ADVERTISING IS KEY TO SUCCESSFUL MERCHANDISING SAYS FRED P. MANN

Local Merchants Enjoy Rare Treat at Chamber of Commerce Meeting Saturday Night—100 in Attendance.

Enthusiasm and good fellowship marked the membership meeting of Chamber of Commerce at the St. Charles Hotel last Friday evening.

Following these reports the meeting was turned over to Herbert L. Crate, who was in charge of the program for the evening.

Mr. Mann's address was the feature of the meeting and was of untold benefit to the merchants and business men who heard it.

Mr. Mann's address was the feature of the meeting and was of untold benefit to the merchants and business men who heard it.

Immediately following the banquet the business session opened with the reading of minutes of the December meeting.

Work on Country Club

Cecil Robinson reported excellent progress on the building of the country club, stating that payments by members were rapidly being received.

Mr. Robinson reported that while the inclement weather had interfered considerably with work, enough had been accomplished in the way of clearing the site for the club house and the laying out of the course to enable work to be resumed as soon as the weather becomes more favorable.

Sept. R. A. Franklin of the public schools reported the completion of the house numbering by the civics class with the exception of a block or two in the business district.

Report Encampment Sites

Rev. F. A. White of the Methodist Church gave a brief report of the visit of the Methodist Encampment locating committee here last week, commending the Chamber of Commerce for the broad scope of its work in touching practically every phase of the community life and work.

County Agent J. C. Yeary told of the wonderful co-operation he had received from the Chamber in his work and expressed sincere thanks for same.

Howard Butt submitted a report of the proposed summer camp for the Shrine Patrol of Alzafar Temple of San Antonio, reading an extract from a letter received from P. D. Mathis, secretary of the Shrine body in the Alamo City, in which it was suggested that the Chamber of Commerce get in touch with the Alzafar Patrol.

Mr. Mann stated the first step he had taken after opening his business was to let the people know through advertising just what he had for sale and the price he wanted for it.

MANN IS FAVORABLY IMPRESSED BY CITY

After a brief visit in Kerrville as the guest of the Chamber of Commerce, Fred P. Mann, a director of the United States Chamber of Commerce, expressed himself as favorably impressed with Kerrville and the excellent conditions and co-operation that prevail here.

Mr. Mann liked Kerrville so well that he remained over Sunday, leaving here with but time enough to make a close railroad connection in San Antonio.

Mr. Mann then launched in the details of buying from mail order houses and chain stores, showing what became of money spent with these concerns.

He showed clearly how the mail order houses secured their business through the use of well written catalogs and printed matter, declaring that the only way to compete with them is to advertise and sell the people what the home merchant has and the price he sells it for.

The speaker stated that in these days buyers were governed largely in their choice of merchandise by their pocket books, the price having an important bearing on the purchase of items.

Value of Advertising Great Attractive well written advertisements are the best drawing cards any business can have, Mr. Mann stated.

He said the smaller merchants are unable to employ the services of high skilled or skillful ad writers and suggested as an alternative the using of some of the ideas developed by the professional ad men in mail order catalogs.

The speaker closed his address with a display of some of the advertisements used by his store to get the business, pointing out that a merchant can't expect to sell an article unless he lets his customer know he has it.

Judge Julius Real, at the close of Mr. Mann's address, offered a resolution of thanks to Mr. Mann and the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce on behalf of the local organization, for the privilege of hearing so able an address.

The regular weekly showers set in again Sunday morning and when the skies cleared Tuesday morning the Government rain gauge had registered .21 inch.

Temperatures during the past week have been rather mild, no freezing weather having been experienced.

COMMISSIONERS DEFER ACTION ON SEWER BIDS

Unable to Reach Decision at Sessions Held Tuesday and Wednesday; Hope to Make Award Friday.

No decisions as to awarding of a contract for construction of the sewer system were arrived at by the City Commission at meetings held Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning.

Two bids in addition to the proposition of the Municipal Engineering Co. were received. McKenzie Construction Co. and Elder Construction Co. of San Antonio submitted figures at the Tuesday meeting.

Another meeting is scheduled to be held some time Friday and it is believed a decision will be reached at this session.

NEW ADDITION BEING MADE TO BUILDING OF GUADALUPE CAFE

Large Kitchen Being Built on Rear to Enlarge Dining Room; Improvements Also to Be Made in Fixtures.

Work was commenced Wednesday morning on a new addition to the building occupied by the Guadalupe Cafe. Growing business made necessary an enlargement of the house and when finished the remodelled cafe will be one of the best in this section.

