

"MY TURN"

By Carol Ellis

THE TWO BEST-selling items in any bookstore are the cookbooks and the dietbooks. The cookbooks tell you how to fix the food and the dietbooks tell you how not to eat any of it.

Nine out of ten people make a New Year's resolution to lose weight every year. An Associated Press article which summarized the year of 1990, recently stated that there were about 2.7 billion pounds of chocolate consumed in the U.S. last year. Also, there were about 48 million adult women and 30 million men on diets during the year. Do you suppose one might have anything to do with the other?

Bill's Uncle Ed and Aunt Nancy are a real forward-thinking couple and they eat out a lot at fast-food joints. Aunt Nancy has the cleanest kitchen in Ada, Oklahoma, and also the most crowded. There's no room left on her counter tops, or underneath the counters either, for that matter. Uncle Ed buys her a new kitchen gadget every year for Christmas. This past Christmas was no exception. He got her a thing called the "Kitchen Whiz."

The instruction book that came with it said it was a conversion computer. You use it if you want to convert measurements or temperatures from metric system to U.S. numerical system or vice-versa. (One of my kids' math teachers once made the comment that, "We've all lived for decades with feet, fathoms, furlongs, acres, bushels, B-cups, Queen size, petite and Xtra large...so how can we be confused by the metric system?") But more about this Kitchen Whiz thing. It will enlarge a recipe for four up to a party for twenty-four; it will convert fractions to decimals; and is also a timer, a clock and a calendar.

Of course, Aunt Nancy doesn't know how to run this thing and every evening she tells Uncle Ed that she hasn't had time to sit down and study the instruction book yet, so he takes her out to eat.

Among some of the items found on her counter tops (and under them) are: a waffle maker, a slow cooker, the Snack Master for making fancy little sandwiches, a food processor, the salad shooter and the salad spinner. Those are two different salad doodads.

She also has: a blender, a coffee bean grinder, a coffee maker, an espresso/cappuccino maker, popcorn popper, Fry Daddy deep fryer, a roto-fryer that turns around while it cooks, steamer, roaster, smoker, microwave oven, convection oven, and naturally the electric range and cook-top.

Also: a micro-chip toaster, ice cream maker, electric grill/rotisserie, pasta maker, juice extractor, hand mixer, stand mixer, water purifier, kitchen timer, yogurt maker, calorie counter, and a water purifier.

I learned from Aunt Nancy that an electric carver and an electric slicer are two different things. One looks like a carving knife with an electric cord attached to the handle and the other looks like a smaller version of the thing that the butcher in the meat section of the grocery store uses to slice your ham.

On her counter she also has: a Meal Maker, a kitchen scale, can opener/knife sharpener, the Freshlock Vacuum Seal, a fondue pot, ice shaver, a gadget organizer, and a stripper that peels potatoes, peels fruit and cores apples.

Aunt Nancy says she'd have to go back to college and get a degree in Kitchen Technology in order to figure out how to operate all that stuff and it's a lot easier to run out to McDonald's. Besides, there isn't any room in her kitchen to get in there and prepare a meal anyway. We're all wondering what she'll get for Christmas next year.

BHS Falls In Farwell Matches

Bovina's varsity basketball teams lost a pair of games against Farwell Friday night, January 11. The Fillies lost their game, 69-47, while the Mustangs fell, 79-39.

The Fillies had a good start, with Keri Mitchell hitting five points and Kim Kirkpatrick six in the first quarter, but they still trailed Farwell, 24-17 at the buzzer.

Miss Mitchell sank a three-pointer, and was one of two from the line, but Farwell enjoyed a 43-31 halftime lead.

The Steerettes outscored the Fillies, 18-9 in the third quarter and that 61-40 lead was too much to overcome.

Miss Griggs scored 16 and Miss Mitchell, 13 for Bovina.

