Spectacular Goodwill-- Trip Planned By Midland Rotarians Wednesday

Probably the most spectacular goodwill event to have been staged for weeks in the proposed Big Bend National Park will begin at 7 a. m. Wednesday when 25 Midland Rotarians and three or four invited notables leave here by bus on a two day excursion of the park site.

Meeting Dr. H. W. Morelock, chairman of the campaign wherein Texans would purchase the million acre site for a national park, and other citizens of that area, the Midland group will personally deliver a check for $53 to the fund, that being the gift of the Rotary club based on $1 per member.

Chief purpose of the trip is to attract nationwide attention to the park, or even international interest, through the spectacular endorsement by a Rotary organization.

Besides the Midland delegation there will be two Rotary district governors present. The fact that the park will be an international one eventually, according to plans of United States and Mexico, makes it even more worthy of Rotary endorsement, according to local club leaders. It is expected that the magazine, Rotary International will give publicity to the Midland club's expedition.

The Alpine Rotary group, headed by Dr. Morelock, who is president of Sul Ross State Teachers College, will meet the bus at Marathon where lunch will be taken Wednesday. In the afternoon the group will proceed into the park area, driving over roads which have been constructed by CCC workers and inspecting beauty spots of the site.

At night, the group will be accommodated at the CCC camp, in the Chisos mountains near Terlingua. Thursday, until well into the afternoon, will be devoted to trips within the park. The party then will go to Alpine for a 6 p. m. dinner or banquet with the Alpine Rotary club.

Fred Wemple, immediate past governor of this Rotary district, has been invited by Dr. Morelock to act as master of ceremonies, the Midland club presenting the program. Greetings will be given by Governor J. Edd McLaughlin, Ralls, of the 127th Rotary district, who has been invited to accompany the Midland party. A response will be given by Governor John W. Chapman, Santa Fe, of the Rotary district.

President Fritz E. Weyerts of the Alpine Rotary club will give the address of welcome, with response by President A. O. Thomas of the Midland club. Dr. Morelock will make a brief talk on "The Big Bend Country."

W. Ily Pratt, secretary and past president of the Midland club, will give the principal address, on "Fostering Rotary's International Objectives."

"Observations" also are scheduled by Mayor M. C. Ulmer of Midland, invited guest of the local excursionists; Marion Floyd, president of the Midland chamber of commerce; Bill Collyns, manager of the Midland chamber; Judge Ed M. Whitaker, president of the Midland Lions club; and T. Paul Barron, publisher of the Midland Reporter-Telegram.

The Midland party will leave Alpine Thursday at 8 p. m. for the return trip here.

The following Rotarians had signed up for the trip Saturday: Fred J. Middleton, Percy J. Mims, T. Paul Barron, Elliot H. Barron, Fred Wemple, W. A. Yeager, A. O. Thomas, John P. Howe, Cotter Hiett, Geo. T. Abell, M. H. Crawford, Dr. K. F. Campbell, J. L. Tidwell, Addison Wadley, Lester L. Grant, W. R. Upham, Barney Greathouse, Lloyd Mackey, W. B. Simpson, Roy R. McKee, W. I. Pratt, W. Clinton Lackey.

Guests invited by the club's board of directors included Mayor Ulmer, Lions President Whitaker, District Governor McLaughlin and Chapman, Mayor Bill Collyns of the chamber of commerce.

A 33-passenger Greyhound bus, with driver provided by the company, will transport the Midland delegation. Addison Wadley is grand marshal of the excursion.

Opens Revival Here Today

Dr. Scarborough To Open Baptist Revival Today

Invitation to all citizens of Midland and surrounding territory has been extended by officials of the First Baptist church to attend the eight day revival meeting which opens this morning with Dr. L. R. Scarborough, president of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary of Fort Worth, preaching.

