military and political knowledge, learning the experience of the last war and mastering contemporary combat techniques."

Due to the fact that most of our spare time is no devoted to politics, we may have been neglecting the weather. At any rate the weather has been acting up during the past week, and the weatherman is sending us frost, ice and freezes early in October, and maybe try if we can. We would predict a long, cold winter, but our predictions have been so wild in the past that we are going to let nature take its course without our help.

However, it is not amiss for us to say that frost is much earlier than usual, and according to the Indians, you better prepare for a long, rugged winter, for Indians are usually right.

Doesn't sound reasonable, but it is a fact, nevertheless, winter is already here, if it takes ice to make winter. And at the same time, we announce that spring may also be here. Mrs. L. J. Lambert brought us a nice bouquet of pear blossoms early today, and pear blossoms as a rule, are a forerunner of Spring. The weatherman must have his wires crossed when he brings ice and pear blossoms on the same day. However, you can do most anything in Texas—except make it rain.

We stated in the beginning that we were pretty busy with politics at this time, and we really are. Seems as though we Texas Democrats have been sleeping on the job, and have let that Communistically inclined bunch of Socialists steal our "Party." Harry doesn't own that Presidential Job—we

Night Driving Is More Dangerous Than During Day

DALLAS — Warning to motorists: Don't drive at night unless it's absolutely necessary.

Seven steps for safer night driving were outlined today by an insurance expert. The dangers posed by after-dark travel also were cited.

"Night driving is infinitely more dangerous than daylight driving," said Homer R. Mitchell, chairman of the Texas Mutual Insurance 200th Anniversary Committee.

"This is especially true for motorists determined to 'get there' or 'get home' after long hours on the road."

The seven night driving rules outlined by Mitchell are:

1. Make regular stops. Get out, walk around, relax. You'll rest your eyes, muscles and reflexes and be more alert when you continue.
2. During a long night trip, stop halfway to your destination and eat a good meal, not just coffee and doughnuts.
3. Don't fight traffic, drive defensively. Be constantly on the alert for the driving errors of others.

4. Get into the habit of not staring directly into oncoming headlights. —Look beyond the beams to the road ahead and avoid temporary blindness.

5. Don't over-drive your headlights. Keep your speed down to where you can stop within the distance shown by headlight beams.

6. Overtake slower cars and pass with caution. If a car is coming toward you and two distinct lights are visible it is unsafe to pass.

7. If possible, have a companion with you to help you stay awake, alert and responsible to highway dangers.

"Night driving often is cooler and more pleasant," Mitchell said. "There usually is less traffic and fewer distractions. You can go greater distances in less time." The disadvantages and dangers, however, are very real. He pointed out that night driving is more monotonous, you are more tired, a tendency to drive too fast, windshields get splattered with insects, making visibility poor, and help is harder to find in case of car trouble.

Texas Clubwomen Launch Plans To 'Get-Out-The-Vote' Campaign

Texas clubwomen launched plans for a voter's roundup this week with a "Get-Out-the-Vote" campaign headed by Mrs. John J. Perry of Sweetwater, state chairman.

Each clubwoman is asked to be responsible for getting ten people to the polls Nov. 4, according to Mrs. Perry. She explained "we want to better our 1948 record, when only 25 per cent of the Texans who had the right to vote exercised their privilege."

Mrs. Van Hook Stubbs of Wortham, president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, threw her full support behind the voter's roundup. She stressed that the project is bi-partisan, and underlined that getting people to vote is the object, not how they vote.

The Texas Federation of Women's Clubs is a non-political organization with a membership of over 50,000.

The voter's roundup is directed by the federation's new Americanism department. Object is to build interest in our way of life and government, and to emphasize full citizenship responsibility.

Clubs participating in the contest to Get-Out-the-Vote are to report by Nov. 15 to district chairmen in accordance with contest rules available at General Federation headquarters in Washington. District chairmen turn in the number of persons contacted by participating clubs and voting to the state chairman by Nov. 20. Prizes up to $500, depending on the size of the club, are offered by GWWC for the largest roundup of voters resulting from club efforts.

Christian Science

Man in God's likeness is neither a hopeless sinner nor a helpless invalid, according to the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?" which will be read at Christian Science services next Sunday.

The Golden Text states, "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: who forgetteth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thine diseases; who redeemeth thy life from destruction" (Psalms 108:2-4).

One of the Bible citations to be read will be this verse from Matthew: "When the even was come, they brought unto Him many that were possessed with devils; and He cast out the spirits with His word, and healed all that were sick" (8:16). From the Christian Science textbook by Mary Baker Eddy will be read: "Jesus strips all disguise from error, when His teachings are fully understood. By parable and argument He explains the impossibility of good producing evil; and He also scientifically demonstrates this great fact, proving by what are wrongly called miracles, that sin, sickness, and death are beliefs—illusory errors—which He could and did destroy" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, p. 343).

Sweet Sudan Grass Is Good Temporary Pasture And Hay Crop
Sweet sudan grass is becoming more popular as a temporary pasture mainly because it is more readily eaten by cattle than the common variety. "Five acres of sweet sudan," a cattle man reports, "produced three-fourths ton of hay and 121 pounds of beef per acre. This hay, produced in excess of grazing needs, provided a good reserve of feed."
Another livestock man reporting on a five-acre pasture of sweet sudan not cut for hay said, "Sudan grass provided grazing for six steers last year from May 28 to August 20, and again from October 1 to October 29, producing 269 pounds of beef to the acre."
