

THE WEEK IN SOCIETY

Justameres Entertained

Mrs. W. C. Fawcett was hostess to the Justamere Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gerald Walther.

Five tables of players enjoyed the games. Guests' high score prize went to Miss Kate Conger.

A delicious salad course was served to the club members and the following guests: Mesdames J. D. Jackson, Dick Eastland, Miller Harwood, M. Doyle, Merrill Doyle, Jack Stevens, C. E. Brasher and Miss Catherine Parr and Kate Conger.

Mrs. Guber Gibson will entertain the club next week.

Sub-Debs Honor Miss Brashear

The Sub-Debs entertained with a farewell party Tuesday night honoring Miss Mae ("Doots") Brashear, one of their members, who left yesterday for her home in Winsboro, La.

The young ladies and their escorts attended the picture show at the Dixie. Then all went to Ayala's Mexican Restaurant, where they were served a delicious Mexican supper.

Those invited were Misses Mae Brashear, the honoree, Ada Nance, Lucille and Ruth McCoy, Carlette Tarver, Lucille Taylor, Genevieve Hagens and Margaret Delaney, and Arthur Lochte, Milton Dietert, Arthur Saenger, John L. Dibrell, Otis Powell, Raymond Fisk, Alois Hartmann and Carl Peterson.

Sanderson-Doyle

The wedding of Miss Peggy Sanderson of Tampa, Fla., and Merrill Doyle of Kerrville was quietly solemnized Tuesday evening at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Doyle. The house was beautifully decorated with pink and white sweet peas and ferns.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Jack Stevens of Smithville, sister of the groom, sang Mascheroni's "Till Death You are My All." Mrs. G. M. Doyle, the groom's mother, accompanied at the piano.

The impressive ring ceremony was read by Rev. W. P. Dickey, of the First Presbyterian Church.

Jack Stevens of Smithville was best man and Mrs. Stevens was matron of honor.

The bride wore a handsome robe of midnight blue chantilly lace with slippers and hose to match, and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and sweet peas.

Mrs. Stevens wore a gown of beige georgette beaded in pastels. Her flowers were a corsage of pink sweet peas.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sanderson of Tampa, Fla., and is an accomplished musician.

The groom was reared in Kerrville and is a young man of sterling worth and ability. He, also, is a musician, having played in some of the leading orchestras of the South.

After the ceremony dainty refreshments were served to the bridal couple and the guests, who were limited to the intimate friends of the groom.

After a few days' visit with relatives the young couple will leave for an extended trip through California, visiting San Francisco, Los Angeles and other places of interest.

The Sun joins the many friends of the couple in wishing them happiness and prosperity.

PRESIDENT'S WIFE OFFERS PATRIOTIC ESSAY PRIZES

Washington, D. C., April 1.—National trophies will be given by Mrs. Calvin Coolidge at the White House on June 14, Flag Day, to girls and young women essayists who best describe the reasons why young men they know should attend the citizens' military training camps conducted each summer by the War Department.

The contest is sponsored by the Woman's Overseas Service League, has been approved by the Secretary of War, and Tuesday was given formal approbation by Mrs. Coolidge.

Miss Susie Wells, president of the Service League, was informed by Mrs. Coolidge that she would award the trophies and approved the patriotic action of the league in sponsoring the contest. Mrs. Coolidge reminded her callers at the White House, including a delegation of league officials, that her two sons would attend military training camps in New England this summer.

The National trophies will be awarded the three essayists, not less than 13 nor more than 19 years old, whose answers to the question: "Why a young man I know should attend a citizens' military training camp," are adjudged the best of those submitted.

The essay is restricted to 300 words, and will be judged on its "originality, expression and sincerity." The contest will close May 5, and the winners, in addition to receiving the trophies from Mrs. Coolidge, also will be given railroad tickets from their homes to Washington and return and a "liberal amount" of spending money. State and municipal prizes also will be awarded.

HARLAN FISKE STONE IS SUCCESSOR TO DAUGHERTY

Washington, D. C., April 2.—Harlan Fiske Stone of New York has been selected by President Coolidge as Attorney General.

Mr. Stone has served since 1910 as dean of Columbia University Law School, and recently resigned to become an active member of the New York law firm of Satterlee, Canfield & Stone. He received his law education at Amherst and Columbia, and was admitted to the New York bar in 1898. He is a director of the Atlanta & Charlotte Air Line Railroad Company and other corporations and is a Republican, although he never has taken a leading part in politics.

