MA FERGUSON WINS THE SUIT

Judge Calhoun Dissolves The Injunction And Orders Her Name On The Ballots

Judge George G. Calhoun of the Fifty-third District Court at Austin, from whom a temporary injunction was received by Charles M. Dickson, to prevent Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson's name being printed on the Democratic ballot as the Democratic nominee for Governor of Texas, has dissolved the injunction.

The case was heard last week and Judge Calhoun rendered his decision Monday morning and Mrs. Ferguson won a sweeping victory on all law points raised as to the rights of women to hold office in Texas.

The plaintiff, by his attorney, I. W. Stephens, contended that no woman could hold the office of Governor of Texas. That Mrs. Ferguson was disqualified because she was the wife of James E. Ferguson, impeached and removed from the office of Governor several years ago. That her candidacy was a subterfuge to permit James E. Ferguson to hold an office from which he is barred from holding by law, and numerous other objections.

Every single one of the objections to Mrs. Ferguson's eligibility to hold the office of Governor were overruled, in a sweeping decision by Judge Calhoun.

Mrs. Ferguson lost only one point, that of the right of a private citizen to bring an injunction suit of this character. Judge Calhoun overruled this contention, but that was immaterial to the defense, as he decided that not only Mrs. Ferguson, but other women, had the right to hold elective offices in Texas.

The decision dissolves the temporary injunction granted some days ago, restraining county officials from having Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson's name printed on the election ballots.

This decision affects some two hundred women now holding office in Texas or nominated as candidates for office at the coming election. Had Mrs. Ferguson lost, the right of women to hold any offices in Texas would have been called in question, and would have imperilled the status quo of two of Callahan County's hard-working, efficient and very competent officials, Mrs. Roy Jackson County Treasurer and Mrs. Kate Hearn Clerk of the District Court, both of whom are candidates for re-election.

Notice of appeal has been filed by counsel for Complainant Dickson to the Court of Civil Appeals. Notwithstanding this fact, however, the Secretary of State will, tomorrow, make final certification of Democratic nominees for State offices, and all County Election Boards will be told to place Mrs. Ferguson's name on the ballot. And that's that.

The editor of The Star does not claim to be a lawyer, but in official positions, both as a member of the Legislature and as judicial and executive officer in a small way, has a little knowledge of law, and we have always been taught that all laws are supposed to be founded on justice and common sense and this decision

TAPS SOUND FOR W. B. GRIGGS SOLDIER OF THE CONFEDERACY

W. B. Griggs, who served his country gallantly as a soldier of the Southern Confederacy, an old and honored citizen of this county, died Wednesday at about noon, after a month's illness, his end being hastened by an attack of pneumonia.

His body was laid to rest yesterday evening in Ross Cemetery, our beautiful City of the Silent Ones. Religious services were held at the deceased's farm home, south of Baird, being conducted by Rev. P. D. O'Brien, pastor of the Baird Baptist Church, at the close of which the Masons of Baird Lodge, No. 522, A. F. & A. M., of which Mr. Griggs was a member, took charge of the body and laid it to rest with the simple rites of the order.

Mr. Griggs was 78 years old the tenth day of last March, an ex-Confederate soldier, a Mason and an honest, upright citizen. God rest his soul.

After a short stay at Mineral Wells they came to Baird, where they will make their home. Mr. Driskill is interested in the cattle business.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Driskill and C. B. Snyder, of Baird, attended the wedding.

PARADE WAS GORGEOUS

Baird Agricultural, Stock And Poultry Exhibit Has Most Auspicious Opening

Messrs. Thomas E. Powell, president, Fred L. Wristen, secretary; James C. Asbury, treasurer and their associates in the Callahan County Agricultural, Stock and Poultry Exhibit have reason to feel mighty cheery over the opening ceremonies yesterday, when the big parade of beautifully decorated automobiles, the Baird Municipal Band, fraternal bodies, old cars, wagons and teams, the smiling faced pupils of the Baird Public Schools and their teachers, the long cavalcade closing with County Judge Victor B. Gilbert, Haynie Gilliland and Self Serve Groceryman Morris Bennett (disguises as Rubes) erratically navigating the one-mule power home-made "auto", which feature closed the procession, marched and countermarched on Market Street, amid fluttering flags and banners and the huzzas of the multitude.

It was the most gorgeous spectacle ever witnessed in this city and the judges exhibited good judgment and excellent discretion in awarding the following cash prizes:

Best decorated car: Helen Ogilvy, first prize, $20; Mrs. S. Earl Galloway, second prize, $7.50; Arthur Mitchell, 3rd prize, $5. The Baird Public Schools, largest marching body, $7.50. C. E. Dickey-best decorated truck, $5. Milburn Hammond and Raleigh Ray, $3.25 each for the "oneryist" looking cars. Judge Victor B. Gilbert, Haynie Gilliland and Morris Bennett, $7.50 split three ways, for their famous "stunt," which kept the onlookers roaring with laughter, 'till George Berry high-lifted their "auto," when they became hysterical.

Due to the prevalence of the hoof and mouth disease in Texas, no entries of livestock were accepted by the directors, but the poultry, fruit, and other farm products, in the Tabernacle are well worth seeing.

The auto races yesterday attracted a good-sized crowd, and the free fireworks exhibition at Tee-Pee Park was the finest ever seen in this section of the State.

The success of the parade and the splendid fireworks display are due to the hard and efficient work of Directors Irving H. Mitchell and Gus W. Hall, to whom be all honor and glory.