The part now used as the kitchen will be added to the dining room, giving a greatly increased floor space. New fixtures will be added in the dining room and kitchen to improve the appearance of the interior and to facilitate better service and greater comfort.

O. M. Salmon, owner of the Guadalupe, has built up a substantial business during the past year by close observance of the best business methods and through the high standard of meals, service and courtesy he has established, and Kerrville may well feel proud of these new improvements which will place the cafe among the best in the entire section.

KERR COUNTY FARMERS TO PUT ON PECAN BUDDING CAMPAIGN

Movement Underway to Bud 6,000 Trees This Spring—Project Will Mean Much to Entire Country.

A meeting of community project leaders from different parts of Kerr County was held last Friday afternoon in the office of County Agent J. C. Yeary at which plans were made for the putting on of a pecan budding campaign in the county this spring.

Plans were completed to bud at least 6,000 young trees during the latter part of March and the early part of April. Stock from large paper shell trees is to be used in the project. The owners are to purchase the buds, furnish the knives, wax, etc., and assist in the work.

A scholl of instruction is to be held just before the work is taken up in order that all those who are to do the work may thoroughly understand it. This school will be conducted by the County Agent.

Community leaders are now circulating petitions in their sections and securing a list of the men who want to bud some of their trees. Those who are interested in this matter and wish to bud trees this spring should get in touch with his community leader or the County Agent.

The leaders must know by February 10 just how many buds will be required in order to put in an order for them and be sure of getting them.

Community leaders of this project are: Eddie Boerner, Lane Valley; J. W. Denton, Sunset; John Shumaker, Hunt; A. D. McBryde, Camp Verde; Ivy Rees, Center Point; A. Mosel, Ingram; and Victor Boerner, Cypress Creek.

If there is no leader in a community with a petition, persons interested should get in touch with the County Agent and help to circulate a petition.

The movement is considered one of the most valuable to the County that has ever been started. With the development of pecan growing another source of revenue to producers is opened.

KERR COUNTY DISTRICT COURT TO CONVENE MONDAY MORNING

Thirty-One Cases on Civil Docket and Twenty-Four on Criminal—No New Cases on State Blotter.

Kerr County District Court will convene at the Court House at 10 o'clock next Monday morning for the winter term, with Judge R. H. Burney of the 38th Judicial District presiding.

An unusually heavy docket faces the coming term, nearly sixty cases being on file. This is the largest number of cases to be taken up for the past several terms.

Civil cases showed an increase over the past two terms, thirty-one complaints appearing on the blotter. Fourteen of this number were carried over from the August session and the remaining 17 are new cases.

The number of criminal cases recorded showed a decrease of four under the August term. Twenty-seven charges are spread on the docket, all of which were carried over from the past term.

Eleven of the cases on the criminal blotter were continued for service, several of which have been carried in that manner for a number of years.

Of these cases four are for swindling under $50, two for burglary, two for theft of mules and one each for murder, unlawfully selling intoxicating liquor and desertion of children. The single murder case has been on file since 1906, no arrest as yet having been made.

Following is the criminal docket: State vs. Telesforo Trevino, unlawfully selling intoxicating liquor; State vs. Arthur Hagens, aggravated assault; State vs. Frank Phillips, unlawfully manufacturing intoxicating liquor, continued under suspended sentence; State vs. E. B. King, same as preceding case; State vs. Granville Jackson, three indictments for unlawfully manufacturing intoxicating liquor; State vs. Chas. Limburger, unlawfully carrying a pistol; State vs. Florencio Sanchez, unlawfully selling intoxicating liquor; State vs. L. A. Mitchell, unlawfully transporting intoxicating liquor; State vs. L. A. Mitchell, unlawfully selling intoxicating liquor; State vs. O. J. Bean, two indictments for theft of a goat; State vs. Claud Sageser and Roy Ogletree, theft of property over $50 value; State vs. Claud Sageser and Roy Ogletree, theft of property under $50 value; State vs. Cora Love, unlawfully carrying a pistol.

Civil docket cases follow: Francis Pena vs. Santiago Pena, suit for divorce; Gov. Morris vs. B. W. Hopson and the Hopson-Davis Co., Inc., suit for collection of check; C. H. Leesman vs. Jennie Leesman, suit for divorce; Ellen Rees et al vs. Ella Bell et al, suit for partition and division of estate; W. A. Stroman vs. J. Lee Corder, suit on promissory note; W. E. NEWSPAPERS GIVEN FIRST CLASS RATING BY P. O. DEPARTMENT

New Ruling Places Newspapers in Same Class With First Class Mail; Will Expedite Delivery.

