PYGMIES IN AFRICA.

The longevity of the animal creation found in the rivers and shades of these aged woods is something worth glancing at. The elephant and the hippopotamus and the crocodile may boast of their four hundred years of life, the tortoise a century, the buffalo fifty years; the crows, egales, ibis, and touracos nearly a century: the patrot, the heron, and flamingo sixty years. From the chimpanzees, baboons, and monkeys, with which the forest abounds, is but a step, according to Darwinism, to the pigny tribes whom we found inhabiting the tract of country between the Ihuru and Ituri Rivers. They were known to exist by the Father of poets nine centuries before the beginning of the Christian era. You may remember Homer wrote about the sanguinary battle that was reported to have taken place between the pigmies and the storks. In the fifth century before Christ, Herodotus describes the capture of five young explorers from Nassamoves while they were examining some curious trees in the Niger basin, and how the little men took them to their villages and showed them about to their fellow-pigmies much as you would like us to show the pigmies about England. The geographer Hekataeus in the fifth century located the pigmies near the Equator of Africa, under the shadows of the Mountains of the Moon, and I find that from Hipparchus downward geographers have faithfully followed the example of Hekataeus, and nearly a year ago we found them where they had been located by tradition under the name of Watawa and Wambutti. The forest which we have been just considering extends right up to the baseline of the Nounntains of the Moon. We were just now payin due reverence to the kings of the forest who were born before the foundations of the tower on Shinar plain were laid, and because it seemed to us that in their life they united prehistoric times to this society-journal-loving nineteenth century. Let us pause a little and pay honor to those little people who have outlived the proud Pharaohs of Egypt, the chosen people of Palestine, and the Emperors of Babylon, Nineveh, Persia and Macedonia and Roman Empires. They have actually been able to hold their land for over fifty centuries. I have lately seen the wear and tear on the Pyramids of Egypt, and I can certify that the old Sphinx presents a very battered appearance indeed, but the pigmies appeared to me as bright, as fresh, and as young as the generation which Homer sang about.

You will therefore understand that I, who have always professed to love humanity in preference to beetles, was as much interested in these small creatures as Henry Irving might be in the personnel of the Lyceum. Near a place called Avetiko, on the Ituri River, our hungry men found the first male and female of the pygmies squatted in the midst of a wild Eden peeling plantatins. You can imagine what a shock it was to the poor little creatures at finding themselves suddenly surrounded by gigantic Soudanese 6 feet 4 inches in height nearly double their own height and weight, and black as coal. But my Zanzbaris, always more tender-hearted than Soudanese, prevented the clubbed rifle and cutlasses from extinguishing their lives there and then, and brought them to me as prize in the same spirit as they would have brought a big hawk moth or mammoth longicorn for inspection.

As they stood trembling before me I named the little man Adam and the miniature woman Eve, far more appropriate names in the wild Eden on the Ituri than the Vukuru and Akiokwa which they gave us. As I looked at them and thought how these represented the oldest people on the globe, my admiration would have gone to greater lengths than scoffing cynics would have expected. Poor Greekish heroes and Jewish patriarchs, how their glory paled before the ancient ancestry of these manakins! Had Adam known how to assume a tragic pos, how fitly he might have said, "Yes, you may well look on us, for we are the only people living on the face of the earth who from primæval time have never been removed from their homes. Before Yusuf and Mesu were ever heard of we lived in these wild shades, from the Nile Fountains to the Sea of Darkness, and like the giants of the forest, we despise time and fate." But, poor little things, they said nothing of the kind. They did not know they did not know they were heirs of such proud and unequal heritage. On the contrary, their faces said clearly enough, as they furtively looked at one and the other of us, "Where have these big people come from? Will they eat us?" There were some nervous twitches about the angles of the nose and quick upliftings of the eyelids, and swift, searching looks to note what fate was in store for them. It is not a comfortable feeling which possesses a victim in the presence of a possible butcher, and a possible consumer of its flesh. That misery was evident in the little Adam and Eve of the African Eden. The height of the man was four feet, that of the woman a little less. He may have weighed about 85 pounds; the color of the body was that of a half baked brick, and a light brown fell stood out very clearly. So far as natural intelligence was concerned, within his limited experience, he was certainly superior to any black man in our camp.—From Henry M. Stanley's recent address before the Royal Geographical Society.