TWO EMINENT JURISTS PAY THE LAST DEBT

Judge A. A. Clark of Albany, a well known lawyer, died at his home in Albany last week. Judge Clark was a splendid man and a good lawyer. The editor of The Star regrets to have to record his death.

Judge T. L. Hutchison of Comanche, died a few days ago. The editor of The Star knew Judge Hutchison forty odd years ago. He was then in his prime. He was an older brother of J. C. Hutchison, former District Attorney of this District, when Comanche County was in this Judicial District. Judge Hutchison was a splendid all-around man and a gentleman always and a fine lawyer.

SPLENDID BAIRD LASSIES WORK FOR GREAT CHARITY

There is no eleemosynary organization in the world that deserves more liberally grateful support in all this broad America than the Salvation Army. The noble, unselfish work its missionaries have always done for the cause of Christ and the alleviation of human misery and distress, the world over, cannot be measured by words.

The splendid practically helpful assistance they rendered our khaki-clad boys overseas during the World War was the most far reaching and successful effort of human charity ever undertaken, and that it was successful will be attested by every American soldier who fought and bled on Flanders Field and by the survivors of those who gave their all for human liberty and now sleep their last, long sleep, beneath the nodding poppies.

Last Friday and Saturday the Salvation Army made its annual drive for funds in Callahan County under the direction of the Chairman of the Local Board of Appeals, Robert East. The money quota for the county was only $500. The amount contributed by the citizenry fell short of this sum considerably.

It is not too late yet to send in your contributions to Treasurer Bob Norrell, at the First National Bank of Baird, who will acknowledge the receipt of your donations and promptly forward your contributions to the headquarters of this splendid organization for this sector of charitable endeavor.

In The Star's announcement of the drive last week it used the caption: "Give Till It Hurts You When The Salvation Army Solicitors Ask For Alms—Remember Over There!"

You can still "remember." Do so at once, and He who notes even the fall of a sparrow, will "remember you" on the Last Great Day!

The following patriotic young ladies solicited for the Army in this city and at Clyde: Misses Ressa Faye Enoch, Nina McFarlane, Jeraine Greenrock, Ila Perdue, Nora Davis, Lillie Morrison, Helen Ogilvy, Belva Evans, Louise Bell, Saloma Alexander, and to their efforts is due all praise.

The Salvation Army's emblematic blue "Cornflowers," worn by these young Christian lassies were made by that ingeniously talented young fabricator of pretty things, Miss Mildred Terry.

THE HOME BEAUTIFUL

Built In Cisco By The West Txas Utilities Company For Supt. Campbell

Coming out of Cisco one evening recently in company with Superintendent S. Earl Galloway, who has supervision over eight of the West Texas Utilities Company's plants, with headquarters at Baird, just as a blazing sun had sunk to rest, the western horizon was all aglow and the night shadows were beginning to fall we passed a roadside camp of cotton pickers in the woods. They were travelling in canvas canopied wagons, drawn by mules, and accompanied by the usual pack of cur dogs and swarm of small children.

Two women were preparing supper over a fire of dried branches, the men folks were idling about the tethered mules, and there were piles of bedding beside the wagons.

We—Earl and the writer—were returning to Baird from a thorough and wonder-stricken inspection of the W. T. U.'s Electric Home Beautiful, which rears itself proudly conspicuous and adorningly prominent on Riverside Drive, Cisco and will eventually become the abiding place of the superintendent of the company's Cisco plant, Mr. P. W. Campbell and his estimable wife, who is enamored at the prospect of life in this ideal home, "in which," she declared, with confident enthusiasm, "housekeeping will be lazily ecstatic, for electricity will do all the work" And that's no lie.

The Cisco Electric Home Beautiful is indeed an abiding place ideal, a picture of artistic loveliness by day and more scintillatingly brilliant at night than the "house of a thousand candles," for the magic of the "juice" is everywhere apparent, not only in the home itself, where it springs at you dazzlingly from all sorts of unusual places—frontside and backside—from the garage, of course, and even from the Spanish style miniature home of Mrs. Campbell's pet jack rabbits, "Electric" and "Gas."

The home contains eight rooms and, although they are small, they are so admirably arranged and fitted and furnished that they seem palatial. Heat, light and power is here exemplified and developed to the nth power, as a time and labor saver for the housewife. Sweeping, dusting, washing, ironing, cooking and even the washing and drying of the table dishes are all done and done efficiently, by the aid of the magic juice.

The architectural plan of the home beautiful—not only beautiful, but comfortable and labor saving—is of pure Spanish, and when Superintendent Campbell and his good wife take possession, its embowerment of shrubbery and bright-hued flowers, artistically set in an emerald lawn, will make it the show place not only of Cisco but the whole country roundabout, and—

That brings the writer back to the temporary home of the camping cotton pickers. They typified the old hard-living Texas of frontier days—the Home Beautiful stands for Twentieth Century convenience, comfort and happiness!

AL SMITH AND ROOSEVELT IN RACE FOR GOVERNORSHIP

Important Battle Ground for Presidential Warfare of Parties Provided by Nomination.

New York.—Climbing upward through the preliminary processes of political education young Theodore Roosevelt has arrived now at the decisive stage of his career.

Is he capable of following through in the footsteps of an illustrious father?

That is the interesting query immediately suggested by the action of the Republican State convention at the Rochester State Convention in nominating Col. Roosevelt, the younger, as candidate for Governor of New York in awaiting the answer to the question, the United States will witness a political drama of unusual quality. It will be a human drama, full of consequence to the Roosevelt dynasty, and it will provide the Nation with one of its most spectacular battle grounds in the presidential warfare between President Coolidge and John W. Davis.