Summoned to Washington yesterday, Mr. Stone had a breakfast conference today with President Coolidge and was presented by the President to a number of his callers, including the Republican leaders of the Senate.

No Stranger to Coolidge

In selecting Mr. Stone, White House officials said, the President believes he has been able to accomplish the purpose he announced yesterday of finding a $75,000 or $100,000 man to serve in a $12,000 job.

The prospective Attorney General is not a stranger to the President, the two having been friends since college days at Amherst. Mr. Coolidge received his bachelor's degree one year ahead of Mr. Stone.

The names of Mr. Stone and Chief Justice A. H. Ruger, of the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court, have been the two most prominently considered by the President from the time of the retirement of Mr. Daugherty and decision finally was made on Mr. Stone because of the Executive's feeling that Massachusetts already had more than her share of high Federal officers.

Mr. Stone has been on leave of absence from Columbia for a year and his resignation as dean of the Law School is effective at the end of the scholastic year in June. The resignation now will be made effective immediately upon his confirmation by the Senate, however. His nomination was sent to the Capital today.

Selection of Mr. Stone doubles the representation of New York in the Cabinet, as Secretary Hughes is accredited to that State.

A Los Angeles judge allowed a husband, who was ill and unable to work, five dollars a week alimony from his wife's salary of $145 a month, pending permanent disposition of the case.

The scandal of Teapot Dome is having a repercussion in Italy where it is said the negotiations between the Italian Government and Harry Sinclair were temporarily stopped. The Italian press hints that inasmuch as the Dutch Shell and Standard Oil Companies have not competed where they have hitherto operated, there is something wrong.

Give Your Fowls Charcoal

Nelle Portrey in Farm and Ranch: We have found that if charcoal is fed and kept before the laying hens at all times—just as carefully as the oyster shell is kept before them—all sorts of digestive troubles will be lessened, if not entirely done away with. The charcoal has a tendency to sweeten the digestive tract and do away with gases, thus preventing food from spoiling in the crop.

Charcoal is inexpensive, yet many poultry owners will empty the wood ashes in the poultry yards, simply for the amount of charcoal the fowls will pick up from them. This is unwise, as the ashes are valuable fertilizer, and only a very small percentage of the ashes is charcoal. But it is often advisable to empty the ashes in the dust bath as then the ashes provide a good way for the birds to rid themselves of lice and mites, by dusting in the ashes, and the charcoal may be eaten.

If chicks are fed with the mature fowls, the charcoal should be granulated for them, as they will be unable to pick up the larger pieces.

It is time that the dust bath was fixed for the winter. We use a box about six feet long, four feet wide, and a foot deep. It is placed in one of the sunniest corners of the scratch shed. It is filled full of road dust and as the dust becomes "dusted out" it is filled up with more dust, or the wood ashes as they are emptied.

KERRVILLE MEMORIAL BID TO OPEN APRIL 18

Austin, Tex., March 29.—The very last construction to be done under State auspices at the American Legion Sanatorium in Kerrville will commence in April as the building company has set April 18 to open bids at Kerrville for the erection of the memorial building, which will be for recreational purposes, to cost about $17,500. This structure will be erected from funds contributed over the State and not by legislative appropriations.

S. D. Cowell, chairman of the State Board of Control, and head of the building committee, said Saturday that the new building will have tablets showing the different counties and agencies which contributed the money used in its construction.

According to reports received at the Board of Control there are now more employes than patients in the veterans' hospital at Kerrville, as conducted by the War Veterans' Bureau. It is not now being conducted by the State, the whole plant having been leased to the War Risk Bureau and the lease was renewed for a year, effective July 1, next.

CHILD KILLED BY FUMES FROM AUTO'S EXHAUST

Wichita Falls, Tex., April 1.—John Kiel, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kiel, who reside north of the city, late Monday night died in the back of the family automobile as the result of asphyxiation from gas fumes. The child had laid down in the back of the auto on the floor boards while the family was enjoying an automobile ride. Upon arrival at home, when the youngster was picked up, he was dead.

Physicians stated that the child had inhaled the fumes from the exhaust of the car while asleep. A smaller brother who was asleep at his side, escaped without any harmful effects.