Services today will be at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., with those of each day during the week scheduled for 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Special quartet music will be a feature of the revival, with Chas. Murph, Baptist choir director, joined by three others members of the Seminary Quartet. The Forrester brothers and Mr. Barnett are the three who have come here from the Seminary. Mr. Murph recently left the Seminary to accept the directorship of the choir here and to teach classes in voice. The quartet will sing at each service and Mr. Murph will lead the choir. Invitation to all singers of Midland to join in the services has been extended. The church's Hammond organ, grand piano and orchestra also will furnish special music.

Dr. Scarborough, brother of W. F. Scarborough of Midland, is well known here, having conducted several successful revival meetings over a thirty year period. He is world traveler, the author of many books and is one of the outstanding theologians of the nation. He recently preached throughout South America while on a goodwill mission there and was the honored guest of officials of several southern republics.

For the benefit of mothers with small children, a nursery will be conducted at both day and evening services, in the specially equipped rooms of the church basement. Mrs. C. G. Stanley will be in charge, assisted by various ladies and girls of the church.

Hope that the meeting will be a blessing to every Christian in the city, both to those in our church and to those of other churches, as well as to bring many additional souls to Christ was expressed by the Rev. Winston F. Borum, pastor of the local Baptist church, in extending an invitation to the general public to attend the services.

Dr. Scarborough could be present for only eight days, beginning today and continuing through next Sunday, it was announced.

CHASE MURPH

Officers Seeking Military Prisoners After Escape Made

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 2 (P).—Department of justice agents, state police and other officers joined today in a state-wide hunt for four military prisoners who escaped Fort Sam Houston after shooting a sentry.

Three of the fugitives held up C. W. Taylor, San Antonio, on the new Austin highway last night and escaped with his automobile after robbing him of $21.

A PROCLAMATION

KNOW ALL MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN That, WHEREAS the health, happiness, life and safety and general welfare of each citizen are dependent upon existing living conditions, and WHEREAS, the lives and property of our people are endangered by fire caused by rubbish accumulations in homes, offices, stores, factories, alleys and streets, and WHEREAS, a city is judged largely by its general appearance of cleanliness, freshness and beauty, and WHEREAS, fire to a very large degree is preventable by the proper application of education in fire prevention and fire protection: NOW, THEREFORE, I, M. C. ULMER, mayor of the city of Midland, do hereby proclaim the week of October 3 to 9 as FIRE PREVENTION WEEK, during which week I most respectfully urge our civic and commercial organizations, our school officials and teachers, and our citizenship as a whole, to cooperate and work with the fire chief, fire marshal and city officials in an effort to control this useless loss of life and property by fire. Every home, office and place of business should be inspected carefully and all fire hazards removed. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I hereunto sign my name and affix my seal of office on this 3rd day of September, A. D. 1937.

Borah Asks Subject Be Forgotten

President Expected To Share Opinion Of Senator, Others

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (P).—First reactions to his unprecedented radio address indicated today most of the most vigorous critics and supporters of Hugo L. Black's appointment to the supreme court had not changed opinions appreciably after hearing his disavowal of association with the Ku Klux Klan in more than a decade.

It is not considered likely that President Roosevelt, if he speaks at all, might share the view of Senator Borah, Idaho, who said "nothing could be gained" by continuation of the Klan discussion, adding the hope the "subject would be dropped."

Samuel Untermyer, New York, head of the non-sectarian anti-Nazi league, said he was "greatly impressed" with Black's speech and said "it seems to me his explanation should close the discussion."

Senator Connally of Texas said "It seems to me the incident is closed."

Far removed from the scene of Black's address was President Roosevelt, whose nomination of Black stirred a controversy over senate confirmation, during which allegations of Klan membership first were made.

Mr. Roosevelt, driving from Olympia to Tacoma, Wash., apparently did not hear Black's address. Secretary James Roosevelt said the radio in his father's car was out of order, but radios in other cars on the caravan were turned on.