The Democrats are ready to nominate Al Smith to succeed himself. Al Smith, from the sidewalks of New York, the product of Tammany and the East Side, against the leading Roosevelt scion, the finished Harvard graduate, the heir to all the family's political fortunes.

At every turn, young Roosevelt has been groomed as an elder son to inherit the successive political mantles of the Rough Rider. He was Theodore, Jr. He followed his father through Harvard. Like his father, he went to New York State Legislature. Again true to the family legend, he enlisted in the service of his country in time of war. He became Assistant Secretary of the Navy, as his father had before him, and now he is running for Governor of New York. The elder Roosevelt ascended to the governorship office in 1899.

If the present-day Teddy wins the gubernatorial prize, his goal, like that of his father, may well be the White House. If he loses, the defeat very likely will eliminate him as a national political factor. A great American name will have spent itself prematurely in the second generation. This will be a decisive year for the Roosevelts, young Theodore will meet his crucial test. Can he carry on?

The answer to that question, in addition to its effect on the Roosevelt fortunes, also involves the Republican and Democratic presidential chances.

The Democrats have claimed that with Al Smith on the ticket they could carry New York for Davis. The presence of Smith's name is now practically assured. To meet this challenge the Republicans set out to find the strongest candidate available to oppose Smith. Under the guidance of Senator Wadsworth the new leader of Republican State forces, they chose Roosevelt.

Thus, Democratic chances of beating Coolidge in New York closely involve the defeat of Roosevelt.

OPPOSES ABOLITION OF AMERICAN FLEET

Moffett Thinks Dependence on Planes Would Mean National Suicide.

Ann Arbor, Mich.—Abolition of the American battle fleet and placing sole dependence upon aviation would be "national suicide," Rear Admiral W. A. Moffett, chief of the Bureau of Aeronautics of the Navy Department, declared in an address here at the University of Michigan, striking at those who would make aircraft the first line of defense and abandon development of the navy.

Admiral Moffett's address, in which he gave full credit to airplanes as auxiliary craft, was the first public utterance of a high naval official since President Coolidge took his position in favor of more attention to aviation and less to the navy. It comes on the eve of the opening of an investigation at Washington into the relative merits of battleships, airplanes and submarines by a special board of naval officers.

"My experience in aviation has taught me its tremendous possibilities as an auxiliary arm of the fleet," Moffett declared. "On the other hand, it has served to convince me of the total inadequacy of aircraft alone as a means of national defense."

GOVERNOR BRYAN DISCUSSES LABOR

Child Welfare Also Theme of Campaign Talk at Columbus, Neb.

Columbus.—Gov. Bryan, in his seventh campaign speech in Nebraska, delivered here before a large crowd attending Democratic Day celebration at the mid-Nebraska exposition, explained two more planks in his party's national platform—labor and child welfare—and served notice on the progressive thinking people that if they want their hopes to materialize they should vote for none other than the Democratic ticket.

Declaring his party had been the leader in the fight for every progressive measure adopted in the last twelve years and that the only way the progressive Republican Senators and Representatives had been able to "serve their country without betraying their constituents was by bolting their party and supporting Democrats," the Democratic vice presidential nominee said the progressive elements now have the opportunity to support directly in the fall the only party that has espoused their cause.

"The Democratic party," he said, "holds that labor is not a commodity, but that it is human. If the Democratic party had been controlled by the organization known as the minute men (an organization sponsored by Charles G. Dawes) do you suppose the eight-hour day would have been passed?"

The nominee criticized President Coolidge for vetoing the postal salary increase bill, declaring "it was the Democrats who favored giving the postal and railway mail employees a living wage at American standards, but it was the Administration in Washington that vetoed the bill for such an increase although that same administration had voted a $4,600,000,000 increase a year to the tariff beneficiaries."

"The only economy the Republican administration has practiced," he added, "was at the expense of humanity."

"When there has been a contest between the dollar and the man," he continued, "the Democratic party has taken the same position as Jefferson and Lincoln, who declared in such conflicts that man should be given first consideration."

Combining progressive and tariff questions, Gov. Bryan said:

"If you want to find out the difference between a progressive and conservative or reactionary, ask any man how he stands on this robber tariff that was passed by the Republicans in return for campaign contributions."

The car arrived at Picher and Riley Clark, special officer, was stationed to guard it. When no one entered the car officers decided to seize it.

TALES OF THE OLD FRONTIER

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON
(© 1923, Western Newspaper Union.)

WHEN COON SKINS WERE MONEY

ONCE upon a time there was an American state named Franklin and although it had a governor, a legislature, courts of justice and even a militia of its own, it never was admitted to the Union. Instead it was branded as an "outlaw state" and its citizens posted as "rebels and traitors."

In 1776 the settlers in what is now eastern Tennessee asked North Carolina to annex their lands and their request was granted. But at the close of the Revolution the legislature of North Carolina ceded this territory to the federal government without consulting the settlers' wishes.

The pioneers were very angry at this action and, calling a convention in 1784, they organized a state of their own and called it Franklin in honor of the great Philadelphian. They chose for governor John Sevier, a leader at the brilliant victory of King's Mountain during the Revolution, a successful Indian fighter and a man who, under the nickname of "Nollebucky Jack," was one of the greatest heroes of the old Southwest.

Although the new state had a complete machinery of government, it lacked a vital thing—currency, the lifeblood of a commonwealth. Lacking both the material and means for producing metal coinage, Sevier and his advisers decided to make use of the commonest medium of exchange at hand, the skins of wild animals.

