Cancer Crusade Starts Today; More Workers Badly Needed

Bronte's part of the Coke County Cancer Crusade will get underway today with a canvass of the business district of the town. Plans are also being made to make a house to house canvass of the residential area, also.

More workers are needed, and anyone who is willing to help with the fund raising is invited to contact The Enterprise office at once.

Editor A. J. Kirkpatrick of Robert Lee is chairman of the county drive. He called a meeting of workers last Monday night and plans were completed for making the drive on the west side of the county.

The quota for this county is $600. Last year Coke County contributed more than $800 to help in the fight against cancer.

Residents of the county were asked by Kirkpatrick to contribute liberally to the Cancer Crusade. He brought out that the long period of research in the fight against cancer has brought many gains and that scientists believe they are on the threshold of discovering more ways to combat it.

Slogan for this year's Crusade is "Fight Cancer with a Check and a Check-up."

Workers are also being secured in Fort Chadbourne Community, and other outlying areas.

Some rather interesting figures have come to our attention on the oil import situation. These figures were released by Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Beane, large investment brokerage firm of New York. They are for the year 1957. That year some of our good old American companies imported several times as much oil as they produced in the U. S., and we have been assured that these figures certainly have not decreased during this year.

The fact of the matter is these oil companies can import oil so much cheaper than they can produce it locally that it's a wonder that we still have any domestic oil production. Something needs to be done to protect OUR oil industry here at home. Looks as if the chances for such action are mighty slim right now. People in West Texas, above most places in the state or nation, need to make their opinions on this matter heard in Washington. Our economy depends to a very large extent on the healthiness of the oil industry, even down to right here in Bronte.

Servicing companies are out of work because the oil companies are servicing their own wells, men are being laid off because of the few number of producing days, drilling rigs are being stacked because of the lack of interest of investors.

It's time we realized the seriousness of the threat to one of our basic industries.

We had an offer of a quarter to tell who Uncle Huie is, but that's just not enough. If anybody thinks they can buy the integrity of this writer for a measly 25 cents, he's all wet, but don't be tempting us with four bits.

The Cancer Crusade is underway in Coke County and all over the U. S. this month. Much progress has been made in finding out about the mysteries of cancer, and thousands of people today are being saved by this progress from death from the dread disease. We have great faith in the men who are doing research in this field, and firmly believe they will conquer cancer if we will only help with our time and our funds. A dollar or so or an hour or so is a mighty little to ask from Bronte folks when the reward can be so great. Give generously of your time and funds when you are contacted.

An interesting sidelight on the Golden Wedding anniversary of the Higginbothams is, they said, that it rained all day 50 years ago just like it did last Sunday.

Good Rains Brighten Prospects For Good Crops in This Area

More fine rains have fallen in this area during the past week. Showers began last Saturday and the rain continued through the night and all day Sunday, bringing the total for the weekend to about 2 inches. Another front moved in Wednesday and showers fell Thursday morning.

While crops were not hurting for moisture, farmers and ranchers say that the rain did come at just the right time, particularly to benefit small grains.

"It was just what we needed to make a good oat crop," one farmer said Monday.

Cub Meeting Is Called for Next Thursday

A meeting of all Cub Scouts and all boys who are interested in becoming Cubs next September has been called for next Thursday, April 24, at the city hall in Bronte.

Cub Scouts are made up of boys from 8 to 11 years of age. All boys who are in that age group, or those who will be 8 by September are invited to attend the meeting.

A program has been planned by the older Cub group.

Parents of the boys are also invited to the meeting next week. Cubs are sponsored by the Brotherhood of the Kickapoo Baptist Church. I. C. Oden is Cub Master.

ATTEND SCHOOL

E. J. Smith, Nolan Butler and Martin Lee were in Ballinger Monday night to attend a Boy Scout training program. Another such meeting will be held Thursday of next week, and Smith said that any adult who is interested in learning more about working with Scouts is invited to attend.

County Judge Jeff Dean was dismissed last Saturday from Shannon hospital in San Angelo where he had undergone surgery on Tuesday before. Judge Dean broke an arm when he fell in downtown Bronte over two weeks ago and the surgery was found to be necessary. He is recovering at his home in Robert Lee.

Moral Leadership Needed, Colonel Tells Men's Group

Col. A. G. Evanoff, wing commander of Goodfellow AFB, used concrete examples of experiences from his career in the Air Force to drive home his points in a talk in Bronte Wednesday night. Col. Evanoff spoke to the Methodist Men's Club on "Moral Responsibility."

Telling of the efforts of the Air Force to make its officer-pilot students aware of their responsibilities, Col. Evanoff said he thought the same line of reasoning could be applied in civilian life in training children and working with Boy Scouts and other youth groups.

