AD-LIB-BEN

Libby, the girls and I had a very nice time Aug. 4 and 5 at the convention of the West Texas Press Association in San Angelo. Nice thing about going to a convention in Angelo is you don't have such a long drag home after the fun is over. We saw lots of old friends in the business, and probably picked up a new idea or two for doing a better job.

While we were at the press convention, Eddie Alexander, his wife and son, and Jean Shepard and her three children were taking in the newly opened amusement center, Six Flags Over Texas, between Fort Worth and Dallas. The $10,000,000 amusement center opened their doors to the press of Texas Aug. 4, and the local representatives couldn't say enough good about it. They really had fun, and recommend the center highly.

A Bronte businessman called to our attention this week that the Little League and Pony League have been playing baseball all summer, and not once have they made a canvass of the business district to raise money for their activities.

This fellow pretty well expressed the views of a good many business people we've talked with about this matter of taking up donations. Most all of us are glad to contribute to Little League, Pony League and other worthy causes, but it certainly is refreshing when an activity such as this is carried on without taking up contributions from merchants. Kinda like giving a drink of water to somebody who is thirsty.

The weather has been mighty hot and dry the last few weeks, but Wednesday afternoon showed up with a pretty good supply of thunder heads all around. We hope by the time you get this paper, we'll have had at least a shower.

If you want to write something that will live forever, try signing a mortgage on a house.

The bad thing about the mess the world is in today is that there seems to be no answer to the thousands of problems confronting us. And, it appears extremely doubtful if they'll go away if we just ignore them. We hope you will read the article the Rev. Lester L. Vinson wrote for this

Longhorns Begin Practice; To Scrimmage Eldorado II

Football practice for 30 Bronte Longhorns got underway Monday evening at the local practice field. The workouts are lasting about an hour and forty-five minutes.

Coach Bob Howard announced Tuesday that the Longhorns will scrimmage Eldorado here Tuesday night of next week at 7 o'clock. He invited the public to

Large Crowd for Grand Opening

A large crowd was present last Sunday for the grand opening of the new building of the Bronte Church of Christ. Regular services were held in the morning and evening, and a covered dish luncheon was served at the County Park here at 1 p. m. At 3 o'clock, the crowd went back to the church for a singing, and following it, the new building was opened for inspection.

The new building is 40x70 feet and of concrete block and red brick construction. Indirect lighting is used throughout, and central air conditioning and heating has been installed. An older building is attached to the new structure and houses five Sunday School class rooms. This building was also bricked to match the new part of the building.

Joe Wolf, minister of the local church, reported that 169 persons were present for the open house. Visitors came from San Angelo, ert Lee and Sweetwater.

Ballinger, Winters, Silver, Rob-A gospel meeting has been in progress at the Church of Christ since Aug. 6. Services have been conducted by J. B. Hudson of Roscoe. The meeting was concluded Wednesday night.

witness the tussle with the Eldorado lads. Howard said that most of the scrimmage period will be spent with Eldorado carrying the ball, so as to give the Longhorns plenty of defensive practice. Eldorado has one of the best Class A teams in the state and should prove worthy scrimmage opponents for the Longhorns.

Other scrimmage tilts are being scheduled for the Longhorns, and will be announced as they come up. First game of the season will be played here on Sept. 8 against May.

Coach Howard asked the Enterprise to announce that visitors are welcome at all the practice sessions now underway. However, he did have one request of visiting fans — that they stay off the practice field while they are watching. He said the presence of fans on the field is distracting to the boys, as well as interfering with running, etc.

The Longhorns have been rated highly by some area daily sports writers. Coach Howard said, however, that it's way too early to tell how the team will develop. We've got a long way to go and lots of polishing to do before we have the kind of team we want," the coach said.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Fletcher have returned from a weeks vacation visiting friends and relatives in Sterling City, Abilene, Waco and Hobbs, New Mexico.

Allen Bryan arrived in Bronte last Thursday after spending the past six months in Alaska where he was employed with Rowan Drilling Co. Mrs. Bryan and daughters, Cindy and Kathy, lived in Bronte while he was away.

Labor Day Barbecue To Be Held Sept. 4

Bronte's annual Labor Day Barbecue will be held again this year, according to Aubrey Denman, county park caretaker, who supervises the celebration each year.

The barbecue will be sponsored again this year by merchants and other citizens of this community.

Denman asked that women bring salads to the big feed. All the other food will be prepared and furnished.

The Labor Day barbecue is getting to be a traditional celebration in Bronte, and each year attracts more people. Denman said there is every indication that this year's crowd will be as large or larger than any in the past.

The affair will be held at the park. Denman has not reported whether or not swimming and diving contests will be held after the barbecue. Further details will be announced in future issues of The Enterprise.

