County Commissioners Approve Plan 4

around Muleshoe

After writing instructions on making a Banana Split, Sarah Jennings and Clifton Harris, third graders at Lazbuddie Elementary, instructed their teacher, Marca Morris, how to make a Banana Split, even some that weren't edible! In the end, however, the children were able to make a banana split successfully and eat one too!

Lazbuddie First Grade ended a week long unit on the ocean by enjoying "an afternoon at the beach." They learned about ocean life by reading books, collecting shells, and doing experiments on waves. The highlight of the afternoon was a chance to "ride the waves."

of the country," Sharp said.

In all, 914 Texas cities received $87 million as their September rebates for a 1991 total of $928.6 million.

Great Fiesta Texas Ground Round-up

Two legendary Texas heroes visited Bailey County Wednesday, September 11 for "The Great Fiesta Texas Dirt Round-up." The project is part of a statewide campaign to collect a shovelful of dirt from every county in Texas for use at the $100 million Fiesta Texas musical showpark now under construction in San Antonio 15 miles northwest of San Antonio at the intersection of I-10 and Loop 1604.

With the help of County Judge Marilyn Cox, and other county leaders, Fiesta Texas ambassadors "Davy Crockett" and "Gregorio Esparza" collected a shovelful of dirt from the county courthouse lawn in a special ceremony at 9:30 September 11.

"We want to make sure that every part of Texas is represented at the showpark since Fiesta Texas will celebrate the musical and cultural diversity of all of Texas," said Fiesta Texas General Manager Bill Hoelscher. "By collecting dirt from every county in Texas, we recognize what ties us all together—our love of the land, the very soil we call 'Texas.'"

"With this campaign, we'll make every county in the state a

Re-districting Finished Sent To Justice Dept.

In a public hearing held Sept. 6 for the purpose of re-apportioning County Commissioner Precincts, Constable Precincts, and Election Precincts the following were in attendance: Marilyn Cox, County Judge; R.L. Scott, County Commissioner Precinct No. 1; C.E. Grant, County Commissioner Precinct No. 2; Joey Kindle, Commissioner Precinct 3; Bennie Claunch Commissioner Precinct 4; Vicki Black, Deputy County Clerk; Margrethe Taylor; Harvey Bass, Pat Prater and Juan Chavez, members of the Citizen Committee; Alberto Daniel, and Amy Hall and Susan Huber, both Legal Aides.

Rick Hair, with Maps Resources Inc. was unable to attend, but had Plan 4 Federal Expressed to Muleshoe. He also informed the court that Plan 3 submitted by Alberto Daniel and Juan Chavez cannot go through the Census Blocks. Ideal population in each commissioner precinct would be 1,766. With Plan 3 total maximum deviation would be 44.7 percent. A 10 percent deviation would be allowed.

According to Hair, Plan 3 left rural areas as is, changed city portions only and was unconstitutional totally out of balance. The court had rejected Plans 1 and 2 feeling they weren't workable.

Exhibit A showed Statistical Measures of population equality and total maximum deviation, which should be less than 10 percent.

Exhibit B showed the analysis of population in Commissioners precinct based on 1990 Census data—needed 522 people to bring precincts No. 4 into

Use Smart Job Seeking Skills

While a soft economy has left thousands of Texans standing in the unemployment line, many of those looking for a job don't go about it correctly, explained a Texas Christian University career counselor.

"Searching for employment gets down to using smart job seeking skills, and most people don't use them," said Career Planning and Placement Director Carolyn Ulrickson.

The 17-year veteran of career counseling noted that smart actions include writing a cover letter, which reinforces strong points in a resume, and targeting resumes to potential employers for whom you are truly qualified to work. Ulrickson also said to tell friends and acquaintances of the job search, especially ones who come in contact with a lot of people.

Those who lose a job experience the stages of grief, according to Ulrickson. "They get into that anger phase where they are saying 'I'm going to show them-I'm going to get a better job than I've ever had.'" Oftentimes that may not be possible, she said.

Laid-off workers may look for a carbon copy of their old job with a competitor, she explained. However, the competitor may be having trouble as well. Ulrickson suggested looking at those skills that would be useful to a variety of employers.

Ulrickson stressed making a job out of looking for a job. "This includes dressing each morning as if you were going to work and making about 25 phone calls daily," she said.

In good economic times those searching for a job will get 25 nos before getting a yes from a potential employer, she said. Job-seekers need to look at rejections as a numbers game, Ulrickson counseled.

PUBLIC NOTICE BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 5, 1991

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 114 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize home rule cities having a population of 5,000 or fewer inhabitants to amend their city charters by a majority vote of a city's qualified voters at an election held for that purpose. The amendment makes clear that home rule cities that have declined in population below the population required to initially adopt a charter may nevertheless continue to amend their charters.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment allowing home-rule cities with a population of 5,000 or less to amend their charters by popular vote."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 10 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to authorize the Texas Department of Transportation to expend money, from any source available, for the costs of the turnpikes, toll roads, or toll bridges of the Texas Turnpike Authority, provided that any monies expended from the state highway fund shall be repaid to the fund from tolls or other turnpike revenue.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment mandating the repayment to the Department of Transportation of monies expended to assist the Texas Turnpike Authority in the construction, maintenance, and operation of turnpikes, toll roads and toll bridges."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 26 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Veterans' Land Board to invest, as authorized by law, moneys of the Veterans' Land Fund which are not immediately committed to the payment of principal and interest on bonds issued by the Veterans' Land Board, the purchase of lands, or the payment of expenses. Investment of such moneys would no longer be restricted to investments in bonds or obligations of the United States. The proposed amendment would also authorize the Veterans' Land Board to invest, as authorized by law, moneys of the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund which are not immediately committed to the payment of principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued by the Veterans' Land Board for the benefit of the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund, the making of home mortgage loans, or the payment of expenses. Investment of such moneys would no longer be restricted to investments in bonds or obligations of the United States. The proposed amendment gives the legislature power to implement the amendment and to delegate such duties and authority to the Veterans' Land Board as it deems necessary.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to further implement and enhance the administration of the veterans' housing assistance and land programs and to expand the investment authority of the Veterans' Land Board."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 4 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to authorize the issuance of a maximum of $1.1 billion in general obligation bonds. The proceeds of the bonds are to be used to acquire, construct, or equip new prisons and substance abuse felony punishment facilities, mental health and mental retardation institutions, and youth correction institutions, to repair and renovate existing facilities of those institutions and to acquire, repair, or renovate other facilities for use as state prisons or substance abuse felony punishment facilities. The $1.1 billion is in addition to the $900 million currently authorized by the constitution to be expended on bond issues for facilities of correctional and mental health and mental retardation institutions. The bonds would constitute a general obligation of the state. The bonds and interest on the bonds would be paid from the first money coming into the state treasury that is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution, less any amount in a sinking fund at the end of the preceding fiscal year that is pledged to payment of the bonds or interest.

