MERKEL PHA PROJECT TO HAVE OPEN HOUSE

Merkel's $227,700 public housing project, Brick Haven, will be open to the public Sunday afternoon Aug. 27, from 4 to 7 o'clock, according to Mrs. Mary Hargrove, executive director.

Construction on the recently completed brick duplexes started Jan. 13 with Alston Construction Co. of Sweetwater as general contractors.

One each of the one, two, three and four bedroom units will be on display for the open house Sunday. The management and maintenance building will also be open for inspection.

The project is located in the northeast section of Merkel and covers approximately three and a half acres. It is bounded on the north by 7th Street, on the east by Taylor Street, on the south by 8th Street and on the west by Lamar Street.

Tenants will start moving into the houses some time next week, Mrs. Hargrove said. Board members met Tuesday night and reviewed applications for tenancy. Fourteen were approved and others are on file pending verification of information.

The housing program will provide decent, safe and sanitary dwellings for families in the low income bracket with rent based on the family income and not on the size of the quarters required.

The project is a local one, directed by a local board of directors. The Public Housing Authority acts in an advisory capacity only, furnishing technical advice and reviews policies to see that they meet requirements of the law.

The low-rent program is financed by Federal loans made to the local authorities through the construction stage. When the project was near completion the local housing authority sold bonds publicly and repaid all Federal loans plus interest. After it is finished rental income must be sufficient to cover operating expenses since Federal funds are not available for that purpose.

The duplexes are of brick and masonry construction with gravel roofs. Aluminum windows are used throughout. Walls are of textured and floors are asphalt tile with grease proof tile used in the kitchens.

Each unit is equipped with refrigerator, stove and heating. Built-in cabinets have double sinks and there is a large utility room adjoining each kitchen. Other features of the project include clothes lines, garbage racks complete with cans and landscaping. Grass has been planted and trees and shrubs will be planted later.

Sub-contractors on the project were Stanley Electric, Sweetwater; Carson Plumbing and Heating, Stamford; Central Roofing and Materials Co., Abilene; Moody Sheetrock Construction Co., Abilene; Chastain and Sons Construction Co., paving contractors of Abilene and Key City Steel Erectors, Abilene.

Maintenance tools were purchased from White Auto Store and Bullock's Hardware in Merkel; office furniture was purchased from the Merkel Mail Printing & Office Supply; stoves from Sunray Stove Corp.; refrigerators from Kelvinator Division of American Motors Corp. and heaters for the maintenance building from Starbuck Co. of Merkel.

Jek Whitworth of Fort Worth was architect for the project and Ike Turner of Merkel was local inspector for the architect.

Members of the local housing authority board are Ray Wilson, Johnny Hammond, Dr. W. T. Sadler, and Howard Carson.

J. ED CONNALLY HOSTS LUNCHEON FOR AREA DEMOCRATIC LEADERS

Tickets for the $50 per plate fund raising dinner to be held in Abilene on "Lyndon B. Johnson Day" were distributed to Democratic leaders of the 17th Congressional District when they met for a luncheon at the Windsor Hotel Tuesday, Aug. 16. Hosting the affair was J. Ed Connally, executive chairman of the Democratic party of Texas.

The fund raising dinner will be held Sept. 17 in Rose Field House on the campus of Hardin - Simmons University as the highlight of the day's activities.

In a report to the district leaders Connally said a total of 2,500 invitations have been mailed inviting people to Abilene for the affair. He said the dinners is a crucial part of the "LBJ all the way" campaign.

The state chairman recalled that in 1956 enthusiasm for Stevenson was lacking in this district until the Democratic party held the fund raising dinner. It was after this that the people of the area campaigned diligently enough that the 17th district carried for Stevenson. According to Connally this will be more important than the dinner in 1956. The funds raised, he said, will be spent at the discretion and under the direction of Senator Johnson. I'm sure the funds will be spent in Texas," he added.

Maurice Brooks, Abilene attorney and longtime Democratic party worker, was the first of several leaders who reported on party conditions throughout the area.

