BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. Jacob Rosenthal, a converted Jew, will preach at the Baptist church on Wednesday night, Dec. 3.

With Baird Baptist

Sunday was another good day with us. A right good attendance and one fine man joined the church.

Next Sunday we are inviting the people to come and worship with us. Let every one study the Sunday School lesson, Luke 19:1-10. A little man who was a big business man and who did the wisest thing and had the best visitors. The morning sermon will be taken from the 17th chapter of Matthew, read it and see if you can find the thought, then come to church and hear the sermon. Sunday evening sermon subject, "God's Two Creations Contracted." Text 2nd Cor. 5:17, "If any man be in Christ he is a new creature." I will be glad to have you come friend, and worship with us.

Let me urge the Juniors to all meet the leaders at the church each Sunday afternoon at 3:00 for their work.

Our workers meeting meets with the Baird church next Wednesday. A good program which you will find in this paper, has been prepared and that program in the afternoon. Mrs. Chambers, of China, will speak. Mrs. Chambers is one of our own girls, a graduate of Simmons. She was Miss Christine Coffee. Now I hope we will have a house full of people to hear her.

Come and now let's honor the Lord. Every one to his knitting.

EULA

Well, how is the Star force these days? We are all well out this way.

It has been sometime since you have heard from Patsie so we will try and write a few lines.

Winter will soon be here and it is to be hoped we are all in shape to go into winter quarters well.

We all have made short-crops this year, the cotton crop was awful short and the price was worse, so you can see most of us came out behind. Most all have made some good late feed, which is a great blessing and with the aid we received from the Red Cross, which furnished us with seed wheat, most of our farmers have nice wheat patches to graze stock on, which is a great help and a feed saver. With the good season we have now we can make a good crop with little rain.

This drouth has hurt us all, but we must not quit, we can and will come out again.

So much rain has made it hard on our roads in shape so we can travel over them. Commissioner Hammons and Judge Carpenter are sure taking good care of their roads. I was over near Oplin the other day and found the roads fresh dug and in fine shape.

I was in Abilene a few days ago and met Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Price, of Admiral, Mr. Price told me he made some good late corn. We would all be O. K. if we had corn. You know cornbread, buttermilk and turnip-greens are good enough for a farmer.

I spent a week in Baird, was one of the dirty dozen, as the crooks call us. I want to say that I have served on several grand juries but this was the finest bunch of men I have ever met. Mr. Williams and Mr. Jeff Clark, of Cross Plains, sure are fine boys and when I go to Cross Plains I sure will hunt them up. Baird also had three fine boys, Ode Berry, Benjie Russell and Howard Farmer and Mr. Atwood, of Oplin. Mr. Burt Tabor, of Rowden, Mr. Coffey, of Admiral, Mr. Perkins and Mr. Dblaney, of Clyde and Mr. Culwell, of Denton.

I want to thank the Baird Lions Club for the nice dinner we had with them.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Steen, of Clyde, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Kelton and Walter Miller, of Baird, spent last Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Stephenson.

Well, if this dont land in the waste basket, we will come again.

Note:—Sorry we were not in when you called at The Star office, Patsie, come again, we are always glad to see you—Eliza and Haynie Gilliland.

BAIRD BEARS WIN LAST GAMES OF SEASON

The "Bears" won their fifth game Friday by defeating Caddo by a score of 39-7.

This was a thrilling game all the way through with side stepping, broken field running, fancy stiff arming and a little of everything exciting. Caddo threatened to score several times but succeeded only once. McIntosh showed the Caddo players what a fast and hard hitting man looked like. Hickman did some won-in fact the best that had ever been done on the Baird field. The second string got to play a portion of the game. McIntosh and Hickman were the Baird stars, Estis and Hudman were the best players for Caddo. The Caddo team was one of the cleanest jolliest teams that the "Bears" have met this year.

Baird made eleven first downs and penetrated the 20 yd line six times, scoring six times and added three extra points. The Caddo boys made nine first downs and penetrated the 20 yd line three times scoring once.

Yesterday morning at 9:00 o'clock the Baird "Bears" met the Clyde "Bulldogs" on the Baird gridiron in the annual grudge game and won over the "Bulldogs" by a score of 25 to 0.

This was a fast game and straight foot-ball was played, there being little passing or punting. McIntosh Eastham and Hickman were the outstanding stars of the game, however, all the boys were "right."

