Deadline Nears For Paying Local Taxes

There's not much time left to pay 1965 taxes, without paying a penalty. Jan. 31 ends the regular tax-paying season for state and county, city and school taxes, and that day is the last for securing a poll tax receipt.

County Tax Assessor-Collector O. B. Jacobs said Monday his office had sold only 406 poll tax receipts, but "we're expecting to sell about Bradberry-Lee Announce Opening of Insurance Co.

Bradberry-Lee Insurance has opened for business in San Angelo, according to an advertisement in this week's Enterprise. The firm is owned and operated by Kenneth Bradberry of San Angelo and formerly of Bronte and Martin Lee of Bronte.

Their ad states they are in a position to take care of all kinds of insurance needs, including casualty, life, hospitalization, etc. In addition to their insurance business the two men operate a real estate business.

AD-LIB-BEN

A poll tax is still required to vote in state and local elections in Texas. A suit is pending attacking the constitutionality of the poll tax, but nobody knows when a decision will be reached. Meanwhile, citizens of Texas have only until Jan. 31 to insure their right to vote by purchasing a poll tax.

Not only is this an election year for state, district, county, precinct city and school officers, it will also be a year for bond elections and other matters requiring a vote.

If you want to participate in these important happenings of 1966, you'd better get over to the bank next week when a deputy will be on hand, or go to the taxassessor's office in Robert Lee, and dig up $1.75.

Housing Authority Going to Ft. Worth

Members of Bronte Housing Authority are scheduled to go to Fort Worth Sunday afternoon and remain there Monday for a conference with state officials.

Some preliminary plans have been made to secure a low rent housing project in Bronte and a loan of $3,600 has been approved for further preliminary surveys by the Public Housing Administration.

Plans already made call for 18 units, eight of which would be designed for elderly persons.

Notification of the Monday meeting said it would be a "pre-development conference." Planning to make the trip are Chairman Royce Fancher, Executive Director Norman R. Kiker, and any of the following members who can go: E. F. Glenn, secretary; Matthew Caperton, chairman; Gilbert Basquez and Ben Oglesby, directors.

five hundred more between now and Jan. 31."

A new federal constitutional amendment forbids the poll tax requirement as a prerequisite for voting in national elections, but the $1.75 tax is still required for all those between 21 and 60 who wish to participate in state, county and local elections.

Deputy at Bronte

A deputy from Jacobs' office will be at First National Bank in Bronte three days next week, Jan. 26, 27 and 28 to write poll tax receipts. Jacobs urged prospective voters in the area to take advantage of the temporary tax office in the bank. State and county taxes will not be collected by the deputy he said.

Persons living on the west side of the county and any one else who wishes, may buy a poll tax receipt as well as pay state and county taxes in Jacobs' office during regular office hours. The office is open Monday through Friday.

School and city officials pointed out that taxes for their respective agencies become delinquent on Feb. 1 and penalty and interest will be charged after the Jan. 31 deadline.

Deposits Rise, Reflect Activity in This Area

Deposits of First National Bank in Bronte show a healthy increase over a year ago. The tremendous jump of $235,307.33 was caused largely by the deposit of school bond money since the bank call of a year ago, but normal growth accounts for a substantial part of the increase.

Figures in a report of condition being run in this week's Enterprise reveal the big increase in deposits, compared to one issued as of Dec. 31, 1964.

Deposits on Dec. 31, 1965, show $2,762,680.36 in the local bank, compared to $2,527,373.03 on Dec. 31, 1964. The latest figures also show a big increase since the previous call, Oct. 13, 1965, when deposits totaled $2,729,496.58.

Loans at the First National are also up. The loans and discounts account shows a total of $1,086,594.28

Barbee's Contract Extended

Bronte School board of trustees met last Thursday in regular meeting and took care of routine business, as well as other matters brought before them.

The board:

—Renewed the contract of Supt. C. B. Barbee for another year, making it run for three more years at the end of the current school term.

—Agreed to add sand and level holes in Stephenson Field, home of the Bronte Longhorns.

—Agreed to advertise again for sale of a 1961 Corvair school bus. At a previous bid opening, only one bid was received and the board rejected it.

—Confirmed a contract with Lion Hardware Co. of Abilene to supply hardware for the new additions to Bronte School plant. The contract calls for a cost of $3,785, which is well below the expected cost of around $5,500.

