BEST CHEESE TASTER

This twenty-two-year-old youth of Thrasher, Miss. Donald Smith, is said to have the most sensitive taste in America—when it comes to cheese. He ran up the highest score in the annual cheese-tasting contest of the Dairy Industries exposition in Detroit, winning a one-year college scholarship in dairy science in the form of a check for $750.

STATE TICKET IS TO BE ELECTED NOV. 8th

SANTA FE—Democratic state headquarters issued a statement expressing the belief that Governor Arthur Seligman, democratic candidate seeking re-election as governor, will be re-elected by a plurality of anything from 8,000 upward.

Using the vote cast for Dillon in 1928 as a basis, headquarters said there was a turnover of more than 10,000 to the democratic party in 1930. The vote, it said, shows that Seligman in 1930 gained that number. The Seligman vote in 1930 was 62,789 and the vote for Bob Dow of Roswell in 1928 was 62,798 as opposed to 65,967 for Dillon in 1928.

The headquarters said that in 1928 Dillon had the Hoover landslide back of him and the figure "does not show his real strength." Party leaders predict a Roosevelt landslide.

MAN 102 MARRIES A WOMAN, 50, IN N. M.

A bridegroom 102 years old and a bride half his age were honeymooning last week after a marriage at Lordsburg.

The groom is Torebio Gonzales, Hidalgo county rancher and his bride is Concepcion Mares, 50, of Lordsburg.

TO USE NEW MEXICO DATA IN WATER SUIT

SANTA FE—When the state of Texas brings suit against New Mexico over the division of waters in the Pecos river, it will use material prepared by the New Mexico state engineer's office.

George M. Neal, state engineer said Monday, that all of the material on the river had been gathered by his department and was ready for the state of Texas as soon as that state sends the necessary funds to pay for its use. The material was ordered several weeks ago by Texas in anticipation of the suit which will be brought soon.

DANGEROUS TO PASTURE CATTLE ON CORN STALKS

More or less corn stalk disease occurs every fall when cattle and horses are turned out into the fields according to Dr. G. S. Weaver, extension veterinarian at South Dakota State College. The disease is more common some years than others, he states, and no one can tell for any year whether or not it will be prevalent. When attacked by the disease a sort of intoxication takes place, the animal becoming delirious and within a few hours is usually dead. Treatment of sick animals is ineffective and the only absolute preventative is to keep the cattle out of the corn stalks.

YOUNG WOMAN'S GUILD

The Young Woman's Guild met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. D. Devenport, with Mrs. James Burck as hostess.

Mrs. Esther Victory Schaubel spoke on "Contagious Diseases." About ten were present to whom sweet potato pie, topped with whipped cream and coffee was served.

Mrs. A. A. MacKintosh was recently the recipient of a box of delicious apples from Boston. They are called "MacKintosh Reds," and were sent by her brother who is editor of "Hotel and Travel" of Boston.

THE PEOPLE'S MERC. COMPANY STARTS A STORE WIDE SALE

The Peoples Mercantile Company is beginning their huge annual sale of dry goods and groceries Friday of this week, with practically every article in the building offered at a sacrifice price, and new merchandise also displayed.

On another page in this issue will be found descriptions and prices of many articles of clothing such as coats, shoes, dresses, stockings and sox, as well as piece goods. Groceries are also offered, with different bargains every day.

The people of this trade territory can save a great deal of money by patronizing the Peoples Mercantile during this sale beginning Friday and lasting eight days. "Come early, and get your pick of the bargains," is the advice given by Dub Andrus, manager.

