

TRENT SCHOOL PLAY FRIDAY FEBRUARY 6

"Safety First," a play produced by the Trent High School, will be given in their auditorium on February 6th.

Do not fail to see this splendid comedy drama. You will get a laugh in every line.

Jack Montgomery and Jerry Arnold, who is Jack's wife's fiancé, interfere to prevent Jack's cousin, Elmer Flannel, marrying Zuleika, a Turkish fortune teller. While Jack and Jerry are at Zuleika's room trying to bribe her not to marry Elmer, the police raid the place. Zuleika is arrested, but after a fight Jack and Jerry escape and spend the night in a box car.

Mabel, Jack's wife, is terror stricken because Jack has been out all night, and the innocent conjectures of new maid, Mary Ann O'Finnerty, greatly increase her terrors. Mabel, her sister Virginia, and Elmer drive to the police station in an effort to locate Jack and Jerry. During the absence of the girls Jack and Jerry come home. Jack is at his wits' end as to how he is to explain to Mabel. At Jerry's suggestion, they decide to tell that Jack was being initiated into the Shriner's lodge. Jack doubts if they can make this work on Mrs. Barrington Bridger, Mabel's mother.

While Jack and Jerry are talking, McNutt, the policeman, Mary Ann's "financier," appears with Zuleika and informs them that they and Zuleika have been sentenced to 30 days in jail for assaulting the police. How on earth is this to be explained to the women? A body of Shriners are leaving at once for a convention in Florida. They bribe McNutt to pose as Zuleika's husband, and to back them up in the statement that they are going as delegates to the convention. The girls now arrive and accept the colorful explanations as to the all night initiation. The Florida trip is explained, and, consternation, Mabel declares she is going too, and runs out for her hat. Mrs. Bridger and Elmer appear. Jack introduces McNutt and Zuleika as Mr. and Mrs. Willie Woe. "McNutt married to a Turkey!" Mary Ann faints in Elmer's arms. In the confusion Jack, Jerry, McNutt and Zuleika leave.

Another character that adds color to almost every scene is Abou Ben Mocha, Zuleika's father, who, in a desperate and threatening manner, taxes various male members of the cast with stealing his "leela almond blossom".

The second act is taken up with Mabel's and Virginia's grief because of their belief that Jack and Jerry have been lost at sea on the trip to Florida. With the return of Jack and Jerry when their month's jail sentence is served, and their subsequent tale to the girls as to how they were shipwrecked and finally saved by a "kind providence."

The third act is rendered exciting by Abou's wild charges in turn on Jack, Jerry, Elmer and McNutt in his effort to find out what has become of his Zuleika. Two cases of mistaken identity, one because of the dark and the other because of disguise, being about many humorous situations in this act.

Explanations are made at last. Jack has his wife, Jerry his Virginia. Tlmer his Zuleika, McNutt his Mary Ann, Mrs. Bridger is reconciled to her son-in-law, and Abou finds his "leela daughter."

LOCAL BANKS ADD NEW SAFETY APPLIANCES

As a matter of precaution, both the banks in this city have just this week added some new safety appliance devices to the doors of their vaults, which is expected to better protect them against the possible entrance by burglars. While there are lots of bank robberies over the country, the yeggs will have to go some if they get into the banks in this city, not withstanding the fact that these birds have become adepts in their profession.

MERKEL WILL TRY FOR C. OF C. MEET

On February 5th, there will be held at Big Spring the annual District meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, and since Merkel came very near getting this meeting for 1925, it was decided at the last Luncheon Club meeting that Merkel enter the race to bring to this city the 1926 meeting.

It is expected that the local orchestra will accompany the delegation and help furnish the music for the occasion at Big Spring, as well as help to bring the next meeting to this city.

Should the next district convention be brought to Merkel, it will mean that there will be several hundred delegates from the different towns in this section of the state visit our city and we will receive considerable advertising as the result.

The Luncheon Club very cordially invites any and all, either from the city or surrounding community, to feel welcome to make this trip to Big Spring on next Thursday and help to bring the next meeting to Merkel. A big time is assured all who wish to make the trip. It is expected that the party will leave here at about six a.m. and return after adjournment of the convention in the afternoon, say about five o'clock, so very little expense should be incurred by the trip.

LOCAL MERCHANTS LEAVE FOR MARKET

First of the week Mr. A. C. Rose, manager of the A. C. Rose Dry Goods Company, in company with Miss Evorie Clark, Milliner for this firm, left for St. Louis and other Eastern markets, where they will buy the large and complete stock of spring millinery and dry goods for this firm.

Within a few days Mr. Max Mellinger will leave for the big markets in St. Louis and Chicago where he, too, will make selections and buy for his store a fine line of spring dry goods.