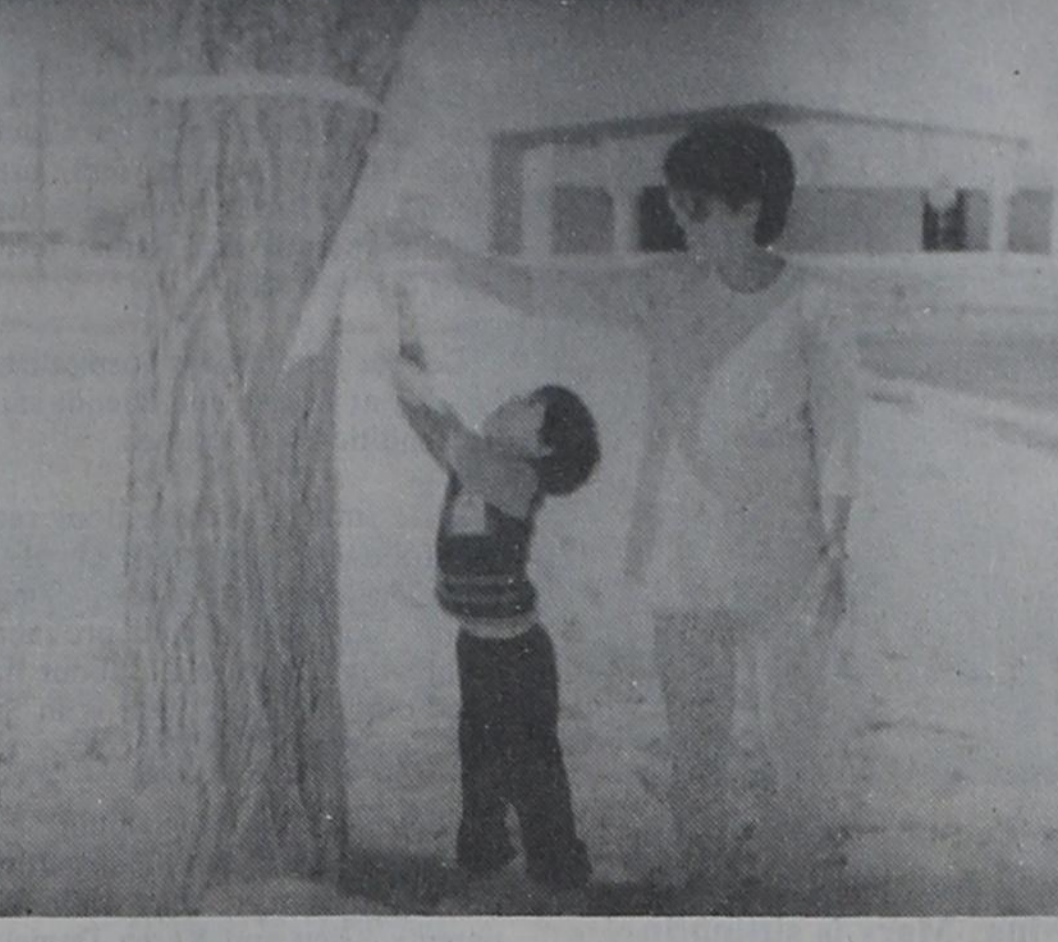

Corey Kirkpatrick accounted for all of Bovina's points (11) in the first quarter. Although Farwell's high scorer, Shawn Stewart, had 12, he had some backup help as the Steers opened up with a 23-11 lead.

The Steers outscored the Mustangs, 21-12 in the second quarter, to hold a 44-23 halftime lead. Kirkpatrick had three first-half fouls, and was a casualty to fouls before the game ended.

Stewart led all scorers with 25 points. Kirkpatrick's 11 points, all in the first quarter, topped Bovina's scoring and Cain Neal added 10.

FILLIES 47, Farwell 69
Teresa Stone 2-1-7; Keri Mitchell 2-2*-3-13; W. Jones 1-1-3; Donna Griggs 6-4-16; Kim Kirkpatrick 3-2-8.