Brooks called on the officials to put forth special effort in acquainting the public with the difference between "liberal" and "conservative" views. He cited the fact that many West Texans have received aid for the federal government in soil bank, terrace building, and tank construction that has run into the millions of dollars yearly for this area, and these same people maintain they are conservative, yet when the Democratic party wishes to provide a little medical care for the old folks in their golden years, this is too liberal for them. He summed this up by saying, "People are not concerned about being 'conservative' when they are receiving the funds."

Eldon Mahon, district attorney for the Colorado City district, said that Texas has a tremendous stake in the election in that Lyndon B. Johnson will be the next Vice President of the United States. If we do not carry Texas for Nixon and the Democratic Party it will be a blow for Texas throughout the nation. "For those who express the idea they may vote for Nixon in November Mahon suggested "Ask them what Nixon has ever done for Texas or for that matter, ask them what Nixon will ever do for Texas."

Judge W. R. Ely pointed out that Kennedy will be a quieting influence on Latin America, which "Nixon apparently isn't." He said "We've the greatest ticket we've had since Roosevelt and Garner."

Concerning the religious issue, Randie Jackson, alternate delegate from Baird said, "I don't believe there can be any possible question as to where Mr. Kennedy's loyalty lies or will lie in the future. If some of the objectors could just wake up to the fact that when he was elected Senator he took an oath of office, and when he is elected President he will take another oath of office of the same nature."

A bright spot of the luncheon was injected by Mrs. Bryan Bradbury who said, "There is a 'new frontier' for America with the Democratic party and especially a 'new frontier' for Texas." She also pointed out that this is the first time ticket nominees had ever worked for the party. "This will give us an opportunity to find out who the Democrats really are," she stated.

Attending the meeting were Tom Gordon, Maurice Brooks, John Crutchfield, Jack Hughes, Mrs. Bradbury, C. R. Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith, Grover Nelson, M. H. Varner, Judge Ely, McIlwain, Glen Biggs, Lewis Chase, Wiley Connally, Mrs. W. H. Blackburn, Gus Vletas, James Tittle, Jabe Pratt, Judge Jess Blanton, Harvey Baker, Dalton Moore, Earl Lassiter, Mrs. Max V. Carrier of Rotan, Al Finch of Roby, Eldon Mahon, Colorado City, Mr. and Mrs. Randie Jackson of Baird, Raymond Thomason Jr., Frank Hardesty of Big Spring, Hal Woodard, Pat Holt and Connally.

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I was reading a piece last night in a magazine where this perferer of economics — what ever that is — claims Americans has developed a whole new field of thought in this country. He says we now got Government by the people, of the people, and for the farmer.

I'd like to say a few words on the subject that this perferer left out. Farmers and ranchers has got to gamble their whole way through life, gamble agin their wishes. Day by day and year by year, ever move they make is a gamble. Half the time the bottom has fell out of the market when he gits ready to sell. The boll weevil or the blight may git him or may not. There may be a flood, a drought, dust storms, or a windstorm that ruins his crops. Too much rain can ruin his plantings, disease can git his hogs. A farmer or rancher don't never know the odds, has no control over nothing, even over the price he'll git for his stuff. They is playing agin the elements, insects, disease, and the Wall Street canipulars. I'd say off - hand that all gamblers is pikers alongside the farmer and rancher.

I'll bet this perferer wouldn't know a dirt farmer if he'd meet one in the street and I don't think he's a proper authority to write on the subject. He probably don't know anything about what he eats from meal to meal except that his old lady has to thaw it out afore she cooks it. This feller didn't have a word in his piece about foreign aid, but the papers has carried the figgers showing 4.7 per cent of our present budget goes fer farm aid and 4.3 per cent fer foreign aid. In other words, the taxpayers in this country is spending about as much helping them foreign countries as they is on helping the farmer and rancher here at home.

