THE FARO FIEND'S LAMENT.

No, thank you my boys, I will cash in no more.
I've played my last dollar, for sure, against fare.
You've got all my money for many a year,
To furnish white shirts, Havanas and beer.
Like a great many others, it's been my sad fate
To gamble away every cent I could make;
But I've taken a tumble—I'll do it no more—
I'll stick it now, though I have said so before.
Playing the Jack and the king to go through,
Playing the high card, like suckers do.
Playing "three-one," Your sure to go broke:
The end of the deal will find you're in soak."
At times I have played when half full of gin.
Fortune would favor me. Of course I would win,
Although faro is dealt on the square and no show to cheat,
I've made up my mind it's a game I can't beat,
Go look for a while at the table of green;
For there, all grades of men can be seen—
Lawyers and judges—even ministers' sons
Are gambling away the sacred church funds.
Go look at the game if you've never been there,
And see the sad faces marked with despair;
Some of the men have seen better days—
Once honored, loved, respected and praised.
But look at them now—how sad and forlorn!
Their once loyal friends look on them with scorn.
Their good name is gone, their home's in soak.
I've bucked my last faro; I'm out of the smoke.

A Cowboy's Conception of Religion.

"Lots of folks that would really like to do right, think that servin' the Lord means shoutin' theirselves hoarse praisin' His name. Now, I tell you how I look at that. I'm workin' for Jim, here. Now, if I'd set round the house here tellin' what a good feller Jim is and singin' songs to him and gettin' up in the night to serenade him when he'd rather sleep, I'd be doin' jest like lots of Christians do, but I wouldn't suit Jim and I'd get fired mighty quick. But when I buckle on my traps and rustle among the hills and see that Jim's herd is all right and ain't sufferin' for water and feed and bein' run off the range and branded by cow thieves then I'm servin' Jim as he wants to be served. And if I was ridin' for the Lord I'd believe it was his wish that I'd ride out into the ravines of darkness and the hills of sin and kep his herd from bein' branded by the devil and bein' run off to where the feed was short and the drinkin' holes in the cricks all dry, and no cedars and pinyons for shelter when the blizzards comes.

I don't see how I'd be helpin' the Lord out if I jest laid round the ranch eatin' up the grub I could git, and gittin' down on my prayer bones and taffying the Lord up and askin' for more. The Bible says somethin' somewhere—I've got the place marked with the ace of diamonds—about how people serveing the Lord by feedin' and waterin' and lookin' after the herd and I think it would do lots of people good to read it over. When a critter has had his moral nature starved ever since he was a calf, and been let run a human maverick till the devil took him and put his brand on him so deep that even in the Spring when the hair's longest, it's no trouble to tell whose herd he belongs to, it shows mighty plain that the cow punchers of the Lord have been huntin' salary harder than they've been huntin' souls."—The Administratrix, by Emma Chent Curtis.

We notice in a few N. M. newspapers such notes as these: "Judge O'Brien is a prominent member of the Clan-na-Gael." Judge O'Brien, our new Chief Justice, is a devout Catholic and a pronounced advocate of free, non-sectarian schools." We ask, why these comments? Why should Judge O'Brien not be a prominent member of that grand old order, to which some of the grandest soldiers and brightest statesmen on the Western Hemisphere or the European Continent were and are members—the Clan-na-Gael? Why, as a devout and conscientious Catholic, should he not be appointed Chief Justice of a people, of which two-thirds are believers in the Christian doctrines of that grand old church? Why, as a good Catholic and a patriotic American citizen, should he not be a pronounced advocate of non-sectarian, American, free, public schools? The writer knows nothing in regard to Judge O'Brien's religious views and cares less; but as a believer (if we have any belief in Christianity, in the doctrines of the Catholic Church) we do know that there is no religious denomination planted beneath the shadow of Washington's and Carroll's starry banner, whose priests and laymen would fly to its rescue with more patriotic fervor than they, and who have when they found that flag in danger, come that danger from foreign or domestic foe. The writer of this article has heard of the gallant deeds of the Clan-na-

Gaels at St. Mary's Heights, Gettysburg, the Peninsular, and elsewhere and has seen them in action at Vicksburg and Atlanta and the green banner they carried side by side with America's starry flag and Wisconsin's blue badger never—never brought up the rear, only on the retreat. Friends, give us a rest on the Catholic and non-sectarian school question. The Catholics of New Mexico, we assure you, will do as much or more for the perpetuation of free American, non-sectarian schools as any other religious denomination within her borders.—Shaft.

