Funeral services for Glenn W. Thompson of Morton were pending at presstime with Ellis Funeral Home at Morton. He died at his home at 6:20 p.m. on Friday.

At presstime, services for Robert L. (George) Mayo, 71, of Muleshoe, were pending with Ellis Funeral Home. He died at 8 a.m. Saturday, October 26, at West Plains Medical Center.

The monthly meeting of the Muleshoe Fine Arts Boosters will be on Monday, October 28, at 7 p.m. in the high school band hall.

ALL PARENTS who have children in junior high or high school band, art, or drama, are invited to the meeting.

Plans are being made for activities throughout the 1985-86 school year.

It's official, the time for 'Trick or Treating' this year is on Halloween night, Thursday, October 31. So says Toni Eagle, manager of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture.

Mrs. Eagle said the hours set aside for Trick or Treating in Muleshoe are 6:30 p.m.-8:30 p.m., and urges the children to go only to houses that are well-lighted.

Residents who will have 'treats' for the youngsters are asked to leave their porch lights on until after the Trick or Treat hours are concluded.

Jack Reamy, administrator of West Plains Medical Center, has asked The Journal to explain that although the hospital decided not to negotiate with Blue Cross for a new contract, the only group affected will be Blue Cross of Texas.

Out-of-state Blue Cross insurance will still be accepted at WPMC said the administrator.

Parmer County ASCS plans an Open House for Friday, November 1, 2-5 p.m. at their new offices at 3rd and B in Farwell.

ASCS officials invite everyone in the area to drop by and see their new offices during the open house.

Doug Rains, from the Salvation Army district office in Lubbock, was at The Journal Thursday afternoon and said the current fund drive underway is really lagging at this point.

"A lot more money is needed to fund the program for the next year," said Rains, "and we would like to especially invite the business community to make their tax deductible contribution as soon as possible."

Contributions may be made in Muleshoe to Bailey County Judge Gordon H. Green at the courthouse or Troy Stegemoller at Muleshoe State Bank.

Rick Copp, vo-ag teacher at Lazbuddie High School, said the annual FFA fruit sale got underway Friday, and orders are being taken at this time. Fruit will be delivered between December 1-December 18.

Oranges are $9 for a 20-22 pound box or $14 for a 42-45 pound box; grapefruit is $9 for a 19-20 pound box or $14 for a 38-40 pound box.

Apples are $10.50 for a 13-14 pound box and a combination box of 12 each oranges, grapefruit and apples is $14.

Orders may be made with any Lazbuddie FFA member, Rick Copp, or by calling Lazbuddie High School.

A special meeting of the board of trustees of the Muleshoe Independent School District is scheduled for 7 p.m. on Monday, October 28, in the school administration office.

Under business items, board members will consider accepting bid proposal for Emery Management System for the high school building; consider appointing directors to the Bailey County Appraisal District's Board of Directors for the next two years and personnel considerations.

In the Board Evaluation and Goal Setting Session, board members will hear the president.

DREAMING--Brooke Livingston, three-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Livingston, is dreaming about the extra hour of sleep coming her way today with the 2 a.m. time change for the next six months. For convenience, turn your clocks back one hour before retiring Saturday night, and you, too, can enjoy an extra hour of sleep this morning.

Circus And Race Scheduled Today

Today, Sunday, could be a big, big day in Muleshoe, with local personalities scheduled to rumble around in an elephant race preceding the first local performance of Ford Bros. Circus.

Raider's Rooters are still clinging to a very 'slim' hope that their favorite will show up at the Boy Scout Grounds for the race, scheduled for 1 p.m.

Mike Raider, popular afternoon KMUL-DJ, has never indicated in any manner whether or not he plans to ride in the race, but one of his fans commented, "I know Mike is really not a coward. He's not afraid to race a woman, at least I don't think he is." However, he 'HAS' been saying the last few days he doesn't feel very well with a stomach ailment!

In the meantime, Bonham's Boosters are really 'up' for the

Longhorns Lead Stats Lose Game

"If they had played the second half, like they played the first half, the score would have been different," said the head football coach for the Lazbuddie Longhorns, following the Lazbuddie - Nazareth football game Friday night.

Lazbuddie led the Swifts in almost every statistic, except for the final score, 37-14.

The Longhorns were trailing 28-0 at the halftime, after the Swifts scored 14 points in each of the first two quarters of the game.