The Colonel not only brought out the strength of the armed forces in instilling their men with this quality, but cited examples of weaknesses in the training. He spoke at some length on the 21

Not only did the weekend rains practically guarantee a small grain crop, they also gave farmers the assurance of having plenty of moisture to bring up row crops.

With the rains received last fall and all through the winter, crop prospects are the best here in

Red Cross Over Top

Coke County collected $1018.63 for the American Red Cross in the annual fund campaign this year, topping their $1012 quota by some few dollars. Of the amount $568.90 was contributed on the east side of the county and $449.73 on the west side of the county.

H. A. Springer, county chairman, and I. C. Oden, fund chairman, expressed their appreciation to all who worked, contributed or otherwise helped with the drive

Scouts Make Trip To Camp Sol Mayer

Assistant Scoutmaster E. J. Smith and Martin Lee took ten Boy Scouts to Camp Sol Mayer last weekend on a camping trip. The group left here Friday evening and returned late Saturday.

In addition to preparing their own food while on the outing, the boys enjoyed a five-mile hike. They also explored the ruins of the old fort at Fort McKavett and the San Saba mission a few miles west of Menard. The mission was built in the 1700's by the Spanish Conquistadores.

Scouts making the trip were Ellis and Marshall Freeman, Glenn Sims, Charles Oden, Jimmy Wells, Rudy Phillips, Johnny Renfro, Rex Harris, Kenny Mayben and Jack Bailey.

Mrs. J. B. Mackey was reported Tuesday to be doing satisfactorily following major surgery in Gaston Hospital in Dallas. Mr. Mackey accompanied her to Dallas Sunday.

many years. The good underground season will permit making crops this summer without as much moisture as is usually needed to keep row crops, as well as pastures, from drying up.

A. N. Rawlings reported Thursday just before noon that he had received .25, and that he received 2½ inches last Friday and Saturday. He lives southwest of Bronte.

To the north, Edward Cumble got 3 inch Thursday morning and 1.8 inches last weekend. The Tenyson area reported 2 inches last weekend. Robert Lee had an official SCS report of 1.78 inches last weekend and it was raining Thursday morning. The SCS gauge in Robert Lee has recorded a total of 7.28 inches since the first of the year.

Official forecast from the U. S. Weather Bureau in San Angelo called for showers to continue through Thursday night, with more cloudy weather Friday.

UNCLE HUIE from HOG CREEK says

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Me and my old lady heard a mighty powerful sermon up at the country church Sunday. These country preachers git right down to rock bottom about things. The few times I've been in a city church I couldn't figger out half the time who the good parson was shooting at. But it ain't no trouble to sight the target when a country preacher takes his text.

And when a city preacher is bagging a few birds, the country parson is shooting at the whole covey. Fer instant, Sunday he was aiming at hypocrites. That took in about everybody in the church except me and my old lady, and sometimes I ain't too sure about her.

Another thing about country preachers. If he's out sick or gone visiting among other flocks fer a couple Sundays, he starts right back where he left off and brings things right up to now, all in one sermon. Sometimes it takes him two hours, but a country preacher on Sunday morning has got more time than Congress has got investigations.

Speaking of Congress, I see where they is talking about cutting income taxes. I don't pay no attention to such talk. In a election year this gits as routine as raising the flag over the post office ever morning. Taxes and death is unavoidable, and we're mighty lucky death can't git no worse ever time Congress meets.

But I got a lot of sympathy fer this present congress. They've got a heap of serious decisions to make, on everything from running again to claiming territorial rights to the moon. And back home we've got our decision problems, too. We've got to decide if Congress is deciding right, and on top of all our other deciding, come fall and we got to decide whether to go fer one point or two after ever touchdown. This is a year of decision and that's fer sure.

The fellers up at the Pruitts store Saturday night was debating what makes a man go into politics anyhow. Ed said he'd been watching 'em for 40 years and he always noted that whenever a feller walks too fast to plow, too light fer heavy work and too heavy fer light work, he always ends up in politics.

I see in the paper this morning where a ear specialist named Dr. Aram Glorig from California says putting hi-fi units in a juke box is a waste of money. He claims the average human ear ain't delicate enough to catch the extra quality. That's the first time I ever knowed the juke box crowd was interested in quality. I always thought they was interested in nothing but noise. If you read the papers you'll learn a little something ever day. The only thing that beats the newspaper fer learning things is to keep your ear tuned to the telephone on your party line. Fer instant, I heard some woman telling another one that this was Rita Hayworth's fifth marriage. All the time I thought it was her eighth.

Yours truly,
Uncle Huie

Appreciation Banquet Held Friday, April 11

The parlor of First Methodist Church was the scene Friday night for the annual Teacher and Trustee Appreciation Banquet, sponsored by Bronte Parent-Teacher Association. About 50 persons, including teachers, trustees, PTA officers, and their husbands and wives were present.

