THE NEWSPAPER THAT WORKS FOR A BIGGER, BETTER BOVINA.

BOVINA, TEXAS

VOLUME 2, NUMBER 21

Whittlin'

By Dolph Moten

Okay, Ikelicans, you win. And what a win. We were never in it. That, of course, was a big surprise to me.

Bovina and Parmer County went for Adlai in a big way as did many other counties on the Plains. I'll admit that the votes for Eisenhower were more than I expected here.

The wise guy who has been asking for the past two years, "What happened to all the people who voted for Ike?" has his answer now. Those people he was wondering about got their friends and neighbors together and the group went to the polls November 6.

The decision of the voters must have been a smart one. So many people just couldn't be wrong, could they?

Incidentally, what do admirers of Allan Shivers think about the way he is handling Texas' senate vacancy? Does he want to be senator himself or does he want to appoint some other Republican to take Price Daniel's place? Time, I'm sure will tell us.

As is always and should be the case, political talk has ceased its constant before-election rumble. The Ikelicans are smiling I-told-you-soedly and the Democrats—and they are still in the majority locally don't forget—are hoping for the best.

Needless to say, I am a part of the latter group.

Remember the billboards before the election? The ones that had the very nice picture of Ike and the copy that said, "Keep Peace. Keep Prosperity. Keep Ike."

I haven't seen any new ones that said we've got peace, prosperity and Ike.

Hate to be a dichard, but I prefer the political slogan that says, "Don't blame me, I voted Democratic."

It's difference of opinion, not love, that makes the world go 'round.

You fair weather football fans who quit following the Mustangs because they weren't having a good season, missed an extremely well played game Friday night.

The crowd on hand, I believe, was the smallest I've seen at Mustang Field. The Mustangs, as the story about the game in this issue mentions, came into their own. Serves you fair weather friends right to miss it.

This department offers congratulations to Coach Bob Wills and the Mustangs for a game well played.

Bounce ball fans take notice. Basketball practice will begin less than a week from now. From a comfort standpoint, it will be nice to move from a cold football field grandstand to a warm basketball gym bleacher.

As many Bovina residents know, North Street is full of huge chugholes just south of where it intersects with Third Street. Kathryn Johnston, who works in a local drug store, says if something isn't done about repairing it, she is going to take on the project herself.

I've read about women doing such things in other parts of the country. See no reason why it wouldn't work here. Think, however, that Kathryn might as well get started on the improvement. It looks like no one else is going to bother to repair it.

That particular part of North Street is in even worse condition than the street that runs in front of the school.

But back to Kathryn and her street repair project. I've promised her that such a project as she has in mind would rate a picture on page one of this publication. Feel like that's the least I could do.

Couldn't help but notice that Leon Grissom, my favorite Texas Tech football fan, was all smiles Monday morning after Tech's tremendous upset over T. C. U. Saturday. I don't blame him, of course, I'd have been smiling, too.

Almost everyone has jumped on my Texas Aggie bandwagon now that they're heavy favorites to be Southwest Conference champions. I said almost everyone, my TU wife still maintains that come Thanksgiving Day, the Longhorns of Austin will take the Aggies down a peg.

This, I keep reminding her, is one time she's going to be wrong.

IN BROOMS—

LIONS SELL $1068

The third annual Bovina Lions Club broom sale held Friday was considered a "tremendous success" by members participating in the fund raising campaign.

Total gross from the sale was $1068. The local club's share of that amount was 25 per cent of the gross or $267. Aside from brooms, the Lions sold mops, brushes, ironing board covers and pads, stick horses, dish rags, cup towels, and aprons.

The Lions were divided into two teams for the sale. Harry J. Charles was the leader of one team. Troy Fuller was the captain of the other. Charles' team won the contest. Final sales for the two teams were approximately $574 for Charles' group and $494 for Fuller's team.

Allen Cumpston, club treasurer, says, "We certainly want to express appreciation to the people of the community for their unselfish response to our sale. This certainly gave the club treasury a boost."

The merchandise sold was made in blind workshops in the state. The truck which hauled the goods here was parked in front of the post office during the day and heavy sales were made from that point. However, several Lions "knocked on the doors" of area houses.

At a regular meeting of the club Thursday night, Charles and Fuller chose members of their team. Each man chose 15 others. Also, the town and area was divided between the teams so each would know where it was supposed to work.

