DEVELOPMENT OF OIL GOES ON AT RUSSELL SAYS NEW OWNER

"Development will continue in the Russell field" said H. Giesecke when he returned from Fort Worth Thursday afternoon, where he went to confer with the officials of the Gulf Production Co.

Mr. Giesecke stated that a deal was being negotiated and would be closed in a few days, which would keep development going on in the field east of Ballinger.

The officials of the Gulf Production Co. were due to return but as they were arranging to leave Fort Worth with him they were called to Callahan county, where a big well has just come in which opens up a new field in this part of the state. They will be in Ballinger as soon as they can get here, and the deal pending will be put through.

"Just say that development will continue," said Mr. Giesecke, "and you can say more when we get things going."—Ballinger Banner-Ledger.

THAD O. DAY WELL NO. 2 SPUDDED IN MONDAY ON J. H. GIBSON SURVEY NO. 1

DRILLER JIM ROBERTS, WHO BROUGHT IN WELL NO. 1, AGAIN IN CHARGE OF OPERATIONS—FRANK PEPPER DRILLER NIGHT SHIFT.

Thad O. Day Well No. 2 was successfully spudded in yesterday, and is now in full operation. Driller Jim Roberts, who returned from Illinois about ten days ago, completed the rigging up for the new test last Saturday. Roberts brought in the Thad O. Day Well No. 1.

The new well is drilling on the Dutton tract, (J. H. Gibson Survey No. 1) and is located 350 ft. south of the Thad O. Day producing well. As soon as the spudding in is completed, the well will be running tour, with Roberts in charge of the day crew and Frank Peppel in charge of the night shift.

Inasmuch as the pay sands were struck at 863 ft. in Thad O. Day well No. 1, early completion of the new test is anticipated. After striking the oil sands at 863 ft. No. 1 was cased to shut off a flow of salt water,

ARREST NEGRO, ACCUSED OF MURDER OF BRADY NEGRESS, AT LAMPASAS

BY STRANGE CO-INCIDENT, DEAD WOMAN'S SISTER BOARDS SAME TRAIN AS NEGRO, WHO ATTEMPTS TO SHOOT WHEN RECOGNIZED.

Jim Miles, 54-year old negro, accused of the deliberate murder of Ellen Pulliam, a negress with whom he was boarding, is enroute back to Brady today in charge of Sheriff J. C. Wall. Miles was placed under arrest at Lampasas late Sunday night, after he had attempted to shoot Annie Elexander, sister of the woman Miles is accused of murdering, when she recognized him on board the Santa Fe's Temple train.

It was a strange co-incident which caused the Elexander woman, who left Brady enroute to Temple on a visit Sunday noon, to board the same train on which Miles was riding, he having apparently boarded the train at Brownwood or some point farther west. When the Elexander woman saw and recognized the alleged murderer of her sister, she made an outcry, whereupon the man, in desperation, is said to have drawn a gun and attempted to kill her. Other occupants of the negro coach knocked the negro to the floor, took his gun away and held him a prisoner until the train reached Lampasas. Here the conductor held the train until the sheriff at Lampasas could be communicated with and could come and place the negro under arrest.

News of the arrest was phoned to Sheriff Wall at Brady between 1:00 and 2:00 o'clock Monday morning, and after daybreak, Mr. Wall again phoned Lampasas to confirm the fact that the right man was under arrest. Mr. Wall left on yesterday noon's train for Lampasas, and is expected to return to Brady this afternoon with his prisoner in charge.

The murder of which Miles is accused was most cold-blooded, and, it is thought, occurred in the early part of Monday night of last week. Both the negro and the dead negress were last seen alive Monday evening. When the body of the negress was found last Thursday morning in her house near the McCulloch County Cotton Oil mill, her throat had been cut, she had been stabbed twice to the heart, and a gash cut over her right eye. She had evidently been dead for a number of days. A blood-stained butcher knife lying alongside the bed of Miles in an adjoining room, together with his sudden disappearance, directed suspicion against him at once. Later Sheriff Wall also found a blood-stained night shirt in Miles' room. That the woman was murdered as she slept was apparent since there was no evidence of a struggle. Robbery appeared the motive, and money she was known to have, was gone.

Sheriff Wall first obtained a clue from a Santa Fe conductor, who said last Wednesday a negro answering the description had boarded the Santa Fe's train for Lemeta at San Saba. Descriptions had been sent out to ever sheriff in the state, and Mr. Wall was confident that it was only a matter of a few days before he would be captured. Just why the negro should have doubled back to Brownwood, and then started East again is not apparent, unless he hoped thereby to throw the officers off his track.

The local colored population is highly incensed over the affair, and there have been promises made of a lynching, should the negro be turned over to them. However, there will be no possibility of such a plan being carried out, as Mr. Wall expects to keep the accused man in custody, and a speedy trial is assured to determine his guilt or innocence of the crime.