Also on next Sunday Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Bragg, of the Bragg Dry Goods Company, will leave for St. Louis, where they expect to select and buy one of the largest stocks of the season's latest in dry goods and millinery for their firm.

With the above in view the buying public of Merkel and this section of country may expect to find in this city everything they may desire in the way of up-to-date dry goods and millinery.

Painters are busy this week adding a new coat of paint on the front of the Farmers State Bank, which when completed will add much to the attractiveness and appearance of this institution.

COOPERATION TALKED AT LUNCHEON CLUB

As per announcement in our last issue, the Rev. T. J. Rea, pastor of the Methodist church, was the interesting Toastmaster at the last regular Luncheon meeting held last Tuesday evening at Ed's Cafe. While the minister is one of our able and untiring pastors, who works at his job, and is undoubtedly making a success of it, he is also an adept in the art as Toastmaster of the meeting of the Luncheon Club.

Rev. Rea used for his subject for discussion, "The Need of and just How to obtain the best cooperation between the town man and the country man."

However, the first number on the program was some vocal music from a quartet composed of Messrs Tom Allday, Tom Largent, Cyrus Pee and Roy Largent, with Miss Williamson accompanying at the piano.

Following this Mr. E. Yates Brown made an able and interesting talk on the necessity of cooperation from the business man's stand point. Mr. Brown's remarks were timely, to the point, and highly appreciated by all. He was followed by Mr. C. W. Simpson, one of our successful and progressive farmers, who discussed the same question from the farmer's point of view, and many were the compliments from those present upon the logicalness of his speech and the interesting way in which he had presented it to the club.

Next Mr. Robert Hicks, local Hardware man, was called on to make a few remarks on "How can the Town man and Country man best Cooperate together," and Mr. Hicks hid himself proud in the discussion of this splendid subject. Next Mr. J. A. Buford was called on and, as is usual with him to always have something good to say upon any subject, he did not fail this time. Also Eld. W. G. Cypert was called on to speak on a subject assigned to another who was unable to be present, and Rev. Cypert demonstrated that he was equal to the occasion and gave his hearers one of the best addresses that has ever been delivered before the Merkel Luncheon Club.

This being the closing number on the program, the Toastmaster turned the meeting over to the President of the Club, Mr. L. R. Thompson, who also made a few interesting remarks concerning the need of more cooperation among all the people of the town and community, which was highly appreciated by every one.

The President, at the close of the meeting, announced that Mr. Jas. A. Patterson would be the next Toastmaster two weeks hence.

MISS LORENA DRY LEARNS HOUSEHOLD DUTY AT C.I.A.

Denton, Texas, Jan. 29.—Miss Lorena Dry of Merkel, a senior in the College of Industrial Arts, is one of a group of girls occupying the Mary M. Bralley demonstration cottage at the College of Industrial Arts, state college for women. Groups of six young women occupy each of the cottages at regular intervals during the college year.

During their term of service they become acquainted with every phase of household duties. Formal dinners are given at which the girls serve in turn as hosts and hostesses, waitresses, and cooks.

The houses are kept spotless by the young students who give them a thorough renovation each morning before breakfast. Both homes are completely equipped in every respect.

LADY STOCKHOLDER IN MERKEL BANK

In this modern age when the women of the country are not only becoming deeply interested in and associated with the political and social affairs of the country, we also notice that with the beginning of this New Year 1925, that many are taking their places in the business world, especially do we notice that many prominent women are this year becoming directors and stockholders in various banking institutions of the country, and in this respect the banking interests of Merkel is no exception to the rule, for just last week Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Largent celebrated their thirty-seventh wedding anniversary and for a present upon this occasion Mr. Largent presented his wife with ten shares in the Farmers State Bank of this city, which stock Mr. Largent purchased some few days ago, paying $125.00 per share for same, being among those of this community who recently purchased the interest of those formerly in control of this, one of our most substantial and accommodating banking institutions.

Mr. and Mrs. Largent are not only well known in this immediate section of the country, but through the fact that they are raisers of the world's finest Hereford cattle, which have been exhibited throughout the nation, their name is familiar in most every city and hamlet in the country. They came to Merkel about thirty years ago, engaging for a time in the mercantile business, and in which enterprise they made a success. Infact they are considered by all with whom they are well known, as having sound and conservative judgement, and as Mr. Largent stated "the reason he presented his wife with the stock in the above named bank in this city was that he considered it a good, sound business investment."

Besides the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Largent are raisers of the world's finest Hereford cattle, of which they have many, they also own and operate large farming interests in connection with their more than 4000 acre ranch, and we feel sure that the addition of Mrs. Largent to the other substantial and influential stockholders, many of whom are among this city's and community's best and most wealthy citizens, will add much credit and influence which shall help to insure the bank's continued success and help it to maintain its place among the strong and useful banking institutions of this section of the state.