Steffens scored on a one yard run in the first quarter and Mike Huseman scored on a three yard plunge. He also ran in two extra points.

In the second, Frankie Huseman had a one yard plunge to paydirt and Billy Steffens slammed over from the three. Steffens made the extra points for both the Tds.

In the third, Steffens intercepted a pass and ran it back 60 yards for a TD and then added an extra point. Ending the third quarter scoring was a safety on Lazbuddie.

In the third, Paul Gonzales returned a kickoff 91 yards to paydirt, and then received a two point pass from Tim Lust.

In the fourth quarter, after holding Nazareth scoreless in that period, Paul Gonzales received a 15 yard pass from Tim Lust, and the extra point attempt failed.

Nazareth had 307 rushing yards and 33 passing yards for 340 to 39 rushing yards and 360 passing yards for 399 for the Lazbuddie Longhorns.

Nazareth accumulated 19 first downs to 24 for Lazbuddie; Nazareth had 6 punts for an average of 50 yards to five for the Longhorns for an average of 45 yards; Nazareth had five punts for a 42 yard average and Lazbuddie had three punts for an average of 35 yards.

Tim Lust had 28 completions of his 44 attempts for 360 yards, one touchdown and three interceptions while Nazareth com-

Lions Fete Lionesses At Banquet

It was 'Ladies Night Out' for the Muleshoe Lions Club Lionesses Thursday, when the Lions hosted a banquet for them at the Bailey County Civic Center.

Under the direction of Lion Boss Chuck Smith, the wives and guests of the Muleshoe Lions Club had a meal of turkey and dressing, with all the trimmings, as prepared by Jackie Denham and her crew.

Lion Mike Caldwell started off the evening with an invocation, and Darrell Turner led the singing of several songs, including 'Jingle Bells,' while Lion Sweetheart Chantel Robinson played the piano.

Pledge to the flag was led by L.T. Johnson and Gordon Wilson introduced special guests and gave the welcome.

Lion Duane Lloyd introduced the program for the evening, Ron Linebarger and Harry, from Circle Back. Harry is a very impudent dummy, and through ventriloquist Linebarger, provided many laughs throughout the program. Rev. Linebarger, who is pastor of Circle Back Baptist Church, ended the evening on a more serious note, as he expressed appreciation to the Lions Club for their many community works, and civic projects.

Chuck Smith reminded the Lions Club of the District 2-T-2 Cabinet meeting scheduled for 8 a.m. Sunday, at the Sudan School auditorium. He asked Lions planning to attend to be at the Muleshoe State Bank parking lot at 7:30 a.m. to try to go to Sudan as a group.

Lion Boss Smith also introduced two new members of the Muleshoe Lions Club, Jim Ates and Danny May.

He expressed appreciation to Duane and Loretta Lloyd for the decorations for the banquet, and the meal prepared by Jackie Denham and her crew.

Safetypup Presented Muleshoe City Police

Joining the ranks of the local police department this will be Safetypup, the friendly superhero, animated character of the National Child Safety Council.

Accompanying Safetypup are safety song cassettes geared to each grade level that cover a wide range of safety topics. Among them: How to say 'no' to dangerous people, safety tips for latchkey children, and learning their telephone number and calling long distance.

Safetypup is a gift from the National Child Safety Council to the Muleshoe Police Department.

Coordinating the program in this city is Lt. Wayne Holmes, with the help of Betty Boren, safety coordinator for the National Child Safety Council (NCSC), from Lubbock.

Safetypup has been appearing on the sides of one-half pint milk cartons across the country with safety messages designed to educate children about the ways which they can help prevent a tragedy happening to them. Some of his safety messages are: Never go with dangerous people, always use the buddy system, go straight home from school, never take shortcuts on the way home, learn and memorize your full address, and know how to use the telephone the right way. These messages are appearing as part of the National Milk Carton Program which the National Child Safety Council initiated. The superhero is designed to be a positive role model that children can trust and look up to. The NCSC said they hope that Safetypup will

As the cotton harvest gears up on the South Plains, much of the harvested crop will be stored in modules before ginning. This means that producers must pay careful attention to the moisture content of the cotton, warns a cotton agronomist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Research has shown that "dry" cotton, having only 8 to 12 percent moisture, can be stored in modules for prolonged periods without deterioration of lint and seed quality, said Dr. James R. Supak, the Extension cotton specialist.