SEARCH FOR "FREEDOM" IS DANGEROUS PATH FOR GIRLS

Kansas City, Mo., April 1.—"The modern girl is a product of the war—a product of the days when each one was trying to do her bit," and was for the most part assuming masculine responsibilities, Mrs. Oliver Harriman of New York, National president, declared here in addressing the Camp Fire Girls' annual convention.

"Woman's place distinctly is in the home, doing the work which God intended her to do," declared Mrs. Harriman.

She said that girls now are following the path to what they call "freedom" to dangerous limits and are losing a lot that they will regret later.

"The simplicity which is the keynote of the Camp Fire Girl training is what is needed," the girls' leader said. "That is the right foundation for women."

The old saying that "man works from sun to sun but a woman's work is never done" is belied by the figures of the National Bureau of Economic Research which shows that the hired girl on the farm working by the week puts in from one to five hours less per week than does the hired man working by the month. Also the female employed by the day works about one-sixth less time than the male day worker.

THREE-DAY RODEO DRAWS FAIRLY GOOD ATTENDANCE

Attendance at the rodeo put on here under the auspices of the American Legion last Thursday, Friday and Saturday is reported to have been fairly good. A large crowd was reported for the opening performance.

All business houses in the city closed at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon to enable those to attend who wished.

Professional riders, ropers and bull-doggers were entered in the contests, exhibitions of which were held in the afternoon and at night. Purses aggregating $1,100 were offered to winners of the events.

The people generally, not only of Texas but of the entire Nation, are rapidly awakening to the fact that there are far too many laws. "Vetoing Vic" Donahey, Ohio's Fighting Governor, on assuming the reins of government announced: "There is a hysteria of lawmaking in the country. There seems to be an idea among legislators that every action of mankind should be regulated by law and that every business, large and small, should be controlled. There are entirely too many laws, laws that don't mean anything, laws that are not enforced and not enforceable. A law that isn't enforced should not be on the statute books."

Volume 1, No. 1 of the Lone Star, published semi-monthly at Legion by the patients and personnel with the co-operation of U. S. Veterans' Hospital, No. 93, reached The Sun's exchange table Thursday. The new publication is a five-column quarto and carries the following names at the mast-head: Col. H. L. Cook, Medical Officer in Charge; George F. Dutt, managing editor; John C. Zimmerman and Leo H. King, associate editors. The name, which was selected by a committee from a list of over a hundred as a result of a contest, was submitted by James H. Wallace. The neat and appropriate heading of the paper was designed and drawn by V. M. Metcalfe, a local cartoonist at the hospital. The Sun gladly welcomes The Lone Star to the firmament of Hill Country journalism.