An April shower theme was carried out in decorations with miniature umbrellas marking place cards and the centerpiece, fashioned with tulips, carnations and other spring flowers, topped with an umbrella.

Linda Henry, at the organ, entertained guests before the meal and Robert L. Moore, high school senior, gave the address of the evening. His speech included teacher appreciation and also touched on some of the things which Bronte school could use, in the way of additional subjects. He was introduced by Principal Joe Simpson. Rev. Lin Loeffler gave the invocation, and Mrs. C. O. Richards, Bronte PTA president, presided.

On the menu were fruit cups, ham with pineapple sauce, mashed potatoes, green beans, pineapple salad, hot rolls, iced angel cake and coffee. The meal was prepared and served by the WSCS of the church.

Mrs. John Sanders of Carlsbad, N. M., is visiting here with her daughter, Mrs. A. B. Lammers, and Mr. Lammers.

The most precious gift
you can give a son

From that first wonderful day when he drops your guiding hand to walk alone—unsteady, unsure, but on his own—his goal is independence.

And this is yours to give—even as he falters and clings, then manfully struggles on. You want so much to help him. And your heart nearly bursts with pride one day when you know he's now "his own man." How fervently you pray that no one—ever—will take away this hard-won freedom to be himself.

There's one way you may not have thought of to help him continue to enjoy the independence he's achieved.

Be on the watch for ideas that could deprive him of it—the idea, for example, that "government should run such and such—a business, a service, an institution." You have only to remember the people in socialist nations to know that when government controls more and more things, there is less and less freedom and independence for the individual!

You can use your woman-power to discourage this idea that "the government should run it." When you hear people talk that way, point out that the loss of anybody's independence is a threat to everybody's freedom.

Very much aware of this danger are the independent electric light and power companies, because government already runs part of the electric business, and powerful people are pressing it to take over more.

Local Couple Write Of European Tour

(Editor's Note: Many people have told us they enjoy the letters which we print from local persons overseas. The following was written March 9 from Gelnhausen, Germany, by Lt. and Mrs. Billy Wayne Hipp. He is stationed there. It concerns a European trip which they took and we are reprinting it, in part, in the belief it will also interest our readers.)

"We left Gelnhausen last Tuesday morning about 9:00. Had to stop at Frankfurt for coffee (naturally). Then we headed north toward Bonn, Köln, Dusseldorf, where we got our last cheap gas at the American Consulate there. Gas is close to 50c a gallon in Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg and 65c in Germany. We pay 16c for army type gas. Quite a difference on long trips.

"We entered Holland close to Arnheim and spent the first night in Utrecht. We got there about dark and we went around traffic circles and across canals for nearly an hour trying to find the hotel that we had been directed to. When we finally found it, we were quite impressed. Very much like American hotels and probably a lot better than some. Nearly all the Dutch speak a little English so we didn't have much trouble with the language barrier there. Of course everybody is always holding out their hand for a tip, but they were pretty nice in Holland but wait until I get us to Belgium.

"We decided that American's are pretty well liked in Holland. They have all the American cars, four lane hiways and looks like home in lots of ways. Of course, the farther north you get you see lots of water but we were disappointed in the number of windmills. I guess the people are progressing. I think the wooden shoes, windmills and costumes are about like the cowboys and Indians at home.

"We kept our hotel room in Utrecht and went to Amsterdam on Wednesday. Took a ride on a canal and saw all the sights. Went out into the harbor and looked over all the big ships and then in town the canals are in the middle of all the streets. We saw where Rembrandt lived back in the sixteen hundreds. When we got through with our boatripe, we went to the shopping district and

Veterans Land Program Speeded Up with Sale Of $12.5 Million in Bonds

AUSTIN — Further speed-ups in the already accelerated Veterans' Land Program are anticipated when money is received from the April 1 sale of $12½ million worth of Veterans' Land bonds.

So says Bill Allcorn, chairman of the Veterans' Land Board and Texas Land Commissioner.

The Board had already speeded up its buying program as funds became available on January 16 from $12½ million worth of bonds sold in December, 1957.

The bonds sold on April 1 went at 2.89 per cent interest, well below the three per cent limit provided in the State constitution.

The Board is now sending out application forms to 300 veterans

Boy, is that Brussels ever a town! 900,000 of them and I think they were all at the same intersection at the same time and nobody down there stops for anybody else. If you stop, you get run over from behind and if you don't, you get hit from both sides. We decided you just have to back your ears and play their little game with them. We didn't get hit!

"We saw the Fair Grounds where the world's Fair will start next month and what we presumed to be the King of Belgium's palace. We drove right through the middle of the city and decided we saw most of the sights without even trying.

Remember when you were a kid, and "I read it in the paper" was the best argument-stopper in the whole world? That simple declaration served as proof enough for anything . . . unless the other guy was a lot bigger and just naturally mean 'boot!