There will be a play by play report of both games with a summary of the season's games in the next issue of the Star.

Married

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burks, who were married at Lovington, N. M., Sept. 29, 1930, after visiting relatives at Big Spring, Lamesa and Merkel, have returned to their home near Rowden.

Burks. He spent his school days at Burt Branch, Hillside, Rowden and a portion of a term in Baird High school with the '27 class, was a good student, an obedient son and has many friends at those places. We all wish for them many happy years of married life.

W. O. Wylie's undertakers who have charge of the funeral arrangements, inform us that the hour for the funeral will not be given until members of the family at a distance have been heard from, but that burial will be made in Ross cemetery, the

BAIRD LIONS TO HELP NEEDY OF COUNTY

At the last luncheon of the Baird Lions Club it was decided by unanimous vote that the Lions Club of Baird should do their share in helping the needy of Baird and Callahan County. They endorsed the activities of the Red Cross in Callahan County and Dr. R. G. Powell, sponsor of the Good Fellows Club. It was further agreed that instead of having the regular Thanksgiving Dinner, the secretary draw on each member for the Dinner but turn the proceeds over to Dr. R. G. Powell, sponsor of good fellows. It was decided by the Lions Club that they as a helpful organization for Baird and Callahan County sponsor a post season foot ball game or a play and the entire proceeds be given to the same Benevolent cause as the Thanksgiving Dinner proceeds.

The following committee was appointed to carry out these plans: Judge L. L. Blackburn, W. E. Melton, Bob Norrell and A. L. Johnson.

Texas and Texans

By WILL H. MAYES

"All Texans for all Texas"

Wanting Higher Wages

Some 3,500 longshoremen at Texas ports evidently were not afraid of unemployment, for they were on strike for an increase in wages from 65 to 80 cents an hour at a time when reports were that thousands of other laborers throughout the country could not find work at any price.

Want Senior College

The regents of the A. & M. College do not think Texas has enough institutions of higher education, for they are seeking to have John Tarleton College at Stephenville raised from a junior to a senior college.

Picking Up Nails

A magnetic nail sweeper operating eight miles out of Bryan along the state highway picked up 137 pounds of nails and other small pieces of steel. While that looks like a good record, autoists believe it can be beaten on the streets of almost any small town in the State.

What Do You Mean By Graft?

The Big Bend Sentinel, Marfa, says, "The days of graft are over. Soft jobs at big pay are things of the past." Evidently the Sentinel man hasn't been looking around where the political job holders stay.

New Court Houses

LaSalle and Liberty are among the counties that are going to have new courthouses from the sale of bonds recently voted. The courthouses built in Texas 40 or 50 years ago are not adapted to the business of today.

Glass Factory

Santa Anna has a right to be proud of the fact that it will soon have a $100,000 glass factory in operation, for it means that Santa Anna will have an industry that will be worth something to the entire citizenry of the town.

Practical Farm Relief

A Falfurrias bank is going in for farm relief in a good way by giving 40 packages of garden seed to all farmers, recommended by the farm agent, who will agree to plant late fall gardens in well prepared beds. the way of life

Use Texas Material

Much indignation has been expressed by various organizations because of the action of the Texas bar association in contracting for marble from out of Texas with which to erect a monument on the State Capitol grounds as a memorial to the early judges of the supreme court. There is now talk of legislation prohibiting erection of monuments or memorials on public grounds in Texas that are not built of Texas material on the theory that Texas marble and stone are as beautiful and as permanent as any to be found in the world and that the use of any other is a reflection on the resources of the State.

High-Powered Drives

The World War created a new profession—high-powered money drives. It has about gotten so that every time money is to be raised for any purpose professional drivers are engaged either at a high fee or a big commission. The driving professors are mostly from the North and East and have a mighty poor opinion of the ability of Texans to do anything without outside help. Bond elections, legislation, chamber of commerce subscriptions, community chest funds, church budgets, charities of all kinds—all things conceivable—are within the range of their activities for a fancy fee or a commission, running in some cases as high as 50 per cent of the amount raised.

