MASON COUNTY EXHIBIT LAST WEEK DREW IMMENSE CROWD FROM ALL DIRECTIONS; 8,000

Report on Awards Not Available for This Week's News

It is estimated the town of Mason had a population equal to 10,000 for a couple of days last week. Never before has there been such a gathering of people in our little city, unless it was for a reunion, and then the crowd was out at the grounds and not as noticeable as on the occasion of last Thursday and Friday, when, what is considered the most successful annual exhibit ever held in the county, was in progress. Naturally, there would be a variance of opinion as to the estimated crowd in attendance, but it is generally believed the visitors in Mason on Friday, the last day, numbered in the neighborhood of 8,000.

The exhibit filled every expectation and in many respects surpassed anything ever before seen in this section. The poultry exhibit was almost too large for the space provided for it in the Geistweidt Building, and it was necessary to make quite a few changes in arrangement in order that all entries could be accommodated. The awards in this department have been turned over to us for publication, but as we have not yet been able to get the list of awards in all departments, these will be held over for a subsequent issue.

The building just west of Johnson's store was used for a display room for the needle and hand work and the great array of entries completely covered the walls and all other available space was utilized, but still the committee in charge is thoroughly convinced that more space will have to be provided for this department next year.

Community exhibits were by far better than ever before, and a greater variety of produce was in evidence than was the case last fall. This feature of the fair was exhibited in the Zork Building, just north of Larimore & Grote's store, and it seemed that more interest was manifested in this particular department than in any other. The schools took a great interest in competing for honors and the exhibit greatly surpassed all expectations. The awards were made and announced on Thursday afternoon, but it was not until late Friday evening that people began to "tear down and take away". A list of the prize winners will appear later when all data has been turned in.

It is believed, never before, has there been as much interest taken in bringing in hogs and other livestock for exhibition as on this occasion. The pens erected on the northwest side of the court house for hogs, sheep and goats were all used and the splendid showing was a treat to the admirer of livestock. The cattle were placed on exhibit on the east side of the court house and the committee in charge of this department were well pleased with the number of entries.

Col. Lafe Burger, of Kansas City, Mo., was again the auctioneer at the Registered Hereford Sale, which was held Friday afternoon. Thirty-one head of registered bulls were sold and it is stated that the sale was quite a success, although the report is given out that the animals did not bring as much on an average as was the case in the sale held last fall.

The News expects to have a full report on the prize winners in every department of the exhibit for its next issue and will also be able to give our readers information concerning the outcome of the Club Boys' judging contest.

INTRUDER OF BAND HALL MUST REPLACE LIGHT

Prof. Ira Newfield, director of the local band, states some one recently entered the band hall and broke one of the large light globes. He asks the News to say he is acquainted with the particulars and knows the party who committed this act and says if the party does not come forward and replace the broken globe which costs $1.75, he will give his name to the public in the next issue of this paper.

Miss Jennie Hamilton is being expected to arrive in Mason within a short time from Chickasha, Okla., to spend the winter with her mother, Mrs. Bertha Todd.

THIS SECTION RECEIVED GOOD SHOWERS OF RAIN THIS WEEK

Mason County came in for her portion of the rains which fell over a large portion of the State this week, and the amount received here was much appreciated and will prove of much benefit. Monday a good shower was received and again that night and still more came Tuesday. The manner in which the rain fell makes it doubly beneficial, at it came gently and practically all of it soaked in. Farmers state the rain at this time was much needed and will make fall plowing better and benefit them in planting small grain. Stockmen say it will help the grass along, and of course, anything that is beneficial to the stockman and farmer is a help to everybody.

When you think of bond papers, think of the News.

Loses Use of Hand by Operation

Mrs. P. C. Rode returned home from San Antonio on Monday of this week and reports to the News that she left her husband in the P. & S. Hospital for further treatment of his hand with which he has suffered for several weeks as a result of blood poison. Mrs. Rode stated that the News had been misinformed in regard to the operation upon Mr. Rode's hand on last Friday a week ago; that several dead bones were removed from the hand, and that he would never be able to use the hand to any advantage. The many friends of these good people will learn with much regret of the loss of the use of the hand by Mr. Rode.

Miss Jessie Doell, who is a teacher in the school at London, was here to spend the past week-end with home folks.

BALLOT FOR NEXT TUESDAY'S ELECTION NOT YET PRINTED

The official ballot to be used in the General Election of next Tuesday, November 7th, has not yet been printed but has been held up because of the big "muddle" in politics about the U. S. Senator's race.