Bob Berggren, program chairman, consulted the club about having a meeting in the next few weeks with an international director, the district governor, and other clubs in the area present. No decision was reached by members.

Henry Minter, president, distributed boxes of Christmas cards that the club had ordered to help Crippled Children's Camp in Kerrville.

Saturday Is Another Successful BB Day

Saturday marked the seventh in a series of Boost Bovina Days sponsored by Bovina Jaycees and local merchants. The drawing, with $30 in script given away, was, as usual, held at 4:30.

Eldon McCormick was the winner of $15 in script that is redeemable at any of the some 30 participating businesses. Mrs. Flossie Rhinehart was the $10 winner and D. S. Harrell won the $5. It was the second time for Harrell to win.

The eighth Boost Bovina Day will be held Saturday. The drawing will again be at 4:30. It will be preceded by a free movie for children under 12 at 2:30 p. m. in Mustang Theatre.

A list of the merchants and businesses participating in the drawing and helping sponsor the movie is elsewhere in this issue.

Attend Funeral

Bill Bradshaw received word Friday, November 2, of the death of his mother, Mrs. Ada Bradshaw of Panhandle. Funeral services were held the following Monday morning at the family home in Dickens. Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw returned home Monday night.

SECOND WIN—

Mustangs Look Sharp, Take Lazbuddie 38-7

Bovina's Mustangs came into their own Friday night on the local field as they knocked the props from under the Lazbuddie Longhorns, 38-7. Coach Bob Wills boys displayed the sharpest attack of the season offensively and were equally effective on defense.

The offense featured the snappy running of fullback Neil Smith and the precise ball handling of Phil Caldwell, who has served as reserve quarterback most of the season.

Caldwell inherited the starting assignment when Dick Horn, regular quarterback, suffered a broken ankle in the last practice scrimmage play the day before the game—Thursday.

THE QUEEN AND THE HERO—Patricia Lloyd and Dick Horn, Bovina High School football queen and hero for 1956 were "crowned" at the half of the Bovina-Lazbuddie football game Friday night. They are both junior students.

FOOTBALL HERO, QUEEN—

PAT LLOYD, DICK HORN CROWNED

Pat Lloyd was named football queen and Dick Horn hero in Bovina High School for 1956-57 at special halftime ceremonies of the Bovina Mustang-Lazbuddie Longhorn District 3-B football game Friday night at Mustang Field.

Other candidates for queen were Ellen Berry, Joan Kay Ezell, and Suzie Estes. Neil Smith, Sonny Brito, and Mike Barraza ranked behind Horn in the hero contest.

The queen was selected by the football squad while the pep squad named the hero.

Miss Lloyd is a cheerleader and a junior. Horn is also a junior and is quarterback of the Mustang team.

W. Wayne Stevens' Bovina Mustang Band made a special formation for the ceremony and played traditional music for the occasion.

Gifts were given to Miss Lloyd by the football club. The pep squad presented Horn with gifts. Aside from the gifts, the queen was crowned with a football helmet and was awarded with kisses by the co-captains, Smith and Brito. Horn received the traditional kisses from the pep squad leaders.

The identities of the queen and hero remained a secret until the announcement was made over the public address system during the ceremony by Warren Morton, superintendent.

