Baby Drowns in Spring.

It is with an aching heart that I write a few lines to our friends in Kerr County to let them know that last Sunday the 15th while I was busy cooking dinner our little darling, Grace Lena Mullins, made her way to the spring and was drowned. All was done that living hands could do, but her little soul had fled to a happier home on high where there is no sorrow or grief.

A telegram was called her brave and noble father "over there," while I, the heart broken mother, has been trying to pray, the all-wise God who doeth all things well, to comfort and heal his broken heart and spare his noble life to be a blessing to his country and loved ones, and finally when this dreadful war is over, that he may return to me with honors that will make us all feel proud of him.

A lonely, broken-hearted mother,

Local Pastor Called to Lecture

Rev. B. Schleifer, pastor of the Kerrville Lutheran church delivered a lecture entitled, "Patriotism and Religion" in the Lutheran Church at Cuero last week and was greeted by an audience of about 100. His address was so much appreciated by the citizens there that the Council of Defense of that city wired Bro. Schleifer to return at their expense and repeat the lecture Tuesday night of this week at the city auditorium. He accepted the invitation and left Tuesday morning.

Resolutions.

Whereas, Saturday, September 22, 1918, an all-wise Father removed from us our esteemed Sovereign, W. E. Newton, be it

Resolved, That while we mourn the absence of one we prized, we know he has passed from labor to reward; that we will renew our fidelity to the Woodmen of the World, the order he loved; that his vacant chair will remind us that another link has dropped from our chain; and

Resolved, That our order teaches the hope of immortality and leads us to dwell on the beautiful traits in human nature; that it assures us that the golden chain that binds us in life can not be severed in death; and

Resolved, That our hearts go out in tender sympathy for the bereaved widow and family, and while we fondly cherish the memory of our departed Sovereign we will not forget those he loved; and

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of the lodge, and the same sent to the bereaved family and published in the local newspapers.

Red Cross Column

(By Mrs. J. W. Barney)

DECORATED FOR BRAVERY.

Recognition of the bravery and skill of a Red Cross Nurse is coming from our corners of the earth. Eng. ... Roumania and many other ... giving her the highest honors ... their power to bestow. Echoes of ... devotion to duty float across the sea, and bring added inspiration to those who are helping to win the war far from the line of battle.

American nurses are covering their profession with a glory that will live forever, is the report that comes from France, with the entrance of American troops into the midst of martial activities abroad. "Decorated for Bravery" is the echo that reached us, bringing with it a thrill of pride in the women who are so splendidly upholding our national traditions abroad. For they have upheld our highest ideals, and are earning the honors that are being bestowed upon them. They have not sought the recognition that is coming to them, but have done their duty as they saw it with a serene courage almost divine. Not even the nervous strain of air raids the danger of scattering shrapnel, the brain-confusing sounds of wounded and dying men in hospital wards, accompanied by the dull, insistent rattle of the big guns, can flint their American spirit. On, on they go, taking no account of time, physical fatigue, or the horror of their surroundings; unconscious of the imperishable traditions they are building up, caring only that they have the privilege of being there. As one nurse, stationed in a base hospital in the French sector, expressed it, "We are so glad to be here, to have missed this opportunity would be something to regret always."

Not a word of the hardship, the worry, the danger, only a clear note of cherished privilege. "Our nurses in France are frequently placed in more advanced positions than former positions not without danger, but when volunteers are needed for these posts it is only a problem of choice," said one of the Army Surgeons, every nurse wants to go. He added that they are utterly fearless. They serve in strange places, with utter lack of selfish thought; but the eyes of others are on them, and with almost unendurable appreciation the world is offering its highest honors to the trained nurse. The American nurse is the best trained in the world, and is deserving of the highest honors we can bestow upon her, is the tribute of a famous French General.

Another Glorious Rain.

On Thursday afternoon of last week this section was treated to another fine rain, the third which has fallen in the Guadalupe valley within the past six weeks. The precipitation here was about one and a half inches. Over the divide and clear out to San Angelo and farther west it was much heavier. At Bandera, where no rain had fallen this summer, there was a little over an inch. It has put the ground in fine shape for fall planting and the farmers are busy putting in their grain.