We've got Congressmen and Senators in Washington holler-ing fer more foreign aid and complainin about price supports fer the farmer and rancher. The two don't make sense. Mister Editor, if they'll cut out that 4.3 per cent fer foreigners I'll vote to cut out the 4.7 per cent fer farmers and ranchers. That's a fair proposition and I aim to write my Senator and Congressman and ask fer their views on the proposition.

And besides, I don't think foreign aid is gitting us any friends no place in the world. The only kind of thanks we're gitting from them foreign countries living on our money is hearing 'em say "nice doggie" until they can find a rock.

Yours truly,
Gabby

The importance of education is vital in this modern age. The Farmers and Merchants National Bank urges parents to give children every educational opportunity possible and pleads with the younger generation to make full use of the opportunities that are theirs. And to teachers, our commendation for the terrific job they are doing in preparing youth today to assume the responsibilities that will be theirs in the future. To all... parents, students, teachers... Rural CD Active 'In the Field'

Residents of rural America's 5,000,000 farms are being urged by civil defense officials to plan now for their safety from nuclear attack as they consider ordinary hazards during Farm Safety Week, July 24-30.

Leo A. Hoegh, director of the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, points out that "the safety of the nation depends upon our farmers being prepared not only to reduce their human and property losses through accidents. They also should take the necessary steps to insure that if an enemy ever attacks us with nuclear, biological, or chemical weapons, our farmers would know how to survive, recover, and produce the food and other products upon which victory would depend."

A broad rural public information program is now underway in 3,000 counties. It stresses the relatively simple methods by which people can develop their own self-protection against the fallout hazard of a nuclear attack—the principal threat to people who live in rural areas.

Family fallout shelters are urged as the least expensive and most effective means of saving the greatest number of people from a nuclear attack. Shelters would be highly effective to protect families against tornadoes. All shelters should be equipped with a two-week supply of food and water, a battery radio, first aid kit, flashlights, bedding and other survival items, according to OCDM.

Family fallout shelters cost as little as $150.00 when constructed on a do-it-yourself basis.

When built by contractors, the cost ranges from $500.00 upwards. Precautionary reinforcement of barns and outbuildings can lessen the hazards of fallout on livestock. The more massive the materials between livestock and fallout, the less radiation will come through to injure or kill the animals. Steel and concrete are good shielding materials from fallout. Earth costs nothing and also is effective for shielding. Even bales of straw or wood, if thick enough, can keep out most radiation. Detailed information on shelters, treatment of fallout-contaminated soils, what fallout-contaminated foods could be eaten and how they should be prepared, and other survival information is now available to rural Americans through public meetings sponsored by county civil defense directors. Printed material also is available from county directors or by writing to the OCDM Rural Activities Office, Battle Creek, Mich.

Shelter for livestock for protection against fallout was improvised in this barn by using bales of straw as a shield against potentially deadly "post-attack" radiation. Heavy concrete walls, with straw shielding, windows, would protect livestock in pens on the barn's lower floor. Barn's upper floor (right) would be covered four bales deep directly above the pens. A shielded room for caretakers, and tractor-powered feed grinder and automatic feeder complete the shelter. OCDM Photo.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By BOYCE HOUSE

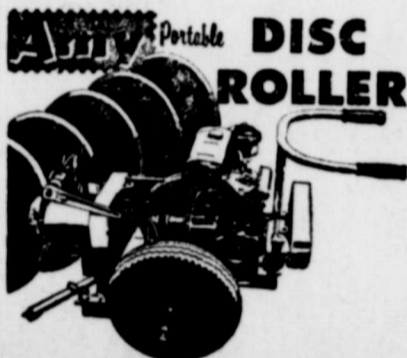

"There is no substitute for experience." It is true that someone can tell us something or we can read it —but that's not the same as actually experiencing the thing ourselves.

Before a map can be a speaker really worth listening to or before he can actually have something to express as a writer, he must have lived.