tion institutions, and youth correction institutions, to repair and renovate existing facilities of those institutions and to acquire, repair, or renovate other facilities for use as state prisons or substance abuse felony punishment facilities. The $1.1 billion is in addition to the $900 million currently authorized by the constitution to be expended on bond issues for facilities of correctional and mental health and mental retardation institutions. The bonds would constitute a general obligation of the state. The bonds and interest on the bonds would be paid from the first money coming into the state treasury that is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution, less any amount in a sinking fund at the end of the preceding fiscal year that is pledged to payment of the bonds or interest.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of up to $1.1 billion in general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping new prisons or other punishment facilities to confine criminals, mental health and mental retardation institutions, and youth correction institutions, for major repair or renovation of existing facilities of those institutions, and for the acquisition of, major repair to, or renovation of other facilities for use as state prisons or other punishment facilities."

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 39 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow a county, junior college district, or municipality to exempt tangible personal property from ad valorem taxation if: (1) the property is acquired or brought into the state in an enterprise zone to be forwarded outside the state, (2) the property is assembled, stored, repaired, maintained, manufactured, processed, or fabricated in the enterprise zone, (3) the property is transported outside the state not later than 175 days after being acquired or brought into an enterprise zone, and (4) the person who acquired or brought the property into an enterprise zone is a qualified business. A county, junior college district, or municipality may exempt such property by entering into a written agreement with a qualified business that states the duration of the exemption and the terms on which the exemption is granted. Any action to exempt property must be taken before April 1 of the first year in which the property would otherwise be taxed. The term "enterprise zone" means an area that (1) has been designated as such by a state agency responsible for economic development, and (2) has pervasive poverty, unemployment, and economic distress. The term "qualified business" means a business that meets the qualification established by general law, and requires that the qualified business is actively engaged in a new business in the enterprise zone or is expanding a business that is already active in the enterprise zone. An enterprise zone is created to foster economic development in an area of pervasive poverty and unemployment.

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 8 proposes a constitutional amendment that would establish a Texas Ethics Commission with the powers and duties provided by law. The commission would consist of eight appointed members selected as follows: two members of different political parties appointed by the governor from a list of at least ten names submitted by the members of the house of representatives from each major political party; two

A major political party is a political party required by law to hold a primary. With the exception of the initial appointees, commission members would serve for four-year terms. A member who has served for one term and any part of a second term would not be eligible for reappointment. The commission would be authorized to recommend the salary of the members of the legislature and may recommend that the salary of the speaker of the house of representatives and the lieutenant governor be set at an amount higher than that of other members. If the commission recommends a change in salary, the voters would be authorized to accept or reject the salary change at the next general election for state and county officers. If the voters approve the recommended salary, that salary would take effect January 1 of the next odd-numbered year; if the voters reject the recommended salary, no change in salary would occur. The commission would set the per diem of the members of the legislature and of the lieutenant governor. The per diem could be raised or lowered biennially as necessary to pay members' costs, but could not exceed the amount allowed as of January 1 that year as a federal income tax deduction for living expenses incurred in a legislative day in connection with a member's business as a legislator, disregarding any federal income tax exception for legislators residing near the Capitol. The commission would have other powers and duties provided by the commission's enabling act (Senate Bill 1, 72nd Legislature, Regular Session). The amendment would also provide that an increase in the emoluments of the office of Lieutenant Governor would not make a legislator ineligible to serve in the office of Lieutenant Governor.

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 6 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the board of trustees of each statewide public retirement system to invest the funds of the system in such manner as the board considers prudent. The board would no longer be limited to investing the funds of the system in securities. The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment creating the Texas Ethics Commission and authorizing the commission to recommend the salary for members of the legislature and the lieutenant governor, subject to voter approval, and to set the per diem for those officials, subject to a limit."

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 21 proposes a constitutional amendment that would permit the legislature to create debt by or on behalf of the state if the legislature submitted the debt question to the voters of the state in the form of a proposition and a majority of those voting approved the proposition. The legislature may call the election, by joint resolution approved by at least two-thirds of the members of each house, during any regular session or during any special session if the subject of the proposition is included in the Governor's proclamation for that special session. A proposition must clearly describe the amount and purpose for which debt is to be created and must describe the source of payment for the debt. The amount of debt stated in the proposition may not be exceeded and may not be renewed unless the right to exceed or renew is stated in the proposition. The legislature may enact laws necessary to implement the authority granted by a proposition. A law enacted in anticipation of the election on a proposition is valid if, by its terms, it is enacted subject to approval of the related proposition. State debt that is created following voter approval of a proposition and that is approved by the Attorney General is incontestable for any reason.

