Cardinal Gibbons Asks Aid For Starving Armenians

This is the message from James (Cardinal) Gibbons read at the big meeting in Washington in aid of the Near East Relief. The venerable primate of the Catholic Church in America is intensely interested in the appeal which the Near East Relief will make to the country in February for funds to support its work among the starving peoples of that stricken land. To the Washington meeting he wrote:

"Advice and information coming from the Near East cannot be doubted. There is great actual suffering and famine. These people, recently become independent and released from bitter thralldom, cannot support themselves. And the Christian and common instincts of humanity which have prompted the people of the United States during the last two years to relieve the distress and needs, especially of the Near East, must not be allowed to grow cold and be diminished."

"I hope we shall all unite in this present emergency and be able to collect sufficient funds to enable these peoples to live and work until next summer brings them permanent relief and subsistence. I call upon all to respond generously to the appeal now being made and trust that the committee will be gratified with the results."

The American Red Cross has created a new fund of $75,000, out of which its Home Service Sections may make loans to disabled service men under the care of the Federal Board for Vocational Education. These ex-soldiers frequently find themselves in need of money when their first training pay check from the Government has been delayed. The new fund will be supplementary to the Elks' fund, established for a similar purpose, and will be used only when the Elks' fund is not available.

SUGGESTS OPEN SEASON IN TEACHER CONTRACTS

From time immemorial, teachers' complaints at low wages have received the reply that the law of supply-and-demand must govern the market of their compensation. During the last two years, the law of supply and demand has begun to operate in favor of the teacher, for almost the first time within the memory of man. Naturally, therefore, teachers who have commenced to view their profession more hopefully, deeply resent attempts to manipulate matters so that the law of supply-and-demand shall not result to the advantage of the teacher. Efforts to hold teachers by unfair means, are, to say the least, short-sighted. A teacher who is dissatisfied and unhappy cannot be a good teacher for our Texas children. The best basis of good work is the assurance of justice and fair dealing.

As a rule, teachers do not know, until after the close of the session, what position for the next year will be open. The teacher's opportunity to secure a better place is usually of very brief duration. Some school boards, before the close of the session, require teachers to accept or decline a place for the next session. This forces many who do not know what chances may be theirs, to take again an unsatisfactory position, this custom sometimes resulting in a sort of penance of teachers. The teacher has nothing to sell but her services. In justice to her, there ought to be some time when she can offer these in an open market. If the teacher endeavors, without success to secure a better position, she is more likely to become satisfied with her former place. If she succeeds, her former place could not justly hold her if her services are worth more elsewhere. If the school board allows it, it might fairly accord to the teacher one month of indecision, if she desires this.

Accordingly, I suggest that, as a measure towards greater justice to teachers, school boards grant to all teachers who may wish it, the month of June, in which to decide whether to renew their former contracts, would, in the end, save time for the school board and the superintendent. I have had, this year, many appeals to cancel teachers' certificates, as a penalty of breach of contract. To most of these cases there was more than one side. The contract protects the teacher. Most teachers would not have the contract plan abolished. For its resulting injustices, there is only one remedy—a kind and sympathetic school board. I think that a teacher should hold her plighted word above the most tempting offer of a better place, unless she is released by the school board. Teachers who have taught only a few months in a position should not ask for a release. But those who have, for several years, given faithful service, are entitled to consideration when opportunity knocks at the door. Without ambition, progress in work in any line, will not be rapid. The teacher should be shown that the way is open to ambition and that true worth will receive recognition.

While the law binds the teacher under certain conditions, it does not equally bind the board. If a board should contract with a teacher to teach a certain length of term, the teacher cannot hold them to the contract if the funds should be insufficient to support the school for this length of time. The teacher finds herself without employment, with no recourse for the broken contract. Some school boards have the erroneous impression that the law requires them to hold a teacher to her contract, whatever the conditions. The law allows them to release her. It is for the board to determine whether justice to teacher and school permits the release. It is probable that we shall always have with us the irresponsible teacher who looks lightly upon a contract. It is for her that the law was made. For the conscientious ones—and they are greatly in the majority—an open season in teachers' contracts might aid in quelling unrest and producing the feeling of satisfaction which is essential to the putting forth of the best efforts of the worker.