Critics have attacked Black's appointment to the supreme court with the contention that Klan affiliation would prejudice him against the interests of Jews, Catholics and negroes. The allegation was made in a series of newspaper stories that after becoming a klansterman, Black had been given a life membership and that he still held it.

County Grand Jury Is Called to Meet Monday Morning

Members of the Midland county grand jury will meet tomorrow morning and will be charged by district judge Chas. L. Kalproth to investigate any reported lawlessness in the county and to return indictments in more than two score offenses recorded since the last term of court here.

The heaviest docket in several years will face the grand jury, including two murder cases, several forgeries and two attempt to murder cases.

The first petit jurors will appear in court October 11, after the grand jury has had time to act on several cases.

Following is the list of grand jurors summoned for possible duty tomorrow:

George T. Abell, Fount Armstrong, J. C. Arnett, Jess L. Barber, E. M. Barron, L. G. Bedford, Pearl Blair, T. L. Booth, W. R. Bowden, R. O. Brooks, Herbert Collings, A. G. Bohannon, O. L. Wood, J. M. White, Sam Warren, E. D. Richardson, Raymond Upham, S. M. Vaughan, W. R. Tillman, W. M. Simpson.

Britain, France Seek Showdown With the Italians

LONDON, Oct. 2 (P).—Great Britain and France today sought a showdown with Italy in the Spanish question despite a Soviet maneuver apparently designed to force their hand and anger Rome.

It was reported Russia demanded abandonment of the Spanish non-intervention scheme in a note to the chairman of the non-intervention committee, thereby permitting the shipment of men and arms to Spain.

The Russian demand, together with the prospect of a German-Italian military push to crush the Valencia government before winter and what was believed to be Italy's impending refusal to even talk formally about her intervention in Spain, created a tense situation.

Land Owners, Oil Men to Protest More Taxes on Industry

Land owners, oil men and business men in general who are interested in conditions of the oil industry have been asked by W. T. Walsh, independent operator here, to appear in Austin Tuesday and protest proposed legislation which would add to the tax burden of the oil business.

Walsh said a meeting will be held at the Austin hotel, preparatory to going before the tax committee that afternoon. Testimony and argument against the proposed increased tax will be presented as it particularly affects this area.

"Of especial interest to land owners who, as Walsh said, "cannot leave the territory like oil men can," the proposed legislation will affect everyone earning a livelihood in this section, it was pointed out.

By FRANK GARDNER.

Staking of a wildcat test by Magnolia Petroleum Company on its John Sealey estate block five miles west of the North Ward pool featuring oil developments as the week closed. Cellar and pits have been dug for the well, which will be designated Magnolia No. 1-79 Sealey. It is 660 feet from the north and east lines of section 79, block F, G. & M. M. B. & A. survey. The test is an area generally agreed to be on the east flank of the Delaware Basin.

In the Estes pool at the north end of the South Ward field, Tide Water No. 42 Johnson rated 24-hour potential of 711 barrels based upon flow the last three hours of a six-hour test, during which it made 38.91 barrels. The well flowed 133.37 barrels the first three hours. Pay between 2,498 and 2,821, the total depth, was shot with 300 quarts.

Two completions were reported for the Henderson pool in Winkler at the week-end. Champlin & Bass No. 6 Hess flowed 3,128 barrels a day, natural, bottomed at 3,077 feet in lime. It entered the pay at 3,065. Stanolind No. 1 Hendrick flowed 743.43 barrels per day following treatment with 2,000 gallons of acid. It topped pay at 3,050 and reached a total depth of 3,090.

In the Kermit field, Gulf No. 63 Daugherty flowed 1,528.73 barrels a day at 3,020 after shot with 360 quarts. The same company's No. 16 Clapp flowed 383.64 a day following shot with 525 quarts at 3,110.

S. W. Richardson No. 7-B Humber-Walton, Keystone field well, flowed 664.86 barrels a day upon completion at 3,410. It topped pay at 3,275 and was shot with 240 quarts.

Dean to Set Packer.