REV. A. B. DAVIDSON WRITES TO LEADER

The Leader is in receipt of a letter from the former Methodist pastor, Rev. A. B. Davidson, who is now located at Snyder, Texas. In part he said, "The board unanimously fixed my salary at $3,000. They pay one month's salary in advance the first of each month. It is a real titheing church. The tithe offerings amount to $200 and over each Sunday since I came. No collection plate has been passed in this church in four years. The store-house treasury plan is their plan."—Wellington Leader.

HIGHWAY NO. 1 GET NEXT ALLOTMENT

The State highway commission has decided that its decision made recently that the next allotment made for the paving of Highways Nos. 1 and 30 through this county should go exclusively to No. 1, will not be changed. County Judge Carlos D. Speck was advised in a letter received from Gib Gilchrist, state highway engineer.

"In regrad to the present allotment of aid to Taylor county on state highways Nos. 1 and 30," the letter states, "we wish to advise that the state highway commission on January 19 considered your letter of January 14 and it was decided that the conditions attached to the minutes of the state highway commission should not be changed and that after the first sections on highways Nos. 1 and 30 are under contract, the next section to be placed under contract will be on Highway No. 1.

The action by the commission was made after the county commissioners' court here had decided that it would accept the allotment of $345,000 from the state provided the state would remove the condition that the next allotment must go entirely to Highway No. 1.

The $345,000 was first allotted to Highway No. 1 which is to be paved through the county with two-for-one aid from the state and federal governments. Highway No. 30 also is to be paved under the same conditions and the county commissioners' court secured the agreement from the state that the first allotment should be split between the two roads. The addition of the condition as to the next allotment made the split of the funds unsatisfactory to the commissioners' court.

No definite plan of action had been made Monday regarding the course to pursue. The matter likely will be put up to the commissioners' court at the next meeting.—Abilene Reporter.

LOCAL CITIZENS BUY LANDS ON PLAINS

From W. F. Patterson the writer learns that he and Mr. L. L. Huddleston of this city, have recently sold some of their holdings in land in the Merkel community and have invested in considerable acreage about twelve miles northwest of O'Donnell, in Lynn county.

Mr. Patterson, we are informed, bought 480 acres and Mr. Huddleston 960 acres joining Mr. Patterson. We understand these men will soon move to their new holdings with their families. They have very likely made good investments, and while their friends regret that they are to soon leave Merkel, they wish for them success and the best of health and happiness.

We also learn that Mr. Floyd Cox has recently sold his farm in this vicinity to Mr. H. H.

LIBERTY HARDWARE WILL STAGE JUBILEE

This is a gala week with the Liberty Hardware Company. Their store is decorated with banners and displays. Special demonstrations are stationed throughout the salesroom. Windows are aflame with color. Everything is all "slicked up".

Besides, they are mailing out letters, calling up friends of the store on the telephone and in this issue of the Merkel Mail a large advertisement appears telling all about their one-week Avery Jubilee Implement Sale, put on in cooperation with the Avery factory to celebrate the 100th birthday of the Avery Company. Rogers silverware is being given without extra charge with every Avery implement sold during this six-day Jubilee event. The sale starts Saturday, Jan. 31, and ends promptly at 6 p.m. the following Saturday, Feb. 7.

According to Messrs Hicks and Sublett, proprietors of the Liberty Hardware Company, it was 'way back in 1825, when John Quincy Adams president of the United States, that Benjamin Franklin Avery began the manufacture of plows in Clarksville, Va. In 1845 the business was removed to Louisville, Kentucky, and in 1877 it was incorporated. In 1919 the famous Champion Harvesting Machinery line was purchased and in 1921 its manufacture was begun in the new Champion Division of the Avery Louisville plant. And now, to fittingly commemorate the Centennial Jubilee year of the Avery Company, the Liberty Hardware Company, together with other implement stores, all over the South are joining with Avery in these one-week Jubilee Sales.

In speaking of the age of the Avery Company, Messrs. Hicks and Sublett state that the Avery Company is the oldest manufacturer of implements in America. He says the second oldest implement manufacturer must wait twelve years before it can celebrate its 100th Anniversary. The third oldest manufacturer must wait seventeen years. And the fourth oldest must wait 30 years.

The 100th birthday of B. F. & Sons has still greater meaning when you consider that the average life of all manufacturing concerns in this country is only seven years. B. F. Avery & Sons, therefore, has lived over fourteen times as long as the average concern in the manufacturing business. And then, to show that implement manufacturing companies in general do not necessarily live longer than other manufacturers, Hicks and Sublett pointed out that in 1922 alone, 683 implement manufacturers went out of business.

Messrs. Hicks and Sublett say the constant growth in prestige and volume of business enjoyed by B. F. Avery & Sons during its 100 years of business existence can have but one true significance. It means, in the last analysis, consistently higher quality of service and greater value-giving to Southern farmers.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF BARACA AND PHILATHEA CLASSES INTERESTING

An affair of the past week that was held with much interest was the annual Philathea and Baraca Banquet, held at the Methodist church last Friday evening. Sixty diners were present for the evening, including guests and class members.

