Mrs. S. H. Conant, 57, died at a Waco hospital Friday afternoon of injuries received earlier in the day when struck by a truck at a street intersection. Investigators said the truck was backing up when Mrs. Conant was struck.

Construction was started Tuesday on a $450,000 pants factory at Dallas, which officials said would occupy 90,000 square feet of floor space.

TREAT IN STORE FOR LOVERS OF SPORT AND FUN

Few sports, if any, provide more amusement to players and fans alike than a donkey ball game. So through President R. T. Gray of the Lions club another troupe of the performing quadrupeds has been booked for a Merkel engagement, this time on Friday night, July 26.

Chairman Stanley King and his assistants, Nolan Palmer and Byron Patterson, of the sports committee of the Lions club have organized a full quota of experienced donkey trainers from the club membership, who will have as their opponents an all-star aggregation picked and managed by John Mansfield.

Place of the encounter will be the Merkel softball field; the time, 8 p. m., Friday, July 26. Price of admission will be 10 cents for children and 25 cents for adults.

Fund Is Authorized For Taylor Electric Co-Operative A Line

Wires received Tuesday by Johnny Cox, coordinator of the Taylor Electric Co-Operative, Inc., from Congressman Clyde Garrett and Senator Tom Connally advised that allotment of $287,000 for the construction of the Co-Operative's A line, a distance of 395.5 miles, had been secured.

The line is a combination of the old A and B lines, and goes into Jones, Taylor, Fisher, Callahan, Shackelford and Nolan counties and has more than 800 members.

The contract for construction of this line probably will be let in about two weeks, Cox said after receiving word from Washington. The contract engineer has been asked to release contract specifications so that bids can be figured.

Two staking crews are at work now on the approved line and Cox urges that all members co-operate with right-of-way men who precede stakemen, getting meter locations and house wiring contracts to determine transformer capacities.

New projects are being worked up and communities not already serviced by REA are urged to get in touch with Cox. Work is progressing on another 150-mile line and is expected to be completed within the next 30 days.

Program for Old Settlers Reunion

Program for the Taylor County Old Settlers' reunion at Buffalo Gap Friday of this week will open at 10 a. m. with a 30-minute concert by the Abilene high school band, it is announced by Judge T. A. Bledsoe, president of the association, at the close of which invocation will be offered by Dr. M. A. Jenkins, pastor of the First Baptist church in Abilene.

After Judge Bledsoe extends welcome, W. H. Free will lead the assemblage in singing national and patriotic and sacred songs. Representatives of the Spanish War veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion will give talks.

Political candidates will be allowed to make brief announcements. More band music will follow lunch. A musical entertainment beginning at 4 p. m. will include a solo by Ed Shumway, songs by Bertha and Clara Galle, music by the Shep Troubadours, and an old fiddlers' contest. The Abilene square dance set will give exhibitions at 6 p. m.

ANNUAL MELON FEAST STAGED BY LIONS CLUB

Group of 57, Including Members, Ladies and Guests, Gather on Baptist Church Lawn for Informal Evening.

Annual watermelon feast of the Merkel Lions club found a group of fifty-seven, including members, their wives and friends, gathered on the spacious lawn of the First Baptist church Tuesday night, when the evening was spent informally around long tables loaded with luscious red-ripe melons, which were cut and served in bountiful proportions.

President R. T. Gray of the Lions club is authority for the statement that the committee on arrangements, Milton Case, Ray Wilson and E. O. Carson, contracted with Paul Douglas to haul a thousand pounds of San Antonio's best variety for the occasion. The club is indebted to the pastor of the First Baptist church, Rev. Cooper Waters, for the courtesy of use of the lawn.

As the watermelon cut was substituted for the regular luncheon meeting, roll call proceeded in the customary way, with added high-lights when members reported correct age, pet name, etc., of their "better half" or else settled with Tail Twister Norman Hodge, which latter course was resorted to by many.