NEW MILLINERY FIRM—BAUHOF & STRIEGLER

The stock and fixtures of the Simpson Millinery store were last week acquired by Mrs. W. M. Bauhof and S. J. Striegler, who will continue the business in its same location in the rear of the first floor of the Popular Dry Goods Co., under the firm name of Bauhof & Striegler. Mrs. Bauhof is in charge, and invites an inspection of her stock of new Spring millinery, the greater part of which has already been received and placed on display.

The Simpson Millinery store was accounted one of the most popular in this section and the many friends of the establishment will be glad to learn that it is to be continued in such capable hands as those of Mrs. Bauhof and Mr. Striegler, both of whom are familiar with the business and its clientele, and will, therefore, be enabled to care for the wants of patrons to the best possible advantage.

TELEPHONE COMPANY HAD SLIGHT LOSS IN MENARD FIRE OF LAST TUESDAY

The fire at Menard last Tuesday destroyed over a hundred feet of cable for the West Texas Telephone Company, completely burned out five or six individual's telephones and put sixty or seventy telephones out of commission, in the city and rural districts. It is estimated that the telephone company's loss will be about four hundred dollars, after restoration is completed, according to the general office here.

The telephone company's office is located in the bank building adjoining the buildings which were burned, but a fire proof wall between the buildings prevented a heavier loss.—Brownwood Bulletin.

BUSINESS BLOCK IN MENARD BURNS WITH LOSS $25,000

Menard, Feb. 26.—Fire of unknown origin at 2:00 o'clock Wednesday morning destroyed the west half of the Bevans National bank block, the following business houses being burned:

Meat market, occupied by Jim Wright; barber shop, occupied by O. D. Parker; City bakery, occupied by Mrs. Otto Vanderstucken; Menard Cash Grocery, Joplin & Maines, owners, and shoe repair shop, occupied by J. N. Frazier.

Also the warehouse of the Menard Cash Grocery. The estimated loss of stock of all is about $20,000, the Menard Cash Grocery being the heaviest loser, their approximate stock being $15,000, with $500 insurance, as stated by A. L. Joplin, manager.

The estimated worth of buildings destroyed, all being of frame construction and very old, is in the neighborhood of $5,000. The Menard Cash Grocery was the only holder of insurance.

The fire started in the rear of Parker's barber shop, according to statement of a negro sleeping in the rear of the City bakery, which adjoins the barber shop. Within a short time the entire adjoining buildings were a mass of flames.

ROE STEARNS TO GIVE ENTIRE ATTENTION TO BEES

Roe Stearns has tendered his resignation as bookkeeper at the O. D. Mann store, effective the first of this month, and thereby severs his connection with this firm extending over a period of twelve years or more. For the past ten years or more he has held the responsible position of bookkeeper, in which capacity he has not only given entire satisfaction to his employers, but has likewise popularized himself with patrons of the store. Miss Mary Lee Mays, who has been assistant bookkeeper, will succeed Mr. Stearns.

The resignation of Mr. Stearns was prompted by his desire to give his entire time and attention to his bee business, an industry to which he has given his spare time for the past quarter of a century, and which he has built to such proportions as to establish it as one of the leading industries of its kind in this section. In addition to the production of honey from his hives, Mr. Stearns ships queen bees to all parts of the United States and Canada, and already this season has had many inquiries and orders. In fact, this branch of his business has grown to such proportions that he feels justified in giving his entire time to the industry in order to care for and still further develop this thriving trade.

The bees are divided into swarms or colonies. A number of colonies constitute an apiary. Mr. Stearns has apiaries scattered all along the way from Brady to Lightner. To care and attend to all these, he covers the ground in his car, which is equipped to carry in the golden honey when he robs the hives. A production of 100 pounds of honey per year, he says, is the average for the colony. Thus an apiary of about 40 colonies would run about 4,000 pounds of honey per year.

McCulloch county's wonderful climate, together with early springs, an abundance of wild flowers and nectar-producing grain crops, makes the bee industry most profitable, as well as fascinating.

INCOME TAX UNPOPULAR.

Considerable muttering is heard about the iniquity of the income tax. Some men go so far as to insist that present day high prices are wholly due to it. They say for instance if a man owns a saw-mill, it may pay him to cut half a million feet of lumber, but if he cuts more the government collects sixty per cent of his income, hence he limits himself to half a million feet though the demands made upon him may call for a million feet. The same thing holds true in the manufacture of thousands of implements and tools; the average factory owner is simply not going to work for the government only, and when he sees that the government is going to get most of the profits of his labor, he simply curtails his output, and the price of his manufactured articles goes up. If this contention be true, and we have little doubt but it is, the income tax costs us a great deal more than it is worth, and it is getting time that it be revised.—Quannah Tribune-Chief.

THE ATHENIAN OATH.