—Approved the appointment of the textbook selection committee, whose members will select textbooks for schools in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Kemp, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Hugh S. Lewis of Robert Lee, were in San Antonio Saturday night and Sunday. They visited Hugh S. Lewis Jr. who underwent surgery on his leg there last Friday. Mr. Lewis is in Wilford Hall, Ward T, Room 11 at Lackland AFB Hospital, San Antonio.

on Dec. 31, 1965, compared to $893,684.82 on Dec. 31, 1964, and $1,014,819.34 on Oct. 13, 1965.

Total assets of the bank reached $3,137,180.36 on Dec. 31 of this past year, compared to $2,882,373.03 on Dec. 31, 1964. This is an increase of $254,807.33.

Capital accounts of the bank were also increased substantially during 1965. Total capital structure now amounts to $374,500, compared to $350,000.00 a year ago, an increase of $19,500.00. The increase was in the undivided profits which went up from $150,000.00 to $174,500.00. Capital stock remains at $50,000 and surplus at $150,000.

SNOW, SLEET, RAIN COVER COKE COUNTY

Some snow was still on the ground Wednesday after Coke County and the surrounding area received its first snow of the season during the first part of this week.

The snowfall began Monday and continued at intervals through Tuesday night. Measurement was just about impossible, since the mercury hovered right around the freezing mark or slightly above, and a good part of the wet white stuff melted soon after falling.

Some rain and sleet also fell along with the snow, and added enough moisture to do some good for small grain fields.

Highways in the north part of the county were frozen over early Tuesday morning and driving was extremely hazardous for a few hours. A warmup Tuesday, however, melted snow and ice on roads. Highway Department crews have been busy most of this week keeping bridges sanded, as a precaution against slippery ice.

The forecast issued for Wednesday said the cold, cloudy weather would continue into Thursday, with occasional light drizzle. Colder weather was predicted for the end of the week.

OIL FIELD NOTES

Karl Hoblitzelle and Ronald Perkins of Dallas are drilling No. 1 Ann Perkins 2½ miles southeast of Bronte. It is a half-mile outpost to the two-well Leppart (Palo Pinto) field. A report Wednesday noon from Clyde Lee, who is in charge of drilling, said the test was drilling at 3,220 feet. The test is projected to 4,500 feet.

Location is 86.6 feet from the northeast and 467 feet from the southeast lines of Ann's Gates No. 325.

Pay Your Poll Tax NOW!

ATTORNEY GENERAL OUTLINES POLL TAX PROBLEM IN TEXAS

Attorney General Waggoner Carr today urged all Texans who will be eligible to vote in this year's elections to obtain their poll tax before the January 31st deadline.

In some counties the number of persons qualifying to vote is below normal. Some attribute this to the fact that there is some confusion on the part of many Texans as to whether a poll tax must be paid this year because of the recent lawsuit attacking this requirement.

Carr called attention to the fact that the Judges of the Federal District Court hearing the case involving the validity of the Texas Poll tax law, have recommended that Texas voters comply with the present law, because the lawsuit is not likely to be finally decided before January 31st, which is the deadline for poll tax payment.

Carr listed the following four rules for obtaining poll tax receipts and exemption certificates to qualify for voting in elections held between Feb. 1, 1966 and Jan. 31, 1967.

1. In order to vote in any primary, general or special election for the nomination or election of any State or local offices, or to vote in any election on a question or proposition, persons not exempt from payment of the poll tax must do so by January 31, 1966.

2. Persons over 60 years of age on Jan. 1, 1965, are exempt from paying the poll tax. However, an exemption certificate must be obtained by Jan. 31, 1966.

3. Persons who were under 21 on Jan. 1, 1965, but who will be 21 years of age by the election date, or who were not residents of Texas on Jan. 1, 1965, but will be so by election date are not subject to the payment of the poll tax. However, they must obtain an exemption certificate. This certificate can be obtained at any time throughout the year. But, in order for the holder to vote, it must have been issued at least 30 days prior to any election.

4. Persons eligible to register and who have not paid for a poll tax or obtained an exemption certificate to vote in any primary, general or special election for nomination or election of members of the United States Congress, may do so by obtaining a special poll tax receipt (issued without payment of the tax) by January 31, 1966. This is a registration certificate and qualifies anyone to vote for Federal offices. The County Tax Collector marks the receipt with the notation "Poll Tax not paid."

DUN & BRADSTREET SEEKING INFORMATION ON 43 COKE FIRMS

A. J. Hemphill, district manager of the Fort Worth office of Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., announced this week that statement requests were mailed to 43 businesses in Coke County. He said figures were obtained from a physical count of the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book for January, 1966.

