The good roads proposition is one of the most important that is now before the people of this county. Aside from the benefit to be derived by the farmer and the man who must use the roads to transport his products to the market, the development of the county is largely dependent upon the good roads. The counties where they have good roads will advance rapidly, grow richer and develop faster than those who are content with the passably good road or no good roads at all. A home seeker who is worth anything to the county where he expects to make his home will not come to a county that is behind the times and insists in staying behind.

Don't flag the busy little bee when he is going straight ahead.

EARLY TESTS REMARKABLE

First Patients Treated by Dr. Friedmann are Said to Have Already Improved.

New York, March 10.—Dr. F. F. Friedmann left this city tonight for Canada, where he plans to give demonstrations of the treatment he claims will cure tuberculosis.

Meanwhile the government officials, who are investigating the treatment will be busy gathering more patients upon whom they will ask Dr. Friedmann to demonstrate when he returns here Friday.

Dr. Friedmann's first patients in America already have improved in health, according to Dr. Mas Landesman, managing director of the People's Hospital, where the Berlin physician demonstrated last week. Dr. Landesman said the pains in the patients' chests have been greatly allayed and their coughing has nearly stopped. He referred to the treatment as "remarkable."

THE press dispatches announce that the new President of the United States and his cabinet are harmonious. Would you call that a news item?

VICE-PRESIDENT Marshall wants a private room in his office where he can put his feet on the table and smoke a cigar without being bothered by visitors. We move that the room be provided.

MISS HELEN TAFT'S $5000 poodle, which was lost several days ago, and which has kept the Washington police force busy trying to find, has been recovered. The police could not find the little dog at all, so it came home by its little self.

OUR fire department is about the best that is. No use of a fire trying to burn up a city block—one building is all that is allotted to any one fire, and then the damage will have to occur before the department gets there, for three minutes is all that is required to put it out.

VOTE for the road improvement tax and give the county commissioners the necessary funds to keep up our roads and make additional improvements. You will never miss the money, and besides you will get back in benefits four or five times the amount it costs.

"HAVE YOU GOT Hookworms?" Headline in the Cotton Belt News of San Augustine. Not being an expert in the matter, we cannot say; but these bright, warm days make us want to put a worm on a hook and sit on the side of some pretty creek and see what the fishes will do.

THE Houston trades excursion which leaves that city April 8th, will make a tour of the entire East Texas belt, and will be out on a four days trip. The itinerary of the trip puts the boosters in Nacogdoches April 10th at 10:30 p. m. and they will remain over night, leaving at 9:00 o'clock next morning for home.

THE scrap between Mexican soldiers and the Ninth Cavalry of the United States near Douglass, Ari., was, according to official reports brought on by the Mexicans and without provocation. A party of Mexicans troops and took a few shots at the American they, just as any other bunch of Americans would have done, returned the fire, and most vigorously.

THE San Augustine people are going to try and pull off a big fair this fall and are calling on the farmers to help with the enterprise. The Nacogdoches people have their fair arrangements so worked out now that it is only a matter of time when the fair will be pulled off—waiting for the date to get here. This fall the fair will be one of the biggest fairs ever held in any of the East Texas counties.

WE understand that the Center debaters who lost in the debate against the high school here last week feel very sore over the defeat, and insinuate that they were robbed of the decision. We are very sorry they feel this way, but would suggest that they be more sportsmanlike, be a good loser. It is not right for the losing side to impugn the honesty of the judges, when it is known that they had absolutely no interest in the matter, and were not even residents of the city.

THE declaration of principles enunciated in the inaugural address of President Wilson sounds mighty good to the whole people and was enthusiastically received by the rank and file of the people in both parties. A number of the large dailies have printed, side by side, the inaugural expressions of several of our greatest presidents, and the expressions of President Wilson compare most favorably with any of the rest.

SINCE the House and the Senate passed the Katy merger bill over the governor's veto, it is given out that the governor and the attorney-general intend to put the "kibosh" on the measure before it becomes a law. We were of the opinion that after the veto of the governor had been overridden it was beyond his power to go further in the matter, even if he thought the legislature didn't have sense enough to know what they were doing.

WONDER, if Harmon had been elected president, would the Houston Post have indulged in saying little mean things about the incoming administration like the clipping below:

One of the very first things the Sixty-third congress is going to do when it convenes in extra session is to draw the fat and juicy mileage and resolve steadfastly to resist every attempt that may be made to root up any tradition that puts this luscious graft into its yawning pockets.

A vote to allow the city to spend $25,000 for the purchase of the present light plant instead of insisting on its building a new plant, will not cost the voter anything so far as dollars and cents, but will help to solve a problem that is a very vexing one just now. Two plants will have to run at a loss to each or an immense loss to one, and if the loss should fall on the city plant it would be quite a heavy blow to the people. Better eliminate competition even if it is thought the price is too much.

Her Daily Bread.

Marjorie was enjoying with us a rare treat of home-made bread which a neighbor had sent us, knowing that we never bake bread at our house but depend upon the baker to supply our daily needs. We little realized the impression the delicious bread had made upon the little three-year-old girl until that night we overheard her saying her "Lord's Prayer" in this manner: "And give us this day our daily home-made bread."—Ex.

Walt Mason.