Members and guests were gathered in the Philathea and Baraca class rooms until eight thirty o'clock, when a grand march was made into the dining room. The spacious dining hall was very attractive with four long banquet tables covered with pretty linens and tapering candles in pretty holders adorning each end of the tables, with a center decoration of pot plants. The pretty color scheme of bright blue and white was carried out in the table decorations and in giving a colorful effect from the lights. Dainty place cards marked the places. The banquet was prepared and served by the Missionary Ladies of the church.

Mr. L. R. Thompson acted as toastmaster for the evening. The program included a splendid talk from Rev. L. N. Stuckey, of Abilene, several numbers by the McMurry Male Quartet, accompanied at the piano by Miss Gypsy Ted Sullivan, also of McMurry College, a violin solo by Miss Lynn Thompson, a vocal number by Miss Sullivan, and brief talks by various guests and ex-class members and members of the two classes.

Visitors present on this occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Stuckey, Abilene; The McMurry College Male Quartet; Miss Gypsy Ted Sullivan, Abilene; Rev. and Mrs. T. J. Rea, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sanders, Mr. L. A. Watts, Mrs. Geo. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Durham.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR J. W. TALLY

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church on Monday afternoon, beginning at two-thirty o'clock, for Mr. J. W. Tally, Sr., who died Sunday evening after a long illness. The services were conducted by Rev. T. J. Rea, assisted by Elder W. G. Cypert, of the Church of Christ.

The deceased was born November 8th, 1844 in Robertson county, Texas, and was married to Rhoda Cox in 1867, after which they moved to Merkel, where they have resided since.

Besides a host of friends and loved ones, he leaves a devoted wife and the following children: Mrs. G. R. Holloway, Merkel; James Tally, Dallas; Mrs. P. Hays, Houston; Mrs. Dora Cobb, Merkel; Abe Tally, Corsicana; and Mrs. Bulah Stanford, Merkel.

Early in life Mr. Tally was converted and joined the Methodist church. In 1915 he put his membership in the church at Merkel, and has lived a devoted Christian since his conversion. He was a good neighbor, a kind friend, a true husband and father, and an upright citizen.

At the time of his death, Mr. Tally was eighty years old, and his wife, who survives him, is eighty-five years of age.

We join the many friends of the splendid man in extending deepest sympathy to the bereaved family.

SENIOR NOTES

On Monday morning of this week we were glad to have in chapel Rev. W. G. Cypert, who conducted the exercises. This was his first visit to the school and his short talk was enjoyed very much.

The examinations are over and the question of the day is "what did I make?"

Mr. Burgess had a young friend who was desperately in love with Miss Josephine Baber. But his wooing was fruitless. He then begged Mr. Burgess to intercede for him. Mr. Burgess did so; he bombarded Josephine with scripture texts to prove that matrimony is a duty, but without avail. At length the young woman suggested that Mr. Burgess go home and look up II Samuel XII, 7. He did so and found the text "Thou art the man," and—well Mr. Burgess, himself married Josephine.

Dorris Durham went into a telephone booth and dropped a nickel into the slot. Central called, "number please?" "Number," roared Dorris, "here, you give me my chewing gum."

Miss Pierce was talking about "Ma" Ferguson the other day and she said that at the inaugural ball she was dressed in a gown trimmed in beads and "oyster" feathers.

Ray: "What a beautiful string of beads you have. I hope you don't mind me asking where they came from?"

Melba: "Certainly not, they came from oysters."

The first two numbers on Mr. Burgess' daily menu are: 1. Grace. 2. Beene.

Ona Fae: "Gee! I feel like I've been to Echo class."

W. L.: "You mean Eco. don't you?"

Ona Fae: "No; I mean Echo, for Miss Bird is always echoing what's in the text book."

TRENT HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Last Thursday we had a most interesting program in chapel. Some of the actors for the "special" program couldn't reach here in time so we were entertained by local talent. Miss Davis and Imogene Mangum each gave a piano solo and Mrs. Watkins read two numbers for us.

Since exams are over, J. P. Stevens seems to be able to use his sprained wrist.

Lee Winton entered school last Monday.

What would you do if your husband eloped with a Turkish girl? Come to see "Safety First"

Miss Ellison: "Imogene you may read your story."

Imogene: "I haven't much of a story. It is only description."

Miss Ellison: "You may read what you have."

Imogene: "She is black headed and has black eyes. Her neck is so long she looks much better with a fur on. Who is it?"

Carmen: "Miss Ellison."

Mrs. Churchille and Mrs. Wind visited chapel last week.