ROSWELL ROUNDUP,

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Pleasant weather.

Fresh strawberries.

Button-hole bouquets are all the go now.

Base ball practice daily.

Jaffa & Prager's residence is about completed.

The roof is being put on the new hotel.

Chas. Sparks' house is beginning to loom up.

Mrs. Fritz has returned from her trip to Eddy and leaves for Lincoln to-morrow. She has leased the Eddy House and will take charge of it in the near future.

Wm. S. Prager, Chas. H. Sparks and G. A. Richardson, leave for St. Louis next Wednesday, to attend the annual meeting of the First New Mexico Res. & Irr. Co.

Soundings on the Reservoir here have been completed. The first strata is a bed of puddle clay and underneath a well defined bed of gravel, which insures a good foundation and a secure core for the draw. After the meeting of the directors which is to be held in St. Louis on June 1st, no doubt the contract will be let for the completion of the work.

The Eddy Argus says, our base ball news was good, even if it did hit them a little hard. Thanks, Mr. Argus, if we should have struck a little hard, hit back at us after the game—but please do it gently.

Bro. Maul gave a dinner party at the Prager homestead, to a few of his friends, to-day. Those lucky enough to have had an invitation, report an elegant time.

SPUR.

Austin, Texas, May 4.—The Farmers' Alliance Exchange at Dallas has squandered nearly a million and a half of dollars of the farmers' money during the past three years. There is wide spread discontent in the subordinate alliances.

It is alleged that an investigation has been demanded and prominent Alliance men promise some sensational developments. They claim that a coterie of politicians at Dallas and elsewhere are running the order for self-interest.

Santa Fe, May 15, 1890.

Hon. James G. Blaine, secretary of state, Washington, D. C.

Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your circular letter of May 3, 1890, inviting nominations of two commissioners and two alternates to be appointed by the president as representatives of the territory of New Mexico on the World's Columbian fair commission.

In pursuance of your notification I have the honor to respectfully submit the following nominations:

Richard Mansfield White, of Sierra county, and Thomas C. Gutierrez, of Bernalillo county, to be commissioners and Louis C. Tetard, of San Miguel county, and Charles B. Eddy, of Eddy county, to be alternate commissioners.

Very respectfully,

BENJAMIN M. THOMAS,
Acting Governor.

FROM GALVANISM TO GOG AND MAGOG.

Splendid speed recently marks the progress of ALDEN'S great popular MANIFOLD CYCLOPEDIA. The sixteenth volume extends from Galvanized Iron to Gog and Magog. This odd beginning and ending illustrates the magnificent scope of the work, taking in as it does the very latest discoveries of science and the remotest traditions of antiquity, and all between, including an unabridged dictionary of language as well as a cyclopedia of universal knowledge. The small handy volumes, contrasting so remarkably with the usual unwieldy quarto or octavo volumes of other cyclopedias, the large handsome type, the numerous illustrations, the excellent printing and neat, strong binding, are features which everyone can appreciate; and not less will the majority of readers appreciate the wonderfully low price; 75 cents a volume for cloth binding $1.00 for half Morocco. A sample volume may be ordered and returned if not satisfactory, specimen pages free. JOHN B. ALDEN Publisher, New York, Chicago or Atlanta.

Robert Louis Stephenson writes to Robert Bonner's Sons from Sydney, New South Wales, that his health is greatly improved, that he is in good writing condition, and that he is at work on his story for the New York LEDGER, which he hopes to complete within a reasonable time. Mr. Stephenson likes the story very much himself, and has become deeply interested in the fascinating plot which he is weaving. He says; "It has something of a Monte Christo flavor, being the tale of an abominable crime and a singular vengeance. I have great hopes of the tale; The incidents are strange, and so are the characters." This has the true Stephenson flavor, and smacks of "Hyde and Jekyll." The public will await the appearance of this story with eagerness and great expectations.