The Indianapolis News carries an account of a campaign by the hoosier city's chamber of commerce to "sell Indianapolis to its own citizens." Those in charge of arrangements for the convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World have written what they term a sales contract, which will be distributed among clubs and other organizations. This contract recalls the oath that residents of Athens took many centuries ago. It said: "We will never bring disgrace on this, our city, by any act of dishonesty or cowardice. "We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the city, both alone and with many. "We will reverse and obey the city's laws, and we will do our best to incite a like reverence and respect in those about us who are prone to annul them or set them at naught. "We will strive increasingly to quicken the public's sense of civic duty. "Thus in all these ways we will transmit this city, not only not less, but greater, better and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us." Slogans may seldom do much to accomplish reforms or bring about a period of vigorous industrial development, but this Athenian oath inspires a spirit of loyalty and enthusiasm that is at once appealing. "Not only not less, but greater, better and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us!" Such a pledge should quicken the desire of each and every individual to serve his fellow-men. It certainly embodies ideals that should be encouraged not only in commercial clubs and other organizations, but in the school room as well. And if the spirit which permeates the foregoing could be instilled into the hearts and minds of every citizen of every town in Central Texas, there

THE LAST WORD.

Sun-of-a-Gun should worry. The Brady papers and presumably the Brady Chamber of Commerce are all having kinnipion fits because forsooth the San Saba Chamber of Commerce does not dance to suit every wave of their magic wand. They seem to have discovered a "nigger in the woodpile" in the publicity campaign of San Saba county. Just why this should worry Brady is not plain, but there is evidently a pain somewhere. "Parson Grant" shouldn't burden himself beyond endurance. San Saba is sitting "pretty" and the passenger service will be here by and by.—San Saba News.

The devil is one of the most liberal advertisers, and the churches must place more value on advertising, if they expect to compete with the evil doer.—Ballinger Banner-Ledger.

A pure food inspector dropped into a store that did not advertise and asked what it was that smelled so bad around the establishment. The proprietor said it was business—that business was rotten.—Ex.

The next edition of the Standard Dictionary will have to revise its definition of the word "drive." We suggest something like this: "An incessant, persistent and merciless manifestation of human energy having for its purpose the acquirement for public purposes of any moneys a person may have loose in his pocket or in the form of a credit balance at the bank."—Grapeland Messenger.

FARMER'S INCOME SUBJECT TO TAX

Gains for 1919 Must Be Figured Under U. S. Law—Returns Due March 15.

LAND SALE PROFITS TAXABLE.

Necessary Farm Expenses May Be Deducted—Special Form for Farm Income—Cash or Accrual Basis for Computing.

A farmer, shopkeeper, or tradesman must figure up his net income for 1919; and if the farm or business income plus his other income was sufficient to require an income tax return a complete return must be filed with the collector of internal revenue by March 15.

A farmer should ascertain the gross income of his farm by computing all gains derived from the sale or exchange of his products, whether produced on the farm or purchased and resold.

Farm Expenses.

From his gross income a farmer is allowed to charge off all of his necessary expenses in the conduct of the farm during the year. These include costs of planting, cultivating, harvesting and marketing. In addition to these costs he may deduct money spent for ordinary farm tools of short life bought during the year, such as shovels, rakes, etc. Also, the cost of feed purchased for his live stock may be treated as an expense in so far as this cost represents actual output, but the value of his own products fed to animals is not a deductible item.

Other farm expenses allowable are the cost of minor repairs on buildings (but not the dwelling house), on fences, wagons and farm machinery; also bills paid for horseshoeing, stock powders, rock salt, services of veterinary, insurance (except on dwelling house), gasoline for operating power and sundry other expenses which were paid for in cash.

As to hired help, all the productive labor is a deductible expense; but the wages of household servants, or help hired to improve the farm, as in tree planting, ditching, etc., cannot be claimed against earnings. A farmer is not allowed to claim a salary for himself or members of his family who work on the farm.

Wear and Tear.

Purchase of farm machinery, wagons, work animals, etc., also the cost of construction or extension of buildings, silos, fencing, etc., should be considered additional investments in the farm and are not proper deductions against income.

A reasonable allowance may be claimed for wear and tear on farm buildings (except the farmhouse), fences, machinery, work animals, wagons, tanks, windmills and other farm equipment which is used in the conduct of the farm.

As to autos and tractors, the cost of these is not an expense, although the cost of their upkeep is an allowable deduction, if the machines are used exclusively for farm purposes and not for pleasure. Also, in such cases, a deduction for wear and tear is allowed.

Farm Losses.

The loss of a growing crop is not a proper deduction from income, inasmuch as the value of the crop had not been taken into gross income. The loss of a building or of machinery through storm, lightning, flood, etc., is an allowable deduction, but care should be used to ascertain the correct loss sustained, as restricted by income tax regulations.

No deduction is allowed in the case of loss of animals raised on the farm, but a loss is deductible from gross income if the animals had been purchased for draft or breeding purposes.

Shrinkage in weight or value of farm products held for favorable market prices cannot be deducted as a loss, for the reason that when such products are sold the shrinkage will be reflected in the selling price.