PROPOSITION NO. 11 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 11 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the commissioner of the General Land Office to issue patents for certain public free school fund land for which there is not a valid transfer of title from either the State or the Republic of Texas to a private party. A patent is a document of title issued by the state. On application to the School Land Board, a person is entitled to receive a patent if: (1) the land is surveyed public free school fund land, (2) the land was not patentable under the law before the adoption of this proposed amendment, (3) the person acquired the land without knowledge of the title defect out of the State of Texas or the Republic of Texas and held the land under color of title, the chain of which dates from at least January 1, 1941, (4) the person has a recorded deed on file in the county courthouse and, in conjunction with his predecessor in interest, has claimed the land for at least fifty years as of January 1, 1991, and (5) the person, in conjunction with his predecessor in interest, for at least 50 years has paid taxes on the land together with all interest and penalties associated with any delinquency. If the applicant is denied a patent, the applicant may file suit against the School Land Board in a district court in the county where the land is located within 60 days from the date of denial. The proposed amendment does not apply to beach land, submerged land, or islands, and may not be used to resolve a boundary dispute. The proposed amendment also does not apply to land found by a court to be state-owned or to land on which the state has given a mineral lease that is in effect when a patent is sought. A patent under this proposed amendment for land within five miles of mineral production shall reserve minerals to the state in the manner provided by law for reservations of minerals in sales to claimants of unsurveyed school land within five miles of production. An application for a patent under this proposed amendment must be filed with the School Land Board before January 1, 1993.

This proposed constitutional amendment is similar to the version of article VII, section 4A, that was in effect between 1981 and 1990. The main difference is that under the earlier version the applicant for a patent to land had to have a chain of title that dated back to at least as early as January 1, 1932.

PROPOSITION NO. 12 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 2 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to pass general laws authorizing Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board or its successor to issue and sell up to $300 million of general obligation bonds to finance education loans to students. The maximum net effective interest rate to be borne by the bonds would be set by law. The amendment would also authorize the legislature to provide for the investment of bond proceeds and to establish an interest and sinking fund to pay the bonds and provide for the investment of such fund. Bonds authorized under this amendment would be paid from the first money coming into the treasury in each fiscal year that is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution, less any amount in an interest and sinking fund established at the end of the preceding year that is pledged to the payment of the bonds or interests.

PROPOSITION NO. 13 ON THE BALLOT

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds not to exceed $300,000,000 to continue existing programs to provide educational loans to students, with repayments of student loans applied toward retirement of the bonds."

PROPOSITION NO. 14 ON THE BALLOT

The proposed amendment increases the maximum principal amount of the bonds from 20 percent to 50 percent of the $500 million amount authorized by article III, section 49-d-7, of the Texas Constitution. The amendment would also authorize the legislature to provide for the investment of bond proceeds and to establish an interest and sinking fund to pay the bonds and provide for the investment of such fund. Bonds authorized under this amendment would be paid from the first money coming into the treasury in each fiscal year that is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution, less any amount in an interest and sinking fund established at the end of the preceding year that is pledged to the payment of the bonds or interests.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows:

60 Years Ago

The principal subject of discussion at the Kiwanis meeting Friday of last week was the proposed organization of sudan growers for better marketing facilities and better prices. S. E. Cone, grain dealer of Lubbock, and George M. Roach, of Lubbock, were both present and talked strongly against such a proposal. Several local citizens sponsored the movement. Other guests present were M.S. Hutson, Hale Center; Charles M. Davis, Lubbock, and Miss Wealthy Johnson, Amarillo.

A new vegetable packing shed is being built this week at the R. L. Brown farm west of town. This shed is for the handling of vegetables on the Brown farm only, and a night crew will be kept on throughout the season to accommodate trucks from distant parts of the state.

The business manager and editor of the Journal made a visit to the vegetable farms west of Muleshoe Monday, and we were surprised at the fine crops out there. Pickers by the dozens were busy in bean fields and trucks were loading out for markets in distant cities. There are acres and acres of the finest tomatoes, beans, okra, peppers and onions. Big ten-wheeler trucks pull in day and night to load out onions--the finest on the market. They go as far east as Mississippi and Alabama. Onion prices are already good, and many growers are storing a large percent of their crop for winter markets.

Mrs. Naomi St. Clair of Muleshoe went to the semi-finals in the women's golf tournament held in Ruidoso last week. Mrs. St. Clair said a particularly strong group of players entered the tournament and played on a pretty tough course. Slanting greens and many hazards add to the difficulties on this course, one of the most beautiful in the country.

Changing from beach-wear to school-wear should not be too difficult. Trendy styles, in soft knit wash-and-wear fabrics, are easy to care for. Knit tops and bottoms in florals, funky prints and plaids. Neon shades are out and hot pink, deep purple and banana yellow are hits with students.

Boys turn to the new urban trend. Jeans give way to the more popular "overalls" and woven shirts featuring long sleeves and mock turtle. There are many choices in fabrics and dye patterns.

He has been writing poems and songs for 20 years. He is also a talented guitar player.

Through the years he has had his own bands and played some of the songs that he has written. Fourteen songs have been published through the years.

Randall has placed and won different kinds of poetry contests and song lyric contests.

His poetry writing has placed his writing in magazines, books, etc. through the years.

A song written in 1976 about the pollution of this earth and the consequences if things don't change on planet earth.

It was looked upon very favorably during Earth Day 90.

The Earth poem was sent to all the governors in the U.S. Governors replied with approval of the Earth poem. In Montana it was placed in the governors waiting room.

Earth song and poem are the same work only difference is the song has a chorus, lead sheet and recordings.

School kids in the states of Pennsylvania and New Jersey used the song Earth as an Earth Day Anthem.

Some of the kids requested a cassette tape and lead sheet of the song. It was sent.

His Earth poem was also chosen last year as the top ten percent of all the world of poetry work.

He was invited to a poetry convention in Las Vegas to honor his achievements in the World of Poetry 1990. Randall did not attend but he received his awards for the Earth poem and was named a Golden Poet 90.

Year of the earth was also a time that Randall lead sheet song Earth was placed in a book entitled "A Collection of Voices", a collection of letters that were sent to Earth Day 90. Out of 80,000 letters from all around the world to Earth Day.

Randall's Earth song was placed in this book and was released to the world May 1991 for all to read. Copies of the books were sent to his school Samnorwood, Texas where he graduated in 1971. The other book was sent to his local library in Wellington, Texas called Collingsworth Public Library. This year he was invited to a poetry convention in New York City, New York to be honored for all that he has contributed to poetry throughout the years.

Randall says that as long as there is something to write about he will continue to write songs and poems.