There are great pipelines that run from the oil fields of Texas to the great seaports of the East, hundreds of miles away; and one of the lines has to be completely full—with I don't know how many hundreds of thousands of barrels worth millions of dollars—before just one single barrel can be delivered at the other end. And so our minds must be filled with observations and happenings, mainly our own, and these must "be aged in the wood"—mellowed by reflection and their significance etched by time—then we may have a story to relate, a message to convey, a truth to tell, that others will want to hear.

Can you remember when feather boas were the fashion—and when every lady carried in her purse a bottle of smelling salts? And a traveling salesman could be identified by the quill toothpick he wore attached to his gold watch-chain?

20 YEARS AGO IN MERKEL

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Helens Fay Reddell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Reddell of Anson, to Carroll W. Benson, former star of the Hardin Simmons University football team, and son of Mrs. W. E. Benson of Abilene, formerly of Hamlin. The couple was married Oct. 7, 1939. After Sept. 2, the couple will be at home in Merkel, where the groom is head football coach and member of the Merkel High School faculty. The bride has been a member of the school faculty of Merkel for the past three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Breaux and son, Earl, spent their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Thompson and family of Abilene, down on Buchanan lake. "The big fish were plentiful," Frank reports, "and in case any one doesn't believe this fish story, there are pictures to prove it. Not only fish, but plenty of wild turkeys and deer, and it surely makes a person want to go back later on."

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Scoggins and daughter, Sylvia, left, Monday to return to Mercedes, where Mr. Scoggins is athletic coach in the high school. They had spent the summer with Mrs. Scoggins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Boaz Jr., while Mr. Scoggins attended summer school at Hardin-Simmons.

Leaving Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wilhite removed to Hermleigh, where Mr. Wilhite has been elected principal of the high school. Merkel regrets to lose these fine people but they carry the best wishes of The Mail and many friends to their new home.

Mrs. B. M. Tipton and daughter, Mrs. Thomas Watson of Abilene, visited the past week in the home of their daughter and sister, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Reeves and children of Irving. They were accompanied upon their return by Karen, Pamela and Terri Reeves, who are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tipton, and Mr. and Mrs. Houston Martin.

Rules On Farm Housing Changed

Under a recent change in the eligibility requirements for Farm Housing loans, a farmer who owns a farm that will annually produce for sale or home use at least $400 worth of commodities may, if he meets other eligibility requirements, be able to obtain a Farm Housing loan.

Previously, according to John D. Wolf, Jr., Farmers Home Administration County Supervisor for Taylor County, an applicant had to own a farm that would produce a substantial amount of the operator's income.

Farm Housing loans are made by the Farmers Home Administration and are used to construct and repair needed farm houses and farm service buildings.

Other eligibility requirements for Farm Housing loans remain unchanged. These requirements are that the applicant lacks the resources needed to obtain credit elsewhere, be a citizen of the United States, and have sufficient income from farm and other sources to pay farm operating and family living expenses and meet payments, when due on his debts.

Applications for this type of credit may be made at the County Office of the Farmers Home Administration located at 325 Pecan Street, Abilene, Texas.

Jacky McAninch who is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon McAninch, will leave Sunday for Galveston where he will enroll in the University of Texas Medical School. He received his M. A. degree at the University of Idaho this summer.

A deal was closed last week through Merkel Realty Company whereby S. F. Haynes purchased the home of Dr. J. T. Pue and to which Mr. Haynes and family will soon move. While we have not the authority to so state, we presume that Dr. Pue and his estimable family will move to Abilene, where Dr. Pue recently opened office.

Just one more week after this before the schools of this city will begin. A number of the teachers are in from attending the various Summer Normals and Universities. And right here we wish to remind some people of the fact that, besides continuous study and hard work, those who keep themselves prepared to properly teach the boys and girls of this state, are at great expense in attending those normals and preparatory schools. And yet some people will sneer at the thought that a school teacher is paid as much for their services as common labor.

Misses Lorena Dry and Anna Smith returned first of the week from California where they attended the Normal School of the University of California.