Sale of Farms and Land.

The value of agricultural lands has been jumping during the past few years, and during 1919 many owners sold out part or all of their lands at big profits. All such gains constitute income and must be taken into the net income for the year.

Any person who sold part of a farm or ranch, or part of a parcel of land, must also show any gains realized by the sale.

The method of figuring gains and losses on such transactions is prescribed in the Income Tax regulations, copies of which may be secured from Internal Revenue Collectors.

Forms for Returns.

The Internal Revenue Bureau has issued an improved Form 1040F for the use of farmers. This form, together with Form 1040A or 1040, will give the farmer explicit information as to how to properly figure his net income for 1919.

There are two methods of figuring a farmer's income tax return this year. He may make his return on the basis of the difference between the money and goods received for his products and the cash paid out for actual allowable farm expenses within the year. Or he may make his return on the accrual basis, which means computing the receipts and expenses that pertain to the taxable year, excluding income earned and expenses incurred in previous or succeeding years.

WORTH WEIGHT IN GOLD, HE ASSERTS

Howard Gains Fourteen Pounds Taking Tanlac and Lays Cane Aside.

"I've gained fourteen pounds in six weeks taking Tanlac and now I'm a well man," said Henry S. Howard, a well-known farmer and stock raiser of King Hill, Idaho.

"I had suffered from rheumatism and indigestion twelve years," he continued, "and could hardly eat a thing because everything went against me and I had no appetite. Every joint in me was swollen with rheumatism and hurt so I could hardly bear to be touched. I was in such a bad fix I couldn't work and had to use a walking stick to get along. The first bottle of Tanlac made a great change in my feelings, my rheumatism soon left me and I threw my stick aside, for now I can walk as well as anybody."

"And eat!—why, I just can't get enough and I feel like I could do as much work as I ever could. Tanlac is worth its weight in gold, and it has convinced me that there's at least one medicine that will do what they say it will and I want to do my part in letting everybody know about it."

Tanlac is sold in Brady by Triggs Drug Co., and in Mercury by J. T. Matlock.

Kindergarten Helps for Parents

This is No. 23 of a series of articles issued by the National Kindergarten Association. They will appear weekly in these columns.
By MRS. ETHEL G. YOUNG.

I am a mother of three children; Betty, aged six; Bob, four, and Jack, who is two. Up to the time Betty was four years old she had always been a very nervous child and needed constant entertaining. I hesitated to send her to kindergarten, but after reasoning with myself, I finally decided to send her. The concentration required in the two years she spent in the kindergarten made a different child for her, and she can amuse herself now for many hours at a time. Bob entered kindergarten about three months ago. He is a quiet child and needs to be brought out of himself. He seems to be getting needed help in the kindergarten, for, in the short while he has been there, he has become more talkative and active. He now enjoys being with other children whereas before he preferred to play alone.

There is nothing more necessary in bringing up children than to have them feel that we are interested in them. Try always to answer their questions. If you cannot satisfy their curiosity, they will surely go elsewhere for their information. When the children come home from school, I ask what they did, what song they sang, what pictures they looked at, etc. They live the two or three hours spent in kindergarten over again by telling me what they have done. I had to leave the children for a week, not long ago. When I returned they could not talk fast enough to tell me all that had happened. The habit thus formed of caring to share their experience with you is a great safeguard as they grow older.

A story at bedtime is always welcomed by the children, and I find that it is not only enjoyable and beneficial to them, but also to myself. They never tire of good fairy stories. Nature stories are always interesting, too. My children will choose the same stories over and over again until they almost know them by heart.

Several nights ago I was called away and could not read a story, so I promised one for after breakfast next morning. When breakfast was over and I thought of all I had to do, it seemed as if I were wasting time to sit and tell stories. However, as the children became absorbed in the story and their happy faces looked up into mine, I realized that time could not be better spent. The story was that of Hans and the Four Big Giants, the keynote of which is helping others. I knew that the children had absorbed the point of the story when they helped me afterward to clear the breakfast table.

The kindergarten is a great help in making children independent. Each child is taught gradually and in a playful way, to help himself. In a class of forty, John does not like to be the only one who cannot put on his rubbers or button his coat. Perhaps you will say you can teach independence at home. Granted you can. The trouble at home is that we too often do too many things for our children. At home, too, we lack the group work so beneficial in the kindergarten. It develops the social side of a child as well as his ability to be of service.

Orderliness is another aim of the kindergarten. It should also be the aim of every household. In kindergarten all the material is kept in order. It is given out and collected in an orderly way and each child is taught to pack up his material after he has finished with it. There is always a place for everything in the kindergarten, and the child learns to put everything in its place.