The scale of values which they established was coon skins and fox skins, one shilling and threepence, and beaver skins and other skins, six shillings. Other articles, such as bacon, tallow, beeswax, whisky and brandy, were also recognized as legal tender, but coon skins were the commonest and virtually the basic medium of the system. Sevier's salary as governor was set at 1,000 deer skins a year.

After a brief but stormy existence, North Carolina finally regained control over Franklin by armed force and held it until 1790, when the territory was again returned to the federal government.

JAPAN REFUSES TO ACCEPT DISARMAMENT PROTOCOL

Effort Made to Reach Agreement Before Text Reported to Assembly.

Geneva.—The Japanese delegation has notified the League of Nations' first commission that Japan is unable to accept the proposed arbitration, security and disarmament protocol in its present form.

The announcement followed the refusal of the first commission to accept a Japanese amendment to the protocol that would permit the council to endeavor to conciliate disputes arising from domestic legislation, such as the immigration legislation in the United States.

Japan's attitude resulted in the most critical situation yet encountered in the three weeks' negotiations over the arbitration project.

Through M. Adachi the Japanese withdrew the amendment after the commission refused to accept it, and then announced that Japan would be obliged to make reservations or else to withdraw from the arbitration, security and disarmament project. This is interpreted to mean that Japan will refuse to sign the protocol.

The proposed amendment would have permitted Japan to carry the immigration dispute to the league council if The Hague court declared it to be purely domestic question. It is predicted that The Hague court would certainly make this ruling in the dispute.

Sir Cecil Hurst of Britain, together with representatives of Australia, Brazil and France opposed the Japanese amendment, declaring that it would make the league a super-State.

Following Adachi's announcement M. Louis Loucheur of France requested Adachi to confer with him, together with Sir Cecil Hurst, in an effort to reach a compromise before the commission is obliged to report the final text of the arbitration, security and disarmament protocol to the assembly.

BELIEVE FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE IN TEXAS

State Quarantine Against Live Stock and Produce in Harris County

Houston, Texas.—Infection of a part of a herd of cattle near Ellington Field, a short distance from Houston, in Harris County, with what is diagnosed by State and Federal officials as the foot and mouth disease has caused a temporary quarantine to be laid against a portion of Harris County.

The State quarantine has been declared against the movement of cattle, sheep and swine by the Texas State Live Stock and Sanitary Commission.

It has been known for two or three days that the cattle on the ranch of the Rev. William States Jacobs were afflicted with a disease resembling the foot and mouth disease. It was diagnosed as this but the matter was not made public.

In addition to the quarantine against live stock, everyone leaving the quarantine area must first be fumigated. Special officers have been sworn in for this purpose. A Federal inspector will arrive soon to inspect other cattle in this section.

The herd of Dr. Jacobs totals 450 head of some of the finest Brahma cattle in the country. He has been collecting his herd for the last three years and it is very valuable.

GIRLS TRAINING SCHOOL HAS PLENTY OF ROOM

"I am just in receipt of a communication from the Superintendent of the State Training School for Girls at Gainesville," said County Judge Victor B. Gilbert the other day to The Star reporter, when the latter was out on a courthouse news hunt, "which I would like to pass on to the readers of The Star, with the hope that an erroneous impression of this great institution will be overcome.

"Please study this letter and remember that Texas is more than anxious that her young girls be given every advantage to become useful women, rather than charges on the commonwealth. Think it over."

The Star considers Judge Gilbert's suggestion a most admirable one and reproduces the letter of Dr. Carrie Weaver Smith, Superintendent of the Training School in full:

"I am writing to call your attention to the situation as it exists at the Girls' Training School. We have a capacity for seventy girls in this institution, and have only forty-five girls.

"From my experience in Texas for the last thirteen years, I am convinced that there are girls in every community who should have the advantages that we are prepared to offer them at this institution. We give regular academic teaching, stenography, domestic science, sewing and manual training. We feed and clothe our girls free of charge.

"I am most anxious that the County Judges should send girls to us before they have gone too far. If the judges would take the attitude that this is an educational institution, and send us girls who have become problems in the home and school, instead of waiting until a girl has become a delinquent, and then send her here with the idea that she is being punished, the atmosphere would be very different.

"Please understand that we are not permitted to take feeble minded girls. The law is very definite in regard to this matter; nor can we take epileptic girls or insane girls, but we do want very much to have girls who can take an education, and profit by what we can offer. We urge you not to hold girls in jail. The ages are from eight to eighteen.

"I shall be glad to answer any questions, and greatly appreciate your cooperation.

"The County committing a girl to this institution is required to send her with a reputable woman and furnish her with a full wardrobe of wash clothing: Four wash dresses, three suits underwear, four pair of stockings, two pair of shoes and a coat and hat."

Hoppers Threaten Pecan Crop.

Denton, Texas.—Grasshoppers that are eating the foliage from native pecan trees in the county, especially in Denton Creek bottoms in the southeast part of the county, threaten to materially reduce the crop of pecans this fall.

Chief Resents Charge.

Washington.—Criticism of the Federal prohibition unit by the National Wholesale Druggists' Association at Atlantic City was described as "unfortunate and unjustified," by Prohibition Commissioner Haynes. Haynes said there was "no evidence whatever" to justify the charge that the industries of the United States, depending on the use of alcohol, had steadily declined owing to the "drastic and unjust methods employed by the prohibition office."

Rebel Enters Town After Fighting.