Gauge of 27 barrels of oil in one hour and 45 minutes on pump was made Saturday on Wiggins, Lawson and Hyde No. 1 Carrie Slaughter Dean, southeast Cochran strike four miles northwest of the Duggan gap. Operators are now pulling rods and tubing and will set flow packer in the well. It is bottomed at 5,030 feet in lime and has been acidized with 4,500 gallons. Location is center of labour 26, league 92, Lipscomb county school land.

In central Cochran, Texas No. 1 Slaughter, probable failure in league 130, Carson county school land, is drilling below 4,964 feet in lime, making two and one-half barrels of water hourly from water zone entered at 4,908.

A wildcat in southern Hockley, Frank A. Bates No. 1 F. S. Lockett, is drilling hard line at 5,148, with no shows logged. It is in section 5, block I, public school land. Seminole Test Looms Dry.

Failure was indicated by Ohio Oil Company No. 1 Mrs. Sarah J. Averitt, west edge test in the Seminole pool of central Gaines county, when

Chinese and Jap Troops Battle to Draw in Shanghai

SHANGHAI, Oct. 2 (P).—Chinese and Japanese troops fought to a standstill today in the fifth day of battling for Shanghai's north station, where the Chinese defense line is anchored only a stone's throw from the foreign settlement.

A desperate hand to hand combat centered around the Pantheon theatre here.

At Nanking, a spokesman for the central Chinese government's office said China would press at Geneva and world capitals immediately for invocation of economic sanctions against Japan.

Four-H Calf Nets His Owner $76; Displayed By Purchaser Sat.

Elmer Elizzell Junior's 4-H club calf, on display at the Wes-Tex Food Market Saturday, "paid off" the energetic owner $76.00, a check up showed after the animal was weighed.

Tipping the scales at 930 pounds, the 11-month old calf was bought by the Wes-Tex at 15 cents per pound. Feed had cost Elmer $35.50 and the calf was bought in last spring's Odessa sale for $28.00, making a total cost of $63.50 and a margin of profit of $76.00.

The Wes-Tex last year bought seven of the Midland 4-H club calves when they were sold in connection with the Midland Fair feeder sale.

Purified Water Is New Product of Bottling Company

Bringing to Midland a new industry, the Midland Bottling Co. last week added to their business a plant which manufactures purified bottled water. Produced from private wells and processed by filters and softeners especially adapted to the needs of this locality, the bottled water has passed tests of the state health department and of water engineers engaged to procure for Midland people a water free of all hardness.

A special feature of the water is the absence of minerals which cause the tooth stain. H. E. Dungan, of the Midland Bottling Co. said the water contains less than one part per million gallons of flourine, the element causing stain to children's teeth.

A statement from Dr. Thomas Dutton, taken from "Medical Times", says many digestive disorders and other diseases are caused by drinking hard water. He declares that soft water can cleanse the human system if drunk at proper times and in regular quantities. He declared a quart a day to be of great benefit to the human body.

All soda water made by the Midland Bottling Co. is from the purified water. Invitation has been made to the public to visit the company's plant at 207 South Pecos and to check the complete analysis of the product.

Narrow Escape Is Had in Wreck

Nevnie Ellis and family narrowly escaped injury Friday night when the car in which they were riding collided with a car being driven by a Californian near Penwell, Ellis, Mrs. Ellis, their daughter, Kitty Jean, and son, N. W. Jr., were returning from the football game held in Pecos. All were shaken up but none seriously hurt. A woman occupant of the other car was taken to an Odessa hospital for treatment and was dismissed Saturday.

The car being driven by the tourist was reported to have sideswiped the Ellis car, jerking off one fender and otherwise seriously damaging it.

No Sleeping Sickness Yet Reported Among Horses, Mules Here

First case of sleeping sickness among Midland county horses was reported to Dr. Wallace E. Brown at 7:30 o'clock Saturday night, from a farm three miles south of Midland. Definite diagnosis of the case had not been reported at press time.