If your child is not orderly at home do not blame him until you first put yourself in his place and see if you are expecting the impossible. We have discovered in our family that by making things convenient, the children will keep things in order. In our coat closet we have a box for rubbers and another for toys. We have put within reach two hooks for each child's clothing. On the door there is a bag of several pockets for gloves. Even the two-year-old boy puts his things away and I have never taught him to do so. He learned by observing the others. Just the other night he cried while I was undressing him because he remembered he had not put his train away. Let each child have a separate place for his toys for they so enjoy being owners. If one is neat and another careless, it would be very discouraging for both to keep their things together.

Not long ago I spent a most enjoyable afternoon coasting with the children. A neighbor who saw me, said: "You surely are a child with your children." She unconsciously paid me a compliment. If I can only make my children feel that I am interested in everything they do, I am certain I will have and keep their confidence.

Scrapbook Notes.

It is better to eat veal in the spring. Veal that is underdone is unwholesome.

Baby's summer clothing should be light and loose.

A moist light brown sugar is the best for cakes.

Brown sugar is best for sweetening stewed fruit.

Few people know how really delicious mussels are.

Nuts added to fruit conserve makes it much richer.

Wood and oil should be used for fuel whenever possible.

Electricity may be advantageously employed for canning.

Dip the tops of your fruit jars in paraffin to insure their keeping.

If ham is very salty it should be soaked overnight before boiling.

Left-over meat can be chopped, seasoned and used to stuff potatoes.

When cream is very slow to churn into butter add a little warm water.

A dash of quince preserve is a pleasant addition to apple custard pie.

Eggs one week old are not so good for the boy as eggs one day old.

Do not throw sour milk away. It makes good hot cakes and corn bread.

The proper bean pot is earthen, with a small mouth and bulging sides.

The economical housewife should give due importance to the molasses jug.

Fish, eggs and poultry are good substitutes for meat in the diet of a child.

Cakes, puddings, custards and even candies can be made without sugar.

The strong smell of old fowls may be removed by washing in warm soda water.

Common baking soda is a great help in cleaning bathtubs and wash basins.

Pale, soft colors are more soothing as wall coverings than strong colors.

Rhubarb added to prunes and flavored with orange makes a delightful jam.

Cucumbers for pickles should be well scrubbed before being put into the vinegar.

When a jar is hard to open invert the jar on its lid in hot water for a few minutes.

In summer a baby should have at least seven uninterrupted hours of sleep every night.

When old furniture is to be refinished it should be washed with warm soda water.

Apple ice can be made the same as any other fruit ice. A little lemon juice is necessary.

Describing the Baby.
The Rev. George R. Lunn, the new Socialist Mayor of Schenectady, was congratulated on his election.

"The people have confidence in the honesty of my party's policy," he said. "Our opponents tried to put our principles in a false light, but the people couldn't be fooled. They knew that the opposition's animadversions on our principles were as misleading as the bachelor's description of his sister's new baby."

Asked to describe this new arrival, the bachelor replied:

WONDER WORDS.

Cross Between Poland-Chinas and Berkshire Makes Fine Hogs.

Wonder, Ore., Feb. 21.

Editor Brady Standard:

I promised to tell the readers a little of my experience in hog raising. Just before the statement of my four big hogs which dressed over six hundred apiece came out in the paper, one of my neighbors showed me as item in the Oregon Journal about someone who had killed a hog that dressed more than four hundred pounds, claiming it to be the largest one known to have been butchered at that time.

I presume they changed their mind when they saw the report about mine.

I see in a recent issue of The Standard that McCulloch county citizens had shipped a car of fine Poland-Chinas from Iowa, which is a good move; provided that you had not better stock already in McCulloch county before, than those you shipped in. In that event it is good money thrown away. And right here I wish to emphasize a point of incalculable value to those who wish to grow better hogs. And that is this: It is not so much the kind of stock you have as it is the care you take of it. What has become of the imported stock you had in McCulloch county when I was there, more than twenty years ago? I remember a Mr. Drinkard exhibited some fine stock on the streets of Brady. They were either Poland or Berkshire, I disremember which. And other parties have introduced the red Jersey or Duroc; I got a valuable idea from Mr. Randall of Milburn about cross-bred stock. He showed me a litter of Poland-Burk. He commented upon the texture of the meat and the bacon produced from it. The meat and bacon from the Poland China being too spongy, and that of the Berkshire being too compact and hard when dried. But he maintained that as cross-between the two was an improvement in every way. He was right.

Now I shall make a few statements and as Hawkshaw says, "let you draw your own deductions." We have a Mr. Steel (notice I didn't spell it Steel) here who is a grower of fine hogs. A few years ago he had the Poland China and our county agent advised boys and girls large and small, lads and lasses, men and all, to buy nothing but a thoroughbred Poland China. Now Mr. Steel has only the Berkshires and now it is only the "Burk!" (They are the only hogs now to buy!) The county agent was at my home and looked at my large crossbreds. He admitted that a systematic cross-breeding might be all right, but I could see that he was prejudiced.