Members and guests present were: Messrs. and Mesdames W. O. Boney, E. Y. Bailey, A. J. Canon, Elmo Collins, Paul Douglas, Wrenn Durham, S. D. Gamble, R. T. Gray, Dee Grimes, John Grable, N. T. Hodge, Stanley King, Bert Melton, A. A. McGehee, Nolan Palmer, Byers Petty, Owen Robertson, Connor Robinson, W. A. Stockbridge, H. L. Turner, Ray Wilson, Nathan Wood; Rev. and Mrs. Cooper Waters; Mrs. Frank Robinson and son, Bobby, Crane; Misses Christine Collins and Gay West; Dr. L. C. Zehnpfennig, Messrs. Frank Breaux, Milton Case, C. J. Glover, Myer Mellinger, A. T. Sheppard, F. M. Simpson.

Interesting Review From National Demo Convention

Impressions and personal views of the convention are revealed by Mrs. Lynn Shelton, who is attending her first democratic national conclave, which opened in Chicago Monday, in the following letter to the Mail written Monday:

"We are stopping at the Belair hotel and the 'Garner-for-President' headquarters are located in the Sherman hotel, so we go by there in going to and from our hotel, which is quite a piece from the convention hall. While in the Sherman hotel, I had the privilege of being introduced to Senator Tom Connally, Senator Duncan from New Mexico, Elliott Roosevelt and other men of importance whose names I fail to recall. From the Sherman hotel, we rushed out on Washington avenue, via a crowded bus. I cannot see how there could be people enough left any where else, from the crowd assembled at the convention hall. After much confusion, I found where I was supposed to sit and settled down for a long hour of waiting to see what was going to happen. On the main floor, each state had its particular label; therefore, you begin to realize that this was the United States in a small representation from each state. Cameramen with their cameras almost blind you with flashes. To me it was all very interesting, though you are probably waiting for me to tell you what the chairman was talking about.

"It was but a short time, probably twenty minutes after I was seated, that I learned from the gentleman sitting by me that the chairman had announced that the convention was to adjourn until 9 that evening, so everyone rushed out to buy a newspaper to find out what had taken place."

Mrs. Shelton, who went with Mrs. Claude Young of Abilene, adds that they plan to come home about Saturday.

ALL-CANDIDATES' RALLY SET FOR SATURDAY NIGHT

A county-wide candidates' rally is to be held here Saturday night, beginning at 8 o'clock, with W. O. Boney, precinct chairman, presiding. The loud speaker apparatus will be hooked up in front of the Merkel Motor company on Edwards street. A similar candidates' rally had been scheduled for next Thursday night at Butman, but the program of the Butman Rodeo-Picnic provides for political speakings during the morning hours of each of the two-day community celebration.

"Blind Bogey" Next Tournament Plan Merkel Golf Club

A "blind bogey" tournament, which promises a new twist to Merkel golfers as tournament play, will start Saturday, July 20, to be concluded Sunday, Aug. 4.

Details of play, as announced by the tournament committee, provide that 18 holes must be played in at least three-somes, with each member of the three-some signing the cards. Score cards may be secured at Petty & West Barber shop, where scores will be posted. Members of the tournament committee are Weston West, Byers Petty and Byron Patterson.

Each player will be assigned a handicap, which added to or subtracted from his total score on 18 holes will determine his net score. A number will be drawn by the committee and the player (or players) who has that net score, or nearest thereto, will be the winner.

Franklin D. Roosevelt Wins on First Ballot

Chicago Stadium, July 18.—Discarding an ancient tradition, the democratic national convention noisily nominated Franklin D. Roosevelt for a third term as president of the United States early today—and did it by acclamation.

A smashing majority of the convention's 1,100 votes had been cast for the president, to the clamor of the delegates and the jammed galleries. Before the result could be announced, James A. Farley, once a third term foe, a candidate himself, announced his support for the ticket, and moved that the rules be suspended and the president be acclaimed the party's nominee.