If every day was sunny, with ne'er a cloud in view, we'd soon be spending money to buy a cloud or two. It always makes me weary when people say: "Old boy, may all your days be cherry and bright and full of joy!" If all my days were sunny, existence would seem flat; if I were fed on honey I'd soon get sick of that. I like a slice of sorrow to hold me down today, for that will make tomorrow seem fifty times as gay. A little dose of sickness won't make me whine or yell; 'twill emphasize the slickness of life when I am well. A little siege of trouble won't put my hopes in pawn, for I'll be trotting double with joy when it is gone. Down there in tropic regions where sunshine gleams all day, the fat and lazy legions just sleep their lives away; there every idle bumpkin who in the sunshine lies, lives like a yellow pumpkin, and like a squash he dies. I want my share of ups and downs; want a life that ranges from cross up to crown.

The Oldest Christian Bell.

Out in California, in a certain inn at Riverside, is one of the most remarkable collections of ancient bells in the world. There is one with the name of the sixteen century Pope on it: there is the ship's bell from one of the ships told of in "Evangeline." But the chief bell of the collection has far greater historical interest than these. It has the distinction of being the oldest dated Christian bell in existence. Away back in 1247 it was cast in Spain in the time of James of Aragon. Italy has a bell dated 1249 and Germany one inscribed 1258. These two come nearest in point of age to the unique California bell.—F. H. M., in Travel.

This will be a busy year for "big business." The public conscience is awakened as it has not been for 10, these many years, and the owner of this conscience is displaying an activity that makes "big business" tremble for the maintenance of its hold fastened upon the public by almost imperceptible degrees for years. We do not share the alarm that our government or its people are in immediate danger of being consumed by this fire of greed and avarice, but we do believe the special interests have already secured a hold on both the industrial and political affairs of the country that will nigh puts things in their own power. If this hold is to be shaken off at all it must be done NOW, for year by year the grasp is being tightened and finally there will come a time when it cannot be loosed.—Wills Point Chronicle.

For some reason, those who "view with alarm" the activities of the Texas Commercial Secretaries Association have thus far failed to blame on that organization the outbreak of meningitis at the State capital, which is having the effect of aiding in the association's propaganda of "fewer laws."—Port Arthur News.

Flagging Progress.

It is reported that one of our railroad commissioners lost his "socks and belt" trying to stop a construction gang at work in the lower branch of the Legislature, but of course every man must burst into a flame of rashness now and then in order to be human.

During the past year, the people of Texas have seen truth peep over mountains of error and have heard the carions of industry scream as the light of truth was turned upon their fetid habitation. The curse of Texas to-day is its political "tightwads" whose dishonest imagination forces them into quarrels with progress. For several year west and southwest Texas have suffered in silence for railroad facilities and when relief came in sight there were always those in power willing to lay withering hands on their promised prosperity.

It ought to be encouraging to those men of lofty courage in our Legislature, who are struggling to open the gates of civilization, to learn that all the opposition can do is to set error in motion and fan the embers of dissension.

Texas is coming into her own and any man had as well try to stop the creation of a new world as to undertake to flag progress with the dark lantern of prejudice.—Commercial Sections.

Wilson Well Equipped for Difficult Task.

The London Morning Post, discussing at considerable length the problems facing America, says: "Woodrow Wilson comes to the presidency when the older days are over and a new era is approaching. Few American presidents have entered office so well equipped; few have faced so many difficulties."

The daily Graphic says: "Woodrow Wilson has impressed the Anglo-Saxon race of both the new and the old worlds with his sterling honesty. That is the quality above all others which democracies need, and Americans must be congratulated upon having found such a man for chief magistrate."

The Chronicle says that Mr. Wilson represents the "new spirit" visible in more than one country, but nowhere so clearly as in America. "The progressive world looks for much from him," the paper adds.

Potential Wealth For China.

Honolulu, Mar. 5.—Sixty millions of potential wealth stowed in 140 wooden chests, arrived here today, en route to Hong Kong on the liner Nippon Maru. The consignment is listed as paper and travels at the modest rate of $7 a ton. It will not become currency until the notes have been signed in China. They were printed in New York.

The shipment was said to be the first set of bank notes printed for China since the overthrow of the Manchuria dynasty and the establishment of the republic.

Favors Primary for Postmaster.

Editor Sentinel.

Having noticed your article in Feb. 27th issue of the paper in regard to the holding of a primary for the selection of a Post Master for this place, wish to say that I am in favor of that kind of a proposition.

It has been quite a number of years since the patrons of the Nacogdoches office have had a Democrat to handle their mail, and now since the Democratic party has come into its own it seems to me the patrons of this office, should have the right to say who they want for their Post Master.

It seems to have been the custom in the past for the Congressmen of the various districts to name the Post Masters in their districts, and I think that this custom could only be defended for two reasons, namely:

1st. That the appointive power in regard to Postmasterships being lodged in the President of the United States it is in the nature of things that he would, and could not know the merits of applicants, and would have to rely upon the recommendation of some one, and that the various Congressmen being more or less familiar with the people of the various districts, and also in close touch with the National Government the President relies upon his judgment.

2nd. That this appointive power could, and likely is, used by the party to build up a powerful political machine.