The Most Welcome Tire That Ever Came to Market

Men Who Appreciate Superlative Values Prefer The Brunswick

In every great tire factory, the chief question is: "How much can we give for the money?" And the product depends on the policy adopted.

Every man who has become acquainted with Brunswick Tires knows that Brunswick standards are again evident. This famous concern—noted as a leader in every line it entered since 1845—has once more proved that its policy is right.

A perfect tire is simply a matter of knowledge and standards and skill. No secrets nor patents prevent making an ideal tire.

But standards come first. For in tire making there is vast room for skimping, for subtle economies, for hidden shortcomings. Makers without the highest standards don't build high-grade tires.

The Brunswick organization of tire makers includes a brilliant staff of technical experts. Not a man among them has spent less than 20 years in handling rubber.

Each is a master of his craft. And the new ideas they bring to the attention of Brunswick directors receive sincere consideration.

Every proved betterment is adopted unanimously.

The Brunswick Tire is a combination of acknowledged features—plus Brunswick standards of manufacture.

The result is a super-tire, the like of which you have never known before. The kind of a tire you will gladly join in welcoming.

Yet Brunswicks cost no more than like-type tires.

Try ONE Brunswick. We promise a surprise. And we feel certain that you will want ALL Brunswicks.

Then good tires will have a new meaning to you.

Terrible Suffering From Headache, Sideache, Backache, and Weakness, Relieved by Cardui, Says This Texas Lady.

Gonzales, Tex.—Mrs. Minnie Phillips, of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back. By that time the pain would be so severe I would have to take to bed, and suffered usually about three days... I suffered this way for three years, and got to be a mere skeleton and was so weak I could hardly stand alone. Was not able to go anywhere and had to let my house work go... I suffered awful with a pain in my back and I had the headache all the time. I just was unable to do a thing. My life was a misery, my stomach got in an awful condition, caused from taking so much medicine. I suffered so much pain. I had just about given up all hopes of our getting anything to help me.

One day a Birthday Almanac was thrown in my yard. After reading its testimonials I decided to try Cardui, and am so thankful that I did, for I began to improve when on the second bottle... I am now a well woman and feeling fine and the cure has been permanent for it has been two years since my awful bad health. I will always praise and recommend Cardui." Try Cardui today. E 78

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES
By Father Kemper

No services were held in Comfort last Sunday, conformable to the wishes of the people, because it was feared that some of the Mexicans from Waring and Welfare might join the assembly and bring germs of influenza with them. Up to the present none of the American parishioners have been afflicted with the epidemic.

It was unfortunate that the quarantine interfered on Sunday with observing in a public and formal manner the thirtieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Kuhlmann. Their son Henry Junior, with his wife and baby Henry III, came from Houston to celebrate the occasion, but the festivity was reduced to an all fresco picnic on the banks of the Guadalupe. Their grandson Oswald Herzog Jr., of Wichita Falls was also one of the happy family gathering.

Ruth Baker's marriage makes the eighth Notre Dame student to enter wedlock. All of these, with one exception, are girls, and have moved away from the city.

The Notre Dame boys regretted the departure of Jules and Gerald Dubus, who moved with their parents to Del Rio.

Mr. Charles Mosel on Tuesday began a journey along the Rio Grande border, visiting McAllen and other promising settlements, where he might be able to establish his son John in the drug business.