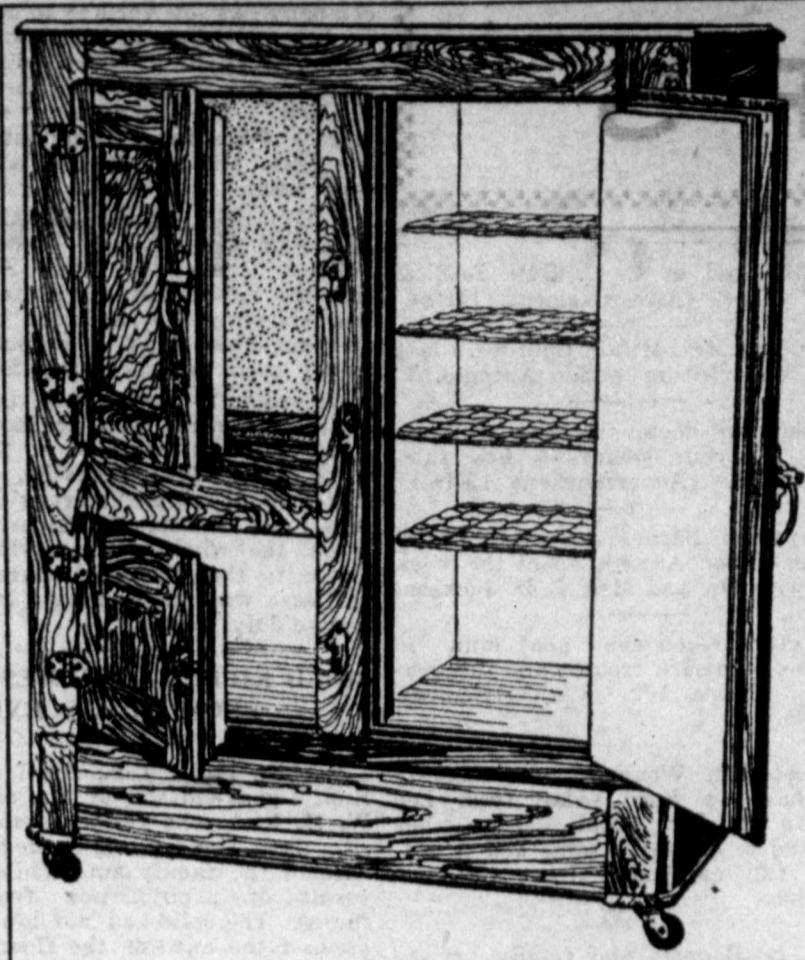

Through an oversight no mention was made last week of a rousing mass meeting, held at Medina Saturday previous, at which preliminary steps were taken toward securing better roads in that community. That the citizens of that section are thoroughly aroused to the need of good roads is shown by their petition to the County Commissioners asking for an election to vote a bond issue of $25,000 for the project. The proposed road will extend from Wiman's Creek to Medina up Wallack Creek to the Kerr County line. Senator Julius Real was in attendance at the meeting and delivered a stirring address in which he advocated the issuance of bonds and pointed out the many advantages of good roads—advantages for the development and upbuilding of that beautiful and prosperous section of the Medina Valley.

Denton-Record Chronicle: Commenting on the fact that records in the State Comptroller's office show that various counties in Texas assess their properties at anywhere from 29 to 50 per cent of a fair cash valuation, "depending upon the necessity funds to be raised for county purposes and at the same time keep valuations as low as possible for State purposes, knowing that other counties are doing the same thing," the Panhandle Herald says the result of such a system is that "some people are paying more than their just share of the taxes to support the State Government, while others are paying less." The truth of which must be admitted, as well as the statement that "this is unfair and was never intended to be by a government of and for the people." The 38th Legislature sought to remedy this by a State Board of Equalization, but it will never be adequately remedied so long as the State and County Tax sources are the same, as other states have found. Once the State abandons ad valorem taxation for State purposes, leaving that to the counties, districts and cities and depends for its own support upon the special taxes, the charge of inequality of rendition will have been finally disposed of, and the counties may fix their valuations as low or as high as local conditions warrant without any charge of being "slacker" counties.

TAX INEQUALITY

Fort Worth Star-Telegram: The spotted condition of the Texas tax map again is exposed by the researches of the Texas League for Equal and Uniform Taxation, which has recently issued a bulletin showing 35 counties in the State which, by reason of low valuation practices, are enabled to collect from the State $2,069,195 more than they pay to the State Treasury in taxes. The same bulletin lists 23 counties, including all the larger cities of the State, whose tax amounts paid to the State exceeds their receipts from the State Treasury by $2,604,960. The comparison is strengthened by figures of total and acreage value of agricultural products of the various counties, which show that the "tax-eating" counties are generally richer in this respect than the counties which bear

HOME TOWN PAPER BEST

The Manufacturer and Industrial News Bureau: Chas. E. Blackwell, the most successful merchant in the entire State of Washington, has no faith in calendar advertising. He says: "There are many lines of publicity that the country store can use to advantage, but the one he can use to best advantage is his home-town paper. I venture to say that if the money spent each year for fancy calendars and other knock-knack giveaways were invested—I say invested, not spent or donated—in carefully planned newspaper advertising, the actual net returns as great, to say nothing of the advantage the small-town paper would derive from the additional and much needed revenue. And we know that as a business build-up it is without an equal in any town."

I use it for colds, biliousness, constipation, indigestion, and I was subject to headaches when my liver would get out of order. I would have blinding headaches and couldn't stoop about my work, just couldn't go. I used Thedford's BLACK-DRAUGHT and it relieved me. About eight years ago my wife got down with liver and stomach trouble. We tried all week to help her, but she didn't get any better. One day I said to the doctor, 'I believe I will try Black-Draught. It helps my liver.' He said that I might try it and to follow directions. She was nauseated and couldn't eat or rest. She began taking Black-Draught and in two days she was greatly improved and in a week she was up."