CAR OVERTURNS

Rev. and Mrs. M. M. Robinett narrowly escaped death Sunday afternoon when their car overturned on the highway between Elida and Roswell. Rev. Robinett was blinded by the intense sunlight, and his car struck a post on the edge of the highway, overturning. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Goodwin and family, who had been visiting in Kenna, stopped and helped right the Robinett automobile. Rev. Robinett was on the program at the Fifth Sunday meeting held in the Immanuel Baptist Church of Roswell. They continued on to Hagerman for a visit.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Miss Lillis Mae Andrus was hostess to a gay party on Friday evening at her home. Halloween decorations and dim lights greeted the guests, who arrived in costume to enjoy the "spooks" and have their fortunes told in a very mysterious manner.

Delicious refreshments of pumpkin pie topped with whipped cream and coffee were served to about fifteen guests, and favors marked places at small tables.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE

Rev. Hedges preached a sermon in harmony with World Temperance Week at the vesper service in the Presbyterian church Sunday. Appropriate musical numbers by the choir, and a trombone solo, by E. W. Cumpsten added to the spirit of the meeting.

In the morning service, temperance pledges were signed by practically the entire Sunday school enrollment.

Mrs. J. E. Wimberly and Miss Elizabeth McKinstry spent the week-end in Roswell.

Governor Roosevelt Says:

"THE things we were taught have not come true. We were taught to save, and in many parts of this country the savings of prudent people have been dissipated by careless and conscienceless financial manipulation.

"We were taught to work and we have been denied the opportunity to work. We are taught to increase the products of our labor and we have found that while the products increased the return has decreased.

"We were taught to bring forth the fruits of the earth and we have found that the fruits of the earth have found no market. The results of our labor have been lost in the smash of an economic system unable to fulfill its purposes."

"I think we are all beginning to realize that some new factor is needed in our economic life as a nation. We are beginning to find that mere drifting is not enough."

"What we must do is to revise our tariff on the basis of a reciprocal exchange of goods, allowing other nations to buy and to pay for our goods by sending us such of their goods as will not seriously throw any of our industries out of balance, and incidentally making impossible in this country the continuance of pure monopolies which cause us to pay excessive prices for many of the necessities of life."

FOURTEEN DEER BROUGHT IN THE FROM MOUNTAINS

Hagerman hunters have returned from the hills bringing fourteen bucks, as the first half of the season draws near a close. The lucky hunters so far are: Louie Heick, O. J. Ford, F. H. Evans, C. H. Keeth, Levi Barnett, R. W. Burrell, Campbell Burrell, Sid Allen, J. P. Woods, Jim Wheeler, Wilfred McCormick, Louis Hampton, Charles Wright and Carl Hanson.

Most of the deer were killed in the Guadalupe mountains.

VISITORS AT CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR SUNDAY

About twenty-five young people from the First Christian church of Roswell gave a special program in the Hagerman Christian church Sunday evening.

The Roswell youths made a mistake and came to the Baptist church instead, and realized their error shortly after they had become seated in the B. Y. P. U. service. Amid much good natured amusement, they withdrew to the other church, where they rendered a splendid program.

CAM DOW IS FOUND DEAD NEAR CARLSBAD OF NATURAL CAUSES

"Cam" Dow, thought to have been about 58 to 60 years old, was found dead Tuesday morning at the abandoned Globe plant south of Lakewood at which he was a watchman.

He was found by John Fanning, Jim House and John Lewis who were searching for him after they had become worried at not seeing Dow for several days.

The body was badly decomposed and physicians who viewed it estimated that Dow had been dead ten days.

Indications about the body led to the belief that Dow had dropped dead either October 21 or 22, the last day in which it rained in that vicinity according to testimony presented before a coroner's jury.

A coroner's jury empaneled at Carlsbad found that he had met his death from natural causes. Dow was well known here. He was an uncle of Robert C. Dow, former state attorney general, and of Hiram Dow, prominent attorney of Roswell.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Halloween motifs and decorations were in evidence at the Sunday school class party on Friday evening at the Paddock home. Mrs. E. A. Paddock is teacher of this class, which is composed of young ladies who are teachers in the schools, and a number of young girls who have recently been promoted from Mr. Hall's class.

