PROBLEMS OF AMERICAN ANTHROPOLOGY.

Phrenology is the study of the functions of the brain and nervous system. Once this term was used to cover a system of fortune-telling, to which the term craniomancy may well be applied. Modern investigation is revealing that the brain is a congeries of organs, and the part which they severally play in psychic operations is determined. The citadel of modern psychology is being attacked by three armies. One is engaged on the psychological side; another is engaged in the study of the operations of the mind, both of animals and men, in all stages of culture and age; and the third is engaged in the study of the products of the mind as they are exhibited in the other humanities. The science of archaeology impinges on these researches, because it has for its field of investigation the examination of the early arts of mankind. Savage people may well be classified by languages, and the grouping is natural and scientific. Perhaps barbaric people can be classified in the same manner to advantage, but in civilization it fails. When man has attained to the higher culture he breaks the bonds of clan and tribe, and streams of blood coalesce with streams of blood, and a vast admixture results, which commingles all biotic characteristics; all colors are blended, all types are united in one vast amalgamation. Then arts become universal through the spread of inventions. Institutions tend to a common system in the growth of freedom, languages diminish in number, and are no longer distinctive of unified homogeneous peoples. Finally, philosophies tend to the unity through the development of science. The whole human race is becoming one in aspiration, as it is one in destiny. History is no longer a field for literary exploitation. It is fast becoming a science. In this change, peoples, with their arts, institutions, languages, philosophies, and psychic characteristics are the subjects of research. With wonderful pathos, historians, philosophers, and poets have told of the rise and fall of nations, or they have thought not of peoples, but of rulers, of dynasties, and of capitals. These, indeed, have been ephemeral; but peoples have been persistent, and the changes that short sighted men have deplored have been the steps which the peoples have made in their cultural progress. It is in this new history that the archaeology of America has a place. There is another and a vaster field of anthropologic investigation in America, which is sadly neglected. Thousands of tribes occupied the land when it was discovered, four centuries ago. These tribes in North America constituted, as has been said, about seventy five distinct peoples or stocks of mankind. Often the stocks themselves were divided into distinct tribes, each having a government of its own. The anthropologic investigations which have been briefly mentioned in this article and a former one, relate only to the arts of these peoples and but small part of the study of man in North America is embraced therein. Many of these peoples yet remain among us, and they can still be studied. It is possible to discover their methods of organization into bodies politic as tribes, their forms of government, and their systems of law. They were not gregarious animals; they were not herds of men; they were peoples with elaborate social organizations. An account of the institutions of the Siouan Indians is as interesting and instructive as that of the Chinese or the Egyptians, and it is as important to the proper study of the development of mankind as the story of the institutions of the Aryan race; for we know nothing of the institutions of our own peoples in savagery, and little in early barbarism, while the study of the Siouan peoples will give us chapters in the history of mankind which are lost in the history of our own branch; and there are three or four score of such peoples in North America whose savage and barbaric institutions may yet be portrayed. But they are rapidly passing away, and already they are more or less transformed, so that only trained anthropologists can read this wonderful book that lives in the memory of dying men. Perhaps the Zuni can contribute almost as much as the Latin to the science of philology. Perhaps the forty languages of the Algonquian stock constitute as rich a mine as all the languages of the Semites. Yet these tongues are disappearing, and they must be put on record now or never. The mythology of the Wintun Indians, of California, is as interesting and important to the history of philosophy as the mythology of the Greeks; and there are scores of such mythologies yet extant in America; but soon they will also be gone. In all this vast field of anthropologic research in North America there is scarcely a score of efficient and constant workers though many others are making contributions from time to time. Shall it be in aim that the scholars of America are bidden to this intellectual feast? Our archaeological institutes, our universities, and our scholars are thriving again the straw of the Orient for the stray grains that may be beaten out, while the sheaves of anthropology are stacked all over this continent; and they have no care for the grain which wastes while they journey beyond the seas.—Major J. W. Powell, in the Forum

Fast Railroad Time.