Miss Angeline Kemper motored with four of the Notre Dame Sisters to Boerne, where they visited Sr. Albert who is rapidly convalescing and hopes to be back in Kerrville for the opening of school. In company with Sr. Bridgettine, formerly of Notre Dame, and some of the Boerne nuns, Miss Kemper continued her trip to San Antonio, where she called on her twin nephews at St. Louis College.

Mrs. Wm. Farris and some of her children are enjoying life on the Christoval farm not far from Boerne.

Last Thursday Leo Blanchard came to Kerrville to return to Miss Kemper the Buick car which he had overhauled and put in first class condition.

Next Sunday Father Kemper leaves for San Antonio on business with the Knights of Columbus.

$5 PER MONTH FEEDS ORPHAN

Cleveland H. Dodge Shows What Near East Relief Can Do in Efficient Purchasing.

Buying in wholesale lots and under the most favorable market conditions, Near East Relief of 1 Madison avenue, New York city, with representatives in every State of the Union, has been able to baffle the high cost of living so far as relief supplies for the suffering millions of the Near East are concerned.

Cleveland H. Dodge, treasurer, in a statement shows that the committee is able to provide food for the suffering people of the Near East at prices much lower than the average charge here.

A donation of $5 per month will provide food for one orphan, $10 per month provides not only food, but also clothes and shelter for one orphan and for $15 per month attendance at school is assured to each orphan in addition to food, clothing and shelter.

In the appeal for funds to save the starving remnants of the Armenians and other western Asia peoples, Near East Relief is inviting the American public to "adopt" an orphan at the rates given here. Over 250,000 homeless children are in need of help in the Near East. Women's organizations, lodges, churches and social clubs are responding to the appeal by adopting quotas of orphans for support over a definite period.

SOUTH-WEST TEXAS NORMAL PREPARING FOR ATHLETICS

San Marcos, Texas, Feb. 5.—Athletics at Southwest Texas State Normal College have made rapid progress during the past few weeks under the direction of Coach G. W. Strahan. In order to keep abreast with this steadily increasing interest in athletics, it has become necessary for the Normal to build a gymnasium.

Plans are now being worked out for the new structure, which will be well arranged for all indoor athletics and gymnastic exercises. Since the floor, to be made of maple, will be the regulation size 50x50, it will give ample space for two practice courts for basket ball and one large court for contests. The seating capacity will be sufficient at all times to take care of any crowd that will attend an athletic contest in San Marcos. Connected with the gymnasium will be a large dressing room with plenty of lockers and showers.

As soon as the new gymnasium is constructed, the San Marcos Normal will easily outrank most of the colleges in Texas, athletically speaking, for the majority of them up to the present have not seen the necessity of erecting suitable gymnasiums.

RED CROSS TO HELP FIND SOLDIERS' HEIRS

The American Red Cross has been asked to co-operate with the Bureau of War Risk Insurance in a nationwide campaign for the purpose of locating beneficiaries of dead soldiers who are entitled to government insurance, it was announced.

Within the last two years 966,051 allotments and allowance checks have been issued, properly addressed and mailed, by the bureau, and have been returned undelivered. These unclaimed checks aggregate $29,000,000. Final disposition of all of these returned checks, with the exception of 141,819, have been made, but because of incorrect addresses given and moving around of beneficiaries, the bureau now has this number of unclaimed checks in its file.

It is the plan of the bureau to advertise such names in the section where the beneficiaries were last heard from, with the hope of thus reaching them.

WHAT THE THRIFT SAVINGS MOVEMENT REALLY MEANS

Have you ever stopped to think what the Thrift Savings Movement really means or is it still confused in your mind with war days and the drives of war days? Briefly defined, the Thrift Savings Movement of the United States Government is an opportunity given people to commence to want to save, to commence to save, and to make it possible and easy for them to save.