No cases of sleeping sickness among horses and mules have been reported to Dr. Wallace E. Brown, veterinarian, up to Saturday morning, although two horses were said to have died from the disease as close as Stanton. Any symptoms, such as those common to "blind staggers," should be reported at once to prevent possible outbreak here, he said.

In north and northwest Texas, according to a survey by state veterinary officials, the disease, known as equine encephalomyelitis, has stricken approximately 15,000 head. The disease, which showed up first in Texas in 1921, is communicated by mosquitoes and has moved down the central United States into this state.

It is said there is no danger of the disease affecting human beings or cattle.

Veterinarians believe the scourge will be stopped with the advent of the first frost and the subsequent driving away of mosquitoes.

More than half the horses in the state are believed to be naturally immune to the disease.

Wallace Outlines New 'All-Weather' Farmer Program

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 2 (P).—Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace outlined an "all-weather" program to an assembly of farmers here today.

He urged them to adopt a six-point program endorsed last February at a meeting of farm leaders, and intended to "level peaks of oversupply into the valleys of shortage disaster."

He said principles and recommendations covered at the February meeting included first, agriculture has a right to a fair share of national income, and the consumer, as well as farmer interests should be safeguarded through an ever-normal granary.

"Third, that conservation of the soil is vitally important to the nation. Fourth, that farmers ought to be assured of tenure of farms they occupy. Fifth, that farmers' cooperative movement ought to be encouraged. Sixth, that provisions ought to be included in any national farm program favoring the family-sized farm."

The agricultural secretary declared that any national farm program would have to take into account the characteristics peculiar to the different agricultural commodities.

Illinois Tourists Robbery Victims Near Albuquerque

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 2 (P).—A party of Illinois tourists was held up and robbed of jewelry, clothing and cash by two highwaymen near Moriarty yesterday, word received by county peace officers here today.

The license plates of the tourists' car were transferred to the robber automobile, which originally bore Oklahoma plates.

The incident recalled the case of four other Illinois tourists who disappeared in 1935 while touring in approximately the same region.

BULLETIN

A Mexican man, whose last name is Garcia, a resident of Germania, was received at a local hospital last night suffering from severe stab wounds in the abdomen, allegedly inflicted by another Mexican in East Midland. Pending thorough examination, doctors expressed the opinion he would recover.

The Mexican who allegedly inflicted the wounds had not been apprehended.

Richard Cloud, 8, son of Chas. Cloud of Stanton, sustained minor injuries when thrown from an automobile on the highway near Odessa last night. An automobile approaching from the rear struck Cloud's car when the foot throttle became lodged, causing Cloud's machine to swerve and throwing the child out to the ground. He received only bruises and cuts, his father said at a Midland hospital.

Eight Napoleon Hats Are Known to Exist

PARIS. (U.P.)—The sale at auction of a hat worn by the Emperor Napoleon has opened an inquiry which established the fact that eight such hats are now in existence.

Three of these are in the Invalides Museum in Paris, one is at the Fontainebleau Museum, one is owned by Prince Napoleon, the Bonapartist pretender in Brussels, another is in the private collection of M. Pauliac, the seventh is owned by the Prince of Monaco and the eighth is the one recently sold at auction for $1,000.

All of the relics are well-authenticated with documents, and that of the Prince of Monaco is valued at $2,000.

paying for same would decide they were the chumps. Trailers are relieving the housing shortage, but trailer dwellers should find no fault with the city which enforces ordinances for protection of both trailer and home owners.

A trailer home has a big advantage. If its owners don't like their neighbors, they can crank up and move. But if a home owner finds he is in the wrong place, he just has to tough it out.

The Dallas News Friday had an interesting editorial entitled "Trailer Troubles" in which the conflicting trailer legislation of various states was cited. With the growing popularity and use of trailer homes, uniform laws governing them will have to be worked out, just as more uniform traffic codes are being perfected. To allow trailer dwellers to set up anywhere unrestricted would be an oversight on the part of city or state.