Farley's motion was seconded by Senator Walsh of Massachusetts and Senator Tydings of Maryland. Rep. Rayburn of Texas already had turned Texas' 46 votes from Vice-President Garner to Mr. Roosevelt.

Official result of the ballot, as announced by tally clerks, gave Roosevelt 946 13-30; Farley, 72 27-30; Garner, 61; Tydings, 9 1-2; Hull, 5 2-3.

MERKEL 20 YEARS AGO

W. S. J. Brown and Warren Smith returned Wednesday from a trip by auto to Glen Rose and Fort Worth.

Miss Virginia Swafford has returned to her home at Big Spring after a visit with relatives and friends here.

R. L. Bland left the first of the week on a business trip to points in Georgia and other Southern States.

EVERYBODY LOVES A FAT MAN, BUT WATCH 'EM ROPE

Fat Men's Roping Contest Extra Added Feature for Saturday Afternoon Show; Boots Scramble Friday Night.

It's an ancient saying, probably dates prior to the Confucius era, "everybody loves a fat man." Genial Macklyn Arbuckle typified the adage on the stage years ago in many a riotous comedy.

So the fat man will have another day Saturday at the Merkel rodeo, which is introducing a fat man's calf roping event as one of the added features. Just how much fun will be invoked depends on the fat men, like Chief T. A. Hackney and Dee Bland of the Abilene police force, who have already entered the competition. Another Bland, his name is Alvie, Sweetwater chief, is also reported as wanting to take part. Out of a class headed by such celebrities and many others from Abilene and Sweetwater and local men as well, who knows how much art and speed with the lariat and tie-rope may be developed?

The usual full schedule of events, including calf roping, cow milking, saddle bronc and bareback bronc riding, bull and steer riding, will be staged at both of the week-end shows, Friday night and Saturday afternoon, with the fat man's roping contest a stellar attraction for the afternoon show and the hilarious "boots scramble" to bring lots of fun in its first presentation in the local arena Friday night.

Starting time for the Friday night performance is 8 p. m.; the Saturday show will start at 2 p. m.

The "green tag" sale had exceeded the 400 mark up to Wednesday night, with prospects of a general spread over Thursday and Friday, to complete the "1 in 1,000" campaign.

Friends of "Elmer And Jimmie" Lowe Plan Booster Trip

Plans were started Thursday to get together a delegation of Merkelites to leave here Monday at 1 p. m. for Abilene to boost "Elmer Lowe for sheriff."

"This is strictly an impromptu affair and all of Elmer's and Jimmie's friends are urged to join the party," said Dr. L. C. Zehnpfennig, one of the sponsors of the delegation.

"It is planned to spend about an hour in Abilene, to visit among friends and do what can be done to help a home-town boy make good," he added.

Miss Mamie Moore left Monday night for California where she will make her home.

Percy Jones and family and father-in-law, W. B. Farmer, returned last Friday from a fishing trip and visit down in Stephens county.

Our readers are familiar with the fact that owing to the death last January of Mr. H. C. Williams, our postmaster, there was held a civil service examination for the purpose of selecting a new postmaster and to Mr. Shirley King fell the appointment. He immediately filled out the required bond and will receive his commission from Washington within the next 30 days.

Mr. King has had considerable experience and is one of the best young men in all the whole country, is thoroughly capable and will no doubt make a very efficient and accommodating postmaster for Merkel.

Criticizes Truck Regulation Tangle

Lubbock, July 18.—"Truck transportation has reached its political load limit in Texas," Railroad Commission Candidate Olin Culberson declared here in a recent speech.

"The 7,000-pound load limit is bad enough, but the further burden of political boondoggling into business is a worse handicap," Culberson declared.

"Many bus and truck operators exist merely upon the whim of political-minded, ambitious and uniformed regulatory authority, and thousands of jobs and tremendous investments as well as public convenience rest upon political expediency," Culberson added. "This situation stinks and must be corrected by a commissioner who has no political debts to pay and fears no political reprisal. I mean an honest man experienced and proved capable."