The Government is looking ahead and the Government has looked behind, too. In looking behind, it has taken note of the fact that very few people, comparatively speaking, have managed their affairs so that poverty and old age would not be their lot. The main reason for this is that so few people, still speaking in a comparative sense, have learned that Thrift is the good management of the business of living. Had you realized that fifty-four people out of every one hundred are not self-supporting at sixty-five years of age? They failed to save in their producing days. Or in the language of the street, they didn't save "while the saving was good." In looking ahead, the Government sees that more people will be "down-and-outers" if they do not save for themselves; it wants its people to be prosperous, financially comfortable and happy. It is to help people save, to make it possible for them to save safely and to make it possible for the "little fellow," especially, to get ahead that the Government is conducting the Thrift-Saving Campaign and making 25c Thrift Stamps, $5.00 War Savings Stamps, $100 Registered Treasury Savings Certificates and $1,000 Registered Treasury Savings Certificates available to the public at postoffices and banks. The Government wants its people to save for themselves and to save systematically because it is the proudest thing to do. Any thinking man or woman can readily see that the happy person and the happy home are those which are comfortably prosperous and which are not forever in the dark shadow thrown by the wolf scratching at the door.

Only those who resolve to get ahead and stick to that resolution will reach their goal. Prosperity and comfortable incomes do not come by mere wishing.

A CIVIC DUTY YOU OWE TO CHARMING KERRVILLE

There is in Kerrville an organization which has already done much good, and before which stretches a field of constantly widening endeavor.
We refer to the Kerrville Commercial Club.

This organization can be only what the citizens of Kerrville make it. Its officers can accomplish little without the constant and cordial co-operation of the people. They can plan, but it requires united effort to carry those plans into execution.

The main trouble here, as in most towns of this class, is that too many citizens fail to give the matter sufficient thought to arrive at a correct estimate of their duty to the organization. In the abstract they think a commercial club is a good thing for the town alright, but they fail to get down to brass tacks and see what they, personally and individually, should do in the premises. They may even have their names on the membership roll, and yet leave all the work for others to do. The member who occasionally inquires: "Well, what did you fellows do last night on the so-and-so project?" is of course worth something just as a member, at least to the extent that his dues help defray the expense of the organization, but if the same member would get into the harness and come to the meetings and help "you fellows" in the doing he would be worth immeasurably more.

This is the situation with the Kerrville Commercial Club right now. It has on its rolls many excellent members, but too many of them are out of the harness and need to get to work.
"In a multitude of counsel there is safety," and the more workers we have the more work can be accomplished.

This, then, is to urge you, if already a member of the Commercial Club, to be an active, not a passive, member, and if you are not a member, but all means see Secretary Ferguson at once and get into the game for a bigger and better Kerrville.

Cinders are no more worthless than good intentions which go no further.

CHILDREN AND MUSIC

Mrs. G. M. Doyle

Happy is the child whose lot is cast in a joyous musical atmosphere, and how may we define musical atmosphere, not alone in the home of those who are devoting time, money and hours of their time to the study of the technic of music, be it piano, violin, harp or any other musical instrument or in the study of vocal music. Those homes are few, but in every home, no matter how humble a musical atmosphere can be created, and in the later years of the child's life, many a rough place will be made smooth by the memory of that joyous "something" that at the time, he hardly sensed or appreciated.

The first step in rousing an interest in and feeling for music is to teach the child to listen. In our scheme of education we lay great stress upon teaching the child to observe to see; and how little upon teaching him to learn. God made the birds beautiful for us to look upon, but He also gave them songs so tender, so thrilling that the breath stops, that we may listen to every wonderful delicate note of their song. What is sweeter, more gentle than the silvery murmur of the little brook and what more appealing to the child? There are many ways we can invent to train our child to listen, at the table when the meal is finished, tap on the tumblers with your silver knife or spoon, the musical pitch will vary, according to the amount of water in each glass, this always attracts and interests a child.
There is tone in every thing, true it may not be a mellow-appealing tone, but the fact that it is there and that the child is listening for it, is one step forward.