We know that this power has been used in the past, especially, for the purpose last named, and combinations, either political or commercial being antagonistic to Democratic principles it seems to me that this great power should not be used for this purpose by a Democratic administration. The chief slogan, and in fact the bulwark of civil liberty, is in these words, "LET THE PEOPLE RULE;" I believe that the people should be given great latitude in the selection of the men they must be served by, and for this reason I am in favor of the proposition of a primary wherein the patrons of this office can nominate the man whom they would have for their Postmaster for the next four years.

I would be glad to hear, through your columns, from the other applicants for the place, also from the patrons of the office. Oscar Murphey.

Hard Times. These.

Yes, these are hard times. We throw away ashes and buy soap. We raise dogs and buy hogs. We grow weeds and buy vegetables. We catch fish from a $4 rod. We build schools and send our children away to be educated. And we send our boys out with a $40 gun and a $20 dog to hunt ten cent game. Yes, these are hard times but whose fault is it? Don't place all the blame on the presidents and the trusts.—Ex.

There's one thing that may be said in favor a lazy man—he never meets trouble half way.

Doughnuts

That will remain moist.

Every housewife who bakes her own bread knows that if a little potato is added to the sponge, the bread will not dry out so quickly. In this recipe potato is used to make doughnuts that will remain moist and fresh for several days.

K C will be found to have distinct advantages over any other Baking Powder for doughnuts. K C is a double acting baking powder with which a large batch of doughnuts may be mixed and fried a few at a time. The last will be as light and nice as the first.

K C Potato Doughnuts

By Mrs. Nevada Briggs, of Baking School fame.

3/4 cups flour; 2 eggs; 1 cup sugar; 4 level teaspoonfuls K C Baking Powder; 1/2 teaspoonful salt; 1/2 teaspoonful spice; 1 cup cold mashed potato; 1/2 cup milk, or more if needed.

Sift three times, the flour, salt, spice and baking powder. Beat eggs with rotary beater, then still using rotary beater, gradually add sugar, then work in the mashed potato with a spoon and alternately add milk and flour mixture. Make a soft dough, roll into a sheet, cut into rounds, pinch a hole in the center with the finger and fry in deep-fat.

Fat for frying should not be hot enough to brown the doughnut until it has risen. When the doughnut is dropped into the fat it sinks to the bottom. As soon as it comes up it should be turned and turned a number of times while cooking. This recipe is excellent as they do not take the fat in frying and will stay moist for days.

For some time past Commissioner Muckelroy has been complaining to the T. & N. O. railroad officials with reference to the overhead bridge on the Caro road just beyond Banita junction. It seems that the piling on which the bridge rests is driven too close and almost in the middle of the dirt road, confining the wagon road to a very narrow path and rendering the proper drainage of the road impossible. This morning Mr. Muckelroy took the assistant superintendent of the T. & N. O. railroad out to this point so that he could inspect the bridge and determine for himself if it did not crowd the county road. After looking over the situation the railroad official agreed with Mr. Muckelroy, and assured him that he would have the matter attended to at once and the piling set back to allow sufficient passage room.

The Railroad Commission has instructed the Attorney General's Department to file suit against the Timpson and Northwestern Railway Company for penalties aggregating $179,000 for failure to file with the commission monthly reports of earnings, operating expenses and statistics. For the information of our readers, many of whom are interested, and that there may be no confusion in names, we will state the Timpson and Northwestern has no connection with the Timpson and Henderson Railway.—Rusk County News.

There are no new developments concerning the young man, Parsons, supposed to have been blown up in the explosion of Sunday night. Parts of him which have been round are not sworn to, and a report from the medical department at Galveston is awaited with interest. The clearing of the wreck is still going on and carloads of the plunder will be hauled away.—Lufkin News.

Sell 1000 Acres of Land for $70,000.

Peters Bros., who own a feed store at 309 Louisiana street, made a sale of potato land in Brazoria County Wednes. Charles P. Wallace of Houston, but formerly of Missouri, was the purchaser. The consideration was $70,000. This is the highest price ever paid for land in that section.

The land is situated in the Oyster Creek district. It is four and one-half miles from Sandy Point and 30 miles Houston. It was brought by Peters Bros. there years ago for $85 an acre. Since that time it has been yielding a large profit on early potatoes: At one time the potatoes from this land brought the highest price of any potatoes in the state.

Land in that section is rapidly advancing in price. It yields practically 100 bushels of potatoes per acre at a season when the highest price can be commanded.

Not Paint.

With linseed oil at $1, what sort of oil do you think they use in "paint" at $1.75 and $1.50?

That stuff is counterfeit paint. You can cheat yourself; you can't cheat Time or Weather.

Counterfeit paint may look like it; counterfeit money looks like money.

What are all counterfeits for? They are all alike.

Has Moved to Memphis, Texas.

Prof. D. A. Leak, who has been at the head of Tenaha Academy the past several years, where he built up a great educational institution, with his family moved to Memphis, Texas, last week where he has accepted the pastorate of the Christian church.

As an educator and minister Prof. Leak has but few equals and no superiors in Texas, and East Texas has suffered a great loss in his removal.—Garrison News.

Wyman Windom of Needmore, Texas, was a business visitor in the city today.

Tornado Near Douglass.

County Attorney Moss Adams went out to Douglass yesterday to attend the justice court there. He was accompanied on the trip by Dr. W. W. Hall and Dave Eason.