What would you do if you found you were eloping with the wrong girl? See "Safety First."

Minnie Lee Chapman has been out of school for several days.

We all feel so sorry for J. P. Stevens. He had to go home and do the family washing the other noon.

Isaac Parker is out of school with the "flu".

If you see "Safety First" you will laugh so much you'll forget you ever had a care.

ASK FOR RESTORATION OF JAMES E. FERGUSON

TO VOTE ON SENATE RESOLUTION TO REMOVE IMPEACHMENT JUDGMENT.

Austin, Texas.—The Senate of the Thirty-Ninth Legislature has been asked to go on record as favoring removal of the impeachment judgment passed on James E. Ferguson in a simple resolution introduced by Senator J. Roy Hardin of Kaufman. This is the first move in the Senate toward Ferguson "restoration." If the resolution is adopted the method of removing the previous Senate action of 1917 would be suggested by a committee of three Senators appointed by Lieut. Gov. Farry Miller.

The resolution is to the effect that the judgment or impeachment against James E. Ferguson "should be and of right ought to be set aside and that all disqualifications incident to that impeachment should be removed."

There was no discussion pro or con on the resolution save over the time for its consideration. Senator Hardin of Kaufman, its author, moved immediately after it had been read that it be set as special order for Friday morning. Senator J. D. Parnell of Wichita Falls objected to that time, explaining that he would not be able to be present then and that he wished to be on hand when the resolution was taken up. Hardin then proposed Monday morning, but this time was objected to by Senator I. D. Fair of Lufkin, who suggested that some of the Senators might not be able to attend the session on that day. He cited Senator John H. Bailey of Cuero, who has been detained at his home on account of illness. The time for consideration was then ultimately fixed at the suggestion of Senator Charles R. Floyd of Paris.

In the opinion of Senator Hardin, author of the resolution, expressed later, constitutional amendment may be necessary to remove the judgment of impeachment against former Gov. Ferguson. "It is pointed out," he commented, "that the Constitution vests the Senate with the right to impeach, but does not expressly delegate to one Senate the right to wipe out impeachment proceedings brought by another Senate. In my opinion, a constitutional amendment will be necessary."

A. T. Sheppard, genial manager of the Barrow Furniture Company, was among those numbered on the sick list this week, causing him to be absent from his duties for a day or so.

LIBERTY HARDWARE Co.

IF IT'S HARDWARE WE HAVE IT

WHITE CHURCH

I realize more and more from my own experience what a task it must be to find enough news in a week to make up a single issue of a newspaper of any size. I do not mean that I am an editor of any periodical, but since I have been trying from time to time during the last two years to send in a brief budget from this community I find that it is surely no small work to find news sufficient for from 4 to 8 pages.

For several days we have been having some ideal weather, but a sudden change took place about five o'clock Monday morning which caused the consumption of more wood and coal. Why would not this kind of weather be a good time to clean out our fence rows and expose these insects' egg deposits to the weather? We might save a lot of time and expense fighting those pesky hoppers in the spring by breaking up their hatcheries now.

John Reynolds filled his regular appointment at the church Sunday at eleven and again at three o'clock. He left immediately after services for Moro, where he is teaching this year.

Lois McIvers, our teacher at Weaver Springs school spent last week-end with home folks near Colorado City.

Messrs. Ray and Howard Brown and families accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Amanda Brown, visited Willard Brown near Sweetwater one day last week.

Miss Mary Agnes Dryden, our assistant teacher in the White Church school, spent last week-end with her parents at Abilene. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson were over from Bitter Creek on Sunday, visiting Mr. Wilson's mother who has been sick for several days. We are glad to report at this writing we hear Mrs.

Wilson is able to be up and about again.

Uncle Bill Brown also has been quite ill for several days, but is better at present.

The news reached us too late for last week's write-up regarding the death of Mr. J.W. Wright which occurred January 17th, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fannie Nun, who lives north of Sweetwater in Fisher county. Funeral services were held at Sweetwater Sunday afternoon at two o'clock after which his remains were shipped to Grapevine for interment. Had he lived until June, Mr. Wright would have been ninety-five years old. He was an uncle of Mrs. Paul Demere and will be pleasantly remembered by the old settlers as at one time a resident of our community.

W. R. Childs and family from Village Springs, Alabama, have been visiting Mrs. Child's sister Mrs. Byrd Hughes. Mr. Childs is the depot agent at Village Springs, a position he has held for the past twenty years, and although he was favorably impressed with his first trip to West Texas, he returned to Alabama to resume the work that he is experienced in doing, while here, he said that if he were to decide to quit his present work to take up farming he would make West Texas his choice of location.

