Vol. 49 (Old Vol. No. 62)

Bronte, Texas, July 20, 1967

No. 29

Subscription Special Will Save You 50c

The Enterprise annual subscription campaign has been going strong the last several days, with a large number of new and renewal subscriptions coming in. Buyers of subscriptions during July save 50 cents on each subscription purchased.

The regular price in Coke and adjoining counties is reduced to $2.50 per year from the regular price of $3.00, and the price on subscriptions out of this area is reduced to $3.00 a year from the regular rate of $3.50 per year.

Publisher Ben Oglesby said Monday that everyone who reads the Enterprise is invited to take advantage of the reduced price. "This special reduction is good for any kind of subscription: new, renewal, or extension," he said.

Persons whose subscription do not expire this month may renew and their expiration dates will be advanced one year from the present date of expiration.

Anyone who wishes to subscribe may come by the Enterprise office, or mail in his order. Persons who live in outlying communities may subscribe through Enterprise representatives if they wish. These representatives are Mrs. Herbert Holland, Brookshire; Mrs. Rocky Thompson, Blackwell; Mrs. Tom Green and Dana Cunningham, Tennyson.

This offer will not be repeated again after the month of July, and there is a strong possibility that the subscription price will have to be raised during the next year, Oglesby said.

The Enterprise is being sent this week to every boxholder in Bronte and the routes which go out of here. This is being done with the hope that the few residents who do not take The Enterprise will see the advertising of the special prices and take advantage of them.

AD-LIB-BEN

We've fired the first shot in a war against the bats which inhabit the Rawlings building, next door to The Enterprise. We have suspected for a long time that the bats were crawling through the wall into the space between the ceiling and roof of our building. So, we got all the moth balls Central Drug had in stock and tossed them into the suspected area.

A casual inspection of the area revealed no bats in our belfry, but we are not firmly convinced they are not there. They can hide in some mighty small places. There must be millions of them in the Rawlings building.

We hate to start a campaign against such an entertaining pastime as watching the bats come out at night, but we would like to see the city and all property owners involved get together and try to work out a plan of attack. We're afraid our first shot won't do much good without some support from stronger forces.

Wasn't the rain fine?

A real friend is one who understands you and still is.

When preachers call each other on the phone, we presume it's "parson to parson."

Two Irishmen were touring Switzerland and were caught in a blizzard. Half buried in snow they were about to lose all hope, when suddenly a big St. Bernard dog with a large cask of brandy fastened to his collar came bounding up.

"Look Pat", said Mike, "cheer up, here comes man's best friend."

"Yeah," said Pat, "and look at that big dog that's with it."

Season Football Tickets Ready For 1967 Fans

Season tickets for the Bronte Longhorns' 1967 home games are ready and are available at the office of Supt. C. B. Barbee. Only four home games are on the 1967 schedule, and the season tickets will sell for $5.00, making them cost fans $1.25 per game.

Barbee said that holders of season tickets last year will have first choice to purchase the same seats again this year, if they wish. Deadline for claiming 1966 seats is Aug. 15. After that date all remaining seats in the reserve section of the stands will go on sale to the public.

Included in the reserved section seats 1 through 57 on rows A through F. All the reserved seats are adjacent to the center of the playing field.

Rain Soaks Dry Fields, Pastures Of Bronte Area

A fine summer rain began falling in the Bronte area before dawn Wednesday and continued most of the morning. A shower fell right after noon to bring Bronte's measurement to 1.2 inches.

The rainfall apparently was heavier to the north and west and lighter to the south.

Charlie Boecking said he had 2.25 inches at his farm north of town. The C. H. Wylie ranch northeast of town reported 2.2 inches. Pete McDonald had 3 inches on his place at Fort Chadbourne. Joe Rawling, who ranches southwest of town had .7 inch up till noon, and W. T. Green at Tennyson reported .4

West Texas Utilities Co. at the Oak Creek plant measured 1.94 inches. Workers there reported that it looked as though the rainfall was heavier toward Blackwell and on north, and Oak Creek Lake may catch some runoff from the rainfall.