The bill-footers are getting tired of this, some of them believing that Texans have enough liberality and intelligence to raise money among themselves for their needs. They are getting tired of being driven by outside whips, at least. In accepting the chairmanship of the committee to have Texas represented at the Chicago World's Fair in 1933, Mr. J. C. Kennedy made it plain that it was on condition that no professional drivers should be employed to raise funds. He deserves the thanks of all Texans for this stand.

Truck Acreage Increased

Success of truck growers in many parts of Texas is resulting in a largely increased acreage. In Jefferson county there will be 1,000 acres in truck this year against 200 acres last season. In other counties the increase is almost as great. There is evident danger of overplanting unless it is backed by good sales organization supplemented by ample canning facilities.

Find No Competition

The Texas Board of Control found

so little difference in prices bid for automobile tires as to indicate that in some magical way competition was eliminated so it turned down all bids and asked for new offers. There is little wonder that some Texans favor having the state manufacture products that the state departments and institutions require for their use.

Signs Of The Times

The best indication of the real condition of a country or a community is the advertising that is done. Measured by that standard most of this part of the world is fairly prosperous. An unusually large per cent of the advertising carried in publications of all kinds is of merchandise generally regarded as luxuries, such as automobiles and car supplies, radios, cigarettes, and what were once called "fancy groceries." Evidently the advertisers find that it pays to advertise these goods or they wouldn't keep it up. These people must have the money with which to buy them and must be buying them. All reports of statistical bureaus show this. Where local papers are not carrying a fair share of this "luxury" advertising for local merchants, there is something wrong with either the merchants, the town, or the local paper, and it is easy to make comparisons with other towns and locate the trouble. In 99 out of a 100 cases it will be found that the local merchants have been put to sleep by the hard-time-talk anaesthetic.

Spending Big Money

The Texas Highway Department, for the fiscal year ending August 31, spent $47,331,977, of which $32,950,357 was for construction, $12,158,553 for maintenance, the rest being for equipment and administration. This is a goodly sum of money to be administered by three men devoting only part time to their official labors. That it has been so well done at so light overhead expense is a credit to the board. Texas is making wonderful progress in road building and maintenance—about as much as should be expected of any state.

Texas Turkey Money

The San Antonio Express thinks that the turkey crop that will be marketed this season in the "San Antonio territory" whatever that is, will reach a total valuation of $3,000,000. If the Express is correct, and too much territory is not claimed for San Antonio, the total Texas turkey crop will be not less than $10,000,000, possibly $15,000,000. Marketing the turkeys is a great help toward solving the unemployment situation.

Vagrancy A Menace

Most of the burglaries and hijacking is done by ex-convicts or vagrants, who prefer to take long chances rather than work. Every Texas town has its quota, some of them drifters from other states. They have become a menace. A traveling salesman recently reported that he was held up three times one night while making a trip of 60 miles on a well-travelled highway.

Abilene is using a good policy that could be made widely effective if adopted by all other Texas towns. It puts all vagrants to work and keeps them at hard labor until they are glad to agree to leave the town and stay away.

Too Much Energy

Beavers have become too industrious in Presidio county. They have destroyed cottonwood trees, built a dam on the Rio Grande and have stopped irrigation ditches with fallen trees. The Department of Agriculture will have trapping done to stop damages by these energetic dam builders.

In Guadalupe county much complaint is made that the deer are coming down from the hill country and destroying green vegetation, in some cases ruining overnight a farmer's labor of many weeks.

How Much Unemployment?

Those who should know claim that Texas is able, with all the work under way, to handle its own unemployment situation, provided the unemployed from other States do not come here to spend the winter. The winter months always bring thousands of hoboes and hitch-hikers to Texas seeking a warm climate but not wanting work. They are listed among the "unemployed," but no power short of the law can make them work.

Laborers, like most other human beings, are inclined to think the opportunities for good wages are better elsewhere than at home, and flock in numbers to places where public work of any kind is under way, only to find preference given to local workers. This has given rise to much talk about unemployment. Most Texas communities are able to employ all home laborers, but they should not be expected to care for drifters, whose numbers are constantly increasing.

The Tungsten filament in the electric lamp is sometimes so fine that it takes 16 of them to equal in size the average human hair.

Old documents recently discovered in Genoa, Italy, indicate that the total cost of the discovery of America was only about equivalent of $6,000.
Columbus got $270 for the job, while his two other captains received $150 each and the pay of a sailor was about $2 a month.