But research also has shown that modulating "wet" cotton, with greater than 12 percent moisture, is detrimental to lint and especially to seed quality, he warned.

This means that a good plant kill is essential, the agronomist said. All plant components--lint, seed, burs, and stems--going into the module must be dry. In a once-over harvest area such as the Texas High Plains, a killing frost or desiccants (Paraquat and arsenic acid) are usually used to rapidly kill and dry plant tissues of the cotton.

"Normally, it takes seven to 10 days after a good job of chemical desiccation, or after a killing frost, for the plant components to dry," Supak said. Harvesting too soon results in accumulations of green (high moisture) trash that can contribute to excessive heat buildup in modules. Therefore, if cotton is to be modulated, wait until the leaves and stems are dry and crisp, Supak advised.

When placing cotton into a module, be sure that the moisture from dew, rain or snow has dried, he urged. One way to avoid problems with morning dews, he suggested it is to make the first two or three drums into a trailer and then begin forming the module.

"A good way to check if the cotton is dry enough to store is to squeeze a handful," Supak said. "If the cotton sticks together in a ball, it's too wet."

Temperatures within modules should be monitored with the long stem thermometer designed specifically for this purpose, the Extension specialist said. Daily reading should be obtained and recorded for each module until it becomes apparent that temperatures have stabilized.

"Keep those temperature records," Supak urged. "They may prove useful later in helping you and your delinter decide whether to save for planting purposes seed from a given module, or to send it to the oil mill."

Normally, the temperatures within a module rise 15 to 20 degrees Fahrenheit during the first three to five days as moisture within the module reaches a balance. Thereafter, if a module stays dry, temperatures will tend to remain fairly stable, fluctuating slightly with changes in air temperature.

Usually, Supak said, a troublesome module will show a rapid temperature rise--often as much as 30 to 50 degrees Fahrenheit--within the first few days. Thereafter, the temperatures usually remain fairly high for several days before the module begins to cool.

The cut-off temperature for sending a module to the gin as quickly as possible is around 110 to 120 degrees Fahrenheit,

Mules Lose To Hornets By 55-0

Fumbles, blocked punts and interceptions proved to be very costly for the Muleshoe Mules Friday night, as Tulia capitalized on Mule mistakes and won the contest in Muleshoe by a score of 55-0.

By the time the game was at the halfway point, Tulia Hornets had managed to gain 35 of their 55 points, and most of the points were made on Mule mistakes.

Although Tulia fumbled four times, the Mules were unable to punch through and add any points.

Mule quarterback Mike Holt connected on six of his pass attempts for 79 yards, which is one of his better nights for the year.

Penalties hurt both teams throughout the game.

Steve Powell made TDs for the Hornets on a 34 yard scramble, a 20 yard twisting run, and a one yard plunge into the end zone.

Todd Barbour and Lance Grantham each latched onto passes from Tulia Quarterback Todd Lacey for TDs of 36 yards and six yards. Tulia's Merwyn Parker returned an interception 65 yards to paydirt and Kevin Harris scored on a two yard plunge into the end zone.

TULIA HORNETS HAVE POWER RUNNER--Steve Powell, carrying the ball for the Tulia Hornets, made four TDs against the Muleshoe Mules Friday night, as the Hornets rambled over the Mules 55-0 on the Mules home field. The Mules will wind up the 1985 football season next Friday night, when they go to Littlefield to take on The Littlefield Wildcats.

She said the departments of art, conservation, education, home life, international affairs and public affairs allow for unity of purpose with the clubs of many back grounds, policies and varied interest to meet a common goal.

She reported that Federated Women have donated eight and half million hours of volunteer service and forty nine million dollars was donated to various programs in 1984.85. She stated that the emphases for 1985-86 are education, help our fellowman and remember our heritage.

Two programs sponsored by the Caprock District and the Muleshoe Study Club are the M.D. Anderson Cancer Clinic and Girlstown U.S.A. at Whiteface. Special emphases are on child abuse, missing children and crime prevention.

Sudan Fire Department Elects New Officers

New officers for the upcoming year were elected during a recent Sudan Volunteer Firemen's meeting. They are as follows: president, Rick Hill; vice president, Damon Provence; secretary/treasurer, Carl Burnett; public information, Haldon Messamore; sgt. at arms, Troy Moss; chief, Orville Hill; first assistant chief, Theron Hill; second assistant chief, Rick Hill; third assistant chief, Bud Provence; fire marshal, Carl Burnett; and assistant fire marshal, Bob Summer.