Washington.—General Ferrera, Honduran revolutionary leader, entered Comayagua, a town forty miles west of Tegucigalpa, on the afternoon of Sept. 22, after thirty-six hours of fighting, according to advices received by the State Department. Provisional President Tosta left Tegucigalpa Sept. 23 to assume personal command of his troops in the field, who are now reported to be falling back upon Siguatepeque, twenty miles west of Comayagua.

Baird is a good town, but would be better if we had more cooperation and a little less knocking.

We wonder if the Good Government Democratic League of Dallas, organized to fight the Democratic nominees in Texas, will emphasize its Democratic principles by endorsing Coolidge for President, also, as it has endorsed Doctor Butte, the Republican nominee for Governor of Texas?

Tom Love and Doctor Seleckman, President of Southern Methodist University, were the main speakers in the new party organization.

Texas is going to have an unusually large crop of political orphans after November 4th. Remember this prediction,

We call on the Democrats of Callahan County to be on guard. Every device of the enemies of the party is being used to defeat the people's choice, and some traitors in the party are using every effort possible to prevent Mrs. Ferguson's name going on the ballot, which may end with the Democrats having no candidate's name for Governor printed on the ticket.

We believe that is one of the designs the enemy have, as well as to defeat Mrs. Ferguson. We believe that there is being hatched a well laid plan to elect Doctor Butte, the Republican nominee, for Governor.

We do not blame the Republicans for trying to elect their nominee—that is their privilege, but it is the traitors in the Democratic party that are to be feared.

The Republicans cannot elect Dr. Butte without the aid of Democratic bolters, and every one knows it.

"WHY DOCTOR BUTTE?"

Hon. Joe E. Cockrell had a splendid article in Monday's Dallas News that we wish every Democrat in Texas could read. Under the above heading he hits the bolting Democrats who will support Doctor Butte, the Republican nominee for Governor a hard jolt.

Among other things he says: "Doctor Butte is comparatively unknown to the people of Texas," which is true. We doubt if one voter in a thousand outside of the county where Doctor Butte was reared and the places where he has taught school in Texas could have answered the question: "Who is Doctor Butte?" had the question been asked six months ago.

Joe Cockrell does not question Doctor Butte's honesty nor his ability as a teacher, but does question his qualifications for the office he is after, because, outside of teaching, he has had no experience in public life.

He says his platform is the State Constitution and his oath of office.

That is too vague. No one knows how he might construe the Constitution or his official oath.

In an interview he said that all employes in the State Department, that were honest and capable, would be reappointed, regardless of how they vote in the General Election.

Mr. Cockrell calls attention to the fact that this is a promise of reward to all these employes who vote for him, in direct conflict with the oath he must take if elected.

And again, his party in Texas condemns the Ku Klux Klan, but Doctor Butte is content with saying that he is not a member of the Klan, never was and never expects to be; but has no condemnation of the Klan; says the Klan issue was settled August 23. Doctor Butte, if he really believes this, is the greenest candidate, of any kind, that ever offered for office of any kind in Texas.

The Klan issue is not settled and will not be until it is completely smashed politically.

A news item from Austin, shortly after Mrs. Ferguson was nominated, stated that there was great consternation in the State Department at Austin, because every department was honeycombed with Klan appointees. In view of that fact, Doctor Butte's promise not to disturb them, if elected, will no doubt secure him some valuable help from these Departments, because they very well know that unless they can show that they voted the Democratic ticket at the next election they will lose. Many Departments are not under the control of the Governor, because the heads of all Departments elected by the people select their own appointees.

Mr. Cockrell does not question Doctor Butte's moral character, his sincerity nor his religion. Neither do we; but, according to his own statements, he is not a fit man to be elected Governor. Not every educated man, no matter how sincere and conscientious he might be, is qualified for office unless he knows before hand something of the duties he is expected to perform.

Doctor Butte has never held any public office and therefore is wholly without experience and when he accepted the nomination for Governor that another man with some experience in public matters refused, he could have had but a vague idea of what the duties of a Governor of this great State are.

Education is a fine thing, but not all education is obtained from books in the school room and, in public affairs, as a rule, no party that hopes to win, will nominate an inexperienced man, simply because he is a good man and highly educated.

We want to call the attention of Democrats of Callahan County to the fact that every one who does not wish a Ku Klux Klan endorsed Republican Governor will have to be on guard and get every Democrat to vote in November.

The only hope Doctor Butte has of winning is by the disgruntled Klan vote and the votes of the Ferguson haters in the Democratic Party. That is why they tell you that the pledge is not binding.

The pledge is morally binding to the extent that every Democrat should vote for all nominees, or, at the very least, not to vote for their opponents. We have always acted on this rule, but we do not even suggest that. We have no desire to dictate to any one.

A Good Government Democratic League was organized in Dallas last week. They condemned the Klan, but they endorsed Doctor Butte, the Republican, and avowed their intention to fight Mrs. Ferguson, the Democratic nominee. Every one of these men—and some women—are traitors to the Democratic Party, State and National, no matter what they claim and no matter what they say.

If this traitorous movement should gain any considerable number of recruits in Texas it will dangerously affect the National ticket in other States. They will get the liver and lights knocked out of them in Texas, but news that any considerable number of Democrats are fighting the nominee for Governor—they term it Fergusonism—may include the entire ticket—and will injure the National Democratic ticket.

We want Callahan County Democrats to smash this hydra-headed monster by a majority for the State and National Democratic ticket of not less than 2,000. We can do it if every Democrat will vote.

In conclusion: As to the Klan in this county. We know many of them, and not a single one of them, so far as we have heard, has expressed any intention of voting against Mrs. Ferguson.