Miss Renalee Banta and Miss Loula Denham supervised the games and the hours passed away merrily, music was also a diversion.

A variety of sandwiches and cocoa was served to about twenty-five present.

ROOSTER LAYS EGG

The editor went out Saturday to kill the rooster which he had been fattening for several days, and found an egg in the coop. The rooster is still alive and the egg is busy watching him. If this issue comes out one day early, it will be because we have to get back to our rooster, for we are certain that he will lay another egg Thursday.

JUNIOR PLAY NOV. 18 HAGERMAN HIGH SCHOOL

The Junior play, "Helen Preferred," will be presented in the school auditorium Friday evening, November 18th, according to Miss Nora Clemons, who will direct the presentation.

All Hagerman is hereby notified to keep this date clear—for you have a date with the greatest comedy you ever saw.

CANADA'S MEMORIAL

The Canadian National War memorial which was built in London by a number of sculptors is shown being erected in Hyde park, London, prior to its removal to Canada.

SEARCH FOR FORT SUMNER GIRL

FT. SUMNER—Fifty men Sunday night were searching the broken country near Los Ojitos for Aylene Wylie, 15, who strayed away from her parents while visiting the Renfro ranch.

The ranch is 16 miles north on the Santa Rosa highway. And the house is a mile from the road. It is thought the girl, who is a popular high school student, was picked up by a passing motorist. She is a daughter of J. R. Wylie, a merchant here. She is a decided blonde, 5 foot, 2 inches tall and weighs about 115 or 120 pounds.

After wandering over the range for about twelve hours, Miss Wylie came to the Santa Rosa highway and was picked up by a passing motorist and taken to Santa Rosa.

ROSWELL MAN ABANDONS THREAT OF SUICIDE

Dr. J. S. McClelland, who disappeared from Roswell Thursday night after writing a suicide note was seen at Tatum Saturday according to information received by the Chaves county sheriff's department. McClelland who had been in ill health several months threatened to drown himself in the Pecos river. Searchers spent several hours on the river before word was received as to McClelland's whereabouts.

BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION

Baptist state convention will be held this week in the First Baptist church at Albuquerque.

The women's missionary union opened its two day meeting Tuesday at 7:00 p. m. Speakers were Miss Juliette Mather, Southwide Young Peoples' secretary and Dr. Charles Maddry, Southwide promotional secretary.

The state convention of the Baptist brotherhood were held on Tuesday and Wednesday also. Dr. J. B. Lawrence of Atlanta and Dr. C. E. Maddry, Nashville, Tennessee were the speakers.

The two day Baptist state convention opened at 9:00 a. m. today. Mayor Clyde Tingley gave the address of welcome and arranged for cars to take visitors on a sight seeing trip this afternoon.

SEVENTH GRADE PARTY

The entire seventh grade had a social at the home of Clifford Wimberly Monday evening. Misses Denny, Banta, Burt and Denham supervised the games. Pumpkin pie with punch was served.

HALLOWEEN PEACEFUL

Hagerman youths were a little more considerate of the property rights of others this year when they pulled the proverbial Halloween stunts.

Besides moving a few cars and trailers, and letting the air out of a few tires, everything was peaceful.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

The members of the Junior B. Y. P. U. and Sunday school classes of the Baptist church had a fine time in the country home of Mrs. Maggie Wier, Monday night. All children wore their masks and were dressed for the occasion. Games were played throughout the evening.

BAPTIST CHURCH SOCIAL

Members of the Baptist church gathered in the church parlors Friday night for a social meeting and entertainment, at which time nothing more serious was undertaken than playing kid games.

Following the entertainment period, cake and cocoa were served to the members present.

WATER LEVEL IN THE VALLEY IS HIGHEST SINCE YEAR OF 1927

Water levels in the Pecos valley are now higher than at any time during 1931, Clifford Smith, Artesian well supervisor announced at Roswell Saturday. The peak was reached last year in the latter part of December and during the early days of January, Mr. Smith said.