CHATTING WITH JUSTICE McFIE
The Supreme Court Term—A Fifth Judge Needed—An Immense Judicial District.

Associate Justice, John R. McFie, arrived from Las Cruces this morning, his sick child having improved sufficiently to permit of his coming. The little one suffered from cholera infantum. Judge McFie met Chief Justice O'Brien at Lamy junction, as he came up and was informed that the summer term of the supreme court had been abandoned and adjournment ordered till the January term. Judge McFie regrets his enforced absence on Monday when Judge O'Brien and Lee were here to open the term, and he thinks that an extra term may yet be called, as under the law the supreme court is authorized to meet at any time agreed upon by a majority of the justices. Several important cases are awaiting decision and there is a general demand for an early sitting of the court.

Judge McFie has secured a thirty days leave of absence and leaves next week for Washington, making a short stop at his old Illinois home. "I am very much interested in the passage of that bill providing for an additional justice of the supreme court," said the judge, "and I want to go on and help push it forward."

Judge McFie's district comprises the counties of Dona Ana, Grant, Sierra and Lincoln, and after January 1 will include the counties of Eddy and Chavez, making it necessary to hold court in six different places widely apart. The domain of Lincoln, Eddy and Chavez counties, as large as the state of Pennsylvania, has been added to this district since Judge Henderson presided and it gives Judge McFie probably a larger territory than any other district judge in the union. His territory extends from Texas to the Arizona line, nearly 400 miles, as the crow flies, and in Lincoln, Eddy and Chavez counties he has to cover nearly 300 miles by stage coach twice a year in order to meet his judicial engagements. The appointment of a fifth judge would divide up this immense territory and make it far more convenient for the judiciary and for the people.—New Mexican.

Notwithstanding the fact that the San Carlos Indians are continually doing devilment, the agent allows them to go off the reservation on hunting expeditions just as our agents have been doing the Mescaleros. Strange it is that the Indians, having ample hunting and fishing grounds, should be permitted to go off during the summer months on these hunting expeditions. Again, what use is there in a game law for New Mexico, when these Indians raids destroy the deer and antelope by the hundreds, just at the time when the game law is supposed to be in effect. When the early summer rains come filling the water holes, the deer and antelope collect near them, and the Indians knowing this, take advantage of that fact and destroy every one possible. We hope Mr. Bennett will stop these Indian expeditions. The people all over the country who feel any interest in the matter, should get up petitions and send to the agent asking that the Indians be kept on the reservation.—Banner.

"Funny!" Well, I should say so! Look at the one in short lace skirt to the knees, rubber boots, bare arms, an immense muff, straw hat, and A—beard! "What is it?" Why, that is 'A Modern Columbus' in the burlesque of that name given by a dramatic club of the celebrated Seventh Regiment of New York, and these illustrations and the account of it are, as you see, in DEMOREST'S FAMILY MAGAZINE for July, which has just arrived." The pictures of the six-footers of the Seventh arrayed in feminine toggery are about the funniest that have appeared in any magazine for a long time. This number also contains a beautifully illustrated article on the interior of Vice-President Morton's house, which is full of suggestions for modern house-furnishing. The article "Stanley's Rescue of Emin," profusely illustrated, is also of great interest at this time; and "The House-Boat in American Waters" will give a hint to many who are wondering how to spend the summer, in fact, the whole Magazine, from the handsome Watercolor in the front to the "Spice Box" in the back, is artistically and handsomely executed. It is wonderful how DEMOREST'S FAMILY MAGAZINE has come to the front in the past few years and now stands in the forward rank of the Great Magazines. Indeed, there is no other Magazine published that so acceptably caters to every member of the family. Published by W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, 15 East 14th St., New York.