Mr. Adams says that the cyclone or tornado which visited that section on Thursday of last week was the worst possibly, that has ever visited the section, and that thousands of dollars of damage was done to the timber in the path of the wind. Mr. Lipstate of Tyler, was the loser, as the track of the wind was through his timber holdings.

According to Mr. Adams observation, the wind came from the south-west and was traveling north-east, and in its wake heavy timber, as fine pine as can be found in the country was laid low, in some places obstructing the roads. It seems that the wind jumped from one place to another as at one point for a considerable distance the timber would be all blown down or twisted, and then for some distance no damage was noticeable.

The wind passed about 3 miles this side of Douglass and went through what is known as the pine belt.

One of Oldest Papers is Sold.

Huntsville, Texas, March 7.—A transaction of much interest and historic import was effected yesterday when the Post-Item was purchased by Hubert Davis and A. R. Bowen from J. A. Palmer, this being only the third ownership in 63 years.

In 1850 George Robinson, father of George and Fred Robinson of the Waco Times-Herald, established the paper. In 1891 A. J. Palmer became the owner and continued issuing the paper until yesterday.

Davis & Bowen will install a new up-to-date system of operation, and the oldest paper in the county will begin a new and prosperous era with many good wishes for its success.

His 65th Birthday.

The Sentinel man in conversation with D. Rulfs this morning on the streets learned that today 65 years ago he first saw the light of day, at the old homestead in Germany.

Thirty-three years ago he came to Nacogdoches county and settled in the country a few miles from town where he lived about one year and then moved to the town, where he has lived ever since. Mr. Rulfs says that when he came here there was not much of Nacogdoches, and no railroad at all, so he could not get away. Now he is very glad that he didn't move away, for this is about the best town there is anyway.

Wilson Strong For Publicity.

Washington, March 7.—When the cabinet meeting broke up Wilson let it be known through Secretary Daniels of the navy that he proposed as far as possible to pursue a policy of publicity regarding what takes place around the cabinet table. Today's meetings, it was stated, took up the work of organization where yesterday's left off. It is the plan to make public in a formal way at the end of each session hereafter what has been disposed of.

Russell, requesting that the Sentinel make affidavit to the publication of the notice given of the intention to introduce a bill in the legislature valedating the titles on the Moro grant of land in the south eastern part of this county, which notice was published in the Sentinel. Mr. Russel advises that the bill has been reported favorably from committee and is up to the House for a vote, and when the vote is taken he should have the affidavit showing that notice had been published.

A HEAVY BURDEN.

A Bad Back Makes Life Miserable for Many Nacogdoches People.

A bad back is a heavy burden. A burden at night when bedtime comes.

Just as bothersome in the morning.

Ever try Doan's Kidney Pills for it?

Know they are for kidney backache—and for other kidney ill? If you don't some Nacogdoches people do.

Read a case of it:

Mrs. H. Morris, 221 Taylor Ave., Nacogdoches, Texas, says: "I was bothered greatly by pains across the small of my back. My back ached at night and in the morning, I was stiff and lame. I tired easily and felt languid. Doan's Kidney Pills were so highly recommended that I got a box at Mast Bros. & Smith's Drug Store now (Swift Bros. & Smith Drug Store) and by using them was cured."

James D. Greer is about the busiest man in the county these days. He is called from every section and community by farmers who wish instruction and assistance along the lines of progressive farming. Jim says that he is worked almost to the point of collapse, still he is very much pleased with the interest the farmers are taking, and is exceptionally proud of the clubs of young farmers who are seeking instruction along modern lines of farming. He has a boys corn club in this county that he believes will out number that of any other east Texas county, and one, too, that he expects will make all the other county corn clubs sit up and take notice.

TWO WOMEN SAVED FROM OPERATIONS

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Their Own Stories Here Told.

Beatrice, Neb.—"Just after my marriage my left side began to pain me and the pain got so severe at times that I suffered terribly with it. I visited three doctors and each one wanted to operate on me but I would not consent to an operation. I heard of the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was doing for others and I used several bottles of it with the result that I haven't been bothered with my side since then. I am in good health and I have two little girls."—Mrs. R. B. CHILD, Beatrice, Neb.

The Other Case.

Cary, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work, and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation, but my husband thought I had better write to you and I did so, stating my symptoms. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Cary, Maine.

HALTOM & HALTOM, Proprietors.
GILES M. HALTOM, Manager.

The postmastership of Nacogoches is still a very interesting topic with the applicants for the position.

The rain of Saturday night and Sunday furnishes a splendid argument for the 15 cent road tax. Just such rains as this are what puts the roads out of commission, and if they are not properly cared for they will soon be of no value as compared with well kept roads, and sufficient funds are absolutely necessary.

From all reports it now seems that some of the farmers who were so very much opposed to the 15 cent road improvement tax are not so very bitter as at first. They are beginning to see that it is not an effort to injure them on the part of the promoters, but on the contrary is for the betterment of road conditions, and that they will be equally benefited. The expense is not so enormous that it will break anybody.

ANOTHER communication was received in this office this week with no name sign on it, so into the waste basket it went. It may be that some time in the future our friends will understand that our rule is, "The Writer's Name Must Accompany the Communication." We do not publish the names, but we must know who is the contributor. Sorry "Ginger Snap" and "Sunday School Kid" will not see their letters in print.