THE INTERPRETER, White Oaks, N. M.

The political pot has commenced in a manner, to boil, and prospective candidates in both the political organizations are canvassing their strength. Among the democrats, the best of feeling prevails, and not a word of dissension. The republicans are at a loss how to proceed. In the present condition of their organization, a conflict of authority or supremacy is prevalent. The regular county organization, composed of the men who did some neat work at the last county election, are about to be displaced by the dignitaries of the party. The "Patriots" and Colonels of the party evince a strong desire to manipulate the management through their "League" organization, supported by a strong element of G. A. R. men who propose to be heard from in the future as in the past, especially when the spoils are distributed. But the democrats by their serene condition will take in the persimmons and relieve the republicans in their unfortunate predicament.

THE DEMOCRATIC PRESS.

From the Deming Headlight.

Up to this time the press of New Mexico has been largely Republican, though the popular vote of the Territory for the last eight years has been Democratic by 1,000 to 4,000 majority. This condition, however, is now changing. The newspaper representatives of the two parties are now about even, in numbers, and the indications are that the time is near at hand when the Democratic side will predominate as largely as has the Republican side heretofore. The Democratic sentiment is rapidly gaining ground among the people. The policies pursued by the Republican Legislatures which have been secured by the very unequal apportionment that has for several years prevailed, has disgusted and estranged a great many honest, thinking Republicans, and there is now a good prospect of the election of a Democratic Legislature this year.

That a well conducted press is the most powerful factor possible in public affairs, goes without saying. The discussion of public affairs is pre-eminently the business of the press, as the conduct of public affairs is pre-eminently the business of the people under all forms of self-government. There is no way for the avoidance of corruption and mismanagement in public affairs but through active and intelligent interest on the part of the people. That interest can be secured and sustained in no way so effectively as by the maintenance of an honest, intelligent and fearless local party press, and such a press can be maintained only through the general and generous support of those whose political creed it advocates. We therefore say to all, and more especially to all Democrats—support your party press. If you do not feel able or inclined to take but one newspaper, let that be your home paper. If it does not come up to your standard, do your part towards securing it a support that will enable it to do so, first, and then, if you choose, go from home for your news and politics, but not till then. This is the only way in which an effective local organization can be maintained, and without successful local organization successful state and national organization become impossible. First of all, encourage and strengthen your local press, for it can do for you what no other influence can.

TEXAS PARK.

"Texas Park" is the name of a settlement of farmers, who, to say the least, have been ignored by the Press, in speaking of the local happenings about White Oaks. This delightful stretch of country lies about from five to twelve miles S. E. of the town of White Oaks, and is fast settling up with farmers of no slight pretensions. Among the many, we can mention the following as producers and prosperous farmers:

Capt. James Stephenson has this year 70 acres fenced and under cultivation—12 acres to oats, corn, 50 acres, sugar cane, 7 acres, besides turnips, squashes, pumpkins and other vegetables, all of which look very promising.

W. R. Rexford has 60 acres planted to corn and cane. C. Lacy, 40 acres corn and cane. Crumb and Gardner have 80 acres planted to corn, oats, cane, &c.. Dave Wells, 12 acres corn. Wm. Alexander, 30 acres under cultivation, corn, oats, cane and garden vegetables. John Chester is opening up a new farm and has 160 acres substantially fenced. Leo Burer, in the Tucson dist. has a large acreage under cultivation, and the adjoining farm, Mr. Dempsey's has 15 acres planted in corn. The Messrs. York, Priscilla, and others have good farms.

Many of the above mentioned farmers raised fine crops last year although the season was unusually dry.

This settlement is fast becoming the garden spot hereabouts. The crops are looking nicely and with the usual summer rains, the harvest will be abundant. Our public officials should give them a hearing upon their petition for roads. If any class of people in Lincoln county deserve encouragement, the "Texas Park" farmer does, and the small amount of the appropriation they are asking for highway purposes should be granted, if among the possibilities, and our efficient County Board will do a just act by fully enquiring into the matter.