THE INTERPRETER,

White Oaks, N. M.

The Statehood question has attracted the attention of the "Leader." In a late issue among other twaddle it says:

"It is now apparent that New Mexico will become a State of the American Union, July 4, 1891.

The Santa Fe Constitution has been carefully studied by the members of both houses of Congress having special charge of Territorial interests, and has been by these gentlemen heartily approved. Their approval of the document has been so thorough that it is a foregone conclusion that Congress will not consider the question of a new Constitutional Convention, but direct the submission of the Santa Fe Constitution to the people in the usual manner."

Compare the above with the following opinion of one of the foremost Republicans in the Territory:

"Judge Axtell was interviewed at Santa Fe, the other day, as to what he thought of the chances for statehood for New Mexico. The ex-governor voices the popular will when he says that "we must fix up some other pull on statehood before we can get it." Here is what the ex-chief justice says:

"Had our constitution been submitted to a vote of the people and carried, we would have been admitted without a question; as it is, a constitution submitted by a convention not called by congressional law, and composed of members of only one political party—with the exception of Judge Trimble, who is a democrat—and never ratified by popular vote, not only gave us no standing, but with the democrats was a positive drag. If the constitution which we offered had been the gospel of Christ no democrat would read it, as no democrat, with the exception noted, helped to make it." "What do you think about submitting it now?"

"This is a leading question and very objectionable; but I will answer at least in part. My opinion has been all the time that statehood is not and cannot be made a party question. If the republicans alone submit the constitution of a republican measure. Both parties cannot be brought to unite, except in a new convention. I think statehood men are a good deal worse off at Washington than a poor boy at a frolic. We don't belong to anybody, and nobody is interested in us; we neither have a vote there nor at the polls in our system. We are a cypher with the minus sign annexed. To be sure the land courts bill is a matter of national importance and so is our park, and we will probably get them, but we must fix up some other pull on statehood before we get in."

The Santa Fe Sun, hits the nail on the head and states the situation correctly:

"The color of the statehood advertising dodger of Frost, Bond, Prince & Co, has changed from a flaming red to a very pale pink, and the prophetic whoop her up spirit of immediate admission under the September constitution has subsided into a faint echo of its former greatness. This is well. The people of New Mexico are undoubtedly for admission under proper conditions, but agitation to that end on the basis of the cut and dried constitution is a forlorn hope, and nay, more, it is a lost cause. If the republican majority in congress should try to hold up its party here by passing an act of admission based on the September constitution, the people will teach them another such lesson as the democratic leader taught the boomers at Washington a few weeks ago. We are just as big and as strong as you and your friends are, Messrs. Frost, Bond, Prince & Co., and the sooner you recognize the fact and meet us on the tented field as foemen worthy of your respect and steel, the better it will be for New Mexico, and the sooner she will be admitted into the union."

Public opinion does not bear out the opinion as expressed in the foregoing article from the Leader. The entire visiting delegation coincide with the views as expressed by Axtell, Gov. Stover being among the number.

PLAIN LANGUAGE.

The time has come when democratic papers must call things by their right names. Republican arrogance, rascality and corruption have overstepped all bounds, and in the warfare for a return to the better days and methods of our fathers, republican men and measures must be described by the strong Anglo Saxon words befitting their characters. The Helena Independent realizes and acts on this necessity. It says:

"The republican congressional campaign committee is getting ready for a boodle campaign next fall. The new chairman, James G. Bellen, of New York, was the head of the old canal ring in that state, and was vigorously prosecuted by Governor Tilden to compel him to disgorge a portion of the gains, amounting to many millions, that he had gotten out of the taxpayers of the state on extravagant contracts. He is a man after Quay's own heart. He believes in first finding out how many votes you want, and then in buying them for cash at the highest market price. Other members of the committee are Philletus Sawyer, the Wisconsin millionaire, who is nothing but a walking pocketbook, and Senator Stockbridge, the Michigan lumber millionaire, who got his seat in the senate at public auction.