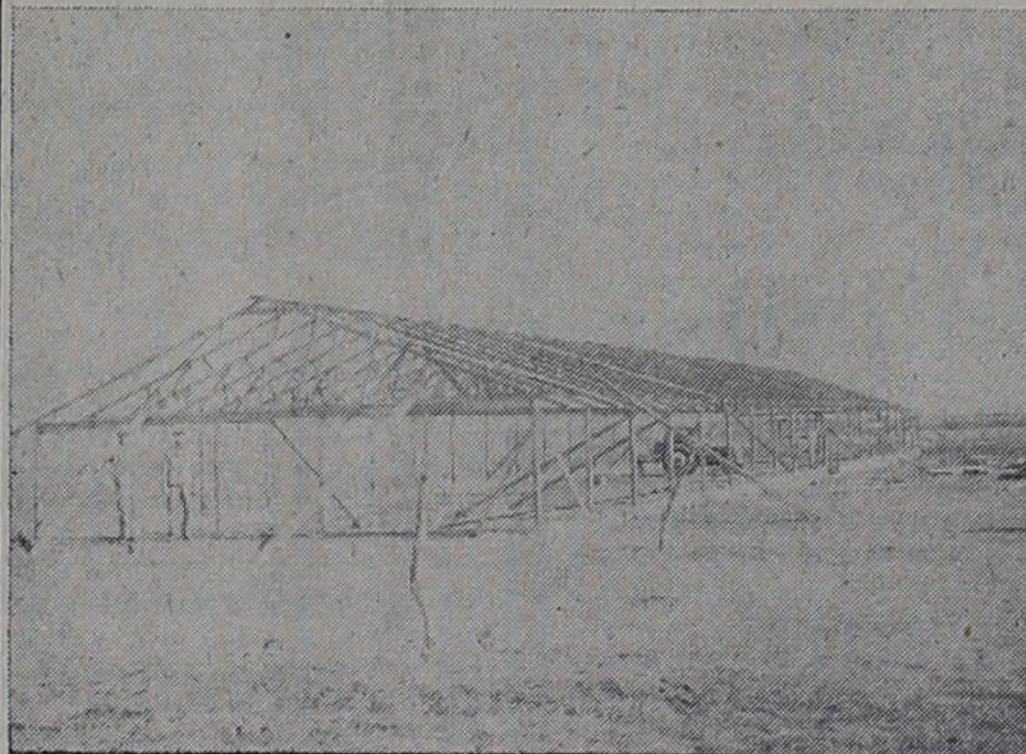

The hero candidates escorted the queen candidates onto the field after the girls had a convertible ride around the field.

Though the weekend was Homecoming for BHS ex-students, the queen, hero crowning was the only scheduled activity.

HALF MILE NORTH—

Hammonds Building Caged Hen Plant

NEW BUSINESS—Here you see the framework of what will soon be Bovina's newest business. It's J. T. Hammonds' caged layer house and is located half mile north of town. Hammonds, left, and Gene Rea may be seen in the left of the picture.

New industry is coming to Bovina.

J. T. Hammonds, former service station operator in Bovina, is building a caged layer hen house in Bovina. Location of the building now under construction is one-half mile north of town on the north farm-to-market road.

The building is being constructed of sheet iron with a wooden frame. It is 30 by 160 feet in size. Hammonds and Gene Rea, local carpenter, are building the structure. Construction began about the first of November.

Upon its completion, the building will house 1808 caged hens. Hammonds plans to install eight inch square cages and will have one hen per cage. (Some caged hen houses have two hens per cage.)

The plant is expected to be in operation by the first of the year, Hammonds says.

To begin with, Hammonds says he plans to buy 1000 pullets. The size he expects to get will be laying within about 30 days.

Eggs are expected to be marketed locally through grocery stores. No direct selling to housewives, the man who will run Bovina's newest business, says.

The eggs will be graded, culled and packaged before they leave the house. They will be delivered to grocery stores in cartons with a dozen eggs in each carton. Hammonds says he isn't sure that Bovina can or will consume all the eggs that will be produced in his plant. If all the eggs can't be sold locally, there are ready markets elsewhere.

When the house is filled to its capacity of hens—1808—about 1500 eggs will be produced each day, Hammonds estimates. Caged hen plants are becoming more and more popular on the High Plains. However, Hammonds' project is the first of its kind in the Bovina area.

Caged eggs sell at a premium on the market. Reason for the premium is that they are cleaner.

MONDAY NIGHT—

Bovina VFD Discusses Purchasing Used Pickup

In a lengthy, business-filled meeting Monday in the fire station, Bovina Volunteer Fire Department discussed, among other things, purchasing a "good, used" pickup for use in their fire fighting duties.

If a pickup is purchased, it will be used to haul fire fighting equipment that can't be taken on the fire truck. The most important thing it will carry will be the department's oxygen tank. Members feel the oxygen device should be taken to every fire and it can't be hauled on the truck.

Elton Venable, Bill Burnam, and Fire Chief Otho Hammonds were named to a committee to investigate the buying of a pickup. They will make a report at next Monday night's meeting.

It was also decided at the meeting that each member in good standing will be equipped with white coveralls, a firemen's cap, and a firemen's badge. The coveralls will have red lettering on the backs with the firemen's name on the front.