Bales Joins Bailey County EMS

This has been a very busy and exciting time for Bailey County EMS. The Muleshoe area can be very proud of one of its own. Mr. Kim Eric Bales is now a certified Paramedic. Kim was notified the 16th of August that he had successfully completed all requirements and passed the state exam. It has been a long and time consuming ordeal for all concerned especially for Kim's family, so we take this time to thank them for sharing Kim. Now this area has two home-twon Paramedics that will be willing and very capable to serve the medical needs of this area. Kim has been in class since January. The course consists of class room hours plus ambulance rotation, emergency room time, plus time spent in intensive care, cardiac care, pediatric care, respiratory care and other areas of specialized medicine. All of this has been done in the Lubbock hospitals.

Kim, wife Lori and son Tanner, age 2 live here in Muleshoe. Kim first became involved in EMS in January 1989, he was certified as an EMT in June of 89, then in November 1990 he went on to be an EMT-SS (special skills).

He has worked as a volunteer for Bailey County EMS for 2 1/2 years. Now that Kim is a Paramedic he will be employed by Bailey County EMS where he will be helping Jackey Burris, EMT-P, Director, with the medical coverage on the ambulance.

"The Bailey County EMS is a very active and dedicated group of local people who are trained at four different levels of certification. Emergency Care Attendant (ECA), Emergency Medical Technician (EMT)-SS (special skills) and EMT-P (emergency medical technician-paramedic). All of these volunteers work together to help any one that needs emergency medical help," states Bales.

The day crew consist of Jackey Burris, Joyce McGehee-EMT, and Alex Garcia-EMT. The volunteers staff the ambulance from 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m. daily. The volunteers are: Todd & Starla Ellis, Kim & Sheila Black, Curby & Kay Lynn Brantley, J'Don Kube, Ralph Sanchez, Mary Bonham, Raymond Martinez, Robert Smith.

There are four EMT students at this time: Gary Don Martin, Heath Scott, Tommy Green, Jo

Miller. These four finished class in August and are doing their ER & ambulance rotations in Lubbock, when completed they will take the state test and upon passing will be certified as EMT's and can go on as a volunteer.

There will also be several from the Farwell, Lazbuddie and Muleshoe area going on to the next level of training, EMT-SS, from the Muleshoe area will be Joyce McGehee, Tommy Green and Jo Miller. This level of training will take approximately 5-6 months to complete. We wish all of these students good luck with their training.

The three months from June thru August have been very busy. The total call volume has been 126, there have been seven automobile accidents with several injury's. We are thankful none have been lasting permanent problems.

The rest of the call's break down as follows: emergency's 59, Transfers: 36, No Transport: 28

Averaging 42 calls per month. By age: 0-30:21 patients, 31-60: 19 patients, 61 & over: 60 patients

The ambulance provided coverage four times at two rodeo's. And are currently providing the Muleshoe and Threeway schools with coverage Square," a central square within the showpark that will feature brick pavers engraved with the names of all 5,000-plus towns, cities and counties in Texas.

The Fiesta Texas team is traveling all across the state--over 22,000 miles--to visit all 254 counties in Texas within a three-month timeframe. The campaign is sponsored by Chevrolet-GEO, Coca-Cola and Diamond Shamrock.

"This type of schedule takes an heroic effort, so we called upon two great heroes of Texas history--Davy Crockett and Gregorio Esparza--defenders of the Alamo," Hoelscher said. "As our ambassadors, they will help spread the word about Fiesta Texas, and make sure that we have a little part of every county in Texas to include at the showpark."

Scheduled to open next spring, Fiesta Texas will feature the history, culture and music of the Lone Star State in four themed villages--Los Festivales (Hispanic), Crackaxle Canyon (Western), Rockville (Nostalgic 1950s rock n' roll) and Spassburg (German).

The 200-acre musical showpark, which opens its gates for the first time next spring, will highlight more than 60 live musical productions daily on seven theater stages--three totally enclosed and air-conditioned and four open-air and shaded--throughout the park. A wide variety of rides, children's attractions, restaurants and retail shops will join the theaters in reflecting the theming for each of the park's main areas.

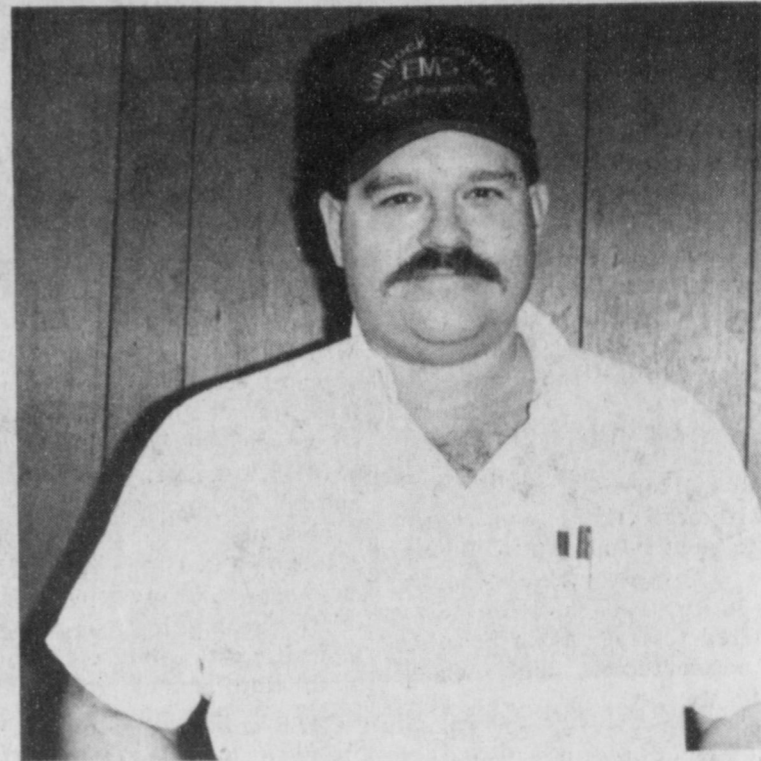

Fiesta Texas is a partnership between the La Cantera Group Ltd., a subsidiary of USAA, the nation's fifth-largest private auto and homeowner insurer; and Hospitality and Leisure Management Co., Inc., a subsidiary of Opryland USA Inc., whose best known components include the Grand Ole Opry and the Opryland theme park.