MUSTANGS 39, Farwell 79
Juan Reyna 2-0-4; Corey Kirkpatrick 5-1-11; Kory Mitchell 1-0-2; Darren Hromas 2-0-4; Cain Neal 4-2-10; Rusty Venable 3-2-8.

TEACHER OF THE WEEK....Martha Buchanan was honored as Teacher of the Week by the Bovina Parent-Teacher Association. She is pictured with her second grade students and this is her first year to teach. Her husband, Scott, is attending ENMU.

Bovina's Landfill Closure Is Eminent

On or about January 31, Bovina's landfill, or dump ground as it used to be called, will be closed.

On January 31, all of the new rules from the E.P.A. and the Department of Health pertaining to landfills will be implemented, making it economically impossible for a town the size of Bovina to comply.

Servicemen Honored By Ribbons

Ribbons were placed on some of the trees in City Park during the weekend with the names of Bovina's servicemen on them.

This is a time that everyone is very concerned about and this is a way to let our home town boys know we care and are thinking about them. Appreciation to Mary Gustin of Farwell who runs the "Touch of Country," who provided the ribbons.

Mrs. Zeferino Villarreal and her daughter-in-law, Elida, placed the ribbons on the trees.

The names of the servicemen and their local family are: Richard and David Villarreal, sons of Zeferino and Rita Villarreal; Richard Garza, son of Andy and Connie Garza; Abel Lopez, son of Alvin and Maria Lopez; Bryan Mason, husband of Leah (Steelman); Antonio Serna, son of Luis and Sela Serna; and Steven Jaime, son of Julian and Anjelica Jaime.

According to Mayor Keith Knight, this leaves the City of Bovina with two options.

First, it could put in a recycling station in town, but that would cost about $100,000. "We are going to all the state and government agencies applying to them for grant money for such a project. As you know, this takes time, and although it looks favorable, you never know," Knight said.

The second option is to get out of the trash business completely and hire a private contractor, which is the way the city leaders feel they should go.

This company will place dumpsters in alleys, each unit to serve about four families. The dumpsters will be emptied weekly and hauled to the company's landfill.

Large items, such as washers, refrigerators, sofas, etc., will be picked up once every three months or as the need arises. "This, of course, means no more burning in the alley. This will happen on or about January 30," Knight said.

"We have a lot to learn on the project. I know everyone hates a change, but there comes a time when it must be done. We are going to become a dumpster town with our landfill closed and locked. We at city hall are still actively pursuing grant money for a recycling center and transfer station, and will continue to do so until all avenues are exhausted. Please feel free to come and discuss this and any city problems you may have," the mayor concluded.

Banquet Date Is Announced

The members of the Bovina Chamber of Commerce board of directors met January 4 at the Bovina Restaurant for a regular meeting.

There was a discussion about plans for the Chamber Banquet, which will be held March 21 at 7:30 p.m.

A price was discussed for entertainment. It was decided that the Cowboy Troubadours would be entertaining at the banquet. This is a group of Range Poets.

Committees for the banquet were set up and members will be assigned at the next meeting.

There was a discussion about the possibility of purchasing pheasants and putting them on private property in the area.

The group also discussed helping sponsor the local livestock show.

Members present were Sandra Johnson, Linda Kelley, Tami Kunselman, Jerry Roach, Pam Bell, Kim Black, Dickie Clayton, Charolette Cockerham, Richard Grisham, Susan Hughes, Sonny Roach, Bob Stafford, Esther Steelman and Coleman Young.

Stock Show Is Here Jan. 24

The local show will begin at 6 p.m., and will start with heifer judging, followed by lambs, swine, and topped off by the Pee-Wee pig show.

Judging the local show will be Mark Edens, vo-ag instructor at Levelland.

A picnic table will be auctioned off by the Bovina FFA chapter, said Gary McPeak, ag instructor.