Herman Estes, who has served as secretary-treasurer of the organization since its beginning turned in his resignation of the position. Bill Denny was elected to replace Estes. Bill Horton will assist Denny.

The group also agreed to continue this year with its annual distribution of candies to underprivileged families in the community. They requested that anyone knowing of an underprivileged family notify a member of the department.

The department's income consists of 25 cents each month from each water meter in Bovina

Eleven members were present Monday night.

*****

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Condron of Houston returned home Monday, November 5. They had spent the previous week visiting in Bovina with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee H. Sudderth.

*****

School to Observe Thanksgiving Nov. 29

*****

Bovina Schools will be dismissed November 29 and 30 in observance of Thanksgiving, according to an announcement from the office of Superintendent Warren Morton.

*****

The dates of November 22 and 23 were first set. However, this date was changed since November 29 was established as the state holiday and other area schools were observing that date.

*****

Bovina Businesses Closed Monday For Veterans' Day

*****

Bovina had somewhat of a holiday atmosphere Monday as a part of the town closed its doors in observance of Veterans' Day.

*****

Veterans' Day itself was Sunday, November 11.

*****

Places observing the holiday Monday were First National Bank, post office, and city hall. Other places were open as usual.

*****

Next official holiday will be Thanksgiving. However, Bovina businesses have not decided whether to observe Thursday, November 22, or Thursday, November 29. November 22 is the national holiday. Governor Allan Shivers has designated November 29 as the state holiday.

*****

Dick Horn, regular quarterback, is out with a broken ankle. He will this week, as last week, be replaced by Phil Caldwell, who did yeoman service at the position against Lazbuddie.

*****

Aside from Horn, the Mustangs are at full strength.

The game will be played at Whitharral.

Blade Will Be Early Next Week

In view of the fact that Thanksgiving, November 22, is a national holiday and the local post office will be closed, The Blade will be mailed on Tuesday next week.

This early mailing date will enable rural subscribers to receive their paper before the holiday.

The complete Blade schedule will be moved forward a day. "We hope advertisers will cooperate with us on this move," Dolph Moten, publisher, says.

Mustangs Against Whitharral In Final Game

Coach Bob Wills' Bovina Mustangs, riding high after last week's 38-7 slaughter of Lazbuddie, will be trying to make it two in a row as they go against Whitharral in the final game of the season.

The Mustangs, prior to last Friday's game, would have been considered underdogs. However, they are given an even chance for victory since they "found themselves."

They will be outweighed by some 25 pounds per man, Wills says. Whitharral is especially heavy at the tackle positions.

Dick Horn, regular quarterback, is out with a broken ankle. He will this week, as last week, be replaced by Phil Caldwell, who did yeoman service at the position against Lazbuddie.

LETTERS To-The Editor

1672 Irene Court
West Englewood, N. J.
Nov. 7, 1956

Dear Editor:

Perhaps you think the Bovina Blade is not read in New Jersey, but it is. Every Monday I look it over carefully to see what new event is happening in Bovina.

Your paper almost startles me. When I was in Bovina on my third visit (1954) with my relatives, there was no such thing as a newspaper on Main St. Now you are telling the world about Bovina. And this is only the beginning. There was no bank, no new drug store, no street lights. That new cafeteria had not been planned. Do you have a city sewer system?

The magnificent new school building was just being built—it is the finest institution in the town. If you had been there when the former school burned, I'm sure you would have used all your influence to promote this new school.

You aren't going too fast, are you? On my first visit to Bovina, I could have bought land at $75 an acre, and now I see farms advertised in the Blade at $250 an acre. I guess we'd better pray that those irrigation wells keep on producing for the next century.

There's the Charles clan, my people. Headquarters for the tribe used to be in Wichita but now it is in Bovina. Wilbur is the patriarch, and I've known him from his infancy. He's typical of the self-made American. He didn't have a penny at the start, but he's the best of the lot at present.

I'll speak a word of praise for the Blade, too. People all over that country must trust you, judging from the way they advertise with you. And the people at home must like you, too. Those personal reports of church, thrift clubs, and family social affairs are the life of the paper.

What next? Municipal bathing pool? Golf links? Theater club? Oh yes, you need a library. And if you get it going, I'll be the first to give you some books.

Good luck,
John W. Charles

Boys present were Butch Woltman, Freddie Taylor, Phillip Wilcox, David Lawlis, Ronnie Taylor, Jerry and Ronnie Williams, Lynn Hudson, Ken Horn, John Goodwin and Jerry Rigdon.