France has seven major railroad systems—two of them owned by the government and five privately owned.
In 1929 the two politically owned systems showed a deficit of 218 million francs. In the same period the five privately owned lines made a profit of 521 million francs.

More Texas towns are getting new hotels—The McKinney is a new 125 room hotel projected at Beeville.
Grand Saline is to have a $25,000 hotel and several tourists cottages operated in connection with it. Spearman is to have a 40-room hotel. Work is under way on a $28,000 hotel at Jaytown.

Patriotism

With control of Congress equally divided as between Republicans and Democrats, there is something both novel and refreshing in the offer of seven Democratic leaders to co-operate with President Hoover and the Republican party in every legislative effort to relieve economic conditions and restore prosperity.

This seems to us to be a symbol of a new era in American party politics. The Democrats reserve their right to take sharp issue with Administration and with Republican legislators on all matters which are part of their party's program. But on subjects which are not partisan in their nature they promise what amount to a coalition government.

There are hundreds of such questions to be decided by every session of Congress. It has been the custom in the past for the party whose representatives does not occupy the White House to oppose everything which the Administration wants, regardless of its merits. In the past this has resulted in delay and sometimes the complete failure of programs which would have benefitted everybody, merely because their sponsors were of a different political faith. Legislation has been partisan rather than business-like.

We hope both parties will prove their patriotism by living up to the promises which the Democrats have made and the Republicans have accepted.

To Exhibit Pottery

assembled by the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and sent on circuit of exhibits throughout the United States.

The Wednesday Club is sponsoring this exhibit and some of its members will be hostesses each afternoon. An interesting feature will be a talk on pottery each afternoon at 3:30 o'clock
by Mrs. V. E. Hill.

hibit.

ceived to help defray expenses.

TELEVISION

Ten years ago the election of President Harding was one of the first attempts at radio broadcasting. Nobody could buy a radio receiving set in 1920, because there were none on the market. Only amateur electricians who made their own sets could get anything "on the air."

Television is in the same stage today as broadcasting was in 1920. The Chicago Daily News broadcasts pictures of election charts on the night of November 4. Only those could pick them out of the air who had built television receiving apparatus. There are no television receivers for sale. But there are thousands of eager amateurs experimenting in television in 1930, just as there were thousands experimenting in ordinary radio reception in 1920. And in another ten years everybody may be able to stay at home and see pictures of events as they happen, by means of some sort of receiving device not yet invented.

A charitable-inclined association of apple growers sent several carloads of apples to NNew York City, to be given to the unemployed. Some 1,500 men began peddling apples at a nickle apiece, and in the first week took in about $12,000, or about $8 each. This did not do them any good or relieve the unemployment situation. It was charity and beggary, only slightly disguised.

On the other hand, the agreement by a group of citizens to finance a general cleaning up of parks, vacant lots and unsightly rubbish heaps, actually provided work for some thousands of unemployed. Any relief measure which does not require the recipient to work for what he gets is foolishly sentimental and dangerous. Once the average person finds he can get something for nothing, he loses his taste for giving the equivalent in work for every dollar he receives.

PROHIBITION

The election on November 4 was decided a "wet" victory in many of the principal cities.

There is no question that millions of people who have heretofore always voted "dry" and who are in favor of prohibition in principle, have become disgusted with the prohibition law and of El Captain mountain, the highest its enforcement as it stands, and wants a change.

I personally know many ladies who have been ardent "dry" workers who voted for "wet" candidates for Congress on no other ground.

I have no solution to offer for the liquor problem. The control of traffic in "hard liquor" is a problem with which every civilized government in the world is wrestling.

TREES

The Forest Service is out with its annual warning against depleting the forests by cutting too many young spruce, fir and pines for Christmas trees. Where they grow thickly it is good forestry practice to thin them out, but so many farmers will clear off an entire hillside top for the sake of sending their trees to a cash market.

This is not likely to be a good year in the Christmas-tree market, and farmers are warned not to begin cutting until they have made all arrangements for the sale of Christmas trees to responsible buyers.

I like the custom which prevails in the South, of decorating living trees at Christmas time. I have seldom seen anything more beautiful than Riverside Avenue in Jacksonville with the trees blazing with colored lights. It is much more sensible than the habit of denuding our forest areas for a sentimental practice.