Music sweetens the mood, make labor lighter, and works off unhealthy emotions. An incident is told illustrating this of a girl, and not a very little girl who became very angry one day with a sense of injustice done her, and in this mood, started to play her beloved piano, but realizing that if she played she would soon cease to be angry, and not being ready to give up her resentful mood, she left the piano and went to her room to nurse her bitterness. A mother learned to help her little son off stormy fits of temper by going to piano and playing some stormy, fiery piece. The child did not know why this was done, but the mood of the music fitted his feelings exactly and he would race madly through the room like a wild pony until his emotion had spent itself. The greatest part of a child's time is lived in a make-believe world and the foundation of their education is acquired through this faculty. This applies very forcibly to music, for there is no end to the pictures we may make them see through musical expression.
We may tell them to try to hear the birds sing, in one piece that we play on the piano, or if a stirring march is being played, suggest soldiers marching in or children drilling. Soon their young minds will form pictures of their own and music will take on a definite form as well as the beauties of harmony. It will not always be possible to awaken a response to the atmosphere of music, a child of four years may have no natural ability for either singing or playing, not having any sense of time or pitch, was so sensitive to musical impressions that she always described them as being pink and red and blue like the sky. There was never the definite form, although there was the deep sensitiveness, and it was later explained by the development of an unusual talent with pencil and brush. One of the most abused musical instruments is the human voice, the speaking voice. It is the duty of every mother and teacher to be a model for her children and her neighbors' children in this respect as in many others. And as to the singing voice, did you ever stop to think that God teaches children to sing? In every other line of musical endeavor the technical exercises come first, but in singing, one sings first and studies the technic of singing afterward, and above all let us teach our children to be natural. The woman or man who charms you with their singing is not giving you the voice alone, they pour their personality, their individuality into their song. So I would say do not teach your young child to sing, but by all means let it sing, the natural desire should be cultivated by listening to the right kind of songs. Not before a boy or girl reach the age of 17 or 18 should they begin the serious training of the voice. The best songs for the child of today are the same songs we loved when we were children, the folk song of America, Swanee River, My Old Kentucky Home, Carry Me Back to Old Virginia, and so on.

The jazz music of our present time is but a passing fancy, something to amuse for a day, and a new one for tomorrow. If the child insist on hearing it and learning it, I would not forbid, but show them what a conglomeration of sounds it is and by way of contrast let them hear a piece of real melody. I do not think it is any more than the folly of the moment and will do no lasting injury.

To the mother of the girl or boy who is just beginning to study the practical problems, I think the solution has never been discovered, as in so many other problems that arise, it depends largely on the child. I think possibly timing the practice is not very good as more time is spent watching the clock than learning the scale. The promise of reward often brings results, a visit to a neighboring playground, not given as a real reward, but "after you finish practicing" method.
But no matter what the circumstances are try to give your child a musical atmosphere there is no excuse with our player pianos our victrolas and our naturally talented members of our own household our children can simply revel in music. There is a divine spark in all of us—let us lead our children in the right way, which is the simplest, most natural way, thereby giving this divine instinct the chance to develop and if in some of the busy years of their lives music is crowded out, it is only for the time being, the memory will always live and not only be a thing of lingering harm but a living thing of moral influence.

BOY SCOUTS IN YOUNG ARMENIA

Strangest Troop of All in Constantinople Being Made Into Good Citizens.