Livestock interests have been benefited hundreds of thousands of dollars. The range is getting green and it is thought there will be no need of feeding this winter.

Four Sons in Service.

Mrs. L. E. Dowdy, who is the proud mother of four sons in the service of their country, was a welcome caller at the Advance office Monday. She just received a letter from her son Monroe, who is with the 90th Division in France. Her other sons in the service are Corporal Leslie Dowdy with the aviation division, Leon Dowdy now at Wheeler, Ga., and Charley, who was called for training this week in the Texas Guard in which he volunteered recently. She has another son, Hermon, who will soon be in the service. Surely this good mother is contributing her part toward winning the war.

J. A. Gibbens and Joe Short were in Kerrville Monday from Bandera. Mr. Gibbens recently went to Philadelphia to visit his son, David, who has been with the navy for the past two years. His other son, Paul is also in the navy.

Baptist Church Notes

We are glad to welcome one new member at the service last Sunday. There will be services at all the regular hours next Sunday. The pastor will preach at 11 a. m. and 8:30 p. m.

Next Sunday will be the last day the present pastor will be with the church. We take this method of expressing our appreciation to the people of Kerrville for the many kindnesses shown us during our stay here. In many ways we regret to leave Kerrville but feel that it is our duty to accept the call of the Central Baptist Church at San Antonio where there is almost unlimited opportunity for work among the soldiers.

We shall rejoice in every good blessing that shall come upon the people of Kerrville.

A BOX FROM HOME

Food savings of millions of Americans during our first year of war enabled this government to send enormous food shipments abroad for our fighting forces and the Allied nations. Our savings in cereals—out of a short crop—amounted to 154,900,000 bushels; all of which was shipped to Europe. We increased our meat and fat shipments 844,600,000 pounds. This was America's "box from home" to our army abroad and the civilians and military forces of the Allied nations.

HINT TO FARMERS ON LIBERTY LOAN

JUDGE WADE OF IOWA SUGGESTS HOW THEY MAY DETERMINE THEIR SUBSCRIPTION.

TEST OF THEIR PATRIOTISM

Present Sacrifice Not Comparable to Those Made During the Civil War—Durbins of Indiana Hints Roosevelt Presidential Doom.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington.—An idea was advanced by a government official recently in regard to the coming Liberty loan which ought to be considered carefully by people in the rural districts, particularly those who live on farms. Judge Wade of Iowa was responsible for putting the idea into the hands of government officials. His attention to the farmers is in regard to the Liberty loan of $2,000,000,000. He says an agricultural country like Iowa is in a position to make a contribution to the war effort which is far greater than that of any other country. He says that the Liberty loan is a test of the patriotism of the people. He says that the Liberty loan is a test of the patriotism of the people. He says that the Liberty loan is a test of the patriotism of the people.

The patriotism that has been shown in the matter of saving food and coal and other war necessities upon demand and particularly the recent demonstration when a simple request from the fuel administration resulted in practically complete cessation in the use of gasoline on Saturdays, has encouraged authorities at the national capital to believe that the same patriotism in the matter of self-denial and sacrifice will win the war will finally result every branch of labor.

There is no denying that the government has had a great deal of success about the labor situation since the country entered the war. The most part of it has been due to the fact that the labor unions have been working for the good of the country. The labor unions have been working for the good of the country. The labor unions have been working for the good of the country.

There seem to be two kinds of German propaganda here in the United States. One of them is that insidious character which constantly finds its way into the public prints as news items representing conditions in the United States and trying to poison our people against putting forth every effort to win the war. The other consists of misstatements in regard to Germany. For example, it is said that there has been a systematic effort made to convince the people in this country that the German people are not in earnest in the war. That they are not behind their government, and that they are in a deplorable condition. Photographs taken in Germany during the past year or two tend to show that the horrible condition which is alleged to exist among the people has been exaggerated for some purpose. The people who are familiar with the German know that they are supporting their government with more earnestness than has ever been shown in any nation in Europe with the single exception of France. Evidently this propaganda regarding the breaking down of German support is for the purpose of discouraging extra effort on the part of the people of the United States.