County Judge, John T. Banks, states he will not hold up the printing of the ballot any longer to await the outcome of the injunction which is to prevent the name of Earle B. Mayfield appearing thereon, but has authorized the printing of the ballot without his name and will instruct the election boards of the county to advise the writing of Mayfield's name on the ticket.

It seems from latest reports matters cannot be threshed out in the courts in time for Mayfield to get his name printed on the ticket, but it is generally believed he will easily be elected anyhow and the effort that is being made by the Paddy forces to prevent it is proving nothing more than a benefit to Mayfield in his race.

History Made When Camera Clicked This Picture.

Thomas A. Edison made a pilgrimage to Schenectady, N. Y., last week, the first in 25 years. He was met there by Dr. Chas. P. Steinmetz, the only man in the world his equal in electrical knowledge. Photo shows Edison examining parts of tree and porcelain insulators shattered by Steinmetz a few moments before with his newest invention—a lightning making machine. It is the first picture of the two great inventors together. It is to be preserved. Edison is now 75 years old and Steinmetz is 57.

MENARD WINS HARD FOUGHT GAME FROM MASON ON FRIDAY

It was a difficult task, but Menard won the football game from Mason on the local gridiron Friday afternoon by a score of 6 to nothing.

In the last part of the third quarter Menard completed a long pass, bringing them close to Mason's goal, and made downs on line backs, and had the ball on Mason's 5 yard line when Menard's quarterback fumbled on first down, but a teammate snatched up the oval and on a long run around right end, carried the pig skin to within 22 yards of the line, and then they gained one yard thru the line, when the quarter ended. Menard then attempted to force thru center for the other yard in three downs, but the ball was stopped on the fourth down in the hands of a player in an upright position. About five minutes were consumed in arguing whether the ball was over or not, for it appeared that the ball was just a few inches from the line. The referee contended that it was touching the line and counted as a touchdown and the umpire and head linesman were of the opinion that it was not on the line when stopped. Finally, Menard was given another down and they carried it across for a touchdown, but failed to kick goal, making the score 6 to nothing.

Mason and Menard teams are very evenly matched, and in both contests between these teams this season, Menard has been victorious, and in both instances, by a margin of six points, and both times a question has arisen as to whether or not they were entitled to a victory. It generally conceded by those attending the game Friday that it should have been a scoreless game.

Apparently, the visitors had a little the edge on the locals in the game of Friday, having made more first downs and making longer gains. However, the local team was successful in making a number of first downs, and were playing jam up all through the contest. The visitors appeared a little heavier team than the locals, but they were unable to smash the strong defense of the local griders. Menard completed several long passes for big gains, while Mason completed only one or two passes.

Flack, Menard's quarterback, was the only player who could make any material gains, while Bolt, Willmann and M. Zesch, for Mason, carried the ball most of the time for short gains. Willmann piloted the team for Mason.

OBITUARY

Without loss, we are again compelled to announce the death of another one of our pioneer settlers, Mr. Herman Schuessler, who passed over the river of death into the great beyond, last Saturday, Oct. 28, 1922, at 12:11 p. m. to await the resurrection morn.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Schuessler, were some of the first pioneer settlers of Fredericksburg, Texas, coming from Germany in 1846. Herman Schuessler was born to this union in 1850 and in a few years moved with his parents to the northwest of Fredericksburg, to a section of country that was afterwards called Cherry Springs.

It soon proved that Mr. Adam Schuessler and Pastor became the leading citizens and helped in the organization of a new community.

Decensed was married to his first wife, Miss Wilhelmina Leifeste, of Castell, on October 8, 1874, and settled near Hoersterville, four miles west of Castell, on the Llano River, but soon moved across the river and developed a new homestead which is now the property of his son, Mr. Dan Schuessler, where he resided almost the remaining part of his life.

This union was blessed with 7 boys, 5 living and 2 dead.

The first one to precede the father in death was Harry who died in infancy and the second one, Max, died at the young age of 21 of Typhoid fever shortly after graduating from Blinn College, of Brenham.

The five living sons are as follows: Mr. Alfred Schuessler, Bixbe, Okla.; Rev. E. F. Schuessler, Seguin, Texas; Dr. A. D. Schuessler, Dallas, Texas; and Messrs. John and Dan Schuessler, Castell, Texas. All the children were present except Messrs. Alfred and A. D. Schuessler.

Mrs. Herman Schuessler preceded her husband in death, March 2, 1918 and was buried in the Hoersterville cemetery.