Black Bass Adopted By Canadian Village

CANANOQUE, Ont. (U.P.)—The villagers here have adopted a fish. Several weeks ago a black bass, weighing about 3 1/2 pounds, appeared in the water near the town bridge and a villager began killing files and feeding it.

Soon the fish became so tame that it appeared at the same spot regularly four times a day and waited to be fed. The villagers placed it on a meat diet, and it now eats a quarter of a pound of meat daily.

The fish is a town pet, and a crowd gathers daily to see it fed.

Mother can go to church with the rest of the family when she cooks this delicious dinner in a Chambers Range. She puts dinner on during breakfast, burns the gas only 20 minutes, and then turns off the gas. Dinner finishes with the gas turned off—on retained heat. Whether Mother and the rest of the family return at noon or mid-afternoon, makes no difference. Dinner still will be delicious.

By A. W. BOOK REVIEW

This is a novel for those who want their history spiced and highly seasoned. For And So-Victoria abounds in adventure, mystery, excitement and action. It covers the two decades before Victoria's accession to the throne of England "a time of plots and counterplots, of royal scandal and shame unequalled in any other period."

While Victoria was still a fat, crowing baby in her cradle, plots were being hatched against the future queen. From the beginning Christopher Harnish was used as a tool by these unscrupulous plotters. Christopher was the acknowledged son of an unacknowledged son of George IV. All his life he was swayed by the good influences of his friends Lord Setoun and the beautiful Charlotte, and his evil enemies and relatives the Duke of Brunswick, Count Fitzroy, and their following.

The childhood of Harnish was one that should have fitted him to take care of himself. He was carried off from a poor house to be sold into slavery in the city factories. By a miracle he escaped the gallows and spent several precarious years in London; then he became a cadet in the House-hold Guards of the Grand Duchess of Hesse-Neipperg. Here circumstances arose that revealed his father's identity. The secret so sickened him on his kind that he sailed for America. Eventually he gained knowledge of another plot, sponsored by his despicable relatives, to start a revolution in England and bring in Ernest of Cumberland instead of the rightful heir. He hurried back to England, disclosed the secret to Lord Setoun; the dark deeds were averted, and so we had Victoria on the throne instead of Ernest of Cumberland.

There are many stories and sub-plot incidents in the book but they are so skillfully woven together that the novel has unity and never becomes confusing. And So-Victoria puts its author in the bracket with Dickens and Dumas as a writer of exciting and interesting historical novels.

Labby—The Life and Character of Henry Labouchere; Hesketh Pearson; Harper & Brothers.

His friends affectionately called him Labby, but Queen Victoria always referred to him as "that horrible lying Labouchere" and "regular revolutionist." His father and other relatives left him a fortune. He was part owner of "The Daily News" and for years his "Truths", witty and merciless exposes, appeared in it. He had no ax to grind and had a fortune of his own so he wrote without fear or favor. He worked hard for Irish Home Rule, denounced the British raids in Africa which resulted in the Boer War, for he saw that as a result of this colonial policy Germany would make exactly the kind of trouble she did make.

Labby once said that others wanted titles and fame, but all he wanted was a good laugh. He was not afraid; he belonged to no party, and he fought for imperial decency. Victoria hated him, but that never bothered Labby. The delightful personality of this witty and rational man permeates this book which is deliciously entertaining and which shows some new aspects of Victorian public life.

—A. W.

At the Library

And So-Victoria, by Vaughan Wilkins: The plottings, jealousies, and brutal hatreds of the sons of George III of England between 1819 and 1837 and their effect on the life of a sensitive young man, Christopher Harnish, who is much worried about the obscurity of his semi-royal parentage, make up this story. Victoria, later queen, is not a character and is no more than mentioned.