Postmaster E. Gold has received notification from the Postmaster General to the effect that all newspapers will in the future be regarded by the various Post Offices in the United States as ranking in importance with first class mail, and to be handled in an expeditious manner as letters.

The order is the result of painstaking effort on the part of the Post Office Inspectors, under the direction of First Assistant Postmaster General Bartlett. Carefully worded and minute instructions have been issued to all employees engaged in handling the mails, so that there will be no possibility of misunderstanding the importance of getting newspapers to the reader with a minimum of delay.

The essence of the order is that newspapers shall not be mixed with parcels post at any point in their dispatch from the publishers' offices until their delivery to the addressees. Papers shall be handled by themselves, and kept in constant transit, not being sent to railway terminals to be reworked. In other words, they are to be handled in the same manner as first class mail.

Under the new system, newspapers will be made up in separate sacks plainly labeled with the word "Newspapers." If there are only a few copies of newspapers at the point of dispatch, they will be placed in pouches with first class mail or in sacks, even though the sacks are only partially filled. This order means much to the American people, and is one of the most important and far reaching steps in Post Office history. By it all subscribers getting their papers at a distance will receive their papers as quickly as they would a letter.

Comfort Chat

News, January 24th: Mrs. Louis Wiedenfeld was the guest of her son, Benno, at Kerrview farm last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Real of Kerrville passed through Comfort Monday enroute to San Antonio to hear Sousa's Band.

Mrs. J. C. Rees of Kerrville, who was operated on ten days ago at Fredericksburg is rapidly recovering, and left the hospital Wednesday.

Last Friday quite a hauling feat was accomplished when the 14,000 pound new engine for the local electric light plant was successfully moved from the railroad platform to the site of the plant. The heavy piece of machinery was transported on a truck, not a part being damaged in the slightest degree. The engine has been placed on its foundation, and the work on the building is progressing satisfactorily. Linemen are busily engaged stringing wires, and everything possible is being done to hasten the completion of the new plant.

Schreiner Basketeers Lose

Boerne, Jan. 26.—The Boerne High quintet defeated the Schreiner five here Saturday by a score of 20 to 8.

The Schreiner boys were unable to penetrate Boerne's five man defense and were held scoreless in the first and third quarters.

The lineup: Boerne—Holekamp, Wendler, Coryell, forwards; Bremer, center; Kutzer, Reinhard, Phillip, guards. Schreiner—Dibrell, Boykin, Haily, forwards; Goss, Dielert, center; Edwards, Palmer, Barton, guards.

Mrs. Kyle Cowser of Junction arrived Wednesday for a visit with Mrs. M. A. Love. Mrs. Cowser formerly made her home in Kerrville and has a host of friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gustafson of Round Rock and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Gustafson of San Antonio spent the past week end here visiting the former's son, who is a patient in a local sanatorium.

Mrs. W. T. Kuesel and son, Charles, left Wednesday for Galveston, where the latter has accepted a position and will make his home. Mrs. Kuesel will visit relatives a short time before returning here.

Dr. J. B. McKnight and daughter, Miss Mary, of Carlsbad, arrived Tuesday. Dr. McKnight is a member of the board of control of the Legion Hospital and is here on business in that connection.

WOOL AND MOHAIR DEALERS SEEK BETTER FREIGHT RATES

San Angelo, Tex., Jan. 29.—A blanket freight rate on wool and mohair from concentration points in Texas to Eastern markets will be sought by the Southwest Texas Wool and Mohair Dealers' Association, which was organized in San Angelo Saturday at a meeting called by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, at the request of Duwain E. Hughes, secretary-treasurer and manager of the West Texas Wool and Mohair Association of Metzron.

Rates are now not uniform, Mr. Hughes said, quoting them from certain points to Boston as follows: San Angelo, $1.80; Metzron, $1.91; Del Rio, $2.08; Fort Stockton and Alpine, $2.27; El Paso, $2.16; Uvalde, $1.80, and Kerrville, $1.85.

Upon the suggestion of W. H. Hargrove, general freight and passenger agent here for the Orient Railroad, the secretary of the new association likely will write to A. C. Fonda, chairman of the Texas Tariff Bureau and agent for all lines at Dallas, requesting that he docket the case. The services of its tariff expert, tendered by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, also will be accepted.