Mr. Herman Schuessler was married a second time, to a Mrs. Minna Mansar of Denton, on April 20, 1920, who with five sons, sixteen grandchildren, one brother, Mr. Jacob Schuessler, of Mason, Texas, and Mrs. Frasch, of San Antonio, Texas, still survive him.

Mr. Herman Schuessler had a lingering sickness for about a year before he was confined to his bed where he patiently endured the agonies of death until relieved by death at his home on the above date.

Decensed lived to reach the ripe old age of 72 years and 3 months. His body was laid to rest in the Hoersterville cemetery near his former wife on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 29th. Rev. John Koelkebeck, of Hilda, with the aid of Revs. G. F. W. Schreiber, Mason, Texas and G. Urbanke, Castell, Texas, conducted the funeral services.

The grave was beautifully decorated with flowers.

Mr. Schuessler joined the Methodist Church in early life and for 48 years was a faithful Christian, but finally went home to glory in the triumph of redeeming grace.

In condolence to the bereaved, we beg you not to mourn for him but rather put your trust in Jesus and strive to meet him in glory.

—A FRIEND.

LON PIRTLE DEAD

Mr. Lon Pirtle, son of Mrs. Loom Pirtle of the Katemey settlement, died at the City Sanitarium in Dallas, Wednesday, October 25th, at 3 o'clock.

He has been in Dallas for the past three months, at the bedside of his brother, who is there under treatment. A few days ago he hurt himself while lifting a bed, and had been gradually growing worse until Tuesday he decided it would be best for him to come home, but before time for his train, he grew worse and decided to wait another day, but Tuesday night it was necessary to call in a doctor, and it was decided he must be operated upon, and with the help of other doctors, preparations were being made for the operation Wednesday morning when he suddenly began sinking and seemed as if the brittle threads of life could not hold out much longer, so he was returned to his room where five faithful doctors of the Masonic Order, of which Lon was a member, and two nurses worked over him until 3 o'clock when the death Angel came and took him home.

Lon was 39 years of age. He was not a member of any church, although a few weeks ago he professed religion and when the doctors told him of his condition, he stated that he was ready to go.

Decensed is survived by his mother, three brothers, Sam of the Katemey community; Jim, of Sulphur, La.; Clabe, who is in Dallas under treatment, and one sister, Mrs. Fred Owen, of Houston, Mo., besides other relatives and friends who are left to mourn his passing.

Funeral services were held Friday evening at 3 o'clock at Bethel, Rev. Garrett, pastor of the Baptist Church, at Katemey, conducting the services, and interment was made in the Bethel cemetery under the auspices of the Masonic Lodge.

A large crowd of friends were gathered to pay their last respects to the dead, and to extend sympathy to the bereaved family.

A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled,
God in His wisdom has recalled
The boon His love had given,
And though the body slumbers here,
The soul is safe in Heaven.
—A FRIEND.

Although, the Katemcy school was awarded second place in the community school exhibit by the judges, the people of that section are priding themselves on having received the greatest number of votes from the public. Every one entering the exhibit hall was asked to vote for the community which they thought had the best display and drop a penny in a box provided at the booth of their choice. Each penny was good for a single vote and it is announced the Katemcy booth was credited with having received 6,518 votes, against Long Mountain, which was second with 2,700. Peters Prairie was third with 1,800.

COWARDLY HUSBANDS

The average husband is a coward. The average wife is a bully. Men have either yielded to the spirit of the day and have permitted their wives to dominate the domestic circles to its disgrace, or they have practically abandoned their homes.

Consequently, they occupy one section of the city namely, the business and the club sections, the saloon or the pool hall, while the wives take a similar direction in another part of the city; the home stands between these two factors in a neglected condition.

Women have been thrown out into the world and seem to care more for the activities, excitements, gaieties and outside glares than they do for the domestic drudgery, seclusion, responsibilities and glories of home.

Women ought to be forced to go home. But their husbands are too cowardly to force them, or they are too indifferent to their responsibility, or they would rather glide or travel the road of least resistance, and let the home drift.

The home is drifting; children are roaming; wives are gadding. Their husbands are practicing fraud and dishonesty on their families. They are cowardly.

The time has come to re-establish the home with the sovereignty of the federal head, the sacredness of domestic seclusion, and the proper adjustment of domestic duties.

The dark spot in the present civilization is the neglected home. Cowardly husbands are responsible for every phase of domestic decline.

Let the men awake, reassert themselves, re-establish their homes, and build again the domestic—the national fortification—namely, a well-organized domestic circle.