The best time ever recorded in the history of railroading was made in a late run over the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe system between Bakersfield and Lathrop, a distance of 220 miles, the distance being accomplished in 205 minutes. This is the greatest speed ever made in a continuous run for such a distance with one engine. The engine was of Stevens type and built in 1885. Her drivers were 5 feet 10 inches and she burned 3½ tons of coal during the run. The greatest speed attained was one mile in 45 seconds, the fastest on record by 5½ seconds. The best time for a stretch was 10½ miles in 8 minutes, or a little more than 45.7 seconds per mile. The train was made up of two official coaches, and ran as a special, passing nine trains on the run, indicating some nice work by the dispatchers.

Arbor Day Proclamation.

In accordance with a custom useful and beautiful in itself, and rapidly becoming general in all parts of the country, I, L. Bradford Prince, governor of New Mexico, do hereby appoint Saturday, March 1, and Tuesday, April 1, as Arbor day in this territory; the 1st of March to be observed in the county of Bernalillo and all counties to the south thereof; and the 1st of April in all counties to the north. The great extent of New Mexico and the difference of climate arising from variation of altitude has made it necessary to designate two days for this purpose.

And I earnestly request that all the people of the territory observe these days by the planting of trees, shrubs and vines about the homes and along the highways, as well as in the public grounds and cemeteries of New Mexico, thus contributing to the wealth, comfort and attractiveness of our territory. This is especially necessary in New Mexico where such planting has been too much neglected in the past. Every line of acequias should be a line of beautiful trees, rendering the scene attractive and adding value to the rest of the land.

If every property owner will plant along the acequias within his own boundaries on this occasion, the improved appearance of the country within five years will be most gratifying. Let every citizen devote one day to this purpose.

I especially recommend that in all of our schools this day be observed, by the planting of trees in the school house grounds where practicable, and by calling the attention of the children to the importance of the cultivation of trees, and their care and preservation.

With my hand and the great seal of the territory of New Mexico, at Santa Fe, the capital, this 12th day of February, in the year of our Lord, 1890.

L. BRADFORD PRINCE.

Governor of New Mexico.

By the governor:

B. M. THOMAS, Sec. of Territory.

Do you want your daughters to learn how to cook? Then start them in with the Cooking Class commenced in the March number of Demorest's Family Magazine. The articles carry the "Cooking-Class" right into your own kitchen, for the editor tells us that these lessons are identical with the instruction given to her class by the head instructor of one of the large Cooking Classes in New York City.

Do you want to start your children in the Kindergarten system of instruction, and keep them amused at home for hours at a time? Here is another chance to refer to the March number of that wonderful Magazine; and when you once have it in your hands (if you are not already acquainted with it), you will be surprised to find that you have made a great error in supposing that it was composed of Fashion sheets. There is not a better Family Magazine published. Its literary merit is of the highest order, and the illustrations are superb. In the March number there are nearly two hundred of them, showing us among other interesting things, the beauties of a winter spent on the Mediterranean, all the different stages through which "A Bound Book" passed before it reaches the reader, and the horrors of "A Spanish Bull-Fight"; and the unillustrated articles are also of great value, notably one in the "Our Girls" department on "The Art of Letter-writing," and, further on, "Wash-day" gives many points that make Monday a less terrible day to anticipate. The story matter is up to its usual high standard, and the news of the day is given in a nutshell in the "World's Progress." It would seem impossible to get up a Magazine that would be better suited for every member of the family, at the low price of 20 cents a copy, or $2.00 per year. Published by W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, 15 East 14th St., New York.

Elect Postmasters.

A proposition has been made to annul the constitution by making postmasters elective by the people of the postoffice districts all over the country, and it is meeting with approval by the leading journals and minds throughout the country. The magnitude of the Federal patronage is a great and increasing evil. It is one of the main incentives to the greed of power. It demoralizes the public service. It makes the President during his term of office more of an autocrat than many a crowned ruler. It interferes seriously with the business of the Executive and Legislative branches of the Government. The number of postmasters is so large that the election of those officers would greatly diminish the Federal patronage.