C. C. Bolcher of Del Rio, attorney for the Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association of Texas, said that the wool and mohair men have been solicited to join existing co-operative marketing bodies and contract their clips, but said that owing to the compactness of the wool and mohair producing country and the acquaintances of the leaders and their familiarity with problems, it was decided to organize a separate concern. A committee has been named to investigate the best plan of co-operative marketing and will report to the executive committee of the Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association in Texas, in quarterly session at Uvalde February 4. At that time further activities of the Southwest Texas Wool and Mohair Dealers' Association will be outlined.

Officers elected for the new association are: President, D. E. Hughes of Metzron; vice president, Lee Drisdale of Juno; secretary, Ed Blanton of San Angelo. Mr. Blanton is editor of the Sheep and Goat Raisers' Magazine, official organ of the Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association of Texas. J. B. Moore of Del Rio, an president of this association, presided at the meeting here.

Railway agents present included: Harry Hargrove of the Orient; J. S. Purdy of the Santa Fe, and Wade Cunningham of the Southern Pacific Lines. They assured the producers that the railroads would be in accord with their plans and offered every possible assistance.

Hawaiians at Dixie Tonight

Theater-goers will enjoy a rare treat at the Dixie Theater tonight, furnished by a troupe of Hawaiians. This is the same group of musicians that put on a program here some weeks ago and they won the plaudits of the large audience to such an extent that Manager Brice has arranged for a return engagement. They will give an entirely new program at tonight's performance.

In addition to this attraction the regular motion picture program is to be offered, the screen feature being Dorothy Dalton, assisted by an all-star cast in her latest success, "Fog Bound."

The Hawaiian program will be given tonight only.

CANNED CHEVON

Devils' River News: It might interest some of the readers to know that it is possible to can chevon very satisfactorily and that the product is very appetizing.

Mrs. O. G. Babcock, with the help of her neighbors, canned the greater part of a goat with a total outlay of 87 cents. She used glass jars she already had on hand for the containers. The expenses were for lard, oil, jar rubbers, and seasoning. The vegetables for the soup she had on hand, having saved them from her garden last summer.

After saving out some meat to be eaten fresh, the following amount was put up: 12 pints, chili; 6 quarts, soup; 8 pints, steak; 4 pints, stew meat.

It is a conservative estimate to value each pint at 35 cents; thirty pints at 35 cents makes a total of $10.50. Mrs. Babcock was fortunate to have been given the goat, but had she bought it, it probably would have cost $3 or less. Thus she really saved the difference between the value of the raw product and the finished product, which is $6.63.

Comfort Getting Ready for Baseball

The baseball bug is beginning to thaw out a little during these warm days when the sun makes more men shed their top coat along about noon. Locally some gossip is heard about the National partime, but nothing is scheduled to happen until late next month.

A report reaches here that a mass meeting is to be held in Comfort tonight for the purpose of reorganizing a ball club for the coming season. News also comes that the neighboring city will exert every effort to put a strong team in the field again this season.

Comfort may well feel proud of the team she developed last year, and if they do as well, if not better, this season the Athletics may expect a strong contender for the Hill Country laurels.

The Auxiliary to the American Legion will meet at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. H. Kahlmann.

Forecasting A Tremendous Spring Demand

more Ford cars and trucks were produced last year than the previous year, an increase of over 50 per cent.

In spite of this tremendous increase in production, it was impossible to meet delivery requirements during the spring and summer months when orders for 350,000 Ford Cars and Trucks could not be filled.

This year winter buying for immediate delivery has been more active than ever before—and in addition 200,000 orders have already been booked through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan for spring delivery.

These facts clearly indicate that the demand during this spring and summer will be far greater than ever, and that orders should be placed immediately with Ford Dealers as a means of protection against delay in securing your Ford Car or Truck or Fordson Tractor.

A small deposit down, with easy payments of the balance arranged, or your enrollment under the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan, will put your order on the preferred list for spring delivery.

INTRASTATE BUTTER

Texas Commercial News: Texas boasts of the most cattle of any state in the union.

Texas bought in 1923 twenty million pounds of butter.

The most of this butter came from the North Central States.

The dairymen of those states have to house their cattle for many months in the year, they are without pasturage for many weeks, and the expense of keeping cattle is many times what it is in the South where green pasturage is possible 12 months in the year.

Texas ought to grow more dairy cows, and this intrastate butter ought to be out of Texas rather into Texas.