The reason the split log drag is not popular is that it costs so little to make, does good work and anyone can make a good one. If they could be patented and sold at an extortionate price, agents could be sent over the country introducing them and demonstrating their value. Cut out the graft and there is no incentive for the promoter.

The city primary in Houston last Friday in which Campbell was victorious by an overwhelming majority, and in which the entire Campbell ticket was selected, demonstrates the fact that the people of Houston are tired of the present city administration and want a new deal. The Campbell victory may be attributed to the Houston Press or the Houston Chronicle, both of which papers were active in his support, but the fact remains that the present city administration is "In Bad" with the people and they are good and tired of it.

A farmer near our town recently hired a man to help him do chores. One morning he told him to take some salt and salt a calf out in the pasture. The boy took a quart of salt with him and thoroughly rubbed it all over the calf, working it into the hair. A gang of colts in the pasture scented the salt and got after the calf. They licked all the hair off the calf and nearly took the hide off too.—Ex.

A sentence which we ran across in a county newspaper the other day appealed to us as strongly as any sentence we have read lately. "I am a believer in progressive ideas," wrote a correspondent of this county paper, "if it doesn't cost anything." There is, "in a nutshell," as he said, the reason why so many people are "deadset" against any movement for the advancement of their neighborhood, and why they become mere obstacles in the path of progress. They do not mind the progress, but they want it without paying for it. So, of course, they don't get it. The world doesn't work that way. Progress, like every other good thing, costs something—both in money and effort. The man who is too stingy to pay his share or too lazy to do his part isn't going to help a bit in any good work, and it is sheer impudence for such a person to call himself progressive.—Progressive Farmer.

McKamy has introduced his social club bill, which provides for the organization for bonafide purposes of social intercourse or for the promotion of some lawful purpose as literature, arts, science, etc, preventing the dispensing of liquor in dry territory and validating the charters of all clubs now existing and conforming to these provisions.

Senator Vaughan's liquor bill was passed to engrossment in the Senate, by a vote of 19 to 8. It requires all wholesale and retail liquor dealers to submit an annual report to the Controller, showing ownership of the concern; all political combinations; and fixing the venue of suit in Travis county or in the home county of the violating concern, at the option of the Attorney-General.

The fifty-four hour working law for women has been so amended in the Senate, as to be unrecognizable. It exempts cotton, mills, stenographers, telephone girls and laundries. If passed in its present form, the only female employees who will be affected by its provisions are those employed by department stores.

Young Vincent Astor has announced that he will devote much time and money to agricultural experimentation in the hope that he may be of some help to the American farmers. Being one of which, we herewith send Vince word that we are already long on agricultural bulletins, have all of this kind of help we need, but are distressingly short of "long green" fertilizer, for a few sacks of which we will forever call his name blessed.—Rusk County News.

Wilson and Fate.

Is there a happy augury in the fate that sent Woodrow Wilson to the presidential chair? Signs at least are most favorable.

From time immemorial the seventh son has been considered the first born of Fate—the child at whose cradle all the fairies presided, whose future was to be strewn with roses. Second sight to guide him was his rightful heritage.

In the general, since the Lord rested upon the seventh day, "seven" has been considered a "lucky number." Always and everywhere it has been looked upon as a good omen, a harbinger of happiness and an antidote for ill fortune of all sorts.

Even those who are superstitiously inclined now may pause a moment to wonder if Thomas Woodrow Wilson, his party's favorite son, will assume office under a benign star, because he is the seventh Democrat to take up his abode at the White House.—Brenham Banner.

People of China Change Their Dress.

The centuries-old style in clothing, both men and women of China have come under the disapproval of the Cabinet of the Republic, and an edict has been issued calling upon the women to abandon their trousers for the occidental skirt and the men to give up their comfortable clothes for the sack business and the conventional evening clothes of the Caucasian. A copy of the edict has been received by Young Lee, consul at San Francisco for the Chinese republic, together with pictures of clothing prescribed for both sexes. The Chinese papers in Frisco printed the edict and illustrations.

The business derby and the formal silk hats are the only two mentioned for men. Nothing is said of head gear for the women, who, aside from hair ornaments, have never worn head coverings. Men are allowed high calf skin and low tan shoes, while the women are limited to high shoes to suit their taste. Besides shoes, only three articles of dress are prescribed for women. One, a loose fitting garment on the lines of a kimono is for house wear. An extremely conventional pleated skirt and shirt waist evidently are supposed to complete her wardrobe. At the express wish of the president the edict, which was received several days before, was held until New Year's for publication.—Ex.

President Wilson intimates very strongly that he has other matters to attend to aside from shaking the political plum tree. President Wilson is starting out just as if he intends to make a good chief executive, but if the signs of the times are read right within a few months he will be a very unpopular man with many of those who only recently applauded his every word.—Dallas Time Herald.

Postmaster General Burleson's great-grandfather was a friend of Andrew Jackson, the man who coined the phrase "to the victors belong the spoils."—Waco Times Herald.

Our Oil Field.

The Nacogoches oil field is principally in the Eastern part of the county. Shallow wells at Oil City and at what is known as Sawyer property and at Chireno have been producing for years. The surface and shallow well indications at these places and other places adjacent are superior to the indications of any other oil field in the Southwest.