The Parmer County Jr. Livestock Show will be held January 25-28 at Friona.

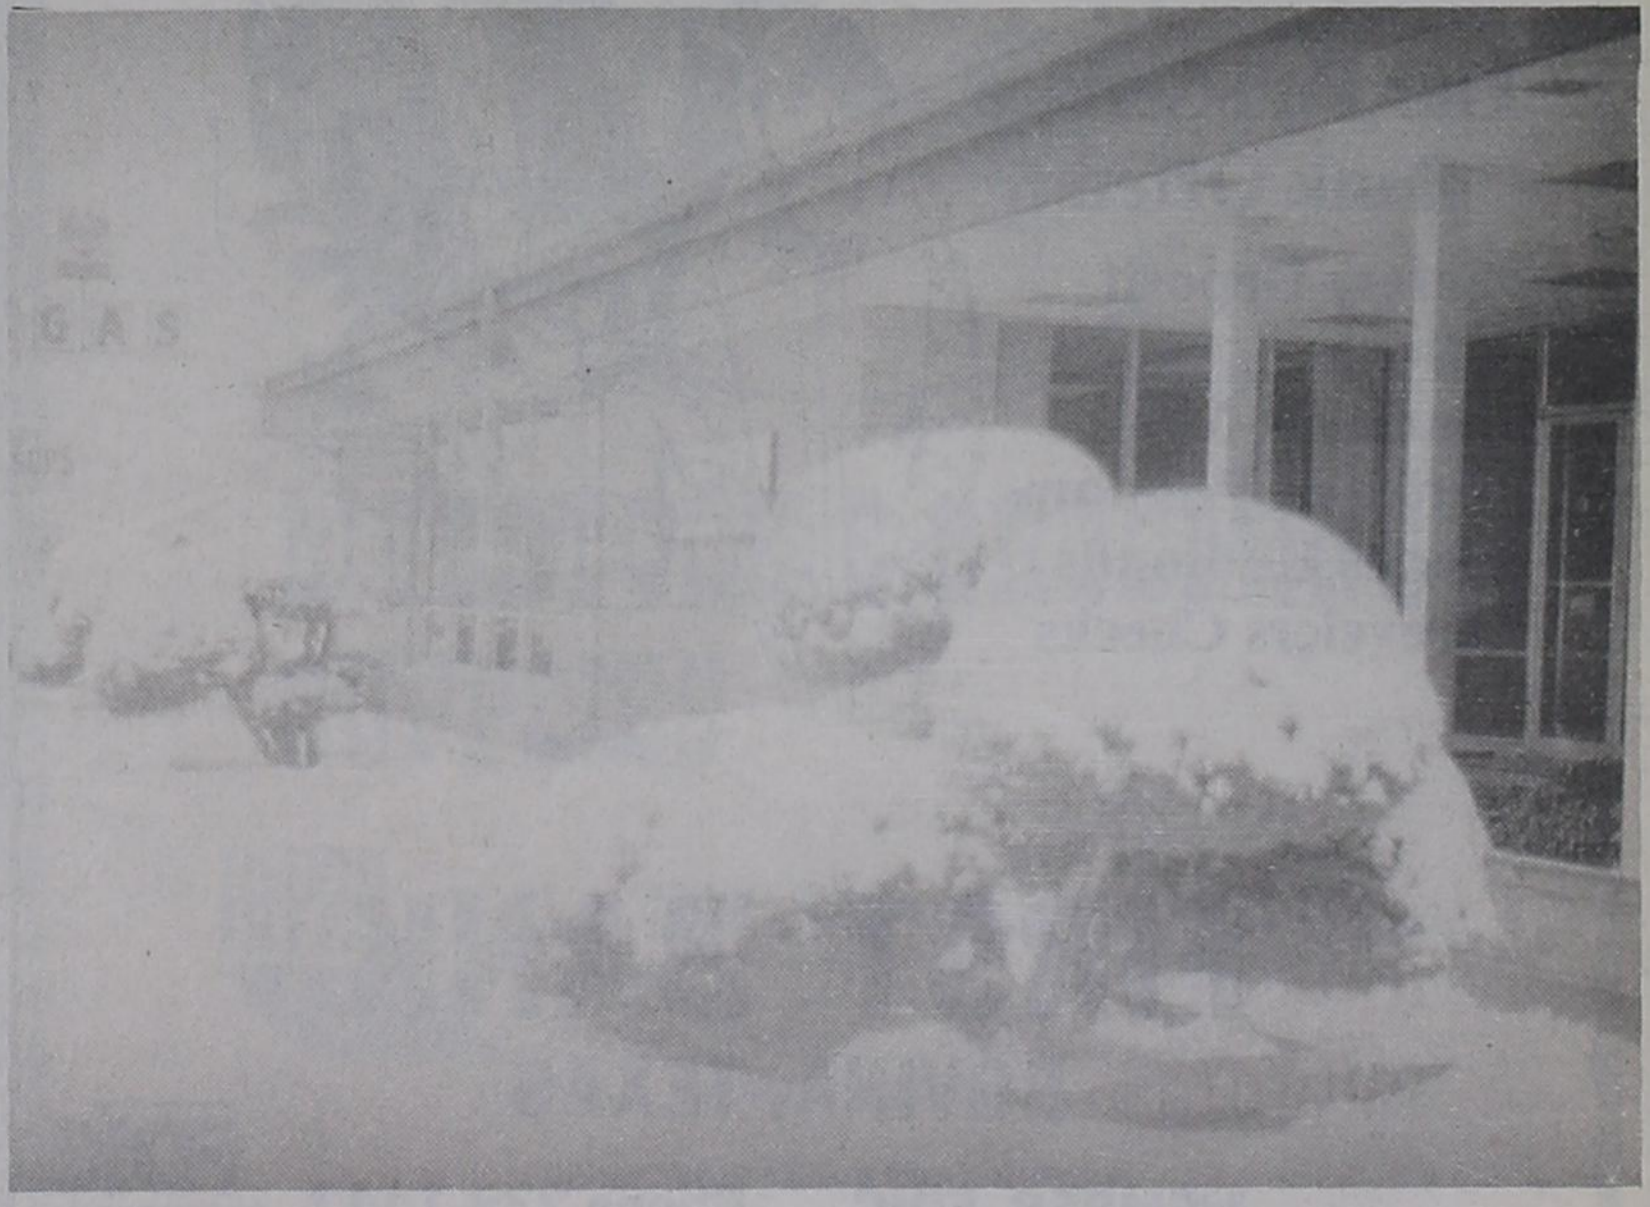

The schedule for the county show includes: January 25, weigh-in barrows, 1-5 p.m.; January 26, weigh-in lambs, 7-9 a.m.; lamb show, 12 noon; barrow show, 4 p.m.; January 27, steer and heifer shows, 1 p.m.; January 28, auction sale, 6 p.m.

Scooter's Scoops

By Scooter Russell

Five or six inches of snow blanketed Bovina last week and it was a good, wet snow. On Monday of this week, we had showers and cold weather, but nice.

Grady Sorley was hospitalized a week ago Wednesday in the Clovis High Plains Hospital and later taken to the Presbyterian Hospital in Albuquerque for further tests. He is in room 728.

George Trimble was hospitalized Sunday at Friona and friends said his condition was serious.

Elsie Smith is getting along real well following surgery for a broken hip. Her daughter-in-law, Suezy Smith, said they would probably be moving her to rehab about the middle of the week. She is in St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock.

Leon and Martha Schilling are having a good time babysitting their grandson, Cory, while his parents, Glen and Karen Daniels, are on a cruise. The couple, along with Karen's brother, Terry and Sabina Schilling, went to the Bahama Islands for a few days.