American Boy Scout training is aiding prominently in the rehabilitation of hundreds of little Armenian boy refugees from the Turkish massacres, who have been organized into a scout troop in Constantinople as the solution of one of the most troublesome problems that confronted the Near East Relief workers in that city.
Hounded and driven for four years, having seen their parents and relatives slaughtered or worse by Turks and Kurds and themselves forced to beg, steal or do almost anything to eke out the barest existence, these boys had completely lost their moral sense when they finally found refuge in the Near East Relief orphanage.
The boys had been clad in rags for so long that they had forgotten how to take care of clothes. This was a tragedy when the Near East Relief had need of every pair of shoes and of every suit of clothes for new boys constantly coming in.
Then the boys were organized as Boy Scouts and given their uniforms.
They began to be careful of their school clothes as well as of their uniforms.
They had been so often hungry they had come to steal without compunc-tion. When they first entered the orphanage they continued to steal. One boy stole a purse from his American teacher. For two or three weeks after he became a Boy Scout he was obviously uneasy. One day he came to her with the purse in his hand.
"I don't want to give it back," he said reluctantly. "But I have to," he said. "A Boy Scout now." To form more scout troops to transform these little unfortunates into good citizens, is one of the reasons why the Near East Relief, 1 Madison avenue, New York city, is making its appeal for funds.

HAVE YOU EVER HEARD OF "THE OLD GUARD"

The Third United States Infantry was organized under an act of March 5, 1792, as the Third Sub-Legion. In 1815 upon re-organization of the Army the Third was consolidated with the Second, Seventh and Forty-fourth, to form the First Regiment of Infantry, and the present Third was formed by consolidating of the original First, Seventeenth, Nineteenth, Twenty-fourth, Twenty-eighth and Thirty-ninth. The Third Infantry therefore includes the oldest organization in the United States Army, the original First Infantry, which was organized under Resolve of Congress of June 3, 1784.

Under command of General Zachary Taylor during the years of 1845-1846, the Third was the Army of Observation in Texas, and later participated in the capture of Monterey, Mexico City and other cities in the various campaigns under command of General Scott during the War with Mexico in 1846. It was upon occupation of the City of Mexico by General Scott that as the Third Infantry approached, he said: "Gentlemen, take off your hats to the Old Guard of the Army."

During the Civil War the Third participated in twenty-one battles and sieges, among which the most memorable were Bull Run, Gains Mill and Malvern Hill, and it was after the first battle of Bull Run that the Third was reviewed in Washington by President Lincoln accompanied by General McDowell. In their passage down the line they drew rein in front of the colors and the General turning to the President said: "Mr. President these are the men who saved your army at Bull Run." The President looking up and down the line replied, "Yes, I've heard of them."

Such is the history of the Third Infantry through-out its existence and will be for all time to come. It is for that reason that we want Texans and good, honest, red-blooded men to enlist in the oldest regiment in the Army and help us to keep up its fine record. Ask the Recruiting Officer in your city about the Third or write the Recruiting Officer at Camp Eagle Pass, Texas.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY NOTES

The Missionary has been a busy man these past days and has neglected to write about his work. We spent a very pleasant and profitable week at the "Missionary Training Camp" at Dallas Jan 18-23. Arrived home with a well developed case of the "Flu," but after a week's confinement to the house we again hit the road. Sunday, Feb 8, was spent with the good brethren at Tarpley. We had a strenuous time getting there, spent two hours in the Medina River with a "drowned jitney," waded ice water, cranked our car only to have our hopes blasted, finally got a good farmer to pull us out with his team and went on our way rejoicing.

We'll say that when you get stalled in the middle of a rolling river and wade water up above your knees, finally get pulled out, get on some dry clothes, get your car started and on your way; O Boy! "It's a grand and glorious feeling!"

Notwithstanding all these trials, we finally arrived in good shape and were repaid in the fine services that we had Sunday and Sunday night. The brethren there are very anxious to secure a pastor and want to do all they can to advance the Master's work. Last Sunday we spent with the saints at Harper. The new pastor, Bro. G. H. Brown, is taking hold of the work in a great way and everything seems to be on the forward move. At the invitation of the pastor we preached at the morning service. We had good crowds at both the morning and evening service.

I beg to call the attention of the brethren to the Fifth Sunday meeting on the last day of the month. It will be held with the church at Center Point. Don't fail to have your church represented there. We are expecting some "Mountain Top" services at that time, and some very important subjects will be discussed. Don't fail to be there.