The oil field is on a line drawn from Spindle Top to the Glenn Pool district of Oklahoma and on a line drawn from Humble, Texas to the oil field of Caddo Parish, La., and it is not probable that Nature has played us a trick and left no deep oil here.

One operator near Chireno says that his well, now over two hundred feet deep, produces a hundred barrels a day if the water could be controlled. His purpose is to go deeper and strike the abundant flow of oil and gas found in Southeast Texas, Oklahoma and in Louisiana.

The oil wells in Southeast Texas have a depth of about 1000 to 1200 feet and in Oklahoma from 1400 to 1700 feet. The deep oil in Nacogoches county lies probably at a depth of 1200 to 1500 feet, but as "in mining no rule is binding and the unusual oft occurs."

It is unfortunate that most of the field has been punctured with only shallow wells and abandoned as soon as the first oil appeared. Scattered from the Anglina to the Attoyac are nearly a hundred of these shallow wells containing oil and gas. Some day some one will bore to the right depth in the right place and Nacogoches, the oldest field in Texas as an oil producer, will also be known as the greatest, if indications indicate anything.

Deep wells are soon to be put down and it is hoped that they will be as successful as what was intended to be the last test well of Col. Galbreath of Oklahoma, now a millionaire, who said that it had been bored 300 feet east a dry hole and an empty purse would have been his fortune and for a long time Glen Pool had been an unknown reservoir of wealth.

Thrift.

The art of getting riches consists very much in thrift. All men are not equally qualified for getting money, but it is in the power of every one alike to practice this virtue. He that would be beforehand in the world must be beforehand with his business. It is not only ill management, but it discovers a slothful disposition, to do that in the afternoon which should be done in the morning.—Benjamin Franklin.

THE impression seems to have gained currency in the county, or an effort has been made to create the impression among the farmers of the county, that part of the 15 cent road improvement tax which is to be voted on Saturday of this week, will if the election carries be spent on the roads and streets of the incorporated towns of the county. This impression is wrong, and we have so stated in the paper on several occasions. All money received by reason of the tax will be spent on the county roads, outside of the town and cities of the county. The incorporated towns of a county are supposed to care for their own streets and roads out of the city taxes levied in the towns and cities, and all road taxes of the county are spent on the county roads.

Watkins-Campbell.

On Sunday afternoon, March 9, 1913, at 1:00 o'clock at the home of the bride, occurred the marriage of two of our most popular young people, Mr. C. B. Watkins and Miss Beatrice Campbell. The wedding, though a very quiet affair, was one of the most beautiful ever witnessed by the writer.

The large parlor was crowded and many stood in the adjoining rooms and hall for a glimpse of the bridal party, and as that old and well known wedding March of Mendelssohn's was played by Miss Mamie Wilson, and sounded through the soft atmosphere, a solemn hush fell upon the people, as the bridal party slowly stepped to the music, the little ribbon girls coming first, next the attendants, then the little flower girl followed by the bride and groom, who took their position under a large bell of fragrant white flowers, where Rev. Lowe in a most impressive manner, joined the lives and hearts of the two for the cares and pleasures of life. As the newly made husband and wife passed from the parlor they took with them the best wishes of the people for a long and happy life. Immediately after the ceremony, the bride donned her beautiful traveling suit of gray and the couple left for Dallas, where they will attend "grand opera", and from there go to Ft. Worth for the stock show.

Miss Beatrice, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Campbell, has grown to womanhood in our midst and is worthy of the most fervent love and confidence; charming in grace and in manner, sweet in disposition, loving indeed.

Mr. Watkins is one of Douglass' up-to-date merchants, a very popular and highly respected young man.

The parlor was beautifully decorated, and all that loving hands could do was done to make this event memorable in the lives of all who witnessed the scene. The bride was dressed in pure white, a lovely creation of the dressmaker's art. She carried a beautiful shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley; this with the soft, fleecy white dress gave her an ethereal look that only enhanced her sweet girlish beauty. The bridesmaids were Miss Tessye Campbell, sister of the bride, and Miss Mattie King. Both wore soft net over pink mesaline and carried large bouquets of white carnations and ferns. The groom was attended by Dr. George Campbell and Mr. DeWitt Watkins. They, as well as the groom, were dressed in the conventional black. The flower girl was little Jewel Outlaw, the ribbon girls were Johnnie Outlaw and Jewel Davis all of whom were dressed in pure white.

The union of these two young people gives satisfaction to their numerous friends, and may their lives prove as happy as their friends wish, is a matter which rests with themselves and their God.

Emma Hightower Case Appealed.

In the district court last Friday attorneys for Emma Hightower, who was several days ago convicted on a charge of illegally pursuing the occupation of selling whiskey in prohibition territory and given a sentence of four years in the penitentiary, made application for a new trial. The court after hearing the application, refused to grant a new trial whereupon notice of appeal was given. The appeal bond was fixed in the sum of $2,000.00, this bond was made and filed yesterday and the defendant was released from jail pending the decision of the higher court.