The Republican Central Committee held a meeting last week at Santa Fe, when they elected Judge Axtell chairman, and Levi Hughes secretary. D. J. M. A. Jewett represented Lincoln county at the session. The Col. knows a thing or two about the methods to be practiced by such a committee, having had experience as the head of such a committee in the celebrated Tilden-Hayes campaign in Louisiana. The Col's Ebbitt House letter in 1876 would be good political reading about now. The Louisiana method if adopted by the committee will be in accord with the other practices of Catron, Rynerson & Co.

Cleveland, 521; Hill, 7, is the result of the voting for preference for a candidate for the presidency in the recent Illinois state convention of the democratic party. It was about the same way in Vermont and in Maine. Cleveland is a very taking man, and he takes with others besides democrats. An eminent Boston business man, who was also a distinguished soldier of the war of the rebellion, and up to a recent date a life long republican as well, being asked the other day what was to cure the present untoward condition of affairs, sententiously replied, "Cleveland."

The apathy with which the El Paso people seem to be treating the White Oaks railroad project, was called to their attention in last week's INTERPRETER, and the clippings alluded to was submitted by an El Paso Times reporter, here is the response:

A Times reporter called upon several of our citizens who are interested in the White Oaks and submitted for their perusal the above clipping Mr. Morehead, one of the number said:

"There is nothing El Paso can do just at present. Of course we have our hopes of doing something, but there is really no definitely projected plan or agreement. We are simply working as best we can."

Another gentleman said: "We have something in view but it will not stand any rushing. Such deals cannot be made in a rush, and discussion of the subject in the public prints serve only to retard progress by inviting obstruction, men who build railroads know exactly what they want, and know whether or not they want to build such and such a line, better than any one else. El Paso will do the proper thing at the proper time, but just now she is not able to go in single handed and build the White Oaks road.

Miss A. F. Hull, our very popular teacher at the New West Academy, left last Monday, for a visit to her home at Winsted, Conn. Miss Hull carries away with her the kindest wishes, and the hope that circumstances may permit of her return and preside again at the Academy. The following communication, we cheerfully give space in our columns and hope to hear again from the gifted lady:

EDITOR INTERPRETER:

If you can spare me a little space in your columns, I would like to say that I feel very grateful to the patrons of the New West School for their hearty interest in it, to the White Oaks Academy Association for the kindly expression of their appreciation of my work and to the people of White Oaks for many kindnesses shown to "a stranger in a strange land."

Though painfully conscious that I have made mistakes and that the school is far below my ideal, I am also conscious that my heart has been in my work, and that while trying to teach faithfully the knowledge of this world, I have earnestly striven to live this truth: "The knowledge of this world passeth away" but Christian character—like the word of the Lord shall stand forever.

I would like to say that it has never been my privilege to teach pupils who have been more faithful in study or more cheerfully obedient than the members of my White Oaks school, and that I have not spent one unhappy hour in this school room. Especially would I commend the gentlemanly conduct of the boys of the school, they have always and everywhere treated me as if they thought me a lady. They could pay me no more acceptable compliment, for one courteous deed far outweighs a hundred complimentary phrases.

And now I go to the beautiful hills of my own loved New England, bearing with me many pleasant memories of New Mexico—

Sincerely,

A. F. HULL.

White Oaks, N. M.

June 16th, 1890.

Another chapter has been written in the tragedy which has for its main feature the murder of Domingo Montoya last November. It will be remembered that Montoya was found dead by the side of a half-skinned cow. Certain circumstances and developments led to the indictment and arrest of florencio Gailegos and Eluterio Baca as the murderers, and those parties are now in jail awaiting trial. On Wednesday Sheriff Nowlin and Capt. Roberts returned from the Manzano country, bringing with them Juana Sebadra, the wife of the murdered man, who will have to answer to a charge of being an accessory to the murder. The main evidence against the woman is said to be in a letter which she recently wrote to one of the prisoners.—Lincoln Independent.