M. C. MOORE,
Missionary.

RED CROSS HAS NUMBERS OF ATTACHES IN SIBERIA

Washington, D. C. Feb. 1.—The American Red Cross has cabled Vladivostok for full information concerning the reported capture of a number of its workers, together with a party of American engineers and an entire Polish Army, by the Bolsheviks at Kliuchinskaya, Siberia. Thus far it has received no direct word concerning the incident. Recent cables have mentioned the appearance of local uprisings in territory in which American Red Cross relief workers have been operating but latest advices were that all were safe.

Seven Red Cross nurses, nurses aids and physicians from Texas are in the Siberian Commission of the Red Cross. They are: Dr. Robert M. Marshall, Amarillo; Miss Fannie Ryler Dobie, Beeville, nurse's aid; Miss Lucy J. Carter, 105 Cadiz street, Dallas, nurse; Miss Harriet Mae, 1910 Jackson street, Houston, nurse; Miss Effie Myrtle Meers, San Angelo, nurse's aid; David H. Rouse, 205 West Dewey Place, San Antonio; Miss Minnie L. Blake, Trinity, nurse.

Red Cross records here show that the Capt. Charette mentioned in press dispatches as being captured is Edward Hercules Charette, pharmacist, of 456 East Lindsey street, Stockton, Calif. There is no report of the Miss Ford mentioned as being in Siberia.

About 400 American men and women are attached to the Siberian Commission of the American Red Cross. Nearly all are being concentrated at Vladivostok, and will be withdrawn as rapidly as the American troops leave Siberia, the remainder staying on to finish the distribution of relief supplies now on hand.

CHERRY CREEK BRIDGE

Comfort News. The committee which was appointed recently to attend to the details of obtaining plans and specifications for the proposed concrete bridge across the Guadalupe at the Cherry creek crossing, went to Kerrville last Saturday and enlisted the services of Bruno Schott who will have an engineer prepare the plans and specifications at once. As soon as these are ready bids on the work of building the bridge will be called for.

The bridge is to be constructed of re-inforced concrete, and will be about 150 feet long and 16 feet wide, with piers 14 feet apart, and will have a clearance of 5 feet between the river bed and the bottom of the floor slab. It is estimated that the cost will be about $3,000.

Most of this sum has already been raised by private subscriptions in this community, and a number of Kerrville people subscribed to the fund on Saturday while the committee was in Kerrville, thereby increasing it $52. The committee called upon County Judge Wallace while in that city, and received his assurance that Kerr County would assist the project to the extent of $500. This practically completes the amount necessary to build the bridge.

Swift & Company was a favorite topic of conversation last year.

Committees investigated it, commissions attacked it, lawmakers threatened it, many condemned it.

Presently people began to think about it; began to realize that Swift & Company was performing a necessary service in a big, efficient way; began to wonder whether it could be done as well in any other way.

Read what Swift & Company did last year, and what it meant to you, in the Swift & Company Year Book, just issued.

It's a fascinating narrative—simple facts in simple words. There is one ready for you. Send for it.

6. Always wash your hands before eating.
7. Do not overeat. This applies especially to meats and eggs.

"A Grand and Glorious Feeling"

(With Apologies to the Funny Papers)

When the first of the month is approaching and you are dreaming about how you are going to stand off the bill collectors, and you remember that you have already exhausted all the excuses in the language, and you are wishing that the weather was fine so that you could go on a hunt or a fishing trip or somewhere, but realize with the rain pouring down and the temperature ranging round the freezing point, it is no go, and you are wondering if you could borrow money enough to pay off your bills, AND THEN—

You wake up and remember that you have been buying strictly for cash and owe no bills; Oh Boy! Ain't it a GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELING?

DO YOU LIKE TO GO FISHING?