Theron Hill, Haldon Messamore, Greg Lance and Troy Moss are on the food committee and meat committee members are Orville Hill, Carl Burnett and Bob Carson. Training committee includes Rick Hill, Mike Hill and Damon Provence.

On September 28 the annual Bar-B-Que dinner and dance for the firemen and their wives were held with approximately 75 in attendance. Rick Hill was named Fireman of the Year.

October 7-11 was fire prevention week in the Sudan schools. The Fire Department held a poster contest and also took the two first grade classes through the department, trucks and showed them the equipment. The students rode back to class in the fire trucks.

Evelyn Ritchie reported to the Journal that the volunteer fire department members keep very busy and involved in many things. With making fire calls, ambulance runs, attending training schools and the weekly meetings and yes, even the fun of a bar-b-que dinner and dance.

On Aug. 17, Rick Hill, Sam Merryman, Mike Hill and Haldon Messamore went to Floydada to attend a Farm Rescue School. Merryman attended a class on ag machine extrication. Rick, Mike and Haldon attended a class on repelling as used in the rescue of victims involved in accidents at grain elevators, grain silos or tall structures like Tolk Station or Plant X.

Sudan Livestock and Feeding has donated money for the purchase of the repelling equipment to outfit the Sudan Fire Department and upon receiving the equipment the department has been practicing at various sites in Sudan.

On Sept. 12, a fire school was offered in Canyon when Rick Hill and Sam DeLaRiva attended the Fire Ground Tactics and Brian Burns and Haldon Messamore took the Fire Fighting course. These schools are offered to update and refresh the volunteer firemen on strategies to employ when fighting various types of fires.

Other winners include: Heath Eagle, second; and Kourtnee Magby and Jason Barrett tied for third place. These posters may be seen at Thriftway, City Hall, Gulf Station and Perry's.

Creative Living

with Sheryl Borden

Creative microwave techniques and tips in getting clothes clean will be presented on "Creative Living" on October 29 and November 2. Cathy McCreery, home economist with Reynolds Metals Co. from Dallas, Texas, will show how Reynolds plastic wrap can be used for some very creative microwave cooking. It makes food preparation easy and convenient and clean-up is also much easier. Reynolds plastic wrap makes an excellent cover when micro-cooking with oven-glass bowls, baking dishes, measuring cups and batter bowls. It can even be used to convert dinnerware into micro-cookware. Since it has a "heavy duty" gauge and a high melting point, Reynolds plastic wrap is ideal for use in the microwave oven.

Another guest will be Susan Wright, Extension Clothing Specialist with the Cooperative Extension Service, NMSU, Las Cruces. Her topic will be getting clothes clean. She will explain how the process of using correct laundry methods and correct laundry products will produce cleaner clothes.

On October 31, information on buying ready-to-wear, food recipes for junior chefs and a recipe for quick fruit salad will be presented. Mary Ellen Payne, Family / Community / Leadership State Coordinator will go over some rules for smart purchasing of clothing and explain how to get the best buy for our clothing dollar.

Another guest will be Audrey Waldorf who is with the Roman Meal Co. from Tacoma, Washington. Her recipes and information will be especially interesting to the junior chefs in the audience, but everyone will enjoy her presentation.

The first guest will be Connie Moyers, Marketing Home Economist with Southwestern Public Service Co. in Clovis. Her recipe for a quick fruit salad is easy to prepare, only requires a few basic ingredients

The Cost Of Convenience

You may be paying as much per pound for the convenience of individually packaged treats like fruit leather rolls for your child's lunch box, as you would for a pound of lobster.

With consumers willing to spend more money for convenience, "added-value" food products are now the biggest trend in the food industry, says family economics expert Nancy L. Granovsky.

"Adding value means taking a basic food product and making it more attractive and more profitable by making the product more convenient," says Granovsky, a specialist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service.

Frozen entrees, grocery store salad bars and frozen orange juice concentrate, pre-mixed and then sold in cartons in the dairy case, are just a few examples of added-value products, she explains.

"Many consumers don't realize what they're paying for the convenience of less food preparation time, because per pound comparisons of costs are difficult to make," the specialist points out.