Thrifty Club Has Social Monday Night

Husbands of members of the Bovina Thrifty Club were special guests Monday evening at a Thanksgiving supper and social, held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Brandon. The covered dish supper consisted of chicken and dressing, salads and pumpkin pies. Afterwards, the men played "42."

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Turner, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Stevens, Joe Don and Bettye, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ware, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dunavant, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jones and Joe, and Mr. and Mrs. Brandon, Ramey and Marilyn.

Visit Thursday In Amarillo

Several local women spent Thursday of last week visiting in Amarillo. They were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tiny Giles Walling, former residents of Bovina.

The visitors went to Amarillo to see the Walling's new baby daughter, Donna Kathleen, who was born Friday, November 2. The Walling's older daughter, Becky, has been visiting in the home of her aunt, Mrs. Joe Wilson, and was taken to see her new sister. Others going were Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Nancy Nix, Mrs. Dollie Williams and Mrs. Harve Alverson.

On the way home, the local women stopped in Canyon and visited briefly with Mrs. Williams' grandson, Ted Walling and Mrs. Alverson's daughter, Janie, who are attending West Texas State.

Planet means wanderer.

Intermediate G. A.'S Have Teen Talk

Members of the Intermediate Girl's Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church met Wednesday evening in the church annex for an informal talk with their leader, Mrs. Ovid Lawlis. The group spent the evening discussing the problems and joys of growing up. This "teen-talk" will be held once a month in place of the regular meeting.

Those present Wednesday night were Barbara Taylor, Julia Ann Lloyd, Margaret Taylor and Mrs. Lawlis.

Attend District WSCS Meeting

Several members of the Methodist WSCS of Bovina attended the District WSCS meeting which was held Thursday at the Oklahoma Lane Methodist Church.

Theme of the meeting was "The Spirit of Christ for All of Life" with district president, Mrs. Melvin Sudderth, in charge. The opening hymn was "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations" and district officers gave each of seven goals which the district will work toward during the next four years.

Three of these were given in the morning and four during the afternoon session.

The inspirational speaker for the morning was Mrs. E. A. Barnett of Aiken, who spoke in connection with these goals.

Pie, coffee and tea were served by the members of the Oklahoma Lane WSCS to go with the sack lunches at noon. Special music for the day was given by Mrs. Walter White of Sudan. Mrs. White is the wife of a former pastor of Bovina Methodist Church.

Those present from Bovina were Mrs. George Turner, Mrs. Floyd Dunavant, Mrs. Earl Ware, Mrs. Mable Newberry, Mrs. Billie Sudderth, Mrs. Warren Morton, Mrs. C. F. Hastings, Mrs. W. W. Charles and Mrs. Jimmy Charles.

Visiting Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Turner were Mr. and Mrs. Iris Touchstone.

Mrs. A. R. McCutchan and Mrs. S. D. Rule spent Thursday of last week in Amarillo.

Hay, Feed Needs Big

During the four months period through October 31, Texas farmers and ranchers eligible under the emergency feed grain and roughage programs received assistance in the purchase of 1,443,867,646 pounds of grain and 1,347,170 tons of roughage. Walter T. McKay, FFA state director at Dallas, announced this week. There were 91,787 applications for grain assistance and 37,405 applications under the roughage program were processed during this period.

STRIPPERS ROLL—Mechanization has entered area cotton fields in the past few days. This was the scene on the James Mabry farm at the Hub this week, where Mabry, seated on the tractor, says he is making a bale and a half per acre in this field. The cotton had not been hand pulled once, as is the case with many area farms.

History's Longest, Smoothest Harvest In Final Stages

The longest, smoothest harvest of Parmer County's No. 1 cash crop—grain sorghum—is moving into its final stages this week, as combines rumble and trucks roar.

Except for one brief flurry two weeks ago which brought from one half to one inch of rain at most points, the weather has been letter perfect all during the harvest season.

This is in strong contrast to many years, and last year, especially, when rains and drizzly weather in September, plus an early freeze combined to deal farmers misery as they tried to gather their crops.

Harvest weather then, has been ideal, but looking at the overall picture, it would not be accurate to say that weather has been ideal for the entire growing season.