Robert Lee, Silver and Sanco all reported an even two inches at 10 a.m. Wednesday.

Farmers and ranchers will be glad to see the moisture, as fields and pastures were getting extremely dry in most places.

Mayor Calls Meeting Of Water Committee

Mayor Royce Lee has called a meeting of a committee which he appointed to study Bronte's future water problems for Monday at 7:30 p.m. Any citizen who is interested in the study is also invited to be present, Lee said. The meeting will be held at the city hall.

The committee is made up of L. T. Youngblood, J. L. Brunson, Clyde Lee, Royce Fancher and D. K. Glenn, along with city council members, Cecil Kemp, Horace Grigg, Martin Lee, Bill Clark, Marvin Bryant and the mayor.

Actually, the committee's job was set up to make a study of

Church Of Christ Having Meeting

A gospel meeting is being held this week at Bronte Church of Christ. The special services began Monday and will be continued through Sunday.

Murphy D. Phillips, evangelist from Warren, Tex., is doing the preaching, and W. A. Turner of San Angelo is in charge of the song service.

Services are being held daily at 7:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., except there will be no Saturday morning service. Sunday services will be at 10 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Cecil Cox, minister of the local church, said that everyone in this area is cordially invited to attend the remaining services. "A warm welcome awaits everyone," he said.

GOLFERS HAVING TOURNEY

A city golf tournament is now in progress at the Singing Winds Golf Course in Bronte. Only residents of the city are eligible to enter and the results will determine the city champion.

Play began July 15 and will be concluded July 30. Prizes of trophies and golf balls will be presented to winners at the end of the final day of play.

Mr. Marquez died about 2 a.m. Saturday in Bronte Hospital after a brief illness.

He was born Nov. 22, 1885 in Mexico and had been a resident of Bronte for 46 years.

Survivors include his wife; one son, Charles Marquez of Bronte; six daughters, Mrs. Juanita Fuentes of Tularosa, N. M., Mrs. Sofia Sanchez of Bronte, Mrs. Mary Samaniago of Odessa, Mrs. Francis Vasquez of Midland, Mrs. Valentia Flores of Houston, and Mrs. Ruth Hernandez of Monahans; 25 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

$5,000 Estimate On Fire Damage

A fire which started about 2 a.m. Tuesday morning destroyed a carport and storage house at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Rees. Bronte firemen were able to control the fire before extensive damage was done to their residence, which is adjacent to the carport.

Firemen noted that they were extremely lucky in that the wind was blowing exactly from the right direction to blow the flames away from any nearby structures.

Rees told The Enterprise that the loss would amount to approximately $5,000. Probably the greatest loss was the two automobiles which were parked in the carport. They were judged a total loss, he said.

Rees had insurance on the building and most of the contents. However, the 1955 Chevrolet which was burned was not insured.

The building was a general storage for the family, Mrs. Rees said. She said the loss included winter clothes, mattresses, carpets, hand tools, paint, and many other items.

The Reeses were asleep when the building caught fire. Mrs. Rees said she was about half awakened by their small dog's whimpering, and she reached over the side of her bed to try to quiet him, but he kept disturbing her sleep. Finally, she decided he was not going to let her sleep and got up. Then she discovered the fire.

The Reeses said they have no idea as to how the structure caught fire.

Mrs. Dale Thompson Tells Of Recent Trip To Germany

Mrs. Dale Thompson of the Maverick community returned to the United States the last of June after a visit of six weeks in her native Germany.

Most of the time was spent visiting her parents in Witzhausen. Mrs. Thompson came to the United States in 1948 as a war bride, after meeting her husband while he was in the armed forces. The Enterprise asked Mrs. Thompson to write an account of what she saw and her impressions during her visit. The following is her reply to that request.

I left May 18 from Dallas, flew via Chicago, London to Frankfurt, Germany. From Frankfurt I traveled by car on the auto-bahn to my hometown. My first impression was that everything was so deep green in contrast to West Texas. I noticed also there was very heavy traffic everywhere and very fast driving on narrow pavements even through small villages and towns. On my last visit, ten years ago people did not have nearly so many cars and consequently there were fewer cars on the highways.