The water level as shown on the Orchard Park recorder is now 1.7 feet higher than at any time since 1925. The nearest approach to its present level, the records show, was in January, 1927. The Berrendo and Artesia recorders are still about 2.5 lower than the level reached in the winter of 1927.

Water will continue to rise in the valley for the next two months, Mr. Smith said, and it is expected that the levels on the Berrendo and at Artesia will show a winter high greater than that recorded in 1927.

Mr. Smith says that the plugging of the large Artesian well across the Pecos river southeast of Roswell and the plugging of other wells in various parts of the valley, especially those on the Oasis ranch, are responsible for the high water level recorded at Orchard Park, which is about four feet higher in proportion than the levels in Artesia and the Berrendo district.

State Engineer George M. Neel has recently signed a contract with the West Texas Casing Pulling company, of Breckenridge, Tex., to plug three wells in the valley.

The first well to be plugged will be the Curl well in the Dexter district which has been wasting a considerable amount of water for a number of years.

MRS. ELIZA DANIELS BURIED HERE MONDAY BY SIDE OF HUSBAND

Funeral services for Mrs. Eliza Daniels, widow of Peter Daniels, who was buried in the Hagerman cemetery in 1926, were held Monday afternoon at the grave with Rev. J. W. Slade, officiating.

Mrs. Daniels died at Bronte, Texas of pneumonia. She was 74 years old at the time of her death. Mr. and Mrs. Daniels were former residents of Greenfield. Mrs. Daniels is survived by four daughters and three sons. One son, E. L. Daniels, lives in Roswell.

DANCE AT LAKE ARTHUR

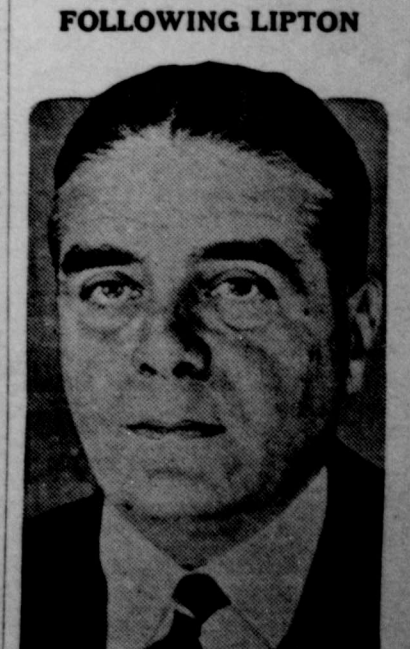

Another dance will be given at Lake Arthur Saturday, November 5th under the management of Howard Moots. Music will be furnished by selected local talent known as the "Cock-Eyed Orchestra." The Halloween dance given last Saturday evening was well attended and the weekly dances are expected to grow in popularity.

ALKALI POISONING

Billy Jo and Mary Burck were taken to St. Mary's hospital on Sunday, victims of alkali poisoning, and Hannah Burck youngest child of the L. R. Burck family was taken to the hospital Tuesday afternoon suffering with a case of alkali poisoning. It is thought they contracted the sickness from eating garden vegetables, on which the frost had fallen. The children are getting along as well as could be expected.

HOME INDUSTRIES

There are several business enterprises which would do well in this trade territory, and it may be that this article will engage the attention of some person, or group of people who are progressive enough, and visionary enough to build in this section of the Pecos valley.

First, the town of Hagerman needs, and will support a first class bakery. Every loaf of bread which is purchased in a Hagerman store is baked out of town. Hagerman citizens have learned their lesson by now. We had a good bakery here once—but when out of town merchants began cutting prices, Hagerman residents demanded the same cuts on home products, with the result—now we eat stale bread most of the time.