Besides, the postmaster is drawn so closely into contact with the people that his selection ought not to be left to the whims or selfish interest of a few political leaders.—The citizens want a man they like and can trust without regard to his political affiliations.

In two instances in which Congressmen have requested their Republican constituencies to express their wishes in regard to the appointment of postmasters the decision has been favorable to the retention of the Democratic incumbent. At Brattleboro, Vt., lately, the Republicans so decided by a vote of 467 to 401. In this case women, who were entitled to vote under the rules of the caucus, controlled the result. At Newtonville, Mass., also, where the voting was confined to persons who had voted the Republican ticket at the last National election, 172 votes were cast for John B. Turner, the present Democratic Postmaster, against 43 for one Republican candidate and 25 for another. The vote was taken at the request of the Republican Congressman of the district.

No better argument could be advanced in favor of the elective system.

It is rumored that Miss Jennie Flood, who is the wealthiest unmarried lady in the state of California, has decided, like Miss Drexel, of Philadelphia, to retire to a convent and devote her life to religion.

Idaho and Wyoming will be reported favorably upon by the committee for admission as States. Springer, of Ill., will endeavor to amend by placing New Mexico and Arizona in an Omnibus Bill with the above named. In this he will be opposed by Joseph, who is asking for a bill to enable New Mexico to form another Constitution. The outcome for New Mexico according to latest advices is not hopeful for statehood for some time to come. All the hurrah that has been indulged in by the Republican bosses has fallen upon barren soil. They wanted the earth and have got left.

Secretary Noble will issue the order at once for the removal of the cattle from the Cherokee Strip in the Indian Territory. Ex-Congressman Warner has been laboring with the authorities to make the date of removal October 1st, but was unsuccessful—June 1st is the date decided upon. This order is of interest to some of our local cattle men, who have about 1,500 head there in pasture.

The New Rules.

The Democrats have won again in compelling the adoption of rules before the transaction of other public business. And they have won peaceably, by proper, legitimate, dignified means. When Reed committed his first outrage there was naturally an angry outburst of indignation, but Mr. Carlisle, Mr. Crisp, the Beckinridges, Mr. Wilson and others insisted on adhering to the higher grounds on which the party stood. There has been no violence and there have been no threats, but there has been the calm courage of conviction of the right, which has produced a speedier and deeper effect on the Republicans than could have been wrought by a thousand mountebanks shaking their fists in Reed's face.

Though the rules are bad in several particulars, and ought not to be adopted without amendment, their presentation is a victory for the friends of an orderly, decent, regulated and constitutional conduct of business in the House.

Benjamin Harrison, is the most monumental promise breaker and pledge trampler who ever set in the White House. When Mr. Harrison wrote in his letter of acceptance that "fitness and not party service should be the essential and discriminating test" in appointments to office, "and fidelity and efficiency the only sure tenure of office." Was it simply taffy for reformers when he said that "only the interests of the public service should suggest removals from office?" And the Chicago Convention held that offices in the Territory should be given to residents. Now comes the appointment of a Chief Justice of our court, from Minnesota.

Where is the cheap postage that was so loudly proclaimed?

J. A. Erwin, the popular and courteous editor and proprietor of the Roswell Register, is an applicant for Register of the Land office at Roswell, made vacant by the death of John H. Mills. Mr. Erwin would make a good officer. While we have little influence with this administration, and our wishes are not liable to be consulted, we cannot let this opportunity pass without endorsing Mr. Erwin's candidature. He is a life long consistent Republican, if he has ever served his country, in the late rebellion, he has not spoken of it in every issue of his paper, and when a democrat has popped up any where, he has not shouted Rebel at him. He is a good lawyer and comes to New Mexico well endorsed by his old neighbors and friends wherever he has resided. Our impression is that Erwin will do and will make a Register that every one will like.

Away up in the North West corner of this territory, and just south of the Ute Reservation in Colorado, and east of the great Navajo Reservation, its nearest Rail Road is via Durango, Colo., is situated San Juan Co. We are in receipt of the "Index" a bright newsy paper published at Aztec the county seat, by Allen T. Bird, it is a welcome exchange.