Many farmers who find it difficult to pay their store-made grocery bills could wipe that worry out with one or two dairy cows.

BEAUTIFUL WORDS

Fort Worth Star-Telegram: What are the 20 most beautiful words in the English language?

From thousands of lists submitted in a contest recently held in New York the judges picked the following: Melody, splendor, adoration, eloquence, virtue, innocence, modesty, faith, joy, honor, radiance, nobility, sympathy, heaven, hope, love, harmony, liberty, happiness, purity.

The judges announced that some words, connoting associations most dear to the human heart, were rejected because of harshness of sound.

For instance, "grace," was thrown out because of the harshness of the "g," "justice," suffered the same fate because of the hard "j," "truth" because of its metallic sound.

But this consideration of the ear does not explain why "mother," and "home," were omitted from the list. They are not harsh sounding words, and surely no other two words more nearly translate the sum of all human happiness.

YOUNG MAN

Southwestern Machinery Magazine: The head of a great wholesale house surprised his friends recently by announcing that he intended training his son in the craft of brick mason.

"And why masonry?" he said. "It is an honorable calling, pays well, and has as much future as anything I know."

This may be regarded as a significant straw, gauging the trend of the winds of progress. The dignity of craftsmanship is coming to be appreciated. We are told that 90 per cent of the young men turned out by schools are fitted for white collar jobs, while only 10 per cent of them can get such jobs.

That's something to think about. Schools are going to have to do right about and meet the situation. Moreover, people are going to change their viewpoints. A pair of overalls, and not a white collar, must come to be recognized as the badge of quality.

"One of the greatest problems of today," says Franklin D. Roosevelt, president of the National Construction Council, "is the lack of young men to fill the ranks of certain trades, and the surplus of workers in the so-called white collar occupations."

"Our hope lies in education, in the training of the hand of the youth as well as the head," concludes James J. Davis, Secretary of Labor.

White collar jobs aren't what they used to be. There's too much competition—due to the effectiveness of the law of supply and demand. Every young man thinks he wants a white collar job. And as a result, we hear much of the difference in the pay of a school teacher and a brick mason, for instance.

It is significant to note that a majority of our big executives began in overalls and worked up. We may attribute this to the fact that they learn the business from the ground up, and therefore know all its intricacies.

On the other hand, the average white collar man learns one department of the business, and may rise to the head of his division, but rarely becomes equipped to direct the whole project. The exception to this is the man who begins with a small business and grows up with it.

Young man weigh the facts; look ahead; build for the future. Despise not the grime of toil. Dignify the work you undertake.

Uvalde Leader-News: If one were to stop every paper because there was something in it that did not suit him; to never go to hear a speaker because he could not agree with all he said; not associate with anyone because he did not believe as they did—soon he would be a hermit living unto himself and such an intolerant, selfish individual that everyone would be glad to get rid of him. It is the broad-minded man who wants both sides of a question and with sense enough to reason them out for himself and to his own satisfaction as to their merits—he holds a community together and keeps Democracy safe. Young men and young women should use that type of a citizen as a model. It will pay.

NEFF VISITS LINCOLN TOMB AND LEE STATUE

Austin, Tex., Jan. 21.—Governor Neff returned to Austin Monday after an absence of 10 days from the State.

During his absence from Texas, Governor Neff made addresses at Springfield, Ill., as guest of the Mid-Day Luncheon Club of that city, and at the annual meeting of the Anti-Saloon League of America at Washington. On the return trip to Texas he made a brief visit to the Governor of Virginia at Richmond and also attended the unveiling of the Robert E. Lee statue at Stone Mountain, near Atlanta.

"After having visited the tomb and home of Lincoln in Illinois, mixed with the law-makers in the National Congress and participated in the Lee statue unveiling ceremonies in Georgia, I return to Texas full of patriotism and with renewed vigor to fight the problems of our people," Governor Neff said.

Cattle Clatter, San Antonio Express: Charles Schreiner and Sons, Kerrville, have sent in $200 to apply on the monument fund of the Old Trail Drivers' Association. This announcement was made by George W. Saunders yesterday—and made with a great deal of pride and happiness on the part of the president of the O. T. Ds. Association. This handsome donation is indeed an acceptable timely and inspiring one. A pioneer of pioneers himself, Captain Schreiner loves all things pertaining to the pioneer cause. From day to day the cause grows. Some fine day the monument will be dedicated with splendid ceremonies and a big concourse of people, on a splendid height along San Antonio's to-be famous "sky-line" drive, which is to be just a bit further up and on the west of the present famous Alpine Drive, above the beautiful sunken gardens of Brackenridge Park.