Little Cory is 13-months-old now and is getting along real well after having two open heart surgeries.

Brian Burns of Muleshoe, who worked at Bovina Feeders, was fatally injured when his pickup skidded on ice last week. He was married and had two children. His parents, Gaylon and Lanette Burns, are friends of Don and Juanda Murphy. He was also survived by one sister.

Funeral services were held recently for D.T. King's mother, Clarice King of Plainview. She was survived by five sons, four daughters, 28 grandchildren and 49 great-grandchildren. We express our sympathies to the family.

Funeral services were held here Saturday for Johnnie Pruitt. He was Printes Pruitt's dad of Bovina, also had two other sons, four daughters and his wife, Susie. He had been a resident of Parmer County since 1951.

Tony and Dottie Neal and family spent Christmas in Newport, California with Dottie's sister and her husband, Barbara and Dr. Dallas Long. Also, Dottie's mother, Mary Littlejohn of Tucson, Arizona, was with them.

This was the first time in 19 years all the family had been together.

The Neals' son, Cain, and their exchange student, Marco Lesic, were there from Bovina; the Neals' daughter, Mindy, and Mike Scheffler came from Bryan, Texas and their son, Byron, flew from Lubbock.

Dottie's sister's three daughters and one son were there, also. The family spent the day at Knox Berry Farm and spent time shopping, eating out and just really had a good time being together.

Jay Be and Jana Barrett and their children, Joel, Jordan and Britton, flew to Louisville, Kentucky and spent Christmas with members of Jana's family. One day the family drove 100 miles to Lexington to watch a basketball game. This was the University of Kentucky.

Jana said they had a good time, but the weather was snowy, icy and cold all the time they were there. They spent a week in Kentucky.

Prairie Acres Party Line

By CAROL DELEON

It has been a pretty quiet week around here.

We will be making several room changes next week, so if you come up to visit someone and they're not where you visited them last, just ask the staff and we will point you in the right direction.

George Trimble is at Parmer County Community Hospital. We wish him the best, and hope he comes home soon.

Thank you's this week go to: the family of Ealen Gage for sharing the flowers and the cake she brought for us to snack on; the family of Emma Turner for the flowers, they were lovely; Eunice Widmier for giving us the house plants to set around, they sure do brighten up the place; the Calvary Baptist Youth for making Valentines and bringing them up and also for visiting with the residents; Valoris Osborn for donating the large print Guidepost book for the residents to share and enjoy.

On Tuesday of this week, we were called and asked to hold a special prayer time at 10 a.m. We got as many of the residents as possible, all the staff and the ladies from First Baptist Church were here doing hair, so they joined us as well. As a matter of fact, Lucy Beth Hinkle was kind enough to be the one to lead the prayer. It was very touching and to look around afterward, there were several moist eyes in the crowd. I understand this was hoped to be held city-wide. I hope our servicemen and women in Saudi Arabia know that we are thinking about and supporting them all we can.

We held our monthly staff in-service meeting this Wednesday. I won't bore you with everything we discussed, but want to let you know that several of our staff members received recognition. The ten year necklace and pendant went to Jo Blackwell, Kay Funk and Yolanda Martinez. The five year key chain went to Dianna Perez, Marianne Richardson, Maria Saiz and Irene Trevino. We are very proud of all the staff at Prairie Acres and I think having people like this shows why.

We also surprised Dr. Alexander with an appreciation plaque the same day, with two of our board