How We Cut Our Local Taxes

Instead of Calling a Mass Meeting and Denouncing the Situation, We Got the Facts and Did Something About It.

By H. L. Keeffe, President of the Nebraska State Farm Bureau Federation, in An Interview with T. P. Crawford of Farm & Ranch.

Up in Thurston County, in North-western Nebraska, where I live, we have found a way to cut our local taxes. It is a very simple plan, and one that you can easily apply in your own community.

When the depression of 1920-21 hit us we were in just about the same tax situation as any other county in the Middle West. We were really in worse off because in 1920 our county suffered a cloudburst and scores of bridges were destroyed and had to be rebuilt and paid for. Before I became treasurer in 1921, I had to face the "tax disease" that me show right here at the start what the remedy accomplished:

It saved the county around $30,000 on the one item of taxes alone. We secured cuts of from 8 to 20 per cent in the local taxes in individual precincts.

It increased the amount of property returned from 12 to 20 per cent in the county. The valuations were generally falling, thereby reducing taxes for the man who had always been honest in making his return.

Best of all, the net result was a feeling of confidence and general satisfaction instead of mistrust, unrest and suspicion.

Here is how it was done: During the year or so that the depression lasted in earnest, people tended to become radical. But being radical is more or less a state of mind. When we began to get radical about our taxes, it simply meant that we didn't know where our money was going, and consequently didn't know how to stop the money from going.

So the tax committee decided to give the community another shock and something to talk about for months afterward. We hired a couple of men to go down to the county offices and copy off of the books the amount of property which each man in the county owned. We had a list compiled listing, with the value of his cattle, horses, automobiles, jewelry, in fact everything that he owned, according to the figures he had given the assessor. These blanks were compiled with the names in alphabetical order.

Then we proceeded to paste these blanks up in the post office, banks, stores and other public places right in the man's own communities. We thought we had a "stunt" from the day we started. War bulletins from the World War never proved half as interesting.

Of course no one had any reason to complain unless he had been concealing something, and then it wasn't good policy to talk. There was nothing to prevent people "kidding" another.

man had ceased to be penalized for being honest in turning in his property. There's one more chapter to our story.

I mentioned to you that we were unfortunate enough to have suffered a severe cloudburst in 1920, which had wiped out several score bridges in our county. Following a county-wide insistence on replacement of the commissions declared an emergency levy for new bridges. Here is where we saved around $30,000 and since have caused other counties to scrutinize mine for the first time.

When the farm bureau took hold of the matter there had been a rather tentative settlement on sixty com- tentative bridges on which the total cost appeared as $131,858.77. A reduction of $8,250.25 had been made from this of $123,608.52. Leaving a balance of $22,671.85 unpaid on these particular bridges.

The farm bureau appointed a committee of 16 taxpayers to investigate the matter. An engineer from the State Department was secured. During five days more than eighty bridges were visited. Bots, washers, and it might even be said spikes and nails were counted. The work was made by the bridge company were carefully checked. In some cases where the bridge company appeared to have charged too little, something was added, but in most cases deductions were made. Here the deductions exceeded what was added by $7,665.50.

Bear in mind that we were not finding any fault with the bridges but only adjusting the cost. The bridge company a little later we discovered statements through these in the same way and here we made a net reduction of $6,125.47. The bridge company again promptly agreed to having this reduction.

Then we were able to secure another reduction of $11,576.08, because we were able to show that the cost of the first of the bridges since this time made a total of $32,583.97.

Since our Nebraska experience other counties in Nebraska have been doing some checking up and we have been building some of our own bridges.

Our experience shows, I think, that people in the county should take something more than a merely perfunctory interest in their tax affairs. You determine your own taxes. If you turn up to see what you are doing, you are going to find that you are satisfied or you are going to find a way to make a reduction.

The biggest thing that we accomplished in our county was not the saving of more than $30,000 on the bridges nor the cuts in taxes in the various school districts, nor the reaction of much hidden property. The biggest thing was that the people found out that the question of taxes rested with themselves.