Fiesta Texas is expected to create 2,500 seasonal and 250 full-time jobs.

This past weekend the EMS Organization provided and cooked the meals on Saturday for the Muleshoe Dog Club, they had a hunting trials with the competition held at the Wild Life refuge. This was very interesting to watch, to see how man and dog could work as a team.

One other very exciting bit of news, the new ambulance should be right on schedule and be delivered the first part of October. More on this later.

Daniel did ask the court what the outcome of this meeting would be. Judge Cox stated that it was to find out their feelings and get their input. "As of now, I have no difficulty with Plan 4," Daniel said. "What's next after this meeting," ask Amy Hall. Judge Cox stated, "We have to post an agenda for the commissioners to adopt a plan and then it will be sent to the Justice Department for approval. "The Commissioners Court will make a final decision with the same number of voting boxes and at the same polling places.

"I go for Plan 4 as it is" said Juan Chavez. Daniel asked about the Census blocks they could request to modify Plan 4, and inquired as to when the commissioners court was to discuss this. Judge Cox stated "as soon as possible."

with $3.7 million, adding up to $40.3 million for the year. Fort Worth received $2.7 million for a total of $30.1 million this year and El Paso received $2.3 million for a 1991 total of $23.5 million.

Hospital districts in Baylor, Ector and Reeves counties were sent a combined total of $673,732.

September's checks to cities, counties, hospital districts and city transit departments include taxes collected on July sales and reported in August by business filing monthly sales tax returns with the state. This month's checks to MTAs reflect taxes reported in June, July and August. Businesses file either local sales taxes levied in the area and send them to the Comptroller's Office with their tax returns. The state retains its share and returns to cities, counties and other taxing entities their local portion of the sales tax.

All local sales taxes must be approved by area voters. Most local governments use the money for services such as fire fighting, road maintenance and law enforcement. City sales taxes may also be used for local economic development and property tax reduction.

New Teachers And Staff Spolighted by Students

Administrators, teachers and students welcome new personnel to Muleshoe High School. Students in Pat Watson's creative writing class recently interviewed, then wrote articles about new members of the staff; they would like to share their articles with the community.

Donna Coe

by Ricky Flores

Although there are many professions in this world, Donna Coe chose to be a math graduate. Mrs. Coe was inspired to teach math because of an incredible high school math teacher. She was also inspired by a very dear friend who was accidentally killed.

Donna Coe was raised in Dora, New Mexico. She attended high school there and still lives in Dora. She is a graduate of ENMU and was married during her senior year in high school, in 1972. She started school at ENMU in the fall of 1981, stayed out a year, and finished in December of 1990.

Mrs. Coe is a good teacher, mother, and wife. She and her husband Gaylord have three children; Jennifer, 18; Shannon, 16; and Adrienne, 4. The eldest, Jennifer, attends college at ENMU. Mrs. Coe stated that her family is athletic and that she and her husband make music together by performing Blue Grass music.

Mrs. Coe has many hobbies. She likes to sew and make crafts. She also plays the guitar, but her favorite hobby is probably watching her kids play sports. She also loves the game of volleyball.

Mrs. Coe enjoys MHS and the students in her class. On her first day of teaching at MHS, she felt rushed because of short schedules. She is in favor of all the rules at the school and enjoys the personnel at MHS, especially Mrs. Barrett and Mr. Bishop.

This new math teacher originally wanted to become an engineer. She previously planned on going to Texas Tech. Instead, she chose to study math and attend college at ENMU. She did her student teaching at Portales, New Mexico. Later on, she wants to go back to college and get her master's degree in math.

Mrs. Coe is involved in many organizations. She is president of FFA alumni. They do fund raisers and give the money to the needy. She is the vice-president of Phi Kappa Phi at ENMU; this includes the NHS. She is also on the Roosevelt County Fair board. Many words can describe Donna Coe: outgoing, caring, and sensitive reflect her personality.

Ted Leps

by David Quintana

Members of the varsity football team became quite well acquainted with Ted Leps during two-a-days. Other students are now getting a chance to know him in the classroom. Coach Leps, a new face at M.H.S. this year, went to high school at Midland Lee. There he received the All-District award for second base, two years in a row. He went from high school straight to college. The college he attended was Sul Ross State University. He played second base for the baseball team at Sul Ross. He majored in Kinesology and Sports Science with a minor in History.

The most embarrassing thing that happened to Coach Leps in college is quite funny. He was playing against Texas Tech. He looked at the scoreboard and it said that there were two outs. When they hit the ball, he made a great play. He touched second base and started walking into the dugout. Everyone on the other team and all of the one thousand fans started laughing at him. When he looked up, he realized that there was only one out.

He started his career coaching and teaching in Del Rio. He moved from Del Rio to Muleshoe where he now teaches American history, World history and health. He coaches varsity football and is the head baseball coach. Coach Leps really likes Muleshoe, and he is excited because he has never been around people with such great attitudes. Good luck in the future and welcome to Muleshoe, Coach Ted Mathew Leps.

Chris Mardis

By Ramiro Alarcon

Students in the Muleshoe school system have had a chance to know H.B. and Doris Mardis, former teachers for M.I.S.D. Now many of the same students are becoming acquainted with the Mardis' son, Chris, who is in his first year as computer teacher at Muleshoe High School.

Chris Mardis was born in Clovis, New Mexico and also attended and graduated from Clovis High School. After graduation he attended West Texas State University in Canyon. Before coming to Muleshoe, he taught high school math at Amherst High School. He thinks that Muleshoe is an extremely friendly town and enjoys teaching at M.H.S. and will enjoy it even more once all the computers are repaired.

Mr. Mardis is married to Gina Mardis and has a fourteen-month-old daughter named Courtney. His hobbies are team roping and raising and training Border Collie sheep dogs. Good Luck with the computers and welcome to muleshoe.