My neighbor, Mr. Jim Bumgardner bought some fine crossbred pigs of me at five dollars at a month old, as did scores of other parties. But he, as did some of the others, went and bought a registered pig paying forty dollars for it. Eight times as much as he paid for mine. I told him that the one he got of me would make the best hog. He said "I know it will but my reason for getting a registered pig is because if I want to sell a pig, the first thing the purchaser will ask will be, "Is it a thoroughbred? Is it registered stock?"

As this letter is getting too long, I will tell you how to raise big hogs in my next.

"O. I. C. U. R. RIGHT."

INCOME TAX RETURNS DUE

Business Men, Farmers and Wage Workers Must File Schedules of Income for 1919.

MARCH 15 LAST FILING DATE.

Net Incomes of $1,000 or Over, if Single; or $2,000 or Over if Married, Must Be Reported.

The Income Tax imposed by Act of Congress on earnings of the year 1919 is now being collected.

Returns under oath must be made on or before March 15 by every citizen and resident who had a net income for 1919 amounting to:

$1,000 or over, if single; or if married and living apart from wife (or husband); or if widowed or divorced.

$2,000 or over, if married and living with wife (or husband).

The status of the person on the last day of the year fixes the status for the year with respect to the above requirements.

Under any of these circumstances a return must be made, even though no tax is due.

Husband and wife must consider the income of both, plus that of dependent minor children, in meeting this requirement; and, if sufficient to require a return, all items must be shown in a joint return or in separate returns of husband and wife.

A single person with minor dependents must include the income of such dependents.

A minor who has a net income of $1,000 or more is not considered a dependent, and must file a separate return.

Personal returns should be made on Form 1040A, unless the net income exceeded $5,000, in which case Form 1040 should be used.

Residents of Texas should file their returns with, and make payments of Income Tax to, Alexander S. Walker, Collector of Internal Revenue, Austin, Tex.

How to Figure Income.

The best way to find out whether one must file a return is to get a Form 1040A and follow the instructions printed on it. That form will serve as a reminder of every item of income, and if a return is due it tells how to prepare and file it.

If in doubt on any point as to income or deductions, a person may secure free advice and aid from the nearest Internal Revenue office.

Guesswork, estimates and other hit-or-miss methods are barred when a person is making out his Income Tax return. Accuracy and completeness must be insisted upon. The return is a sworn statement. As such it must be thorough and accurate.

Salaried persons and wage earners must ascertain the actual compensation received. Overtime, bonuses, shares in the profits of a business, value of quarters and board furnished by the employer and other items which are compensations for services must be included.

It must be borne in mind that compensation may be paid in other forms than in cash. A bonus paid in Liberty Bonds is taxable at the market value of the bonds. A note received in payment for services is taxable income at its face value, and the interest upon it is also taxable.

Other Returns Due.

Every partnership doing business in the United States must file a return on Form 1065; and every personal service corporation must file a similar return.

Corporations must file annual returns on Form 1120. Trustees, executors, administrators and others acting in a fiduciary capacity are required to file returns. In some cases, Form 1041 is used; in others, Form 1040; and still others, returns on both forms are required.

Information returns, on Forms 1099 and 1060, must be filed by every organization, firm or person who paid, during 1919, an amount of $1,000 in salary, wages, interest, rent, or other fixed or determinable income to another person, partnership, personal service corporation or fiduciary. These information returns should be forwarded directly to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue (sorting division), Washington, D. C.

INCOME TAX IN NUTSHELL

WHO—Single persons who had net income of $1,000 or more for the year 1919.

Married couples who had net income of $2,000 or more.

WHEN—March 15, 1920, is final date for filing returns and making first payments.

WHERE—Collector of Internal Revenue for District in which the person resides.

HOW—Full directions on Form 1040A and Form 1040; also the law and regulations.

WHAT—Four per cent normal tax on taxable income up to $4,000 in excess of exemption. Eight per cent normal tax on balance of taxable income. Sur-tax, from one per cent to sixty-five per cent on net incomes over $5,000.

LOCAL BRIEFS

The congratulations of their many friends are being extended Mr. and Mrs. Otis Turney upon the arrival on last Friday, February 27, 1920, of Otis Paschal Turney. Both mother and babe are doing nicely, and Otis, Sr., is just about the proudest man in town because of his son and heir.

The awning of the building occupied by H. Wilensky, which has been in bad repair for some time, and which was condemned by the city council, is being repaired. The repairs were authorized some weeks ago by M. Simon, owner of the building, when he was apprised of the dangerous condition of the awning.

The many friends of A. D. Wright will be pleased to learn that he expects to return to Brady the end of this week or the first of next, and locate here permanently in the carpentering and building business. Mr. Wright will re-open his planing mill in the building on South Church street, bought by him some time ago, and will thereby fill a great need in local business circles.

R. A. Pennington was in from Lohn Friday and stated he was just now getting ready to begin his new crop, having completed the gathering of his 33rd bale of cotton. While he got a late start on his picking, Mr. Pennington says he had a good crew of pickers, and that he kept the road between his place and the gin hot. Even at the gin he didn't lose time, for if he had a 24-hour wait ahead of him, he turned in and made a gin hand of himself.