Methodists to Begin Revival at Blair

Blair, July 18.—The Methodist revival will begin Friday night, July 19, with Rev. Cecil Fox, pastor of the Methodist church at Roby, leading in this evangelistic effort.

According to reports, he is an evangelist of high reputation and has proved his ability as pastor in local churches. He is an able speaker and will bring fresh messages to challenge sinner and saint alike.

Rev. J. B. Stewart, the pastor, will assist Rev. Mr. Fox in making the meeting a spiritual success. Those who attend these meetings will be rich in spiritual blessings as workers together for God. The public is cordially invited.

Been secured for the rodeo performances, which will feature bronc riding, steer riding, bull riding, calf roping, wild cow decorating and junior steer riding. The committee is planning for a swift, thrilling and spilling rodeo with no side lines to delay its procedure.

The stage entertainment under management of Joe Seymore, assisted by Mrs. Don Riney, Lloyd Mathews, Jack Nowell, Mrs. Lota Butman, J. W. Brown and M. P. (Uncle Jack) Latimer, has been well planned to fill two nights full of enjoyable entertainment of all kinds.

E. H. Cordill, assisted by Dewell McLean and Howard Cargill, has made plans to take care of candidate speaking.

A special feature committee consisting of Mrs. Wade Ensminger, Mrs. Ben Butman and Mrs. W. C. Perkins, together with the committee on outdoor games and sports, consisting of J. Lee Coffman, J. B. Stewart, A. D. Scott and Roy Jennings, have arranged a softball game for each day to begin at 5:30 p. m. the first day.

After the work of the grounds committee is completed, the decoration committee plans to add color and attraction to the entire layout.

The finance and concession committees are looking forward to an adequate supply of eats, drinks and amusement. All indications point to a general theme that these are to be the community's two-day vacation, and everybody is cordially invited.

Resident of Taylor County for 12 Years, Doss Seeks Judgeship

To the Citizens of Fisher, Jones and Taylor Counties:

I have entered the race for district judge of the 104th judicial district composed of the above counties, with malice toward none and good will toward all, and on my own merits without disparagement of any one.

I was born and reared in middle Tennessee, and upon obtaining my majority, decided to follow the advice of Horace Greeley and came west. I was educated at Howard institute, Mt. Pleasant, Tenn., and at Vanderbilt university, Nashville, Tenn.

I was admitted to the Texas bar in 1903, maintained a law office in Greenville, Texas, for five years and thereafter begun to practice law in West Texas. I located in Rannels county in February, 1909, and have continuously practiced law in West Texas since that time, moving from Ballinger to Abilene twelve years ago. I have never had any other occupation or business and have never before asked for an elective office.

For several years at Ballinger I was attorney for the city without salary and soon after I came to Abilene I served one term as corporation judge of the City of Abilene, appointed by the city commission. I was reappointed for a second term, but resigned at the end of three months. The first seven years of my residence in Abilene I was a member of the law firm of Davidson, Doss and McMahon and the last five years I have practiced alone. I have practiced law continuously for 37 years, it being my only occupation.

I am a member of the Methodist church affiliated with the St. Paul congregation in Abilene, and have always tried to be on the right side of every moral issue. My father and grandfather spent their lives as pioneer Methodist circuit riders. My family consists of my wife, our four children, two of whom are married and two of whom are still in school.

In 1898 I enlisted for service in the Spanish American war and for a time was located in the fever camps in Miami, Fla. I am a member of the local Park Minter Camp of Spanish American War Veterans at Abilene. During the World War I was chairman for Rannels county of the committee investigating un-American activities, was a minute man making weekly speeches in theatres and other public places; was on the selective draft board and registered for service. I made speeches during the World war on Liberty Loan, and Red Cross drives and other patriotic programs.

I know that I understand the duties of district judge and I believe that I can perform them in a manner that will reflect honor to the office and credit to myself and I promise you that I will, to the utmost of my ability, render you the kind of service you have a right to expect, and that I will administer four-square justice under the law to every man regardless of position, rank or social status.