We are thankful to Mrs. J. S. Blair for the renewal of her subscription to the Mail for another year. Mrs. Blair also placed an advertisement in the Mail concerning the opening again of her splendid hotel. Her many friends will be glad to learn that she has about recovered from her prolonged illness of some weeks.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday school at 10 a.m. Preaching at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. All B.Y.P.U.'s meet at 6:30 p.m. W.M.S. meets each Tuesday afternoon. Prayermeeting each Wednesday evening at 7:30. Sunbeams meet each Friday afternoon at 4:15.

Next Sunday afternoon, in keeping with out plans for an A-1 school, we will take the census of the town. The plans are that we will meet at the church at two o'clock, get our assignments and then return to the church when we have finished. It will take about forty-five to do this work properly. This will be under the direction of Miss Valerie Dye, and she insists that we do not plan anything between two and four-thirty but to see that we do our best in the taking of the census.

Sunday morning the pastor will preach on the 6th Commandment, "Thou shalt not kill". The sermon will be in keeping with the present day conditions and of interest to all. Miss Lola Dennis will read. If you miss this service you will be the loser.

The house was crowded last Sunday. We have a seating committee whose duty it is to provide some more seating. We will soon take care of the crowded condition.

Last Sunday morning the church voted unanimously to begin a meeting the first Sunday in March, which is the first day of March. Our appeal is to the entire membership, that we get together in this campaign and work for the glory of God and the coming of His kingdom. Armies do not win altogether by their size but by their cooperation and man-to-man council, confidence, and enthusiasms.

The Sunbeams were organized last Sunday afternoon under the direction of Mrs. Albertson. There were about fifty present. They will have their first regular meeting at 4:15 p.m. Friday of this week.

The prayermeeting services are growing in interest. Our lesson next week will be the last half of the book of Amos. We are studying the Minor Prophets.

Quite a number of our people are sick. Let us pray that the Lord shall soon restore them to their wanted health.

W. H. Albertson.

METHODIST CHURCH

The attendance last Sunday was exceptionally good and the message delivered by our Lay Leader, Bro. Walker, was fine and appreciated by all who heard it. Next Sunday at the morning hour, the Dean of McMurry college, Bro. B. M. McKeown, will speak to us on the subject of Stewardship.

He has a fine message I am sure, and I hope that we will have a good large crowd to hear him on this occasion.

At the evening service the pastor will give another of the series on personal problems, the subject Sunday night will be "The Problem of Self". This is a great theme and I trust that our study together will bring us to a closer walk with God.

Be sure to read every line of the spicy "Methodist Quarterly" gotten out this quarter. T. J. Rea, pastor.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Last Wednesday night we had a splendid church night program and those who came had a delightful time. We were disappointed that sickness in the community prevented many from attending.

Next Sunday, February 1, we will hope to see all of our regular attendants at all our services. Bring some one with you. Sunday school will be more interesting if you are a regular attendant, and keep up with the lesson.

The sermon subject for the morning hour will be: "Unknown Depths". Vesper services at four p.m. Last Sunday we had one of the most interesting Endeavor programs in a long time. They always have something worth while. Fred S. Rogers.

TELEPHONE No. 61

Entered at the postoffice at Merkel, Texas as second class mail.

This paper hastens to commend the splendid work that is being done under the direction of City Marshal W. N. Hall, in the way of cleaning up the streets and alleys of the town.
Especially is this good work noticeable in the business section.
Infact one could not imagine the filthy condition of some localities until the clean-up campaign had been started, and many wagon loads of such had been hauled away. This work will soon be finished in the business section, and the appearance of same is not only going to be healthier
but it will look many times better and more welcome. Let's all help make Merkel the cleanest
town in the country.

THE TRUTH OF IT

Merkel has always been recognized as one of the best towns of its size in all the west. It has always been one of the best cotton towns along the T. & P. railway, for several years receiving more cotton each year than any other town along the T. & P.
from Fort Worth to El Paso.
This year there has been weighed in the local cotton yard more than 13,000 bales of cotton. It has the same large trade territory it has had for many years.
There are just as good business men here as are to be found anywhere, and they can hold this trade for this city, but the question is—will they do it? It's up to you, Mr. Business man.—The Merkel Mail.

If the editors didn't call the attention of the business men of a town to matters like the above

then perhaps they would be forgotten, both the editors and the matters. The editors don't want to be forgotten nor do they wish that matters like the above be forgotten. Therefore, the issue resolves itself down to somebody saying something about the matter. The Mail editor has hit the nail on the head, no doubt about
it.—ABILENE REPORTER.

RADIO IN THE TOWN
AND ON THE FARM

Texas possesses some of the best radio broadcasting stations
in the United States and stands third among States in number of radios. There are about 100,- 000 radio sets in Texas and it is estimated that 20,000 of the 100,000 sets are on farms.