Second, this portion of the Pecos valley would be an ideal location for a creamery. It might be on the co-operative plan, or owned by an individual or corporation. In the first case, good milk cows could be selected from stock owned in the community, as a basis for the organization of such an undertaking. Here, where the finest alfalfa in the world is grown—with a poor market for the crop, could be a situation good to the heart of a man of nerve and resources.

Third, why shouldn't Hagerman have a mill which produces a ground and mixed feed for cattle and chickens? Practically every ingredient used in good feed, is grown here, and shipped out. No community can grow in a substantial way without home industries flourishing.

NEW MEXICO COTTON IMPROVES IN QUALITY

In recent grade and staple releases by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, covering New Mexico, Arizona and California, New Mexico showed a larger percentage of cotton in the higher classes and better staples than either of the other states, says G. R. Quisenberry, of the New Mexico state college. This shows that the cotton improvement program, fostered by the New Mexico State College and the New Mexico Crop Improvement Association is obtaining definite and progressive results.

The staple lengths reflect on the work done by the Extension Service during the past eight years, in cooperation with the New Mexico Crop Improvement Association. Pure seed has been released thru the Extension Service to the different crop improvement units in every county where cotton is grown. In this release 34 per cent of the New Mexico cotton staples run from 1-1 1/16 to 1-3/32 inches, and 66 per cent to 1-1/8 inches and better. This was the highest record of any state. All the cotton ginned was tenderable. The grades show 78 per cent of extra white good middling and better and 22 per cent extra white strict middling.

New Mexico cotton growers have practically eliminated all cotton except Acala and little seed planted during the past year was more than two years removed from certified seed. This cotton is demanding a premium over other cotton sufficient to more than cover the freight from New Mexico to concentration points.

The Acclimatization Station at State College, which is under the direction of the Bureau of Plant Industry, is, at present, turning its stocks of seed over to the College. These are then released by the Extension Agronomist to the individual crop improvement units in the various counties and they in turn are distributing this seed to farmers in their immediate vicinity, thus making certified and pure seed available to every cotton grower in New Mexico. Not only is the staple of this cotton holding up, but, according to the Census Bureau figures, the acre yield of lint has been increasing in New Mexico for the past ten years.

Ed (in motor car)—This controls the brake. It is put on very quickly in case of an emergency.

Co-ed—Oh, I see; something like a kimona.

"Tommy," said his mother, "be sure to come in early this afternoon to get your bath before going to the Brown's to supper." But mother," he protested, "I don't need a bath for that. They said it was to be most informal."

THE CAT'S MEOW

JUNIOR PLAY

The Juniors are working on a good class play at this time. "Helen preferred," is one of the best plays that has been at this place in years. With a large group to pick from, the players are suited to their roles almost exactly.

Elizabeth McKinstry is the leading lady and is "supposed" to be able to make biscuits. Since we don't have to eat any of the bread we think she will go over with a whim. Betty is to play the part of a "pretty blond" who is too roly-poly to do a certain step.

Alan Hanson plays the role of a leading lawyer as the hero opposite Helen (Elizabeth). All the mothers in the city are chasing him trying to make a match for their daughters. And is he shy!

Leonard who is trying to be a prominent real estate broker is not chased so much by the mothers but the daughters are worse.

LETTERS AWARDED

Since the names of the students who received letters last year have not been published, we will take pleasure in announcing the students who received letters in athletics.

The boys are: Kenneth Stine, Harold Hanson, Richard Key, Leonard George, Everett Lankford, Arthur Langenegger, Alan Hanson, and Steve Mason.

The girls are: Ruby Baker, Ruth Utterback, Jaucile Barnett, Betty Mason, Elizabeth McKinstry, Ruth Wiggins, Thelma Robinson, Waunita Evans, Dorothy Sweatt, Ida Bee Lemon, Vadie Burrell, and Martha Carter.

There was a F. F. A. meeting of the Hagerman chapter on Tuesday night, November 1, at 7:30 o'clock. These boys have taken a great interest in their work this year. With the help of Mr. Curd, the instructor, they will accomplish very much.