Many of them are friends that we have fought shoulder to shoulder with in by-gone times—for more than 30 years—for Democratic principles as we understand them, and we know that the combined forces of the Klan, the world, the flesh and the Devil cannot induce one of them to vote for Doctor Butte

TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

From time to time, as the Youth's Companion Historic Milestone Covers have appeared, the publishers have dedicated them, each to the particular State with which the subject of the cover was most closely associated.

But now and then there has been a subject of such general interest—Washington's Inauguration, for example—that the only fitting thing to do was to dedicate it, not to a single State, but to the Nation. Such a Milestone Cover is to appear upon the issue of October 9.

"Franklin at the Court of Louis XVI" was painted expressly for The Companion by Andre Castaigne, dean of the world's illustrators. The text that accompanies this unusually important picture reads as follows:

"Franklin in France, wearing his plain homespun suit with quiet dignity in the presence of an elegant and luxury-loving Court, is more than a figure in diplomatic history; he is the embodiment of a great national ideal—that wisdom, integrity and self-respect shall stand unabashed even in the presence of kings."

Since both the interest of the subject and the political faith that the painting so strikingly expresses are not local or sectional, but belong alike to the whole Nation, the publishers of The Companion have most happily dedicated this outstanding Milestone Cover to the American people.

Dr. Butte is no doubt one of the best men to offer for public office in Texas for many years, yet we are convinced that he will not poll as many votes as did Peddy two years ago. Fusion can't be practiced successfully in Texas. — Clarendon News.

Nice compliment for a Republican candidate, who is no doubt a worthy man and a fine educator and all that, but Texas needs a Governor that has some knowledge of conditions in Texas and, as a member of the University faculty, Doctor Butte has less knowledge of what will be required of him as Governor than any candidate that has ever been nominated for that office in Texas by any party.

Texas, never in its history, had but one Republican Governor, E. J. Davis, 1869 to 1873, and the memory of that infamous administration has had much to do with the Democratic brutal majority since.

The News is no doubt correct. Dr. Butte will not likely poll as Emmerson Delicus Merrill, so it is rumored, slipped down to Fort Worth Sunday, where, the day following, he had a lengthy conference with a noted theatrical architect concerning the preparation of plans for a modern Little Theatre building in Baird, where his "Famous Players" may "hold the mirror up to nature" with Boothian artistry.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Black, the little Blacks and Miss Sadie Hart of Admiral, motored down into Brown County, their destination being Zephyr, where they were the guests of Mrs. Black's grandfather, H. C. Hart, and all had a most enjoyable visit. Sam says the Brown County crops look fine—better than those of Callahan County, and the roads were in good, travelable condition.

WORLD FLYERS COMPLETE AROUND THE WORLD TRIP

RECORDS FALL AS GLOBE-EN-CIRCLING AVIATORS END 27,000-MILE TRIP.

SMITH MAKES ADDRESS

Lieut. Arnold Greets Members of His Family He Had Not Seen Since Flight Started.

Seattle, Wash. — The American Army around-the-world flyers completed the circuit of the globe Sunday afternoon, landing at Sand Point Field at 1:36 p. m. Pacific time.

Lieut. Smith was the first to land. He was followed by Lieut. Wade, then Lieut. Nelson, the commander landed at 1:36 and the others at 1:37:50 and 1:38:35.

Flying conditions were ideal as the aviators made their last lap. The weather here was warm, approaching sultriness.

Sirens shrieked as the planes flew over the city. Thousands of voices roared a welcome at the field. Among the first to greet the flyers was Maj. Martin.

A family reunion took place on the field a few minutes after Lieut. Arnold got out of his airplane. He was hugged and kissed by his mother, Mrs. Cora Arnold, and his sister Mrs. Frances Cole of Spokane, Wash. who had not seen him since he started on the flight that made history in aviation circles.

The flyers left Eugene, Ore., at 10:02 a. m., on their last leg and passed over Albany at 10:25 a. m. Salem, Ore., was sighted at 10:52 and the aviators were next sighted over Portland at 11:15.

The three world flyers landed at Vancouver Barracks, Wash., a few minutes after leaving Portland to make adjustments in Lieut. Wade's engine. The flyers left Vancouver at 11:57 a. m.

Each of the flyers received at the field a large bouquet of dahlias which they took with them to a private luncheon aboard a yacht.

A huge welcome sign, 150 feet long, spelled in 20-foot letters greeted the aviators as they circled over Sand Point. As the planes flew over Seattle whistles and automobile horns sent up shrieking greetings. On the field hundreds of automobiles, whistles from scores of boats and yachts anchored on Lake Washington off Sand Point and cheers from the thousands of spectators contributed to the noisy return.

Among the vessels in the lake awaiting the flyers' arrival was the Canadian destroyer Patrician. The officers aboard had been delegated by Dominion officials to extend the greetings of the Canadian Government officials.

Four world's records were shattered when two United States Army planes completed a 27,000-mile globe-circling flight here at Sand Point Aviation Field after fighting their way through Canadian blizzards, treacherous Alaskan gales, the torrid heat of India, heavy English fogs and the iceberg chilled climate of Iceland and Greenland.

The first world's record was shattered when the Americans crossed the Pacific Ocean from Attu Island, the most westerly islands of the Aleutian group to Paramashiru Island in the Kuriles, Japan. This 900-mile stretch was the longest jump of the entire trip. It was made in twelve hours and five minutes of flying time, the aviators resting at night in the lee of the Komandorski Islands during a blizzard en route.