If the Parmer County area was not dotted with over 3,000 productive irrigation wells, this would have been a grim season for farmer and merchant alike. That can be proved by viewing conditions a few score miles in almost any direction, where unfortunate farmers and communities are just barely able to "hang on" because of the drought.

For the sixth straight year, rainfall was below normal this year. If pre-irrigation of the crop had not been possible, then doubtless few acres would have been planted, and none harvested.

The small amount of dryland under cultivation in Parmer County shows conclusively what would have happened. One experiment on a good dryland farm in the Oklahoma Lane area brought home the truth.

In that case, a demonstration had been planned to compare the new hybrid sorghum varieties to older types grown. When harvest time rolled around, there wasn't much to compare. The crops didn't make.

But, because of irrigation, most of the area sorghum crop drank deeply of life-giving water four or five times this season, and produced bountifully.

An across-the-board irrigated yield would probably average 3500 pounds in Parmer County this year. That would be up from 400 to 500 pounds over last year's figure.

Some yields topped the 6000-pound mark, and a few tipped the beam at over 7000—but these were all small, intensely-farmed plots that farmers used for testing purposes more than anything else.

In the main, the heavy soils to the north and east produced about 4000-pound yields, and the lighter soils to the south and west made about 3000 pounds per acre.

With about 220,000 acres of grain sorghums under irrigation in Parmer County, the total yield will be somewhere around 14,000,000 bushels. However, this is only an "educated guess," because of an unusual condition.

This year, outside demand for grain sorghums pushed the market above the loan, and in many instances, farmers held back grain from the elevators and storage where it was possible for them to do so.

No figure is available on how much grain is being kept on the farm this year, but it is certain to break all previous records.

In ancient times, the Pyramids of Egypt were used as tombs of the rulers.

"The emergency feed grain and roughage programs are meant to help established farmers and ranchers, who are primarily engaged in farming and ranching, to maintain their basic herds of cattle, sheep and goats, if their circumstances are such that this assistance is needed," McKay says. Local FFA committees have the responsibility to determine the eligibility of applicants and to approve the amount of feed each may purchase under the program.

In Texas, 233 counties are designated under the emergency feed grain and roughage programs. In these counties, eligible applicants are helped in buying corn, oats, barley and grain sorghums, or approved feed mixtures containing either 60 or 75 percent of these grains through a government subsidy of $1.50 per hundred weight. The government bears the full amount of this subsidy. In addition to the emergency feed grain assistance, eligible applicants are helped to buy hay or other approved roughage to maintain their basic herds. Under this program applicants receive a subsidy of $7.50 per ton of roughage bought.

Regulations that guide FFA county committees in the review of applications provide that applicants will not be certified if they are financially able to obtain the necessary feed for their basic herds without difficulty and can continue their normal farming and livestock operations. It is not expected that applicants will exhaust their total resources, including credit, before they can be certified for this assistance, McKay advised.

"However," McKay added, "the fact that the purchase of feed at regular prices may not be profitable to the applicant is not sufficient to qualify him for assistance. It must be determined in every instance that an applicant is primarily engaged in farming or ranching and that this is his main source of income. A nominal portion of his income from other sources would not necessarily disqualify the applicant.

The overriding factor in determining the eligibility of any applicant is his financial ability to obtain the feed necessary to maintain his basic herds and continue his normal operations. Any applicant whose financial circumstances are such that he can provide necessary feed for his basic herds and carry on his operations without serious difficulty is not eligible for this assistance."

Under the present designation applications may be filed through December 3, for a supply of feed grain and roughage to carry basic livestock herds through December 31.

"The Place Where Most People Trade" Wednesday, November 14, 1956

Douglas Connelly and his wife spent last week at Corpus Christi where he attended a Baptist convention and ate fish. Douglas says there are a lot less fish in Corpus than when the Baptist folks got there and we don't think he meant that they caught lots of fish the Douglas did get a ribbon fish which was 3 feet long and weighed almost a pound and wasn't edible. Other Friena folks in Corpus were Rev. and Mrs. Fields and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Murphee.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Blackwell and small son, Jerry, are visiting here with her parents, the J. T. Guinns. Mrs. Blackwell, Dorothy Nell, is showing off her son to Friena friends. Dorothy Nell and Bobbie are both former Friena folks and are living in Houston now where Bobbie works with the Humble Oil Company. They will leave Thursday for a vacation in the east.