Kim Silhan

by Corrie Savuto

Kim Silhan, a green-eyed, sandy blond, is the new computer lab aide at Muleshoe High School. She has been working for five years with computers, but this is her first year to teach. Although September third was her first day with students, she has been working many days completing required paperwork on each student.

This newlywed of five months loves to ride horses and spend time with her family. She refers to herself as a city girl. However, that changed when she married Eric Silhan, a farmer, and moved to Enochs. She now wears boots and jeans, listens to country music, and is adjusting to farm life in a tiny community. The Silhans look forward to having children in two or three years.

She feels very welcome in Muleshoe and at Muleshoe High School and hopes that this year will be productive and positive. We hope she will be a part of our school community for many years to come. Welcome, Mrs. Silhan.

Al Bishop

by Tina Copley

An imposing new member of the Muleshoe High School staff is often seen in the halls as he observes students and faculty in his new administrative assignment. Al Bishop, the new principal of Muleshoe High, has been an educator for twenty-one years. He moved to Muleshoe from Pecos, Texas. He enjoys working with teenagers during their high school career. Mr. Bishop appreciates the support that people of the community give to the schools. He says that the students here are honest about what they want. Mr. Bishop is also impressed by the friendly students, parents, and supporters of Muleshoe High.

The changes this year have not only affected the students, Mr. Bishop and other administrators have asked the teachers to make some changes as well. The administration, the students, and the faculty have succeeded in making Muleshoe High School a better learning environment.

Since the new policy has been a success, Mr. Bishop is now looking for new improvement ideas. He welcomes student ideas for new ways to improve lunch/break areas, to boost school spirit, or to plan outside activities. Students and teachers are welcome to share their ideas with him.

In addition to his educational responsibilities, Mr. Bishop loves to have fun. He enjoys golfing, listening to music, and dancing. His favorite kinds of music are 50's and 60's rock-n-roll and country. Mr. Bishop's stepson, Kevin, is a senior at San Angelo State University. Kevin's wife, Shelley, is one of the hottest rated country-western DJ's in Texas. Shelley's position has given them a chance to meet all the top country singers. Mr. Bishop's daughter, Leelyn, is a senior at Andrews High. His wife, Brenda, is a secretary at the two elementary schools in Muleshoe.

Congratulations, Mr. Bishop, on the great job so far!

of Timothy Lynn Moore when asked about his goals for the 1991-92 school year. Coach Moore is a rookie at his new coaching job as his last teaching experience was as a student teacher at Lubbock Estacado High School.

Moore's favorite class to teach is world history. He also coaches freshman football, junior varsity girls' basketball, and is an assistant coach for baseball. His interests outside of school are playing golf, hunting with his friends, and snow skiing. He is not married.

When asked his reasons for choosing Muleshoe as his first teaching experience, he stated that he needed a job, and he wanted to stay in this area. His first impression of MHS was that it reminded him of his old high school.

The faculty and students at MHS want to welcome Timothy Lynn Moore to Muleshoe and wish him a terrific year.

Terry Graves

by Courtney Graves

The old expression "you can never go home again" has been proven untrue this year by a special person at Muleshoe High School. Terry Graves, or Coach Graves to his students, has returned to his alma mater, this time to teach art and tennis.

Coach Graves attended college at New Mexico Junior College for two years and then transferred to Texas Tech for three years. Coach Graves' first teaching job was at a large high school in El Paso. When asked how classes in El Paso compare to the classes in Muleshoe, Coach Graves replied "The classes are a lot smaller!" He stated the fact that sometimes he had thirty to forty seventh and eighth grade students in a class at one time. Coach Graves also mentioned that it is a lot easier to teach kids you already know.

Coach Graves has a variety of interests that range from playing tennis to creating beautiful artwork. During the summer, Coach Graves runs the local city swimming pool by day and plays tennis by night. "One day I hope to be able to sketch the scenes of the pool while I lifeguard," said Coach Graves.

Coach Graves major concern is to see Muleshoe High School respected throughout the state, not only for its academics but also for its athletics. With such a fine example as Coach Graves at MHS it will be hard not to attain these goals. Welcome back Coach Graves

Nina Maldonado

by Charla Holt

"One" unusual situation? A teacher of fourteen years has seen many, and Mrs. Maldonado recalls one particular incident from the past. She was teaching a cooking class and they were making pies. She stepped out of the room for something and came back to find the boys showing the girls how to roll the dough, pinch the edges, ect. She expected the situation to be the other way around.

Mrs. Nina Maldonado is one of the many new faculty members at Muleshoe High School. She teaches HECE, Child Development, and Bachelor Cooking. When asked about her goals for this year, she stated "I want an excellent program. I want the students to enjoy home economics. I want them to learn about cooking and child development, and learn to their full potential."

She has taught fourteen years, the last five at Dalhart, Texas. When asked about her first impression of Muleshoe, she sighed and thought for a moment. "It is the same as Dalhart, only smaller, and somehow friendlier." Her husband, Frank Maldonado, is one of the new assistant principals at the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Maldonado have two children, Debbie and Dennis. Between her two kids, she has four grandsons. As for her hobbies, she enjoys working with crafts, cooking and trying new dishes. She also enjoys punch embroidery.

If you happen to see either of the Maldonados, give them a big smile and a hearty Muleshoe welcome!

Frank Maldonado

by Maria Almanza

Mr. Frank Maldonado has stated that one of his goals this year is, "To help students receive a good education before they go out into the 'real' world." He has just recently filled the position of assistant principal and the staff and administration of MHS are sure he will achieve this goal. Mr. Maldonado came to Muleshoe from Dalhart, Texas. He decided to come to Muleshoe for various reasons. He saw a good administration and staff and a nice community. He felt welcome and it seemed like the place to go. Mr. Maldonado has a married daughter in Albuquerque, New Mexico, and a married son in Amarillo, Texas, who attends West Texas State University. He is a grandfather to four boys. His wife Nina Maldonado teaches at Muleshoe High School in the Home Ec department.