CONGRESS

As I write, the Democratic party seems to have won practical control of both houses of Congress. President Hoover will not be the first president with a Congress of the other party on his hands.

Constructive legislation will not necessarily be held up by reason of that fact. Partisan measures undoubtedly will be blocked, and much political capital will be made by both parties out of the failure of the Democrats to approve the President's policies on the one hand, and the refusal of the President to approve Congressional action, on the other hand.

In South America or Europe, an election resulting as this one did would carry the head of the government out of office. The position of the President of the United States, serving for a fixed term, is almost unique. His office combines that of a king and a premier, with the security in office—for a time—that a king enjoys, and the party responsibility of a prime minister.

THE KING OF THE STALLIONS HAS FIRST ROPE AROUND NECK

The King of the stallions, the last of the wild horses in Western Texas, has a rope around his neck for the first time in his 15 years of life.

The giant bay, the only animal in the 120-section pasture of J. H. Tippett in Culberson county, at the foot of El Captain mountain, the highest peak in Texas, gave up this week after five cowboys had trailed him in relays for three days and three nights. Riding day and night, the cowboys finally got him.

The first time he was roped he bit the rope in two but the second time it looped around his neck he gave up only after a struggle that covered half the mountain side.

J. H. Tippett, owner of the ranch and of rich oil production in the Yates field, had chased the horse many times. The animal has teeth an inch and a half long.

Let Railroads Build

If only the authorities at Washington would loosen up in the matter of railroad building and allow all the roads in Texas to construct lines they are anxious to build, employment would be given at once to thousands of day laborers and hundreds of skilled laborers. It is a shameful condition that the development of a state like Texas is retarded by a board of any kind sitting in Washington and that capital is not allowed to invest in competitive public utilities of a kind to bring better and cheaper transportation.

Government owes a duty to the masses that is stronger than any obligation to protect monopolistic capital. "Turn Texas Loose" might be a good slogan for Texans to take up again.

Peanuts will likely prove Comanche's most profitable crop this year, according to The Comanche Chief.

NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

United States Contends at Geneva for Real Reduction of Armaments.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

DIRECT and genuine reduction of land and sea armament was proposed by the United States in the sessions of the preparatory disarmament commission in Geneva, the spokesman for this country being Ambassador Hugh Gibson. He was replying to Lord Robert Cecil's speech advocating limitation through budgetary curtailment, and said the United States could not accept this plan for two reasons:

First, because it is inoperative and cannot efficiently and accurately restrict the maintenance of war material;

Second, because the congress at Washington probably would refuse to give any such agreement, which, he infringes on its rights to make treaties for national defense.

British want the budgetary system applied to land forces but not to navies, and they are supported by the little entente and some of the nations. The American demand backed up by Germany, Japan, Russia, Scandinavia, Holland and Canada. Maxim Litvinov, Moscow's representative, insisted that a direct system of limitation of arms alone will give results. He went further and insisted on a dual method of limitation with the publication of complete tables of war material, and a graduated decrease in military budgetary expenditures.

N. Sato of Japan declared that the direct method of limiting fighting forces was too difficult to apply and was impossible to impose on all nations. He said: "I think that Japan's view is that we should be content to limit soldiers and not attempt to limit material by any method."

René Massigli of France complained that Mr. Gibson was too severe against the budgetary system, but admitted that some countries' military budgets do not reveal the exact amounts spent. He also voiced apprehension over subsidized armaments.

The French delegation then proposed that a committee of experts be named to examine both systems and report to the governments to give them time to make up their minds before the disarmament conference is held.

PRESIDENT HOOVER in an Armistice day address urged his listeners to work continuously for peace with the same zeal with which America's war dead waged war, but he said the time has not yet come when the United States can rest its defense solely upon the Kellogg pact and other peace machinery, and he also made it clear that the United States intends to keep free of political pacts that would bind it to the use of force to maintain peace.

"The purpose of our government," the President said in addressing an audience of 3,000 delegates attending the Good Will congress of the World Alliance for Friendship Through the Churches, "is to co-operate with others to use our friendly offices and, short of any implication of the use of force, to use every friendly effort and all good will to maintain the peace of the world."

General Pershing, Secretary of State Stimson and Secretary of War Hurley all made Armistice day talks in Washington, and all of them pleaded for adequate preparedness for national defense.