Sincerely,
A. K. Doss.

Canon Asks Another Term to Finish Up Latest Road Project

To the Voters of Precinct No. 2:
I take this means of thanking you for the support you are giving me and for the favors you have shown me. I am very grateful to you, and trust that in your opinion I merit your continued co-operation.

A word of explanation is due my friends, regarding my reason for seeking re-election to the office of commissioner. As you know, I have succeeded in getting a federal project assigned to this precinct, and county-wide funds in the amount of $260,200.00 have already been o.k.'ed in Washington.

It is not as easy as some people would have you believe to get these projects assigned. There is a great deal of red tape connected with it, and they must be figured and re-figured several times. So long as I have succeeded in getting this project approved, I really am anxious to stay in office until it is finished.

I know the set-up better than anyone could possibly know it who has not been working on the plans, and I feel that I am, for that reason alone, better qualified to give the precinct more efficient service and to enable this part of the county to receive more benefit from the project than could anyone not thoroughly familiar with its every detail.

In determining for whom you cast your vote for commissioner, I trust you will consider these facts, and, if you vote for me, I will continue to give you the best service of which I am capable.

Yours sincerely,
A. J. Canon.

QUEEN THEATRE CALENDAR

Last times Friday—Bob Burns in "Alias the Deacon;" added, U. S. Navy of 1940—March of Time.
 Saturday only — Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette in "Gaucho Serenade," also selected short subjects.
 Saturday preview, Sunday matinee, Monday night—Bob Hope, Paulette Goddard in "Ghost Breakers;" added, Donald Duck cartoon and shorts.
 Tuesday-Wednesday — Lloyd Nolan, Barton McLane in "Gangs of Chicago."
 Thursday-Friday, July 25-26—Bing Crosby in "If I Had My Way;" special added attraction, 20-minute story of "State Fair of Texas" in technicolor.

Bob Burns
 Bob Burns, the fun-loving man with the bazooka and the relatives, is back in all his glory in the new Universal comedy, "Alias the Deacon," which opened Thursday at the Queen theatre.

He is the same Burns who created a new kind of screen humor a few years back with his first picture, "Rhythm on the Range," and he is all the more refreshing now because he is back again with the familiar Burns character.

The title role of "Alias the Deacon" was made to order for Burns, and he takes full advantage of his opportunities. In contrast to his recent screen appearances, Burns attempts no pretexts. He plays his character for comedy and is content with that. And his portrayal of the philosophical card sharp in the oil boom town is Burns to the life.

"The Ghost Breakers"

Spooks to the left of them, spooks to the right of them, Paulette Goddard and Bob Hope, go after ghosts with gags in one of the merriest mystery stories of the season coming to the Queen theatre Saturday preview, Sunday matinee and Monday night. It's Paramount's "The Ghost Breakers." It will break you up completely.

Cleverly directed by George Marshall from a well-planned screen-play by Walter DeLeon, it gives Bob Hope ample opportunity to ad lib at the expense of the wierdest assortment of uncanny goings-on ever assembled. Dressed in the latest fashions that display her gorgeous figure to perfection, Paulette Goddard is an eye-ful.

Action is the keynote of "The Ghost Breakers." From the very first moment when Paulette finds that she has inherited a haunted castle on an island off Cuba, until she finds out why it was haunted, at the end of the picture, not a moment is wasted. It is only natural that two people united in solving such a thrilling riddle should gradually drift into romance, although they are thrown together accidentally in the beginning.

"If I Had My Way"

The happy combination of Bing Crosby and Gloria Jean will result in top-notch entertainment when "If I Had My Way" is presented at the Queen theatre next Thursday and Friday, July 25 and 26.

Musically, the picture is one of Crosby's best. Gloria, who made her debut in "The Under-Pup" is an unusual child soprano. She is twelve years old, yet she handles difficult renditions in a manner that has amazed musical experts.