I spent several days in the beautiful State of Hessen visiting relatives and friends. We had several rainy days and I was so happy with the rain that I put on boots and umbrella and walked around in it.

At the end of May we drove to the Rhine River by way of the old city of Braunsfels with its castle. On the Rhine we watched tug boats pulling barges up stream. The river is at its narrowest here and the water was so swift the loaded barges could not make it on their own power. On the East side of the river, almost straight up were vineyards for many miles. I do not see how people can work on such steep slopes. I was told that some kind of farm machinery is even used to cultivate the earth in the vineyards.

We stopped at the city of Ruedesheim to take pictures and watch some of the tourists from all over the world.

The next day we visited the famous Cathedral in Ulm. From there we drove to the foothills of the Alps. The weather was beautiful clear and very warm. We could see the snow on top of the mountains.

All the people in Europe try to get a suntan when ever possible, so we spent this pretty day sunning ourselves in the garden. It is a good thing we took advantage of the sun, as for the next four days it rained constantly and the temperature was in the upper thirties. I had to borrow some warmer clothes to keep warm.

During these rainy days we shopped in Oberammergau in some of the shops where you can buy handcarved wooden figurines. I chose a horse to take home as a souvenir.

In Garmisch-Partenkirchen we saw the olympic ice stadium and ski jumps. I shopped here for some leather pants and suspenders.

On the second of June we made a trip to Austria. We took a seldom traveled forestry road along the beautiful and green Walchen lake. The snow capped mountains were mirrored in the still lake and it was a sight to behold. We drove along two more lakes to the Austrian border, where they checked our identification. We saw some beautiful scenery on our way to Insbruck.

The next day we rode a cable car to the top of a mountain. Being suspended by that steel cable in mid air sure makes you feel uneasy. After all of us got to the top we started the walk back down. Everyone was wearing high topped shoes as the going was very rugged. I fell twice on the rain slick path but got nothing worse than dirty britches.

In the valley below we walked through a narrow gorge. Over the thousand of years a little stream had cut this gorge through the rocks. There was a little walkway dynamited out of the solid rock right above the foaming waters for people to walk on. We wore raincoats and bonnets to keep from getting wet, as little waterfalls came down from both sides. I bought colored pictures of this gorge as it is too dark in there to take pictures yourself. From this little souvenir stand we rode a horsedrawn buggy back to our car. I do not think I could have walked much further, as my legs felt like they were made of pudding.

On June 6, we visited the famous castle Neuschwanstein. We took a tour of the castle. The wood carvings and embroidered draperies are just fabulous. Another thing of interest, especially to the ladies, was the kitchen. The big wood burning stove in the center of the room did not have a flu that we could see. The guide told us that the flu runs below the kitchen and up in the wall behind a built in cabinet where the plates and bowls are pre-warmed by the warm smoke. The thick stone walls of the castle made the built in icebox almost as good as our modern refrigerators. There was also a huge water tank in the kitchen in which they kept the living fish fresh until they were ready to be cooked. The fifty cents entry fee we paid to tour the castle was well worth what we saw and learned.

which they kept the living fish Munich. From Munich to Gotten we traveled in a fast train. All the trains in West Germany are electric and I found them a very good way to travel. It certainly beats coping with heavy traffic on narrow roads.

One evening we went to an outdoor concert. The music was very good but the Emcee told some jokes he would not have gotten by with in Texas.

The weather kept on being much cooler and wetter than I wanted it to be.

Witsenhausen is a very old town, nearly 750 years old. Present population 7,500. Parts of the stone wall around the city are still in tact. One of the towers has recently been opened to the public and I enjoyed walking up narrow steps to the top and viewing the town from up there.

On June 17, we took another trainride. This time North. We rode by way of Bremen to Oldenburg. This nonindustrial city is built on marshland. We made a Sunday afternoon excursion to the North Sea. We watched people swimming in what was to me very cold water. In fact the breezes from the sea were too cold for me with even a sweater on. I took a bad cold.