Messrs. J. M. Provine, R. M. Matthews and J. P. Love recently purchased from Messrs. Bland & Horton, each a new light - four Overland car. Mr. Love and family left in their car immediately for Greenville and other points east.

Mrs. J. M. Garrett and children, Ray and Iris, returned last Thursday from an extended visit to the Eastern states. After spending a week in Birmingham, Ala., with her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Garrett, they visited at Belton, Greenville, Woodruff and many other points in South Carolina.

Nearly 400,000 Texas Families are partners in a noble undertaking that celebrates its silver anniversary this year.

They are the member-owners of the electric cooperatives that serve the rural areas of the Lone Star State. They borrowed money at interest to build their own electric systems. They created a multi-billion dollar market for electric appliances with main street merchants. They brought the blessings of electricity to areas that might still be dark had it not been for the cooperative effort. They accomplished these wonderful things while repaying principal and interest on their loans... often ahead of schedule.

The electric cooperatives of Texas can point with pride to an efficient, dependable, electric service providing Partnership Power For Progress.

Questions and Answers

Q—I see that World War Two veterans have just been given another two years in which to get a GI loan, and that at the same time VA was given new authority to make direct loans. What is the direct loan program?

A—It is a much smaller program than VA's loan guaranty program. Direct loans are made only to veterans who live in certain rural and small town areas where GI loans are not obtainable from local lenders. Eligible veterans apply directly to VA.

Q—Does the VA in Washington, D. C., have a list of all courses approved for veterans under the Korean GI Bill?

A—No. Each regional office maintains a list of State-approved courses for veterans under the Korean GI Bill. To get the information, contact your VA regional office, and not VA headquarters in Washington, D. C.

Q—I am a Korean veteran, discharged in 1956, and have a disability which VA has just rated service-connected. What is my deadline for finishing vocational rehabilitation training under Public Law 894?

A—Your deadline is January 31, 1964, or nine years after separations, whichever comes first. There are exceptions to this deadline for certain veterans, but apparently they do not apply to you.

Q—I understand that special restorative training is available under the War Orphans Education program to handicapped young men and women in need of it. Does this restorative training include medical care?

A—No. Special restorative training does not include medical care. It does include special courses — such as braille reading, language retraining and the like — designed to help a person overcome his handicap so that eventually he can take regular training at school.

A NEAT INVENTION

Mr. Jacob Ebenhardinger, a blacksmith, of New Hannover, township, Mont. County, has recently invented a very neat and convenient four wheeled carriage or wagon, to be propelled by manual labor. The occupant has a seat something like a sulky, and guides the machine with one hand, and propels it with the other, with the aid of treadles under the feet. It can be moved with facility upon all roads, up hill and down, and on the level will accomplish, in the hands of its inventor, a mile in some three or four minutes.

FALLOUT SHELTER built by Louis Severance adjacent to his home near Akron, Mich., includes a special ventilation and escape hatch (right), an entrance to his basement, tiny kitchen, running water, sanitary facilities, and a sleeping and living area (inset) for the family of four. The shelter cost about $1,000. It has a 16-inch reinforced concrete ceiling with thick earth cover, and concrete walls. Severance says, "Ever since I was convinced what damage H-bombs can do, I've wanted to build the shelter. Just as with my chicken farm when there's a need I build it." (OCMD Photo)

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

The apostle of the GOP, American for Constitutional Action, blasts the GOP platform for subscribing that "big, powerful, centralized government can be paternalistic, coercive and moral—all at the same time."

Then, the GOP nominee urges Congress to strengthen civil rights, enact medical care for the aged and increase foreign aid!

Meanwhile the Texas GOP, by this season usually campaigning "I vote for the man," are inferentially silent.

Without platform or man to embrace, Texas' GOP acts frustrated.

We Democrats offer a Texan candidate. The GOP never has.

So cheer up, you Texas GOP. Join "The Texan's Ticket" — Jack Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson. If you can't vote Wall Street this time, you can at least vote Texas.