Miss Forsythe, sister of Jack Forsythe, and Mrs. Sam Wells, jr., arrived by stage this morning, direct from the Green Isle. Welcome.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE.

Whereas John T. Reid, and Kate M. Reid, his wife, then of the town of White Oaks, County of Lincoln and Territory of New Mexico, by their certain mortgage deed, dated the 21st day of December, A. D. 1888, and recorded in the Probate Clerk's office of Lincoln County, in book B of records, page 100, did convey to the undersigned, Melvin E. Richardson and William H. Weed, their heirs and assigns as mortgagees, the following described real estate, situated in the County of Lincoln and Territory of New Mexico, as follows, to wit:

The East half of lot two (2) in Block five (5), the west half of lot one (1), in Block twenty-one (21), and lot two (2) in Block thirty-two (32), and lot four (4) in Block twenty-three (23), all in the town of White Oaks as shown by the survey and plat of said town. Also, lot twenty-one (21) on Lincoln avenue in the City Lode Addition to the said town of White Oaks, as shown on the plat of said addition.

To secure the promissory note of said John T. Reid, of even date with said mortgage deed, for fifteen-hundred (1500) dollars, payable one year after date, with interest payable monthly, at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum from date until paid, which said note was payable to the order of Jennie D. Overton, and was endorsed by the undersigned Melvin E. Richardson and William H. Weed, to secure its payment when due.

And whereas, it was provided in and by said mortgage, that if default should be made in the payment of said note by the said John T. Reid and Kate M. Reid, together with the accrued interest thereon at the time and in the manner specified in said note when the same should become due and payable, then, and in such case the said mortgagees, their agent or legal representatives, in person, or by their agents and attorneys, might sell or dispose of said mortgaged premises at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, first giving notice of the time and place of said sale, by publishing a notice in some newspaper printed in the County of Lincoln, for five weeks before the date of such sale, and in their names might make and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers at such sale, a good and sufficient deed or deeds of said premises—

And whereas, default has been made by the said John T. Reid and Kate Reid, in the payment of said note and the interest thereon, and the same has been fully paid by William H. Weed, one of said mortgagees. Now therefore public notice is hereby given, that on the 21st day of July A. D. 1890, between the hours of 10 A. M., and 3 P. M., of said day, at the front door of the Post Office in the town of White Oaks in said County of Lincoln, the said mortgagees in person or by their attorney, will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, the premises hereinbefore and in said mortgage described, pursuant to the powers and provisions of said mortgage. The amount claimed to be due on said note, costs of sale, Attorney fee etc., on the day of, said sale, is $1723.00.

There are now three inspectors of the United States land office in Las Cruces, diligently working to establish the invalidity of the claims of settlers. I. G. Colwell, who lately arrived here as assistant to Col Stidger, has just gone down to the Animas valley to investigate the Head & Hust ranches. N. B. Booth has just come over from Arizona as special timber inspector for New Mexico. Mr. Booth will relieve Col. Stidger of this branch of the work and devote his entire time to making it unpleasant for the unfortunate mill and lumber men, etc. Col. Stidger will thus be enabled to devote his entire time to the so called fraudulent land entries, of which he really seems to think there are many in that district.—Dem.

The Republican papers that had so much to say about Sparkes, are singularly quiet about now. The above item shows clearly that the present administration is going further than Sparkes ever dreamed of even before Cleveland removed him. We wonder what their excuse will be for the continued persecution of settlers, and mill men now.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

The practice of our oil-well sinkers in firing a torpedo to start a dry or increase the flow of a sluggish well has been taken advantage of in England successfully in the case of water. At the Herne Bay Water Works, a well bored into the chalk 576 feet deep from the surface yielded little or no water, and upon the advice of Messrs. John Taylor & Sons, who being mining engineers, doubtless had the Pennsylvania oil practice in mind, two charges of roborite were fired, the first consisting of 27 pounds of the explosive placed at the bottom of the bore hole, and the second of 25 pounds at 50 feet above the former. The second shot had the desired result and produced a column of water estimated at 50,000 gallons a day, which rose to the top of the well.—Eng. and Min. Journal.