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

ALTHOUGH THE ISRAELITES MAY HAVE ESCAPED FROM EGYPT AS A MOB OF STRAGGLING REFUGEES, MOSES KNEW THIS CONDITION MUST BE CHANGED! AND HE WAS RIGHT—THE PEOPLES THEY RAN INTO DURING THEIR DESERT WANDERINGS WERE UNFRIENDLY AT BEST, WHEN THEY WEREN'T DOWN-RIGHT WARLIKE! TO SURVIVE, IT WAS NECESSARY FOR THE ISRAELITES TO DEVELOP INTO A STRONGLY-ARMED FORCE, CAPABLE OF WITHSTANDING THOSE WHO WOULD DESTROY THEM. SO IT BECAME THE DUTY OF ALL MEN, AGES TWENTY TO FIFTY, TO BEAR ARMS, TO BE READY FOR BATTLE AT A MOMENT'S NOTICE! THE BIBLE TELLS US THAT THESE MEN NUMBERED 603,550 WARRIORS FROM ALL THE TRIBES WITH AN EXCEPTION TO THE TRIBE OF LEVI, WHO WERE EXEMPT AS THE PRIESTHOOD. EVEN THEIR ENCAMPMENT WAS LAID OUT WITH MILITARY STRATEGY, THE TABERNACLE OF GOD BEING PROTECTED IN THE CENTER OF AN AREA WHICH COVERED SOME TWELVE SQUARE MILES.

BY THE TIME JOSHUA FINALLY LED THEM INTO CAANAN TO CONQUER THE PROMISED LAND, THE ISRAELITES MARCHED AS BATTLE-TESTED VETERANS, SKILLED IN THE ARTS OF WAR FROM MANY DESERT CAMPAIGNS!

SWPS Announces Officer Changes

The board of directors of Southwestern Public Service Company has announced two officer changes and the election of an additional director to become effective March 1 upon the retirement of W.R. "Bill" Esler, chairman of the board.

Bill D. Helton, president and chief executive director, will become chairman of the board and chief executive officer. Coyt Webb, senior vice president and chief operating officer, will become president and chief operating officer. Additionally, Webb will become a director.

The board also elected Kenneth L. Ladd, Jr. and David M. Wilks, senior vice presidents, effective immediately. Ladd had been vice president of energy and environment. Wilks had been vice president of engineering and operations.

Ladd will have general responsibility for energy and environment, personnel, marketing and rates and regulation. Wilks will have general responsibility for system engineering and construction, general engineering and the company's three operating divisions.

Helton began his career with SPS in 1964 as a distribution design engineer. He subsequently held positions in marketing and financial services. He was elected financial vice president in 1983, vice president of corporate services in 1986 and executive vice president in 1987. He was elected president and chief operating officer in 1989 and president and chief executive officer in 1990.

Helton is a registered professional engineer and a graduate of Texas Tech University with a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering. He is vice chairman of the Southwest Power Pool and a member of the board of directors of the North American Electric Reliability Council.

Webb began his career in 1964 as an auditor. He later was supervisor of internal auditing and then executive assistant. He became director of accounting in 1979 and controller in 1980. He was elected senior vice president and controller in 1986 and was elected to the additional post of chief operating officer in 1990.

Webb is a certified public accountant and a graduate of Texas Tech University with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

Ladd began his career in 1961 as a plant operator. He subsequently held positions as a chemist and an environmentalist. As manager of licensing and environmental affairs in 1981, Ladd accepted a temporary appointment as a general engineering and technical adviser for the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency in Washington, D.C.

Ladd rejoined the company in 1983 as manager of fuel acquisition. He later became director of fuel acquisition and administration and was elected vice president in 1985. He became vice president of energy and environment in 1988.

Ladd is a registered professional engineer. He has a bachelor's degree from West Texas State University with a double major in chemistry and math, and he has a master's degree in chemical engineering from Texas Tech University.

Wilks began with SPS in 1977 as a plant design engineer. He became manager of strategic planning in 1986 and was appointed to the additional post of executive assistant in 1987. He later was group manager of general engineering and then chief engineer, before being elected vice president of engineering and operations in 1989.

Wilks is a registered professional engineer. He has a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from Texas A&M University and a master's degree in administration and financial management from George Washington University.

All four of the officers are active in civic and professional organizations.