The Manhattan Cafe had a big pie on display at the exhibit last week and it is said it was presented to Peters Prairie on having been awarded the first prize in the Community School exhibit.

Work is progressing quite rapidly on the highway that is under construction and which runs north to the county line via Peters Prairie. Traffic is being directed by way of Katemcy because conditions are such that cars and vehicles encounter difficulty in getting around points where work is being done. On this end of the road the concrete gang is at work preparing for culverts and slabs and a crew is at work on the highwater bridge across West Comanche Creek. It is announced a gang is at work north of the Mountain grading, and reports are that the road beyond that point is getting in fine shape. The gap in the mountain has been cut down some eight or ten feet and a grade has been thrown up for several hundred yards that will serve as an approach to the mountain from this side. It is stated the incline from the bottom to the top of the mountain will be about five per cent when the work at this point will have been completed. The piece of work at the mountain is well worth seeing and from appearance one might think the big dump being thrown us is for a railroad.

The Mason Concert Band will give a musical concert in connection with the picture show at the Star Theater next Friday night. This will be the band's first appearance in public since Prof. Newfield assumed charge as director about a month ago and it is announced a rare treat will be given on this occasion.

The local Boy Scouts rendered a valuable and appreciated service during the two days' event held in Mason last Thursday and Friday. Under the supervision of Scout Master, G. F. McDougall, the boys served as traffic cops. As a result not a single mishap or accident was recorded.

Saturday, November 11th, is Armistice Day. A feature of this memorable occasion will be a football game on the local gridiron between the Mason and Llano High School teams. So far no announcements have been made as to whether the local post of American Legion will have a program.

How Wisdom will Win

QUITE to its amazement Wall Street woke up one morning recently to find Henry Ford the richest man in the world. What amazed them most was that he had grown rich in spite of them.

Time was when Wall Street refused to help Ford, when it looked upon him as a questionable risk and wanted eleven per cent. Now Ford is propping up the plutocrats of wobbly Wall Street with a loan of nearly $200,000,000. With finer spirit he is letting them have it at four per cent.

Mr. Ford made his mammoth fortune in a clean and splendid way. It is no crime to be rich. It is not ethically wrong to acquire the greatest fortune if you have gained that fortune by helping men instead of hurting them.

John D. Rockefeller acquired a great fortune. Much of his fortune was made by the most despicable practices. He brazenly defied the laws of the land. He was not a man-helper. To gain his own ends he would cruelly crush. His ambition was to corner a commodity. He bought up hundreds of patents and suppressed them because they economized for the consumer on oil consumption.

Ford created something. He made an instrument that consumes more Rockefeller gasoline than all the oil-consuming devices known before. By his inventive mathematical and mechanical genius Mr. Ford caused an enormous increase in the Rockefeller wealth. Compared to him John D. was a one-cylinder affair.

Rockefeller is not a loved name. He is not revered. He is a very old man now. His face is crisscrossed with lines. Years ago a troubled conscience overtook him and he set out to square himself. It is possible for a man to do that—that is, if our Christian faith is practicable.

Polluted water will run itself pure; so will tainted money. Rockefeller began his substantial philanthropies by the endowment of a theological school in Rochester, New York. Then he hurled a great university into one city and a hospital into another. Since then he has been bolstering up weak colleges, creating great pedagogical and research foundations, and splendidly subsidizing a benignant life-rescue work through bacteriological laboratories, hospitals and feeding stations the wide world over.

With all his undeniable iniquities, the Rockefeller who defied our courts will die. The Rockefeller who is trying to save life all around the world and after saving it to hit it up to higher and finer altitudes, is the Rockefeller who is going to live.

What will Henry Ford do with all his fabulous wealth? Unlike Rockefeller, he has not cramped his character to get his money. He is not burdened with Rockefeller's handicap. But with all Rockefeller's handicap, Rockefeller may yet overtake Ford in the enduring race, unless Ford does more wisely with his greater wealth.

When wealth reaches beyond the proportions of supplying rational personal needs, it becomes not an asset but a responsibility.

Henry Ford has proven himself to be 100% the right-minded fortune builder. Future generations will measure him not by his ability to acquire but by his power to serve through spending.

The Rockefeller-Ford race for riches is over. Ford wins. Now the race for wise spending is on. In this great race wisdom will win.