For example, if you buy a whole fryer chicken on sale, you could pay around 49 cents a pound. But when that chicken goes into a frozen dinner or entree, Granovsky says the price goes up into the range of $2.50-5.00 per pound.

"You may not mind the higher prices of added-value food, if you place a high premium on your time," Granovsky says. "But if you need to cut back on expenses, or you'd rather spend some of your money on things other than food, you might start by considering the cost of convenience."

Private Ceremony

October 2 Unites

Roberts, Harmon

Ben Harmon and Cheryl Heinrich Roberts were united in marriage Wednesday, Oct. 2 in a private ceremony at Odessa. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harmon of Muleshoe and Mr. and Mrs. C.O. Heinrich of Slaton.

The four remaining charter members of the lodge were all present. These members are Ruby Green, Fern Davis, Velma Howell and Fern Davis.

The tables and Lodge Hall were decorated in red and white. Roast beef, gravy, cream potatoes, cole slaw, green beans and apricot and cherry cobblers were served.

It was reported that after the meal the past officers of the lodge were acknowledged and thanked for their work in the lodge, also all officers serving for the present time and all members past and present that have contributed to making this lodge the success it is.

Ruby Green, the present Noble Grand, presented the lodge with a mounted wall case to hold regalia and jewels of deceased members or any member having articles they wish displayed. "The case was already partially filled with many beautiful things. This is a welcomed addition to our lodge hall," said Adelle Tompkins.

"A beautifully decorated birthday cake was presented to the lodge by Clinton and Juanita Busby and was enjoyed by all."

Guests were present from San Jon and Clovis, N.M., Friona and friends from Muleshoe.

Virginia Bowers led the group in singing two parodies which she composed.

The meeting closed with the singing of the Delta Kappa Gamma song.

Those attending from Muleshoe were: Marquita Adamson, Carrie Lee Bishop, Virginia Bowers, Mary B. Obenhaus, Lola Pylant, Jane Rudd and Elizabeth Watson.

AVOID EXCESSIVE ZINC--"If you think you have a zinc deficiency, it's important to consult with a doctor before taking supplements because too much zinc will interfere with other vital body functions," says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist. The ingestion of large amounts of zinc in some forms can cause vomiting and gastrointestinal irritation, says Dr. Alice Hunt. Taking excessive amounts of zinc may also interfere with other essential minerals in the diet, such as copper. The Recommended Dietary Allowance for adults is 15 milligrams of zinc per day, with an additional five milligrams during pregnancy and an extra 10 milligrams during lactation, says the nutritionist.

In Brotherton Home

Sudan FCA, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, held a meeting in the home of Cindy Brotherton on Wednesday, Oct. 16.

Those present for the meeting included: Anthony Williams, Darlene Henley, Star Tennyson, Gina McKillip, Jeff Taylor, JoAnn Wooley, Donald Williams, Jayson Vincent, Adam Torres, Kim Brotherton, Melanie Peck, Stephanie Bickett, Brent Kirkland, Gordon Martin and Cindy Brotherton.

Also Brad Smith, Shannon Peck, Ricky Tennyson, Donice Holley, Kathy Powell, Bill Gardner, Dawn Gaston, Melissa Nix, John Taylor, Michael Bartley, Michael Gunn, Misty Bartley, Lee Bartley, Brenda Tasterman, Danette Provence, Laurie Ann Damron and Coach Quisenberry. November

Dance Workshop Planned

A dance workshop will be held at Muleshoe School of Dance on Sunday, Nov. 10 from 2 until 4 p.m.

Tracey Lacewell, of Briercraft Academy of Dance and Gymnastics will be the clinician. It was reported that she has been involved in the sport of gymnastics, as a gymnast and coach for many years. As a member of the "Lubbock Dancers" she is no stranger to the audiences of Lubbock.

She is on the staff at Briercraft Academy and has been on staff the past two summers at West Texas Gymnastic Camp in Canyon, Texas.

PREVENT HOME BURGLARY--Simply adding locks to your doors and windows may do more for your security -- and your pocketbooks -- than an elaborate burglary alarm system. "Before buying expensive gadgets and alarms, secure the critical points of entry into your home," advises Dr. Peggy Owens, a housing specialist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service. "With a relatively small investment, you can make the job of getting inside so tough, time-consuming and risky that most would-be intruders won't consider it worth the effort," she says. Better quality locks may cost a little more, but will provide tighter security. Whatever you pay for added locks, it's a small price when compared to the cost of the televisions, silver, video-records, computers and other consumer goods burglars are likely to take, Owens points out.