UNCLE HUIE from HOG CREEK says

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I see where one of them column writers says the 16th Amendment that give the Federal Government the right to levy income taxes come to only 31 words. That was in 1913, and in 48 years the laws covering the collection of them taxes now runs to 440,000 words. He claims a good tax lawyer can take them 440,000 words and do a marvelous job fer his client.

The great trouble, Mister Editor, is that us poor folks can't afford to hire a tax lawyer. I see, fer instant, where the lawyers fer a Hollywood movie actor is trying to git a $32,000 refund on his income taxes on account of what he spent taking glamor girls to night clubs. His lawyers is claiming it's part of his business to make these social contacts. And the chances are that he'll git the refund.

I don't care how much refund he gits, but it just goes to show you how complicated them 31 words has got in 48 years. I reckon that feller got a few hand-squeezes and some Sears & Roebuck kisses from them glamor gals, but if he gits $32,000 out of the deal, he's doing pritty good. Back in my day, afore we got them 440,000 words, if you took a gal to the country fair and bought her a red lemonade, the only reward you got was to take her home, set under the shade of a tree and squeeze the lemonade out of her — the gal, not the tree. I doubt if the national debt was more'n $32,000 at that time.

It seems to me that we got a nation-wide conspiracy going on in this country to crush the pore man with high-faluting words and complicated red tape. Take, fer instant, the liability insurance policy I carry on that old beat up car of mine. I never drive more'n 25 mile a hour on account of knowing what kind of forms I'll have to fill out if I have a accident.

Well, my neighbor's preacher joined our session again fer a few minutes Saturday. Said he couldn't stay long on account of being on his way to perform a wedding ceremony. But he stayed long enough to give the fellers a few tips on matrimony. He allowed as how wedding rings was now gitting so small it took a magnifying glass to see 'em. He claims a preacher has to wear his bifocals at the ceremony to tell when the ring is put on. They ain't meant to last more'n a few years, he says, on account of folks changing wives and husbands so often. Back in the old days they made 'em thick and heavy because they was meant to last a lifetime. What we need today, he claims, is a old style wedding ring, a heavy one that keeps the wimmen folks steady and weighed down in the home. He talks mighty brave, Mister Editor, fer a feller that's got a small house and a big wife.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Huie

County Agents News Column

By STERLING LINDSEY

Cotton root rot has hit some of the cotton fields in the County. None of the fields checked had heavy losses, but we have had a year that is conducive to root rot development. If it does increase our chances for a bumper crop will be correspondingly decreased.

As a side note — I have checked in the neighborhood of ten trees in the last month that died with cotton root rot. All but one of these checked were apricot trees. I do not believe that apricots are that sensitive to root rot compared to other trees. I think it was just a coincidence.

I received some interesting figures from the Livestock Reporting Service recently that should boast most Texas ego. Because of the size of our state, the livestock and poultry quotations should be high. But I was surprised to see our state ranked so high among the states (volume wise) in so many categories.

The quotations (all are either the number on farms on January 1, 1961 or for the year 1960 one or the other) are as follows: cattle and calves, first; beef cows, first; calves born, first; sheep and lambs, first; wool production, first; mohair production, first. Also quoted were calves slaughtered, third; cattle slaughtered, fourth; sheep and lambs slaughtered, fourth; farm chickens, sixth; broiler production, sixth; egg production, seventh; and turkeys produced, seventh. Other quotations were milk cows, eleventh; cattle on feed January 1, eleventh; hogs and pigs, fifteenth and hogs slaughtered, fifteenth.

As you can see, Texas is important to the nation's output of meat, milk, eggs, wool and mohair, and these products are vital to the economy of our state.

Perhaps of interest to you is the weights or gains of the calves the 4-H Club members have on feed. Ten Club members have on feed 19 steers and eight heifers. The group gained a total of 4030 pounds during the last two weighing periods for a daily group average of 2.18 pounds. Using the calves weight as one guide to determine the approximate weight to expect by show time, we figure that the group on an average calf will gain about two pounds per day. And it will usually require, over the entire feeding period, about two pounds of feed per each 100 pounds of body weight per day.

Club members feeding calves are Roy Blair, Edith, one short-horn steer; Jo Alice Evans and Maxie Evans, Sanco, one hereford and one angus steer; James Bird Pentecost, Sanco, three hereford heifers and five hereford steers; Kay and Robert Wink, Graham Valley, four shorthorn steers and two shorthorn heifers; Gaylon and Darrell and Sherry Pitcock, Sanco, two hereford heifers and six hereford steers; Dee Arrott, Tennyson, one hereford heifer and one hereford steer.

We believe they have several fine animals on feed. If you are in the neighborhood of any of these members, drop by and look at their calves. I am sure they would be pleased to show them to you.