Poem by UNCLE JOHN

If there's ever a pastime a feller holds dear, it's gatherin' nuts, in the fall of the year. The forest, arrayed in its purple an' gold, appeals to the hearts of the young an' the old. . . . A call that's resistless floats out from the trees, when the trophies drap down, at the toss of the breeze. O, there GATHERIN' ain't any pleasure that's any more dear, than NUTS gatherin' nuts—in the fall of the year. . . . The big, juicy shrapnel, from walnutty ranks—the shell-barks, a-shellin' the roisterer's tanks. . . . The hazel machine-guns, in hid-away dell, bombard the invaders with many a shell,—all, army maneuvers, with nothin' to fear—campaignin' fer nuts, in the fall of the year. . . . Then, forward,—with baskets an' gunnysacks, too,—charge on, past the medder—the fortress in view! We'll pillage the stronghold of kernel an' pod, and win, by the grace of a bountiful God. . . . Each brown-fingered trooper busts loose with a cheer, when we go after nuts, in the fall of the year.

CHRISTIAN REVIVAL

The Christian Church has secured the services of H. M. Gillmore and daughter, Miss Myrtle, of Llano to conduct their meeting. This combination of father and daughter, forming a successful Evangelistic team is a happy one. Below is given one of the many testimonials of their work.

"A splendid congregation greeted Evangelist Gillmore at the Christian Church last night. Good attention was given to his masterly sermon from beginning to end. He is not straight laced or sanctimonious, but is a man of action. He feels his sermons and his inspiration is catching. He is also a man of fine personality, and gets right to the heart of his hearers. He knows how to drive a great truth home. The paramount thought of this man of God is that Satan is the enemy of the human race, and that Jesus is that Satan is the enemy of the human race, and that Jesus Christ is our only Savior.

TREATMENT FOR SCALY LEGS

Affection is Common Among Chickens and is Caused by an Extremely Small Mite.

Scaly leg of poultry is a common and well-known affection of chickens that sometimes causes affected birds to become worthless. It is caused by an extremely small mite that works in and under the crusts that form on the legs. Caraway or sulphur ointment will kill the pests. Scales form at the point of invasion of the insect, and under them the skin is irritated and bloody. Badly affected birds walk with difficulty, and may even lose a toe; later they become thin, lose their appetites and prove worthless.

To treat scaly leg the feet and legs of affected fowls are held in warm water for several minutes, so that the crusts are softened and can be removed. A mite killer is then applied to the dry diseased surface. The following mixtures are recommended: 1. Oil of caraway, mixed in four times as much lard or vaseline; or 2. flowers of sulphur, 1/2 dram; carbonate of potash, 20 grains; and lard or vaseline, half an ounce. Some poultrymen have used a mixture of one part of kerosene and two parts of raw linseed oil with speedy effect. The legs of the affected fowls are dipped in this mixture, care being taken that the feathers are not wet.

GARBAGE FED SUCCESSFULLY

District of Columbia Poultry Farm Reports Excellent Results From Waste Material.

A poultry farm in the District of Columbia which handles about 1,000 fowls reports excellent results from the use of well-sorted garbage. This material is hauled twice a day and fed to the birds about ten o'clock in the morning and again, during the middle of the afternoon so that the table scraps are fed fresh only two or three hours after they are discarded from the kitchen. The feeding method of this poultryman is to scatter the garbage on the grass in such quantities that the fowls will clean up all the refuse. He rotates these feeding spots in such a way that no contamination results. The outstanding feature of the success of this poultryman is centralized in his painstaking selection of the garbage and the elimination of all objectionable material.

Profitable returns have resulted also from the feeding of garbage to fattening cockerels and old hens. A small flock of turkeys is maintained on this farm and the gobblers gobble their way to a front line position when garbage lunch time rolls around. The turkeys keenly relish the table scraps and abandon tender grasshoppers and succulent alfalfa in order to scamper to the feeding spots when the garbage wagon approaches.

Wife Versus Novelist

By ANNE WHITFIELD

Copyright, 1922, Western Newspaper Union

It was the discovery of Cynthia's letter in Bob's pocket that was Dorothy's storm signal. At first she cried; then she sat down to think things over.

Bob was her husband, a well-known novelist, and they had been married three years. Dorothy always remembered her conversation with Bob when he asked her to marry him.

"Bob, dear, won't you get tired of me? I can work for you and make you comfortable, but I can't share your mind."

And Bob answered: "You can give me everything I want, darling. I don't want a literary wife. Why, we'd never stop wrangling. Fancy having a wife who would want to read her plots to one every evening?"

So they were married, and they were very happy for months. But gradually her housework began to monopolize her attention more and more; then Bob made a hit with his book, and literary people began coming out to the house in the suburbs. Dorothy was never at her best with these. She did not know what they were talking about, and it all seemed absurd to her.