COFFEE AND TEA COWS ARE NUMEROUS, U.S. COUNT SHOWS

Washington, March 26.—There are 3,000,000 coffee cows and 750,000 tea cows in the United States, the Department of Agriculture announced today in the annual report of a study of the milk and cream requirements of the tea and coffee drinkers of the Nation.

Forty billion cups of coffee, requiring 1,000,000,000 pounds of coffee beans and 40,000,000,000 ounces of cream—the equivalent of 12,500,000,000 pounds of milk or one-eighth of the total production of the country—were consumed annually in the United States, it is stated.

Approximately 21,000,000,000 cups of tea, requiring 85,000,000,000 pounds of tea leaves and 10,500,000,000 ounces of cream, make up the tea consumption.

In addition to their heavy dependence on the cows' talents, the experts added, the coffee and tea drinkers consume in their beverages $00,000,000 of sugar a year, or one-tenth of the total sugar produced for all purposes in the United States.

Shingle-Making Contest

Bandera New Era, March 27: Away back yonder in the early days when Bandera was young, some fifty or sixty years ago, the chief occupation of the people living here was making shingles from the giant cypress trees which were to be seen everywhere for market were taken.

At that time every man who followed that calling was an expert in making shingles. Today we have quite a number of those old fellows with us, and some of them are still expert. Their eyes, though dimmed by years, are still keen to the edge, and their good right hand has not lost its cunning.

Hundreds of the younger generation of shingle makers, however, they do not know how to let them by hand, and in order to let them have a glimpse into the past and see how their forefathers worked with their hands it has been decided to have a shingle-making contest during the Old Settlers Reunion here July 4th and 5th. We want at least three of the old time shingle makers to volunteer to enter this contest. Suitable prizes will be given to those who can make shingles in the shortest possible time.

An issue of silver coins to be called "shillings," equal to 10,000 Austrian crowns, are to be minted in Vienna.

THE PASSING DAY

Will H. Mayes, Department of Journalism, Texas University

I am fortunate in having a sleeping porch that is almost out of doors among the treetops. Dozens of birds—mocking birds, red birds, all kinds of birds—room in the trees close by, almost within touch. Evidently these residents of the trees think that spring has come, for while they sing their early morning songs all the winter through, there is a distinct note of jubilation apparent in their notes these days. They sing as if they were fairly running over with joy and gladness at the return of spring, and they begin each morning before the peep of day. Each bird apparently is trying to sing more lustily and in sweeter notes than his neighbors, and each has his own song. Despite these variant notes and keys there is no discord or inharmony in these songs, and the music is as sweet as if it came from some celestial choir. I have come to listen for the song of a favorite bird and to separate it from all the rest, just as one distinguishes a voice in a choir from the other voices even though it blends in perfectly with all the others.

Joseph Pulitzer kept a pipe organ in his music room near his bedroom, and employed an expert organist to play the organ every morning in order that he might be awakened by the sound of music. I have always thought that Pulitzer was a better man for starting the day under the influence of the beautiful strains of the organ, and I know he was if he tried to attune his own spirit to his melodies. Pulitzer's music was a luxury that none but a man of great wealth could afford. It is my good fortune to have this bird orchestra without cost, the birds seem to get even more pleasure out of the entertainment than they furnish me, and I am sure they awaken me each day just as cheerfully as they would a Morgan or a Rockefeller. I do not even have a radio set to get this regular service and do not have to consider the static conditions. Truly we have pleasures all about us, if we but open our hearts to receive them.

Many counties in Texas are erecting hospitals at public expense. The churches everywhere are turning their attention more to the care of the sick. Soon Texas will be or should be pretty well supplied with hospital facilities easily accessible to people of both the cities and the country. There is a feeling, though, that hospital fees and charges are too high for people of moderate means. The rich need give but little attention to the cost of hospital services, for whatever the charges, they can afford to pay them. The extremely poor, if not too proud to accept a gratuity, are exempt from any charges. Many, though, prefer to suffer rather than accept a charity. The family of moderate income is often too poor to pay large medical and hospital fees and consequently is not privileged to have hospital attention and service. If the public is taxed to build and sustain hospitals, and if the churches are doing the same thing as a proper work of religion, the fees should be such that the largest number of people may be able to avail themselves of hospital service. Of course private hospitals may charge whatever fees the business will stand, but public and institutional hospitals should not be operated for profit.

