The Caloric Fireless Stoves

LET US DEMONSTRATE THE VALUE OF THESE FIRELESS WONDERS—WILL ADD YEARS TO THE BUSY WIFE—COME AND SEE!

ATTENTION SHOULD BE GIVEN TO GOOD ROADS IN STATE OF NEW MEXICO

Legislature Will Consider the Necessity of Better Roads

Useless to Bond State and County for Construction

All over the United States the people of the city as well as the farmer are making a cry for good roads as it is a benefit to both. In the east the states are giving "round the state tours" and trips from the north to the south and west. New Mexico is soon to open up an automobile highway, and wherever possible this should be done in every community.

The economic loss due to bad roads is beyond computation and the indifference of the general public toward and projected improvement of our highways is not easily understood, especially here where the land is naturally level and when the roads are once put in good condition they will remain good for a long time. Each owner of property must be held accountable for the condition of the highways of this locality.

To make good roads so that products of the farm are easily and quickly brought to this market is to increase the value of every farm along those roads and is practically to increase the farmers facilities and lessen the expenses; at the same time making the town larger and a better market for farm produce.

If every citizen should see in actual money the financial return on his investment in good roads he would contribute his share with alacrity. He has bought improved farm implements and adopted modern methods in order to increase the output of his land. But the marketing of his products is still seriously handicapped by the defective highways. The actual investment in improving the roads to market are just as direct and even more prompt than improved implements and late methods.

In these days of automobiles good roads open up a much wider range of vision for the rural inhabitants and the same conditions that enable our residents to visit other sections induces residents of other communities to visit this locality. And remember that we will not be hurt any in the comparison of the two places by the visitor. This inter-communication results in a kind of advertising that inevitably increases the value of the property by bringing in desirable purchasers. In fact, the results accruing from the building of good roads comprise an endless chain of benefits to the community that builds the roads. So let us get these "breastworks" out of the streets of Portales, even if we do not open up thoroughfares.

It would be a good idea to have a permanent good road organization in every county in the state and elect road supervisors to take complete charge of the work and see that every one pays road tax or does the proper amount of work on the county roads.

Governor's Daughter Marries

Alomogordo, N. M., April 8.—Governor W. C. McDonald, highest official of this state, has been defied. It was his only single daughter, Frances, who issued the defy to the first governor of the youngest state. She was married Saturday afternoon to Thurman A. Spencer, private secretary to W. C. McDonald, head, horns and hoofs of the Carrizozo Cattle company, who is governor McDonald, when he is in Santa Fe.

Miss McDonald is the governor's youngest daughter. As such she has ruled the McDonald household, including the governor, since she was big enough to issue commands. At the inauguration of her father as governor, Miss McDonald was referred to by the Santa Fe papers as "the governette" and she was accused of having an influence over the newly elected governor stronger than political party leaders.

Miss McDonald was in El Paso with her mother last week. Mrs. McDonald was having some new dresses fitted and Miss Frances was with her. Her father was at Carrizozo during the time she and her mother were in El Paso. Governor McDonald called her on the long distance telephone and informed her that she was to stay there with her mother and that they should both come home together. Mr. Spencer, who was in charge of the governor's private business, went to El Paso to see Miss McDonald. She disobeyed her father's injunction to stay with her mother and returned to Carrizozo Wednesday and she and Spencer came here Saturday afternoon and were quietly married, with no one but Mrs. C. Le Bregon, the minister's wife, to witness the ceremony.

While the governor had nothing against Spencer as a son-in-law, he did not wish his daughter to be married at this time, it is said here.

Miss McDonald is a half sister of Mrs. M. B. Parker and Mrs. J. J. McCourt, of El Paso. The couple will probably live at the McDonald home in Carrizozo, which is one of the finest in New Mexico.—El Paso Herald.

NATIONAL GUARDS OF FORTY-THREE STATES NOW READY FOR ACTION

New Mexico Guards May Be Next to Cross the Border

Preparations Being Made for Immediate Call to Front

Washington, April 7.—So complete are the plans for intervention in Mexico by the United States that militia authorities in every state have been instructed as to how and where their troops shall be mobilized. On the authority of an officer who has seen these plans the statement is made that sites for great camps—one at Mobile, Ala., another at San Antonio and the third at San Diego—have been selected. It is proposed that one army, embarking from Mobile, shall invade Mexico from the eastern coast. A second army, embarking from San Diego, will invade Mexico from the west coast. From San Antonio the third army will move south across the Rio Grande.

The camp at Mobile will include troops from New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Ohio and Kentucky. It is proposed to consolidate the troops of Ohio and Kentucky into one division instead of permitting them to remain a division and one brigade, as at present organized. One regiment of Ohio troops will be permitted to remain at home.

At San Antonio will gather troops from Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, Kansas, Nebraska, North Dakota and South Dakota.

At San Diego troops will mobilize from Montana, Utah, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California.

On March 20th, Secretary Stimson advised the judge advocate general, Brigadier General Enoch Crowder, that he desired to know if a law existed by which he would be enabled to draft 100,000 militia into the service of the United States. General Crowder reported that he could find no such law.