Cynthia's letter was not anything really to cry over. Just a friendly little note; only Dorothy had heard Bob mention her and, being a woman, she knew.

That was why she thought things over. Then, very resolutely, she went to Bob.

"Why don't you ask some friends down here for the week-ends?" she asked. "It isn't much more work for me, and I know you need companionship."

"By George, do you mean that?" he asked. "Let me see, there's Harvey Trelawney and Cynthia Murray—you'd like Cynthia. She's the author of 'Unto All Men,' you know."

It was Cynthia who came, and Dorothy sized her up in a moment. With a woman's intuition, Cynthia also sized up Dorothy. It was war to the knife between them in a moment, and Cynthia contemptuously anticipated an easy victory.

Dorothy cried a little the next morning when Bob took Cynthia for a long walk, to show her the river from the bluffs. They returned flushed from their exercise. Dorothy was flushed from the kitchen.

And that evening Bob and Cynthia sat over the fire, discussing art and beauty, while Dorothy cleared away the dinner things and washed them, and flitted in and out, arranging things, and sat down for a little and went away—to cry and powder her nose.

When she returned, about eleven, Cynthia was reading Bob her manuscript, and Bob wore a slightly worried expression.

The next day was Saturday and Dorothy was preparing a big dinner. Dorothy loved cooking, and she had a shrewd idea that it was almost as important as knowing the difference between realism and romanticism. She stuffed the chickens and she made the pies, and out of the corners of her very pretty ears she heard Bob and Cynthia having a terrible quarrel over the question of construction and characterization. When she carried in the dinner, red but triumphant, Bob and Cynthia were sulking in opposite corners of the room, like schoolchildren.

After dinner, which was a somewhat strained affair, Cynthia put forth all her efforts to win the day. "Won't you take me for a row on the river, Bob?" she asked.

Bob looked at Dorothy, who answered: "Oh, yes, do go with Cynthia, Bob, and show her the sights. I've got a lot of washing up to do, and after that I'll take my chance at a nap."

Bob growled acquiescence and they soon set off. Dorothy, watching from the garden, saw Cynthia deliberately slip her arm through Bob's, and from the set of her shoulders she knew that Cynthia knew that she was watching her.

It was an anxious afternoon for Dorothy, and she got very little sleep, for she knew that the issue was being fought out on the river that afternoon.

When they came home Bob was frigidly polite, and Cynthia was very quiet.

"Think I'll go to bed early," said Bob that evening.

"I'm tired out, too," said Cynthia, yawning. "Good-night, my dear," she said, as she kissed Dorothy. "I'm glad you've got him and not I," she whispered.

Upstairs Bob turned to Dorothy. "Thank heaven she's off in the morning," he growled. "I've had four hours of that d-d manuscript of hers this afternoon. Say, Dorothy, I don't know what stroke of luck gave you to me—I don't deserve you; but thank heaven you're not an authoress."

Fortunes Spent on Easter Eggs.

During the second French empire, the Easter egg reached its zenith of costliness and beauty, remarks the "Way of the World" columnist of the London Morning Post and it was quite the thing to spend as much as 20,000 francs on a single specimen. The most costly egg on record is said to be that presented by Napoleon III to the empress at the Easter of 1862. This truly imperial present took the form of a necklace of exquisite and flawless pearls valued at $20,000 ($100,000), inclosed in a golden egg, on which the word "Eugenie" flashed in brilliants.

LOCAL BASEBALL CLUB HAD A FAIRLY SUCCESSFUL SEASON
Won Fifteen Games and Lost Twelve Out of Twenty-Seven Played

Mason's baseball team for the season just closed has a percentage of .555 as a result of having won fifteen and lost twelve out of the total of twenty-seven games played.

The games won were from Llano, 3; Menard, 1; Junction, 5; Piquette, 2; Protobia, 2; Willow Creek, 2. The team dropped three games to Llano; 11 to Menard; 4 to Fredericksburg; 3 to Brady and 1 to the Chic-Chic team of San Antonio. Three games were also played against a local team composed of "all star" players; two were victories for the Mason team and one was a defeat. None of these are included in the averages.