Tropic Fever; the adventures of a planter in Sumatra, by Ladislao Szekely; translated by Marion Saunders: A young Hungarian is lured to the island of Sumatra with promises of plenty of work and good salaries. He finds both as director of a tobacco plantation but also encounters jungle fever, ants, leeches, intolerable heat and humidity, sickening food, moral degradation, and unbridled cruelty in a land of white supremacy and coolie subjection. His ten years of painful adjustment to this life are vividly described.

Standard Catalogue of Air Post Stamps, 1937 seventh edition, compiled by Nicholas Sanabria and Harry M. Konwiser.

A Description of United States Postage Stamps, issued by the Post Office Department from July 1, 1847, to December 31, 1936.

The Lace Book, by N. Hudson Moore: A practical guide for all owners and lovers of lace. It tells of the origin of this beautiful fabric called lace, of its growth in various countries and its use in the adornment of the homes and apparel of our ancestors. The characteristic of the many types of lace are described in detail and numerous very rare specimens are pictured.

Indian Blankets and Their Makers, by George Wharton James: Mr. James who is one of the best known authorities on Indian lore, presents a complete study of one of the domestic arts in which some tribes, especially the Navajos, have attained unequalled skill. Against the fascinating background of Indian history the author tells of the practice of blanket weaving, the uses of designs and their symbolic meaning, of the application of colors, the methods of dyeing and also gives valuable hints on how to obtain genuine Indian blankets.

Oh Say, Can You Seel, by Lewis Browne: We have read what Americans see when they visit Soviet Russia. But what does Soviet Russia see when he comes to America? Mr. Brown takes that provocative question as his theme, and weaves a yarn around it which is at once exciting and hilarious.

The Brothers Sackville, by G. D. H. and M. Cole: Mystery story.

Robinson of England, by John Drinkwater: The book on which Mr. Drinkwater had been working for three years and which he completed just before his death. The chief character, Robinson Dare, is the son of an Oxford tradesman. After a brilliant academic and athletic career at the university, he returns to a Cotswold cottage, and there spends his life as a writer interpreting the country of his birth. The main action of the book takes place when, at the age of fifty, he invites his nephew and two nieces to spend their winter holiday at his cottage. Together they begin an exploration of England, its countryside, its sports, its industries, its history and traditions. The scene is enlivened by a great diversity of people and Robinson renews his own youth in lively discussions with his Raymond L. Ditmars: Animal life and all nature made fascinating by an eminent and popular naturalist. Partly autobiographical.

Victoria Four-Thirty, by Cecil Roberts: The 4:30 boat train pulled out of Victoria station laden with passengers bound for eastern Europe. Flashbacks of the lives of several vignettes of others, and a slight thread of narrative which links the fater of various characters hitherto unknown to each other, produce a story with romance, adventure, and cleverly sustained interest.

The Collected Poems of Sara Teasdale: The "Collected Poems" include all of her work that Sara Teasdale desired to preserve. The few poems not included have been omitted in accordance with her express wish as communicated, in the form of a memorandum, to two of her closest friends, and in conversations with them from time to time.

FRANCIS' 88-YARD RETURN OF PECOS KICK-OFF ONLY SCORE OF EVENING TO BE REGISTERED BY THE LOSING TEAM

BY JESS RODGERS.

The Midland Bulldogs proved what a lot of people have been saying Friday night when they failed to show enough ability to cope with a below average Pecos team, being on the short end of a 19-7 score. First downs were 13-8, Pecos.

The victory by Pecos was clean cut and well deserved, however, with a little better luck Midland would have got beaten only one touchdown. The last Eagle touchdown came on an intercepted pass that would never have been thrown had the Bulldogs not been trailing.

Pecos won the toss and elected to receive the initial kickoff, and right in about a half dozen plays the ball game. A Pecos back returned the kickoff almost to midfield and there was where Midland lost the ball game. A Pecos back returned Eagles were down inside the Midland 20. Francis kicked off once but it didn't do a darn bit of good as the Eagles came right back and Wicker crashed over for a touchdown from the three yard line. An attempt to kick goal was n. g.