A ride in the new 1957 Olds will prove to you that it is the "dream" car for you. It is new in looks, in performance. See it and drive it. On display at the Parmer County Implement Company now.

The Dan Ethridges were so very happy to have company at their house Sunday. Major and Mrs. John C. Mack from New York visited here on their way to Hawaii where the Major expects to be stationed awhile. The Macks and the Ethridges served two army hitches together and were stationed in Connecticut. Dan and the Major were also overseas together.

When you turn your tractor loose on a guide why not put a Parmer County Implement Company safety switch on it? Why take chances on burning up the tires, or the tractor 100 even ruining your neighbor's fence? Come by and we will show you how these switches work. When the tractor stalls, the switch will shut it off and it is an inexpensive guard.

A farmer who was a deacon was out possum hunting with two neighbors. Suddenly, he remembered it was prayer meeting time and he explained, "Here it is Wednesday night, and I'm supposed to be in church to make a talk and I just this minute thought of it." Then paused and then continued, "But on second thought, I can't go, anyway, my wife's sick."

Mr. Gil Lamb from Muleshoe was guest speaker for the MYF at the Methodist Church Sunday evening. Mr. Lamb, who is a member of Alcoholics Anonymous, talked to the MYF members and their guests, the Baptist young people, on present day evils of alcohol.

One of Mr. Lawrence Lillard's favorite jokes is about the little boy who was in the first grade. He went to school quite happily for about a month and then he told his mother he wasn't going any more. His mother, very worried asked him "Why?" "Well," said the six year old, "I can't read, I can't write, and I can't spell, and that teacher won't let me talk."

Anti Freeze is a necessity in our part of the country. If you haven't bought as much as you will need this winter better get it soon. Our prices are the best.

Mr. Bill Elliott, who farms in the Hub community, has one of the 400 Farmall tractors with an I. H. reversible disc plow. Call 2091 and we will bring one of these tractors to your farm for a demonstration. You will be surprised at what it can do on your farm.

Construction has started on the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Pavalus. It is just west of Jimmy Baxter's home in the Lakeside Addition.

Newest innovation at the Parmer County Community Hospital is background music in the waiting rooms. Dr. Shackelford bought a record player and some long playing records for his office and has "piped" the music to the other waiting rooms. Dr. Shackelford said that his previous office had been so close to a constant stream of traffic he couldn't get accustomed to the quiet in the new dentist office. Surely is nice for everyone waiting.

THE HAPPY HOMEMAKER

If you want to try something which will be new and different for the children, try making caramel apples. Mrs. O. J. Beene made some for tricks or treats Halloween that were very good. Making them is very simple, according to Mrs. Beene's report.

Add two tablespoons of water to a package of caramel candy and melt over hot fire. Leave over fire until candy is thoroughly melted and there are no lumps. Then dip apples into mixture until they are coated. Sounds simple enough, doesn't it?

In one of Ruth Millet's recent columns she gave some good advice to most homemakers we know. Most of it was advice we had had given to us before but had never paid much attention to. One of the suggestions which she made was, "Don't do things for your children which they can and should do for themselves?"

The central idea behind this particular column was for homemakers to look around them to determine why they were always out of time and behind schedule. Another idea she expressed, which exactly fits us, was that of doing too many things that "should really take only a minute," but generally take much longer than that.

There must be some way for homemakers to make more efficient use of their time, but, so far, we haven't found it. If you have, why not let the rest of us in on your secret formula? Most of us need it badly.

With Thanksgiving and Christmas just around the corner, there is a plentiful supply of cranberries in every grocery store. You may be one of those people who think there is no better way to serve cranberries than in sauce. We are inclined to agree with you, but if you like to experiment, try this: No-Cook Cranberry-Orange Relish

Grind one pound fresh cranberries and two medium oranges which have been quartered and seeded, but not peeled. Add two cups of sugar, mix well and store in refrigerator several hours before serving so that flavors will mingle.

If you prepare your husband's income tax report, be sure that all records are in order and the actual preparation will not be such a hard task. The better records you have kept during the year, the easier your job of making the return will be.

Farmers Union Plans Membership Drive Kick-Off

The Tuesday, November 20, meeting of the Farmer's Union, which will be held in the school cafeteria at Friona at 8 p.m. will be the kickoff for the 1957 membership drive, according to W. L. (Preach) Edelman, president.