S. M. Morris, a farmer who lives near Weir, Williamson county, Texas, owns a super-circuit three-tube set and can listen
in from all the larger radio stations in the United States. His son, David J. Morris, who builds radio sets for farmer folks and town folks of Williamson county,
has written a very interesting story entitled, "Radio in the Town and on the farm," which will be published in the Magazine Section of the Merkel Mail, February 13th.

ing the Mail. If you are behind

OUT WEST
* By Ruba Patton, age 14
* of Salt Branch School *

Out where the girls go with their arms and back bare,
Out where the troubles of life
are easy to share,

Out where the little boys
never pout,

Out where the big boys wear
their shirt tails out,

Out where the snow falls fast
and thick,

Out where there is so much
cotton to pick,

Out where the people all live
true,

Out where the skies are always blue,

Out where the wind blows a
little stronger,

Out where it rains a little bit
longer,

Out where there is so much
to do,

Out where the land agents all
sell, too,

Out where people all enjoy life

Out where you can love your wife,

Out where there is so much
land buying,

Out where there are less tears
and dying,

Out where every body can live
free,

Out where the song birds
chirp and flee,

Out where the quails are always flying,

Out where no one ever thinks
of sighing,

Out where the school children
all do right,

Out where there is plenty of
sun light,

Out West where there is so much reaping and sowing,

Out West is where I am bound to be going.

GOVERNOR MIRIAM FERGUSON
PLEADS FOR CO-OPERATION
IN HER INAUGURAL ADDRESS

Austin.—The following is the inaugural address of Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, delivered following her being sworn into office January 23.

Your Honors of the Supreme Court,
Gentlemen of the Thirty-Ninth Legislature, Ladies and Gentlemen:

In assuming the duties of the governorship to which I have been called by the people of Texas, I find myself overwhelmed with the feeling of gratitude and responsibility.

Deeply grateful for the honor bestowed and conscious of the solemn path taken, it now becomes my duty to enter into the active service of the people.

I shall not at this time attempt a detail of plans and policies. But on the morrow I will in a more definite way send to the honorable Thirty-Ninth legislature specific suggestions and recommendations
setting forth the hopes and purposes of this administration.

While our government is divided into three distinct parts—the judicial, the legislative, the executive—yet I hope and pray that there is to be that friendly co-operation on the part of each that will inspire the confidence of the people in the administration of their business affairs. One good way to establish this relation is for each department to recognize and respect the rights and powers of the other.

I extend to the judges of the courts
the heads of the departments and especially the members of the legislature, a cordial and earnest invitation to visit the executive offices for conference on matters personal and official. We are all humble servants of a great people, and we must do our best for the common good.

The people have spoken. Their verdict is that this must be a government of law founded on the sacred constitution handed down to us by the fathers and mothers of the pioneer days. To this end let us reconsecrate our lives and all that we possess.

Recognizing and freely admitting my inexperience in governmental affairs, I must ask the advice and counsel of others.

Perhaps this would not be a bad idea for others to adopt, even though their training and learning may be more than mine. I shall endeavor to make this administration a success by team work. There is so much to do that no one mind can bring relief to the people. What Texas needs more than anything else at this time is a strong pull, a steady pull and a pull altogether. In this way we may climb the hill of difficulties that confronts us.

With this great need pressing us, perhaps it would not be enough to depend upon logic and science and statesmanship to realize our hopes and ambitions. In the turmoil and strife and passions of the hour too often do we find ourselves controlled by jealousies and envies that keep us from joining our fellowman in some great movement for the cause of humanity and the good of civilization.

It is then, my people, that we must turn to God, who can remove all envy and hate from every heart
and unite us in love and forgiveness
for all.

I am praying for this administration to be one of progress in matters spiritual as well as material.
If the example can be set for a higher standard of morals and purity of life and conduct in public servants of the people I shall feel that my administration has not been in vain.
Let us not forget that it is more glorious to lay up treasures in heaven than upon earth.

As the first woman governor of our beloved state, I ask for the good will and the prayers of the women of Texas. I want to be worthy of the trust and confidence which they have reposed in me.

By the decree of our Supreme court we women have been recognized and admitted into all the rights and privileges of citizenship.
Many women will be invited to an active part in this administration.
Let us render full service, not so much because we are women, but because we are citizens who are now to stand side by side with men upon the foundation of equal rights and equal justice.

With love for all, with malice toward none, trusting in God, I consecrate my life to my state.

To Teach Constitution in Texas.
Austin.—Representative Raymer of Travis county has introduced a bill in the house to require teaching and study of the Constitution of the United States and of Texas in the public schools of this state. The bill was referred to house committee on education. Such a bill was introduced in the last legislature by Representative Carpenter of Dallas. It is not expected there will be serious opposition to the Raymer bill.