On Monday morning I went to one of the well kept vegetable gardens most people have. The strawberry plants were just loaded and the birds were swiping all those berries that were turning red. We stretched some old fishing net over that strawberry bed.

That afternoon we went to the lock in the nearby ship channel. It was very educational to watch

Masterson Goes Back To College

Bronte City Council and the Bronte Volunteer Fire Department at their last regular meeting selected the Rev. Austin Masterson, currently serving as secretary of the fire department, as their representative from the City of Bronte to the Annual Texas Firemen's Training School, College Station, Texas, July 16-25. The City of Bronte and the Bronte Volunteer Fire Department both share in the expense of this training for firemen.

Mayor Royce Lee says that "there is a valid reason that this should be; in order for any city in Texas with a fire department to get a minimum of 3 per cent to a maximum of 5 per cent off their respective fire rate, there must be a fireman and/or firemen each year at Texas A & M University taking this training.

them lift those heavy loaded barges from the harbour to the ship channel which is about 10 yds. higher.

My visit in the old country was rapidly coming to an end and I crammed as much as possible in the last few days.

One nice warm sunny morning we took a long walk in the nearby forest, just like we did as teenagers on Sunday afternoon.

Another day we visited a lookout on a mountain top. From there you can see miles and miles of forests with only the red roof tops of the little villages to break the green.

I ate some of the first ripe cherries right off the tree. They sure did taste good.

It was hard saying goodbye on June 27, to parents, brothers, sister, many friends, old neighbors and to that beautiful country but my own family and Texas never looked better. It sure was good to get back to the good old U. S. A.

Bronte is proud to have a man like Austin Masterson represent us this year. Cecil Cox did the honors for our city at College Station last year."

Suzanne Pruitt Honored With Bridal Shower

Miss Suzanne Pruitt, bride elect of Ronald Hooper, was honored Saturday afternoon at a seated wedding shower in Central Baptist Church.

The tea table featured a white net flounce table cloth over pink. The centerpiece was pink roses. Serving cake and punch at the table were Mrs. Bob Wrinkle and Miss Kreta Kiker. Guests were registered by Miss LaJan Kiker.

Gifts were presented the honoree by Misses Kathy Kiker and Janet Thomas. Background music was furnished by Miss Janet Lee at the piano.

Hostesses were Mmes. Caude Beaver, T. B. Beaver, Carl Blair, Maude Collins, Hollis Ensor, E. F. Glenn, C. L. Hart, H. H. Holland, Norman Kiker, Jesse Parker, Francis Seltz, T. F. Sims Jr., C. R. possible nearby lake sites which could be developed to provide water to supplement Bronte's present supply, as water usage increases.

Mayor Lee said that he believes Bronte will need more water than is now available from Oak Creek Lake within the next several years, "and I would like for us to be in a position to meet the demand when it arrives."

tential — retroactive to July 1 — to meet demands created by the Middle East shoot-out.

Commission's extraordinary mid-month emergency order was the third of the kind since the Arabian oil cutoff. It boosted the allowable to 3,830,560 barrels a day — higher than during latter part of the 1957 Suez oil crisis and probably the highest since wide - open production days of 1948 when producers were encouraged to build up war - drained crude supplies.

New increase adds 131,000 barrels a day to July allowable, which was raised to 42.9 per cent on the first of the month. Major purchasers told the Commission added production was necessary.

Allowable was 33.8 per cent when the Arab - Israeli shooting started in June. Commission raised it slightly — to 35.9 per cent — in mid - June, retroactive to June 1, and on July 1 announced the 42.9 per cent order.

August allowable is due to be set this week.

Since the percentage factor was first used in 1963, the 37.5 per cent - of - potential production was the highest adjustment used until the present Middle East crisis erupted.

In addition to the major effect on the state's general economy, a steadily climbing allowable appears likely to increase Texas' governmental tax income substantially. It has been estimated that the July 1 order would mean a $53,617 a day increase in state tax income — or a total of $1,600,000 through this month. Obviously, the increase now will be greater.

If the crisis continues for several months, the added income will be a major factor in shaping special session tax needs next year.