America's second title came when the flyers crossed a 500-mile stretch over the China Sea from Kagoshima, Japan, to Shanghai, China. This was the first time the China Sea had been crossed by air.

The third honor was the completion of the around-the-world flight, a feat never before achieved by man in heavier-than-air machines.

Lastly, the intrepid Magellans of the air theoretically set a speed work for traveling around the globe, made in approximately 366.71 hours of actual flying, although the expedition was on the trip nearly 150 days after leaving Seattle. When the birdmen reached Constantinople, Turkey, they had covered 16,000 miles in 225 hours of flying, or an average of 76.36 miles an hour.

If the aviators were equipped with machines that could stand twenty-four hours a day flying for the world trip at the average of 76.36 miles an hour they would have finished the journey in approximately fifteen days and six hours.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

The State of Texas To the Sheriff or any Constable of Callahan County Texas:

You are hereby commanded to summon J. S. Clay by making publication of this citation once in each week for a period of four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper, published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Callahan county, to be holden at the court house thereof, in Baird, Texas, on the fourth Monday in October, A. D. 1924, the same being the 27th day of October, A. D. 1924, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 3rd day of September, A. D. 1924, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court as No. 3397, wherein Will Haynes is plaintiff and J. S. Clay is defendant, and said petition alleging in substance as follows:

That heretofore, to-wit: On the 19th day of July, 1924, this plaintiff and his wife, Estelle Haynes, made, executed and delivered to the defendant, J. S. Clay, an oil and gas mining lease covering 80 acres of land out of the southwest corner of G. W. Denton Survey No. 362, Abstract No. 140, and being the same tract of land conveyed by W. C. Burselson, et al, to Will Haynes, by deed dated December 4th, 1917, which deed is recorded in Book 62, page 313, Deed Records of Callahan County, Texas, and is here referred to and made a part hereof for more complete and detailed description of said 80 acre tract of land.

That the consideration for the execution and delivery of said oil and gas lease by plaintiff and his wife to defendant was the sum of $800.00, for which the defendant executed his draft or check in payment of said $800.00 and that plaintiff delivered to defendant said oil and gas lease, but with the agreement between plaintiff and defendant that said lease was to be held by defendant and not filed for record until said draft or check was collected.

That said defendant disregarded his agreement not to file said lease for record or to treat the mineral rights therein conveyed as his property until after said draft or check was paid, and did, on the 21st day of July, 1924, and before plaintiff could realize the cash on said draft or check by due process of collection, file said oil and gas lease for record in the office of the County Clerk of Callahan County, Texas, and the same is recorded in Volume 96, page 162, Deed Records of said county.

That immediately thereafter defendant undertook to sell and tried to sell and assign said oil and gas lease before plaintiff could collect the money on said draft or check; that plaintiff was unable to collect said draft or check; that the plaintiff was and is unable to collect the said draft or check or any part thereof and by reason thereof no consideration was paid plaintiff by defendant for the mineral rights described in said oil and gas lease; that plaintiff at no time accepted said draft or check in payment for said oil and gas lease, but took the same for collection only, and in the event that same had been paid, then, and in that event only, was defendant entitled to the mineral rights conveyed by said oil and gas lease.

That defendant represented to plaintiff at the time of the delivery of said draft or check to him that the same was a good and merchantable and collectable draft or check and that the $800.00 therein stated would be promptly paid on presentation; plaintiff represents to the court that said representations so made by defendant were material representations of fact, and were the acts and representations of said defendant as to the true value and genuineness of said draft or check at the time same were made and upon which plaintiff acted and relied and believed to be true and was thereby induced to make, execute and deliver said oil, gas and mineral lease and part with the title, possession and value thereof.

That said representations were not true but were false and untrue, and were fraudulently made by the defendant with the intent and for the purpose of deceiving and misleading this plaintiff as to the genuineness of said draft or check, and which did so deceive and mislead plaintiff to his damage in the sum of $2,000.00. That said plaintiff has been unable to collect said draft or check as was represented to him by said defendant and that the consideration for the execution of said oil and gas lease has wholly failed; that by reason of the filing and recording of said oil and gas lease and the terms and conditions thereof, the same constitutes a cloud upon plaintiff's title to his said land, and is and should be declared terminated and cancelled.

Plaintiff prays that defendant be cited to appear and answer herein, that he have judgment against defendant for the oil and gas rights on and under said described tract of land, and declaring said lease contract terminated and cancelled and removal of the cloud upon plaintiff's title to said plaintiff's land, his damages and costs and for such other and further relief, herein, special and general, in law and in equity, that he may be justly entitled to.

Herein fail not, and have before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Baird, Texas, this the 3rd day of September, A. D. 1924.

[Seal] Mrs. Kate Hearn, Clerk District Court, Callahan County, Texas.

from other countries last year.

It is estimated that the 1,000,000 motor trucks in service in the United States today haul annually a matter of 1,430,000,000 tons of tons represent farm products.

Twenty-four thousand quarts of wright, Texas, took a load of cotton to that place recently that

There was no dearth of wild life in Tidewater, Va., the past summer. Bears, that make their habitat animal are twelve to thirteen feet exceeded 38,000,000,000 gallons, of which more than 25,000,000,000 gallons was in the United States, or 66 per cent. This did not include 1,600,000,000 gallons of bunker oil that was shipped into United States ports for vessels in foreign trade, which would bring the total American requirements to more than 70 per cent of the world figure. Great Britain, Russia, Canada, France, Mexico, British India and Argentine Republic were the other countries in the order named.