GET-RICH-QUICK SCHEMES COST PEOPLE HALF BILLION

Through the greasy smiles of promoters of oil wells that never came in, because of the wiles of "blue-sky" salesmen of questionable stock, and as a result of the gaudy promises of "100 per cent on your money," the people of the United States lost more than $500,000,000 last year, between $4 and $5 for every man, woman and child in this country, according to statistics received by Postmaster E. Gold from Dinsmore W. Hume, Director of Government Savings in this reserve district, whose headquarters are in the Federal Reserve Bank at Dallas.

"Most of these losses were preventable. Nine out of ten of them would not have occurred had the investor investigated a bit," the Postmaster said.

"The woods are still full of unscrupulous people and companies whose motto is 'find 'em, frisk 'em and forget 'em!'" But losses in our community are becoming rarer because of two things. Most people know that the U. S. Government has made it possible for them to obtain a compound interest-bearing Government security right here at the post office that is loss-proof and fool-proof. A security that earns good interest, that is cashable at any time by the owner and one that can be obtained in large or small denominations. I refer to Treasury Savings Certificates. Another thing our people are doing that is saving them loss is consulting their bankers before making an investment they are not fully acquainted with and of whose safety they are not absolutely certain."

Pioneer Woman Celebrates Birthday

Mrs. Susan Virginia New was honored on her eightieth birthday anniversary with a dinner at the home of her grandson, Isaac Merritt, in Ingram last Friday. A large number of relatives and friends were present for the enjoyable occasion.

Mrs. New is a native of Mississippi, coming to Texas in 1850 and settling in Kerr County thirty years later. She was married in Bee County to William B. New in 1865. Eleven children blessed this union, three of which were boys and eight girls. Six daughters and two sons are still living.

An old fashioned dinner was served to the following relatives: Mr. and Mrs. Bob Merritt and children; Mr. and Mrs. Wedekind and daughter, Leona; Mr. and Mrs. Conn; Mrs. Bass and two children, Lorene and Willard; Mr. and Mrs. Menges; Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Merritt and children; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Merritt; Mrs. W. H. Crider and children, Wilton and Glenwood; Mrs. Owen Merritt and baby, Derwood; Loy Merritt and wife; Orville, Clyde, Ross and Grace Merritt; Mrs. J. M. Howell; C. W. Howell and children, Walker and Grayson; Earl, Clarence, Ruth and Pearl Howell; Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Merritt and children, Imogene, Elouise and Billy; Mrs. Bitha Eden and children, New and Alphon; Isaac New, Miss Inez New, Dave Watson and Howard Lackey of San Antonio.

Others present included Mr. and Mrs. Jno. S. Callaway, Miss Mildred Callaway, Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Garland, Mr. Garland, Green Lackey, Misses Pearl and Elizabeth Nichols, Mrs. Chas. Wesch, Mrs. Cheshier and children and Mrs. M. Crider.

Unearths Old Relic

Uvalde Leader-News: E. L. Downs, who for over 60 years has been a resident on the Leona River south of Uvalde, unearthed a glass vessel a foot or more beneath the ground. He knows the ground has not been disturbed for over 60 years. The glass is in the shape of a goblet and evidently had a silver stand. It appears as though it might have been used in some church service.

Mr. Downs does not know how the glass came to be there unless some travelers from Mexico, at an early date, buried that and other articles to prevent them being captured by robbers. He intends to make other excavations and see if other treasures can be unearthed.

Sugar-Cured Pork

The following has been sent out by the extension service of the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College as a dependable recipe that has been used successfully by G. W. Eudaly, former county agent for Tarrant County, Texas, for more than twenty years.

Cut hog as soon as cleaned and salt down in bulk while meat is still warm. Let lie in salt three or four hours, then spread out until thoroughly cooled. Then salt down with a good layer of salt on bottom of box. Do not let pieces of meat touch sides of box or each other. Fill all spaces with salt and place a good layer on top. It will keep the meat cool, as well as keeping flies out. Salt is much cheaper than meat. Therefore use it liberally.