Our Jicarilla well people can make a trial of this kind that might prove successful.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS;

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, has been used by mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

LAND OFFICE AT ROSWELL, N. M.,
May 8, 1890.
Notice is hereby given that the following-named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before Probate Clerk of Lincoln Co., at Lincoln N. M., on Saturday, June 8, 1890, viz: Edward Schaefer, pre-emption D. S. No. 3509, for the E. 1/2 S. W. 1/4, Sec. 24 Tp. 6 S. of R. 11 E.
He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of, said land, viz:
Edward Fitzpatrick of White Oaks, N.M.
George Fitzpatrick, " " " Chas. M. Bryan " " " Bird Dyer " " "
Any person who desires to protest the allowance of such proof, or who knows of any substantial reason, under the law and the regulations of the Interior Department, why such proof should not be allowed, will be given an opportunity at the above mentioned time and place to cross-examine the witnesses of said claimant, and to offer evidence in rebuttal of that submitted by claimant.
WINFIELD S. COBBAN, Register.

Mr. LEE. "Why, Addie, you needn't cry about it! I only said Mrs. Allen was a very well-informed woman, and I wished you would follow her example."
Mrs. LEE. "Yes, and last week you said you wished I could manage to look as stylish as Mrs.
Allen—and she makes all her own gowns. But she has what I haven't."
Mr. LEE. "What is that?"
Mrs. LEE. "Well, she gets all her information from the Magazine they take. I admit that she knows all that is going on, and is bright and entertaining in conversation; but I could do as well as she does if I had the same source of information. She lent me the last number of her Magazine lately, and I learned more in one hour's reading, about various social matters and the topics of the day, than I would pick up in a month by my occasional chats with friends. It certainly covers every topic of interest, from the news of the day down to the details of house-keeping;
and everything is so beautifully illustrated, too.
Every time Mamie goes over to the Allens' she comes back and tenses me to get you to take Demorest's Family Magazine, as the stories are so good. Even the boys watch for it every month, as a place is found for them also in its pages; and Mr. Allen swears by it. It is really wonderful how it suits every member of the family!" Mr. LEE. "Well, perhaps I had better send for a specimen copy for, if it is anything like what you say it is, it will amuse and instruct the whole of us." Mrs. LEE. "I see that W. Jeanings Demorest, the publisher, 15 East 14th Street, New York, is offering to send a Specimen Copy for 10 cents, so we can't lose anything, as each number contains a 'Pattern Order' entitling the holder to any Pattern she may choose, and in any size—which alone makes each copy worth 30 cents; and I just want a jacket pattern like Mrs. Allen's. The subscription price is only $2.00 a year; and I must say I can't see how they can publish so elegant a Magazine for so little money."

"There was a frog who lived in a spring. He caught such a cold he could not sing."

Poor, unfortunate Batrachian! In what a sad plight he must have been. And yet his misfortune was one that often befalls singers. Many a once tuneful voice among those who belong to the "genus homo" is utterly spoiled by "cold in the head," or on the lungs, or both combined. For the above mentioned "croaker" we are not aware that any remedy was ever devised; but we rejoice to know that all human singers may keep their heads clear and throats in tune by the timely use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, both of which are sold by druggists.

Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh in the Head, no matter of how long standing, while for all laryngeal, bronchial, throat and lung affections, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is positively unequalled. It cures the worst lingering coughs and builds up the flesh and strength of those who have been reduced by wasting diseases. It is guaranteed to benefit or cure in all diseases for which it is recommended, if taken in time and given a fair trial, or money paid for it refunded.