The Agricultural college which opened so auspiciously at Las Cruces on the 21st ult., has now an attendance of 33 pupils in the college proper. In the elementary school—not a part of the college—are 17 pupils working hard to reach the elementary department. As it is not probable that this department will be kept open longer than to the close of the present year, those pupils in the neighborhood who belong in this department should make use of time.

The mining industry continues to be one of the most important sources of prosperity in the State of Colorado—the estimated production of gold, silver, lead, and copper during the year 1889 aggregating about $30,000,000 in value. Leadville is still the largest producer, the output of that district being valued at $13,000,000, while the more recently-developed Aspen district comes next, the production being valued at $9,000,000.—The Rand-McNally Banker's Monthly.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhoea, griping in the bowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price, 25 cents a bottle.

Ben Small, of El Paso, Texas, will send you samples of Wall paper on application.

The Russian Government has projected a railway through Siberia 4,375 miles long, and it is to cost something like $200,000,000.

There are thirty-six car-building companies in the United States, and in the year 1889 they turned out 70,546 cars.—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

The "Strong" engine, a new locomotive just perfected and named after the late president of the Santa Fe, has been tested on one of the railroads entering Cincinnati, making easily a speed of thirty five miles in thirty minutes, beyond which rate the management was unwilling to go. The inventor claims, and prominent railroad men concede, that the new engine can readily go eighty miles an hour without danger.

Colorado College, at Colorado Springs, Col., has just come into possession of a valuable set of books through the gift of Mr. J. J. Hagerman. It consists of 175 volumes and is the London edition of the celebrated edition known as the Delphian classics, of which there are only two other sets in the United States. It contains all the best criticism down to 1815, and a complete text of all the classic Latin literature.

Hitherto Russia has been largely dependent for its supply of cotton upon the United States, and in 1887 as much as $50,000,000 worth of American cotton was imported into the Czar's Empire. Since then, however, the foreign importation has fallen off, and the supply is being drawn from Central Asia. Last year almost 40,000 tons of Turkestan cotton entered Russia over the Transcaspian road.—N. Y. Tribune.

From statistics just published, Minnesota stands first in the country as a wheat-growing State, having produced the past year 45,000,000 bushels. California comes next with 43,000,000 bushels. The Dakotas produced 42,000,000 bushels, ranking third. Minnesota had 3,000,000 acres in wheat; California, 3,000,000; the Dakotas, 4,000,000.—Yankton (North Dakota) Press.

The confirmation of the report that the Bank of England is issuing silver certificates shows that silver, the dollar of our days, is yet king of the world. This will stimulate every silver mining camp in the United States, and make the single-standard advocates hunt for some other species of robbery.—K. Shaft.

An express train on the Denver & Rio Grande railroad was blown from the track by wind at Monument, Colorado, on the evening of the 8th inst., and twenty of the passengers injured.

HEADQUARTERS GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,

Socorro, N. M., Feb. 14, '90.

COMRADES:

Once more the muffled drum has beat its sad tattoo. Once more an honored citizen, a loyal patriot and a gallant soldier, has joined the bivouac of the dead. Once more we are ordered to close up our ranks and touch elbows to the right.

The Supreme Commander, whose orders we question not, has taken our honored Chief, when our need was the sorest, and assigned him to duty with the advance, whose shadowy tents gleam white upon the hills beyond the ford.

John H. Mills, Department Commander of New Mexico Grand Army of The Republic, died at Roswell, New Mexico, February 11th 1890.

And Death, thou art terrible—
"But to the hero when his sword
Has won the battle for the free,
Thy voice sounds like a Prophets' word

And in its hollow tones are heard
The thanks millions yet to be."

It is befitting that Comrades of the Order in which our late Commander bore such conspicuous part, should manifest some outward emblem of sorrow for their irreparable loss. It is therefore directed that all Post flags and other insignia of the G. A. R. in this Department, be draped and that Comrades wear the usual badge of mourning for sixty days from the date of this order.