Don't burn corn stalk in order to prepare the land. A farmer wrote to me today asking what would be the difference between turning under a heavy growth of dead peavines and cornstalks and burning them. In a heavy growth of peavines he will have organic nitrogen enough to be as valuable as a ton an acre of a fertilizer with 8 per cent ammonia and that would be worth $10 to $12 an acre. He would lose this in the burning, and would lose the humus-making material, and would have left only the potash and lime that were in the growth burned. In many places he would lose as much as an acre of the land would sell for.—W. F. Massey, in The Progressive Farmer.

Facts in Nature

FOR centuries it has been known that the most valuable health giving agents for the cure of disease are to be found in our American forests. Over forty years ago Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N.Y., used the powdered extracts as well as the liquid extracts of native medicinal plants, such as Bloodroot and Queen's root, Golden Seal and Stone root, cherry bark and Mandrake, for the cure of blood diseases. This prescription as put up in liquid form was called and has enjoyed a large sale for all these years in every drug store in the land. You can now obtain the powdered extract in sugar-coated tablet form of your medicine dealer, or send $5 in one-cent postage stamps for trial box to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N.Y., and tablets will be mailed, postage prepaid.

Printing 12,000 Stamps a Minute.

It is a fact not generally known that the United States has at Washington, D. C., one of the largest and best equipped printing plants in this or any other country. Uncle Sam may be safely said to hold the world's record as a printer—not in size of plant, number of employees and extent of output, but also in up-to-date scientific management, efficiency and economy.

An interesting example of what this sort of modern efficiency means is a machine which prints, gums and perforates 12,000 postage stamps a minute. Figuring on an eight hour day, this is a production of 5,760,000 two cent stamps, worth $115,200, as a day's work for the two operators required on the machine. The stamps are shot out—there is no other way to express it—at the rate of 70 feet a minute. This means over six miles of postage stamps a day.

The machine eliminates 19 separate operations required by the previous method of printing and has effected a saving of 57 per cent in cost. The whole apparatus, which is three feet wide, twenty-five feet long and seven feet high, is driven by a Crocker-Wheeler motor. One man and a girl are able to operate the entire machine and the perforating device connected with it. Mr. B. R. Stickney, mechanical expert of the United States Bureau of Printing and Engraving, is the inventor who developed the machine for the special use of the government printing plant.

Mrs. Wilson's Dress Scheme.

Washington, March 4.—Washington society leaders are extremely interested to know whether Mrs. Wilson, the new First Lady of the Land, will establish the record for being well dressed that Mrs. Taft enjoyed. It has been reported that Mrs. Wilson says she can dress on $1,000 a year. Notable leaders of capital society say it is more than they can do. The average allowance here is $5,000 while many use $10,000, and others go even higher.

A close friend of Mrs. Taft estimated the outfit needed for the First Lady of the Land as follows:

Ten evening gowns at $300 each, $3,000.

Four street suits each season at an average cost of $50, for four seasons, $800.

Two afternoon suits a season, average $100, four seasons, $800.

Three afternoon reception gowns at $75, $225.

Accessories, hats, gloves, etc., yearly, at least $1,500. Total $6,325.

BUILD THE ROAD.

A Public Highway From Here to Nacogdoches Is What is Needed

A Nacogdoches citizen, in the person of Thos. E. Baker, who addressed Mr. Wm. P. Humason in reply to an invitation to attend a show at the opera house here the other night, made some very salient remarks. Among other things, he said he would be glad to come, and that many of his people would be present, but he also suggested that if the Commissioners' Court of Angelina county would join the Commissioners' Court of Nacogdoches county in the building of a good road between the two places that more people could come more often from that town to this to any kind of an entertainment and return at their leisure in an automobile. He also stated that the cost would not be so much and that the two towns are of sufficient importance to assume more friendly social relations. He also stated that his county had already expended $2,500 on the road leading up to the Angelina river, and that it was now up to Angelina to do her part—and help build the bridge. He is anxious for this matter to be taken up by the proper parties, and the News thinks no better suggestion could have been offered. Furthermore, he says his town has no opera house, and if this road was completed, pleasure parties from there would visit here most every night, returning at hours suited to their pleasure.

There is much food for thought in this suggestion and while the News firmly believes that the commissioners would be most friendly to such a movement, still if it could not be satisfactorily arranged, the business men of the town should take the matter in hand and push it to fruition. It is one thing more needful than any other at this time, and the News will have more to say about it later.—Lufkin News.

To Co Operate With National Farmers.

Chicago, Ill., March 4.—Comprehensive plans to make the Farmers, National Congress into a real clearing-house for all movements and ideas for progress have been formulated by its executive committee, according to a recent announcement by John H. Kimball the president. Its next national session will take place September 28—26 at Plano, Illinois, and the number of delegates, according to all indications, will be larger than ever before.

The objects outlined by the new constitution, adopted by the congress in New Orleans, are to affiliate all societies for action along lines of broad country life questions; to aid in establishing State and local organizations devoted to country life; to secure co-operation among producers; to aid in general and vocational education of farmers, and to further the passage and execution of laws which will promote country life.

It is proposed to develop a national federation to which all farmers may belong and the co-operation of the Texas Farm Life Commission and the Farmers' Co-operative Union of Texas will be invited.

Taft's Travel Record.

Washington, March 7.—When President Taft retired from public life today he took with him a record for travel that will probably stand for some years. It is estimated that during the four years he has been President he has traveled about 125,000 miles, or five times the distance around the world at the equator.