Secretary Hurley said that in event of another war "each farm and factory, each mill and mine, will be required to perform its duty to the country in support of the soldier who faces the enemy at the front. Never again shall one citizen be required to give his life in defense of his country while another is permitted to make unusual profit at his country's expense."

HOW American agriculture can be helped to establish itself on a firm economic basis was the main topic before the National Grange at its sixty-fourth annual convention in Rochester, N. Y. To this end six suggestions were put forward by National Master Louis J. Taber, these being:

1. Stabilization of values.
2. A higher price level for farm commodities.
3. More justly distributed system of taxation.
4. Extension of the federal farm loan system.
5. Readjustment of the nation's freight rate structure.
6. Restriction of immigration and conservation of natural resources.

Criticizing the speculation in grain on the Chicago Board of Trade, Mr. Taber said:

"As long as this present system remains with its violent price manipulations it is obvious that there must be a method of protection by hedging for the safeguarding of the buyer and processor, but when hedging and short selling take the form of speculation and gambling in the necessities of life, the public is injured."

"Unfortunately for the American farmer, our present marketing structure operates with no concern as to the price he receives. It is a sad commentary on our present boasted wheat marketing program, that during the recent period of agriculture's greatest depression, and the grain grower's consequent distress, the Chicago Board of Trade erected a $12,000,000 building, while the producer suffers near annihilation."

SEVEN national leaders of the Democratic party offered to co-operate with President Hoover and his administration in non-partisan efforts to stabilize business, promote business and otherwise improve the national welfare through legislation; and they gave assurance that the Democrats, victorious in the recent election, would not attempt for the present to change the tariff act passed last June.

On behalf of the administration and the Republicans in congress, Senator James E. Watson of Indiana, majority leader in the senate, accepted and welcomed the aid offered by the Democrats, saying the country is faced with a situation where the only patriotic solution lies in co-operative action.

It was learned at the White House that President Hoover will present to congress in December a large unemployment program which will include authorizations for new building projects that may exceed $100,000,000. He already had announced the administration would ask an emergency appropriation, which may reach $100,000,000, to finance an expansion of the government's public works construction program for the relief of unemployment. Removal of time limitations on projects now authorized will be asked, as will new legislation to remove limitations on certain industries that are handicapped in their desires to expand construction efforts.

That promise of co-operation made by the seven Democratic leaders was not well taken by Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, himself one of the most prominent Democrats, in so far as it affected the tariff. He asserted that "no group of Democrats, however distinguished or discerning, should feel obliged to pledge their party associates in congress not severely to disturb the most infamous tariff act ever enacted by a legislative body, lest the doing of this might upset the acquisitive activities of those who are thus licensed to prey upon the American consumers."

INDIA'S future status within the British empire is to be worked out, if possible, at the long awaited "round table conference" which opened in London. King George himself started the proceedings with a speech expressing his earnest desire that the problem be settled in the best interests of all his subjects, and Prime Minister MacDonald was then made chairman.

Seated around a great oval table were eighty-six persons including the princes of India, representatives of all classes and communities of British Indians and of the kingdom of Great Britain, and among them were two women delegates, the Begum Shah Nawaz and Mrs. Subbarayan. But there was no representative of the powerful Nationalist Congress party which is headed by Mahatma Gandhi, for it had boycotted the conference. The many millions of Nationalists demand complete independence for India, while the other Indians, present at the round table, all insist on full dominion status as a minimum. This the present British government is pledged to grant, and the task of the conference is to work out the multitudinous details.

MARSHAL CHANG, the young war lord of Manchuria who by his intervention ended the civil war in China, went to Nanking last week to confer with President Chiang Kai-shek on a program of reconstruction. The finance problem presents the greatest difficulty, for the Nanking government hopes to persuade the Manchurian faction to surrender the customs and salt gabelle revenues which Marshal Chang is cornering. Chang also is asking Nanking for $5,000,000 monthly for the upkeep of Manchurian troops within the great wall.

WET Republicans are demanding that Senator Simeon D. Fess of Ohio resign as chairman of the Republican national committee because he said that the party must remain dry or face a split and be defeated in 1932. The senator declares that this was merely his personal opinion, and that while he will continue to do all he can to combat efforts by the wets to weaken prohibition, he may be ready to support any recommendations made by the Wickersham commission that would tend to make prohibition more enforceable. He more than intimates he will not give up the chairmanship, but there are those who believe he will soon be forced out and that Robert H. Lucas will succeed him and conduct the next Presidential campaign.

