

W. F. Kellis, Editor and Proprietor.

Created Nov. 10, 1902, at the Sterling City postoffice as second-class matter.

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY AT STERLING CITY, TEXAS.

Subscribers failing to get their paper on time, will confer a favor by reporting same to us.

One of these days, Sterling will wake the world with her mineral resources.

A few hogs and chickens, backed up by a Jersey cow, on the ranch, will prove a dangerous competitor for the meat trust.

We have free hides, and yet hides bring a better price today than ever before. Don't throw fits when you happen to hear some fellow say free meat.

There will be peaches and plums next summer, notwithstanding the fact that the entire fruit crop was destroyed by the late frost—mark the prediction.

Those fellows who saw the ruin of the sheep and cattle industry, last summer, because the peerless Woodrow was about to walk around on Teddy and Taft, are strangely silent now.

The Santa Fe consolidation bill has passed the House and Senate, and will become a law without the Governor's signature. This is good news for Sterling for, instead of having two lines to deal with, as we are now doing, we will deal with only one. A ticket can be sold in Sterling that will be good on any part of the system, and we won't have to contend with a two-line freight rate. Not only this, but in time this will be the main trunk line reaching from the Gulf to the Pacific.

A CHALLENGE

Every man has a legal right to trade where and with whom he pleases; but when a man is down and out, and in need of credit, he never goes to Chicago to get it; therefore, it is in line with square dealing to trade with home people, provided you can do as well.

A certain Chicago firm has its agents traveling over the country taking orders for groceries, and claiming to under sell the home merchant. I have nothing to say against these people, but I do have this to say: I will duplicate the prices on any and all goods, of whatsoever quality and kind they may offer to sell provided you pay me cash for the goods and allow me 30 days, as you do them, to get such goods as I may not happen to have in stock. This offer is made to everyone. Bring in your bills, with the prices which these Chicago people have made to you, and see if I don't duplicate them in every item. Give me a chance, and I will show you that you don't have to go to Chicago for cheap and good groceries.

Married

D. L. Reese and Miss Drushta Tweedle stole a march on their many friends last Sunday night and were quietly married at the residence of D. C. Durham, Judge Brown officiating.

The contracting parties left immediately for Coleman, where they will make their home.

This happy couple is well and favorably known here, where they have a host of admiring friends who join us in wishing them a full measure of marital bliss.

Died

Mrs. W. L. Lowe died Monday night at her home on Kiowa, in the south part of the county, after an illness of several weeks' duration. Her remains were taken to Colorado for interment.

WHEN you are in town, and want good things to eat, and good, clean beds, remember that the CENTRAL HOTEL is the place.

SIDNEY SMITH, Prop.

STOCK SHOW IS A GREAT SUCCESS

The Expectations of The Most Hopeful Were Surpassed

The Sterling County Livestock Exhibit, held here last Tuesday, was a success far beyond the expectations of the most optimistic, and was no doubt the most interesting day Sterling ever had.

By noon, the streets were crowded with spectators, anxiously awaiting the coming of the parade. At 2 o'clock, the long procession of livestock, headed by little Miss Kathleen Douglas on her pretty pinto pony, and the Cornet Band, passed down Fourth Avenue and around the square, coming to a stand on the North side, where the judges awarded the ribbons and premiums. During this time the band rendered a number of selections.

The prizes were awarded as follows:

Best draft stallion: Copeland Bros.—buggy whip by Cotten & Davis. 2nd Oscar Radiff—$1.00 barbering by I. N. Allard.

Best all purpose stallion: 1st, H. Bade—horse shod, by J. B. Cole. 2nd, C. M. Rawls—$1.00 stock medicine, by C. L. Coulson.

Best driving stallion: 1st, J. T. Davis—stock food, by Butler Drug Co. 2nd, A. C. Carper—buggy whip by A. A. Rutherford.

Best draft mare: O. Longshore—3 meals, by Doran Hotel.

Best saddle horse: 1st, J. T. Davis—sack of flour, by H. Q. Lyles. 2nd G. G. Ainsworth—cleaning 1 suit, by G. C. Potts.

Best single driver: 1st, Templeton Foster—saddle and blanket, by N. A. Austin. 2nd, J. W. Tweedle—$1.00 barbering, by R. M. Mathis.

Best colt: A. H. Allard—bridle, by E. Westbrook.

Best hog: J. B. Buckner—bed springs, by C. M. Lyles.

Best pig: J. E. Foster—black-smithing, by Brown & Pierce.

Best pair goats: J. T. Davis—3 meals, by Central Hotel.