He has used trains, motor cars and battleships in his touring and has been in every State in the Union except Oklahoma and North Dakota. He has made two trips to Panama, and these, together with his two long swings to the Pacific Coast and back, have helped considerably to increase the total mileage.

In addition Mr. Taft has made innumerable trips from Washington to New York and Chicago.

The Farm Life Commission of Texas is to undertake to afford the Texas farmers facilities for marketing all his crop at better prices and if the farmers of the state will organize as the rice farmers have done, it will mean millions of dollars saved to the farmers of the State.—Cisco Apert.

S. S. McKenney, State District President, No. 5.

Prof. H. A. Morgan, of the Tennessee Experiment station in a talk to farmers recently, gave a good example of the part of poor business farming the South has been guilty of for many years. We buy timothy hay from the North and pay from $20 to $25 a ton for it and sell these Northern farmers who produce the timothy hay our cottonseed meal at from $25 to $30 a ton. A ton of timothy hay contains about 20 pounds nitrogen, while a ton of cottonseed meal contains about 132 pounds of nitrogen. To say the least, this is not a fair trade to our land.—The Progressive Farmer.

Mrs. H. S. Radford and her daughter, Miss L. Radford, of Tallahassee, Fla., are visiting in the city and are guests of Mrs. Radford's daughter, Mrs. Geo. T. McNess, at the experimental farm.

$100 Reward, $100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh, being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, reaching directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Good Roads Meeting Last Night.

The good roads meeting last night at the court house was exceedingly interesting and instructive. It is to be regretted that more of our citizens did not attend and hear the good roads expert.

William H. Seed, who is connected with D. Ward King the good roads expert and inventor of the split log drag, was in the city and by request of the Young Men's Commercial club agreed to deliver a lecture at the court house, and the time for the lecture was fixed at 7:30 as Mr. Seed had to leave on the ten o'clock train. As it was however the crowd was slow in gathering, and some time was lost in waiting for a jury in the district court, who were being held over night, to come in and hear the lecture. Mr. Seed had to hurry through and did not give the subject as thorough treatment as he might have had his time not been limited.

Judge S. W. Blount introduced the speaker in a very brief speech, not wishing to take from the time the speaker would have before leaving for the train. Mr. Seed delivered one of the best good roads addresses we have heard, in that he treated the subject from a different stand point to which we have heard it discussed. He is a progressive, knows that this spirit is abroad in the land; wealthy and influential citizens in the north and east are looking out for a new field to get away from the crowded centers, but still they do not want to go to an isolated section, and a section where there are not good roads is isolated. He also touched on the cost of bad roads in wear and tear on teams and vehicles, to say nothing of the nerves of the people and the time lost.

After the address the speaker answered several questions put to him on the building of good roads.

Mark Twain's Views Upon Suffrage.

Mexico, Mo., March 11.—A copy of a newspaper published in this city on April 5, 1867, and taken from an old trunk yesterday, contains a letter written by Mark Twain on woman suffragists. It reads in part:

"I knew before the canvass was three days old it would be an established proposition that every woman in the state was 'no better than she ought to be.'"

"Think of the torchlight procession; think of curious legends on the the transparencies: 'Vote for Judge McKinnis, the incorruptible, for state milliner. Nine children.' 'Also in that day the man who hath beautiful whiskers shall beat the homely man of wisdom for governor and the youth who waltzes with exquisite grace shall be chief of police in preference to the man with energy.'"

Senator Collins wants a law enacted prohibiting newspaper contests where prizes are given to increase circulations. A great many newspaper publishers agree that voting contests are not ethical—they do not believe that the popularity of girls should be made a means of grace to newspaper circulations. The Vindicator is in this class and is therefore opposed to contests. We desire all the subscribers we can get, provided those who subscribe want the paper and feel that they get value received. This has always been our method and we have no cause of regret or reason to change.—Liberty Vindicator.

The management of the Houston Post claims it will begin next Sunday with the best comic section that has ever been put on by any Sunday paper in this section. There will be features for the young and old, and the conservative and jovials. Everybody will find something that will interest them.

THE pastors union of La-Cross, Wis., are endeavoring to place a ban on Sunday funerals, they are joined by the livery men and also by the undertakers. It is claimed that with so much other work to look after the pastor has no time to devote to Sunday funerals, the liverymen have all the business they can accommodate on Sunday without the funerals and the undertakers want a day of rest. Now if they can get the cooperation of the doctors the scheme may go through alright.

The statement of the Sentinel to the effect that the farmers of the county paid about 30 per cent of the taxes of the county, seems to have been questioned by some. The statement is based on the records of the tax collectors office, there is no other way to determine the matter. Our statement was that the farmers paid "about 30 per cent" of the taxes, exact figures may show that they do not pay even that much. Some hold that the farmers pay all the taxes. The farmer, it is true, produces the living for the whole world, in that he grows the feed stuffs, but it is not for the other industries that make a market for the farmers products, the farmer could never make a dollar. So it is seen that the real dollar that pays the taxes is not produced alone by the farmer; he must have the other industries to make him prosperous, and these other industries pay the larger part of the taxes.

Tuesday April 1, has been agreed upon as the date upon which the House will adjourn sine die. Night sessions have been inaugurated.