The state meeting of the Home Demonstration Association was held in San Angelo this week. Coke County delegates for the meeting were Mrs. Dale Wojtek, Mrs. Floyd Harmon and Mrs. Pat Rives. These delegates voted in business sessions and attended workshops on Civil Defense, Family Life, Citizenship, Health and Safety, 4-H and Recreation. A portion of the club meetings for the coming year will be based on material given in these workshops.

The Craft and Food committees for the Home Demonstration Craft Day met last Friday and made final decisions concerning their responsibilities. There will be a family night supper following the day's activities.

4-H Camp is the 15th and 16th at the County Park. I hope all you 4-H girls are planning to come. We will have some mothers on hand for preparing meals, so we will have all kinds of time for crafts, swimming and other recreation.

I've just received a newsletter from the National Cotton Council home economist. In our part of the county we like the idea of wearing cotton the year round since it is so easy to care for. I'd like to tell you some of the things to look for in cotton fashions this year. Apparently, the influence of knitted fashions has been carried into wide-scale woven cotton corduroys designed to simulate the appearance of a knitted cable stitch. New corduroy prints show unusual treatment, with many of them having almost a painted look. Cotton suede is becoming increasingly important in the fashion picture. It takes color beautifully and appears in such varied shades as light olive, bright red, electric blue, gold, and bronze.

Smart for two piece fall suits, dresses and jackets is black cloque pique in a herringbone pattern. Fabrics with heavily accented ribs, such as cotton ottoman and cords, are also good this year among woven cottons. New on the market is a homespun cable, which is actually a cotton woven in a cable pattern simulating a knit. It's especially appropriate for sports separates, as well as classic dresses.

Cotton damask shows up in dressy suits, and cotton tapestry laminated to polyurethane foam is another interesting new fabric.

Doesn't this make you want to rush out and add to your fall wardrobe with new cotton garments? Happy shopping!

The party line golden rule

People on telephone party lines have a daily opportunity to practice the principle of the golden rule.

Sometimes, when you pick up the receiver, you expect the party line to be in use. But your call is delayed only when the party line is tied up for an excessive length of time.

So the best rule for party line users is the golden rule. To put it simply "Do unto your party line neighbor as you would have your party line neighbor do unto you."

DON'T FOLLOW THE CROWD

Whenever prices start to climb,
Most people think it's buying time;
And they seldom want to sell
Until prices fall pell-mell.

This rule we would suggest to you:
Never follow the crowd on through.

The time to buy is on the low,
When the crowd is buying, you go slow.

BALLINGER BOYS TAKE BOAT TRIP DOWN RIVER

By Mrs. Herbert Holland

Several boys from Ballinger recently left Bronte for a paddle boat ride down the river to Ballinger. They were Jimmy and Danny Slaughter, grandsons of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Slaughter of Maverick, Eddie Davis, Ronnie Smith and Johnny Renfro.

They started from Bronte in the afternoon and made it to the river bridge in the Brookshire community where they spent the night. They had breakfast with Mrs. Slaughter before resuming their trip toward Ballinger. They had bad luck about six miles out of Ballinger when their boat broke down on the Lyle Curry ranch.

The boat trip was ended but the boys said they got some good experience and had a good time.

Now you can buy money on the installment plan - and get paid for it

Just imagine buying a $1,000 bundle of cash on the installment plan.

No money down. You get 3 3/4% interest on each installment which means your $1,000 costs you only $750. Sounds pretty good, doesn't it?

This is what happens when you buy U.S. Savings Bonds on the Payroll Savings Plan. To start, just tell the company where you work to deduct $18.75 from your pay each month. In 40 months you'll have Bonds worth $1,000 at maturity.

The Payroll Savings Plan is more than an easy way to save. It makes certain that money you want to keep doesn't slip through your fingers.

Why don't you start saving this sure and easy way, right away?

MORE ADVANTAGES TO THINK ABOUT

You now get 3 3/4% interest, at maturity. This new rate, which went into effect June 1, 1959, makes your Bond money grow faster. Series E Bonds now mature 14 months earlier—in just 7 years, 9 months.

You can get your money, with interest, any time you want it. Bonds are a ready reserve that you can cash any time at any bank. But it pays to keep them.

Your money is guaranteed by the U.S. Government. Bonds are an absolutely riskless investment. The Government promises you that the cash value of your Bonds will not drop—it can only grow.

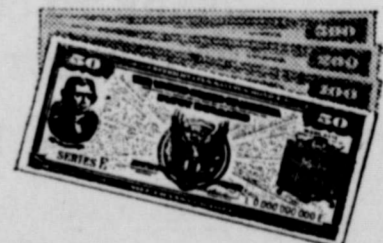

Your money can't be lost or stolen. The Treasury will replace your Bonds, free, if anything happens to them.

You save more than money. You help save the peace with every Bond you buy. Peace costs money—money for science, education, military strength. And the money you save helps keep our nation's economy strong.