Wasn't the depression hell!

What worries The Messenger is how so many people spend so much money that they don't have.

We heard the other day of an editor who died and went to heaven. How he got there, no one could say, unless he dressed up like a preacher and sneaked in. But, anyway, according to this report, when they found the editor in heaven, they hunted from one end of the kingdom to the other to find a lawyer who could draw up the papers for his ejection, and they couldn't find a lawyer so the editor is still there.

If we printed all the alibis Hagerman deer hunters have offered us the past week, we'd have enough type to reach all the way to that corner behind which prosperity is hiding. That reminds you. How's this for a simile: "As far off as Prosperity Corner?"

A local genius wants us to run a section of this paper called "New Uses For Old Cotton Sacks." This is in preparation for the good times assured when Roosevelt gets elected.

Mr. White is giving the school a vacation while the teachers attend the State Teachers Meeting held at Roswell this week. For some this vacation will mean pleasure for others it will mean a chance to pick some cotton so they will not have to stay out later.

HONORS

We wish to honor La Verne Campbell and Mayre McIntosh for having won first place and a Gold Medal on their sewing demonstration given at the annual 4 H club meeting at State College.

Archangel—A man who still has credit.

Our latest difficulty concerns a story which we recently printed to the effect that "Mr. and Mrs. So and So, of Hagerman, were registered in the hotel in Albuquerque." Well, that's what we get by copying out of another paper. Now a Hagerman wife is threatening to divorce her husband—because she wasn't there.

Some skeptic wants to know if we make all this up that we write in this column. Omigosh! There are enough funny things happening in this man's town, that the question isn't, "What shall I write?" but it's, "What do I have nerve enough to print?" I am getting cautious in my old age. Two men have threatened to kill me, and one has given me a good licking since I've been spouting off in this headline, to say nothing of about six who turn their snouts up at an angle of forty-five degrees and pretend to be studying astronomy every time Yours Truly passes by. Naw, we don't have to make any of it up.

Hagerman stores have begun selling patent biscuit flour and now every woman in town is sore, because they take it as a personal insult every time hubby takes home a box. "Here, sweetheart, maybe this will help you build biscuits like mother used to make." Call 60, please.

ATHLETICS

Mr. Welborn turned the Cats out of bondage Thursday afternoon by giving them two basketballs. There is a remarkable number out for basketball this year.

We have the information that the college boys from this vicinity say that the Cats will have to scratch this year to keep Dexter from carrying off things. Well, let them come down in a few days and have a look-see for themselves what the Cats can do.

The cool weather has returned bringing the Old Cat lots of pep; he is pawing and scratching with vigor. Just wait till he is tamed into trim readiness and see what he does.

WE WONDER??

Where Bill Bogle learned to cross his eyes so beautifully?

Why the solid geometry class quit giving Mr. Welborn the signal on the piano as they entered?

Why John Garner quit chewing gum in Mr. Welborn's class?

Why Ruth Wiggins needs two escorts.

How we can keep Betty Mason from sleeping in Prof's History class? Try Miss George.

MUST MAKE PLACE FOR CHILDREN

NEW YORK—With a warning that "youth cannot wait for a return of better days," Newton D. Baker has made public the results of a national survey in which it was estimated 200,000 children, most of them under twenty years of age, are wandering about the country seeking a place where they can earn a living.

Baker, who is chairman of the welfare and relief mobilization of 1932, under whose auspices the data was compiled, declared communities which are neglecting their responsibilities toward young persons and unemployed adults will pay heavily later in social consequences.

"The past has shown us," Baker said, "that crime, ill health and loss of morale are expensive. We spend millions of dollars each year on police courts and prisons. Experience should have taught us by this time the value of aid and economy of reinforcing essential services."

The survey urged that provisions be made for health, education, recreation and character building, as well as for emergency relief.