The local officers Saturday had word of the arrest in Abilene of Jerry Wright on a charge of theft of an automobile. From the advices received, it is alleged that Wright appropriated an automobile belonging to an Abilene officer, and drove it off. The officers, who had been observing his actions, made preparations to follow him, but, to their surprise, it is said he drove the car to a point about four blocks distant and there sold it. As he was pocketing the money, the officers placed him under arrest. Local friends of the accused man, scout the idea of his attempting so impossible a stunt, and profess that the whole affair is a trumped up charge of which Wright will experience no difficulty in freeing himself. They having signed the bond for his release.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the Child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

BRADY W. & L. CO. DUE END OF WEEK NEW ENGINES FOR

According to the way local railroad men have the matter doped out, the new engines for the Brady Water & Light Co. plant are due to arrive here about Saturday of this week. The engines were shipped by the Fairbanks-Morse Co. from Beloit, Wis., on February 19th. Tracers sent out on the shipment located them at Shawnee, Okla., yesterday. Unless some unforeseen delay occurs, the journey from Shawnee to Brady should be made in about five days' time. At any rate, it now looks like Brady will be able to boast of one of the newest, best and most complete light plants in the state within the next 30 days.

MME. SCHUMANN-HEINK'S BROWNWOOD ENGAGEMENT POSTPONED

According to advice from Mme. Schumann-Heink's managers her Brownwood engagement will be postponed from March 8th, until May, exact date to be announced later. This postponement is due to her present illness.

Owing to the prevalence of the flu, bad weather and proposed railroad strike, this postponement will be an advantage to all people concerned.

Regardless of postponement, reservations are being made daily, and no tickets have been cashed in. Ticket holders will be protected.

More Irish Wit.

Two English tourists in Ireland, after chatting a while with an inhabitant, thought to take a rise out of him by saying, "Do you know, Pat, that the devil is dead?"

"Ye don't tell me!" said Pat in mock surprise.

"Yes, the old boy has gone at last." Pat said nothing further, but fished a few odd coins from his pocket and handed the Englishmen a penny each.

"What's this for?" they asked. "Sure," said Pat, "it's a custom of the country. We always help theorphans."

ACCUSED MURDERER EMPLOYS COUNSEL—HOLD EXAMINING TRIAL TODAY

DISTRICT ATTORNEY WALTER EARLY COMING FROM BROWNWOOD FOR TRIAL—JIM MILES, ACCUSED MAN, SEEKS AID FROM OKLAHOMA RELATIVES.

Examining trial of Jim Miles, accused of the brutal murder of the negro woman, Ellen Pulliam, the early part of last week, was postponed from yesterday afternoon to this (Friday) afternoon, in order to permit Miles to get in communication with relatives in Oklahoma from whom he expects financial aid in his fight for life. The accused man has employed F. M. Newman as counsel. District Attorney Walter Early is coming here from Brownwood for the trial. Enroute to Brady with Sheriff Wall, Miles was very apprehensive of his own safety, and frequently inquired of Mr. Wall if he thought the crowd at Brady would do him any violence, following which he would beg Mr. Wall "Don't let them get me!"

The return of the accused man in the custody of Sheriff Wall Tuesday afternoon, was the occasion of a great demonstration. Hundreds of men, women and children, white and black, were assembled at the union depot to await the arrival of the Santa Fe train from Lometa. Contrary to expectation, there was no attempt or indication of a desire to commit violence on the part of the crowd assembled. Rather it appeared the desire of each and every one to obtain a good glimpse of the prisoner.

Deputy Sheriff J. W. Hibdon and City Chief of Police Leonard Wood were on hand to help preserve order, and when Sheriff Wall appeared with his prisoner on the car platform and waved the crowd back, they obediently gave passage. Miles was hustled into a closed cab and driven to the courthouse, from where he was later taken to jail. The crowd followed in cars, on horseback and afoot, everyone trying to get a close-up view of the man, and his escort continued until the jail door swallowed him up.

Enroute to Brady from Lampasas, Miles freely admitted to Mr. Wall that he did the killing, and stated that jealousy and a quarrel with the deceased woman had prompted the desperate act. He claimed that he first stabbed the woman in a struggle with her. According to Mr. Wall, however, there was no evidence of a struggle, the woman having apparently been killed while asleep. Miles further claimed that he was not a negro, but that his parents were Indians, and that he possessed 1,300 acres of land near Chickasha, Okla., 900 acres of which were in cultivation. His children, he said, lived on the place, but that since his wife had died he had become a wanderer and was not content to stay at home. Sheriff Wall has communicated this statement to the sheriff at Chickasha in an endeavor to learn their truth, and also to ascertain if Miles is wanted in Oklahoma for any misdeed. While Miles features resemble those of an Indian, it is nevertheless apparent that he has negro blood in his veins.