Eight songs are to be heard in "If I Had My Way." Of these, "I Haven't Time to Be a Millionaire," and "Pessimistic Character" are duets by Bing and Gloria. Other numbers include a solo by Crosby, "If I Had My Way," a solo by Gloria, "Little Gray Home in the West," "April Played the Fiddle," sung by Crosby accompanied by Six Hits and a Miss, and two songs, "Ida," sung by the famous vaudeville and minstrel performer, Eddie Leonard, and "Rings on My Fingers," sung by Blanche Ring. The last two numbers are accompanied by the Six Hits and a Miss.

Sadler Making Five to Eight Speeches Daily

Austin, July 18.—Political observers throughout the state are marveling at the campaign being waged by Jerry Sadler for governor and are loud in their predictions that Sadler will be in the run-off with Governor W. Lee O'Daniel.

Sadler is making a whirlwind campaign which will carry him into practically every section of the state and so far on his tour he has spoken to more than 15,000 people daily. He is making from five to eight speeches each day.

He is the avowed foe of a sales-tax in any form, and more particularly the "transaction tax form." Instead of taxing property which a sales tax would do, Sadler proposes to tax "those most able to pay." He advocates increased taxes on oil and sulphur, and a tax of one cent per thousand cubic feet of natural gas. He proposes adjustment of the franchise tax laws to raise funds to match teachers' retirement funds, which now amount to more than $6,000,000, none of which has been paid into the fund by the state.

"We've got the sales-tax gang on the run," Sadler said in a recent speech. "They can dish it out, but they can't take it and already they are laying down a blitzkrieg trying to fool the people again. But big business started too late, and their general, Governor O'Daniel, is not even enough to swing the tide of battle. We can make it unanimous and avert at the first primary on July 27, we can show Governor O'Daniel and his sales-tax gang, which is big business, that Texas does not want a sales-tax in any form."

Thompson Donates Salary to Pensions

Austin, July 18.—The state old age pension fund received its first outright individual donation in history Tuesday.

Ernest O. Thompson, member of the railroad commission and candidate for governor, contributed his salary from the state for the month of June, as he had promised in his campaign.

The amount was $583.33, Thompson cashing the salary checks and adding $3.33 to cover a discount. All state general fund warrants are discounted if cashed before called in by the treasury.

The candidate said he also would contribute his July and August salary.

Millionth 1940 Chevrolet to be Contest Award

Some conception of the demand for the 1940 Chevrolet may be gained from the fact that the one-millionth model of this year's production left the assembly line at Flint, Mich., on July 12. In celebration of the public appreciation reflected by this tremendous production record, M. E. Coyle, general manager of Chevrolet, shown (left) above with W. E. Holler, general sales manager, announced that the one-millionth 1940 car, together with a trip to the New York World's Fair, would be awarded in a contest which is open now and will close Aug. 31. Details are obtainable at any of the company's dealers.

SAVING MONEY With Cotton Bags

Clean kitchen curtains always improve the cook's disposition and certainly do put a new face on the kitchen. Why not have several pairs so that you can put up clean ones at a moment's notice? Attractive sash curtains can be made from two cotton flour bags, in very little time. Carry out the color scheme of your kitchen by binding the edges with bias tape. Colored rick rack stitched in rows about one inch apart across the bottom makes an attractive finish. Or you can simply hem them and put some quaint applique design at the bottom, using up scraps of goods you have about the house. Cotton sugar liners are made of a lighter weight material and any baker or grocer will be glad to sell them to you for a few cents.

Other Cotton Bag sewing ideas are illustrated in a free booklet. Send to National Cotton Council, Box 18, Memphis, or Textile Bags, 100 N. LaSalle St., Chicago.

Army Orders 627 Tanks 12-Ton Size

Washington, July 18.—The army awarded a contract Monday for $11,000,000 worth of light tanks to bring its tank fleet to 1,671—enough to outfit the two new mechanized stream-line divisions and have a few hundred left for other purposes.

The 627 tanks ordered were the first to be purchased with funds from the new multi-billion-dollar defense program. The army had ordered 552 light tanks with 1940 funds and has on hand 492 light and medium tanks and combat cars built within the last four years.