DEMOCRATIC CALL.

The Lincoln County Democratic Central Committee having met in the town of Lincoln on April 23rd, 1890, has appointed Thursday, August 14th, 1890, as the time, and selected the town of Lincoln as the place for holding the County Convention.

The purpose of said convention shall be the nomination of candidates as follows:

" " 16—Weed	4	"

Total 43

All good citizens desirous of contributing to a responsible administration of county affairs, are cordially invited to join us in sending delegates to the County Convention.

JONES TALIAFERRO, W. S. RYAN, Secretary pro tem. Chairman.

DISTRICT DEMOCRATIC CALL.

The Lincoln County Democratic Central Committee, representing the Legislative District composed of the counties of Lincoln, Chaves and Eddy, having met in the town of Lincoln on April 23rd, 1890, has appointed Thursday, August 21st, 1890, as the time, and selected the town of Roswell as the place for holding the District Convention.

The purpose of said convention shall be the nomination of candidates as follows:

One candidate for the Territorial Council.

One candidate for the Territorial Assembly.

Said convention shall elect delegates from the respective counties to the Territorial convention.

The respective counties shall be allowed delegates to said District convention, as follows.

Lincoln County,	14	delegates.
Chaves	7	"
Eddy	7	"

The several counties are urged to maintain their party organization and to contribute their support in encouragement of party fealty.

JONES TALIAFERRO, W. S. RYAN, Secretary pro tem. Chairman.

Lincoln N. M. April 23d 1890.

The Lincoln County Democratic Central Committee, in session, directs as follows;

That the members of this committee representing precincts which will be within the respective counties of Chaves and Eddy, shall convene at the towns of Roswell and Eddy, in their respective counties, upon May 17th, 1890, and issue calls for county conventions for their respective counties, and apportion delegates thereto, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Legislative District Convention to be held at Roswell, August 21st, 1890, and for such other purposes as they may deem advisable.

It is recommended and advised that such conventions be called for a day not later than August 14th, 1890.

For the County of Chaves, John W. Poe, A. B. Allen and Mark Howell constitute the committee to call said convention for said county.

For the County of Eddy, R. H. Pierce B. T. Whiteaker and Peter Corn, constitute the committee to call said convention for said county.

LOCAL PICKINGS.

W. C. McDonald left yesterday for Lincoln, on legal business.

The South Homestake Co., will resume running their mill in a few days.

Ladies' straw hats, trimmed and untrimmed—a large variety.—Goodman, Ziegler & Co.

Mrs. Goodin came in from her ranch the first of the week and was an agreeable caller at the INTERPRETER office.

Make haste slowly when you start to trade elsewhere—Young & Taliaferro.

S. B. Glenn, the Jicarilla well man, has left Las Vegas for the east, going to Columbus, Ohio, and Pennsylvania.

Joseph Whiteman will take a trip to Roswell next week, when his father will attend to matters here, at his home in White Oaks.

The millenium hasn't come yet, but the moderate prices at Young & Taliaferro's are a hopeful sign of its approach.

The Messrs. Gumm, Robinson and Hopkins, who have been performing assessment work on mining claims hereabouts, departed for Fort Stanton Tuesday, where they will be employed upon government work a short time.

Miss A. F. Hull, at the close of the present school term, will pay a visit to her eastern home at Winstead, Conn. Her many friends and patrons of the school, desire to see her return in time for the fall term.

Mrs. Dr. A. G. Lane, with younger son and daughter, returned yesterday from San Pedro to White Oaks, where Mrs. Lane and family will reside in the future—her health is not the very best and the change, it is to be hoped will be beneficial. Relations and friends are pleased to see them back to White Oaks again.

Notwithstanding the sharp advance in meats, Stewart of White Oaks still sells salt bacon for 8 cts. and breakfast bacon for 12½ cents. But, he would advise you that his supply is limited. Evaporated raspberries and blackberries, at reduced prices to close them out.

Frank Conger, has received his commission and will act as an enumerator in taking the Census—his district embraces White Oaks, Nogal and Red Cloud. This position while a small matter so far as salary is concerned, it is gratifying to see it so well bestowed. This is one of the cases where the so called "patriots" escaped recognition.