A San Angelo news report tells of an actress who came there to see her sick four-year-old boy, arranged for his funeral, kissed him goodbye, and went to join her company and fill her engagement. There was something in the news report of commendation for the actress' action in tearing herself away from her dying boy in response to her business obligation. I am old-fashioned enough to feel that her highest duty was to the suffering child. Perhaps she could have done nothing to alleviate his pain or to stay death, but it is a strange conception of motherhood that would separate any mother from her own child at such a time, even though to stay by a leader who defaulted his re- of a life work.

The Grapeland Messenger carries these words under the masthead: "An ad in the Messenger is worth two on the fence." That may have been all right in years gone by, but in this day of rapid transit by train and auto, an ad in a newspaper is worth twenty on the fence or on a bill board. People passing swiftly along a road get but a fleeting glimpse of the road signs, and as half of them are of firms "kicked out of business, a sign has to be fresh, attractive and expensive to get as much notice as the mile-posts along the way.

FISHING SEASON OPENS IN TEXAS MAY FIRST

San Antonio Express, March 30th: Thirty-two more days and then the road leading to Medina Lake will think that someone has found a gold mine or that a gusher cut loose, but it will only be the opening of the fishing season.

A few have thought that the season was open and much to their surprise a neat little fine together with a copy of the fishing law was handed them. Below is a copy of the fishing law. Better clip and keep it handy for it may prove well worth while.

FISHING LAWS

Open Season

It shall be unlawful for any person to take or catch in any manner bass or crappie from any public fresh waters of this State during the months of March and April.

Special Laws for Medina Lake Lying in Bander County

Unlawful to catch bass, perch, crappie and catfish during the months of February, March and April.

Medina Lake in Medina County

Closed season on bass and crappie only, months of March and April. No closed season on perch and catfish. Same applies to Lower or Diversion Lake and Medina River below Diversion Dam to Bexar County line.

Legal Size

Bass—Nothing less than 11 inches. Crappie—Nothing less than 7 inches.

Perch—Nothing less than 2 inches. Catfish—No regulations.

Bag Limit

Bass—Not more than 10 in one day. Crappie—Not more than 20 in one day.

Perch or Sunfish—Not more than 20 in one day.

Or a total aggregate of 20 crappie, perch, sunfish or other fish of the perch, crappie or sunfish species. Above sizes and limit apply to any public waters of the State of Texas.

Fish Law Amendment for Six Counties

Closed season on bass, perch, crappie, sunfish and catfish during the months of February, March and April in the following counties: Comal, Guadalupe, Bexar, Kerr, Real and Bander Counties.

It is unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale, or to buy any species of fish including catfish, caught out of any public waters in the following counties: Burnett, San Saba, Brown, McCullough, Edwards, Coleman, Concho, Menard, Mason, Gillespie, Sutton, Uvalde, Kinney, Real, Kerr, Comal, Val Verde, Bander, Reeves, Ward, Loving, Pecos, Medina, Cherokee, Hunt, Rannels, Rain, Kimble, Williamson, Houston, Zavalla, Dimmitt, Wood, Milam, Travis, Lampasas and Llano.

Unlawful for any person to catch fish in public waters of this State with seine or any kind of net.

The use of dynamite or any other explosive is subject to a heavy fine. The use of a minnow seine 20 feet long for the purpose of catching minnows or small perch up to 2 inches long is permitted.

Marketing Summer Eggs

Farm and Ranch: Mid-summer egg prices compare favorably with prices in mid-winter. There is only one period in each year when fresh eggs are a drug on the market, and that is during March and April. By the first of May, poultry in the Southwest begins to decrease in production, and during June, July, August and September, consumers are always willing to pay a premium for eggs that they know are strictly fresh and but a day or two old.

Eggs, in hot weather, must be marketed more often than in winter. During the cold months, it is possible to keep them over a period of a week or two and to market in larger quantities, but not so in July and August. Even infertile eggs will become tainted and strong if kept more than a few days.

The consumption of eggs in the summer months would be greatly increased if consumers could be assured of their freshness. One strong or tainted egg served at breakfast often decreases the consumption of eggs many dozen during the weeks that follow. Swearing off on eggs in summer time results from the serving of eggs not strictly fresh. It destroys the appetite for the product of the poultry farm. Therefore, the poultryman, or the farmer who markets his eggs as soon as collected, soon earns a reputation for quality goods and he will find that the demand at fancy prices will exceed his supply.