Mr. Maldonado enjoys tennis, dancing, reading, carpentry, and listening to music. He commented that he is never bored and can always find something to do. Another goal of Mr. Maldonado's is to provide the students of MHS an environment where learning can take place. He hopes students will help him achieve his goals by putting forth their best in academics and directing energies into learning. The impression he has of Muleshoe High School students is that of friendly and mannerly students that are easy to get along with. He has seen that the students of MHS are interested in learning. By being friendly, students have allowed Mr. Maldonado to feel welcome at Muleshoe High School. We hope Mr. Maldonado will always feel welcome at MHS.

Scott Turner

by April Watkins

Walking into "the office" at Muleshoe High School is always a frightening experience, reardless of whether a student is in trouble or not. While I was waiting for this interview I began to get the pre-punishment jitters and I was not even guilty of anything that I was aware of. When I stepped into the office, my fears were put to rest because the object of my interview had a big smile and claimed to be in a great mood. Mr. Scott Turner, one of the new assistant principals at MHS, turned out to be a very interesting and entertaining person.

The interview began when I mentioned to Mr. Turner that he is living in my old house; that got our interview off to a great start. Mr. Scott Turner moved to Muleshoe with his wife Lisa and two-year-old daughter Ashley, from Pecos, Texas, where he lived and taught for the past four years.

Mr. Turner grew up on a farm in Plata, Texas, and drove thirty miles to Marfa to attend school. He has two brothers and one sister, and he comes from a long line of teachers. While he was in high school, Mr. Turner learned to play the guitar and he worked in a band to pay his way through college. He even wrote a song called "Jalapeños Are Hot" that was released on a record. In college Mr. Turner was a student body senator and he learned about real law through that experience.

Mr. Turner shared some very amusing stories about his previous teaching jobs. His funniest moment was when a student's pen burst in that student's mouth during a test. He also shared an embarrassing moment with me about when he was writing on the board and a girl made a comment about his...you had better ask Mr. Turner about that one. While you are it, as him about 5th grade initiation and the Hefty trash bag parachute. It is an interesting story.

On a more serious note, Mr. Turner and I discussed discipline at MHS. He said "Discipline is not different this year; it is just being enforced." The bell rang and that concluded my interview with Mr. Turner. Mr. Scott Turner is an easy person to talk to, and he is very interested in what the students have to say. If you are ever in the high school, drop by and welcome Mr. Turner to Muleshoe.

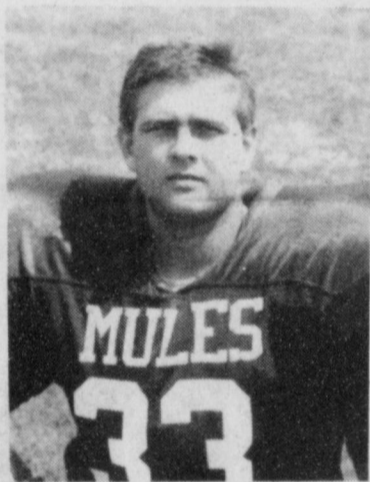

Susan Noack

by Celia Villalobos

Few teachers have probably had a worst experience than Mrs. Susan Noack. When asked, she stated, "Once I took a job at a school where the animals from the previous year were left in the lab all summer. I had to clean up all those dead animals." We hope Mrs. Noack has better experiences here at M.H.S.

Mrs. Noack also seems to lead a busy life outside of school as well. She has a husband named Kevin who teaches sixth grade science. She has two daughters, twelve and six years of age, and a three-year-old son. Other unusual members of her family include a cat, fish, tarantula, turtle, and a snake. Mrs. Noack enjoys her aquarium, fishing, camping, hiking, rock hunting, and gem faceting. She last taught at Amherst High School.

More MHS Spotlights

Mrs. Noack came to Muleshoe because she and her husband wanted to work in the same school district. When asked about her goals, she stated, "I hope to involve all of my students in lab activities at least two hours of the week." We certainly hope Mrs. Noack fulfills her goals and enjoys Muleshoe High School.

MHS Senior Class News

The senior class of Muleshoe High school has been very busy, the past three weeks preparing themselves for their last year in High School. FTA News

The beginning of another year at Muleshoe High School has sparked yet another year of FTA madness. Future Teachers of America is an organization at MHS dedicated to making the students of today, leaders of tomorrow. It is a group of students working together, and most importantly, having a wonderful time. Last spring the 1991-92 officers for the local, district, and state FTA were elected.

New officers are as follows: (Local) Mike Friend, president; Virgil Snell, vice president; Jac Green, secretary; Shea Wilbanks, reporter; Lashelle Scoggin, parliamentarian; Kim McCall, chaplain; and Ricky Flores, Student Council representative. Cross Country Report

by Andy Crawford
The Muleshoe runners travelled to Brownfield on Saturday, September 7th, and competed against approximately 17 teams. The Muleshoe boys began the season with a victory, winning the meet and surprising the experts. Muleshoe defeated several quality teams, such as Ruidoso, San Angelo-Lake View, Sundown, Brownfield, and Plainview. The Muleshoe girls competed well, placing 5th in the meet.

The boys did not have any spectacular individual performances, but they had several runners who placed relatively high. The individual results are as follows: Andy Crawford, 6th, 18:03; Corley Hutton, 12th, 18:23; Adrian Pineda, 15th, 18:28; Eric Cisneros, 17th, 18:44; and Shawn Wheeler, 27th, 19:01. Also running on the Varsity division were Ricky Diaz and Brian Field, whose times and places are not available. Rusty Black and Tommy Day competed in the Junior Varsity race.

The girls showed great potential in the meet. The individual results are as follows: Shane Schuster, 19th, 15:01; Rebecca Green, 31st, 15:18; Monica Clemmens, 34th, 15:24; Gloria Mendoza, 49th, 15:42; Julie Gilleland, 51st, 15:50; Keetha Glover, 61st; and Erin Kelley, 88th. Rachel Toscan ran in the Junior Varsity race, but her time and place are not available.

We appreciate the benevolence of the cheerleaders, in that they inserted us into the pep rally on Friday. We feel that it is a step in the right direction, because it could motivate the community to embrace us. Yet everyone knows that we draw our motivation from lack of acknowledgement, so perhaps it would be a good idea for us to avoid the hype.