It wasn't long until the Pecos boys increased their lead to 13 points, Richards taking a lateral from Wicker and going around the Midland left end soon after the second period opened.

Francis Tallies. Little Jay Francis, who was about 90 percent of the Midland offense and 33 1/3 percent of the defense, gave Midland fans about their only chance to holler on the next play when he momentarily fumbled, then picked up the kickoff from Richards and raced 88 yards for a touchdown. Adams kicked goal. Francis was in the clear when he picked up the ball and there never was a Pecos man got close enough to him to throw a rock and hit him. He was so far ahead of the field when he hit the Pecos 20 that he trotted the rest of the way.

That one run concluded Midland offensive efforts in the first half as Richards constantly rocked the Bulldogs back into their territory with 50 and 60 yard kicks. Hurrah for Gunmakers. Late in the first half Francis flung a long pass that was intercepted by Ellis, Eagle half, and he raced to the Midland one before finally being overtaken. One play at the line failed to gain and the gun fired, ending the half before another play could be made.

The Bulldogs had slightly the better of the play in the third quarter as Francis outkicked Richards most of the time. In the fourth quarter the Bulldogs once advanced to the Pecos ten but lost a dozen yards in four tries to score. Most of the loss came when Francis was downed while trying to get rid of a pass.

Later in the period Francis kicked out of bounds on the Pecos 2 yard line but Richards faded and raised the ante by hanging his no. 12 into the piskin for one that went into the records as 58 yards. The ball was over Francis' head and went out of bounds on the Midland 40.

With only a couple of minutes left to go, Francis uncorked another wild pass and once more Ellis was waiting for it. And this time he wasn't caught. He unreled the 40 yards to the Midland goal like there might have been something bigger and tougher than a Bulldog after him and went over with a good lead.

Ellis The Hero. Richards, Pecos half and one of the best in the district saw the show stolen out from under him by Ellis. This rangy newcomer to the Eagle squad threw more fits into the Bulldogs than can be found in an epileptic colony in one hour's time. Pecos intercepted five Midland passes and Ellis was the guy that raked in four of them. He probably made more yards on intercepted passes than anybody on his team did carrying the ball from offensive plays.

The Bulldogs attempted 16 passes, and at last account, (late last night) were still trying to complete one. Face had one directly in his bosom once but through surprise or something left it fall harmlessly to the ground. Had Ellis been playing on the Midland club they would probably have won by about 40 points as he seemed to be the only one able to catch passes thrown by Midland backs.

Line Good, Bad—Mostly Bad. The line looked alternately good and bad, most of the time bad. Only near the goal line did Pecos backs have any trouble going through the center of the line and when they failed the first time they just cut off tackle and around ends. If someone had addressed a card and hung on the Midland ends they would have been ready for shipment as they were well boxed up all night. First they would be knocked outside of a play, next inside one and then Pecos backs would just plow over their midsection.

Francis was undoubtedly the best back on the field during the game but McMullan did a lot of line busting that added a little to the very, very small cup of joy held by the Midland coaches. The Bulldogs were supposed to have (and so far as I know did have) a couple of other backs in the game all the time but they were emulating the couple in the film "Tupper" by pulling a disappearing act most of the time.

Old Clothes Drive Called Big Success

"The old clothes drive sponsored by the Federation of Women's clubs has been a splendid success due to the cooperation of The Reporter-Telegram, Station KRLH, and every other organization of the city, as well as the cleaning establishments," those in charge of the project announced Saturday.

J. Howard Hodge, theatre manager, will sponsor an old clothes matinee for children Wednesday afternoon at the Ritz theatre. Any child under 12 years of age will be admitted to the matinee performance until 5 o'clock that afternoon upon presentation of a good usable garment at the box office. "I Cover the War" will be the film feature. The matinee will be the closing event of the old clothes campaign.

Welfare officials and Federated clubs expressed appreciation of the cooperation shown by the public and by the assisting organizations during the drive.