Records of several games were not kept, consequently, perfectly accurate percentage figures on batting averages, fielding averages, etc. are not available. Below is published the record as complete as we are able to compile it. G. represents the number of games accounted for; AB, the number of times at bat; H, the number of hits obtained; AV, the batting average:

Player	G.	AB.	H.	AV.
P. Wartenbach	23	103	23	.223
Walter Willmann	16	62	17	.272
Emeth Keller	25	110	24	.218
O. Shearer	15	60	14	.232
H. Shearer	16	62	19	.304
Wood	17	64	17	.265
Brenzeale	16	66	9	.135
E. Schuessler	19	59	11	.187
Dannheim	18	68	16	.235
McCollum	9	32	13	.406
Alf Polk	5	14	1	.071
H. Plueneke	7	21	3	.142
H. Saunders	10	22	3	.135
Robt. Zesch	18	70	22	.314
L. Schuessler	6	16	3	.187
Mike Beyer	1	4	0	.000
Ischar	3	6	0	.000
Holt	1	3	1	.333
Miller	1	4	1	.250
Lange	1	5	1	.200
Grosse	2	6	0	.000
Ryann	1	3	1	.333
Fuller	1	3	0	.000
Larrimore	2	3	2	.667
Loring	2	6	3	.500
Willie Willmann	1	3	0	.000

Club's batting average .232

Of these twenty-five games of which we have record, Zesch pitched 10 and has credit for six wins and four losses; Saunders pitched 8 and is credited with 5 wins and 2 losses; Plueneke pitched 4 and has 2 wins and 2 losses; Polk pitched 2 and lost both; Holt pitched 1 and lost it.

Saunders' pitching record is slightly better than that of Zesch, but Zesch stands out as the hardest hitter on the team. He occupied the mound a greater portion of time than any other player. On two occasions he relieved Saunders from the mound and Saunders got credit for the wins both times. Saunders was used quite a bit as a relief pitcher, but he never had occasion to relieve Zesch. He relieved Plueneke on one occasion against Junction and received credit for the win. Zesch was relieved by Polk against the Chic-Chic team but was credited with the loss and Plueneke relieved Zesch against Brady when he was also credited with a lost game. Saunders and Zesch were the mainstays of the pitching staff but Plueneke made a good showing, considering he did not work often and he faced strong teams practically every time he occupied the mound. Polk is a splendid little pitcher and did some wonderful twirling on several occasions, but it seemed he could not get in on the wins. He held down the scores all right but his teammates always failed to get behind him and bat in runs. He is looked upon as a good moundman and no doubt he will prove a valuable asset to the club next spring. Plueneke and Zesch will get better with experience and with Saunders, "the old reliable" still in good form. Mason baseball fans can expect considerable from the twirling staff next season.

The Club's Financial Standing

For the season the club handled over one thousand dollars, to be exact the amount was $1,104.80. Of this amount $321.70 was donations. At the first of the season a subscription list was taken around and a total of $145 was contributed for the purchasing of material and equipment, also with which to purchase seats, wire screen and pay for cleaning and upkeep of grounds.

The seats and nails, bolts and other necessities purchased of R. Grosse amounted to $77. The wire screen erected and wire for hanging canvass represented an expenditure of $18.35. The grounds were worked on several times and the outfield mowed, this with other miscellaneous items in connection amounted to $37.50, making a total expenditure of $132.85 and leaving a balance of $113.10 over. The total receipts for the season including money received for going elsewhere to play and money realized from the cold drink stand amounted to $783.10 which when added to the $113.10 left over from donations, makes a total of $796.20.

Report on Amounts Paid Out

For travelling conveyances	$137.00
Hotel bills, phone calls, etc.	96.25
Am'ts to players for hits and hire of hands, etc.	65.50
Total to visiting teams	250.00
Paid for ground lease	10.00
For balls, bats, material and tax paid	89.27
Hired help, putting up canvass	28.50
Paid Mason D. Co. on acct 1921	75.00
Total Paid out	$751.52

This amount deducted from the total of $796.20 leaves us a balance on hand of $44.68.

The team is well equipped for next season, as they have this cash on hand over their seats, screen and other paraphernalia and fifteen local business firms each have contributed a suit for next year. The suits are on hand, have been paid for and they represent the very best that is made.

Following is a list of the firms who contributed a suit for next year: Eckor's Garage, Mason Ice & Power Co., Manhattan Cafe, J. J. Johnson, Commercial Bank, Sw. B. Tel. Co., Mason Drug Co., Mason National Bank, First State Bank, Sunshine Confectionery, Owl Drug Store, Hofmann Dry Goods, Wood-Baze Auto Co., Mason County News, E. Leuburg & Bro. The total amount donated to the Club for the purchase of these suits was $175.75 and when added to the total receipts amounting to $783.10 and the first donation of $145.95 the grand total amounts to $1,104.80, which was handled by the Club for the season.