Garden Seeds, 5cts. paper—guaranteed to be fresh—Young & Taliaferro.

Messrs. J. W. Baker, H. Cuthbert and J. Z. Eames, of Abeline, Kansas, have been about White Oaks, Three Rivers and the stock range in this vicinity about ten days, and have purchased about 2,000 head of steers, mostly three years old and upward, for which they have paid $16 to $18. Mrs. Goodin, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Barber, Jas. Puckett, E. Hyde, S. Slane, and some others have sold. The total amount purchased will aggregate about $30,000. This certainly is encouraging to our cattle interests. J. O. Nabours has shipped a mixed lot of about 600 head to Kansas. The Carrizozo Co. are represented in the markets, but we have not learned of any sales as yet by this company. The figures now being offered for all grades of stock are the highest reached in years. The consequence is, everyone is feeling several degrees better.

A large variety of gentlemen's clothing for Summer wear; the prices will suit you, at Goodman, Ziegler & Co's.

The North Homestake people will in a short time sink main shaft 328 feet deeper, making a total depth of 1000 feet, from which a tunnel up-rise will be completed. This development will give them an abundance of ore for the next five or six years. While this work is in progress the mill will not run. Mr. Sigafus is contemplating the construction of an entire new mill of an improved process. The force now employed will continue—this will be gratifying news to our mine workers as well as the local trade.

Parasols and silk umbrellas—we have a good variety for you to select from.—Goodman, Ziegler & Co.

W. J. Littell, Jr., lately returned from Roswell where he has been employed at his trade, mason and brick layer. Bill is away up good workman and gives satisfaction whenever employed. He will return to Roswell soon with his brick making implements and will make and lay brick on several contracts already entered into.

We are selling white dress goods and embroideries, cheaper than ever before.—Goodman, Ziegler & Co.

Our Ed. S. McPherson, who is a rustler among the insurance men, with headquarters at Albuquerque, has been about town the past week. While here Ed. done some business and made good headway for plenty more in the future.

MEMORIAL DAY.

The decoration committee will be at the Congregational church as early as 9 o'clock A. M., where they will be glad to receive all flowers the friends see fit to donate. They would also like to have all who can to assist them during the forenoon in arranging them into suitable emblems for decoration. There will be no exercises during the day at the church, but the procession will be formed there at 2.30 p. m., with Kearny Post and Corps in the lead and go to the cemetery where the Grand Army services will be conducted, followed by the decoration ceremonies by all present.

To accommodate many who could not otherwise attend, the other services will be held in the evening, at the church, beginning at half past seven o'clock, and will be conducted in the following order:

1. Music.
2. Prayer... Rev. S. W. Thomas
3. Music.
4. Address... Gen. John Y. Hewitt
5. Music.
6. Address... W. C. McDonald
7. Music.
8. Closing Remarks... Post Commander, Dr. N. W. Lane.
9. Music.

Benediction.

A memorial sermon will be preached by the pastor of the Congregational church, Sunday evening, May 25th, to which all are invited.

Gus Schinzing has now the handsomest bar in Lincoln County, the painting of which is artistic. The front, in panels, have different scenic views, showing landscape scenery and some designs of animal life—beautiful birds are placed with colored flower work as the perspective. In fact the whole is painted very skillfully by our local artists, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ozanne, who deserve the highest praise for their successful work. The inside arrangements are complete; this, with the thorough overhauling and cleanliness makes the "Little Casino" look bright as a new dollar, and with all this, Gus keeps an orderly and peaceable place, creditable both to the gentle, manly proprietor and the town.

Mrs. Jose M. Vega, of Nogal, died Monday morning, May 19th 1890, from an attack of peritonitis and was buried at the Nogal cemetery. The Catholic priest of this parish conducted the ceremonies. Mr. Vega with three children left motherless, has the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

CITY BARBER SHOP.

OSCAR DYER has lately placed in fine shape, his barber shop, adjoining the Little Casino, where he has a good stock of razors, comfortable chair, clean towels, &c. Oscar is reasonable in his charges, and those desiring a good clean shave, hair cut, or shampoo, can procure the same at any time.