Governor Extends Parole.
Austin.—An act of mercy was the first announcement made Wednesday by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, when she extended for sixty days the parole of Sylvester Montel-bano, who would have had to return to prison immediately but for her action. Montelbano killed his brother-in-law after becoming enraged at the way his sister was being treated by her now dead husband. He was convicted and sentenced to fifteen years in the penitentiary—
leaving a wife and small child—

Stop Night Coughing

This Simple Way

People who have persistent, annoying coughing spells at night, and who through loss of valuable sleep are weakening their systems and laying themselves open to dangerous infections, can stop their distressing trouble promptly by a very simple treatment. Hundreds who have hardly been able to rest at all for coughing, have gotten their full night's sleep the very first time they tried it.

The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr.
King's New Discovery for Coughs.
You simply take a teaspoonful at night before retiring and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. The result is that you usually sleep as soundly as a babe
the very first night, and the entire cough condition goes in a very short time.

The prescription is highly recommended for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness and bronchitis, and is wonderful for children's coughs and spasmodic croup—no harmful drugs.
Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. It is on sale at all good druggists. Ask for

If you want

the real truth about why I signed up to write a lot of pieces for these people, it's because I love animals.
Have you ever studied that picture of the 'Bull' carefully? . . . have you ever seen such a kind-looking animal? I thought this:— certainly no one who cares
as much about dumb creatures as they do would put out anything but the best smoking tobacco possible—
so I said all right, I'll write your stuff. Honestly, the money part of it didn't have much to do with it. That is, not very much.

Seriously, though, out

a male member of the population has got that

from the shirt pocket, he's liable to be arrested for in-

LIBERTY

From the Baltimore Sun:
 There are many millions of people with many millions of ideas, wise and foolish; but a final analysis reveals only two schools of thought. One is rooted in the doctrine that favored mortals possess the right to say to other mortals "Thou shalt" and "Thou shalt not"; the other holds that all persons who assume the right thus to curb and drive their fellows should be hanged to the nearest telephone pole.

There is no such thing as partial liberty. A woman is virtuous or she is not; a man is honest or he is not; an egg is good or it is not. In these matters there are no degrees of excellence.

A people may impose restrictions upon itself without loss of liberty; but if restrictions of any nature are imposed without the consent of the people, the whole of liberty is gone.

If there is but little liberty in the world, it is because there is little actual belief in the righteousness of a state of liberty. The man who is buffeted by Fate believes in liberty because he feels the need of it; but give him political authority or the power that inheres in great wealth and nine times in ten he will develop a Caesar complex and predict the complete damnation of those who question his right to crack the whip.

The cry for liberty never is an honest cry. From the beginning of history men have struggled for liberty, and having achieved it have at once set about the business of enslaving other men. Let a slave be made free and his first desire is for a man Friday to polish his boots.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT

It having pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to take from our midst our Brother J. S. Burns, of Merkel Lodge No. 355 I. O. O. F.

Be it resolved, by the officers and members of this lodge that in the death of Brother Burns, we have lost a dearly beloved friend, who in his life exemplified to the fullest extent the great principles of Friendship, Love and Truth.

To know him was a privilege, and those who were closely connected with him respect his memory. He was one in whom all the noblest qualities of manhood were combined.

As a father and husband few were his equal, and we, and the Order at large are losers by his demise, and will ever keep his memory fresh in our souls.

We tender to his sorrowing widow and family our most sincere sympathy in their great bereavement, and pray that our Heavenly Father may give them strength to bear the burden that He has seen fit to put upon them.

Be it further Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Lodge, and a copy sent to his wife, children, and the Merkel Mail. Committee:

Mr. W. U. Beene who first of the year moved to this city from the farm near Noodle, where he had resided for some years, has purchased the farm of Mr. McElroy in the Salt Branch community, and will soon move to same. We are glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Beene nearer our city, but trust that Mr. and Mrs. McElroy will continue to remain among us, for they, too, are mighty fine folks.

Chills, & Stomach Trouble

MR. N. A. SMITH, of Shaw, Miss., says he can't remember being without Thedford's Black-Draught liver medicine since he and Mrs. Smith began keeping house, many years ago. "When we have chills," says Mr. Smith, "Black-Draught is what we use and we find it just splendid. I had a bad case of stomach trouble. I couldn't eat enough and was very weak. Everything I ate hurt me, formed gas and I spit up my food. I would feel stupid or staggy. I didn't feel like doing any work. I knew what Black-Draught had done in colds and I began taking small doses. I certainly got relief. It did me lots of good. "When I go to town, I look first to see how near out of Black-Draught we are, and then get more. We are a good way from the doctor and keep our home remedies and the main one is Black-Draught." In hundreds of thousands of homes, housekeepers keep Black-Draught on the shelf, handy for use when needed, as a household remedy to relieve constipation, biliousness, indigestion, and many other simple ailments. "A dose in time saves nine." A dose of Black-Draught costs only one cent. It may save you a big bill for medicine later on. Keep it on your shelf. Buy it at your store. Get a package today.