WASHINGTON

With four women candidates running for Congress in Pennsylvania, the National Women's party has concentrated its forces in that state to work for their election. All four are members of the Woman's party and pledged to support the equal rights amendment.

Demands are coming to the Democratic National Committee for Ma Ferguson, nominated for Governor of Texas, to take part in the national campaign in Eastern States.

She is wanted by Democrats of New York, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Ohio and Indiana, it is said, and the question of whether she will be in position to respond for dates in October probably will be determined shortly. All requests for Mrs.
Ferguson assure that she will have record crowds, and that care will be taken to facilitate her routes and assure her of the best of treatment.

The Dawes plan for agricultural relief, as outlined in the Sioux Falls speech of the Republican Vice presidential candidate, was assailed by Representative Aswell of Louisiana, ranking Democrat on the House Agricultural Committee.
Charging that the immediate purpose of General Dawes' plan is to "stall the farmers off until after election," Representative Aswell asserted that as a relief measure "it means nothing," or it means misery for multiplied thousands" of farmers.

Arrival of the German dirigible

Far-reaching effects of the League of Nations armament conference set for next June may be expected on this side of the water. Officials of this government have made no formal statement of their attitude, but it can be said that the United States will participate provided there is nothing objectionable in the agenda which is to be drawn up in advance of the conference. This development probably will put an end to President Coolidge's plan for holding a second Washington Conference.

Of the thirteen embassies of for-Yucatan, following publicity given its method of handling divorce cases

Two American attorneys have arrived here with 3,000 divorce briefs to be filed in Yucatan courts for unsatisfied husbands or wives in the United States. The lawyers have undertaken to secure the averages at the rate of $250 each. The

DOOR LEFT OPEN FOR U. S. IN THE ARBITRATION PACT

Santo Domingo Asks to Be Taken In—Germany Preparing Memorandum on Her Entry.

Geneva.—If the League of Nations wants to conserve the hope that America may some day rally to the protocol of arbitration and security it is now trying to get adopted, then the drafting committee must not make the sanctions provisions too binding. This warning was voiced by Sir James Allen, of New Zealand before the disarmament commission, at the close of a rather fruitless day of wrangling over the details of the protocol text.

Speaking for the British dominions, Sir James said they would regard a moral obligation to lend aid to any attacked State as far more binding than any merely legal obligation, and they were sure that America would feel the same way if the protocol were put up to her. If the jurists in the league commissions persisted in framing a text which would tie the hands of the member states unduly as regards bringing sanctions to bear, he declared, that New Zealand would have to make serious reservations and he indicated that the other dominions might well do likewise.

Santo Domingo has applied for membership in the League of Nations. Jacinto de Castro of the University of Santo Domingo is already in Geneva as a delegate. It is expected that the application will be voted on favorably by the assembly.

MA FERGUSON WINS OUT

Concluded from first page confirms that theory.

To have granted women the right to vote, but deny them the right to hold office, would have been absurd and a humbug as well.

The fact that we always opposed the idea of full suffrage rights to women, cuts no ice. The right to hold minor offices in Texas having been recognized by our State, no woman's right to hold office in Texas was ever questioned before.

We have the Nineteenth Amendment, granting equal suffrage to women, and to deny them equal political rights with men, would be an injustice. If this decision is sustained by the higher Courts, the right of women to hold office will be settled.

If the enemies of James E. Ferguson, for all this fight is against him personally, had wanted a fair and impartial decision on the right of Mrs. Ferguson to hold office, they would have brought suit at once, after her name was filed as a candidate; but they waited until she was nominated and filed suit to deprive her of a right to have her name printed on the ballots after she had won, in two primaries, in which more voters participated than in any previous election in the history of the State, and won by over one hundred thousand majority at that.

The right of the people to rule is inherent, and woe unto those who try to thwart the rights of the people by legal technicalities. We believe in law and order and the courts, so long as they respect the just rights of the public. Government by injunction in this country is becoming more unpopular as the years go by, because this method of legal procedure is so often employed to defeat the just rights of large sections of a class or people.

In this particular case it is being used or attempted to be used to defeat the will of 450,000 Democrats who voted for Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, and to gratify the spleen of the Ku Klux Klan leaders, their apologists and a few disgruntled Democrats who fell outside the breastworks in the August primary. Many of them are destined to long remain outside. Vox populi, vox Dei!

Justice and the right can and must prevail, if our form of government is to survive.

Walter Varner, the Callahan County boxer, was in town Saturday and dropped in to see The Star Sport's Reporter. He is now at Burkett, Coleman County. He looks fine and is confident, although absent from the squared circle for many moons, that he is in condition to put up a pretty good scrap, and may take up the boxing game again before many moons.

MISS EULESS STEPHENS ENTERTAINS F. E. D. CLUB

The club of the senior girls of the Baird High School, which has recently been named the "F. E. D. Club," was most pleasantly entertained last Tuesday evening, at the home of Miss Euless Stephens, on which occasion members of the club were initiated into the mysteries of "F. E. D."

The greater part of the evening was spent in the initiations, which path each girl must tread before becoming a member of the "F. E. D. Club."

After all initiations had been made, other business matters which had not been attended to were settled satisfactorily.

Games and music were enjoyed until a late hour, when delicious refreshments were served to the following members and guests: Misses Mary Bounds, Martha Hughes, Helen Ogilvy, Blanche Jones, Mary Darby, Belva Evans, Helen James, Maggie Walker, Louise Bell, Saloma Alexander, Ressa Faye Enoch, Ruby Harp, Nina McFarlane; the hostess and the guests: Misses Norma Bowlus and Jacqueline Stevens.