THE MODEL ED WILLIAMS

POLITICAL COMMENTS BY N. S. WEST

Some, still, think that prosperity is just around the corner. I wish I could find reason to believe the same thing. We are told every day that we have seen such times before and that we came out of it and we will soon come out of this. I think if we will consider a few factors, which enter into the present trouble, and which are quite different from what they were a few years back, we will not expect prosperity to return so easily this time.

Some of these factors are: Home owners are in debt three times as much as they were twenty-two years ago, taxes are from two to three times as high as they were a few years ago and the spread between the price of raw material and that of manufactured goods is much wider than during any of our former panics. What does this mean? It means that the home owner, the producer of raw material, in fact the general producing and consuming public is so burdened with debt and taxes that they are only waiting for the sheriff to kick them out for allowing the oppressors to get them into their present condition.

Of course this was unforeseen to us but we see it now and know something different must be done but the daily question is: what shall we do? Just a few days after November 8th the results of the general election will reveal the fact that we wise American people have gone ahead and made our beds just a little harder. This I say no matter which of the two major parties are victorious. I am thoroughly convinced that we had as well try to lift our own weight by our boot straps as to try to get economic relief through the old system.

The money powers have ruled both major parties most of the time since they were founded. This is a wonderful resourceful country. If this were not true we would have gone on the rocks long ago under the system of graft that has ruled us. How long will the American public endure the present system of economic ruin? I think they have been remarkably patient, or ignorant, to stand as much as they have. How can we expect the leopard to change its spots.

It may be a little embarrassing for some old dyed in the wool democrats and republicans to change to a third party but they had better get that yellow streak out of their backs and vote once for principle rather than for party. The voter who makes this decision the coming election will find a lot of company. Another thing if you know something must be done, why not start? You never saw a job finished before it was started.

Joe Winkler, Jr., had the misfortune to get his collarbone broken last Friday, when he was thrown from a horse at his ranch home some 50 miles northwest of Roswell. Joe spent the week in Dexter with relatives, returning to his home Monday.

E. O. Moore, Jr., entertained at the home of his parents on Saturday night with a Hallowe'en dance. Punch and cookies were served at eleven o'clock and the boys and girls attended the midnight show at the Yucca to see "Grand Hotel."

Misses Gayle and Jewel Sharp arrived Wednesday night from Las Vegas where they are attending school and will visit their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sharp until Sunday, when they will return to school.

Rev. and Mrs. Bryant and three children of Elida arrived Thursday and will make their home in Dexter. Rev. Bryant being the new pastor of the local Methodist church. Dexter is very pleased to welcome this new family, and trust their stay in Dexter will be pleasant and profitable.

Many hunters have returned with their buck. George Wilcox brought the first into Dexter, coming home Wednesday night, October 26. Others who have been successful were Louie Heick, Loman Wiley and J. W. Sharp who came in Sunday. O. B. Berry and I. W. Marshall were also successful hunters, returning Friday.

BRIDGE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Walter McMains entertained with five tables of bridge at the Lake Van club house Wednesday evening. The club house was most attractively decorated in orange and black. Tallies and refreshments were also carried out in Hallowe'en colors. Following several rounds of bridge a sweet course was served to the guests.

PLAY-MORE CLUB

Mrs. Russell Smith entertained the Play-More club Thursday afternoon in the McMains apartments. Hallowe'en decorations made the entertaining rooms most attractive and the season's colors were also carried out in tallies and favors. Mrs. Bob McNeal won honor score and Mrs. Mitchell received the gift prize. At the twilight hour, a delicious salad course was served to the guests.