You know, to a good sportsman, Shakespeare means something far more meaningful than "Hamlet" and "The Merchant of Venice." Your true angler may not know how Othello won Desdemona with wild and thrilling tales, but he could undoubtedly go the Moor one better with his stories of how he landed 'em one after another with Shakespeare fishing tackle. For he knows that Shakespeare means first-class tackle—the smoothest-running reels—the most dependable line—the luring bait. To go fishing with Shakespeare stuff means that—if the weather is right—and the season is on—and you're not an utter boob—you're BOUND to get the biggest bass in the hole.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There

W. J. Greer was in town Wednesday from South Llano.

Wiley Anderson of Rocksprings was a Kerrville visitor Wednesday.

E. P. and Q. Marshall were here Wednesday from Rocksprings.

Mrs. Robert Loeffler of Junction was the guest of Mrs. Walter Coleman for several days.

Miss Helen Dietert is assisting Lee Mason & Son temporarily until Miss Ethel Williams, who is ill with the "flu," is able to be at work again.

Mrs. T. R. Biggers and daughter, Mrs. L. A. Dickey of West Point, Va., spent two weeks with Mrs. Clifford Quintal, who is also a daughter of Mrs. Biggers.

Rud Ort of Wichita Falls, who is spending some time at Boerne, was in town Friday while on his way to Kerrville to spend several days on business.—Comfort News.

Mrs. T. R. McSween leaves this week for Crandall, near Dallas, where she will engage in the millinery business. She is followed by the best wishes of many friends here.

Miss Hattie Garrett, who has been visiting her homefolk here while the San Antonio schools were closed, returned Wednesday to the Alamo City to resume her duties as a teacher.

Miss Edith Sutton returned Wednesday to San Antonio to again take up her duties as teacher in the schools of that city, after spending the quarantine season with her parents here.

W. E. Dietert arrived here last week from San Antonio, where he has been for the past several months, and expects to be here for some time. Mrs. Emil Dietert returned home with him after a week's visit in San Antonio.

Mrs. Miller Harwood was called last Wednesday to San Antonio by the serious illness and subsequent death of her father, Mr. T. J. Leverton, who died of pneumonia after four days' illness. The body was taken to Houston, Mr. Leverton's birthplace, for burial.

The Pig Club members now have young pigs for sale, both of either sex, unrelated, papers furnished. We would like to see these pigs stay in Kerr County, as there are no better bred hogs anywhere. If you can use any of the pigs get in touch with County Agent Quintal.

QUARANTINE OFF MONDAY

City Health Officer Palmer informs The Mountain Sun that the quarantine remains on till next Monday morning and that no public gatherings meantime will be lawful.

The "flu," having probably passed its apex and being now on the decline, has numbered over two hundred cases in the city, with only one or two deaths, though some of the cases have been rather serious.

The schools of the city will reopen Monday, after which all quarantine restrictions as to gatherings are off until further notice from Dr. Palmer.—K.M.S.

BASEBALL MEETING

The Mountain Sun has received for publication a call for a mass meeting at the Court House this Friday night at 8 o'clock to organize for the baseball season, but inasmuch as the quarantine ban on public gatherings is not lifted till next Monday, we judge the meeting will be postponed, though we have not been so notified.—K.M.S.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

Remember the first Sunday in March is when Evangelist Flowers and his wife will be here to begin a meeting. This meeting is for the town, not alone for the people called "Methodists." If you fail to get good from this meeting it will be because you are at fault. Keep it in mind, pray for it, work for it, boost it, come and put something into it. It is for you! Have you paid your Centenary pledge for this year? It was due Jan. 1st.

We extend a very cordial invitation to all strangers of the city to worship with us.

ROY T. HOUTS, Pastor.

The poll tax records for Kendall County show that 756 men and 33 women paid their poll tax for 1919, and that there were 27 exemptions, thus making a total of 816 persons in this county who are entitled to vote in this year's elections.—Comfort News.—K.M.S.