Yours truly,
Wm. Hunter McLean

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN, Tex.—Over 50,000 persons are drawing approximately one million dollars a week in unemployment compensation in Texas.

Investigations have disclosed fraudulent claims. Charges already have been filed in several Texas cities, and investigation is underway statewide.

"In view of the recent frauds disclosed by investigations in unemployment compensation claims," says Maurice Acers, Commissioner, "it is imperative that an already broad system of fraud detection and prevention be expanded and accelerated."

There are a number of ways TEC can catch the cheaters. And TEC is out after them now. One method is by "cross-matching." This involves checking a person's unemployment claims against his earnings.

Sometimes this isn't necessary. Some people who are drawing unemployment compensation and secretly working, will betray themselves by their nervousness when they report to the local TEC office.

In one instance a truck driver applied for unemployment compensation, then got another job. When he made his weekly trip to report to the employment office, he drove up in the truck of the company employing him and double-parked in front of the TEC office.

A TEC employe asked the man why he was driving this company's truck. "Because I'm working for the company," the driver said.

This man soon found himself in court.

There are some, says a veteran TEC employe, who take the attitude: "I've earned it. Now I want to collect it." In other words after they have worked long enough and earned enough to qualify for unemployment compensation, they feel they're entitled to quit work and collect it. That is not the way the program is set up under the law.

Here, briefly, are some of the requirements:

1. You must have built up a certain amount of work credits during the 15 months preceding application, with an employer who hires four or more persons.
2. You must have lost your job through no fault of your own.
3. You must make application with TEC for another job.
4. You must visit your local TEC office once a week to report your availability to report for work, or if you have done any work, report your earnings.

VACCINATIONS URGED — Texas is one of the safer states as far as paralytic polio is concerned, but it's seventh in the nation in number of whooping cough cases ninth in diphtheria and scarlet fever.

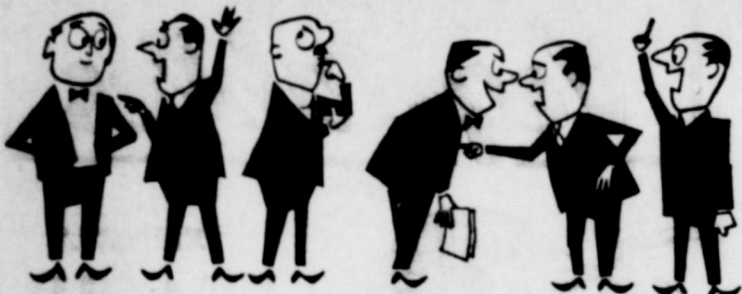

All these rates could be cut, said a State Health Department spokesman, if there were fewer people who can't be bothered with getting protective shots.

Late August and September are the usual season for polio epidemics, the Department warned.

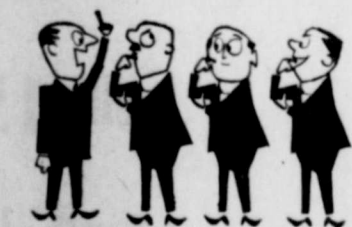

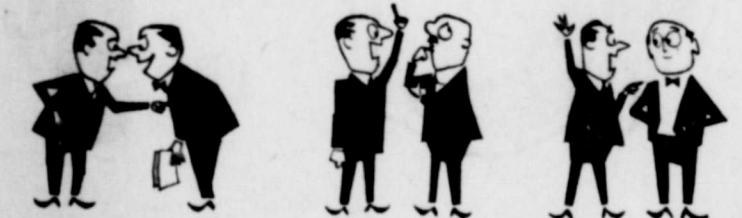

GOOD PASTURAGE — Texas range conditions showed a bigger mid-summer improvement this year than in any summer for 37 years, reports the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture.

Range conditions usually grow less favorable from July to August in Texas, but this year they got substantially better.

Though some areas of the state were reported very dry, 85 per cent was rated 12 points above the 10-year average.