HALLOWE'EN DANCE AT LAKE VAN CLUB HOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. McMains and Mr. and Mrs. Paul McMains entertained with a delightful dance at the Lake Van club house. The Hallowe'en motif was carried out in the decorations of the big room. Most of the guests were masked and in costume, which added much gaiety to the occasion. At midnight de-

SHUART RAPS MOON IN SPEECH AT PEGOS THURSDAY NIGHT

Governor Arthur Seligman did not submit the names of his boards and commissions to the state senate for confirmation because "he would not subject citizens of New Mexico of the caliber and prominence that he sought to make up the boards and commissions to the indignity of asking consideration of their appointment from a group of petty partisan politicians who used their positions as state senators more for the purpose of obstructing the beneficial program of the democratic administration than to advance the welfare and interests of the people of New Mexico," according to a prepared address by Harry Shuart, publicity manager for the democrats and editor of New Mexico, at Pecos Thursday night.

Mr. Shuart considered several members of the senate singly and failed to find anything good in them.

Regarding Z. B. Moon, Eddy county democrat, he said: "To have submitted to any group of which he was a member the name of any self respecting citizen of New Mexico for consideration would have been an insult."

He referred to Hugh B. Woodward, lieutenant governor under R. C. Dillon as "a man whose reputation is that of a double crosser," and said that criticism of Seligman from him "is not likely to receive serious consideration."

Republicans have charged, he said, that failure to submit these names for approval was a violation of the law.

"Based on that contention," he averred, Governor Seligman also violated the law when he did not follow out the mandatory provision that 1 1/2 mills property tax shall be levied for highway purposes."

Seligman's refusal here saved the taxpayers $900,000, during his administration, he said.

licious doughnuts and cider were served to about twenty-five couples.

P. T. A. CARNIVAL

The carnival given at the Dexter school last Friday night was one of the most successful and attractive entertainments ever given in Dexter. First there was a circus parade, which was followed by a splendid program. Then there were various concessions and at the close of the evening delicious pumpkin pie, doughnuts and coffee were served. Mrs. Walter Anderson was in charge and was assisted by various committees, who are most grateful to the entire community for the splendid co-operation given.

P. T. A.

The November meeting of the P. T. A. was held in the high school auditorium Tuesday night, with a splendid attendance. Mrs. Loman Wiley president, presided over the business session. The program was on "Promoting Good Reading," which was well presented by Miss Violet Smith, assisted by Mrs. I. W. Marshall, and Mrs. George Wilcox gave an interesting report of the state convention. During the social hour, Mrs. John Bailey and Mrs. R. G. Durand served a refreshment plate.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Attractive Hallowe'en decorations lighted with jack-o-lanterns, made a perfect setting for the gay Hallowe'en frolic Monday night at the Hubbard home when David entertained a number of young friends. Various games brought the evening to a close too quickly for the happy guests in gay costumes who enjoyed this delightful party with David. Mrs. Hubbard was assisted by her daughter, Miss Rosie and E. O. Moore, Jr., in serving delicious refreshments to the guests.

"Bill's girl has dropped him; he's broke." "As usual when girls drop things, eh?" "Not exactly; she broke him before she dropped him."

EIGHTH GRADE PARTY The children of the eighth grade enjoyed a very jolly Hallowe'en party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Knoll, in Lake Arthur, Monday night. Appropriate and spooky games were played to carry out the seasonal spirit.

TO SILENCE COCKS ALBUQUERQUE—Cocks that crow in the dawn—or at any other time—will have to wear silencers if a "health code" proposed by the city council is made a law. The proposed code would make it unlawful for fowls "by sound of cry to disturb the peace and comfort of any neighborhood." A survey among Albuquerque chicken raisers tonight revealed it still is the old fashioned custom of roosters to crow just about the time dawn is breaking. None of the chicken raisers would admit that the crowing of their roosters aroused the neighborhood however. The code also would make it unlawful to keep more than one dog or cat within 1,000 feet of a dwelling other than that of the owner and hogs would be forbidden within the city limits.

Lake Arthur callers at the home of Rev. Harold Dye and family Sunday afternoon were: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Truman and Mrs. Allen.