Best mule, under 3 years old: Thos. Ogilvy—collar, by C. N. Crawford.

Best bicycle rider under 15 years old: Paul Redmon—bicycle bell, by C. C. Reynolds.

The judges for the day were as follows:

Horses, mules and jacks: J. W. Tweedle, H. K. Dunn and Jno. B. Ayres.

Cattle: J. L. Glass, H. Bade and T. G. Brennan.

Sheep, goats and hogs: Ed Davis, J. W. Phillips and A. A. Rutherford.

The premiums given were private contributions, for which the promoters of the show are grateful.

If space would permit, we would like to give the entries, and the names of the entrants. Altogether, there were more than 40 head of stock entered, and we heard a number of prominent stockmen express a regret that they did not bring in a specimen for exhibition.

So great was the interest manifested in this, the first annual stock show, that it has already been suggested that we have a county fair this fall. We can do it, and can make a most creditable showing, too, if we only get at it.

Next year, the Association proposes to offer cash premiums that will be worth the best efforts of our stockmen.

THE ALAMO HEROES MONUMENT

(Copyrighted)

Combining beauty, grandeur and usefulness and representing the patriotic devotion of loyal Texans to the memory of the pioneers who fought for and won liberty, the Alamo Heroes monument, to be erected in San Antonio on ground hallowed by the blood of the fortress' defenders who preferred death to surrender, will be one of the greatest works ever undertaken in Texas. Its graceful lines that emphasize strength of the structure will mark it as a work of art, its great height and the massive character of the base, its columns and statuary within and without will give it grandeur, and its usefulness to the people of the whole state will be realized in its galleries, its auditoriums, its museums, its art gallery, its halls for state and national patriotic societies and its individual rooms for each county in Texas for the maintenance of art or historical exhibits.

The Alamo Heroes Monument will rise to a height of 802 feet, the highest structure in the world. It will contain four spacious auditoriums, a museum, an art gallery and statuary hall, and a separate room for every county in Texas to be used by each to the encouragement of art and history by the maintenance of exhibits along these lines associated with that county. Near the top, balconies will be provided for visitors who wish to take a look into the neighboring counties through the large telescopes to be provided for that purpose.

opening is carried up through each succeeding story until it reaches a height of 700 feet. Here will be set into the ceiling, beautifully lighted by electricity, the Lone Star of Texas. The space for one hundred feet beneath the star will have no opening from without to admit the light, so this star will be almost as brilliant in the day time as at night.

The rooms apportioned to the different counties of Texas, in number between 275 and 300 (for some will have to be provided for counties that will be created in after years) will be reached by elevators.

The dome of the monument will not be open to visitors, but will be offered to the Federal Government for an observatory. At the very top of the great structure will be located a powerful search light, the strongest that it will be possible to obtain. This powerful light may be turned on far away to towns if so desired, but generally it will be turned toward the clouds and its rays will be visible at great distances.

For the maintenance of this monument an admission price of fifty cents will be charged to the museum and art gallery, and another admission price of fifty cents will be charged for a trip in one of the four elevators to the balconies near the top of the structure. These are now on sale at half price; that is, one ticket now being sold for the building fund will entitle the holder to admission to the art gallery and museum and to the elevator trip to the balconies and return. It is contemplated to raise the sum of Two Million Dollars for its construction by and through the sale of four million whole admission tickets at half price. The projectors of the monument believe that this amount may be raised within one year by hard work, and estimate that three years will be required to construct the monument. On this basis, they hope in 1918, the two-hundredth anniversary of the building of the Alamo chapel, the corner stone of Texas liberty, Texas may unveil the most magnificent and the tallest monument in the world. Then loyal Texans may feel that they have paid a debt of gratitude to those valiant and sacrificing men who gave their lives to free Texas from oppression.

That posterity may know who have helped to build this monument, a card index, or register, will be kept in the archives which will show each contributor to the building fund, each card bearing the signature of one donor, a record of place of birth, residence in Texas and amount contributed. These cards will be preserved in the museum where they may be seen and studied by visitors. Active work of raising the building fund was begun a few weeks ago, tickets having been placed in the banks and trust companies throughout Texas for sale to those desiring them, each bank retaining the money received on deposit until called for by the trustees to be put to the use for which it was given. Already much interest in the monument has been aroused, and county agents are explaining the plan and purpose to the people in their respective territories.

THOUGHT TOO MUCH OF SHOW. Finicky Action of Wife of English Fireman Duplicated in Our Own Country.