HALLOWEEN POSTER WINNERS--In the fifth grade division of the Halloween poster contest Eric McElroy and April Hugg tied for first place. Other winners were Stephanie Francis, second; and Cari Turner, third. Sponsor for this contest was the PTA. These posters may be seen at Barber Shop, Wilson's Kountry Kitchen and Western Drug.

Jewel Peeler, weight recorder, called the roll with six members present. Evelene Harris, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting and they were approved as read. A treasurers report was given by Ruth Clements, treasurer.

Ernestine Steinbock was named best loser for the week and runners up were Clara Lou Jones and Jewel Peeler, tied for first.

Workshop Set For Landowners On Waterfowl

Is it possible to charge a pheasant hunter from $1,500 to $3,000 to lease one section of land with a 30 acre playa lake on it and a 40 acre corn or sorghum patch adjacent to recent research done by the Department of Range and Wildlife Management at Texas Tech University, it is possible for farmers living in prime pheasant range to demand these prices.

For several years now, Chamber of Commerce offices representing various communities on the Southern High Plains of Texas have been receiving inquiries from many large companies, corporations, and private individuals interested in leasing farmland for pheasant and waterfowl hunting.

Parmer County Is Planning Cattle Seminar

All interested persons in the area are encouraged to attend a meeting concerning the profitable management of stocker cattle on Tuesday, October 29, at 7 p.m. in the Springlake-Earth School cafeteria. A special invitation is extended livestock producers and related agribusinesses.

Dr. John McNeill, Extension Beef Cattle Specialist from Amarillo, will be on hand to discuss the many variables which influence the profitability of a grazing operation. Among those variables that will be discussed in depth are: Purchase price, animal health, death loss, interest rate, pasture cost, average daily gain, sale shrink and sale price.

Following his presentation and a question/answer session, Dr. McNeill will demonstrate just how much influence each of these variables can have on the net profit or loss of a grazing operation through a stocker cattle budget analysis.

The stocker cattle budget analysis will be run on computers provided by Earth Ag Supply and the Lamb County Extension office. Melvin Chisum of Citizens State Bank of Earth and Lamb County Extension Agent Jett Major will be on hand to assist Dr. McNeill in running the stocker cattle budget analysis for each producer interested in finding out how his management practices and the predicted variables specific to his operation can be altered to increase projected profits from stocker cattle this winter.

There is no charge to attend the meeting, which is being sponsored by the Lamb County Program Building Committee in cooperation with Citizens State Bank of Earth and the Lamb County Extension Service.

the Extension specialist said. "Seed from modules that reach these temperatures are likely to be damaged and shouldn't be saved as planting seed without careful inspection and testing," he cautioned.

Once a "hot module" situation begins to develop, a close working relationship with the ginner and neighbors becomes very important, he noted.

"Most gins can handle, and neighbors tolerate, an occasional hot module without too many problems. But if the problem becomes widespread, the gin's capacity to handle these modules can be exceeded, and the patience of more conscientious neighbors worn thin."

Food, rest, mental peace and exercise are four golden keys to old age. Why not take advantage of this suggestion?

Democrats Hold Meet, Discussion

On October 22, the Bailey County Democratic Executive Committee met to discuss the general state of the Democratic Party, and preliminary plans were made for the upcoming Primary for May, 1986.

Under guidance of Party Chairman Chuck Smith, topics discussed included the rebound the Democratic Party is making, problems of the past and changes in the election laws.

In 1986, the first primary will be on May 3; the county convention on May 17 and the second primary is scheduled for June 7.

Persons wishing to file for office may file from January 4 through February 3. Persons interested in filing for an office in Bailey County, may pick up an application and pay their filing fee every Monday beginning January 6 between the hours of 5-5:30 p.m. at the Bailey County Clerk's office.

On the last day, February 3, applications will be accepted until 6 p.m. when the deadline is reached. The County Chairman and County Clerk will be in the clerk's office to process the applications.

The law requires that the campaign treasurer be designated first. This is accomplished by filing the appropriate form with the county clerk. Then he, or she, may file the application and pay the filing fee to the county chairman. This one-stop arrangement is expected to be much more convenient for the candidate, explained the county chairman. For most local offices, the filing fee has doubled as a result of laws passed by the last legislature. Information concerning specific amounts of filing fees may be obtained by contacting the county clerk or county chairman.