As the time for holding the Department Encampment is near at hand, it is not deemed advisable to call a meeting of the Council of Administration until then.

The Headquarters will remain at Socorro, and there will be no change in the existing order of things, but the desire will be to administer the affairs of the Department and finish the year's work just as if the late Commander was still at the head.

A general order convening the Annual Encampment will be issued as soon as the most auspicious time for holding the same can be ascertained. As several very important matters will come up at that time, it is earnestly desired that all Posts be fully represented.

LEE H. RJDISELLE,

Lots of bargains yet on Stewart's 5c 10c and 15c Counters—Take a look at them.

Buck Guise has gone to El Paso with two horses, which he proposes to run against anything they have there.

GRAND POTATOE RACE—Saturday night, at K. of P. Hall. Don't fail to attend—Lots of Fun—Children under 8 years free, over 8, 10c., adults, 25c. All are invited.

Young American full Cream Cheese 20c a lb.—Levin W. Stewart.

John A. Brown and Wm. Frost, together with other mine owners in the Gallinas, sent a party out Tuesday to work the mines. The latest assays make the rock run about $48.00 in silver. There is no doubt about the richness of the Gallinas ores.

Evaporated Blackberries 6 lbs for $1.00. New Loudon Layer Raisins 20c. a lb. Evaporated Raspberries, 40c. lb.—Levin W. Stewart.

THE SANTA FE ROUTE.

This is the short line to and from points east to White Oaks, Ft. Stanton, Lincoln, and all stage stations in Lincoln County. Close daylight connections are made by stages to and from above points with trains from Carthage, Engle and Las Cruces, which have through sleepers to Kansas City, Chicago, St Louis, and New York, without change.

Connection is made at Albuquerque with through trains for all California points. These trains unsurpassed in modern improvements with luxurious day coaches and emigrant sleepers, the latter under the management of the Pullman company, are furnished with elegant curtains and clean bedding at a small cost per night.

Shippers will find it greatly to their advantage to consign all freight via the Santa Fe route, a saving of from three to five days time will be gained from all eastern and northern cities.

Freight from Chicago and points west of Chicago is brought through without transfer, thereby saving breakage and delay.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE.

Whereas, Charles T. Clark and Lilly M. Clark, his wife, then of Lincoln County, Territory of New Mexico, by their certain mortgage deed, dated the 27th day of May, in the year 1889, and recorded in the Probate Clerk's office, of Lincoln County, in book B of the record of mortgages, pages 193-195, did convey to the undersigned, Peter Strumquest, his heirs and assigns as mortgagee, the following described real estate, situated in the County of Lincoln, and Territory of New Mexico, as follows, to wit:

Lot No. two (2) in Block No. sixty-two (62), in the town of White Oaks, according to the official plat of said Town. To secure the promissory note of said Charles T. Clark and Lilly M. Clark, of even date with said mortgage deed, for two hundred dollars, payable to the order of the said Peter Strumquest, six months after date, with interest at the rate of twelve per cent per annum, from date until paid: And whereas, it was provided in said mortgage, that if default should be made in the payment of said note, together with all interest that may have accrued therein, when the same should become due and payable, then in such case the said mortgagee, his agent, or legal representative, might sell at public auction, said mortgaged premises, to the highest bidder for cash, first giving notice of the time and place of said sale, by publishing a notice in some newspaper published in the County of Lincoln, for at least twenty days before the date of such sale, and in their name or names, or as the agent of said mortgagors, might make and deliver to the purchasers at such sale, a good and sufficient deed or deeds of said premises.

And whereas, also, default has been made in the payment of principal and interest due upon said note, which default still continues:

Now, therefore, public notice is hereby given, that on the 22nd day of February, A. D. 1890, at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, on the lot and premises above described, in the said town of White Oaks, the said Peter Strumquest will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, the lot and premises hereinbefore and in said mortgage described, pursuant to the powers and provisions of said mortgage. The amount claimed to be due under said note, on the day of said sale, is two hundred and seventeen and .65 dollars.