Some nice pickled onions in bottles; price 15 cents.—Stewart of White Oaks

Porfirio Trujillo, the Las Vegas outlaw, gives himself up to Don Eugenio Romero, county assessor, on the plea of protection. He is arraigned on four indictments and admitted to bail in the sum of $200. Capt. Frost and Judge Long will defend him. The Optic of the 19th among other things describes the scene at the time he surrendered as follows:

"Trujillo jumped out of the buggy and, in company with his protector, Mr. Romero, and the reportorial commissioner, walked up to the entrance which was crowded by fully 200 men, all of whom were friends of the young man and insisted on giving a satisfactory proof of this by shaking hands and embracing him. Cries of "Porfirio my boy!" "Como le va!" made it impossible to hear a conversational word, but finally the trio pushed through the crowd which was growing larger every moment, and got up stairs to the court room.

Here was also a great crowd every seat was taken, many standing up in the parquet and orchestra, while above in the balcony and gallery not a seat was vacant. Mr. Romero conducted Trujillo into the private office of the prosecuting attorney, where he awaited the recess of the court. His father, Bizento Trujillo and his mother, Richard Valdez, his brother-in-law, and fully fifty other relatives and friends filed in one at a time to shake him by the hand and assure their fidus Achates that they would stand by him. After waiting for a full hour, Mr. Salazar, prosecutor, took the prisoner in before the court and arraigned him on four counts, the indictments being read and translated by court interpreter Lucero, being for carrying a deadly weapon, discharging a fire-arm inside a settlement and resisting an officer, to all of which Porfirio plead "not guilty."

Capt. L. C. Fort, who, with Judge Long, had agreed to undertake the case, stated that Trujillo could not give a heavy bond, and that in view of the fact that the defendant had of his own volition appeared before the court, it might be well to nominate the bail for his appearance on one account only. Prosecutor Salazar assenting, his honor placed the bail at $200, and adjourned the court until this afternoon. Trujillo walked out of the court room followed by fully 200 friends and admirers, and in the excitement he got down as far as the plaza before it was discovered that he had failed to give bond for his appearance. He returned, however, and adjusted this trivial matter, and is now free, for the time being at least. He will have a preliminary hearing to-morrow.

No event has created such a general excitement here in many years, and the general feeling now seems to be that Trujillo's misdoings have been greatly exaggerated, all the indictments found against him being for minor offenses. He claims to have transgressed the law in no particulars and feels confident of acquittal.

John G. Carlisle was elected to the Senate of the United States to fill the unexpired term of Senator Beck. The State of Kentucky is in the habit of electing its ablest men to this exalted position. The country at large is also benefitted when men of the character and standing of Carlisle are placed in the Senate.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS:

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, has been used by mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

These books, each one of which contains a complete first-class novel or other work by a well-known and popular author, are published in neat pamphlet form, printed from good readable type on good paper, and many of them handsomely illustrated. They comprise some of the finest works ever written by some of the greatest and most popular writers, both of America and Europe. Each one is complete in itself.

No. 25. Mrs. Caudie's Curtain Lectures. By Douglas Jerrold. Very old and very funny. The younger as well as older generation should read them.

No. 26. Adventures of a Bachelor. By the author of "Blind Beardsley's Adventures in New York." A good humorous book by a popular author.

No. 27. How to Make and Save Money on the Farm. A valuable compilation of useful facts, hints and suggestions for farmers and gardeners.

No. 28. From the Earth to the Moon. A Novel. By Jules Verne.

No. 29. The Little Old Man of the Batigolles. A Novel. By Emile Gaboriau.

No. 30. A Dancesous Woman. A Novel. By Mrs. Ann S. Stephens.

No. 35. Blackbird Hill. A Novel. By Estera Steele Kennerly.

No. 36. The Guardian's Plot. A Novel. By Dr. J. H. Robinson.

No. 37. The Gray Falcon. A Novel. By M. T. Caldwell.

No. 38. The Sorrow of a Secret. A Novel. By Mary Cecil Bay.