SPS primarily provides electric service to a population of about one million in a 52,000-square-mile area comprising eastern and southeastern New Mexico, the South Plains and Panhandle of Texas, the Oklahoma Panhandle and southwestern Kansas. Corporate headquarters are in Amarillo.

VISITS TFB WACO.... Vick Christian (left), of Farwell, president of the Parmer County Farm Bureau, visited the Texas Farm Bureau headquarters in Waco, December 18, on a one-day orientation trip with other county presidents. Gene Hall, director of information for the Texas Farm Bureau, explains video equipment in the organization's state office building. The Texas Farm Bureau is organized in 214 counties in Texas and has a membership of 320,272 member families.

Jerry D. Harris To Head ASCS Panel

Jerry D. Harris, a cotton and grain sorghum farmer in Dawson and Gaines counties, has been named to a sixth term as chairman of the Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service Committee, U.S. Sen. Phil Gramm has announced.

Agriculture Secretary Clayton Yeutter also named Mrs. Hope Huffman of McGregor to her second one-year term on the panel and reappointed veteran ASCS committee members, Dale Hunt of Garwood, D.V. Guerra, Jr. of Edinburg and Keith Spears of Vernon.

"These five leaders bring a wealth of practical background in agriculture to ASCS. Jerry Harris has established an impressive record, combining years of experience as both a family farmer and a federal program administrator," the senator said. "Hope Huffman, Dale Hunt, D.V. Guerra and Keith Spears all have done remarkable work in helping to lead the ASCS and I am pleased that they have agreed to continue their service to Texas and America."

Harris is active in cotton ginning, warehousing and marketing, as well as operating a 7,000-acre family farm and continuing service on the Board of Governors of Lubbock Christian University.

Also, he is a member of the National Cotton Council, the Lamesa Cotton Growers, the Texas Food and Fiber Protein Commission and the Texas Cotton Ginners.

Mrs. Huffman raises row crops, grain and beef stocker cattle in McLennan and Coryell counties. She is a member of the Texas Farm Bureau's Labor Advisory Committee and is active in both the McLennan County Farm Bureau and the Waco Chamber of Commerce's Agricultural Committee.

Hunt is a recognized national leader in the rice industry. He has served on the National Commission on Agricultural Trade and Export Policy and as president of the Texas Rice Research Foundation.

Guerra, active in soil and water conservation in South Texas, is an expert in livestock production. He has served on the Governor's Task Force on Rural Development and Texas A&M University to promote agricultural interests. He was named "Man of the Year in Agriculture" by the Texas County Agricultural Agents Association.

Spears is a leader in the wheat industry. He has served as vice chairman of the Texas Wheat Producers Board and as a member of the U.S. Wheat Associates Board.

The five-member panel oversees activities of the ASCS organization throughout Texas, including administration of federal farm programs in Texas.

Glass Containers Are 30% Recycled

When you buy in glass containers, you're buying a package made up of 30% recycled material, according to the Glass Packaging Institute (GPI).

"Glass container manufacturers are reusing old glass containers to make new ones at a rate today that is approaching 30%," said Gail Ederer, executive director of the MidAmerica Glass Recycling Program, a regional arm of GPI. "Our industry has always recycled old glass into new, but in today's new environmental consciousness, people and programs are recycling glass in record volumes," she said.

According to a recent survey of its member manufacturing plants across the nation, GPI reports that nearly one-third of the ingredients going into glass-making furnaces today is recycled glass, or cullet. "In fact, the only thing we use more of than cullet is silica sand...the primary ingredient in glass-making," Ederer noted.

In an atmosphere of increasingly confusing environmental claims by manufacturers, it's comforting to know that used glass containers can be made simply into new ones again and again and again...indefinitely with nothing lost in the process. The result is a product that is equal in quality and purity to ones made from 100% virgin materials.

"Today we're at 30% recycled content. Our industry is determined to raise that percentage to 50 or higher in the coming decade," Ederer stated.

FACT:

Today, all new glass containers are made from 30% recycled glass.