Let the meat remain in the salt undisturbed for four or five weeks, according to the weather—that is, if the weather is very cold a longer period is necessary than if it is milder. Take the meat up, wash off the salt, hang up and smoke meat with corn cobs or green hickory or pecan until it is nicely brown. Then cover it with a paste composed of two ounces of sugar (or four of molasses), half ounce of ground black pepper to one pint of flour. Wrap each piece well with paper, put into flour sacks covered with paste to keep out skipper flies and hang up until wanted.

Parent-Teacher's Club

HYBRID FOWLS, TURKENS, SEEN AT TEMPLE SHOW

Temple, Tex., Jan. 20.—A pen of hybrid birds known as turkens, a cross breed of turkey, pheasant and chicken, is the center of attraction at the annual poultry show of the Bell County Poultry Association, being held here.

The birds, known as Russian Orloff turkens, are owned by Mrs. Henrietta Crossland of Temple. They were hatched from eggs shipped here from California. The resemblance to a chicken is more than that of turkey, but they are heavier than chickens and have heads like turkeys.

The meat is more tender than either chicken or turkey, it is said, and for laying purposes the birds know no closed season or eight-hour day.

Luncheon For Official

Dr. Henry L. Stickney of Washington, D. C., who was here last week inspecting the U. S. Veterans' Hospital No. 93, was entertained by the Chamber of Commerce with a luncheon at the St. Charles Hotel last Thursday noon.

Dr. Stickney, in conference with Chamber of Commerce officials, expressed approval of the hospital and when asked about the purchase of the institution by the Government, intimated that he would recommend that course in his report on the visit here.

Those present at the luncheon included Dr. Stickney, E. H. Prescott of the Chamber of Commerce, A. B. Williamson, Dr. S. E. Thompson and Dr. Farnsworth.

Twenty Years of Successful Automobile Building

January 28, Buick celebrates its twentieth birthday.

Proud as Buick is of its growth within the short space of two decades, it is not in its vast organization that Buick takes its greatest pride. Rather it is in what these attainments indicate.

Buick's position of leadership has been achieved solely by the accomplishments of Buick cars in the hands of more than a million owners. In their dependable performance, in their satisfying comfort, and in their year by year fulfillment of every demand of motoring, Buick cars have won the place they occupy.

From the rich background of experience—with all of its unequalled manufacturing facilities—and inspired by a deep sense of personal obligation to Buick friends, owners and the general public—Buick will seek ever to maintain on an even higher level the confidence of the public which it now enjoys.

NATURE CHANGES WAY: GOAT AND SHEEP INTER-BREED ON HAYS RANCH

Democrat-Voice (Coleman, Texas): Is nature changing her ways? Maybe so. J. S. Hays, who ranches on the Colorado River near Waldrip, thinks so.

Mr. Hays has several lambs that are the progeny of a cross between goats and sheep. There may be some who will say "there ain't no such animal," but Mr. Hays has the evidence to support the statement which he made in Coleman last Friday.

The lambs of the cross are now about six weeks old; they show sheep's wool on the folds of their necks while the body wool is goat hair unmistakably, says Mr. Hays. The heads of the lambs show the characteristics of sheep, while the chassis and running gear will pass for chevons.

Mr. Hays says the sire of the new progeny is a billy goat and the dams are Merino sheep. If the time should come to "separate the goats from the sheep" on the J. S. Hays ranch, a surgeon's knife will have to be used.

Pass the grape juice!

E. YARBROUGH ASSUMES CHARGE OF MILLER GROCERY

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. E. Yarbrough and two children arrived from Devers and Tuesday morning Mr. Yarbrough assumed control of the Miller Grocery, which he purchased some time ago.

After purchasing the store, Mr. Yarbrough returned to Devers to superintend the removal of his family to this city, leaving the store in charge of his brother, J. W. Yarbrough, assisted by Mr. Miller.

Mr. Yarbrough is an experienced retail man and the way he is taking hold of his new enterprise and the improvements he is planning for the future demonstrate that he will be a welcome addition to the city's business circles.

For the present the family will reside with J. W. Yarbrough at the Mountain View Inn, but as soon as they get a chance to look around and get settled in a business way they expect to locate in a home of their own. The Sun joins in welcoming this estimable family to the business and social circles of the city.

Let's Start a Bank Account

Progressive Farmer: Banks in a way serve the same purpose as an implement storage barn. Did you ever think of that? Implements stored under good shelter are protected and preserved, we know where they are, can check them up or inspect them at any time, and they are ready for use at any time we have need for them. It is the same way with money deposited in a bank, and there is one additional and very great advantage. This comes from paying all bills by check—the check being a receipt for all payments thus made and no money is paid by the bank until the receipt is given by the endorsement on the back. Our obligations are discharged, recorded, and receipt taken when we pay by check. Then when we can check up at the end of each month and see where our pennies, dimes, and dollars go, we naturally are more careful to see that we get full value in return for all we pay out.