Eggs should be infertile, gathered daily and marketed at once. It is the only way to make money on poultry in summer time.

Organize to Protect Fish

Edwards County Leader: E. Aulgur, Deputy Sheriff, informs the Leader that a big lot of bass are due to be received from the Government Hatchery next month to be placed in Edwards County streams.

For the next three years these fish will need to be protected, and it was thought this could best be done if there was an organization with this as its purpose, and accordingly an association to be known as "Edwards County Game Protective Association" has been organized with Ed Custer as president and E. Aulgurs as secretary-treasurer.

SCRAPS FROM SCOFIELD

By H. J. H.

Although little is heard of Scofield activities, there is much going on up on the hill. Our Junior Red Cross Chapter is quite enterprising with 25 members, with officers as follows: Elizabeth Clapp, president; Maxine Garrett, vice-president; Louise Rentzel, secretary; Mary Davis, treasurer, and Helen J. Hoskins, publicity agent.

The Junior Red Cross had some beaver board cut into 25 lap boards which are to be tinted and given to the patients at Legion. These have not yet been presented.

A sandwich sale was staged to get money to pay for the boards, the Red Cross receiving cuts on the purchases from local merchants. A total of $21 was taken in, $12.50 being netted. The beaver boards have been paid for, as well as other minor debts, and we now have about $5 in the treasury.

A meeting of the Junior Red Cross was held Friday. As there was no business to be discussed, the dues were taken up and the meeting adjourned.

While attending the Track Meet Miss Louise Rentzel was surprised by the arrival of her brother, Harry Rentzel, who took her out to dinner that evening.

We had quite a number of visitors Sunday. Mrs. J. A. Dolph and Mrs. H. B. Shiner motored up from San Antonio to visit Misses Mae Louise and Louie Dolph.

Messrs. James Sturgis, Lynn Hollinrake and Hardy Scott of Schroener Institute called Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Miller and her daughter, Marion, called on Miss Louise Rentzel Sunday.

Miss Maxine Garrett had dinner with her parents out at Legion Sunday. She took with her as her guest, Miss Mary Davis, her room mate.

Miss Lorene Morris went to Mr. A. G. Morris' home for dinner Sunday. Quite a large gathering of the family was there.

Motor Drivers Should Be Licensed

Farm and Ranch: Farm and Ranch has been a consistent advocate of fewer laws and lower taxes. There are, however, exceptions to every general rule. New conditions require new remedies and new laws are often necessary to promote the general welfare and give protection to the people.

The drivers of motor cars in Texas, at the present time, go almost unhampered with reasonable restrictions. Such laws as we have governing their actions on the public highways, are disregarded in many instances, for the chances of being apprehended are 1 to 100, and in case of arrest, only a nominal fine is assessed. Many are entirely without responsibility, and the person who suffers either physically, or in property damage, is generally unable to secure adequate compensation.

Assessing an occasional fine does not curb the reckless motorist. The only adequate punishment would be to prohibit his driving a car for a period of time varying from three months to two years, and jail him for a similar period if he is found driving after being prohibited from doing so.

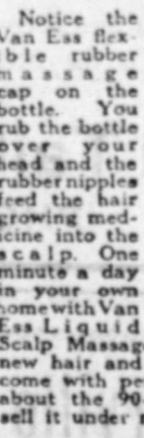

We are in need of a law that will force motorists to respect the rights of others. As previously suggested in Farm and Ranch, a nominal fee of 25 cents for a State license, and a positive jail sentence of not less than three months for driving without a license, would cure most of our careless and reckless drivers. Let the license be taken away from those who disobey the laws governing motor cars, and with a jail sentence without recourse for driving without a license, most motorists would think twice before exceeding the speed limits, or in other ways endangering the lives and property of other drivers and of pedestrians.

A law governing the lights on cars is also badly needed. Texas is about the only State in the Union where a motorist can use such powerful lights that the road is unsafe from a half mile to a mile ahead.

Every motor car driver should carry insurance sufficient to compensate for the damage done to property through careless driving, or other accidents, and to at least partially compensate parties who are injured, and their estate when death ensues.

One child in every twelve between the ages of 10 and 15 years in the United States has to work, according to an investigator.