No. 39. Percy and the Prochet. A Novel. By Wilkie Collins.

No. 40. The Story of a Wedding Ring. A Novel. By the author of "Dora Thorne."

No. 41. Mariya Ware's Temptation. A Novel. By Mrs. Henry Wood.

No. 42. A Maderna Gladerella. A Novel. By the author of "Dora Thorne."

No. 43. The Island Home. A Novel. By M. T. Caldwell.

No. 44. The Fatal Glove. A Novel. By Elizabeth Augusta.

Mr. Lee. "Why, Addie, you couldn't cry about it! I only said Mrs. Allen was a very well-informed woman, and I wished you would follow her example."

Mrs. Lee. "Yes, and last week you said you wished I could manage to look as stylish as Mrs. Allen—and she makes all her own clothes. But she has what I haven't."

Mr. Lee. "What is that?"

Mrs. Lee. "Well, she gets all of her information from the Magazine they take. I admit that she knows all that is going on, and is bright and entertaining in conversation—but I could do as well as she does if I had the same source of information. She lent me the last number of her Magazine lately, and I learned more in one hour's reading, about various social matters and the topics of the day, than I would pick up in a month by my occasional chats with friends. It certainly covers every topic of interest, from the news of the day down to the details of housekeeping; and everything is so beautifully illustrated, too. Every time Mamie goes over to the Allens' she comes back and teases me to get you to take Demorest's Family Magazine, as the stories are so good. Even the boys watch for it every month, as a place is found for them also in its pages; and Mr. Allen swears by it. It is really wonderful how it suits every member of the family!"

Mr. Lee. "Well, perhaps I had better send for a Specimen Copy, for if it is anything like what you say it is, it will amuse and instruct the whole of us."

Mrs. Lee. "I see that W. Jennings Demorest, the publisher, 15 East 14th Street, New York, is offering to send a Specimen Copy for 10 cents, so we can't lose anything, as each number contains a 'Pattern Order' entitling the holder to any Pattern she may choose, and in any size—which alone makes each copy worth 20 cents; and I just want a jacket pattern like Mrs. Allen's. The subscription price is only $2.00 a year; and I must say I can't see how they can publish so elegant a Magazine for so little money."

GENERAL.

From Stock Grower.

Carloads, trainloads, theousands and tens of thousands, is the way steers are going out of New Mexico and Arizona. The southwest is unloading itself at last at prices which seem fair. Buyers from every state west of the Mississippi are jostling each other in the hunt for cheap steers. Money will be plentiful in New Mexico this year. A subscriber who has not paid a cent in three years sent in a check in full the other day.

International irrigation has been proposed in the Rio Grande valley, between the United States and Mexico. The concurrent resolution authorizes President Harrison to communicate with Mexico on the subject. It is said that a successful method of irrigation here would open to cultivation some millions of acres of land in both republics, but we fail to see any benefit to the United States. The Rio Grande river rises in this country and, precedent or no precedent we have first whack at the water and intend to take out all we need, even if Mexico does suffer. If Mexico wants any Rio Grande water let her dam for it.

Our government is not displaying that same solicitude for the west as it shows for the "infant industries" of the heavier voting districts. Hides are on the free list, no help is to be given to irrigation enterprises, a duty will be piled on everything we westerners consume, while the eastern farmer is to be protected on one side by a customs duty and on the other by a railroad freight rate that shuts out the products of the west. Our law makers probably think that as we have subdued the Indian and civilized and peopled this great American desert, that we are capable of anything. So we are. All that the west asks is, that if it is to have no help from the general government, to let us alone. If you cannot help us do not hinder us. We will work out our own glorious future if you not pass "laws" to stop us. Some of your beautiful legislation has been shown in the "alien ownership" act, the "irrigation survey" and other friendly evidences of "watchful care." We do not mean to state that the whole blame lies on the present administration. The fault has been with every administration that ever had anything to do with this territory.