Not satisfied with this ruling, Secretary Stimson appealed to Attorney General Wickersham for his interpretation of the law. The attorney general endorsed the findings of the judge advocate general.

Under the necessity for quick action, Secretary Stimson thereupon instructed General Crowder to formulate such legislation as would enable him to draft the militia into service of the United States. Such a bill was drawn and quietly introduced into the house by Representative Pepper of Iowa. Within the past week a number of secret hearings on the bill have been held. Secretary Stimson himself testified in its behalf.

Secret as were the plans, the militia of the United States quickly awoke to the fact that under its provisions the regiments of the various states were recognized, but the general organization of the militia was cast aside.

Reports from Mexico say the Americans in some remote parts are in daily fear of massacre.

The whole army can be mobilized within three days.—El Paso Times.

Sufficient Moisture for Crops

Last Saturday afternoon and night a good slow, soaking shower fell. Again on Monday we had about an inch of rain. This rain combined with the snows and rains that have fallen here all winter make the dry farmer here wear a smile that won't come off. Things are indeed looking bright for a bumper crop under the dry farm system this year.

Most of the farmers have been here several years and have grown crops under less favorable circumstances. It is generally conceded that the ground has more moisture in it now than it has had during the preceding three years.

In the rural districts where the land is not yet subject to irrigation the farmers are all busy getting the ground in readiness for spring planting.

It is expected that bigger crops of broom corn, kafir corn and milo maize will be raised this year than have been raised for the past four years, because of the amount of moisture already on hand and the farmers are more experienced in saving moisture.

The Portales Valley has withstood the years when she had no irrigation plant and when rain was so scarce that grain when planted would not sprout. Now she has six thousand acres that will be under irrigation under the supervision of experienced men and the prospects of raising an abundance of grain by dry farming. There's just thirty-four thousand acres that have shallow water that can be irrigated as soon as developed. The land is virgin soil that extends to a depth of from one to twenty feet.

Portales, little more than twelve years old, is already a thriving city with electric lights and water works and has already taken a place among the leading towns.

There are great opportunities offered business and professional men, farmers and mechanics in eastern New Mexico and especially Portales and the Portales Valley. Here we have the finest climate that is to be found anywhere. Three hundred days in the year the sun sheds its kindly rays in undimmed splendor. Many of the inhabitants of this country who have, in the past, come here for their health are so greatly elated because of a perfect body that they have been inspired with the "hopes of youth" and vigor to such an extent that they make the assertions that they would not live anywhere else in the world.

Truly, nowhere on earth are greater opportunities offered to the industrious people who have pitched their tents here to either rise or fall with New Mexico.

There is every reason to believe that within the next few years this Portales Valley will be populated with a healthy, contented and prosperous people.

J R Darnell Reappointed

Last week, J. R. Darnell, the former publisher of the Herald, was re-appointed to the office of United States commissioner at Elida, New Mexico.

Mr. Darnell has been the commissioner there for the past two years and evidently knows the business or he would not have been re-appointed. The Herald wishes him success.

Cantata at Methodist Church

Sunday evening, at the Methodist church, the choir, with the aid of a few of the town local talent, rendered a cantata. This was one of the most elaborate programs that has ever been given here and very likely music of this class has never been attempted in the southwest at all outside of a city of the size of El Paso. The music showed that time and trouble had not been spared to have it the best, and those who failed to attend missed a rare treat.

The church was packed. Chairs were placed in the aisles and then quite a few were forced to stand as sitting room was not available.

A silver offering was taken to help defray the expenses of the music purchased for the occasion and something over fourteen dollars was raised.

A. S. Brooks Reappointed

Tuesday Governor McDonald reappointed A. S. Brooks as Adjutant General over the New Mexico National Guards.

This will be a great benefit to the New Mexico Militia, and the reason that the National Guards are as well trained and drilled as they are is attributed to the effort of Adjutant General Brooks.

Adjutant Brooks is one of the best qualified men for the place in the United States, being a graduate of West Point, and distinguished himself in active service where he ranked as Captain.

Business Meeting of U. D. C.

Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. C. V. Harris entertained the United Daughters of the Confederacy at her home.

As this is the anniversary of the Battle of Shiloh, the program consisted of reading by Mrs. Sledge, Mrs. Seay, Mrs. Monroe, Miss Bryant and Mrs. Mears on that subject.

After the business meeting and the program a luncheon of punch, cake, frozen plum pudding and mints were served.

Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Goodrich were the invited guests of the afternoon.

Mrs. Tyson rendered a beautiful violin obligata accompanied by Mrs. Nixon on the piano.

Monday evening the Masons of Portales and vicinity met in their hall at eight o'clock and John D. Corhn took the third degree, going one step higher in free masonry.

Masonic Banquet

After the initiation the members of the lodge, marched, in file, to the Commercial club rooms to partake of the dainty but elaborate banquet that the ladies of the city had prepared in their honor.

Between seventy-five and eighty, including visitors and the ladies that were present. Dr. Murrell, A. A. Beeman, John Ballow and J. R. Darnell were visitors from the Elida lodge.