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, says that if the Republican party's platform in 1932 does not call for repeal of the Eighteenth amendment "there will come in the following November the biggest political smash-up that has taken place in the history of any American now living."

As a matter of fact, the leaders of both parties are greatly concerned over the problem of adjusting their platform on the liquor issue so as to retain their respective strengths.

The Wickersham commission, trying to get together on a report concerning prohibition enforcement, continued its hearings and deliberations until Thursday and then adjourned until November 24. Among the witnesses it heard were Dr. William C. Woodward of Chicago, legislative counsel for the American Medical association, and Dr. William M. Mayer of Pittsburgh, Pa. Both doctors were understood to have told the commission that they felt the present dry law provisions are obnoxious to their profession generally and a burdensome interference with the practice of reputable physicians.

GEN. TASKER H. BLISS, who was chief of staff of the United States army during the World War, American representative on the supreme war council and one of the American peace commissioners in 1918, died in Walter Reed hospital, Washington, at the age of seventy-six years. He was buried in Arlington with full military honors.

Thomas Coleman du Pont, former senator from Delaware, financier and for years head of E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., passed away at his home in Wilmington, Del. Other notables who died included Dr. Julia Holmes Smith of Chicago, pioneer suffragist and philanthropist; John Lee Mahin, noted advertising man; Sidney M. Colgate, soap magnate, and F. M. Hubbell of Des Moines, reputed to be Iowa's wealthiest citizen.

THREE landslides in rapid succession, caused by heavy rains, buried part of Fourvieres, a densely populated industrial suburb of Lyon, France. Scores were buried alive and it was thought the death list might run as high as one hundred. Members of rescue parties that began work after the first landslide were among the victims of the later ones.

PREMIER Yuko Hamaguchi of Japan was mortally wounded in a Tokyo railway station by a young member of a reactionary patriotic society. He was shot in the abdomen. The premier, known as the "Lion of Japan," was considered a financial genius and was popular.

STRANGE CASE OF LUBBOCK MAN SPEAKS FOR CRAZY WATER

Thought To Be Hopeless Yet He Lived to Tell His Story

Three weeks ago today, I came to the Crazy Water Hotel on a stretcher from the city of Lubbock, Texas, with what the doctors called Typhoid Spine, and they told me that there was no medicine that would cure me. I started drinking Crazy Water and taking the baths, and on the 12th day after arriving, I took to the wheel chair and on the 17th day I started walking on crutches and can now walk without them, so I feel if Crazy Water will do that for me I cannot say enough for it.

I. F. Holland, Lubbock, Texas.

The new million dollar Crazy Water Hotel at Mineral Wells, Texas, covers an entire block of ground. It is modern, fire-proof and complete in every detail. WHAT DR. CALDWELL
LEARNED IN 47
YEARS PRACTICE

A physician watched the results of constipation for 47 years, and believed that no matter how careful people are of their health, diet and exercise, constipation will occur from time to time. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. Dr. Caldwell always was in favor of getting as close to nature as possible, hence his remedy for constipation, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It can not harm the system and is not habit forming. Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it.

Dr. Caldwell did not approve of drastic physics and purges. He did not believe they were good for anybody's system. In a practice of 47 years he never saw any reason for their use when Syrup Pepsin will empty the bowels just as promptly.

Do not let a day go by without a bowel movement. Do not sit and hope, but go to the nearest druggist and get one of the generous bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, or write "Syrup Pepsin," Dept. BB, Monticello, Illinois, for free trial bottle.

SORE BLEEDING GUMS

Only one bottle Leto's Pyorrhoea Remedy is needed to convince anyone. No matter how bad your case, get a bottle, use as directed, and if you are not satisfied druggists will return your money.—Wheeler's.

Pity the Company

Misery loves company, as the old saying goes, but it is terribly hard on the company.—Rushville Republican.

PICTURE EVER PRODUCED

The expert hand of Raoul Walsh, the man who made entertainment history with his "What Price Glory" and "The Cock Eyed World" is always apparent as this glorious epic of American history unfolds like a mighty dream of this master craftsman.

Walsh's superb skill is the biggest reason why "The Big Trail" is the most important picture ever produced.