The sacrifices which the people are making now are small compared to those they made in the days of the Civil War. Said a woman whose husband was in the war, and who is now a very old lady: "My husband enlisted as a soldier in a Minnesota regiment. I had three small children. We had to live on his pay of $15 a month and such other resources as we could get out of a farm on the frontier. While my husband was away in the South

The new chairman of the Republican Congressional campaign committee is a man of a number of titles. Before he came to congress he was Professor Fess, then he became Congressman Fess, now he is Chairman Fess. He also has a title which is not often used, which is Farmer Fess. The Ohio congressman is one of the most accomplished politicians in the house of representatives. He is also particularly well informed on foreign relations and on all other subjects of national importance. On this account he is always listened to attentively when he addresses the house. He also does farm work when he gets time.

All sorts of questions are asked in the celebration of the water power bill. For instance, quite a number of them are very anxious to know whether we are going to destroy Niagara falls. Niagara falls, and the rapids of the St. Lawrence river. Congressmen Humphreys of Mississippi was very much exercised over these questions, more so than New York congressman. Congressman Humphreys of New York made a rather surprising remark about Humphreys coming all the way from the Gulf of Mexico to look after the interests of New York and other Western border states. Many New Yorkers think the value of the rapids in the matter of scenic beauty can be improved and the power of the water also used for commercial purposes.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice at Kerrville, Texas.

Our Individual Part.

Some observers think that the most characteristic thing about the American soldiers in France, something which astounds the enemy and excites the admiration of our allies, is the capacity of the American soldiers to do individual thinking and fighting. The German fights successfully only in mass formation, in organized, strictly commanded bodies, while every American soldier has an initiative and independence of action which gives him remarkable efficiency in open fighting. They are not senseless cogs, but each is an individual working unit in a great fighting machine.

Every American at home should feel an individual responsibility and do his or her individual part in winning the war. There is not an American citizen who can not help win the war. The Fourth Liberty Loan drive, which begins September 28, offers a great opportunity for concerted action and for individual action, and the loan will be a tremendous success if each American will do his or her individual part as each American soldier in France does his part. Our soldiers deserve such support from the people at home.

Get ready for the big drive. It starts Saturday.

The Equal Franchise Society

The Equal Franchise Society met on Sept. 21st and discussed plans for immediate work. Officers were chosen as follows: Mrs. A. C. Schreiner, President; Mrs. G. M. Doyle, vice president; Mrs. H. C. Geddie, Secretary. It was then decided to enter immediately upon war work—the fourth Liberty Loan drive, to be launched Sept. 28.

The State Woman's Liberty Loan Committee has asked the women of every county to do some part of the Liberty Loan work, acting in co-operation with the men's committee.

The Woman's Committee for Kerr County are: Mrs. H. C. Geddie, county chairman; Mrs. A. C. Schreiner, city chairman; Mrs. Lee Wallace and Mrs. G. M. Doyle, captains, who will each select a team of ten members, to carry on the active work that the women may be asked to do in the city. Mrs. Geo. Walker will direct the women's work in Center Point.

If you owe us for back subscription, it is just as binding after we have stopped the paper that you pay us as it would be to pay your grocer after you had eaten his groceries and owed for them. Then in all fairness and honesty, please call and settle for it or send the amount you owe us in by mail. We hope to have your renewal along with the amount already due on back subscription.

To the many who have responded to our call under the new government order we want to thank you. Please be prompt to remit, so that you will not miss an issue and the splendid war story we are running. We hope all will understand the seriousness of this matter and come to our relief.

The Government has declared the newspapers are very necessary to the success of the great war program. Help us to help the government by placing your name on the paid-in-advance list.

LIEUTENANT O'BRIEN NEARLY STARVES AS HE CRAWLS THROUGH GERMANY AND LUXEMBOURG.