Having started a checking account, it becomes a much easier matter to then start a savings account. Every man feels just a little prouder of himself when he has a bank account and pays bills by check. That very fact takes him out of the ranks of the unprogressive and puts him in the class with the real business men.

GERMAN TRENCH MORTAR SOUGHT FOR SAN ANTONIO

San Antonio Express, Jan. 23: Intense efforts on the part of San Antonio men interested in military affairs will be made to bring to this city the only German trench mortar captured by American troops in the World War, and which is to be given by the Government to some Texas city by virtue of the fact that the gun was captured by Texas troops. This was announced following an article appearing in a Houston paper, laying claim to the gun for that city because of its nearness to the battleground of San Jacinto.

The military affairs committee of the Chamber of Commerce, the American Legion and the Reserve Officers are some of the organizations which are going to support San Antonio's claim to the mortar, which, if given to this city, probably would be placed in the Alamo.

Ralph D. Durkee, president of the Reserve Officers' Association, said Tuesday that as soon as possible he intended to communicate with Senator Morris Sheppard and Congressman W. A. Wurzbach in the interest of San Antonio's petition for the trophy of war.

B. M. HALBERT BUSY BOOSTING ANGORAS STATE HIGHWAY FUNDS NOW OVER $2,000,000

"If a poor man wants a bank account, he can have it by going into the Angora goat business."

"Goats pay better than bonds, because you can only clip the bonds twice a year for interest, while with the goats, you clip twice a year for mohair, get an increase in kids for the flock, and have source of food supply in chevons that is always at hand the whole year round."

This is the idea of B. M. Halbert, San Angelo resident, who ranches near Sonora. He writes for the Angora Journal for January as follows:

"My attention was attracted to the goat business while keeping books in Sonora, Texas, some thirty years ago. We had only three goat men in Sutton County as customers. I had been with one of these men down in Kinney County when he bought a nice flock of shearing goats at $1 per head. Six months later he got a clip, shipped the mohair, and the returns more than paid for the goats."

"These three goat men had cattle on their ranches that did not always pay, but their returns from surplus stock goats and from mohair twice a year kept their accounts paid up, and they were always in good shape financially."

"I took a good deal of interest in their Angoras and made up my mind that just as soon as I got out on the ranch I wanted some goats. I was sure they would pay their upkeep and at least 25 per cent on the money invested."

"So, in June, 1900, we launched into the goat and mohair business. Soon we found that the wolves, Mexicans, lightning and cold rains would reduce the herds, but with all this trouble, we found them money-makers."

"By that time we had other goat men in the country. The cow man, who had goats, sent us word he had sold his ranch, was taking his cattle to New Mexico, and would sell his Angoras."

"We divided the goats into three classes at different prices and figured a total of $2,001.75 for the lot. I wrote my check for $2,000, handed it to the cow man, but he said: 'No, sir! Made me dig up the $1.75 in change. That was in the fall and the goats were in the wool. Next spring we sheared, sold the old does, chevons and mohair for $2,000; kidded out and had about one thousand head of that flock left that stood us only $1.75. So the next fall I wrote the cow man in New Mexico that I was still out my $1.75, but that he had a good case against me, for I had gotten his goats for nothing."

"The milk goat men say goats are 'the poor man's cow,' but I will say right here:

"If a poor man wants a bank account, he can have it by going into the Angora goat business. From my own personal knowledge I can name man after man in this country who started with a few Angora goats and are now ranch owners, with cattle, sheep and goats on their ranges, and are well-to-do."

JAKE KLEIN INJURED BY DYNAMITE EXPLOSION

Fredericksburg Radio Post: Jake Klein, of the Reservation community, had the misfortune of losing one eye and having his face lacerated when blasting in post holes last Thursday using dynamite. He had placed the dynamite and was using coals of fire. He noticed smoke, but concluded it arose from his fire.

The fuse was causing the smoke however, and the charge went off before it was intended and as he realized what was happening he could not get out of the way.

Had he been directly over the hole, he would have been killed instantly. He was rushed immediately to Kerrville for medical attention. At the time of this writing he is resting as well as can be expected.

Mr. Klein and his family have the deepest sympathy of the entire Harper section.