Each January business concerns in all parts of the United States are asked by Dun & Bradstreet for copies of their financial statements. This year requests are being sent to nearly three million business concerns.

The Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book lists those manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers who seek or grant commercial credit, but it does not include some of the service and professional businesses, such as beauty and barber shops, security dealers and real estate brokers. Therefore, the figures for total business in the United States would be higher than the three million quoted above.

During the past year, Hemphill said, four changes were made in Dun & Bradstreet Reference book listings of Coke County businesses, including one name added, one name deleted and two changes in the ratings of continuing businesses.

When the owner or officer of a business enterprise, or his accountant, fills in and mails his financial statement to Dun & Bradstreet, it becomes a part of the credit report on his business and a factor in determining the credit rating of his business. Mailing the statement, rather than waiting for the Dun &

Bradstreet reporter's call, means a concern's important suppliers will quickly have the latest facts on which to make credit and sales decisions. When the Dun & Bradstreet reporter receives a business man's financial statement in advance of his periodic call, he can make a more detailed analysis of the financial condition of the business and discuss its operation more intelligently.

Back of each listing of a business in the Reference book is a Dun & Bradstreet credit report. The report includes the following: a record of how the business is paying its bills; a history of the business (who owns it, who runs it, and how long it has been operating); a description of what the business does and how it does it; a financial section which usually includes the latest financial statement.

While credit reports are primarily used by business men who want to evaluate the credit risk of a business before shipping or selling, insurance underwriters, bankers, and other professionals also use reports.

Miss Linda Henry of San Angelo spent last weekend in Dallas with her daughter, Mrs. Gale Hufstutler, and family.

Exciting news from FRIGIDAIRE ELECTRI-CLEAN OVEN!

From dirty... to clean AUTOMATICALLY

NO MORE MESSY CLEANING

Q. What happens to the dirt?

A. The Electri-clean oven heats up to about 900°. At this temperature oven soil is turned into a loose ash and vapor. The vapor is vented thru a special air purifier.

Q. How can it clean the racks & drip bowls?

A. Frigidaire uses a special heat-resistant porcelain enamel for both the oven liner and cooking unit drip bowls. The racks get cleaned right along with the rest of the oven.

Q. Is there any hand cleaning left to do?

A. Possibly there will be a small amount of loose ash that may remain after cleaning. This can be whisked out easily.

Q. What about safety features?

A. As soon as the temperature rises above broiling heat, oven double-locks itself. It can not be re-opened until the temperature returns to conventional oven heat. Frigidaire uses extra insulation and its electrical system and high heat process are UL approved.

Q. How expensive is it to operate?

A. This full-size oven cleans itself for about the price of a cup of coffee—much less than the cleaning cost of special chemical oven cleaners.

This unique Frigidaire Range may seem too good to be true. But, true it is and you may see it at your nearest WTU showroom.

TIPS FOR INDOOR GARDENERS

To stay healthy, house plants need an adequate supply of warm water — not cold water which may chill or even shock them. Most plants should be thoroughly soaked once a week, but never over-watered.

It is important to know each plant's preference regarding sunlight and temperature. In general, foliage plants thrive between 60 and 70 degrees and should not be "roasted" near a radiator in winter. Fertilize plants at regular intervals, and provide for proper drainage and soil aeration.

Cleanliness is vital because plants breathe through tiny pores which lace their leaves. If these become clogged, plants wither and die. Thus dust and soot should be removed and the easiest and best method is with soap and water. Washing leaves gently helps a plant to maintain both its health and luster.

If the plant is reasonably sturdy, put it into a sink or tub of tepid soapsuds. To protect the soil, first cut a piece of plastic to fit the top of the pot — allowing an inch of overhang. Slash this plastic to the center, fit it around the plant, and fasten it around the edge of the pot with an elastic band. Up-end the plant and swish it gently through the suds until clean, then rinse it the same way.

When leaves are broad and not too dense, they can be washed individually. Dip a sponge or soft cloth in warm soapsuds and wash both sides of every leaf, supporting it from underneath with one hand. Rinse with a fine spray of clean water, or with a sponge or cloth wrung out of clear water. When stems are long and there is danger of breakage, or if the plant is in bloom, leaves must be sudsed individually instead of being immersed. After washing, some plants—such as African Violets—should be kept out of sunshine until the leaves are completely dry.

If foliage is very fragile, spray soapsuds over it with an atomizer; then spray-rinse the same way. This technique is especially good for loosening sooty mold which often attacks sensitive gardenia plants.