People of the Ruidoso are complaining of a party of soldiers, commanded by a lieutenant, are catching trout every day in that famous stream, and ask the question; Has an officer of the United States government any special dispensation above the common herd to catch trout out of season? The President of the United States has no right to violate a law, and the law is that no one has a right to catch trout until the first of June. If officers or soldiers violate that law, they are no better than the common herd, and we would think that officers that would permit of this violation should be the first to be dealt with. One and all are amenable to the Territorial laws, and someone on the Ruidoso is likely to be heard from in connection with enforcing these laws.—Ind.

JENKS' DREAM.

Jenks had a queer dream the other night. He thought he saw a prize-fighters' ring, and in the middle of it stood a doughty little champion who met and deliberately knocked over, one by one, a score or more of big, burly-looking fellows, as they advanced to the attack. Giants as they were in size, the valiant pigmy proved more than a match for them. It was all so funny that Jenks woke up laughing. He accounts for the dream by the fact that he had just come to the conclusion, after trying nearly every big, drastic pill on the market, that Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, or tiny Sugar-coated Granules, easily "knock out" and beat all the big pills hollow! They are the original and only genuine Little Liver Pills. Beware of imitations, which contain Poisonous Minerals. Always ask for Dr. Pierce's Pellets, which are Little Sugar-coated Pills, or Anti-bilious Granules. One a Dose.

SICK HEADACHE.

Bilious Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the stomach and bowels, are promptly relieved, and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. They are gently laxative, or strongly cathartic, according to size of dose. Smallest, Cheapest, Easiest to take. 25 cents a vial, by druggists.

A SAD CONDITION.

I suffered for five years with the worst form of Blood Poison, during which time I was attended by the best physicians I could find, and tried numbers of proprietary medicines without any beneficial results. I continued to grow worse all this time, until my whole system was destroyed by the vile disease; my tongue and throat having great holes caused by it. I then commenced taking SWIFT'S SPECIFIC (S. S. S.), and in a few months I was entirely cured, and to this great medicine do I attribute my recovery. This was over two years ago, and I have had no return, or any effects of the disease since, and my skin is to-day as smooth and clean as anybody's.

THE GUIDE AND HAND-BOOK OF USEFUL INFORMATION.

This is one of the most comprehensive books ever presented, and is issued by the same publishers. It gives all Government Land Laws and all information relating to the same; also all Patent, Postal and Pension, as well as all useful information relating to the Government. It gives a colored map of every State and Territory, including Alaska, with Histories of the same from earliest times, and all such information with regard to laws as is most desirable for settlers to know. It also gives a description of every nation in the world, with all the most important facts in relation to the same. In addition it contains a perfect encyclopedia of useful facts and information which could hardly be found in any other one hundred books. THE GUIDE AND HAND-BOOK is printed on fine paper with good type, contains 400 pages, and is mailed to any part of the world for 50 cents.

By special arrangements, orders can be forwarded to the publishers of this paper for either of the above, which will be promptly filled; or we will send both the above and a copy of THIS PUBLICATION one year for only $2.25.

THE SANTA FE ROUTE.

This is the short line to and from points east to White Oaks, Ft. Stanton, Lincoln, and all stage stations in Lincoln County. Close daylight connections are made by stages to and from above points with trains from Carthage, Engle and Las Cruces, which have through sleepers to Kansas City, Chicago, St. Louis, and New York, without change.

Connection is made at Albuquerque with through trains for all California points. These trains unsurpassed in modern improvements with luxurious day coaches and emigrant sleepers, the latter under the management of the Pullman company, are furnished with elegant curtains and clean bedding at a small cost per night.

Shippers will find it greatly to their advantage to consign all freight via the Santa Fe route, a saving of from three to five days time will be gained from all eastern and northern cities.

One of the BEST Telescopes in the world. Our facilities are unequalled, and to introduce our superior goods we will send FREE to every person in each locality, a show, only those who write to us at once can make sure of the chance. All you have to do in return is to show our goods to those who call on your neighbors and those around you. The beginning of this advertisement shows the small end of the telescope. The following cut gives the appearance of it reduced to about the fiftieth part of its bulk. It is a grand, double size telescope, as large as is easy to carry. We will also show you how you can make from $23 to $10 a day at least, from the start, without experience. Better write at once. We pay all express charges. Address, H.