Several other procedural laws were changed and/or added by the legislature. Another law change discussed was the requirement that election school be held for election judges.

Texas A&M researcher says colds increase at start of fall semester

COLLEGE STATION — There's no real difference between a summer cold and a winter cold, but coming back to college at the end of summer increases your risks of catching a cold or other respiratory ailment, says a medical researcher.

Students returning to college campuses in September swap viruses they pick up as summer draws to an end, said Dr. John Quarles, coordinator of one of the nation's largest continuous studies of viral respiratory diseases at Texas A&M University.

The number of students reporting to the Texas A&M health clinic increases dramatically the first two weeks of fall classes, Quarles said, and it's probably a phenomenon repeated nationwide.

"We don't know what would be any different elsewhere," he explained. "The average North American catches five or six colds a year. Anytime you bring a large and diverse number of people together quickly, they will simply swap all sorts of viruses."

Last academic year, for example, the number of Texas A&M students reporting to the campus clinic with cold-like symptoms increased about 10-fold — from a summer average of 50 clinic visits a week to 500 a week when school began. Allergies were not counted.

Social Security News & Views

If you plan to retire at the end of the year, you should know that there are some things you should be doing right now in preparation for that event.
 In the first place, Social Security recommends that you should actually apply for retirement benefits 2 or 3 months before you plan to stop work so that your benefits can start when your earnings from work stop. This gives you plenty of time to process the claim and take care of any problem that may arise.
 Being prepared for the retirement interview with the required proofs can make a difference in how long that entire process will be.
 Among the documents a person applying for Social Security retirement benefits will need are the following:
 * Your Social Security card or a record of the number.
 * Proof of your date of birth.. an original official record of birth recorded before age 5 is best.
 If these are not available, the Social Security office can help determine the best evidence available.
 * Your W-2 forms for the last 2 years, or, if you are self-employed, copies of your self-employment tax returns for the last 2 years.
 * Marriage certificate if your spouse is applying for benefits, plus the same documents as above for the spouse.
 * Birth certificates and Social Security numbers of any children applying for benefits on your Social Security record.
 Even if you do not have all the proofs needed, it's best to come into the office and apply in a timely fashion. Social Security representatives can help you secure and evidence needed to complete your application for retirement benefits.
 You may file your claim by telephone by calling the Lubbock office at 806-743-7385. If you just need general information, you may call 743-7381. The Lubbock District office is located at 1611-10th. Street, Suite 100.

Jack Reeves, right, produced the cotton from Sunbelt 992 seed that was planted on irrigated land during the first week of May. The 535 pound bale was ginned on Tuesday, October 23. Shown at the left is gin manager, Marvin McCaul.

FIRE DEPARTMENT GETS CHECK--J.O. Parker, left, accepted a check in reimbursement for a fire department school attended at Texas A&M University during the summer. Making the presentation of the check, along with a certificate of completion for the school is Sam Harlan, president of the Bailey County Farm Bureau.

CHUCKWAGON ROLLED SUNDAY--Weldon Eagle, and guests, rode all over town Sunday afternoon, with the two small donkeys pulling a chuckwagon. The chuckwagon was a part of a mule train commemorating the 200th anniversary of the American mule.

SAFETYPUP GIVEN POLICE DEPARTMENT--Muleshoe City Police Lt. Wayne Holmes, left, and Betty Boren of the National Child Safety Council, are pictured with Safetypup, who was presented to the MPD Wednesday morning. Safetypup will be used to give child safety programs in the local elementary schools.

JUDGES ATTEND SEMINAR--Ninety-five justices of the peace from Region 10 attended a 20-hour seminar last month in Amarillo, conducted by the Texas Justice Court Training Center headquartered at Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos. Attending were from left, Todd W. Ellis, Bailey County Precinct Four; Jack Bates, Bailey County, Precinct One; Lowell Billbrey, Floyd County Precinct One and Glenn Stone, Hale County, Precinct One.

VARIOUS WAGONS IN SUNDAY TRAIN--In the background, the surrey with the fringe on top and in the foreground is a two-seated wagon. Both were a part of a mule train that traveled city streets and highways Sunday afternoon commemorating the 200th anniversary of the American mule. Lots of folks did double takes during the afternoon as they drove by the mule train.