Mr. LEE. "Why, Addie, you needn't cry about it! I only said Mrs. Allen was a very well-informed woman, and I wished you would follow her example."

Mrs. LEE. "Yes, and last week you said you wished I could manage to look as stylish as Mrs. Allen, and she makes all her own clothes. But she has what I haven't."

Mr. LEE. "What is that?"

Mrs. LEE. "Well, she gets all of her information from the Magazine they take. I admit that she knows all that is going on, and is bright and entertaining in conversation; but I could do as well as she does if I had the same source of information. She lent me the last number of her Magazine lately, and I learned more in one hour's reading, about various social matters and the topics of the day, than I would pick up in a month by my occasional chats with friends. It certainly covers every topic of interest, from the news of the day down to the details of housekeeping; and everything is so beautifully illustrated, too. Every time Mamie goes over to the Allens' she comes back and teases me to get you to take Demorest's Family Magazine, as the stories are so good. Even the boys watch for it every month, as a place is found for them also in its pages; and Mr. Allen swears by it. It is really wonderful how it suits every member of the family!"

Mr. LEE. "Well, perhaps I had better send for a Specimen Copy; for, if it is anything like what you say it is, it will amuse and instruct the whole of us."

Mrs. LEE. "I see that W. Jennings Demorest, the publisher, 15 East 14th Street, New York, is offering to send a Specimen Copy for 10 cents, so we can't lose anything, as each number contains a 'Pattern Orier' entitling the holder to any Pattern she may choose, and in any size—which alone makes each copy worth 80 cents; and I just want a jacket pattern like Mrs. Allen's. The subscription price is only $2 00 a year; and I must say I can't see how they can publish so elegant a Magazine for so little money."

For some time the cattlemen of Lincoln county have been troubled by some parties in the eastern portion "burning" cattle on the range. A few days ago a warrant for the arrest of Mr. McKimsey was put into the hands of Deputy C. C. Berry, and Mr. McK. was in due time arraigned before justice Davidson, who after continuing the case a time or two, concluded his judicial term had expired and determined to throw off his official harness, which he did, turning the prisoner back to the care of Perry with instructions to produce him before the justice of the peace of Lincoln to day, Thursday where he is having his trial. Of course Mr. McKimsey is innocent until he is proven guilty, but there has some one been doing considerable knavish work out on the range, and we hope whoever it is will be caught and punished. Life and property must be secure in Lincoln county.—Stock Grower.

Reports from 120 counties in the seven principal live stock producing states indicate a moderate increase in the number of cattle and hogs.

A Cleveland dispatch dated Jan. 26 says the whisky trust, representing a capital of more than $33,000,000, has thrown up the sponge, and will resolve itself into an everyday corporation, in fear of inimical state legislation.

"There was a frog who lived in a spring, He caught such a cold he could not sing." Poor, unfortunate Batrachian! In what a sad plight he must have been. And yet his misfortune was one that often befalls singers. Many a once tuneful voice among those who belong to the "genus homo" is utterly spoiled by "cold in the head," or on the lungs, or both combined. For the above mentioned "croaker" we are not aware that any remedy was ever devised; but we rejoice to know that all human singers may keep their heads clear and throats in tune by the timely use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, both of which are sold by druggists.

Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh in the Head, no matter of how long standing, while for all laryngeal, bronchial, throat and lung affections, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is positively unequalled. It cures the worst lingering coughs and builds up the flesh and strength of those who have been reduced by wasting diseases. It is guaranteed to benefit or cure in all diseases for which it is recommended, if taken in time and given a fair trial, or money paid for it refunded.

Cattle are dying by the thousands in Wyoming from a lack of feed. More dead are found on the range than ever before and the backbone of the winter is not broken. The snow-fall has been light up to date, and the winter comparatively mild, but the cattle entered the winter months poor and with no feed on the range, making their chances of pulling through very precarious. Stockmen predict that the loss will be as high as 75 per cent. Twenty-five per cent, however, will probably be closer to what is likely to be the real loss.—Stock Grower.

Reports from the Wyoming ranges with the exception of the western districts, are that cattle generally are in usually good condition,