Chronic Constipation.
There are people who never have a movement of the bowels without it is produced by a cathartic. Most of them have brought that condition on themselves by the use of mineral waters and strong cathartics that take too much water out of the system and aggravate the disease they are meant to relieve. A mild laxative tonic like Chamberlain's Tablets affords a gentle movement of the bowels that you hardly realize has been produced by a medicine, and their use is not so likely to be followed by constipation.

Announcement S. H. Mayo.

U. S. INCOME TAX EXEMPTS NOBODY

Every Person Who Had Income in 1919 Must Determine Own Liability.

MARCH 15 LAST FILING DATE.

Surest Way Is to Follow Form 1040A. Free Advice in Doubtful Cases. Severe Penalties in Law.

Nobody is exempt from Income Tax. An obligation is laid directly on the shoulders of each citizen and resident to consider his own case and to get his return in on time if one is due.

With each return showing a tax due a payment must accompany the return in the full amount of the tax or at least one-quarter of the tax.

All returns for 1919 must be filed on or before March 15.

Must Show True Figures.
In figuring up his earnings for income tax purposes a person must take into consideration all items of taxable income, and each item itself must be accurate in amount. Guesses and estimates must be avoided, for the return is made under oath.

Everybody who had an income during 1919 must now determine whether his or her net income was sufficient in amount to require an Income Tax return. The best way to find out is to get a Form 1040A and follow the instructions printed on it. That form will serve as a reminder of every item of income; and if a return is due, it tells how to prepare and file it.

One of the important points to keep in mind is that a person's net income is found by a computation prescribed in the law, and that each item of income from every source must be considered, unless specifically exempted.

Another thing to remember is that the personal exemption allowed taxpayers by law has no relation whatever to the requirement to file a return. This exemption is not to be considered until a person has figured out his net income and determined whether it was sufficient to require him to file a return. Then, if a return must be filed, he should read carefully the instructions for claiming exemption, and complete his return.

If in doubt on any point as to income or deductions, a person may secure free advice and aid from the nearest Internal Revenue office. Many banks and trust companies are also furnishing similar service during banking hours.

Heavy Penalties in Law.
For failing to make a return on time the penalty is a fine of not more than $1,000 and an addition of 25 per cent to the tax, if any. For making a false or fraudulent return the penalty is a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both; and, in addition, 50 per cent of the tax. There are other penalties for failing to pay tax when due and for understatement of the tax through negligence.

Many Sources of Income.
Aside from what one may earn by his services, there are many other sources of income. If he sold any property during 1919 he must figure out the gain realized. If he rented buildings, land, apartments or rooms such rents must be considered taxable, and he may claim deductions for necessary expenses incidental to rents.
Bank interest is a common source of income and is taxable whether withdrawn or not. Any amount of interest credited to a depositor is income to the depositor.

Interest on mortgages and notes is taxable; also bond interest received from corporations.
A taxpayer who cashed his insurance during 1919 must report as income any excess received over the total of premiums paid.

Members of partnerships or personal service corporations or beneficiaries of an estate or trust must report their shares of income distributable to them whether or not actually withdrawn.
Dividends of domestic corporations must be reported. Many other forms of income are taxable, unless specifically exempted.

INCOME TAX IS DUE MARCH 15

Penalties for Delay and Failure to Make Returns—Early Compliance Urged.

All income tax returns covering the year 1919 must be filed by Monday, March 15. Each taxable return must be accompanied by check or money order for the full amount or at least one-quarter of the amount of tax due.

Cash payments are accepted only at the collector's main office; if sent by mail, they are at the sender's risk.

Residents of Texas should file their returns with, and make payments of Income Tax to, Alexander S. Walker, Collector of Internal Revenue, Austin, Tex.

Those who must file returns but have not done so are warned that the revenue law imposes heavy penalties for failure to get returns in on time or to make payments on time.

Early filing and early payments are urged. In order to relieve the internal revenue offices as much as possible of an overload on the final day, March 15.

At the Methodist Church.
The awful scourge of flu so mercilessly visited upon the people of our town and country for the past month has brought suffering, sorrow and sadness into many a home. Among the many other sad features of this reign of terror has been that of depriving Gods people of the privileges of the holy sanctuary. For nearly a month there has been little or no public worship. We never know how to appreciate our privileges until they are taken from us. How sad would this world be if there were no churches in it. Even those who do not feel the impelling influence to attend the church would not elect to live in a churchless land. The true worshiper after having been deprived of the blessings of Gods house for a time can enter into full sympathy with the Psalmist in his declaration "I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go unto the house of the Lord."
Through the mercy of God the scourge has been stayed. Next Sunday we will worship in the sanctuary. Sunday school at 9:30.
Preaching at 11 a. m.
Subject of morning sermon "Under the Scourge."
Evening service at 7:30. Rev. J. H. Taylor will preach the sermon. All the congregations will worship at that hour.
All are cordially invited to attend.
J. W. COWAN, Pastor.