The teams travel to Plainview on the 14th, followed by Hereford on the 21st.

Letter To The Editor

September 9, 1991
Dear Muleshoe Journal Staff,
Thank you for providing CTA with newspapers for our new teacher goody bags. The papers give the new staff an introduction to our community. Thanks again,

There will be much to say about the toy show and more information about it as time gets closer. Make your plans early to attend. We plan to have 50 to 60 tables by show time and already 18 tables rented out now. Tom, thanks for a good program and I for one am looking forward to a good show. With the weather raining about every day, the Kiwanis Club voted not to put out the flags on Saturday for Mule Days. We will make it up some day later.

ENMU Symphony To Present Pops Concert

"This is meant to be fun!" said Rob Radmer, describing the 1991 POPS Dinner-Concert to be held October 5 at 7:30 p.m. in the Campus Union Ballroom in Portales. Radmer, who conducts the Eastern New Mexico University Symphony Orchestra, will step to the podium to begin his fourth season. His personal charisma and unique personality lend an air of lighthearted entertainment to the annual affair as he keeps the pace of the concert moving briskly.

The University Symphony League has sponsored this gala event for the past 24 years. The primary purpose of the USL and the POPS Dinner-Concert is to raise scholarship monies for outstanding orchestra members who have demonstrated commitment and service to the symphony. The League has an active scholarship program in place, as well as the University Symphony League Endowment for Strings.

"Basically we just want to give our kids the financial help they need, and the Symphony League helps us do that," said Radmer. "We have kids here from across New Mexico as well as Mississippi, Tennessee, several states." Radmer indicated that although the orchestra will be slightly smaller this year, the caliber of student is definitely higher.

The conductor's enthusiasm for his players has led him to expand the orchestra's concert schedule this year to seven repertoires. Included again will be a special performance in January for approximately five hundred 4th and 5th graders from Portales and perhaps some surrounding communities.

The November concert will feature the ENMU Symphony Orchestra and Choral Department in a spectacular performance of Mozart's "Requiem," as well as an encore presentation of Christmas music in December. Orchestral concerts will also be held in March and April, with the orchestra performing the score for the musical, "Once Upon a Mattress," in February.

"Of course, the POPS Concert is the season opener; it starts the year off with a bang!" said Radmer.

For the POPS Concert, Radmer has drawn from a number of popular sources. There will be a variety of music that everyone will enjoy—from Broadway musicals to television shows, and to the ever-popular Big Band sound. "We will play a medley featuring the music and style of Benny Goodman, Artie Shaw, Count Basie, Glenn Miller, and other famous performers of that particular era," said Radmer.

The audience will again enjoy the traditional "Name That Tune Contest." Radmer predicts a large number of winners this year and looks forward to seeing a member of the audience take his or her place on the podium to direct the symphony orchestra in John Philip Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever." The novice conductor will also receive two complimentary tickets to the 1992 POPS Dinner-Concert, courtesy of the University Symphony League.

Radmer expressed special pleasure in the growing support for the orchestra program at ENMU as reflected in the number of those who contribute time and money to the students.

"We are fortunate to have some very fine musicians from Clovis and Portales who play in the orchestra with us. They not only stay in practice, but they help us tremendously."

The highlight of the evening will be the presentation of scholarships. Recipients will not know until their names are announced that they have been selected.

The dinner menu this year will feature waldorf salad, breast of chicken cordon bleu, stuffed baked potato, green beans amandine, rolls, drink, and fruit napoleon for dessert.

Tickets for the POPS Dinner-Concert are $18 and go on sale September 25-27, 30, and October 1 at the ENMU Theatre Center Box Office. Hours are noon to 6:00 p.m. daily.

For mail orders, please enclose a check or money order payable to the University Symphony League and mail to POPS Concert, UTC Box Office, Station No. 37, Portales, N.M.

88130 no later than September 28. Tickets will not be sold at the door.

More information is available by calling Symphony League President Nancy Gressett at 505-762-0619 in Clovis, or Sue Davis, 505-356-8558 in Portales.

for the Days AHEAD

Even now trees are being felled, cords of wood cut, in preparation for cold winter days which are sure to come. Woodcutters are preparing for the days ahead, to bring comfort against the cold.

To prepare for our future "cold days," periods of sadness, times of bereavement, and times when we are tempest tossed, begin now to attend church regularly and let God, His Church, and His people help you to meet any situation in life.

"Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God." 2 Cor. 1:3, 4.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for ~~and~~ His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Dear John:

Equipment Management Answers from John Deere

Herbicide & Residue

Q: Conservation farming leaves more residue on the surface. How does this affect herbicide effectiveness? How can I correctly incorporate herbicides without burying too much residue?

A: The key consideration is the effect tillage changes will have on using herbicides that require incorporation.

In some conditions incorporated herbicides will need to be eliminated but, carefully managed, most herbicides can still be used.

Managing tillage to provide good soil stirring action and accurate depth control is always important especially with one-pass incorporation.

If you're using one of the combination tillage implements found in many conservation farming programs, make sure it's set up properly for herbicide incorporation. Nozzle location is more important in conservation tilled fields. Positioning spray nozzles behind the disk gang on combination implements is usually the best choice. The disk gang provides a level surface for accurate application.

Make sure that the field cultivator and/or harrow attachments that follow the spray nozzles provide enough soil stirring action to incorporate herbicides. Proper adjustment of the field cultivator/harrow portion of the combination implement is very important. Adjust the implement for level front-to-back and side-to-side. Each tillage point should be working at the same depth to stir the soil thoroughly but only to the selected incorporation depth. If tractor tires leave deep tracks, consider shank extenders to thoroughly mix tracked areas.

When incorporating herbicides in higher residue conditions you'll probably want to avoid tools -- rolling basket harrows for example -- that tend to plug and thus reduce good soil stirring action.

If you have a "Dear John" question about conservation farming practices, efficient machine operation or equipment management, send your question to: DEAR JOHN, Ag Equipment Answers, Deere & Company, John Deere Road, Moline, Illinois 61265-8098.