The new order, representing the biggest single purchase of this nature in peace-time history, went to the American Car & Foundry Company of Berwick, Pa.

The tanks, weighing about twelve tons, will be equipped with four machine guns of thirty caliber, one machine gun of forty-five caliber and one 37-millimeter anti-tank gun. The army's tanks on hand include a number of medium tanks of about twenty tons. The feasibility of using heavy tanks as well is being investigated in the light of experiences in Europe.

The war department plans to let contracts in the near future for about 1,400 additional tanks and is understood to be planning ultimately to have a fleet of 6,000.

cotton bags mean jobs

In these hours of work American labor earns its wages, builds up its purchasing power, increases its effective market for the retailers who sell their products in bags, creates business on which the income of many related American businesses depends. The cotton dollar, whether it goes to farmer or mill hand, is cash on the barrel head, spent quickly, spent powerfully by a vast group of buyers whose consumption habits — and consuming ability — guides the economy of not only the Cotton Belt but also the sections who sell to the Cotton Belt.

No substitute for cotton in bagging spreads work and wages over as broad a consumer base as cotton does. No other dollar reacts as powerfully in American business as the cotton dollar. Fellow consumers would do well to insist that the articles they buy are packed in cotton bags.

HENDRICKS-HOGAN.

Wedding bells rang out last Sunday afternoon when Miss Margie Hogan became the bride of John Bell (Bud) Hendricks of Corpus Christi.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Cooper Waters, pastor of the First Baptist church, at his home in the presence of only a few close friends of the couple, at two o'clock.

Miss Betty Lu Higgins was maid of honor and Bernie Bell attended as best man.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Hogan, who have recently moved to Merkel from the Mount Pleasant community. She was a most popular graduate of Merkel High school last year. For her wedding she was very lovely in a heaven's blue frock with accessories in navy and white.

The groom is the son of Mr. Jay Hendricks of Corpus Christi, and a grandson of Mrs. M. F. Bell of this city. He attended Schreiner Military Institute at Kerrville following graduation at Corpus Christi, and it is at Corpus Christi where they will make their home.

A clever "shower" decoration was composed of a parasol of rice which descended upon the blind-folded bride, advising her of a shower of lovely gifts to be opened.

At the tea hour a dainty sandwich plate, sweets and iced drinks were passed to Mesdames Bud Hendricks, Tom Hogan, Bob Riney, Lucille White, Della Henslee, Ford Smith, G. D. Richie, Emmett Ayers, M. The devotional from Matt. 9:35.

10:1 and 11:1 was given by Mrs. Connor Robinson, who has taught the book.

A summer offering program was given and prayer offered for the missionaries in the China and North Carolina fields by the members.

During the social hour which followed, a gift from the society was presented to Mrs. I. W. Walling, who is soon to move to Coleman. A delicious refreshment plate was served by the hostess to Mesdames I. W. Walling, W. M. Elliott, R. A. Walker, John West, Delma Compton and Connor Robinson.

WOODMEN CIRCLE.

As the regular meeting of Grove No. 563 of the Woodmen Circle came on a holiday, members met on Wednesday, July 3, with the guardian, Mrs. Lillie Barnett, presiding.

The attractive little honoree was surprised to find a decorated room, a table loaded with presents and a few of her friends singing "Happy Birthday to You." After the presents were opened and admired, games and a program of songs followed. Shirley Ann Sharp and Peggy Sue Williams sang "Maw, He's Making Eyes at Me" and "Oh, Johnny, Oh," and the two tapdanced to "In an Old Dutch Garden." Shirley sang "Rancho Grande" in Spanish, after which she joined Bobbie Nell in singing "Wonderful Words of Life," and while Miss Cox played the violin the three, Bobbie Nell, Shirley Ann and Peggy Sue, sang "Cowboy Jack" and "My Buddy." Mrs. Fred Jinkens and son, Jimmie Ray, visited during the song program.