PAINFULLY HURT BY A DEER

Last Thursday, Mrs. John Hoff, an aged woman who lives at the Altenheim, was painfully hurt by a pet deer belonging to Anton Bohnert.

The deer is a doe and now has a young fawn beside it, and occasionally they wander into the grounds of the Altenheim. Mrs. Hoff attempted to pet the fawn, and the doe, mistaking the old lady's friendly intention, attacked her and after knocking her down cut her on the body in a number of places with its sharp fore feet.

Mrs. Hoff was given medical attention and is not thought to be seriously injured, though she is still confined to her bed. She is 75 years of age.—Comfort News.

GIVES BIRTH TO FIVE CHILDREN IN TEN MONTHS

Baird, Texas, Oct. 12.—What is believed to be the record for births is held by Mrs. M. N. Young, of Clyde, in Callahan county, who has given birth to five healthy children within the past ten months.

On December 21, 1921, Mrs. Young gave birth to triplets. A few days ago twins, a boy and a girl, were born. Previously she had given birth to twins and five single children.

The entire family of 12 children are said to be perfectly normal and healthy. Neither the father nor mother has yet reached the thirty-fifth birthday.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to all those who helped with the dinner last Friday. Especially do we thank Mr. Otto Schmidt for the use of the building, and Mr. R. Grosse for the use of his lumber, and the Mason Ice & Power Co. for the fans and lights.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY

INTERESTING FACTS

The following statement will be interesting to the people of Mason and Mason County:

According to statistical reports in the recent annual Conference held in Lampasas, Texas, Mason Charge had the largest increase in membership of any Charge in the Kerrville District.

Statistics also show that the Mason Charge raised for all purposes $6,772 against Kerrville, which was the next highest in the District with $3,976. This gives Mason a lead of $2,796.

Another thing of interest to our people is that the Woman's Missionary Society of Mason raised over $800 during the year. This is by far the highest in the District.

Mason ranks third in Sunday schools with Kerrville in the lead and Boerne as close second. The figures are as follows:

Kerrville—Members in S. S., 346; raised $471.

Boerne—Members in S. S., 309; raised $301.

Mason—Members in S. S., 300; raised $300.

The Methodists in the Mason Charge are alive.

Watch the little folks speed home for Kellogg's Corn Flakes

"Mudder, I always wins the race when I hurry home Kellogg's Corn Flakes. I can't hardly wait till I have some quick, snudder!"

It's great to see child-enthusiasm for Kellogg's; great to see every one in the family enjoy their crisp crunchiness and wonderful flavor! To sit down before a heaping bowlful of these joyous oven-browned "sweet-hearts-of-the-corn" and some milk or cream—and fresh fruit, if it's handy—is just about the very last word in appetizing appeal! And, your good taste will prove that!

Kellogg's Corn Flakes ought to be superior—they are the original Corn Flakes! Kellogg's are never tough or leathery; never hard to eat; never a disappointment!

Be certain to get Kellogg's—the delicious kind of Corn Flakes in the RED and GREEN package—because none are genuine without the signature of W. K. Kellogg, the originator of Toasted Corn Flakes.

The News has been advised that the Missionary Society of the local M. E. Church took in gross receipts amounting to $155 at the dinner given in Mason last Friday at the Star Opera House.

The dinner was served at a cost of 35 and 50 cents and as the occasion was held on the last day of the Mason County Agricultural Exhibit, a great attendance was enjoyed, and it is believed a greater amount would have been taken in had the society been able to handle the crowd.

GREEK SOLDIERS REVOLT AND STORM PALACE

Mitlyene.—All Greece, including her islands, are aflame with the revolution on this historic island in the Aegean sea.

Seventy-five thousand disaffected soldiers were driven out of Smyrna by the forces of Mustapha Kemal Pasha, stormed the governor general's palace and imprisoned all the officials, including the governor and Generals Braca and Franzo. They took possession of the telegraph lines and of the radio, so that Athens would not know a revolt was under way. Their next move was to seize the port officers and to take over command of the battleships Lemnos and Kilkos.

Then they commandeered all the vessels in the harbor, including the Greek Trans-atlantic liners Megali Hellas and Patris. Before embarking for Piraeus on these vessels the soldiers paraded the streets with Venizelist banners and effigies of King Constantine.

Shouting "Down with Constantine," and "We want Crown Prince George," the troops fired revolvers and sang the "Venizelist hymn." While these demonstrations were in progress, 60,000 fugitives from Smyrna suffering from fright, hunger and exposure, were too stunned or dejected to participate in the insurrection.