Synopsis.—Pat O'Brien, a leader of the American Flying Corps, after being shot down in France, escapes to Belgium and then to Luxembourg. He is captured by the Germans and taken to a prison camp. He escapes and makes his way through the open window of the car while the train is traveling thirty miles an hour.

Crawling Through Germany.

The exact spot at which I made my desperate leap I do not know. I believe it was somewhere in the middle of the night, but I am not sure. I was very tired and my head was aching. I had been crawling for some time and I was beginning to feel the effects of the cold and the dampness of the night.

The night I made perhaps the same mistake, but I was very hungry and I was very tired. apparent to one who knew. It must not be forgotten, however, that I did not undertake this adventure voluntarily. It was "wished on me." I simply had to make the most of the knowledge I had.

At about this time blisters began to appear on my legs and my knees swelled. In addition I was pretty well convinced that I had lost the sight of my left eye. I hadn't seen a thing out of it since my leap from the train.

CHAPTER IX.

I Enter Belgium. I have said it was about the eighteenth day after my escape that I entered Belgium, but that is more or less guess work. I was possibly well into that country before I realized that I had crossed the line.

About the third day after I figured I was in Belgium I started to swim a canal just before daylight. I was then heading due north in the direction of the German lines. I was just about the wide into the canal when I heard a German yelling violently, and for the first time I knew I was being followed.

O'Brien reaches Belgium and, facing starvation, he risks capture by going boldly to a Belgian home and asking for aid. With an improvised weapon in his hand, he is prepared to go to any extreme in order to get food. Read about this exploit in the next installment.

ARMY Y. M. C. A. CHIEF

WILMAN C. ADAMS, Executive Secretary, Army Y. M. C. A., Southern Department.

Direction of all Army Y. M. C. A. activities in the entire Southern Department is the basic responsibility given to Wilman C. Adams, Executive Secretary, by the National War Work Council, in its development of the extensive program of the Y. M. C. A. in its efforts on behalf of the soldiers.

Mr. Adams is the administrative head of the territory made up of Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, and Arizona, in which is located a large per cent of the army camps of the entire country. Under his administration the operations of the Army Y. M. C. A. have grown until there is now in operation, or in process of construction, one Y. M. C. A. building for every 2,300 soldiers located in these Southwestern states. When it is remembered that there are several hundred thousand soldiers in training in the Southern Department camps, including Camp Travis, Camp Pike, Camp Bowie, Camp McArthur, Camp Cook, Camp Doniphan, Fort Sill, Camp Bagnard, Kelly Field, and the other great training fields of the department, it will be understood that Mr. Adams occupies a position of similar importance to that of a Major General.

In addition to the camp activities of the Army Y. M. C. A. directed by Mr. Adams and efficiently executed by his army of men in the uniform of the Red Triangle, the Southern Department executive secretary has under his supervision the Army Y. M. C. A. activities along the entire Mexican border, from Brownsville, Texas, to Yuma, Arizona, where many Y. M. C. A. stations are located, and where a fleet of eighteen auto trucks take to the soldiers in isolated places the comforts and pleasures of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Adams is one of the pioneers of the Army Y. M. C. A. movement. He was actively identified with the Army Y. M. C. A. work with the troops on the border and in Mexico.

(By Father Kemper)

A Camp Stanley Soldier, Edward Gaudin, served at mass in Comfort and two other privates acted as acolytes in Kerrville: Joseph Plinton of Troy, New York, and Joseph Joy of Huntington, West Virginia.

Attention is called to the noonday prayer requested by President Wilson for our soldiers and sailors. At the stroke of the midday Angelus bell all traffic is supposed to cease for one minute till the following petition is breathed to our Heavenly Father for our brave boys across the sea: "Oh God, save, bless and protect our dear ones, all our soldiers and sailors, but especially our boys over there." Keep them safe in battle and on the ocean, and at all times may they rest secure in Thy Almighty arms. Give us all wisdom and grace and strength to do Thy will. Grant us a speedy victory, and a righteous peace. Amen."