Meanwhile, Chairman Jim C. Langdon emphasized that the Commission is determined to avoid repetition of the situation that followed the Suez emergency when oil industry suffered for two and a half years working off surplus stocks which piled up as a result of the big allowable boost a decade ago.

FARM MARKET EXPANSION

Agriculture Commissioner John White announced the initiation of what he called "the most aggressive market expansion campaign in the history of Texas agriculture."

White said the marketing drive will include efforts to present the true quality image of all Texas food and fiber products as well as specific programs to bolster markets for Texas - produced and processed commodities.

The Lord is my shepherd

PSALMS

THE LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou art merciful and gracious: merciful and gracious is thy Lord.

The 23rd Psalm is one of the most familiar chapters in the Bible. Early in life, most of us have committed it to memory. Every once in a while we should go back to these verses and think of the wonderful message of faith and trust in God that they reveal to us. They show us that we have a loving Father; one who will show us the right paths; one who will protect and provide for us. These scriptures end with a note of thanksgiving and a promise.

"Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

Plan to start a regular worship in the Lord's house this Sunday.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

FABRIC NEWS

Over 200 million yards of fabric per year is processed in such a manner as to place it in the coated fabric classification.

A considerable percentage of the coated fabric yardage is used for military personnel, either as clothing or for tents. Through the use of coated fabrics, lighter weight clothing can be supplied to servicemen and still give them the protection needed. Tents in various sizes can be put up easily and air supported.

Coated fabrics are used in hospitals, nursing homes, and other institutions where protective bed linens are needed. Washable mattress tickings which can either be removed from the mattress for washing, or which can be washed off without complete removal, are almost the standard item.

Almost any type of fabric or fabric construction can be coated. When buying a coated fabric the basic fabric may be knit or woven; may be cotton, synthetic, or blended; or may be nonwoven or of paper. Coated fabrics should not be confused with those which are bonded. Methods of manufacturing are different and the end use is different.

In general, coated fabrics should be washed rather than dry cleaned. Many of the coating substances are not compatible with the dry cleaning solvent, and will cause the coated fabric to stiffen and to shrink.

The method to use for washing depends on the item. Examine the entire article thoroughly. If it is a jacket with a deep pile lining and trim or with a wool or acetate lining, it is best to use a washing formula designed for wool and synthetics. If the component parts are cotton, the article should be able to be washed in water temperatures over 160 degrees F. Tumbler drying has been used successfully on some coated fabrics. But unless specific instructions are given, it is best to permit the article to air dry.

FOOD PRESERVATION TIPS

Dried fruit such as peaches, apricots, and plums will keep a year or so when stored in a dry cool, dark place.

Here are some food preservation tips. Select about 6 pounds of fresh, ripe and firm fruit. Wash and drain and peel them if you wish. Then cut them in halves and remove pits.

To prevent discoloration, soak fruit 15 minutes in a solution of 3½ tablespoons sodium sulfite to 1 gallon water. A druggist can supply this chemical.

Arrange fruit on trays and place in 150 degrees oven with the bottom tray 3 inches from the oven floor. Don't use the top unit in an electric oven. Prop the oven door open ½-inch if your oven is electric or 8 inches if it is gas to let out moisture. Alternate the trays every 1 to 2 hours.

The fruit is dry when pliable and leathery. Usually about 6 hours is required. Pieces around the edges of the tray will dry first. Remove these as soon as they are dry.

Cool the fruit and package at once. Pack the dried fruit in glass jars, plastic, metal or heavily waxed cardboard frozen food containers. Use a tight seal.

HOME ECONOMIC BRIEFS

Labor - saving devices mean that the homemaker spends less energy for her usual work, and needs less food. It used to take 240 calories to do the family wash plus 50 calories to hang the clothes on the line. Today it takes only 15 calories to put the clothes in the automatic washer and dryer.

To heat muffins, biscuits, or rolls, place them in a paper bag and twist the top lightly. Moist-en the bag, then heat in the oven.

It's good training for the children to join you in shopping and to help you carry the groceries home. However, you as a homemaker should do the actual shopping in order to choose better quality and more economical foods.