DEMOCRATIC IN POLITICS

"Portales Wet" Again

Up and down the Pecos Valley all the towns will remain dry with the exception of Portales, the wets winning there.—Roswell Record.

We are at a loss to know why Roswell is so anxious to advertise the fact that Portales has gone wet, unless it is that misery loves company and they are trying to get someone to sympathize with her. No, Roswell, Portales has not gone wet yet. Our city election had nothing to do with the prohibition question as far as having open saloons. That question will come before the people if we are allowed to vote upon it under the laws under which we are incorporated.

If we have saloons we will be ready to put on morning, fall on your neck and try to find some solace. We do not care about doing that though until we are compelled to and know that we can not keep saloons out by law. We sympathize with you though and we are sorry that the cause you so valiantly and rightfully fought was lost. We hope that the people of your town will finally see the error of their votes and that you will triumph in the end. But we will not weep with you yet as we still have hope of maintaining a town free from saloons.

Doings of Legislature

The first week of the month was a dead one in a legislative way and, the second week is being largely taken up with the bribery charges against four members of the house, but if the legislators did lay off as to legislation the political side of the business was kept alive, with something to spare.

It developed that the republican bosses engaged in that "moral uplift" work which resulted in the charges of bribery against four members of the House were lobbying to have the men unseated, regardless of the evidence in the case, claiming that it would be a reflection upon them to have them remain in the House. It was also discovered that the majority of the people in the western counties, where these republican leaders are best known, sympathize with the accused, and are urging that they be given fair play, which they will not get from the republican leaders.

The drawing of the short senatorial term by Fall has started another muss over the election of Fall for a second time. Naturally, Fall wants another six years and is trying to force the legislature into acting before adjourning this session, but besides a strong objection upon the part of many legislators there is some question of its legality. Catron would stand no earthly show for re-election by this legislature, and it is safe to bet that Fall does not desire the election to be put off until he gets his seat warm in this term. The republican bosses realize that they did not get a safe margin enough to indicate any real people's choice business for them in the election of senators. The prohibition people are strenuously denying the reports that they will accept a compromise on a local option measure. They want it distinctly understood that they are not compromising anything; that they believe the people have the right to decide the prohibition amendment business for themselves and that until there is a vote on the amendment there will be war. They point out that at the big meeting in the Hall of representatives they were instructed to continue this fight to a finish, and at the special request of the head of the Anti-saloon League that organization was included in the resolution. They insist that this binds all prohibition organizations in the state now making any active fight.

The republican machine measures to take appointive offices away from the governor are not as popular as was anticipated, and the indications are that the independent republicans of both houses will refuse to permit such measures to be made "party" propositions. Some of them say that if they permit the party managers to make "party" measures of such bills that they will be doing the same thing with a number of land scheme bills and bond propositions, in which it is well known party leaders have thrifty interests.

There is a rumor going around to the effect that the bosses had the long adjournment taken through fear of developments in the legislative bribery matter, which draws attention to the fact that every effort was made through the hearing, by attorneys on both sides, to keep out the names of any senatorial candidates, and the people are beginning to ask questions. It was understood that the investigation was to "go to the bottom," and since attention has been drawn to the failure to do so there is some unfavorable comment.

From the general conversation heard in the hotel lobbies it is believed that there will be no Roosevelt sentiment shown in the New Mexico delegation to Chicago, unless the Colonel makes a better showing than he made in the states already heard from. The New Mexico delegates are going to ride in the band wagon with the big noise, and the failure of the Colonel to make good has caused his "half" of that delegation to become the possessors of active doubts as to their being for him after all.

OSTEOPATHY

Owing to the fact that Osteopathy is practically a new treatment, there are many who think it is only applicable to a few diseases, which is a very great mistake. I am giving an outline of the different parts of the body the diseases of which are successfully treated by Osteopaths. Diseases of the eye, ear, nose, throat, lungs, heart, stomach, intestines, liver spleen, kidneys, bladder, bones, joints, muscles, nerves, blood. All diseases of women--menstrual disorders, ovarine troubles, milk leg, backache, headache. Attend confinement cases, meet the emergencies that may arise. Treat all diseases of children including tonsillitis, diphtheria, scarlet fever, croup, whooping cough. Recommend and do surgical operations when necessary. Treat the contagious and infectious diseases--typhoid fever, pneumonia, small pox, measles, mumps, meningitis, infantile paralysis, grip.

I make a thorough examination of each case using both the Osteopathic and Medical methods of examination and diagnosis. I treat only those cases that I can cure or benefit. I do not claim to cure cancer, advanced cases of tuberculosis, but there are many other diseases that medicine fails to cure that can be cured by Osteopathic treatment. If you have an ailment of any kind come and see me or arrange for me to come and see you regardless of the trouble or the amount of treatment you have had. If the case is incurable I will be honest enough to tell you so. Charges reasonable. Patients treated at their homes when necessary. Office hours 9 a. m. to 12 a. m. and 1 p. m. to 3 p. m.