All farmers in the county are invited to attend by Edelman, who further states that everyone registering will be eligible for the door prizes, which will be five dressed turkeys.

Two members of the state board of directors, L'Dean Butler of Tulia, and Vernon Tiley of Texline, will be present for this meeting. "Both of these men are young aggressive farmers who are interested in the problems of all area farmers," Edelman says.

New officers will be elected and delegates to the state convention at Abilene December 7 and 8 will be chosen. Refreshments will be served.

THE PARMER FARMER

Southwestern farmers, who seem always to have had an inherent fear of Republicans in congress, needn't take last Tuesday's election with any qualms. Democrats appear certain to rule the roost both in the upper and lower chambers of our national government when the gavels bang down after the first of the year, signifying another season of law-making. The legislature—not the administration—decides what the farm program shall be like.

Incidentally, it might be pointed out that the last session of congress, which went along with most of the Republican administration's requests, didn't exactly turn their backs on agriculture. They voted over $3 billion in subsidies and aids to help farmers expand markets at home and abroad.

Whether this was a sheer political maneuver we will let you decide but the fact remains that chances look good for reducing farm surpluses next year. And, that would be the first time since 1951

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

The Soil Conservation Service, working through soil conservation districts all over the country, has developed a simple procedure for planting grasses under dryland conditions in the Southwest that has proven very successful. Of course, there are failures regardless of the system used, but these failures will be at a minimum if the system outlined here is followed.

Drill sudan or one of the sorghums in the last half of July. This is to serve as a cover crop and is planted late so that it won't make a seed crop. Don't graze, plow, harrow, or do anything to this cover.

The following spring, not later than April 15, using a grass drill made for the purpose, plant a grass or mixture of grasses suited to the conditions we have here. There's no way to prescribe the best grass or mixture without knowing exactly what kind of soil it will be planted in.

The SCS, as in past years, is glad to furnish whatever help it can in selecting grasses, to co-operators of the soil conservation district. The native grasses such as blue grama, sideoats grama and buffalo grass for the most part will be used.

However, such grasses as weeping lovegrass or blue panic grass will be all right for some conditions. When you get beyond these, you are experimenting and are more apt to have failures. The dead cover of sudan or sorghum will furnish protection for the small grass plants without competing with them for moisture.

If mowings are not given, we will see some wonderful tumble weed patches. After two years the grass, with reasonable conditions, should be far enough along to pretty well take care of the weeds.

Mowing is important the first year and will help the second.

that we haven't grown more than we could use or sell.

Some commodities, however, are in hot water and will continue to be that way for several years unless something really drastic turns up. The soil bank isn't going to cut production enough to bring the picture into balance right away.

On feed grains, we pretty well know the situation by now. The Texas irrigated Plains was about the only major producing area in the country that raised any feed this year. Local prices, which have been above the loan right through harvest, have been a direct result of this situation.

USDA lists its CCC feed grain (not corn) stocks at 202 million bushels. How much of this will come out of storage no one seems to know, but the demand appears to be good.

Mustangs Look Sharp, Knock Lazbuddie 38-7

As the game grew older, the Mustangs, with their new-found life, seemed to gain momentum. After taking the third kickoff of the quarter, the Longhorns again failed to make a first, but lost the ball this time via a fumble on the 39. Jerry Burnett and Caldwell, in a carry each, put the ball on the 31. Caldwell, on a sneak, went to the 28. Then Smith broke loose again on a pitchout and the ball was on the three. Caldwell eased it down to the one. James Lawlis carried it over for the TD. Score:

32-7. Smith's attempted kick went astray to leave the score unchanged.

The Mustangs still weren't through. Late in the final period, Smith gathered in a Longhorn pass on the Bovina 35 and returned to the 39. On the next play, he was loose for the umpteenth time of the evening, but was halted on the five yard line.

Quarterback Caldwell seemed determined to get Burnett in on the scoring parade from that point. Burnett made four to the one. On the next play, he was across the goal line for the TD, but a five yard penalty moved the ball back to the six. Burnett then circled right end to get back to the one and on the next play he was across for a legal score. Smith's place kick extra point wasn't good and the scoring was over at 38-7.

The Longhorns had the ball on the Mustang 29 with a first down as the game ended.