Before a justice, in a small English town of the south coast, there appeared, not long ago, a wife who accused her husband of assault and battery. The man admitted that he had seized her and thrown her down, perhaps roughly, yet not without making sure she would fall upon a soft place. But he had done so, he declared, in defense of his person and his honor. He was a fireman, and she had tried to keep him from being properly appraised and equipped to a fire.

The World long since established a record for impartiality, and anybody can afford its Thrice-a-Week edition, which comes every other day in the week, except Sunday. It will be of particular value to you. The Thrice-a-Week World also abounds in other strong features, serial stories, humor, markets, cartoons; in fact, everything that is to be found in a first class daily.

Quite Harmless. "Good gracious!" exclaimed the district visitor. "Do you harbor madmen in this village?" She pointed to the subject of her interest—a little man with very small eyes and large spectacles, who was doling from house to house like a demented lunatic. He approached each door with the trusting smile of childhood. He left with a valley of language such as could only emanate from long and bitter experience.

"Oh, nobody takes no notice of him," answered the old tenant. "He's quite harmless—been so these 20 years." "Poor fellow!" said the district visitor. "And what is the exact nature of his complaint?" The tenant smiled compassionately as he replied, "He's a simpleton."

I am again in the blacksmith business. My shop is northeast, across the street, from the First National Bank. I have a poor memory and no books; therefore, I will have to ask my friends to pay spot cash for all work before it leaves the shop. I will do your work well, and as cheap as I can to earn meat and bread. All work promptly done.—J. B. Cole

A large crowd attended the illustrated lecture on Cuba and the Spanish-American war, by Rev. J. T. Redman, last Tuesday night. Mr. Redman was a resident of Cuba for four years, and is thoroughly conversant with the Cuban people and scenes which he so vividly portrays on the canvas. The pictures are very clear, and his lecture imparts knowledge that cannot be gained only by living in Cuba, as he has done.

N. A. Austin's drawing contest, last Tuesday, created quite an interest among his many customers. With each $1.00 purchase, he gave a ticket entitling the holder to a chance at various premiums in the grocery line. Emette Westbrook drew a sack of "American Beauty" flour; R. Y. Yarbrough, of Garden City, an "Armour Star" ham; Will Edwards a bucket of "Mountain Blue" coffee; H. Deck a bucket of Cottolene and a can of "King Koma" syrup. N. A. always has something good in store for his customers.

Magic of September.
September seems to me to be the fairy among the months of the year. She is so crowned with gold, so full of play and magic spells, she has no work to do, and it is she who transforms the green woods and gray marshes to wonderlands of fairy fire, and brings the great pale moon back round and full night after night into the skies. Yes, September has a magic!—St. Nicholas.

HIS NARROW ESCAPE

Helen—Don't you think it unsafe in such deep water?
Henry—Oh! no, indeed! Got in much deeper water last season. I nearly became engaged to one of the girls down here.

COLORING BLOOD.

The color of blood is due chiefly to iron in the little blood-cells. When the iron is kept in these little blood-cells, which are living and traveling around in the blood vessels, the color is red. Hit the skin hard enough to break some of the little blood vessels beneath the surface, and the little red cells escape from the injured blood vessels, wander about for a while in the tissues and die. When they die the iron that made them red before then changes to black-and-blue coloring. After a while this iron is taken up by the glands called the lymphatics, and made over again into nice red cells. The iron is again very much worn quickly by the lymphatics if the black-and-blue spot is rubbed and massaged.—St. Nicholas.

Suicidal Habit of Butterfly.
Considerable interest attaches to a migration of butterflies to this country from the continent which recently took place, remarks the London Standard. The migration in question consisted chiefly of the pretty "Clouded Yellow" and the well-known "Painted Lady." The extraordinary part of the story is this, that none of either species will ever get through the British winter. All true British butterflies sleep from October to March, either as eggs, caterpillars, pupae or butterflies, but the Painted Lady and Clouded Yellow perish. It has long been suggested that they migrate back again to France, but the necessity of waiting for a north wind and the fact that such a wind in October is invariably too cold casts some doubt upon this theory. The Red Admiral is another victim to suicidal migration.

ICE CREAM CONSUMPTION.
Five quarts of ice cream per capita are consumed by the American people each year at present. This is more than double the quantity that sufficed in 1906. Coincidentally with this increase have come inventions for avoiding the economic waste of freezing ice cream by the ordinary mixture of ice and salt, 3,000 pounds of ice and 800 pounds of salt being required to freeze 100 gallons of ice cream by this method. Artificial refrigeration and electricity are employed in the new devices.

Ethel—I should say so; he held his audience from start to finish.