Here's how you can reach your savings goal with U. S. Savings Bonds in just 7 years, 9 months.

| If you want about | $2,500 | $5,000 | $10,000 |
|-------------------|---------|---------|----------|
| Each week save    | $5.45  | $10.85 | $21.70  |

Buy Them Where You Work or Bank

Cuban Refugees Desperately Need Our Help, Pastor Reports

(Editor's note: The following article was written by Rev. Lester L. Vinson, pastor of First Baptist Church in Bronte. It tells of some of his experiences while doing special missionary work in the south. The opinions expressed herein are the writer's and are not necessarily those of this newspaper nor its staff.)

By Lester L. Vinson
Pastor, First Baptist Church

On April 29 a journey began which was to take me to far and intriguing experiences within our own United States of America.

Through the invitation of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and the generous spirit of the First Baptist Church of Bronte, I was to be given an unusual opportunity to be a part-time observer of two national and international problems. The first was to be that of talking face to face with many of the refugees from Communist oppression in Cuba and to be shocked with the words of men who went through the hell of battle during the ill-fated invasion of Cuba. The second area of my experience was to be with that large flood of migrant laborers who follow the vegetable harvests in a never-ending, never-satisfying cycle, these whose only hope is "manana."

This first article will deal with the experiences in the city of "invasion jitters" and "bombing scares," Miami, Florida.

Many of us have little or no concept of what it is like to live in a growing city where every newspaper and every newscast is filled with reports of incoming hundreds of refugees streaming in by private boat or by plane with only the clothes on their backs and a few pesos in their pockets. These people were and are the very heart of true Cuba: doctors, lawyers, college professors, bankers, public school teachers, business men, soldiers, whose position, possessions and whose very life is threatened by the scourge of communism. Their homeland is now a complete communist satellite state less than 90 miles from our own state of Florida.

Baptists and many other denominational bodies have risen to the challenge by supplying what goods they could to provide nourishment, clothing and medicines for these desperate thousands. I served in this ministry for two weeks alongside Rev. Milton Leach Jr., who is the city missionary for the Spanish-speaking in Dade County of Greater Miami. Our own denomination expended more than $15,000 in this project and yet the flood of refugees continues to mount. There is the expectation of some 20,000 more to arrive in the next few weeks. These people have no jobs, they have no money and are staying with friends or in temporary housing. They are disillusioned with our country. They feel they were betrayed in the invasion and now they hardly know which way to turn. They are coming not only with physical needs but spiritual needs.

The old Cuba is gone, never to be restored as it once was even if the yoke of Castro should be broken off. They are generous and normally happy people but now their smiles have faded and they look with questioning eyes to the missionaries for some hope and security and yet they are not demanding as some would think. One day in our distribution center a young man, his wife and small child came for food and vitamins which were also given. Our daily supply of food had not arrived from the warehouse until late. In order to supply the people more quickly, when the truck did arrive, I asked for some of the men to volunteer to unload the truck. This young man stepped forward and alongside myself helped bring in the heavy bags of food. I felt a sense of appreciation for his help and offered him a personal gift of money. This was his reply, "Thank you very much but I cannot take your money. I am grateful for the food you are giving me. We will make out somehow I know." To me this is the true picture of the free Cuban. All he wants is a little help to have his land back and the privilege of free elections and free enterprise again. Perhaps in God's grace He through free Americans will restore Cuba to the Cubans.

In conversation with some of the wounded invaders who somehow made it back to Florida I found a new and deepening faith in God. One of the men in particular who had been severely burned by white phosphorous told of going into combat with the usual church member's faith but after spending several days in the bottom of a small boat bobbing about without fuel for its motor and then finally being rescued, he said, "I have a faith and trust in God that I never had before. It was only by His help that I am alive today."

This seemed to be repeated by each of the men with whom I visited in the hospitals. Though they had gone through severe experiences and bore the wounds and marks of combat, their new desire to serve God was evident. These wounded men seemed to appreciate so much our interest and because I could speak their language they felt ready to accept our ministry and friendship.

I talked with a young man whose wife was still in Cuba and saw in his face the anxiety over her safety. You see they they are people with extreme problems and yet we have done so little for them. As my stay in Miami drew to a close, many wanted me to remain with them and help them in their particular needs. It was with reluctance that I told them I had to move on. I remember the faces of many who had gone through the fire and I wonder if we as a nation and a people will be able to erase our responsibility to these valiant and brave people from the memory of this generation.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cumbie and girls visited last week in Fort Stockton with Mrs. Cumbie's sister, Mrs. Jack Taylor, and family. Linda Cumbie remained for a longer visit with the Taylors.

Pete Percifull of La Veta, Colo., is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Percifull.

issue of The Enterprise. It is extremely interesting and gives some first hand information on one of our problems.
